THE OLD RELIABLE.
The Canada Life
Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder:"
When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5 040,188, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calendar year, the result of which would be to reduce the ensuing one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would curtail it considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $840,188 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525,000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300,000 for twelve months, thus an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management.
GEO. A. COX, General Agent.

The following resolution was passed at the last meeting of Jubilee lodge of 'Prentice Boys:—

Signed on behalf of the lodge,

Excelsior!

Any school boy will tell you that "excelsior" in the Latin for "higher." It expresses literally Mr. J. J. Sheehy's direction of progress in commercial life. After entering upon and building up a tidy general dry goods business at 415 George street, which has continuously been expanding, he now makes another rise. He has purchased the remaining stock and the lease of the late John Hackett's store 385 George street. As soon as Mr. Sheehy has taken stock in his old premises in the Leoh block, he will remove to his new premises in the Hackett store. The store will be stocked in a thorough and complete manner with a splendid and complete stock of new goods. Mr. Sheehy is to be congratulated upon the prosperity that smiles upon him. He has been successful in business because he started right. After acquiring as subordinate, in the shop where he is now chief, a thorough knowledge of the dry goods business, he graduated from the EXAMINER sanctum, and taking with him the principles of integrity, square dealing and knowledge of human nature learned there, to these he added his natural geniality, affability and courteous bearing, and his success was assured. Mr. Sheehy is a thorough business man, and from a small beginning, within the space of less than five years, has built up a splendid business and won a large circle of patronage, both of which will be increased in the enlarged area for his energies which his new premises (385 George street) will afford. The EXAMINER joins Mr. Sheehy's numerous friends in wishing him the fullest measure of success.

In Grippe's Embrace.

Another Installment of Epidemic Victims—The School Closed Down in Consequence of the Unusual Absence of Scholars.

From all over the district come reports of the wide spread ravages of la grippe. The Campbellford Herald was unable to issue because all its staff are down with the disease.

In Peterborough the grippe goes merrily on in its course. New victims are laid low every day. Yesterday a Simcoe street grocery store had to put up its shutters. The clerks were all down, and at last the proprietor had to give in, and there being no one to look after the shop he closed up and went home.

The epidemic is making great ravages in the schools. The Central and South Ward schools closed at noon to-day. Out of 280 registered pupils at the South Ward only 120 were present, and as some of the teachers had symptoms of la grippe, it was deemed advisable to close down. At the Central school only four of the teachers were able to be present, and as the classes were only half their usual size, the school was closed at noon. The West Ward is still running, but may have to close if the epidemic continues to grow.

Regular work is going on at the Collegiate Institute, though from one-half to one-third of the pupils are away. Mr. Fife, Master of Mathematics, and drill instructor Randle were on the sick list to-day.

This morning when Mr. C. B. Routley came up town he found the store closed and had to open up himself. All the clerks were laid up for repairs.

Mr. Geo. Edmison had an attack of la grippe, which was followed by inflammation. He is convalescent. Mrs. Edmison is ill, and all the family have been down with the epidemic.

Mr. E. H. D. Hall is among the latest victims.

Chief of Police Rousel went home this morning considerably "under the weather."

There was no meeting of the Separate school board last night on account of la grippe. Messrs. McNamara, McGrath and Archambault are laid up, and Dr. Brennan is so busy attending patients he could not be present.

The performance of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" has been postponed, a number of the cast being hors de combat.

Mr. J. W. Brisbin is able to be around again, but Mrs. Brisbin and the remainder of the family are still confined to the house.

Miss Dolly Kincaid is quite low with the disease.

Mr. A. McFarlane and family are in the grasp of la grippe.

Manager Manson and Messrs. Burt and Smith, of the Bank of Commerce, and Messrs. Strickland and Montgomery, of the Bank of Montreal, are off duty.

Eight more men went off at the Wm. Hamilton works to-day. This makes nearly thirty who have been laid up with the popular complaint.

A sad case has come to light in Ashburnham. A man who recently moved into the village from Lakefield was to-day sent to the hospital by the authorities. He is suffering severely from la grippe, and his wife and children are also down with the disease. They were in the most destitute circumstances until relieved by the authorities. There was no wood nor fuel in the house, and the inmates were too sick to go out for any.

There are only three or four students of the Business College absent on account of illness.

Special to the EXAMINER:—The Bottom of the Sea, Jan. 17th, 1890. There are 1,001 cases of the grippe down here. (Sgd) MC-GINTY.

The Norwood Register says:—"La Grippe," that Russian scourge which has been ravaging Europe during the past couple of months has struck Norwood. One doctor reports forty cases already.

OSHAWA Jan. 16.—The influenza epidemic is raging here, and the people are becoming greatly alarmed. Five deaths have occurred since yesterday noon. A number of stores are closed, owing to the employees being laid up.

Women Workers.

Annual Meeting of Lady Missionary Workers—Report of the Past Year's Business.

The annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Peterborough, was held in Port Hope Tuesday, the Times says, a large attendance of delegates and other visitors being present. Among them were the following:

Peterborough — Mrs. VanEvery, Mrs. Innes, Miss Paterson and Miss Moore.

Lakefield—Miss Walton.

Bobcaygeon—Mrs. Craigie.

Centreville—Mrs. E. Waddell, Mrs. Fair, Mrs. Armstrong and Miss Fair.

Garden Hill—Mrs. Jamieson and Mrs. Hamil.

Cobourg—Mrs. N. F. McNachtan, Mrs. Fra'k Ber. Hegarty, Mrs. Kellagh, Misses Fee and Russell.

Grafton—Mrs. Johnston and Mrs. Fraser.

Colborne—Miss Rutherford and Miss Fletcher.

Baltimore—Miss Gilchrist, Miss Mann and Miss Haig.

Coldsprings—Mrs. Richie, Miss McLeod and Miss Horseburg.

Orillia—Mrs. Grant.

A morning session was held for the election of officers and other business. The officers for the ensuing year are:—

PRESIDENT—Miss Roger, Peterborough.

SECRETARY—Mrs. Craick, Port Hope.

TREASURER—Mrs. Hay, Cobourg.

V. PRESIDENTS—Mrs. Waddell, Centreville; Mrs. Fairbairn, Peterborough; Mrs. Thompson, Hastings; Mrs. Lord, Grafton.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

A large number of ladies assembled in the Y.M.C.A. hall, though many familiar faces were absent on account of the prevailing sickness. The President occupied the chair. The Secretary's report and the financial statement of the Treasurer showed the society making progress along the lines. Membership 702 in 17 Auxiliaries and 9 Mission Bands. Aggregate contributions, $1,541.11. Contributions in clothing were sent to the North-West Indians valued at $400 00.

An address of welcome was presented to the delegates by Mrs. Coleman. Kindly words of sympathy were spoken by ladies representing sister societies in St. John's and the Baptist churches.

The President's annual address followed, after which a thoughtful and suggestive paper was read by Mrs. Grant, of Orillia, on "Gratitude as a motive power." The educational, civil and ecclesiastical advantages of Canadian Presbyterian women were pointed out, the blessings of health, home, friends and above all the blessings which the Gospel brings in its train, were emphasized as motives of gratitude, the test and outcome of which must be sacrifice.

Mrs. N. F. McNeachtan, of Cobourg, in her "paper," which may be characterized as brilliant and comprehensive, took as her subject, "The Claims of Foreign Missions on the Women of Canada." After passing in rapid review the various features of social and educational progress which mark the present century, the writer took up the various avenues made by those who are either indifferent to, or out of sympathy with the cause of Foreign Missions, combatting them in a very able manner.

Mrs. Roche, of Port Hope, and Miss Gilchrist, of Baltimore, assisted with the devotional exercises. The Misses Chisholm and Richardson contributed to the interest of the meeting by rendering a missionary duet. The ladies then adjourned to the Presbyterian Hall for tea, where they were joined by the members of the Presbytery, and were served cleverly and gracefully by the members of the two local Mission Bands.

EVENING MEETING.

Mill Street Church was well filled, and those who were present had the privilege of listening to two excellent addresses by the Rev. J. B. Smith, of India, and the Rev. Mr. Johnson, of Lindsay. Dr. Robertson, of Winnipeg, took up a short time in advancing the claims of the Northwest upon the sympathy and funds of the church. These he showed to be very urgent and very pressing

News Nuggets.

—A meeting of the Separate School Board will be held Monday night.

—The annual meeting of St. Andrew's church, which was to have been held last night, was postponed till the last Thursday of the month.

—In yesterday's issue the types stated that Mr. J. J. Sheehy's tender for the Hackett stock was accepted because it was the "lowest." This was obviously an error. Mr. Sheehy's was the highest tender.

Mr. John Garvey, of London, arrived in town yesterday, and left on the evening train for Oxford in response to a telegram announcing the illness of his mother.

The Baptist Church.

Annual Congregational Meeting—Reports of the Year's Progress.

The annual meeting of the congregation of the Murray street Baptist church was held last night. There was a fair attendance. The pastor, Rev. P. G. Parker, occupied the chair.

Reports were read by the Clerk and Treasurer. The Clerk, Mr. V. Eastwood, in his report gave a synopsis of the year's church work, which showed a gratifying progression in all departments. There had been an increase of 36 per cent. in the membership.

Mr. S. Curtis, Treasurer, in his statement showed a satisfactory state of the finances, a small balance remaining on hand after all indebtedness had been wiped off.

The proposal to erect a new church building in the south ward was discussed. The matter was left in the hands of a committee. The congregation has hopes of being able to buy a suitable lot in the South Ward and erecting thereon a meeting house for church and Sunday school services, for the convenience of members living in the South Ward.

It was also decided to engage Mr. A. F. Hoover as choir leader and organist.

The officers were then elected as follows:

CLERK—V. Eastwood.

TREASURER—S. Curtis.

USHERS—F. Matthews, L. Croly, R. J. Kidd and V. Eastwood.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE—The five deacons, the clerk and Messrs R.J. Kidd, H.Grandy, Jas. Stratton, Dr. Scott, M. R. Kidd, E. Elcome and W. Anderson.

Address and Presentation.

Mr. O. C. Rowe Remembered by His Associates.

On Thursday evening the officers and teachers of Charlotte Street Methodist Church called on Mr. O. C. Rowe, superintendent of the Sunday school, and presented him with a complimentary address and an arm chair in polished antique oak, handsomely carved and upholstered in goblin blue silk plush. The chair, which is a highly artistic bit of furniture, was furnished by Mr. A. Clegg and is in his usual good style. The following is the address:—

MR. O. C. ROWE, Superintendent Charlotte Street Sunday School:—

The officers and teachers of the Charlotte street Sunday school, take this occasion to express our high appreciation of the valuable services you have given the school since you assumed the superintendency. To your uniform kindness, unfaltering tact and patience, your faithfulness and devotion, are largely due the success of the past two years and the very flourishing condition of the school at the present time.

As officers and teachers we are aware, to some extent, how heavy have been the responsibilities you have to bear, how many the discouragements you have had to meet, and at the same time we wish you to know that we appreciate and sympathise with you; but in the midst of it all, you have appeared to forget self in the needs of others, and have been constant in your encouragement and unceasing in your efforts to cheer and inspire. We wish you to accept this easy chair, as a slight token of the great esteem in which you are held by us, and as a recognition of your self-denying devotion to the school. We also wish to assure you that with greater interest and devotion, we seek in the coming year to support, assist and second you in the work of the school, and we venture to remind ourselves and you, that in the field where are fewest encouragements, is the room and the opportunity for the grandest heroism. We hope, while seated in this chair, planning and praying for the school, it will be an inspiration to you to remember that, kinglier than a king is he who sits enthroned in the affections of his followers, and the richest of riches are the treasures laid up in heaven.

Signed on behalf of the officers and teachers,

(MISS) EDITH HAMILTON,
(MISS) D. IVISON,
I. RICHARDSON.

The address was read by Mrs. T. Brooks, and Mr. W.G. Morrow, secretary, presented the chair.

Mr. Rowes made a suitable and feeling reply, in which he expressed his surprise and thanks at the kindness of his friends. The gathering then broke up.

Ashburnham Brevities.

St. Luke's Young Men's Guild held their regular weekly meeting Thursday night.

The smoke stack on one of the chimneys of St. Luke's church, was blown over by the gale the other day.

La grippe is in full possession of most of the families of the village, there being very few where there are not two or more patients.

The young ladies of this burg, are anxious to know if "la-hug" is a new discovery made by the genial young reporter of the EXAMINER. They are of the unanimous opinion that the cure has been suggested from actual experience by himself.

The first meeting of the school board since the election of the three new members, was held Wednesday evening in the school room. The full board consisting of Messrs. Calcutt, Adams, Glover, Rooney, Ingram and Peck were present. Mr. C. Calcutt was unanimously elected chairman, for the present year. After the new members signed the declaration of office, a discussion of matters in general took places. It was suggested by the board that after the council vacates the present room used by them, that it be opened up for the accommodation of children at noon hour, who bring their dinner, or who come early. An account of Mr. John Wood's of $2 for acting as returning officer at trustee election, and one of $90 for seats, were ordered to be paid. Messrs. Peck and Rooney were appointed a committee to define the duties of the janitor and report at the next meeting which will be held on the first Tuesday of February.

The municipal council meets for the first time this year on Monday evening next.

Over Twelve Years Established.

A live and well established grocery and provision business for sale. R. H. Green, on account of continued ill-health, has decided to sell his entire stock of groceries, provisions, &c., en bloc, at a bargain, to a suitable purchaser. The goods are nearly all new, well assorted and bought at the lowest possible wholesale prices. The stock, furnishings, horse, rigging, &c., will amount to about twelve hundred dollars, but will be reduced considerably within the next few weeks (if I don't meet with a wholesale purchaser in the meantime), as I am now retailing them at a great sacrifice. Parties wanting good fresh groceries, provisions, &c., for the holiday season will find it to their advantage to call before buying elsewhere, as decided bargains will be given. The goods must be sold. R. H. GREEN, corner of Hunter and Aylmer streets, Peterborough. Dec. 3rd. w47tuf

The Speech From the Throne.

The following is the full text of the speech from the throne, delivered by his Excellency at the opening of the fourth session of the sixth Dominion Parliament on Thursday.

The speech from the throne was read in English and French by his Excellency, as follows:—

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate:
Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

In calling you together again for the consideration of public affairs, I may fairly congratulate you on a continuance of the progress and prosperity of the country. Since this season I visited Manitoba and the North-west Territories and British Columbia, and everywhere I found myself received with the loyalty and good-will which I have learned to be characteristic of Canada. A comparison of my own observations with those of my predecessors shows clearly the great progress which has marked this part of the Dominion, in the settlement of the country and in the development of its great agricultural capabilities, of its mineral wealth, and of its other natural resources.

In consequence of the repeated seizures by the cruisers of the United States navy of Canadian vessels while employed in the capture of seals in that part of the Northern Pacific ocean known as Behring sea, my Government has strongly represented to her Majesty's ministers the necessity of protecting our shipping while engaged in their lawful calling, as well as of guarding against the assumption by any nation of exclusive proprietary rights in those waters. I feel confident that those representations have had due weight, and I hope to be enabled during the present session to assure you that all differences on this question are in the course of satisfactory adjustment.

Having observed the close attention which has recently been given by the imperial authorities and on the continent of Europe to the improvement in the methods of catching, curing, and packing fish, I deem it expedient to cause a commission to be sent to Scotland and Holland to examine and report upon this subject during the fishing season. The report of the delegates will be laid before you. It will, I am sure, give our fishermen most valuable information and instruction as to the best means of improving and developing this important industry.

My ministers have carefully considered the difficulties which surround the administration of the rights of the Dominion in its foreshores, harbors, lakes and rivers, and a measure will be submitted to you for removing uncertainty as to the respective rights of the Dominion and of the provinces, and for preventing confusion in the title thereto.

The report of the royal commission on labor, which was laid before you during the last session, has been distributed throughout the country. I have reason to believe that the information which it contains will be found eminently useful in suggesting improvements in the administration of the laws which affect the working classes. Measures for the amendment of those laws so far as they come within the jurisdiction of the Parliament of Canada, will be submitted for your consideration.

The early termination of the Acts of incorporation of the principal banking institutions of the Dominion necessitates a review of our present system of banking and an adjustment of the terms under which the charters of these corporations should be renewed. Your attention will be drawn to this important subject.

Certain amendments to the Acts relating to the North-west Territories calculated to facilitate the administration of affairs in that region, as also a bill further to promote the efficiency of the North-west Mounted Police, will be submitted for your consideration.

Measures will be laid before you relating to bills of exchange and promissory notes, to improve the laws respecting patents of invention and discovery, to amend the Adulteration Act and the law respecting the inland revenue, to amend also the Act respecting the geological and natural history survey of Canada, and to provide for the better organization of the national printing establishment.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

The accounts for the past year will be laid before you. It will be found that the estimates of revenue have been realised, and that, after having fully provided for the various public services of the country, a substantial surplus will remain. The estimates for next year have been framed with a due regard to the requirements of the public service.

Honorable Gentlemen of the Senate:
Gentlemen of the House of Commons:

I commit these weighty matters, and all others which may come before you, to your earnest consideration, and I rely upon your wisdom and prudence to deal with them in the manner which, under Divine Providence, may prove most conducive to the happiness and prosperity of Canada.

Influence of Electric Light on Plants.

In the course of a recent lecture before the Royal Society, England, Dr. Siemens' placed a pot of budding tulips in the full brightness of the electric light in the meeting room, and in about forty minutes the buds had expanded into full bloom. Dr. Siemens' experiments have been made with quick-growing seeds and plants, like mustard, carrots, swedes, beans, cucumbers and melons. The pots, the lecturer stated, were divided into four groups, one of which was kept entirely in the dark, one was exposed to the influence of the electric light only, one to the influence of daylight only, and one to daylight and electric light in succession. The electric light was applied for six hours each evening—from 5 to 11—and the plants were then left in darkness during the remainder of the night. The general result was that the plants kept entirely in the dark soon died; those exposed to the electric light only or to daylight only throve about equally, and those exposed to both day and electric light throve far better than either.

A Promoter of Diphtheria.

The medical profession has begun to regard seriously the theory recently promulgated that the smoke of burning kerosene oil has much to do with the causation of diphtheria and its malignancy. It appears that in every case of diphtheria it was found that oil was used either in the parlor lamp or kitchen light. Cases did not occur where gas alone was used. Many of the health boards in the East have lately expressed their opinion that the terrible epidemic experienced of late were due mainly to the increased use of this oil. Putrid sore throat and diphtheria have always been more fatal a the Pennsylvania oil region than in any other portion of the country.

An Erratic Couple.

A very mysterious affair was yesterday morning reported at police headquarters by Thomas W. Wright, a colored man who keeps a small store at 127 West Levee, near the Hannibal bridge. He said that at about 2 o'clock the day before a man called at his store and bought his boat for $11.50, saying he was going to take a trip down the river. The man was dressed in a gray suit and wore a light derby hat, while his shoes proclaimed their newness with a squeak. He was of middle age, about 5 feet 10 inches tall and wore a light mustache. Having concluded his bargain the man went away, but returned at 4 p. m. with a well dressed woman. The latter was slenderly built, about 27 years of age and 5 feet 6 inches high. She wore a green cashmere dress with polonaise skirt, trimmed in front with dark green velvet, and had on a small black straw bonnet, trimmed with brown ribbon. An expressman brought to Wright's house two trunks that belonged to the couple, one a new, mottled zinc trunk, the other an old but large one. They staid at the little house until 9 o'clock that night, when, placing their trunks in the skiff the man had bought, they bade adieu to the wondering colored people and rowed with the current down the Missouri river.

Before going they changed their clothing, the man donning a lighter suit than he originally wore, and the woman putting on a light colored calico wrapper. The only clew given of their intentions was a remark that they were going down the river until they found a place they liked and then they were going to keep house. The woman said that the night before she had stopped at a hotel opposite the union depot. Diligent inquiry among the hotels in that neighborhood failed to awaken any remembrance of a man or woman answering the description of those who went down the Missouri in a skiff.

The police are in no way concerned about the affair, as they believe the fugitives were an eloping couple, and no steps have been taken for their apprehension.—Kansas City Times.

A Diplomatic Scandal.

There was a serious diplomatic scandal at Vienna during the shah's visit, which has been kept very quiet. The Persian minister to Austria has fallen into pecuniary embarrassement, as his salary of £4,000 a year is appropriated by the grand vizier, to whom he has also to send frequent and costly presents. The minister's creditors at Vienna assembled a few days before the shah arrived and decided to send a deputation to wait upon the grand vizier with their complaint; and accordingly that personage received them and was handed an immense pile of the minister's unpaid bills. The result was that the shah paid his representative's debts instead of taking him home for execution. His majesty's liberality is attributed to the fact that the minister at Vienna owns a large estate on the Bosphorus, so that he would certainly have declined to accompany the shah back to Persia. The grand vizier is said to have told the minister that his difficulties were entirely due to his own stupidity, as it was quite open to him to make large sums by trafficking in Persian concessions, titles and decorations so long as he remained in favor at Teheran.—London Truth.

OF
THE CHURCH.

By Rev. Duncan Morrison, M.A.
OWEN SOUND, CANADA.

"These Notes on the Great Hymns of the Church are the result of the author's observations in the subject for years. He believes that our people in the public service of the Church would sing with the spirit and the understanding in a far higher degree, did they know more about their hymns; and that if any one would undertake simply to tell the story of each of them—giving some account of its origin and authorship, he would render them no small service, even if he should only succeed in awakening a deeper interest in the service of song."—From The Preface.

In one Handsome Volume, 320 pages, 8vo., Gilt Top, Cloth.

These Notes have appeared at various times in the Daily and Religious Journals, but have now been collected and largely rewritten and are printed in book form at the earnest desire of those who wish to preserve them.

The following excerpts from testimonials received are offered in the way of commendation:

From Rev. G. M. Grant, D.D., Principal of Queen's University, Kingston.

"I can honestly say that Mr. Morrison's book is certain to be interesting and highly instructive."

From Rev. W. Caven, D.D., Principal Knox College, Toronto:—"* * * Discriminating and excellent in tone and spirit * * Marked by much patient research and scholarly grace."

From Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, B.D., St. Andrew's Church, Toronto:—"* * Everyone loving these noble old hymns, selected for annotation, will be pleased at the prospect of their publication in the form proposed, and will sing them with greater understanding and relish by reason of these Notes revealing such spiritual insight and scholarly taste."

From Rev. S. H. Kellogg, D.D., St. James' Square church, Toronto:—"I have read with unusual interest these scholarly Notes on Great Hymns. * * * In my judgment, gathered together in a volume, they could hardly fail of success."

From Mr. Justice Proudfoot, Toronto:—"My opinion of the value of these Notes is very high. * * * Anything I could say would far transcend the limits of a notice."

THE ADDRESS ADOPTED.

ONLY FOUR SPEECHES MADE IN THE COMMONS.

Mr. Pope's First Appearance—Col. Prior Follows—Mr. Laurier's Criticisms and Sir John's Reply—The Behring Sea Matter Brought Up in the Senate.

OTTAWA, Jan. 17.—The address in reply to the Speech from the Throne was this afternoon adopted in the Commons without any amendment being proposed by the opposition. The discussion was confined to four speeches, those of the mover and seconder, the criticism by the leader of the opposition, and the Premier's reply.

Mr. Rufus Pope was the mover. He astonished the House by the bold, confident manner in which he set about his task, speaking without hesitation in a voice so loud and clear as to be heard in the most remote corner of the galleries. Though half an hour on his feet he was never once lost for a sentence or word. His speech was th usual repetition, endorsation and amplification of that from the throne, but he enlivened it by many witticisms.

The seconder was Col. Prior, to whom the task had been assigned only this morning on account of the indisposition of Mr. Thomas Earle, upon whom la grippe has fastened. Col. Prior spoke in his usual happy vein. Like Mr. Pope, he declared that the country was enjoying great prosperity, and he was particularly glowing in his reference to the wonderful development of British Columbia.

Hon. Wilfred Laurier made a temperate criticism of the bill of fare contained in the speech from the Throne and was complimentary in his references to the manner in which the mover and seconder had supplied flesh and blood to the dry bones. He denied, however, that the condition of the country was as they had pictured it and said they could not speak as they had spoken unless they had been "mesmerised by the great mesmerist on the other side of the House," and the vision they described was in his opinion one "put in their gase by the great wizard." Sir John laughed contentedly at this acknowledgment of the implicit confidence of his followers.

Mr. Laurier was willing to acknowledge that Mr. Pope was a prosperous and contented farmer, but they all had not bank accounts as he had. He held that it cannot be denied that the farmers of Canada were never so pinched as at present. As to the loyalty of which the seconder had spoken, he charged that it was not by the grace of the government, but, in spite of their discouragement, that the people of British Columbia and the Northwest remained loyal.

A chief cause of complaint was the discrimination which he held was shown by the Canadian Pacific Railway in favor of United States freights, and he instanced the grain-rate between Winnipeg and Toronto respectively. He called upon the Government to interfere to right the grievance said to exist, but expressed his conviction that his appeal would be useless because the Government had lost the nerve even to discharge the ordinary duties of administration.

Mr. Laurier next turned his attention to the trade question and advocated reciprocity with the United States rather than attempts to open up trade with distant countries. He accused the Government of partly stealing the clothes of the Opposition on this reciprocity question, and invited them the next time they put their hands into the Opposition wardrobe to take the whole suit. He concluded by expressing his readiness as leader of the Opposition to do everything in his power to further the business of the session.

Sir John Macdonald replied in his happiest vein, and he too was very complimentary to all his predecessors in the debate. Mr. Laurier's speech he called a "little prologue before the play," a "little preliminary chat." That gentleman, felt, he said, that he must blow off the froth before he got to the porter, the real business of the session.

Sir John was willing to place the practical testimony of the mover and seconder against the theory of Mr. Laurier, who was undisputably a distinguished lawyer but not so much of an authority on farming and trade questions as Mr. Pope and Mr. Prior. Just as long as Mr. Laurier and his friends said as he said to-day that we are a miserable, desponding, ruined, depressed and retrograding country so long were they destined to remain in the left of the Speaker.

Sir John then told the story of the lunatic who said he was in the asylum on account of a difference of opinion between him and the majority outside, and expressed the fear that the majority of the people of Canada would be similarly against Mr. Laurier, even though he thought himself right. "I am afraid," he said, "the people will prefer to be ruined under us than prosperous under the good people on the other side."

As to the trade matters and the allegation that the National Policy had failed of its object, if the National Policy had been a failure Mr. Laurier should have not only grief but active sympathy to express, for the time was not so long ago when he was a National Policy man himself. He was glad for the party's sake that Mr. Laurier had at length induced his party to nail their free trade colors to the mast.

The address was then formally adopted.

In the Red Chamber.

OTTAWA, Jan. 17.—In the Senate the address in reply was moved by Senator Boulton, seconded by Senator Loughead and carried after an interesting discussion.

In criticising the speeches of the mover and seconder the leader of the Opposition, Senator Scott, referred to the Behring Sea difficulty, and contrasted England's apathy where a powerful nation like the United States was the offending party with the summary manner in which she had dealth with little Portugal when that country interfered with British rights in Africa. Britain's trade with the States it seemed must not be jeopardised. He declared that Canada is not receiving from the British Crown the attention which her loyalty to the Empire gives her a right to effect.

In reply the leader of the Government, Senator Abbott, said that when at the proper time the correspondence was brought down it would show that short of taking a position which might provoke a conflict England has done everything in her power to bring this matter to a favourable conclusion for herself and for Canada. If with a little patience and the loss even of a good deal of time England could succeed in bringing about a friendly solution of the question surely the loss of a year or two in the operations of these fishermen on the Pacific coast is nothing to be compared to the loss and the destruction that would follow any breach between England and the United States. Canada would be the chief sufferer by such a breach.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—The Cabinet meeting yesterday was attended by all the members except Secretary Blaine. Secretary Window submitted a draft of the bill prepared by himself in regard to the coinage of silver and it received the approval of the President and most of the members. The bill will probably be introduced in the House by Mr. Conger of Iowa Monday next.

The United States Consul-General Mason, at Frankfort-on-the-Main, reports that an international electro-technical exhibition will be opened in Frankfort June 1, 1890. He emphasises the importance of this exposition upon the future of electric lights for cities and determining the best electric motor for street railways. He says the exhibition should open up a market for American electrical and other machinery throughout Europe.

Quebec's Finances.

QUEBEC, Jan. 17.—The public accounts issued to-day give the total receipts for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1889, $3,997,503, total expenditure $3,504,655.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

THE ANGLO-PORTUGUESE SITUATION STILL CRITICAL.

Mr. Balfour Scouts the Idea of a Speedy Dissolution of Parliament—A New Russian Loan Announced—Stanley's Stay at Cairo.

LISBON, Jan. 17.—It is stated that a British squadron has been seen entering the Tagus and has exchanged salutes with Fort Julian. The rumor that the fleet was in the Tagus had a tranquilizing effect upon the papers. The Journal of Commerce, a popular organ, entreats the people not to prolong unjustifiably the manifestations which involve branches of the peace and possibly fresh national humiliation. It is stated that a leading ship owner who is in municipal authority begged Glynn Petre's mediation to prevent the fleet from entering the Tagus and Glynn Petre intimated if such a thing happened it would be entirely the fault of the inhabitants.

A committee of ladies in society have formed the resolution to boycott Glynn Petre's wife. The evening papers generally advise prudence on the part of the public.

The Portuguese Boycott.

LISBON, Jan. 18.—Mobs of workmen and sailors parade the streets denouncing England. There are many hundreds of adhesions to the commercial plan of campaign received from owners of machine building works. Steamship companies have transferred their contracts for coal and iron to Belgium. Englishmen employed by the Government are given the alternative of dismissal or naturalization. English flags have been bought and publicly burned in several towns.

A Republican Manifesto.

LISBON, Jan. 17.—The Seculo published to-day an unsigned manifesto headed "The Directory of the Portuguese Republicans to the Nation." It denounces vociferously the English ultimatum and advocates the republican federation of the Latin nations and the adhesion of Portugal to such federation. It declares the movement for a federation of Latin republics is steadily making great progress and the force of that movement is seen and felt in the revolution in Brazil. The manifesto does not advocate a revolution in Portugal at present and is moderate in tone throughout, except as to the denunciation of England's action.

All the papers, Republican as well as others, advise prudence and moderation in the present crisis. The extravagances of the school boys in the street demonstrations seem to have opened the eyes of the men of the country to the folly and danger of that way of treating international difficulties.

John Bull Is Calm.

LONDON, Jan. 17.—In contrast to the excited state of popular feeling in Lisbon and other cities of Portugal over the action of the British Government in the Southeast African dispute, the English public is singularly apathetic. While the excited Portuguese are marching through the streets howling and cursing, and in the exuberance of their impotent rage burning British flags, the staid and stolid Englishman calmly pursues his daily vocation apparently unmindful of the gravity of the situation, for it is still grave. Though the late Portuguese ministry accepted the ultimatum of Lord Salisbury perforce, there is no guarantee that the new government will acquiesce in the action of its predecessors in office, but there is rather a great likelihood that popular clamor and a desire to disarm the republican element by an appeal to its patriotism will impel the ministry to undo the action of the Gomes government and engage in a hopeless fight for the preservation of the national dignity and honor, trusting to the sympathy of the powers to intercede in its behalf.

You Pays Your Money, etc.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—The Portuguese correspondence was published yesterday in a blue book. The News, commenting on the despatches, says: "They confirm the opinion that Lord Salisbury had spoiled a very strong case by undue harshness. His despatches insult Senhor Gomes by implying a disbelief in Gomes' word. It is doubtful whether any further negotiations will be possible between the Governments for a long time."

The Times says: "No completer vindication of the Marquis of Salisbury's measures could be desired."

The Chronicle believes Salisbury is strictly within the legal right and that the moral right also is on England's side.

Denounced Britain's Action.

PARIS, Jan. 18.—There was held yesterday a meeting of 300 Portuguese residing here. Devega, a former Portuguese deputy, presided. He violently attacked Great Britain and besought his compatriots to remember the Swiss struggle against Austria, as an evidence that a brave and united people is not always crushed by heavy battalions. He concluded, amid a storm of cheers, by thanking the French press for its sympathy and support. Senor Zorilla, the Spanish republican also spoke. He said one needed only to be an honorable man to condemn the piracy of Great Britain. The meeting adopted resolutions denouncing Britain's action.

The Spanish Crisis.

MADRID, Jan. 18.—Queen Regent Christina held a conference yesterday with Senhor Martos, President of the Chamber of Deputies, General Jovellar, General Martinez Campos and Count Torino on the subject of the formation of a new Cabinet.

It is believed Queen Christina has endeavored to get a Liberal cabinet for form's sake only before summoning Canovas del Castill in order that she might say she only called him when no other was possible.

Queen Christina has requested Senor Martines, President of the Chamber of Deputies to endeavor to form a cabinet that may conciliate the conflicting elements.

STOLE A MARCH.

The Grand Trunk Builds a House on the Ambitious City's Land.

HAMILTON, Jan. 17.—At the meeting of the City Council on Thursday morning the Mayor, at City Solicitor Macalaren's suggestion, asked the reporters not to print anything that would tend to show the city's hand to the Grand Trunk. This request was very funny, in view of the fact that an audience of over 100 was present, including a young man who was soon perceived to be making voluminous notes, presumably a Grand Trunk stenographer. About the only definite result of the meeting was that City Engineer Haskins was directed to proceed to the beach and fence in the other conduit pipe on the Lottridge farm, before the railway grabbed that land too. Mr. Haskins and David Stock got a carriage at once and started for the beach to take possession, at the same time ordering Foreman Anstey to have lumber prepared and sent down for fencing purposes.

But in the meantime the Grand Trunk had its skates on. Ten minutes after the council adjourned a special train left the city with Assistant Engineer Armour, 25 men and a small frame house. They got to a point in the vicinity of the new conduit pipe, put the house on a sleigh and pulled it by men and horse power over to the city property on the Lottridge farm. When the city engineer arrived he found that these men had fenced in the line across the city property over the conduit pipe, and were engaged in placing the house in position on it. Mr. Haskins entered a protest, but was laughed at for his pains.

A VICTIM OF LA GRIPPE.

Death of Judge Livingstone of the County of Norfolk.

SIMCOE, Jan. 17.—Robert Thompson Livingstone, Judge of the County of Norfolk, died at his home here this morning at 7 o'clock. He was taken with the prevailing influenza epidemic a few days after New Year's. On Wednesday of last week he came down town and upon returning home grew rapidly worse. Pneumonia complications set in and he sank rapidly. The late Judge Livingstone was in his 53d year. He was born in Scotland and came with his father to this town in April, 1836. Previous to his appointment to the bench he was in partnership with Col. Tisdale. He leaves a family of four young children.

An alliance was afterward made with the Liberals and the two formed the National party in Quebec politics. Senator Trudel was 51 years of age, and leaves a wife, from whom he has been separated for some years, and four sons.

TEN THOUSAND A YEAR.

A Lucky Young Man in Toronto Inherits a Fortune.

TORONTO, Jan. 18.—A little over two years ago Lionel George Allen, who is a tall pleasant faced young man about 28 years of age, came over from England. He had been a stationer's assistant in the Old Country, but finding no situation of the kind open here, he went to work in the bush. The work was hard and the pay small so that he was glad at the end of a month to accept a position in McKenna's stationery shop in Yonge-street. He took lodgings in the Union House, Simcoe-street, where he has been ever since. Shortly after he came over a rich uncle, Henry Allen, whom he had never seen, dropped dead in the streets of London. He left no will and his lawyers advertised for the next of kin. The uncle was a hide merchant in London, owning property in the city valued at nearly $300,000. An aunt by marriage of the nephew answered the advertisement for Lionel Allen and yesterday he received a letter from the lawyers stating that the matter had been settled and enclosing $500 to defray the expenses of his journey to England. The income from the property is $10,000 a year.

These companies have been incorporated: Stirling Phosphate and Mining Co. (limited), capital $50,000; Cobourg Electric Light and Power Co. (limited), capital $45,000; Casselman Lumber Co. (limited), capital $250,000; Catholic Review Publishing Co. of Toronto (limited), capital $10,000.

The object is to utilise the refuse of the large fish curing and fish packing establishments along the Gaspe coast for the manufacture of guano on an extensive scale.

The Grand Trunk Railway traffic earnings for the week ending Jan. 11 are $324,695 as against $300,045, showing an increase of $25,620 for 1890.

C.P.R. Trains On Time.

With but few exceptions trains have arrived and departed sharp on time. No delays whatever have occurred in the mountain sections and none are anticipated. Island Politics.

HALIFAX, Jan. 17.—A special from St. John's, Nfld., says: The Government candidates were returned in the departmental elections to-day by large majorities.

BUFFALO, Jan. 17.—At an early hour this morning one of the liveliest prize fights ever seen in this city took place under the auspices of the Arlington Club, between the St. Paul Kid and Reddy Strauss. The fighting was fast and furious, both pugs being badly punished. At the end of the 34th round Strauss threw up the sponge, claiming that his hands had given out. The "Kid" was awarded the battle, which was one of the hardest fights of his life. He weighed 114 pounds, while Strauss tips the scales at about 125.

Boyle, convicted of assault upon one of his lady choristers and sentenced to be hanged has been granted a new trial by the Supreme Court, to which the case had been appealed. A RAILWAY HOLOCAUST.

TERRIBLY FATAL DISASTER NEAR CINCINNATI.

Passenger Coaches in Flames as the Result of a Head End Collision—Four Dead Bodies Taken From the Wreck—The Injured Badly Burned.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 17.—At 7.10 this evening, as the Glendale accommodation, bound for Cincinnati was leaving the station near College Hill Junction, the Chicago vestibuled train ran into the rear of the accommodation. There were three passenger cars on the Glendale train containing about 75 people. The locomotive of the Chicago train ran half way through the car rear of the accommodation piling the passenger cars in a heap and setting them on fire. The locomotive of the accommodation was not derailed. The fire department and patrol wagons were called from Cincinnati and the fire was extinguished. Four persons have thus far been taken dead from the wreck. Several persons have been rescued fatally injured. Two of those injured have been received here at the hospital. They are: James Staley, terribly burned; William Klamits, aged 19, burned.

Bob Stevenson, baggagemaster of the vestibuled train, was so badly hurt he died in a few minutes after being taken out. The body of John Wilson, Superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati has been identified as one of those burned. The engineer of the vestibule train is lying seriously hurt at Winston Place.

THE INTERNATIONAL.

Saginaw is Anxious to Join—Grand Rapids Afraid of the Salary Limit.

DETROIT, Jan. 17.—President Mills and Manager Leadley returned to-day from their prospecting tour in the interest of the International League. At Grand Rapids they found the people divided on the question of putting a team into the International. Some directors of the club there were inclined to the League while others were afraid that the salary limit was too high to make the venture. The directors of the club will meet in a few days to settle the question.

At Saginaw the sentiment was nigh unanimous in favor of the league, and a committee was appointed last night to solicit funds. President Mills will call a meeting of the league some time next week at London.

Howarth Will Win in Detroit.

DETROIT, Jan. 17.—Howarth has the 6-day's walk as good as won. He is nearly 20 miles in the lead and feeling in good fettle. Daddy Day and Dave Bennett have both quit. This leaves the race to Howarth, Hart, Smith, Noremac and Horan, and they will probably finish in that position. The score at 3 o'clock this afternoon was: Howarth, 290; Hart, 266; Smith, 264; Noremac, 254, and Horan, 245.

Euston consented, and went to Russell's office an hour later. Russell put him through a worse examination than the one in court afterwards. Having satisfied himself of Euston's innocence, he undertook the case. In public opinion and the club, there is a revulsion in favor of Euston, who says he will go abroad for six months.

THE PULSE OF TRADE.

Bradstreets' Weekly Review of the Business Situation.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's report an irregular movement of general merchandise. Unseasonable weather made itself felt most of the week, and the epidemic of influenza had an appreciable effect at the larger eastern cities.

The New York stock market closes dull and firm, without significant changes during the week. Increased bank reserves and heavy bond purchases by the Government rendered money easy at 3 to 6 per cent., but coal road losses, the virtual collapse of the Interstate Railway Association and western cutting of passenger and cattle rail rates were enough to check a general desire to buy securities.

Wheat has been in better demand for export within a few days, and prices are up ¼c. Corn being offered more freely, is depressed 1¼c. There is less enquiry for oats, and option prices are ¼c to ¾c off. Heavier exports in the near future are promised. There is more liberal trading in hog products and lard is stronger and 5 points higher. Pork is shaded and dressed hogs are cheaper. Live stock is unimproved in prices at western points. Moderate activity only is reported by cotton goods agents at New York and Boston. Wool is dull and heavy in price. Raw cotton is 1-16c to 5-16c higher in all leading markets, on an active demand.

Business failures reported to Bradstreet's number 355 in the United States this week, against 354 last week and 325 this week last year. Canada had 36 this week, against 46 last week. The total of failures in the United States, Jan 1 to date, is 1018 against 961 in 1889.

Dun-Wimar's Report.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Dun, Wimar & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Important improvement in business is noted wherever the recent change to cold weather has been felt. Elsewhere unseasonable weather is still the chief complaint, but everywhere interruption of business and manufacturing by the prevailing sickness is observed and many factories have been forced to close because so many of their employes were unable to work. At one or two eastern points this interruption appears to be passing away, but it is still widespread and serious. To nearly all kinds of trade it means, not only delay in production of dealings, but some shrinkage in the ability of great numbers to purchase products. But in spite of this the volume of trade is large. Eastbound shipments from Chicago last week were 131,728 tons, much the largest ever known. The exports of provisions are heavy, the lard movements last week were not only the largest on record for that part of the year but showed an increase over last year of 19 per cent. outside of New York.

TURNBULL'S

If you should give the days of the week trade names, Saturday would be clothing man's day.

Look at the clothing store news up and down the columns of the papers! Is it not so.

We could pile adjective upon hyperbole—could print with display type the most impossible statement if we choose, but we spare you.

They can all gang their ain gait, while we go on making our clothing business bigger by making it better; the only sure way and we hold our own with the best in quality, style and make with real cheapness. Our boys' Readymade clothing cannot be beaten in style, quality and price.

We had a heavy run on Ladies' Mantles last week. A lot of good goods at Bargain Prices still to select from.

Our 40c. Heavy Canadian tweeds please the eye and pockets of all.

In the name of Jack Frost—Blankets. If we could only tell you all we know of Blankets, it would be good reading. One thing we do know, and don't fear to say is, you will get more good wool and generous size in the Blankets now here at $5, than is generally offered. Blankets at $4 and $3.75 of good medium sizes.

Once more the cheapest stock of Grey Flannels and Cottons is with us. The people carry it off with more industry than ants, which is the best proof that business men have that goods are cheap.

A Wonderful Vegetable Discovery That Removes the Terrible Results of Overwork.

A True Invigorator.

Weakness and prostration of the nervous system surely follow that overwork and worry which brings sorrow and suffering to so many Canadian homes. The terrible results of nervous weakness, are seen on every hand. Pains in the back, poor and unrefreshing sleep, lack of appetite dyspepsia, and lost energy and strength, are the first symptoms of more serious and danger. ous trouble. This is the way that Paralysis, Paresis and Insanity begin. Do not delay treatment longer, for some time it will be too late to regain your lost health and vitality. Use Paine's Celery Compound now, and the dull eyes will regain their brilliancy, the cheeks will grow rosy, the brain become clear, the nerves strong and steady, your sleep restful and refreshing, appetite good, and health and happiness will take the place of misery and suffering.

A. Sabiston, the well known lithographer of Montreal, writes: "In the summer of 1888 I had to work very hard, and was troubled considerably with insomnia (sleeplessness). I resolved to try your Paine's Celery Compound, and after taking the contents of two bottles, felt like a new man. A good night's rest gave me strength for the duties of the day, and instead of starting out to business in the morning feeling as if I had completed a day's work instead of being about to commence one I started out in good spirits, feeling fresh and strong. My wife and various friends, to whom I recommended the medicine, have been benefited greatly, and in fact 'Paine's Celery Compound is a household word in our family."

SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 1890.

The Dominion Parliament.

If there were nothing but the Speech from the throne to base forecasts on, people might expect the session to prove a dull one, instead of what Mr. McCarthy promises to make it—the most exciting on record. The Speech sets forth a meagre but not an unimportant programme. Few questions are of graver consequence to the country than that of the terms on which the bank charters shall be renewed. We have a system which has worked well, which cannot be materially changed without producing business disasters, but which certainly requires some amendments. The facilities for establishing bogus or "wild cat" banks on a small paid-up capital should be lessened. One of the advantages of leaving the issue of note currency to the banks is that the system makes the volume of paper money very responsive to the real demand of the country. One of its disadvantages is that the security of note-holders is not quite perfect. Though we believe the note circulation of suspended banks has been, under the present Act, always ultimately redeemed at par, many people, especially the poor holders, lost because the notes would not pass at par for some time after the suspension. Another annoyance is that the notes of chartered banks are not received at par by other banks, and therefore not by traders, in every part of the Dominion. Both these blots on the existing system can be removed with little difficulty, and we understand that bank managers are well inclined to support the needful amendments. As some interference by the friends of the "rag baby" may be confidently looked for, and as most Macdonaldites are susceptible to all sorts of fiscal delusions, it is not wholly impossible that the Bank Act debate may produce extensive changes in the Government scheme, and end in legislation of a nature dangerous to the business interests of the country. These need to be organised and ready for possible surprises.

Having failed to secure free entrance to the American market for Canadian fishermen, the Government graciously promise them a report on the art of catching and curing fish. Something that would help them to catch customers and cure their own chronic N.P. poverty would be more appreciated by the toilers of the sea. But the report may be profitable to the printers favored by the Administration, and why should they not have a share of the plunder that is going? This may be a proper occasion to remark once more upon the astonishing malice that Sir John Macdonald and his colleagues have made of the great coast fisheries of Canada. When they took office in 1878 the price for admitting American fishermen to those fisheries had been set at $300,000 a year and free entry to the States for Canadian fish and fish products. No person believed then or down to 1886, that the privilege of free fishing could be secured by Uncle Sam for no return whatever. And yet that is substantially the situation into which he has edged himself by taking advantage of one Ottawa blunder after another. At the present moment the Government do not appear to know whether Downing Street will or will not order them to prolong the modus vivendi. If an arrangement of that same nature be continued the almost complete surrender of Canada will be. If it be not continued our Government must either fall back to a rigid enforcement of the Convention of 1818, which will endanger the relations of the three countries, or must humbly abandon all the positions taken, and, as the Globe has always maintained, well taken, by Sir John Thompson in the diplomatic correspondence of '85, '86 and '87 — which would amount to even a more humiliating surrender than contained in a continuance of the modus vivendi. Danger or humiliation—the Government have no other alternative, and Downing Street, so bold with little Portugal, will not permit the Ottawa Tories to stand up for Canada against big Uncle Sam. We admit that British statesmen would play the fool did they encourage Ottawa in a policy that might bring Great Britain into collision with the United States. But are they not equally foolish in permitting Great Britain to be grossly humiliated in the fisheries business, when the whole thing might be settled honorably and profitably by a commercial arrangement against which there are no objectors except a few Canadian tax-eating ringsters and a few bumptious Manchester exporters? By plainly informing Canada that the British Government would be glad to see Unrestricted Reciprocity established, the Salisbury Government could greatly enrich a settlement of immense advantage to all concerned.

The statement that the Government are urging Downing Street to prevent American piracies at Canadian expense in Behring Sea has "a very ancient and fishlike smell." Away back in October, 1886, after a number of our sealing vessels had been captured in the open sea, Ottawa began to "urge" Downing Street, and the urgings have been kept up ever since. So have the seizures. The Americans themselves admit that they have no warrant in international law for their monstrous aggressions. Yet, counting confidently on the pusillanimity of Downing Street and Ottawa, they propose to continue seizing our ships, and this without any further pretence of a desire to establish an international commission for the protection of the seals. In this matter the position of Great Britain is, as Mr. Stavsley Hill, M.P., has shown in the London Times, simply degrading. Canadians could protect their own interests in this case, as in all other cases of dispute with the States, far better if they were independent and free from the restraints of Downing Street. Of course this will be clearly shown in the coming debate.

In an accompanying article we deal with the Federal Government's proposed attack upon the rights of the Provinces in the inland fisheries. But neither this nor any other of the matters alluded to is likely to furnish the session's main interest to the public. By the efforts of some men bent on smashing the Confederation, of some devoted simply to the impossible project of depriving the French and Roman Catholic Canadians of their constitutional status, and of some who have no other purpose than to obtain notoriety, race and creed dispute occupy a large share of public attention. Mr. Dalton McCarthy, Mr. Clarke Wallace, and several other patriots mean, it is alleged, to bring the most exciting questions upon the floor of Parliament. Of necessity the House will be divided, without distinction of the regular parties, into two new sets—one of more patriotic enough, tolerant enough and liberal enough to desire the perpetuation of the Confederation on the basis of equal rights to both races, the other careless whether it be maintained or smashed. Public curiosity is primarily occupied with the questions on which these two sets will culminate when the various sorts of smashers—smashers by design and smashers by pure force of bigotry—shall have fully shown how much or how little strength, numerical and argumentative, they have in the Parliament of Canada.—Globe.

"Just Hear That Child Scream!"

said Mrs. Smith to her sister, Davis, as the sound of a child's shrieks came across the garden from a neighbor's house. "What kind of a woman have you for a neighbor? Does she abuse her children?" "No, indeed," replied Mrs. Davis. "She is one of the most tender mothers in existence. But you see, she believes in the old-fashioned styles of doctoring. When a child needs physic, she fills a spoon with some nauseous dose, lays the little victim flat on her lap, holds his nose till he is forced to open his mouth for breath, when down goes the dreadful mess. Then come the yells." "No wonder," said Mrs. Smith, "why doesn't she use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets? They are effective without being harsh, and are as easy to take as sugar plums. I always give to my children." "And so do I," said Mrs. Davis.

Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life on energy at the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Be sure to get, you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisement in another column.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

OF
THE CHURCH.

By Rev. Duncan Morrison, M.A.
OWEN SOUND, CANADA.

"These Notes on the Great Hymns of the Church are the result of the author's observations in the subject for years. He believes that our people in the public service of the Church would sing with the spirit and the understanding in a far higher degree, did they know more about their hymns; and that if any one would undertake simply to tell the story of each of them—giving some account of its origin and authorship, he would render them no small service, even if he should only succeed in awakening a deeper interest in the service of song."—From The Preface.

In one Handsome Volume, 250 pages, 8vo., Gilt Top, Cloth.

These Notes have appeared at various times in the Daily and Religious Journals, but have now been collected and largely re-written and are printed in book form at the earnest desire of those who wish to preserve them.

The following excerpts from testimonials received are offered in the way of commendation:

From Rev. G. M. Grant, D.D., Principal of Queen's University, Kingston.

"I can honestly say that Mr. Morrison's book is certain to be interesting and highly instructive."

From Rev. W. Caven, D.D., Principal Knox College, Toronto:—"* * Discriminating and excellent in tone and spirit * * Marked by much patient research and scholarly grace."

From Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, B.D., St. Andrew's Church, Toronto:—"* * Everyone loving these noble old hymns, selected for annotation, will be pleased at the prospect of their publication in the form proposed, and will sing them with greater understanding and relish by reason of these Notes revealing such spiritual insight and scholarly taste."

From Rev. S. H. Kellogg, D.D., St. James' Square church, Toronto:—"I have read with unusual interest these scholarly Notes on Great Hymns. * * * In my judgement, gathered together in a volume, they could hardly fail of success."

From Mr. Justice Proudfoot, Toronto:—"My opinion of the value of these Notes is very high. * * * Anything I could say would far transcend the limits of a notice."

Tom hastily disappeared in the direction of the elevator. Holbrook leaned back, smoked his cigar, and pondered on the situation. Tom joined him in a short time, and said: "Come with me to the elevator."

They went off together, and then a man stepped up to them.

He was a medium sized, thin man, cheaply clad, with sharp features and small eyes.

"This is my friend Mr. Holbrook. He will point out a man to you. We want to know who he is, his name, residence, haunts, business—all that you can find out."

"Very well," said the man.

"Follow Holbrook."

The two entered and seated themselves at a point where they could observe the Witherspoon group without being seen.

They had hardly seated themselves when Flora and the man in whom they were so much interested joined her friends again.

"That is the man," said Holbrook. "The one who has that handsome lady on his arm."

"Miss Ashgrove," said the man.

"Yes, you know her, I see."

"Yes, and the man too."

"Oh, let us go to Mr. Bryan, then."

They went out without being observed, for Flora's back was turned to them. They found Tom at the elevator and went down stairs.

"He knows him," said Holbrook to Tom when they were on the pavement.

"Who is he?" asked Tom.

"Mr. Fountain—Harry Fountain."

"What is he?"

"Fashionable young man—member of Union club."

"Where does he live?"

"That I don't know. I've told you all I do know."

"Then find out everything you can about him. I sha'n't want to see you until you bring me the information."

"It will be a short job."

"So much the better," said Tom. "Good-night."

"Good-night, gentlemen."

"Come, Holbrook, let's go," said Tom.

"Who is that man?" asked Holbrook.

"My shadow."

"What do you mean by that?"

"Exactly what I say. I employ him as a shadow. To find out things—to follow men—a spy, if you will."

"What do you do that for?"

"You are not up to the new dodges of modern journalism. He is always in my employ."

"The deuce! that's pleasant to hear. How did you happen to find him so quickly when you wanted him?"

"I whistled for him."

"Pshaw!"

"That's what I did. When we dined at Del's he was somewhere outside; when we were in the theatre he was somewhere outside, and had I not sent him off now he would have been somewhere outside wherever I was until I went to bed. At any time I had only to give the whistle understood between us, and he would have appeared."

"So that's modern journalism, is it?"

"Oh no, only one of the recent upgrowths; I invented it."

"Well, come down to the hotel and take a nightcap."

"No, I'm for bed, and my room is not far from here. I've a big day before me to-morrow. I may call upon you in the morning. Good-night."

"Do; good-night."

CHAPTER XI.

A NIGHT EXPERIENCE ON BROADWAY.

HOLBROOK walked down Broadway to wear off the excitement under which he felt he was laboring.

"Man-hunting is as fascinating a sport as tiger-hunting," he said to himself. "Not that I know anything of tiger-hunting, but as I suppose it is. I wonder if we have struck the right track. At all events it is a beginning and something definite to work upon. How grateful Annie Templeton would be if we were to be successful! What a pretty sight her face would present—an incentive for any man to work."

Thus musing he strode along at a rapid gait, feeling positive pleasure in the exercise. By and by he became conscious that some one was following him. He crossed the street to determine this; the person he suspected crossed also. He slackened his pace; a tall, slim figure passed him, and he thought he was mistaken as he saw it disappear in the darkness.

So he forged ahead. Shortly he found the person was behind him again.

He was now approaching a fashionable drinking saloon, and he determined to stop there and see what his follower would do.

He did so, and met an acquaintance with whom he went to the bar.

Immediately the door opened and a tall, slim man entered. It was the person who had followed him.

Holbrook observed him closely through the glass behind the bar, while chatting with his acquaintance.

The tall, slim man was by no means young—evidently 60 or 65 years of age; his hair was white, his face well seamed with wrinkles. He was clad in respectable black, and was upright in carriage.

Holbrook thought he might have been the man Fountain disguised to follow him, and then dismissed the idea as an absurdity and attributed it to his heated imagination.

A glance at the hand the person laid on the bar, which Holbrook could regard at short range without turning, such was his position, confirmed his idea of its absurdity. It was unmistakably the hand of an aged person; there could be no "make up" in that.

Presently the old man dropped a piece of money on the floor. As he stooped to pick it up he struck Holbrook in the back.

Convinced as he was that he had been touched purposely, from an impulse he could not restrain he turned.

The old man apologized in most courteous terms. His voice was pleasant, but Holbrook felt that the dark eyes of the old man most keenly and rapidly scrutinized his features.

However, he courteously responded to his apologies and the old man passed out into the street.

"That was done on purpose," said the acquaintance.

"I thought so too," replied Holbrook.

The barkeeper, who had overheard this exchange, said:

"He asked me who you were, sir."

"What did you tell him?"

"That I didn't know, which was the truth."

Holbrook went out. The old man stood in the shadow of an adjoining door.

Holbrook leaped into a cab and told the man to drive to the Hoffman house, and then watched from the window to see if he was followed.

The old man remained where Holbrook had last seen him.

"I've spent a dollar and a half for nothing," he said. "The probability is that he mistook me for some one else, and discovered his error in the drinking place;" so he went on to his own hotel.

When he arrived there he went to the desk for letters and cards that might have been left him; he was told by the clerk that a gentleman had called upon him during the evening, but had refused to tell either his name or leave a card, saying that he was unknown to Mr. Holbrook, and would visit him at his office some time during the following day.

Inquiring what the man looked like, he was given a description which tallied with that of the old man whom he had encountered on Broadway but an hour previously.

To say he was alarmed would be to say what was not true, but there is no question but that it made him uneasy.

He began to doubt the advisability of the campaign upon which he had entered, and into which he had been irresistibly drawn.

Now that he had taken a decisive step in the direction of endeavoring to fasten the responsibility of the murder upon one so near to Flora Ashgrove as the man Fountain evidently was, he began to wish he hadn't gone so far as to excite Tom's suspicions in that direction. It seemed a horrible thing to do.

And so, disgusted with himself and more disturbed than he was willing to admit, he sought his chamber.

DEAR sirs,—I can recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil as a sure cure for rheumatism. I had it for some time and was cured by two bottles, and I must say it is the best thing I can get for general use as a pain reliever. J. MUSTARD, Strathavon, Ont. 2w2d

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a remedy for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength and vigor to the body, and produces a more permanent, lasting, result than any medicine I ever used.—E. Haines, No. Lindale, O.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured.—Mary C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, and getting no relief, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured.—Susan L. Cook, 909 Albany st., Boston Highlands, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach.—Millie Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass.

THE OLD RELIABLE.
The Canada Life
Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder:"

When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5 040,188, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calendar year, the result of which would be to reduce the amount one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would certain to considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $340,188 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525 000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300 000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management. dw

A Correction.

The Lindsay Post says :—"We understand the Peterborough EXAMINER recently stated that Mr. G. L. M. Pogue's story, "The Angel of the Tomb" was to be published in the Post in instalments. Only one instalment was published, as a libel of sort or exhibit of Mr. Pogue's literary ability, and we are requested to state that the remainder is not to be so published, and to ask the EXAMINER to correct the error into which it has perhaps naturally fallen.

A Delicate Question.

A young man from Otonabee, who is evidently in earnest, probes the bashes of editorial experience to find out whether he should, in the choice of a wife, give weight to beauty of face or figure. In this material age, go in for figure every time, young man—dollars and sense are what you want. Be sure to marry a girl that has plenty of dollars, and whose mother has had sense enough to buy her tea at hawley bros. This involves the highest domestic wisdom, for the wife that doesn't know how to tickle her husband's palate, is a flat failure. hawley bro s. Keep the best teas at the lowest prices, and coffees at the same rates.

West Ion Notes.

The C. P. R. ice house gang to Havelock. The railway authorities here began building at the latter place for a number of reasons. They have plenty of yard room of their own at Havelock, and were not prepared to pay rent for the Ashburnham property, and the town did not feel disposed to pay it for them. Then they claim it will be a more convenient and save valuable time to have the cars iced while the locomotives are being changed at the divisional terminus. It is, however, intended to cut the ice in the Little Lake here, and ship it to Havelock during the winter.

The Late W. Taylor.

The EXAMINER records with regret the death of Mr. W. Taylor at his residence 659 George street, on Saturday, January 11th, 1890. On the evening of the same day his remains were taken by C. P. R. train to Burketon, from there to his son's residence, Cartwright. His funeral on Monday was very largely attended by his numerous friends and acquaintances. Mr. Taylor was one of the first settlers in the Township of Cartwright, held a seat in the council, and was a representative to the County Council for many years. He was very much esteemed by all who knew him, and will be very much missed by his friends.

Charlotte Street Sunday School.

The annual meeting of the Charlotte Street Methodist Sunday School was held last night. There was a good attendance. Rev. S. J. Shorey occupied the chair. The present officers were re-elected as follows :—

SUPERINTENDENT—O. C. Rowe.
SEC.-TREAS.—W. G. Morrow.
LIBRARIANS—W. Hamilton, R. Gillespie and W. Squires.

Twenty-two teachers were appointed for the year. Rev. Mr. Shorey and Mr. J. L. Hughes will conduct the Bible class alternately. The financial report was most satisfactory. The receipts for 1889 were $375, and there still remained, over and above all expenditures, $56.49. During the past year the school was furnished with a new $300 library by the Peterborough Bookstore.

A Nice Little Nugget.

Mr. Mark Spencely can vouch for the old truism that every cloud has its silver lining. Mark is laid up with a bad attack of la grippe, which, following on the loss of a house in Ashburnham by fire a week ago, should be enough to make the average man down-hearted. But this morning the household was visited by a bright little messenger of peace in the shape of a check for $1,000, the amount left Mrs. Spencely by the will of an aunt who died some time ago in Rochester. The will has been in litigation for several years, and Mrs. Spencely's share, like that of the other heirs, would have been larger but that the estate was largely eaten up in costs. Mrs. Spencely secured her money through Messrs. Edmison & Dixon.

The Town's Suit.

With reference to the case of Croft vs. the town of Peterborough, Mr. Edward's town solicitor, says he has the judgment of the Court of Appeal, and it confirms a view expressed in Thursday's EXAMINER, that the decision given is to the effect that the municipal electors, including income voters, were entitled to vote on the by-law. This view was not contended for by the counsel for the hotelkeepers in argument before the Court of Appeal, and in fact when it was expressly referred to, their counsel expressly stated that was not his contention, and it was not even argued by him that this was the class of electors. It is a curious thing that twice in this same case the court has decided adversely to the town, and in each case on a ground not argued or contended for by counsel on either side. The judgment wholly overthrows the ground taken by Mr. Justice Rose in the first trial.

George Street Sabbath School Anniversary.

A very pleasant time is anticipated at these services which are to be held tomorrow and Monday. The preacher on Sabbath will be Rev. C. O. Johnston, of Napanee, one of the most popular ministers of the Methodist church. His morning address will be directed more particularly to the pupils of the school, while the evening sermon will be for the parents and workers. In the afternoon at 2 30 there will be a mass meeting in the church to be addressed by the Rev. Messrs. Shorey, Johnston, Smith and others. Rev. Mr. Smith is a missionary who has just returned after several years of mission work in India. He has kindly consented to give the school a short address Sunday afternoon. On the Monday evening following Rev. Mr. Johnston has promised to give us his famous lecture entitled, "Wisdom and Folly in Home Life." With such a programme the anniversary should be a success.

A Warm Acknowledgement.

"Dominion Illustrated."

The Dominion Illustrated for January 18th has many welcome features in the illustration of Canadian scenery. British Columbia is represented by two charming views of Nanaimo, Vancouver Island, showing, inter alia, an old H. B. Co.'s bastion. The lovely scenery of Lake Conchiching is well exemplified by the residence of Mr. H. Pellatt, Toronto. With a melancholy interest we look at the fine picture of the herd of bison on Mr. Bedson's farm, Stoney Mountains, Manitoba, noble looking fellows. Montreal comes in for a share of remembrance by its beautiful Anglican Cathedral, of which both an outside and an inside view are given. The place of honour in this number is occupied by Lieut.-Col. W. White, Deputy Postmaster-General. Altogether, it is a good number pictorially. The letter press also is in keeping with the illustrations. A pleasant sketch of the "Lake on the Mountain," near Picton, Prince Edward Island, by Miss H. M. Merrill, is accompanied by a description and by a legend and a poem on the same subject. The whole is well worth reading. The Dominion Illustration is published by the Dominion Illustrated Publishing Company, 73 St. James street, Montreal. Mr. G. E. Desbarats, managing director. Subscription, $4 a year.

Spoken in Jest.

As a sample of true words spoken in jest a little squib, appearing in Grip, sets forth the editor of the Squgglechunk Indicator, about to leave town for a few days, giving instructions to his subordinate. After the suggestion and rejection of several subjects the man with the great head says :—"Stick to the N.P., John ; that's always safe. Give 'em a good soreed. You can enlarge on the prosperity of all classes in the United States under Protection—manufacturers flourishing, farmers wealthy, mechanics and laborers drawing better wages than anywhere else in the world, contrasted with the poverty and wretchedness that prevails in England, on account of Free Trade."

"I catch on, boss. Just the regular style of thing. But that will hardly be enough."

"No, it would look a leetle silen ; you might write another article pitching into the Grits on this Unrestricted Reciprocity scheme. Show that Canada has no use for Free Trade with the States. It wouldn't be any advantage, because d'ye see the American farmers themselve have a hard struggle to make ends meet and are giving up their farms by thousands. The country is full of people out of employment, and the workingmen are discontented and raising trouble all around. What would be the use of getting admission to the markets of the States when their own people can hardly make a living?"

"Hold on, boss, I get the idea, but somehow it don't seem quite consistent with the pointers you give me for the other editorial."

"Well, now, neither it does, John, come to think of it. I swear it never struck me in that light before. Anyhow, it's just what the Empire and the Hamilton Spec. have been giving their readers right along, and if they can stand it, why I reckon ours can. It's good party (Tory) doctrine at any rate, and I don't know as it's just the Indicator's business to straighten out the kinks. So let her go, John."

The Late Dr. McKay, M.P.P.

In our news despatches to-day will be seen the announcement of the death of Angus McKay, M.D., the representative of East Oxford in the Local Legislature. The deceased gentleman was of Scotch extraction but of Canadian birth. He was born in the township of Oxford, on Oct. 2nd, 1852. He was a graduate of Trinity College Medical School, and received supplementary training at the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons, Edinburgh, and was examiner in Materia Medica to the Ontario College of Physicians. He stood at the head of his profession in his native county and enjoyed a high esteem both as a Christian gentleman and a physician. At the last general election he was returned to the Legislature as a supporter of the Mowat Administration, and it will be remembered that he seconded the address in reply to the speech from the throne at the opening session of the present parliament. Dr. McKay will be much missed in the House of which he was one of the most active and painstaking members. He entered energetically into whatever he undertook, and has devoted attention to his professional duties reduced his physical powers beyond the point of resistance of an attack of pneumonia which, of course, proved fatal. The funeral takes place on Monday next.

Struck by a Tree.

The Stony Lake correspondent of the Norwood Register writes :—On December 31st Mr. John Lloyd, of Stony Lake, and James Drain were chopping firewood in the woods. They were some distance apart and Mr. Drain was chopping down a tree, and as he is near-sighted, he called to Lloyd to know if he was out of the way and Lloyd answered all right. After the tree had fallen Mr. Drain did not think of Lloyd for some time and as he did not hear Lloyd working, he went to see if he could find him, and after some time he found Lloyd on his face, insensible, a large cut on his head and bleeding profusely. On closer examination it was found that he had several cuts on the head and bruises about the shoulders. After a time he became conscious, but could not tell what struck him. There was a large limb lying beside him. He is slowly recovering, but still says that he does not know what struck him. It was a very close call.

Mr. Richard Hall is confined to the house by illness.

C. P. R. Telegraph Line.

Completion of Communication Between Halifax and Vancouver.

HALIFAX, Jan. 16.—The Canadian Pacific Railway Company's line of telegraph was completed here to-day and the Halifax office opened for business. The advent of the C.P.R. telegraph was hailed with delight, not only by the business community but by the Government and the press. Heretofore all Government official business had been under the control of the Western Union Telegraph of New York. The press news supplied to the Maritime Provinces papers has also been compiled in Boston, making the newspapers dependent upon American sources for not only their European but most of their Canadian news. The imperial authorities here are also gratified at Halifax being placed in direct and instant communication with Vancouver and Victoria, B.C.

The C.P.R. line to Halifax was constructed under what must have seemed insurmountable difficulties from Vaudreuil, Montreal, to Halifax and New Glasgow, N. S. The Western Union Company, through controlling the right of way on the New Brunswick and Intercolonial railways, hoped to prevent the completion of the national line. The Canadian Pacific were, however, not to be beaten, and their line was constructed immediately outside the railway fences. This necessitated getting the permission of every farmer along a distance of over 400 miles to erect the necessary telegraph fixtures. The Canadian Pacific Railway now control a continuous line of telegraph from Canso and Halifax on the Atlantic to Vancouver, B.C., on the Pacific, and also to San Bernardino, 100 miles south of Los Angeles, in southern California, a distance of nearly 6,000 miles.

Dummer.

Mr. Albert Reddon, on the eve of his severing his connection with the 9th line school, Dummer, was presented with a beautiful toilet set accompanied by the following address :—

DEAR TEACHER,—With feelings of sincere regret we realize that the time has come when you are to sever the relation which exists between us as pupils and teacher. For the past four years you have labored earnestly and successfully in the trying work of a teacher. You have always taken a deep interest in our welfare, have patiently borne with us when wayward and neglectful of our duty, and you have striven to make us better morally as well as intellectually. We sincerely hope that your future course in life may be a highly successful one, and that you will look back with pleasure to the days you have spent among us. Be pleased to accept these small gifts as a slight token of the esteem and affection we have towards you. That this festive season may be an enjoyable one to you and that God may bless you abundantly in all your future undertakings is the sincere wish of us all. Signed on behalf of the school,

AMY T. WILSON.

"La Grippe" or Lightning Catarrh.

MR. EDITOR,—"La Grippe," or Russian influenza, as it is termed, is in reality an epidemic catarrh, and is called by some physicians "lightning catarrh," from the rapidity with which it sweeps over the country. Allow us to draw the attention of your readers to the fact that Nasal Balm, as well as being a thorough cure for all cases of the ordinary cold in the head and catarrh, will give prompt relief in even the most severe cases of "La Grippe," or Russian influenza, as it will effectually clear the nasal passages, allay irritation and relieve the dull, oppressive headache accompanying the disease. No family should be without a bottle of Nasal Balm in the house, as cold in the head and catarrh are peculiarly liable to attack people at this season of the year, and Nasal Balm is the only prompt and speedy cure for these troubles ever offered the public. Easy to use and agreeable. If you cannot get it at your dealers, it will be sent, post free, on receipt of price (50 cents and $1 per bottle) by addressing FULFORD & Co., Brockville, Ont. eodw

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars ; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere ; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Mungo," and "Madre E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most skeptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate. ms

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL

THE NORTH CANADA ATLANTIC COMPANY.

The Projected Railway Designed to Afford a Highway for Transcontinental Traffic — The Governor-General's Drawing Room—The Printers' Troubles.

OTTAWA, Jan. 19.—It seems that the prospective North Canadian Atlantic Railway and Steamship Company, whose application for Dominion incorporation was noted on Saturday, are quite in earnest in their proposition to build a railway from Quebec to the Straits of Belle Isle. They do not calculate to develop much local business but rather expect to make the road a great highway for transcontinental traffic and to save enough on ocean freight and in time to make the venture a success. The Englishmen whose names appear on the application for incorporation are all capitalists of the first rank, and it is claimed that they have $45,000,000to put into the scheme. They are not dependent on a Government subsidy.

The scheme is one promoted by a Canadian engineer, Mr. Bender, who was formerly in the public employ and who also served on the Canadian Pacific Railway. It was nearly two years ago that he went to England to endeavor to interest capitalists there in his idea and he is satisfied that he has now succeeded in giving the scheme a good start.

St. Charles Bay, which is proposed as the terminus for the road for the present, is an excellent harbor in the Straits of Belle Isle and is claimed to be open all the year round. Mr. Bender is a brother-in-law of Mr. Choquette, M.P., who states his implicit confidence in the feasibility of the undertaking about which he has long conversed with Mr. Bender. It will therefore not be without warm backing when it comes up in the Commons. If ever put into operation it will be a great thing for Quebec City, putting it on a short line highway between Europe and the west.

Mr. Bender had more than one iron in the fire while in England, for it was he who organized there the meat company who propose to go so extensively into operation at Three Rivers.

The Governor-General's drawing room reception in the Senate Chamber on Saturday evening was this year rather more tame than usual, no doubt on account of the absence of Lady Stanley through illness. The drawing room, it may be mentioned, may be attended by any person attired in full dress. It is a free-for-all rather than an invitation gathering. About 425 persons passed through on this occasion and ladies numbered rather more than a third. The civil servants were present in force, they and the ladies of their households numbering 155. Only about 20 senators and a few more M'a P. attended. Among the senators present were the three introduced the other day, Messrs. Prowse, Longhead and Boulton. Among the Western Ontario parliamentaries present were Speaker Allan, Senators Sanford and MacInnes, Messrs. Cockburn, Mills, Patterson, Madill, Hesson, Brown, McKay and Landerkin, M'a P.. The unofficial visitors from the west included Mr. A. Finkle of Woodstock, Mrs. Allan Loyd of Barrie, Mrs. J. Logan Irving of Barrie and these from Toronto: Mrs. M. F. Pardee, Miss Kertland, Miss Helen Gregory, Miss Sewell, Miss Harvey, Mrs. Edward Foster, Miss L. Capreol, Miss Cockburn, Miss Yarker, Messrs. Douglas W. Cameron and George Tate Blackstock. The affair was all over in less than an hour.

A strike in the Government printing bureau seems imminent, a motion to order one being defeated at the meeting of the Ottawa Typographical Union last night by only a few votes. The vote stood 90 for a strike and 85 against. Two-thirds of the total membership must vote for a strike in order to justify it and as there were many absentees last night it is claimed that at the adjourned meeting to be held on Saturday next the necessary authority will be obtained.

The trouble is that the printers have demanded from the Government $13 per week while the rate paid in city offices is only $11. Hon. J. A. Chapleau, in whose care the bureau is, on Saturday told a deputation of the printers that the Government could not pay more than the rate in outside offices. He suggested, however, that the employes might be divided into different classes, according to their ability, and that the superior workmen should then get an increase at the expense of the inferior men, who it is notorious do not now earn the $11 dollars per week paid them.

Attorney-General Martin of Manitoba was in town to-day visiting his brother. He denies the story that he and Premier Greenway have been indulging in fistic encounters at their Cabinet meetings and says he has no intention of resigning his portfolio. He thinks that not more than 17 members of the Local House will vote against his Government's proposition to abolish the use of the French language and as far as the separate schools are concerned, he thinks they will go during his term of office.

And Now It's Potteries.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 18.—A cablegram received here to-day announces the acceptance by an English trust of the price asked for five Trenton potteries. A prominent potter to-night admitted the truth of the report but refused to say which of the Trenton potteries were sold. He said eleven potteries of East Liverpool, O., are also embraced in the sale, they receiving about $5,000,000. Trenton's share will be about $1,300,000.

Later advices state the five Trenton potteries sold to the English trust are the International, Prospect Hill, Mercer, Delaware and Crescent.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

A SHARP DEBATE IN THE GERMAN REICHSTAG.

The Kaiser Turns Author — The Labor Troubles in Belgium Assuming a Threatening Aspect — Brazil's New Banking System—Down With Smallpox.

BERLIN, Jan. 18.—There was great interest taken in Friday's debate on the subvention of an African steamship line. Dr. Bamberger (Liberal) energetically opposed the bill on the ground that the condition of Africa did not promise a fair field for commercial enterprise. He cited the poor results that followed the establishment of similar German communications with Samoa and Corea. He said the Government might better give the money to Major Wissmann or the East African Company, as in that way the nation would reap some solid advantage.

Prof. Virchow denied that it was possible to colonize Africa with the men of Europe because of the deadly climate.

Dr. von Stephan, Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, advocated the bill. He said it was a measure towards augmenting and completing the successful work of Wissmann. He stated telegraph lines would soon be constructed in East Africa and declared the Transvaal or South African Republic were so much interested in the projects they had under consideration that it was prepared to defray a portion of the subvention upon condition that the steamers touched at a port accessible to them.

Ex-Minister Hobrecht practically ensured the passage of the bill by promising the support of the National Liberals upon the second reading of the bill.

Dr. Schweininger, Prince Bismarck's physician, counsels him to remain at Friedrichsruhe but it is asserted he insists upon going to Berlin in hope to force the passage of the Socialist Bill and to give an inspiration and a war cry for the electoral conflict to the Government parties. His intentions are, however, wrapped in mystery and produce greater anxiety than the coming elections themselves.

The Westphalian Gazette repeats the accusation that the strikes throughout Germany are fomented by French agents and kept going by French money. It is not unlikely that Bismarck will advance an argument related to this idea in favor of the passage of his Socialist Bill. If Bismarck is not present the bill will be dropped.

Prof. Virchow the other day publicly declared he intended to propose in the next Reichstag a general international disarmament as the true solution of the troubled condition of Europe and the revolt of the overburdened people.

The story that Portugal appealed to Bismarck against England's action as a violation of the treaty of Berlin is denied in official circles. The only foundation for the story is that the Portuguese ambassador had an interview with Count Herbert Bismarck, at which the subject discussed was not the treaty of Berlin but Portugal's request that Prince Bismarck should mediate between England and Portugal. The Government is determined to maintain an attitude of absolute neutrality and it will only depart from this in the very unlikely contingency that England shall also request the mediation of Germany. The Government desires to go hand-in-hand with England in colonial affairs as far as possible.

Leutner, the prima soprano, has died at Wiesbaden.

Prince William of Hesse-Philippsthal has just died at Camel Peschka.

The Kaiser has excluded two more newspapers from all royal palaces because their political attitude is obnoxious to him.

It is said Dr. Doellinger hastened his death by persisting in taking his daily cold bath after he was attacked by the influenza.

The Kaiser is supervising the preparation of an account of his travels. It will be an edition de luxe and will be splendidly illustrated.

The miners in Westphalia and the lower Rhine district demand an increase of wages of 50 per. cent. a day and a reduction of time to 8 hours. These demands are under negotiation.

They give the masters until Jan. 25 to reply. There is no indication that the masters will yield to their demands.

BALM FOR A BROKEN HEART,

A New York Jury Awards Miss Cammerer $12,000 for Breach of Promise.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—The jury in the suit of Miss Caroline Cammerer, a Philadelphia music teacher, against Clemens Muller, a wealthy New Yorker and member of the Liederkranz and Arion Societies, for $100,000 damages for breach of promise of marriage, reached an agreement last night and sealed their verdict. The verdict was opened in court to-day. It awards the plaintiff, $12,000. A motion by the defendant for a new trial was denied and the motion of the plaintiff for allowances was granted. Muller is 60 years old, Miss Cammerer is 30.

A MYSTERIOUS MANIAC.

Claims to Have Assisted in the Cronin Prosecution.

SAN ANTONIA, Tex., Jan. 19.—At 11 p.m. one of the nurses at Santa Ros hospital telephoned that a man who assisted Judge Longenecker in the prosecution of the Cronin murderers at Chicago had been brought there insane and was in irons and raving. The man is possessed of the hallucination that the Clan na Gael is after him with knives dripping with blood. At this hour it is impossible to learn the name of the maniac.

A BUFFALO PASTOR ACCUSED.

Rev. E. C. F. Ernst Charged with Embezzlement—His Defence.

BUFFALO, Jan. 19.—Rev. E. C. F. Ernst, pastor of St. Jacobi's German Evangelical Lutheran Church, who has been treasurer and chief pusher of the May music festival scheme, is charged with having failed to account for some $4700 received for tickets. Mr. Ernst says that he has lent the money to his church.

Death Freed Him.

COLUMBIA, S.C., Jan. 18.—Dick Gardner, a white convict employed on the canal here, made a break for liberty this morning with another white convict, William Jackson. The guards fired upon them and Gardner fell dead. Jackson escaped. Gardner, who was serving a 10-years' sentence, was a notorious horsethief and had become a terror to upper North and South Carolina by frequent depredations.

A TASTE FOR JEWELRY.

Evinced by Hamilton Burglars—The Tea Lottery Case.

HAMILTON, Jan. 19.—About 5 o'clock this morning the wife of R. P. Lamb, who lives in York-street, near Dundern Park, heard someone in the sitting-room. Thinking that it was her husband she went downstairs and found a man asleep on the floor. She shook him to arouse him, and called out, "Bob, what is the matter with you?" Her husband shouted down from upstairs that he was all right and joined his wife. They succeeded in arousing the intruder, never dreaming he was a thief, and with the assistance of a couple of men they hustled him out of the house. After the man was fired out they searched around and discovered that the sleepy burglar had stolen about $35 worth of jewelry.

Some time last night burglars kicked in the plate-glass window of the store of the Merchants' Tea Company, James-street north. They went into store, opened up several packages of tea in their search for jewelry and left everything topsy-turvy. Burnt matches were found lying all over. The thieves went out through the back door. The manager could not say what quantity of jewelry was stolen.

Matthew Fisher appeared at the police court this morning to answer to a charge preferred against himself and Henry Reid, representing the Merchants' Tea Company, that they "on the 17th day of January did sell a package of tea, being the means of disposing of a breastpin by a mode of chance contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided." Fisher asked for an adjournment until Monday, which was granted.

AN INSURANCE SWINDLE.

The Prudential Life Cheated Out of $10,000 by Bogus Claims.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Charles Filicki and Charles Falkenheim were arraigned here to-day charged with swindling the Prudential Life Insurance Company. The men were formerly employed as agents at the New York office of the company but were discharged for dishonesty. They with four other agents went to Utica and were employed as agents by the branch office of the company there. They hatched a plot to cheat the company by means of bogus policies for $1000 which were made out with fictitious names. After paying a month's premium they made out false certificates of the deaths of the policyholders and collected the money. Dr. Brownell of Utica, was let into the scheme and certified to the health of the alleged subscribers and got $5 for every certificate. The agents also collected the $150 commission on each policy. The insurance company was swindled out of $10,000 before anything wrong was suspected. Dr. Brownell was then arrested and the agents fled in all directions. Descriptions of them were sent here and the police arrested Fellecki and Falkenheim. They were turned over to officers from Utica.

DEATH OF PRINCE AMADEO.

The Ex-King of Spain Falls a Victim to Pneumonia.

TURIN, Jan. 18.—Prince Amadeo, Duke of Aosta, brother of the King and formerly King of Spain, died here at 7 p.m. to-day. He was conscious at the moment of his death, and received the Pope's blessing from Cardinal Alimenda. The Duke died of pneumonia and had been ill but a few days. King Humbert's physician came down from Rome to attend him Friday. All the theatres in the kingdom are closed and state festivities discontinued. The Duke of Aosta was 45 years old. He was King of Spain from Dec. 4, 1870, until Feb. 11, 1873, when he abdicated.

The King arrived here at 1 o'clock and it was then known the end was near. The Duke recognised His Majesty. Besides the King the Duke's wife, his children, his sister, the Princess Clothilde and all his nearest relatives were present at his death. This event will stop the proposed journey to the east of the Prince of Naples.

LISBON, Jan. 18.—The Dowager Queen, who is a sister of Prince Amadeo, and her son, the Duke of Oporto, started to-day for Turin.

His Last Words Devoted to Italy.

ROME, Jan. 19.—King Humbert's telegram to Premier Crispi announcing the death of his "dearly loved brother" the Duke of Aosta, says the duke devoted his last words to the country and the army, saying he had loved them with the strongest love and regretted dying so early only because it would prevent his serving them. The King concludes: "I press your hand with sorrow at heart. Your very affectionate HUMBERT."

Premier Crispi has started for Turin. The Queen and her son will go to-morrow. The funeral will take place Wednesday and at the desire of the deceased will be a simple ceremony. The army will mourn 45 days. The municipal authorities will place a bust of the deceased in the Capital.

On the arrival of King Humbert at his brother's bedside yesterday, the Duke said: "You see, Humbert, I allowed myself to be tortured with remedies to be kept alive to die in your arms." The Duke remained conscious to the last, encouraging his wife and sons, whom he recommended to the care of King Humbert. By the Duke's own wish the body will not be embalmed, there will be no lying in state and the remains will be placed in the family tomb at Superga. If there had been a state funeral the German Emperor would have been present.

Chicago's Death Roll.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Up to noon to-day there have been 688 deaths here since last Saturday noon, or 136 more than for last week. Six deaths from influenza were reported to-day.

GREAT RIFLE SCHEME.

Proposed International Matches Between Canada and the United States.

OTTAWA, Jan. 19.—Another great rifle scheme is on the program for next season, this being a series of telegraphic matches between teams representative of the chief cities of the United States and Canada. The proposition emanates from Captain John S. Shepherd, secretary of the National Rifle Association of America. He thinks such matches would do a great deal towards the development of shooting interest on both sides of the line, and the improvement of weapons and methods.

It has also been suggested that a Canadian team should visit Creedmore next season and an American team try conclusions at Rideau in return. New York riflemen are anxious to renew the great international contests such as were common some years ago.

The Late Henry E. Searle.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—Advices from Australia say the funeral of Henry E. Searle the deceased champion oarsman took place at Sydney, Dec. 14, the ceremony was witnessed by 170,000 people. the mayor and aldermen and a deputation of members of parliament formed part of the procession which was one of the longest of its kind ever seen in Sydney. The remains were interred at MacLean. There is a movement on foot to erect a monument to Searle's memory.

Killed by Grief.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 19.—John Morris, a boss roofer, fell from the top of a building yesterday and was instantly killed. Last night his father-in-law James Hogan, who lived with Morris, came home and seeing Morris' body threw up his hands exclaiming "My God! Johnny, can it be that you're dead?"

THE NEWS IN LONDON.

JOHN RUSKIN REPORTED TO BE INSANE.

Salisbury's Hand Forced in the Portuguese Difficulty, But the Premier Having Taken the Trick is Mollified—The Land Bill—Gladstone's Slanderer.

LONDON, Jan. 18.—John Ruskin, the great leader in English critical literature, has become hopelessly insane.

There has been a great deal of whispered talk in upper art circles of London for months past concerning Mr. Ruskin's condition and the peculiar circumstances by which he is environed. There has been no public comment on the matter because of a general desire among his most intimate friends—Swinburne, Burne, Jones and others—to have nothing said about it.

Now, however, the removal of his publisher from Orpington to London and the change in the sale of Ruskin's books from the no-discount system, which he instituted, to the ordinary methods prevailing in the book trade, together with other circumstances, make further secrecy impossible.

Mr. Ruskin's mind has been gradually failing for seven or eight years. The first public suspicion of the fact occurred at Oxford in 1880, when after delivering several lectures of a series he broke down during the delivery of one, became incoherent on the platform and greatly excited the feelings of the sympathetic audience. He delivered no more lectures there and the matter was hushed up.

His health improved and in 1883, the occasion of his last visit to London, he went to the Royal Academy, the Grosvenor and other galleries in company with Oscar Wilde, and was never more perspicacious in comment or brilliant in conversation. At this time he said he should not immediately return to Brantwood, his residence in Cumberland, and he took a place at Sandgate in Kent.

He then went to France, and after spending some time at Amiens went thence to Florence on a visit to Miss Alexander and seemed in good health. At Venice, however, he had an attack and broke down mentally.

Salisbury's Hand Forced.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Lord Salisbury's hand was forced by the conduct of the Portuguese officials of Mozambique and Nyassaland. He will not listen to proposals for a conference; but now that Portugal has yielded, he is perfectly willing to discuss amicably the details of an eventual understanding regarding the territory in dispute, and to show every consideration of natural susceptibilities. But the first condition will be the loyal desire of the Portuguese Government to carry out their pledges of withdrawal. The British fleet will be present, within striking distance of Mozambique, to see that this is done. If Senhor Pimental's Cabinet will act with frankness, Lord Salisbury will do nothing to jeopardise monarchical institutions at Lisbon or to wipe Portugal out of East Africa. He has no desire to see that vast continent in the hands of France and Germany alone. The wild ravings of the Paris and Madrid newspapers amuse rather than disturb the British public. The cancelling of British contracts by Lisbon merchants, the returning of British goods, the boycotting of everything English and the studied insults that are being prepared for the British Minister's wife, Mrs. Petre, who has done much for Lisbon society, only provoke pity and contempt. Fortunately, anger which suddenly rises does not usually last long.

The Land Bill.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—The Government are threatened with increasing troubles over the Land Bill. A powerful deputation of the Antrim Central Tenant Rights' Association has waited on Mr. Balfour, urging that the new Land Purchase Bill should be compulsory. Mr. Balfour could not promise that, and only undertook to consider it. In order to embarrass the Government some of the Opposition talk of promoting a struggle in the Commons in favor of compulsion; but this is only in hope of securing the ear of the Ulster men. A good deal of interest attaches to what after all will be the Government scheme. It will not be surprising if it be based on Sir G. O. Trevelyan's proposals of May, 1884, when it was suggested that £20,000,000 sterling should be advanced, not more than £5,000,000 in one year. Since then nearly £10,000,000 has been exhausted under Lord Ashbourne's Act. Possibly the Government will limit further supply to another £10,000,000, which, at £5,000,000 a year, will provide sufficient to carry the measure till the general election.

Herbert Gladstone's Slanderer.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—Mr. Herbert Gladstone's recovery of £5,000 damages from Colonel Malleson is an exemplary punishment. Colonel Malleson is a rabid anti-Gladstonian and an old Jingo. He is also well known in the city as a "Guinea-pig." He repeated in an Indian journal a groundless story to the effect that Mr. Herbert Gladstone was mixed up in an intrigue with the wife of one of the baronets created on his father's recommendation; and by insinuating that Herbert was a chip of the old block, the Colonel endeavored to revive the scandalous stories concerning the Grand Old Man which crops many years ago out of his midnight rescue work. Of course, there has never been the slightest ground for these outrageous accusations. But Colonel Malleson is a vindictive politician. The lesson which he has just received may help to check newspaper writers from repeating smoke-room tittle-tattle in print.

The Nitrate King For Parliament.

LONDON, Jan. 19.—It is now thought probable that Col. North, the nitrate king, will be brought forward by the Conservatives as their candidate for the Parliamentary seat for Middle Glamorganshire, made vacant by the death of the Liberal incumbent, Mr. Christopher R. M. Talbot. That he will be returned, however, is a matter of much less certainty than his candidature.

The Prisoners Will be Prosecuted.

JACKSON, Miss., Jan. 19.—The Senate yesterday killed the resolution which passed the House two days ago declaring that the Governor should expend no more money in bringing any of the parties concerned in the Sullivan-Kilrain fight back to Mississippi to be tried except the principals. The house bill appropriating $1000 for paying the expenses of the agent of the state now in New York and his prisoners passed.

Wm. Muldoon, Mike Cleary and Mike Donovan are in Meridan in charge of Detective Jaynes. They leave for Purvis to-night to appear to-morrow for trial.

Lisbon Quiet Again.

LISBON, Jan. 18.—Tranquility prevails once more in the streets. The Progressist papers assert that further cabinet changes are impending.

In The Dark Continent.

ZANZIBAR, Jan. 18.—The cable from Mombasa to this point is now completed and there is thus direct telegraphic communication between Europe and East Africa.

Letters dated Oct. 7, have been received from Jackson of the British East Africa Company caravan. All were well. Jackson reported they had traveled twelve days in a dense, uninhabited forest and had arrived at a place within twelve marches of Lake Victoria Nyanza.

Emin Pasha is a little better, but he objects to being removed from Bagamoyo.

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—J. T. Devine, a clerk in the Enquiry Department of the Postoffice, was arrested to-day charged with rifling letters. A large number of opened letters were found on him. Six hundred thefts are charged to him. He has confessed.

One thing we do know, and don't fear to say is, you will get more good wool and generous size in the Blankets now here at $5, than is generally offered. Blankets at $4 and $3.75 of good medium sizes.

Once more the cheapest stock of Grey Flannels and Cottons is with us. The people carry it off with more industry than ants, which is the best proof that business men have that goods are cheap.

AT LAST!

[A Wonderful Vegetable Discovery That Removes the Terrible Results of Overwork.

A True Invigorator.

Weakness and prostration of the nervous system surely follow that overwork and worry which brings sorrow and suffering to so many Canadian homes. The terrible results of nervous weakness, are seen on every hand. Pains in the back, poor and unrefreshing sleep, lack of appetite dyspepsia, and lost energy and strength, are the first symptoms of more serious and dangerous trouble. This is the way that Paralysis, Paresis and Insanity begin. Do not delay a moment longer, for some time it will be too late to regain your lost health and vitality. Use Paine's Celery Compound now, and the dull eyes will regain their brilliancy, the cheeks will grow rosy, the brain become clear, the nerves strong and steady, your sleep restful and refreshing, appetite good, and health and happiness will take the place of misery and suffering.

A. Sabiston, the well known lithographer of Montreal, writes: "In the summer of 1888 I had to work very hard, and was troubled considerably with insomnia (sleeplessness). I resolved to try your Paine's Celery Compound, and after taking the contents of two bottles, felt like a new man. A good night's rest gave me strength for the duties of the day, and instead of starting out to business in the morning feeling as if I had completed a day's work instead of being about to commence one I started out in good spirits, feeling fresh and strong. My wife and various friends, to whom I recommended the medicine, have been benefited greatly, and in fact 'Paine's Celery Compound is a household word in our family."

The Daily Examiner.

MONDAY, JANUARY 20, 1890.

A Reform Convention of East Northumberland is to be held at Warkworth on Jan. 21, one for West Durham at Bowmanville on Jan. 24, and one for South Perth at Fullerton Corners, on Jan. 29.

The efforts of the Dominion Government to find markets for Canada products at the ends of the earth have resulted in a reduction of our volume of exports from $102,137,283 in 1882 to $89,189,167 in 1889.

An increase of nearly $600,000 in the value of woollen goods imported into Canada in 1889, compared with the preceding year, is enough to make our manufacturers of woollens get after Mr. Foster with a sharp stick.

Canada exported coal to the value of $2,428,928 last year. Of the coal exports 565,111 tons, valued at $2,113,878, went to the United States. Still further evidence that the American market is of no use to our producers.

British capitalists are applying to Parliament for a charter for a railway to run from Quebec to St. Charles Bay, Labrador. They will put on a fast line of steamers to run to Milford Haven, Wales, and will try, by cutting down time, to capture western export trade.

Mr. Peter Graham, M.P.P., was acquitted at the Middlesex Assizes Thursday of the odious charges brought against him by a Mr. and Mrs. Candlok. As Mr. Graham is over 70 years of age and not in the best of health, he had the sympathy of the public with him in his trial.

People who rashly rush to anti pyrine when they catch the influenza, take warning. Its use in Vienna is said to have caused seventeen deaths from a stoppage of the heart's action. Unless under a doctor's prescription, the use of the drug is dangerous. It is highly probable that more deaths, or at least, serious illness, is caused by indiscriminate swallowing of powerful drugs, than by disease itself.

The Dominion Government put up their vice-regal spokesman, the Governor-General, to say that Canada was in a most prosperous condition. Now, is there a single business man in Peterborough, of the hundreds whose whole time is consumed in battling for commercial existence, not to dream of profit, but will pronounce this statement as an insult to ordinary intelligence?—and Peterborough is as prosperous as any place in Canada. As well tell a jockey, flung from his saddle to the turf, that he is winning the race.

A strong plea for unrestricted reciprocity of trade between Canada and the United States has been made by Mr. Wilmot, of Kingston, brother of the late Conservative M.P.P. for Frontenac county. At a recent meeting of the Midland Central Fair Association, of which he is president, Mr. Wilmot said the time had arrived when the farmers of Ontario must look out for themselves. Agriculture, he said, was in a depressed condition, and it would be still more depressed if farmers were deprived of their natural market, the United States. Where, asked Mr. Wilmot, would the farmers have been last winter but for the American market? In it the farmers had to dispose of their cattle or buy powder and ball and shoot them, as they had not the fodder nor the money to purchase it. He did not endorse all that Mr. Wilmot had said lately in Kingston, but he believed the present federal government's policy was a failure in that it depopulated instead of populating the country. Mr. Wilmot is spoken of as a candidate for the House of Commons in Frontenac county at the next Dominion election.

Behring Sea Monopoly.

The proposition to renew the lease of the Alaska seal monopoly is meeting with strong opposition in the United States senate. Mr. Plumb of Kansas has introduced in that body a bill to repeal the act authorising the secretary of the treasury to lease the rights of the seal fisheries to any company, and also to provide that the lease existing between the Alaska Commercial company and the government be terminated. The bill also requires the secretary to promulgate regulations prohibiting the taking and killing of seals or other fur bearing animals by any but natives, and prescribing the number to be taken each year. It is proposed to continue all the other restrictions now in force but to require that all skins taken hereafter shall be transported annually to San Francisco to be sold there in open market to the highest bidder; all money derived from these sales to be paid into the treasury and set apart for the education of the natives of Alaska. The secretary of the treasury is to appoint agents to carry into effect the provisions of the bill. Mr. Plumb made a speech on Monday in support of his bill, in which he argued that such valuable privileges as those which were secured some years ago by the Alaska Commercial company should not be conferred upon any corporation at any price. The revenues from the Alaska fur trade, he contended, should go into the treasury of the United States.

Skin Diseases are most annoying because so noticeable. Dr. Low's Sulphur Soap heals and cleanses the skin. dw

Symptoms of Catarrh.

Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hawking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. If you have all, or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from Nasal Catarrh. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood or more unsuccessfully treated, by physicians. Five hundred dollars reward is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of catarrh which they cannot cure. Remedy sold by druggists, at only 50 cents. s is not a "cheap" tobacco; it is manufactured from the finest tobaccos procurable, and is placed on the market not for a day or a year but for "all time." Those who have tried it pronounce it a remarkably fine, cool and sweet smoking tobacco. As its merits become known, the demand increases. Many years' experience in handling tobaccos with every facility for manufacturing and purchasing, insures the smoker a good article at a price consistent with the quality of same. D. Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life or energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. A Winter's Tale.

Last winter my little girl caught a severe cold which lasted all season. I doctored with everything I could get but to no avail. Finally I got Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam and gave her two doses which improved her, and in a week she was entirely cured by its use. 2w4d Mrs. C. Norman, Cornell, Ont.

Little Lucy's Luck.

I had a disease of the skin for which Ma tried everything I could think of, but without effect, but the first bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters I tried, I found relief. It gave me great satisfaction. Lucy Venables, (aged 11), Boissevain, Man. 2w4d

SCROFULA

Humors, Erysipelas, Canker, and Catarrh, Can be cured by purifying the blood with

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a remedy for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength and vigor to the body, and produces a more permanent, lasting, result than any medicine I ever used.—E. Haines, No. Lindale, O.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured.—Mary C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, and getting no relief, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured.—Susan L. Cook, 909 Albany st., Boston Highlands, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach.—Millie Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass.

THE GREAT HYMNS OF THE CHURCH.

By Rev. Duncan Morrison, M.A.

Owen Sound, Canada.

"These Notes on the Great Hymns of the Church are the result of the author's observations in the subject for years. He believes that our people in the public service of the Church would sing with the spirit and the understanding in a far higher degree, did they know more about their hymns; and that if any one would undertake simply to tell the story of each of them—giving some account of its origin and authorship, he would render them no small service, even if he should only succeed in awakening a deeper interest in the service of song."—From The Preface.

In one handsome Volume, 320 pages, 8vo., Gilt Top, Cloth.

These Notes have appeared at various times in the Daily and Religious Journals, but have now been collected and largely re-written and are printed in book form at the earnest desire of those who wish to preserve them.

The following excerpts from testimonials received are offered in the way of commendation:

From Rev. G. M. Grant, D.D., Principal of Queen's University, Kingston.

"I can honestly say that Mr. Morrison's book is certain to be interesting and highly instructive."

From Rev. W. Cavan, D.D., Principal Knox College, Toronto:—"* * Discriminating and excellent in tone and spirit * * Marked by much patient research and scholarly grace."

From Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, B.D., St. Andrew's Church, Toronto:—"* * Everyone loving these noble old hymns, selected for annotation, will be pleased at the prospect of their publication in the form proposed, and will sing them with greater understanding and relish by reason of these Notes revealing such spiritual insight and scholarly taste."

From Rev. S. H. Kellogg, D.D., St. James' Square church, Toronto:—"I have read with unusual interest these scholarly Notes on Great Hymns. * * * In my judgement, gathered together in a volume, they could hardly fail of success."

From Mr. Justice Proudfoot, Toronto:—"My opinion of the value of these Notes is very high. * * * Anything I could say would far transcend the limits of a notice."

TWO VISITORS WHO INCREASE THE INTEREST.

HOLBROOK had not been in his office long the next morning before Tom made his appearance, so bright and chipper as to excite Holbrook's envy, for he felt stale and nervous.

"I stupidly let you go off last night with that piece of cloth in your pocket," said Tom, "and thereby have lost a good half day."

"That's so," replied Holbrook, producing it. "Here it is."

Tom took it, and as he did so he said: "My shadow turned up bright and early this morning with information of Fountain."

"Well."

"Not very much. He is a physician who doesn't practice. Member of the Union club and the Lambs, at which he sends most of his time when he is not practicing athletics and visiting the women. Lives in apartments in Thirty-fourth street, I've got the number; visits the Witherspoons frequently and other families in the same set. Is supposed to have enough money to support him as an elegant man of leisure, but not enough for extravagances; is seen at the theatres and the opera in the season frequently, and has a chere amie in Fifth street; has no horses, drinks sparingly, breakfasts where he pleases, and dines at the Union club, when he doesn't dine on invitation. Keeps a man, who has been very useful to my Shadow."

"But who is he? Who's his father?"

"Shadow hadn't got that, so I trotted him out again. I think that is probably a cut above him and that I will have to pursue the inquiry myself. But I must be off."

He was about to step to the door when the messenger entered and handed a card to Holbrook.

"The devil!" said Holbrook.

"Does he visit you frequently?" innocently inquired Tom. "Let me retire, if you please, before he enters."

"Hold on. Stop here, boy." He handed the card to Tom, who read:

MR. HENRY FORSYTH FOUNTAIN,
1120 E. 34th Street.

"The devil!" said Tom.

"Pardon me. I remarked that myself."

"This is following things up."

"Tom, get behind that screen and hear what he has to say."

Tom concealed himself behind the screen where Holbrook's typewriter usually did her work.

"Show the gentleman in."

Fountain entered with an easy and polite air.

"Mr. Holbrook, I assume?"

"At your service, Mr. Fountain."

"My call upon you, Mr. Holbrook, I apprehend is almost futile, but as I am engaged upon an enterprise somewhat clouded and intricate, I feel as if I ought leave no effort unmade, however improbable."

Holbrook bowed.

"If I have not been misinformed," continued Fountain, "you were in partnership with the late Judge Harkner?"

"Until the day of his death," replied Holbrook.

"And for several years previous?"

"Yes, from the day I was admitted to practice. The partnership lasted five years. The judge has been dead nearly four."

"My information was correct, then. The judge had for a client one Charles Pierson?"

"Not during my connection with him."

"Indeed! I supposed the relation between Mr. Pierson and Judge Harkner, as counsel and client, continued until the death of the judge."

"No. You are misinformed. When I entered the office of Judge Harkner to read law, all relations between them had ceased and the affairs were being closed up."

"The affairs of Mr. Pierson were extensive?"

"I have so heard from Judge Harkner. They had had a difference in respect of some matter, I never heard what, and quarreled bitterly—the relations were abruptly terminated. The judge would never speak of the reason."

"Ah, then there is no hope that any papers belonging to Mr. Pierson may have remained in the hands of the judge or his successor."

"No, I recollect that the judge was scrupulous in returning every scrap of paper and even memoranda to Mr. Pierson."

"You are aware that Mr. Pierson died without leaving a will?"

"Yes, and was not surprised to hear it. I had heard Judge Harkner say more than once that that was what Mr. Pierson would do, as he had an unconquerable aversion to making one, although frequently urged to do so. He would promise, but could not be brought to the point."

"As I apprehended, my visit is futile; but I have satisfied myself on the point. It only remains for me to beg your pardon for having taken so much of your valuable time."

He passed out. Tom came from his concealment.

"There is another point made," said Tom.

"I don't see it."

"We want to know something as to his connections, don't we."

"Yes."

"Well, here is one. We can work along the Pierson line to a result possibly. But I must go."

"Not before I tell you of a little matter which occurred last night after I left you."

He recited his experience of the night previous after he had left Tom.

"It is nothing," replied Tom. "He mistook you for some one else."

"That is the conclusion I came to."

Tom went to the door and partially opened it. He drew back quickly.

"I say, Holbrook, there is Wessing outside inquiring for you—the fellow who saw the murder."

"We are in for surprises today!"

"I'll get behind the scenes again," and he disappeared.

Wessing was soon shown in. After some insignificant conversation touching the murder and the failure to discover the perpetrator, Wessing opened his business.

"You recollect, Mr. Holbrook, that at the time I was detained as a witness I declined to give my business in New York?"

"Perfectly well."

"Well, I did give it subsequently when I found the concealment was subjecting me to suspicion. Briefly it was this: My mother had reason to believe that she was closely related to a gentleman who had died in this city some time previously, leaving a large property and no heirs or will. She imagined she was an heir, if not the sole heir. I have now been closely following the matter, and while I did not take much stock in the idea at first, I have come to regard it more favorably. The man's name was Charles Pierson."

Holbrook started violently, knocking a book from his desk and thus covering up a noise behind the screen which might otherwise have been heard.

"Bless my soul!" said Holbrook, "that is strange."

"What is strange?"

Holbrook controlled himself.

"Why, Mr. Pierson used to be a client of this office."

"Precisely, and that is the reason why I am here. I want to inquire if you can shed any light upon certain subjects, and whether any papers relating to Mr. Pierson or his business are in your hands."

"I shall have to disappoint you," replied Holbrook. "Mr. Pierson's relations with this office as a client ceased before I became connected with it. Judge Harkner and he quarreled very bitterly; over what I never knew. He was careful to send everything to Pierson, and I don't know who was his lawyer subsequently. The great amount of business he brought into the office was a tradition when I came in. However, there is an old man who was a clerk in this office for many years—confidential clerk, and who is now retired because of age. He lives on Long Island, a short distance back of Brooklyn. I advise you to call upon him; I will give you a line to him.

Acting upon the impulse of the moment he wrote an introduction.

Wessing took the note and went away, after promising to call upon Holbrook again.

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Mungo," and "Madre E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most skeptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate. me

This might also serve as a hint to others.

The defendant gives as an excuse for his conduct that he could not control his horses.

St. Peter's Mission.

A two weeks' mission was begun at St. Peter's Cathedral Sunday by two Redemptorist Fathers from Toronto. At the 8 and 10:30 o'clock masses sermons were preached, and also at vespers. During the next two weeks masses will be held at 5 and 9 o'clock, and devotions at 7:30. At each service mission sermons will be preached. The services this week are for the English speaking portion of the congregation. Next week they will be for the French. Both masses this morning were well attended.

Rev. C. O. Johnston, the eloquent Methodist divine who preached in the George street church Sunday, lectures to-night in the school room.

Rev. J. G. Manley, of Toronto, general agent of the Upper Canada Bible Society, preached in the Charlotte street church Sunday morning, and in St. Paul's in the evening.

Rev. Jas. McFarlane, of Keene, conducted the services in the Mark street Methodist church, Ashburnham, Sunday.

The Death Rate.

The mortuary statistics for December show an exceedingly low death rate in the principal cities and towns of Canada. Toronto's figures, considering her large and increasing population, are very low, being .86 per thousand. Peterborough's rate is unusually high, being 1.62. Montreal is only 1.71; Hamilton, 1.17; Ottawa, 1.49; Halifax, 1.76; London, .88; Winnipeg, 1.00; Kingston, 1.27; Brantford, 1.27; Belleville, 1.09; St. Thomas, .95; Guelph, .85; Brockville, 1.35; Woodstock, 1.87; Chatham, 1.42; Windsor, .49; and Galt takes the ban with the lowest of all, .27. St. Johns, Que., with 2.80, and Quebec city, with 2.15, are the two highest.

A Pleasant "At Home."

The following is taken from the city news columns of the Globe Jan. 18: "The beautiful residence of Mr. Geo. A. Cox, 439 Sherbourne street, was all ablaze with lights last evening, and its occupants, troops of merry young folk, were alive to the highest spirits. The occasion was an "At Home," given by the genial host and his lady to the young people connected with the Sherbourne Street Methodist Church. It was under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Church, who did everything in their power to contribute to the pleasure of those present. During the evening a short programme was given consisting of several readings by Mr. S. H. Clarke. The programme was also contributed to by Mr. Blakeley, Miss Donnelly, Miss Davis, Mr. Fred Warrington, Mr. Ed. Heeels, Mr. Ed. T. Coates and Mr. Davis. The pastor of the church, the Rev. E. A. Stafford, made a few remarks in the early part of the evening, in which he extended a warm invitation to all the young folks to attend the church.

The New Council

First Meeting of the Year—The High Licenses Bylaw Again—Auditors Appointed—Meeting To-Night.

The first statutory meeting of the town council of 1890 was held about eleven o'clock to-day, the members having previously taken the necessary declaration of office. There were present Mayor Stevenson, and Messrs. Cahill, Davidson, Kelly, R.H.D. Hall, A. Hall, Moore, Rutherford, Langford and Kendry.

A letter was read from Mr. E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, setting forth the result of the recent appeal case Croft vs. the Town of Peterborough, as already stated in the EXAMINER. Mr. Edwards was of opinion the judges of the Appeal Court were wrong in their decision, and asked instructions from the council to carry the case to the Supreme Court.

The communication was received and consideration deferred till evening.

The auditors of last year were re-appointed, the Mayor appointing Mr. P. Henry and the council Mr. J. J. Hall.

Mr. Davidson moved, seconded by Mr. Cahill, that Councillors Kendry, Rutherford, Langford, Moore, R. H. D. Hall, Kelly and Cahill be a committee to strike the standing committees for the year.—Carried.

The council then adjourned till this evening.

Sunday School Anniversay.

The Annual Special Services of the George Street Sunday School—Rev. C. O. Johnston of Napanee, and Others Speak.

The anniversary of the George street Methodist Sunday school was not this year celebrated by a concert as has been done in the past, but confined to special Sunday services and a lecture. On Sunday there were the usual morning and evening services, and a mass meeting of the children in the afternoon.

In the morning the children occupied the middle seats of the church, and throughout the service paid close attention. Rev. C. O. Johnston, of Napanee, preached an effective sermon on the subject of "a stolen child," dealing with the story of the leper Naaman and the little captive maid of Israel (II Kings, v, 3). From the subject he drew the lesson of a child's usefulness in whatever position of life it may be placed, and the necessity of consecration in children. He urged the boys and girls to be good and true, and never ashamed of Jesus. By telling of Jesus, as the little maid told of her God, a child may become the means of saving souls; and as the reward of the maiden's devotion and uprightness was Naaman's cure and her own return home, so we in bringing blessings to others are ourselves blessed and rewarded. The story of Naaman showed that God is able to use a little child in doing His work.

The Afternoon Mass Meeting.

At 2.30 a mass meeting of the Sunday school children was held. There was a very large attendance of the latter and a sprinkling of parents and the general public. The body of the church was fairly well filled. Mr. H. S. Griffin, superintendent of the school, performed the duties of chairman. The choir was present. After devotional exercises, consisting of singing, prayer and responsive Scripture reading, the addresses began. The first speaker was

Rev. S. J. SHOREY, who directed his remarks especially to young persons. He said the fundamental principle of the Sunday school was the study of the Word of God. The value of truth was in proportion to the degree each adapted truth to himself. As material seed was likely to lose its vitality through lapse of time, so the truth of the Word of God had need to be freshly sown and vivified in the hearts of each generation. In our divine relations we were under no obligation to God to take any steps that had not their foundation in our welfare. The Word of God was a revelation of what we all should know of the best way in which man could walk and live. The word of God underlay all advancement and moral and material improvement. The Word of God had its answer in the deep needs of the human heart. The importance of self thought and study and investigation of the truths of the words of the Bible, was insisted on. Young persons should not accept the Bible merely as a matter of tradition, they should investigate for themselves. They should get the feet on the rock and they would then enjoy a relationship with God, which would enable them to justify His dealings with them.

After the singing of the hymn, "Gospel Bells,"

REV. MR. SMITH, a returned missionary from India, gave an address. After referring to the barbaric splendour of the western provinces, the speaker detailed in a very simple, interesting manner the peculiar social custom and manners of the East Indians. The stories of oriental splendour applied solely to the kings. The popular poverty was intense, there were forty millions of natives who never had more than one meal a day, and there were two hundred millions of persons in India whose income was only half a cent per day—they couldn't live on it; they died on it. Half of the children in India die of this slow starvation before the age of two years and others later on. The little folks were deeply interested with a graphic relation of the condition and treatment of the children of India, especially the females, and the horrors of marriage and widowhood. Girls on the average were married at six years of age, and there were twenty million of widow outcasts in India. The country was in such a terribly degraded condition because of their idolatry. Rev. Mr. Smith closed his very interesting address by an appeal to the children to assist in sending and maintaining missionaries.

After announcing a meeting for Monday evening to be addressed by Rev. C. O. Johnston, a closing hymn was sung, followed by the benediction pronounced by Rev. Mr. Johnston.

EVENING SERMON.

The evening sermon was particularly for parents and teachers of the school. The preacher took for his subject the story of David and Goliath, from which he drew many important lessons.

Ashburnham Brevities.

The council meets to-night.

The Rev. C. B. Kenrick, M.A., curate of St. John's, conducted the services in St. Luke's Church Sunday evening. The subject of his sermon was the turning of the water into wine at the marriage feast.

The Rev. J. W. McCleary is suffering from a severe cold, contracted while attending a funeral last week. His throat was so sore Sunday he was obliged to leave the church and allow Mr. E. A. Peck to finish the service. However, his many friends will be pleased to know he is improving and hopes to be round in a few days.

One of the teachers in the public school is off duty to-day owing to an attack of la grippe.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

At the Young men's meeting on Saturday evening Mr. W. Stevens gave an earnest address on "Failure and Remedy."

Consecration meeting yesterday morning was well attended and was a place of refreshing.

Mr. Isaac Richardson gave a practical talk at the personal purity meeting Sabbath afternoon.

Confusion of Names.

In the EXAMINER'S issue of Saturday reference was erroneously made to the death of Dr. McKay, M.P.P., South Oxford. It is pleasant to state, as relates to Dr. McKay, M.P.P., that there was an error. The Dr. McKay whose death the telegraphic despatches announced, though a resident of the same county, was, of course, another gentleman. The error arose from the identity of names, professions and locality of residence.

Little Lake Cemetery Company.

Annual Meeting To-day — Reports of Directors and Superintendent.

The following reports were read at the annual meeting of the Cemetery Company to-day.

DIRECTORS' REPORT.

To the Shareholders of the Little Lake Cemetery Company:—

The directors beg to present the following report for the past year:—

The directors deeply regret having to chronicle the death of one of their members—Hon. Robt. Hamilton—whose remains were followed to their last resting place on Friday last. Mr. Hamilton had been a member of the directorate since 1881. He took a deep interest in the affairs of the cemetery, and his presence on the Board will be greatly missed.

The directors have earnestly endeavored to discharge the duties entrusted to them by the shareholders, and hope their conduct meets with their approval.

They have pleasure in recognizing the efforts of the Superintendent for the improvement of the cemetery. He has been careful and unremitting in the performance of his manifold duties, and has spared no pains in making the cemetery what we believe it to be—one of the neatest and best kept in the province.

In the spring 200 elms were purchased, and planted by the Superintendent on Crescent street between Lock street and the cemetery gates, and in a few years we expect to see there a beautiful avenue of trees. We are assured that the approach to the gates will be further improved shortly by the laying down by the town of a wide plank walk along Crescent street.

The tanks in the tank house not proving sufficient to meet the demands for water, it became necessary to substitute larger ones for them. This was done at an outlay of $94.

Nearly $50 has been expended in repainting the chapel—a work which was much required.

Stone steps have been placed in the stead of wooden ones in the most frequented paths adding materially to the neat appearance of the cemetery.

The directors also purchased some iron seats which have been placed in suitable places through the grounds.

The usual statement of receipts and expenditure for the year, with the auditors' report thereon, will be presented to you. The receipts from the sale of lots and graves was $1,229.50, and for labor in digging graves, covering for lots, watering flowers, etc., $1,120.30. The latter sum falls short of the total outlay for labor, including horse services and the superintendent's salary, by less than $300. Although considerable work was done in making permanent improvements, in clearing, stumping and levelling, for which there has been no immediate return; and although the expense of cutting grass and trimming walks, etc., which is a large item in the labor account, is borne by the company.

The balance on hand at the end of the year in addition to the town debenture of $2000, is $828.02, an increase over that of last year of $64.

The total number of lots sold since the establishment of the cemetery is 1602, divided amongst 1033 shareholders.

J. STEVENSON,
Chairman.

The number of interments made during the year, including removals, was 135.

GENTLEMEN,—In presenting this my annual report for the year 1889 I would like to call your attention to the many improvements that have been made during the year. The high terrace at the main entrance has all been re-sodded, as has also several other terraces through the cemetery. This work required over twelve hundred feet of sod, and has made quite an item in itself for labour.

A new walk has been laid at the chapel front, and the place where the old walk was has been also sodded.

There were, in the spring, about 300 trees and shrubs of various kinds planted, and the hedges all renewed with plants where some of them had decayed. The two hundred elm trees which were planted along Crescent street leading to the cemetery and south along Haggart street to the extreme end, necessitated, caused and required a good deal of labor and attention in planting, watering, mulching, etc., and I am pleased to state that, with the exception of two or three, all are thriving well. I also had grubbed and cleared up a portion of land on the flat, about half an acre, from stumps and trees, and gave it a rough grading, and when more cleared land is added it then can be finished better together. I think it better to clear a portion every year as it can be done between other works. The stone steps now placed at the several walks at the front entrance also made quite an item in labor, digging and building foundations, etc., but their usefulness has more than compensated, and if there were a few more put in they would add very materially to the beauty of the cemetery, and will, in the future, save the labor and expense you have heretofore had of repairing the wooden steps. The enlarging of the tanks had added very much to our convenience, as, since, that was done, we have always had a plentiful supply of water in the time of greatest drouth.

I have also had cleared out the main drain leading to the river and have dug it deeper, so that all the surface water running down the slope of the hill can readily flow to the river without any obstruction. This was a very necessary work, as quite a flow of water runs down these slopes every spring and fall.

As you are well aware, the past was a very wet season, and both the grass and weeds grew exceedingly fast, so that it required nearly double the time and labor of that of ordinary seasons to keep the walks, lawns and avenues clean, and also keep the sward on the lots and graves in proper order.

The labor account, while it is slightly larger than it was last year, would have been very much less except for the early opening of the spring and the lateness of the setting in of the winter season.

I would recommend most urgently that a deep drain be dug and laid with tile along Ravine Avenue, running north from Range Avenue to the intersection of Lake Avenue; also some cross drains under and along the walks to intersect the said drain on Ravine Avenue, as the graves in that section that are dug in the spring to bury the bodies lying in the vault during the winter season, and others, partly fill with water, and it is very repulsive for relatives to lower the body into a wet grave.

Permit me, also, to suggest to you the propriety and, indeed, the great need there is for placing at points in the Cemetery of five or six water closets. They would cost comparatively little, and prove of much convenience. Verily, there is becoming a great number of visitors to the Cemetery. It is treated as the only Park attached to Peterborough, and when the sidewalk along Crescent street is put down, which I trust will be done during this year, the number of visitors will greatly increase, and this attractive and lovely spot will become the most popular resort for both townspeople and strangers.

It has been my earnest endeavor in the past, under your guidance, to increase the great beauty of your Cemetery, and it will continue my most zealous concern to complete its elegance and symmetry.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

I am Gentlemen,
Your Obedient Servant
JOHN KELLY,
Supt.

Chopped to Pieces.

A Horrible Accident on the C.P.R.—A Young Man Cut to Pieces.

Sunday morning the train hands on a C.P.R. freight made a ghastly discovery at Indian River, a station between Peterborough and Norwood. The horribly mangled body of a young man was found on the track close to the station. The remains were identified as those of John Landrigan, a young man about twenty years of age who lives near Indian River. The supposition is that he jumped off the midnight express on Saturday, which being a through train does not stop at small stations, and was thrown down and stunned or perhaps badly hurt by the force of his fall. It is known that two or three trains passed over the line between midnight and the finding of the body, and it is believed these completed the horrible work. The body was literally cut to pieces.

Companion Pictures.

Another handsome reminder of the continued enterprise of the Youth's Companion, the favorite family paper, has come to us in the form of a Colored Announcement Card, printed in fourteen colors. It is folded in the centre, and has on either cover companion pictures. Spring is represented by a beautiful maiden who is returning through the fields, her hands filled with trailing arbutus—that delicate spring flower which grows so plentifully in many localities. On the companion page, the farmer's daughter is pictured coming through the harvested grain carrying a well filled pitcher and basket. The bearer of the noon-day lunch is a welcome sight to the hungry reapers. The interior of the card contains a array of authors and articles, for the coming volume unsurpassed by any paper This beautiful card is only an indication of the great enterprise of the Companion which has made it a National Family Paper, with more than 430,000 subscribers. Nowhere can there be obtained so much entertainment and instruction for so little money (only $1.75 a year.) If you subscribe now you will receive the paper free to Jan. 1, 1890, and for a full year from that date. The publishers offer to send specimen copies and this Colored Announcement Card free. Schools Closed.

La grippe is keeping up its reputation. The Central and South Ward schools were closed down again to-day, and the Advisory Committee of the Board of Education are considering the advisability of closing down all the schools until the epidemic subsides At the Central school, of over 500 pupils on the roll only 200 were present this morning, and five teachers were absent. Mr. Walkis, who is acting as substitute for Principal Smith, was able to be around to day. At the South Ward school there were only a small number of pupils present, and one teacher was down, while two others were unfit for work.

At the West Ward only two teachers made their appearance this morning, and about 50 out of 200 pupils. Consequently school was closed at noon, but will open again to-morrow if possible.

OATMEAL FOOD

OATMEAL is one of the items of daily call in the family.

Rich and poor alike appreciate its value as a palatable and nutritious food.

It is to be found on every breakfast table—or ought to be.

ROLLED, GRANULATED or STANDARD, it holds all other competitors in public favor.

Its popularity is largely due to the excellence attained by improved methods of manufacture.

PALATABLE, NUTRITIOUS, CHEAP. The Oat contains all the constituents necessary for the maintenance of high bodily vigor.

It is one of these complex foods which is capable of supporting life and health for an indefinite period.

In the border raids and forays of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, it was held in high esteem—on an equal to at least—that of the raiders

The provision carried by a Scottish soldier in those days was simply a bag of oatmeal.

With his good Claymore and Shield, and reinforced by this food, in spite of scant attire and inferior camp equipage, how often did he cope successfully with the haughty Southern and was enabled to pay the backs of the best soldiers in the world.

Happily these days are past and milder and more peaceful times prevail.

But this food is still in the ascendant.

Its demand increases every day.

A MINISTERIAL MAJORITY.

THE RESULT OF THE NEW BRUNSWICK ELECTIONS.

Latest Returns Indicate a Government Majority of Five in the New House of Assembly—One Member of the Cabinet Defeated.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Jan. 20.—The elections for members of the House of Assembly to-day have resulted in a narrow majority for the Government.

Only 25 of the 41 seats were contested. The Opposition have been successful in 18 of these, and the Government in 5.

Fourteen Government members were returned by acclamation last Monday and in two other constituencies returning two members each, the Opposition only nominated one candidate, thus ensuring the election of one Ministerialist.

Of the five members of the Executive Council who went to the polls, one was defeated, Provincial Secretary McLellan, who ran for St. John, where the Opposition make a clean sweep.

There is some doubt about the result in Sunbury, but the following list, in which the names of members of the Assembly are in italics, names of the Executive Council in SMALL CAPS and new members in Roman, is to be relied upon with that possible exception:

KILLED BY AN OLD WOUND.

He Had Not Suffered From It For Years, But Necrosis Resulted.

BANGOR, Me., Jan. 20.—One of the most singular cases in the history of surgery in New England resulted in the death of Otis Gilmore, a prominent Bangor lawyer, yesterday. A week ago yesterday morning when Mr. Gilmore awoke, he was suffering much pain in one of his legs. He thought it an attack of rheumatism, but after undergoing the pain for some time physicians were summoned, and after an examination they told him that he had suffered a spontaneous fracture of the hip bone from necrosis of the thigh bone resulting from an old wound.

Mr. Gilmore is a veteran of the civil war, and while serving in the Fifteenth Maine received a wound which to all appearances healed. He has never suffered any discomfort from it, but the physicians told him that all these years the wound had been at work and the pus from the internal suppuration was absorbed by the bone, causing a softening. The process continued until the bone was perfectly dead, and the weight of his body transversely applied had broken it.

The lack of vitality rendered it impossible to set the limb and have it unite, and the sufferer was told that amputation was necessary, but that even then there was only a slight chance for his life. He submitted to the operation and the limb was taken from him as closely to his body as possible. It was hoped that there would be sufficient vitality to heal the wound and save his life. For a week he survived, and yesterday it was announced that the chances for his recovery were good, but last night an artery in the wound gave way, and though the surgeons caught it up as soon as possible Mr. Gilmore's strength failed and he died in a few hours. Such cases are extremely rare.

THE NEW REPUBLIC.

Brazil Seeking a Loan of $10,000,000 in France and England.

PARIS, Jan. 20.—Count Figniredo, President of the Bank of Brazil, has just arrived here from Rio Janeiro. He comes as financial agent of the provisional government to negotiate a loan of $10,000,000, of which he expects to secure $7,000,000 in France, the Bank of France taking a large portion, and the remainder in England.

Count Figniredo says Brazil was never in better condition financially than when he left Rio, and it continues to be so, the best evidence of which is that stock of the Bank of Brazil is rated on the Paris Bourse to-day at 160 francs. Paper is being replaced by gold and silver. Already 50,000 contos have been redeemed. To meet its immediate obligations the Government has issued 4 per cent. bonds and receives the most gratifying encouragement from the people. The army pensioners have agreed to give one day's pay every three months towards paying the national debt. The pensions given widows and orphans by Dom Pedro's government are continued.

The Minister of Finance proposes to contract for the construction of a submarine cable between Brazil and the United States. A presidential mansion is to be built at a cost of $500,000. The Government has notified Dom Pedro that it will buy his palace and other property to prevent its depreciation. The palace will be used as a national museum.

Count Figniredo declares that General Da-Fonseca becomes more popular every day. He asserts that the character and extent of the riots of Dec. 18, have been greatly exaggerated. Some city men and privates of the 2nd infantry instigated by their officers, rag through the streets shouting in favor of the monarchy. They were quickly arrested and tried the next day by the council of state. All were set at liberty except two army officers who were the instigators of the outbreak.

Banished from Russia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 20.—Thirty-nine persons, chiefly Polish and German noblemen, have been banished from Russia.

A Minute Watch.

At the Paris exposition a Florentine friar shows a watch only a quarter of an inch in diameter. It has not only the two regular hands, but a third, which marks the seconds, and a microscopic dial which indicates the days, week, month and years. It also contains an alarm and on its front lid or cover an ingeniously cut figure of St. Francis. On the back cover, by aid of a powerful glass, you can distinctly see and read two verses of the "Te Deum."—New York Telegram.

A Widow's Extravagance.

In Hamilton, O., a man died a few days ago who had $500 in money laid up, and a payment of $150 was due to save his home. His widow took the money to buy a fine casket and expensive lot in the cemetery and to hire twenty-five hacks for the procession, and thus used every dollar and let her home go by default.—Chicago Times.

DOMINION LAWMAKERS.

A BRIEF AND BUSY SITTING OF THE HOUSE.

Petitions Presented by the Score—The Bird Bill Bound to be a Live Issue—Chief Engineer Page's Impeachment Demanded.

OTTAWA, Jan. 20.—Speaker Ouimet is quite punctual this session and takes the chair at 3 o'clock sharp. The first business to-day was the presentation of a score of petitions. Amongst these was one by Mr. Small against the bill promoted by Mr. Brown for the prevention of trap shooting of pigeons. This is bound to be a live issue this session.

Mr. Smith of Ontario presented a number of petitions from the Iron Moulders' Union of Oshawa. These are after the pattern of a host presented last session and ask: That employes engaging in a trade combination may be protected against prosecution for conspiracy; that any terms or stipulations other than the rendering of an equivalent for wages demanded by employes should be declared null and void and that any attempt at their coaction be declared a criminal offence; that the Combines Act shall be declared not to apply to trade unions: that all persons having charge of stationary engines should undergo an examination; that provision should be made for the protection of workmen engaged in the construction of railways; that all vessels navigating inland waters should be properly inspected.

Mr. Dawson presented a petition from the Port Arthur, Duluth and Western Railway Company asking extension of time for completion and increased powers. Senator Macinnes presented the petition to the Upper House.

The three Reciprocity in Wrecking bills of which Messrs. Charlton, Patterson and Kirkpatrick, respectively, had given notice, were duly introduced, Whip Trow standing up for Mr. Charlton in his absence and Dr. Ferguson of Welland performing a like office for Mr. Patterson. Mr. Kirkpatrick was present himself. As he was reading the title of his bill Mr. McCarthy entered the chamber, making his first appearance for the session, and Mr. Kirkpatrick promptly named him as seconder.

Mr. R. S. White introduced Mr. Brown's bill for the protection of pigeons and it was read a first time. The members greeted their old friend the bill with boisterous eyes of "Lost!" "Carried!" and "Explain!" but Mr. White remained a silent champion.

Sir John Thompson introduced the bill relating to bills of exchange, checks and promissory notes, which was before the House last year and withdrawn for want of time.

Another bill of last session was introduced by Mr. Jonoas. He wants the Election Act so amended that returning-officers may have a longer time than at their disposal at present for arranging for elections in Gaspe, which county he wishes placed in the exceptional position now held by Algoma and Cariboo.

Mr. Taylor's bill to prohibit the importation of contract labor was passed over for to-day, that gentleman being absent.

Questioned as to the appointment of a successor to the late Senator Ferrier, Sir John Macdonald returned the stereotyped answer, that the matter is under consideration.

A query by Mr. White (Card.) as to purchase of the 3 per cent. loan of 1868 for sinking fund since June 30 last elicited from Mr. Foster the information that $493,983 had been purchased and that the net average cost was £94 13s. 4d. for every £100 purchased.

Dr. Landerkin, moving for a return of provincial bills disallowed since Confederation with the reason therefor, Mr. McCarthy suggested that to shorten the return the reason given should be simply whether the disallowance had been on the ground of public policy or because the bills were ultra vires. Dr. Landerkin accepted the suggestion but raised a laugh at Mr. McCarthy by adding: "I suppose you will agree to the return being in French and English." "Oh! certainly," was the reply.

Mr. Foster laid before the House a statement of Governor-General's warrants issued since the close of the last session of Parliament and the expenditure made on them. For the fiscal year 1888-89 they amounted to $30,000 on capital account and $161,869 on account of consolidated fund, a total of $191,869. For 1889-90 the amounts were $635,788 capital and $220,526 consolidated fund, total $856,310 for that year and for the two years $1,048,180. Amongst the items are $5441 for the Skeena expedition, $3953 to cover the defalcations of Kingston's defaulting deputy Postmaster Burns, $3000 for an artesian well at Deloraine and $14,300 for the car in which the Governor-General made his Northwest trip. Warrants were issued for $234,000 for the Oxford and New Glasgow Railway, $265,000 for the Cape Breton Railway and $20,000 for the Canadian Pacific Railway.

Hon. Mr. Laurier inquired if the Behring Sea correspondence would be laid upon the table.

Sir John Macdonald replied that it was not the intention to do so at present. It might, however, be submitted late in the session.

"That is very vague," Mr. Laurier smilingly remarked, and Sir Richard Cartwright rose to say that English precedent made the correspondence in order. He said it had been the practice to lay before the House correspondence relating to matters referred to in the Speech from the Throne, and that Sir John had in the past contended for the principle.

Sir John Macdonald replied that his language was purposely vague. Negotiations were now going on at Washington and he had every reason to believe that they would be satisfactorily concluded, but at the present time it was not in the public interest that the correspondence should be submitted.

Mr. Foster announced in answer to a question by Sir Richard Cartwright that the estimates might be expected about the middle of the week.

The House then adjourned at 3.40.

AFTER PAGE'S SCALP.

Dr. Bergin Seeks the Impeachment of the Chief Engineer of Canals.

OTTAWA, Jan. 20.—Dr. Bergin, M.P., gives notice of a resolution impeaching Mr. John Page, chief engineer of canals. The trouble arises in a return presented to the House last session by Sir John Macdonald. The chief engineer of canals, after explaining the weak points of the canal scheme which had been unsuccessfully urged by Dr. Bergin, said:

"The question, therefore, seems in a great measure to resolve itself into whether it is better to spend nearly $1,000,000 for the purpose of pleasing the member for Stormont and Cornwall or reserve the money for a purpose where it is certain to be productive of a really serviceable and useful effect. This gentleman, I am creditably informed in a far-fetched elaborate oration especially remarkable for [illegible] and want of point occupied the House of Commons for several hours recently in talking about the Cornwall Canal and its projectors, leaving it to be inferred what a very different state of matters would now exist had they possessed a capacity of foresight, having even a very small share of the keen penetration claimed for his long range backsight."

Mr. Page continued at some length in this strain but waxing more and more sarcastic and personal as he goes along, even suggesting that Dr. Bergin might better confine himself to the study of the human frame than to problems of canal construction. Surgeon-General Bergin's military prowess is dragged into the discussion also.

Now Dr. Bergen quotes the letter in extenso and points out that Mr. Page cannot be ignorant of what is due to the dignity of the House and the consideration and respect due to its members, and asks the House to resolve that Mr. Page's letter is a scandalous, false and malicious libel upon a member of this House and in high contempt of the privileges and of the constitutional authority of Parliament.

MCCARTHY'S CRUSADE.

Notice Given of His Bill to Amend the N.W. Territories Act.

OTTAWA, Jan. 20.—Mr. McCarthy has lost no time in getting to work at new anti-French reform in the Northwest Territories Act. He gives notice of his promised bill amending that act and also asks for a return showing by years the cost of printing the ordinances and other official papers and publications in the French language from the time of the passage of the Northwest Territories Act. also showing what demand there has been for ordinances printed in French.

NOTES AND GOSSIP.

Hon. Alex. Mackenzie Seized with a Fainting Spell.

OTTAWA, Jan. 20.—Hon. Alex. Mackenzie had a fainting spell just after being driven to the Parliament building this afternoon, and fell exhausted in the main corridor. He quickly recovered and was able to walk away leaning on the arm of Alonzo Wright, the King of the Gatineau, who happened to be present. Mr. Mackenzie was to-night seemingly little the worse of the mishap.

It is not unlikely that the matter of imposition of duty on fruit removed a few years ago will be brought up in the House this session. It is desired chiefly by the fruit growers of the Niagara Peninsula, who feel that their business would be much injured by the importation of fruit in the event of a glut in the American market. They did not suffer any material loss during the season just over because the American crop of peaches, grapes and other small fruits was light and there was little surplus for export.

OSWEGO BARLEY MARKET.

Oswego reports: Barley firm. No. 2 Canada, 56c; No. 2 extra, 60c. Sales, 5000 bushels Canada, by sample, at 58c.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports: Wheat, firm; demand improving; holders offer sparingly. Corn, quiet: demand, poor. Spring wheat, 7s 5d: red winter, 7s. No. 1 Cal., 7s 4d. Corn, 4s 6¼d. Peas, 5s 8¼d. Pork, 54s 6d. Lard, 32s. Bacon, 30s 6d to 30s. Cheese, 52s 6d.

A FIGHT AT A FUNERAL.

Three Men Fatally Hurt and Thirty Dangerously Wounded.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 20.—In a riot at a funeral this evening between factions of a Polish church at Plymouth stones and pistols were used. Thirty men were dangerously wounded, three fatally. The coffin was upset and the corpse rolled out on the ground covered with mud. Constables and a posse of citizens stopped the riot, arresting the leaders. The corpse was buried and the grave is watched by a strong guard.

THE RIVER OF DEATH.

A Steamboat Collision in the Mississippi—Four Lives Lost.

VICKSBURG, Jan. 19.—The steamboat Katie Robbins, bound for Yasoo, collided last night 35 miles above Vicksburg, with a barge towed by the steamer Josie Harkins. The barge capsized and sank, dumping her load, 3000 sacks of seed and 30 bales of cotton, into the river. The Robbins' hull was crushed in on the starboard side just forward of her furnace doors and sank to her hurricane deck in less than three minutes. Four of her deck crew are missing and are undoubtedly lost. Clerk Phippe and several passengers had narrow escapes. The Harkins is uninjured, the Robbins is evidently a total loss.

SLASHING RATES.

The Northwestern Roads Keeping Up a Lively Fight.

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—The action of the Chicago, Burlington and Northern in further reducing second class passenger rates between St. Paul and Chicago to $5, has been met by the Wisconsin Central, the St. Paul and the Stickney line. The cut has affected the Duluth and Ashland rates and involved the Milwaukee, Lake Shore & Western. The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe has given notice that taking effect Feb. 1, it will sell tickets to Indianapolis from Kansas City via Chicago at the rate now charged via St. Louis. This practically amounts to a reduction of rate from Kansas City to Chicago and will no doubt provoke a bitter fight.

DARING ROBBERY.

A Montreal Jeweler Victimized to the Tune of $8000.

MONTREAL, Jan. 20.—A daring robbery was perpetrated to-night in the jewelry store of W. S. Walker, Notre Dame-street. Mr. Walker is a leading diamond dealer and always has a tempting display in his window. At 5.50 when the street was crowded, two men stopped at the window, the one with a piece of picture frame fastened the door, the other with a hammer broke the plate glass window and snatched a tray of diamonds and gold rings valued at $8000. The men made for a sleigh and being pursued the one drove off without his companion, taking the tray with him and going towards the East End. The other doubled and ran down St. Francois Xavier-street, pursued by Mr. Rolland, the shopman, who burst the door open. He was overtaken on Commissioner-street and arrested, but none of the goods were found in his possession. When brought to police headquarters he refused to give his name and nothing can be learned as to his identity. His companion has not since been seen. The men are strangers here and were well dressed and bore the appearance of prosperous American crooks.

Death of a Noted Crook.

MONTREAL, Jan. 20.—Walter Sheridan has died in prison. He was the well-known American bank thief arrested here with Barlow on suspicion of being connected with the Banque du Peuple robbery and sentenced on Wednesday last to six months on the charge of vagrancy. At the time he pleaded for mercy saying that he would not live a week. He has been in the hospital ever since being sent down, suffering from general debility. The deputy coroner held an inquest to-day and Dr. Desmarteau testified to the old man's illness from typhoid fever and lung complications and a verdict was rendered accordingly.

The Perils of a 72-cent Dollar.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—Certain Wall-street financiers are reported as saying that a band of Mexicans calling themselves a "private bank" have been coining the United States standard silver dollar in Mexico in large quantities. These coins are brought from Mexico across the border and exchanged for goods. They contain the same amount of silver as the genuine coin. This silver is worth as bullion only 72 cents, so that there is a margin of 28 cents on each dollar for the coiners. It is estimated that 5,000,000 of these unauthorized dollars have been put in circulation.

Wired From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Senator McPherson and the widow of the late General Judson Kilpatrick called on Secretary Proctor and presented the War Department with the cavalry sabre worn by Gen. Kilpatrick during the war.

In deference to the resolution passed by the Senate Secretary Windom will not make a new lease of the islands of St. Paul and St. George in Alaska for seal fishing until after Feb. 22.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

PORTUGAL WILL YIELD FULLY TO SALISBURY'S DEMANDS.

A Big Row in the French Chamber of Deputies—The Military Called in to Eject Turbulent Members—The Newfoundland Fisheries.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The movement for legalizing the investment of trust funds in Colonial securities is making satisfactory progress although matters have not yet reached the final stage. The result of the discussions by the Colonial representatives in the Department Committee of the Treasury will probably be a bill in Parliament next session legalizing such investment, except where expressly forbidden by trust deed, in all Colonial securities which have averaged a certain minimum price above par during the previous six months. This minimum will be fixed by a sliding scale according to the interest borne by the stock. If carried through the scheme will largely extend the market for Colonial securities.

Portugal Gives In.

LISBON, Jan. 20.—The Portuguese Government finding the powers unwilling to mediate in the dispute between Portugal and England concerning territory in East Africa, will submit to Lord Salisbury's full demands under protest, while at the same time it will try to conciliate Portuguese public opinion.

The editors of papers published here have convoked a meeting to promote the scheme for obtaining subscriptions for the national defence.

Several thousand workmen paraded here to-day filling the air with patriotic cries. The parade converged at the offices of the Commercial Association and presented a protest against the British ultimatum.

THE MILITARY CALLED IN.

A Lively Session of the French Chamber of Deputies.

PARIS, Jan. 20.—In the Chamber of Deputies M. Constans, Minister of the Interior, explained that the Government annulled the municipal credits in favor of strikers in the department of the Rhone because the municipal authorities exceeded their powers.

M. Joffrin mounted the tribune to speak. His appearance was the signal for a demonstration of hostility apparently planned by the Boulangists. There was a tremendous uproar. Joffrin was seated in place of Boulanger when the latter's election was annulled. Deroulede, Boulanger's lieutenant and the leader of the demonstration was censured and ordered withdraw. He refused and the sitting was suspended.

The military was called upon and soldiers forcibly removed Deroulede from the chamber.

M. Joffrin endeavored to resume his remarks. The Boulangists and Reactionists renewed their protests. The Boulangist Millevoie denounced the admission of Joffrin to the chamber. Millevoie refused to withdraw and the sitting was again suspended.

Upon the resumption Laguerre, another Boulangist, declined to permit Joffrin to speak. He met the fate of Millevoie and there was a third suspension of the session.

Finally the Boulangists all left the Chamber.

Joffrin then condemned the annulment of the Credits and attacked Boulanger.

The Chamber dismissed the subject by a vote of 293 to 52.

The Newfoundland Fisheries.

PARIS, Jan. 20.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day M. Flourens questioned the Government regarding the rights of French fishermen in Newfoundland. He contended the rights of France were violated by the presence of the Newfoundland authorities to interpret the treaty of Utrecht in a way to exclude French fishermen from privileges they were entitled to.

M. Spuller, Minister of Foreign Affairs, said France had by treaty a limited sovereignty on certain parts of the Newfoundland coast for certain purposes. But the arrangements between England and France did not accord with the views of the Newfoundland Parliament, and the case was more difficult and delicate than formerly. He referred to the complications which had arisen regarding the lobster fishery and said negotiations are pending, but the negotiations are complicated by private claims. The minister denied the English Government had authorised an officer to notify French fishermen they could not take lobsters this season. That government had confirmed all arrangements made by the ministry of M. Goblet. There was no reason why the fishermen should not continue their industry.

M. Flourens protested that the rights of the men were violated and the Government did not protect them as energetically as it should.

M. Freppel and M. Cassagnac introduced resolutions favoring a vigorous assertion of the rights of France.

Several members demanded that the Chamber proceed to the order of the day, which was adopted.

Jaime Visits Timbuctoo.

PARIS, Jan. 20.—For the second time Timbuctoo has been reached by steamboats. This time the journey has been made by Lieut. Jaime, of the French Navy, with the gunboats Niger and Mage. It was with the Niger that Lieut. Caron made the first trip to Timbuctoo in the summer of 1887. The only news yet received is that Lieut. Jaime started from Kulikoro on the Upper Niger on Sept. 16 last, that he made the journey of about 800 miles to Timbuctoo in safety, remained in the famous city for a short time, and then returned up the river. The entire journey occupied only six weeks. The natives everywhere gave him a friendly reception. This is very different from the experience of Lieut. Caron. In the first place Tidiani, the young prince who rules a country of about 50,000 square miles, with a population of a million, on the right bank of the Niger, was opposed to Caron going to Timbuctoo, because he feared the French would draw away the trade of that city, from which he derives large profit. "You cannot go there," he cried, when Caron visited him. "You come to my house, into my room, but that gives you no right to visit my wives. If you try to go to Timbuctoo there will be war." But Caron, nothing daunted, went on his way, and the prince thought better of his threat and did not try to molest him. He, however, used his influence with the people of Timbuctoo to induce them to give the explorer a hostile reception. Caron was not permitted to go to the city itself which is several miles from the river, and after a stay of one day at the post he was glad enough to get away without fighting.

Shocking Cruelty Charged.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Sensational charges of ill-treatment are made public by a 16-year-old boy who has just completed a term at the State Asylum for the Blind at Jacksonville. It is alleged that helpless blind children are brutally whipped and starved, their letters suppressed, money and eatables stolen by attaches and the children kept poorly clad in midwinter.

Fatality at Brampton.

BRAMPTON, Jan. 20.—Mrs. Blackwell, who had been here to market, was walking home by the Grand Trunk Railway track when she was struck by a light engine and instantly killed.

The Jury Bribers' Trial Put Off.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—The alleged jury bribers in the Cronin case were brought into court for trial this morning. On motion of defendants a continuance was granted until Feb. 10.

The Jesuits v. The Mail.

MONTREAL, Jan. 20.—Mr. Justice Doherty rendered judgment in the Jesuit-Mail case, rejecting the amendment to the exception a la forma. This judgment practically puts The Mail on the merits of the case.

One thing we do know, and don't fear to say is, you will get more good wool and generous size in the Blankets now here at $5, than is generally offered. Blankets at $4 and $3.75, of good medium sizes.

Once more the cheapest stock of Grey Flannels and Cottons is with us. The people carry it off with more industry than ants, which is the best proof that business men have that goods are cheap.

[A Wonderful Vegetable Discovery That Removes the Terrible Results of Overwork.

A True Invigorator.

Weakness and prostration of the nervous system surely follow that overwork and worry which brings sorrow and suffering to so many Canadian homes. The terrible results of nervous weakness, are seen on every hand. Pains in the back, poor and unrefreshing sleep, lack of appetite dyspepsia, and lost energy and strength, are the first symptoms of more serious and deeper-seated trouble. This is the way that Paralysis, Paresis and Insanity begin. Do not delay a moment longer, for some time it will be too late to regain your lost health and vitality. Use Paine's Celery Compound now, and the dull eyes will regain their brilliancy, the cheeks will grow rosy, the brain become clear, the nerves strong and steady, your sleep restful and refreshing, appetite good, and health and happiness will take the place of misery and suffering.

A. Sabiston, the well known lithographer of Montreal, writes: "In the summer of 1888, I had to work very hard, and was troubled considerably with insomnia (sleeplessness). I resolved to try your Paine's Celery Compound, and after taking the contents of two bottles, felt like a new man. A good night's rest gave me strength for the duties of the day, and instead of starting out to business in the morning feeling as if I had completed a day's work instead of being about to commence one I started out in good spirits, feeling fresh and strong. My wife and various friends, to whom I recommended the medicine, have been benefited greatly, and in fact 'Paine's Celery Compound is a household word in our family."

The Cemetery Company.

A Noisy and Exciting Meeting—The New "Tinkst" of Directors Elected—The Financial Statement.

The annual meeting of the Little Lake Cemetery Company was held in the council chamber Monday afternoon at three o'clock. There were present Mr. Jas. Stevenson, President; Sec-Treas., E. A. Peck; Directors, Jno. Burnham, J.J. Lundy, Rev. V. Clementi, G. M. Roger and W. H. Moore. The council-room was crowded to overflowing. There were probably 150 stockholders of the company and others in the room, and the proceedings evoked considerable interest. It was a matter of public knowledge that there was some friction between the Directors and some of the stockholders, and it has been generally known and currently reported that an effort was being made for some weeks past to elect a Board of Directors pledged to the removal of the Superintendent of the cemetery—on the ground of his being a Roman Catholic—hence the evidence of a preconcerted purpose shown by the large attendance at the annual meeting yesterday. It is understood that canvassing was very actively entered upon, and that candidates for positions on the Board of Directors were asked to pledge themselves, if elected, to remove Mr. Kelly from the position of Superintendent.

After the minutes of the last annual meeting had been read and adopted, the Directors report was read. [It was published in the EXAMINER yesterday.]

Mr. KINGAN remarked upon the absence in the report of all official mention of the appointment of Mr. Peck as Secretary-Treasurer, in place of the late Mr. Edwards.

Mr. STEVENSON stated that he had neglected to include it in the report, but he would do so.

Mr. KINGAN suggested the advisability of getting some guarantee from the treasurer.

Mr. STEVENSON said they had sureties from Mr. Peck for twice the amount of the money he had in his possession.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

The report of Superintendent Kelly was then read, as published in the EXAMINER yesterday.

Mr. CLEMENTI objected to the portion of the report referring to the erection of a number of closets. He did not think they were very necessary in such a place.

Mr. JOHN MCNAUGHTON began an ardent advocacy of the innovation, which he considered a boon to the public at large. His address created considerable laughter, and finally he was called to order by Mr. John Burnham, who said his name was not on the stockholders' list. Mr. McNaughton contended that it cost him enough anyway, as he paid for the care of his father-in-law's and mother-in-law's graves. But the discussion ended in a general hubbub, and the matter was dropped on the motion to receive the report being adopted, thus leaving the matter of discussion settled.

THE BALANCE SHEET.

The auditors' report was then read and adopted, as follows:—

Dr.	Receipts.
To Balance on hand 1st January, 1889..		$ 763 97
Cash received from Superintendent.	$2369 20
Interest allowed by bank	19 55

Cr.	Expenditure.

" Stone steps	125 00
" New tanks	94 00
" Miscellaneous items	17 96
Balance on hand	526 01
		$3,242 83

We certify that we have examined the foregoing balance sheet, and the Treasurer's books and vouchers and the Caretaker's weekly statements, and we find the same correct. The balance on hand at the close of the year is $526 01 as above stated. In addition there is a debenture of the town for $2,000.

JOHN J. HALL, JAS. A. HALL, } Auditors.

Peterborough, 18th January, 1890.

AUDITORS APPOINTED.

Mr. Lundy moved, seconded by Mr. McWilliams, that the auditors of last year be re-appointed.—Carried.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.

The next business was the election of Directors. There was some discussion as to the mode of election. Mr. McWilliams and others thought it better to make regular nominations instead of following the old plan of voting at random.

Mr. CLEMENTI and Mr. JOHN BURNHAM objected to this method on the ground that it was irregular and unusual, and would result in a ballot in the end.

Mr. MCWILLIAMS wanted the election conducted in this manner so that the stockholders would know who they were voting for.

The President read the list of present Directors. On motion of Mr. A. Rutherford, seconded by Mr. McWilliams, nominations for directors were proceeded with. Messrs. J. B. McWilliams and H. T. Strickland were appointed scrutineers.

The nominations then took place.

The election was attended by all the noisy discussion and wire-pulling of a political campaign. One hundred and fifty voices began talking at once, and the President mounted a chair and shouted out his instructions concerning the ballot.

The scrutineers did not complete their work till after six o'clock, the count resulting as follows:

John Burnham	135
John Carmody	128
W Foreman	44
E Hardy	134
J G Weir	116
J J Hartley	173
Alex Hamilton	132
Rev V Clementi	89

The directors elected were Messrs. J. J. Lundy, Jno. Burnham, G. M. Roger, Jno. Carnegie, J. J. Hartley, R. Hardy, Alex. Hamilton, W. S. Northey and J. Stevenson.

The meeting then adjourned, the directors to meet next Monday for the election of officers, etc.

R. W. & O Washington Excursion.

The Fourth Annual Grand Excursion from all stations on the line of the R. W. & O. R. R. to Washington, the National Capital, will be run on Tuesday, March 4th, and not on March 25th, as erroneously stated in several newspapers.

Special solid trains, with elegant Day Coaches and Wagner Palace Cars, will leave all stations on the R. W. & O., on the afternoon of Tuesday, March 4th, and run through to Washington without change or transfer, arriving at Washington at three o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, March 5th. The rate from any station on the line of the R. W. & O. will be Ten Dollars ($10 00) to Washington and return. Tickets will allow Ten Day's stay in the City of Washington. Special arrangements will be made for Side Trips to Petersburg, Richmond, and other places in Virginia, Mount Vernon, and all places of historic interest, and popular resorts reached via Washington.

The R. W. & O. R. R. will distribute free, through its ticket agents, early in February, an Illustrated Programme, giving full details in regard to the Excursion, and a complete description of the City of Washington, with illustrations of all the public buildings.

Perfection of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life or energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic will do the work, it works in accordance with nature, supplys fresh nourishment to the glands keeper, the hair luxuriant and natural in shade. Be sure to get, you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisement in another column.

A Winner's Tale.

LAST winter my little girl caught a severe cold which lasted all season. I doctored with everything I could get but to no avail. Finally I got Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam and gave her two doses which improved her, and in a week she was entirely cured by its use.

SCROFULA

Humors,

Catarrh,

Can be cured by purifying the blood with

I do not believe that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has an equal as a remedy for Scrofulous Humors. It is pleasant to take, gives strength and vigor to the body, and produces a more permanent, lasting, result than any medicine I ever used.—E. Haines, No. Lindale, O.

I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, in my family, for Scrofula, and know, if it is taken faithfully, it will thoroughly eradicate this terrible disease.—W. F. Fowler, M. D., Greenville, Tenn.

For forty years I have suffered with Erysipelas. I have tried all sorts of remedies for my complaint, but found no relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking ten bottles of this medicine I am completely cured.—Mary C. Amesbury, Rockport, Me.

I have suffered, for years, from Catarrh, which was so severe that it destroyed my appetite and weakened my system. After trying other remedies, and getting no relief, I began to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a few months, was cured.—Susan L. Cook, 900 Albany st., Boston Highlands, Mass.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is superior to any blood purifier that I have ever tried. I have taken it for Scrofula, Canker, and Salt-Rheum, and received much benefit from it. It is good, also, for a weak stomach.—Millie Jane Peirce, South Bradford, Mass.

THE GREAT HYMNS OF THE CHURCH.

By Rev. DUNCAN MORRISON, M.A.
OWEN SOUND, CANADA.

"These Notes on the Great Hymns of the Church are the result of the author's observations in the subject for years. He believes that our people in the public service of the Church would sing with the spirit and the understanding in a far higher degree, did they know more about their hymns; and that if any one would undertake a story to tell the story of each of them,—giving some account of its origin and authorship, he would render them no small service, even if he should only succeed in awakening a deeper interest in the service of song."—From The Preface.

In one handsome Volume, 320 pages, 8vo., Gilt Top, Cloth.

These Notes have appeared at various times in the Daily and Religious Journals, but have now been collected and largely re-written and are printed in book form at the earnest desire of those who wish to preserve them.

The following excerpts from testimonials received are offered in the way of commendation:

From Rev. G. M. Grant, D.D., Principal of Queen's University, Kingston.

"I can honestly say that Mr. Morrison's book is certain to be interesting and highly instructive."

From Rev. W. Caven, D.D., Principal Knox College, Toronto:—"* * * Discriminating and excellent in tone and spirit * * Marked by much patient research and scholarly grace."

From Rev. D. J. Macdonnell, B.D., St. Andrew's Church, Toronto:—"* * * Everyone loving these noble old hymns, selected for annotation, will be pleased at the prospect of their publication in the form proposed, and will sing them with greater understanding and relish by reason of these Notes revealing such spiritual insight and scholarly taste."

From Rev. S. H. Kellogg, D.D., St. James' Square church, Toronto:—"I have read with unusual interest these scholarly Notes on Great Hymns. * * * In my judgement, gathered together in a volume, they could hardly fail of success."

From Mr. Justice Proudfoot, Toronto:—"My opinion of the value of these Notes is very high. * * * Anything I could say would far transcend the limits of a notice."

THE DIAMOND BUTTON

FROM THE DIARY OF A LAWYER AND THE NOTE BOOK OF A REPORTER.

By BARCLAY NORTH.

(Copyrighted, 1889, by O. M. Dunham. Published by special arrangement through The American Press Association.)

As soon as he was out of the door Tom came forth.

"You infernal ass!" cried Tom, "what under the heavens did you shove him out in that way for?"

Holbrook's face fell.

"See here, Bryan, there is a limit to the things you may say to me."

"I beg your pardon, Holbrook; I let my feelings master me. But what possessed you to shut him off that way. He was disposed to talk."

"Well, principally because you were behind the screen."

"What of that?"

"Well, the same circumstances do not surround Wessing as do surround Fountain—the same suspicions—and I didn't want him to become confidential when he thought he was talking to a reputable counselor alone."

"But doesn't this queer state of things strike you? See here. We suspect Fountain of Templeton's murder—slightly, to be sure—but suspect him. He comes to see you inquiring for Pierson's papers. Wessing sees that murder and he comes inquiring about Pierson's papers. What connection is there?"

"I saw all that and recollect what you have forgotten."

What?"

"That we have our suspicions of Fountain through Flora Ashgrove's strange behavior and that she manifests great anger against Wessing, threatening to be his accuser, while denying knowledge of him!"

"To be sure! To be sure! Don't you see that these coincidences have an important bearing upon the murder—that you lost an opportunity to get hold of a string which may lead us straight to the result?"

"Oh, I don't believe Wessing knows anything of the affair."

"My dear fellow, everything is guess work, but every line must be examined. How could you let Wessing slip through your fingers so?"

"He is easily enough regained. I can get his address from the police authorities, and he will unburden himself to the old clerk, George Dolwell. I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll telegraph Dolwell to give him all the information he can and to extract as much as possible. The old boy is very shrewd."

"Do so at once. And now I must go after my new suit of clothes."

"You will come for those buttons to-morrow?"

"Yes. This thing is getting thick. Yesterday we panted for a single bit of daylight; today we have an embarrassment."

He disappeared, and Holbrook lost himself in thought.

CHAPTER XIII.

THE INTEREST IS CONSIDERABLY HEIGHTENED.

HOLBROOK'S reverie, however, was soon disturbed.

The messenger came in with another card. He read, "Mr. Geo. Parker."

"I have an unusual run of callers today," said Holbrook, "and not a client among them unless this is one. Show him in."

The door opened. Holbrook was startled, and betrayed his surprise.

Well he might. It was his old gentleman of the night previous, who was not less surprised than Holbrook.

He smiled as he advanced and said:

"We both of us seemed to have received a shock of surprise."

Holbrook assented, "I confess to the shock on my side."

"I hardly expected to see you so soon again, or to find in Mr. Holbrook the gentleman I met last night."

Holbrook bowed courteously for answer and determined that he would hold perfect control of himself.

"I followed you last evening, Mr. Holbrook."

"I was aware of that," replied Holbrook with a smile.

"I did not suppose you were," said the old gentleman laughingly; "I must have done my work badly. Let me say, however, right here that I was mistaken in the person. You resemble the one I supposed I was following so much in build and manner that not until I had resorted to a little ruse to get a fair look at your face was I aware of my mistake. I hope you will accept my apologies for any annoyance I may have given you."

"None are needed. I became aware of your mistake. We are all liable to them."

The old man mused a while and Holbrook studied his face. The more he studied it the less he liked it. There was blended weakness and strength in it and the want of those strong, rugged lines which gave character to old age. The lines began strongly but seemed to run into nothing, leaving an impression of shiftiness. The eyes were cunning, not frank, though there was unquestionably an assumption of frankness in his manner.

At length he spoke.

"In passing the Casino theatre I saw you turn a corner with a gentleman, and I leaped to the conclusion that you were a person for whom I have been looking these two years—a man from Chicago—to find whom I would give half of all I am worth or expect to be worth."

An angry look leaped into his eyes, while vindictiveness was plainly apparent.

"Do you not know his name?" asked

"I know what it was two years ago. Not what it is now. However, it is an old story of deep wrong and injury, and is not what I came to see you about. I believe, Mr. Holbrook, you were a partner of the late Judge Harkner?"

Holbrook could hardly repress a start. He wondered if this was also an inquiry after Pierson's papers.

"Yes," he replied simply; firmly determined that he would show no emotion whatever questions might be asked him.

"May I ask when that partnership began?"

"Yes, it was eight years ago the first of last January."

"Ah, nearly nine years ago." The old man pondered a short time.

"Was Mr. Charles Pierson a client of the judge's at that time?"

Holbrook was prepared for this question, yet it was with difficulty he could repress his surprise.

He replied promptly: "No, the connection ceased through a quarrel before I came as a student to the judge three years previous."

"Hum." The old man pondered again.

"What lawyer succeeded the judge with Mr. Pierson?"

"I don't know. The judge would say little about the matter. I know of it only through tradition in the office."

"Were all the papers of Mr. Pierson returned to him?"

"Every one, religiously, scrupulously—so scrupulously as to remain, as I said, a tradition in the office. It was much talked of when I came in, because Mr. Pierson had been a valued and profitable client."

"Yes, I presume so."

"Pardon me," said Holbrook, "may I ask the reason of this inquiry? Twice before by different persons I have had these inquiries made?"

"By two different persons?" spoke up the old man sharply. "How long ago?"

There was great eagerness in his manner and tone.

"Within a month, I should imagine."

"Two, you say? What were their names?" this was demanded almost fiercely. "Men or women?"

"Pardon me," said Holbrook coldly, "you demand the names and information as if I were compelled to give them."

The old man glared at him savagely, but Holbrook continued calmly:

Symptoms of Catarrh.

Dull, heavy headache, obstruction of the nasal passages, discharges falling from the head into the throat, sometimes profuse, watery, and acrid, at others, thick, tenacious, mucous, purulent, bloody and putrid; the eyes are weak, watery and inflamed; there is ringing in the ears, deafness, hacking or coughing to clear the throat, expectoration of offensive matter, together with scabs from ulcers; the voice is changed and has a nasal twang; the breath is offensive; smell and taste are impaired; there is a sensation of dizziness, with mental depression, a hacking cough and general debility. If you have all, or any considerable number of these symptoms, you are suffering from Nasal Catarrh. The more complicated your disease has become, the greater the number and diversity of symptoms. Thousands of cases annually, without manifesting half of the above symptoms, result in consumption, and end in the grave. No disease is so common, more deceptive and dangerous, or less understood or more unsuccessfully treated, by physicians. Five hundred dollars reward is offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for a case of catarrh which they cannot cure. Remedy sold by druggists, at only 50 cents. 'a

The Canada Life
Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder:"

When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5,040,183, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calendar year, the result of which would be to reduce the earning one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would certainly, considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $840,183 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525,000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300,000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management. dw

A Bridge Carried Away.

This morning the foot and general traffic bridge at Hastings was destroyed by a flood. It will take some time to repair the damage.

Mr. Hayward leaves behind him a wife and seven children, under very distressing present circumstances. Five of them are prostrated with the same disease that carried off their father, inflammation of the lungs, superinduced by an attack of the prevailing influenza epidemic.

The Schools to Continue.

The Advisory Committee of the Board of Education, having considered the subject maturely, have decided to continue the classes at the several ward schools in spite of the small attendance. Those who do attend will receive benefit and the schools will be saved from the derangement of discipline and efficient working consequent upon repeated interruptions of routine of work. The schools will continue to remain open.

Quarterly Board.

An adjourned meeting of the Charlotte street Methodist church board was held on Monday night. There was a good attendance. Mr. Davis, Recording Steward, presented the financial statement showing that the finances of the church were in a satisfactory condition. The report was adopted. After the transaction of routine business, Mr. Cox's seat on the Nicholls Hospital Board having lapsed, Mr. James Stevenson was appointed in his stead. On the recommendation of Rev. S. J. Shorey, the application of Mr. James Sutherland for license as local preacher was unanimously accepted, on motion of Mr. J. L. Hughes, seconded by Mr. R. Neil. In view of Mr. Sutherland's past record of satisfactory work the usual examination was waived.

The Late Mrs. Patrick Garvey.

Intelligence has been received of the death at Norwich, Oxford county, of Mrs. Garvey, relict of the late Patrick Garvey, and mother of Mr. John and Mr. Francis Garvey, well known in Peterborough. Mrs. Garvey died after a short illness, the result of a slight cold and old age. Her three daughters were with her in her last hours, but her sons were unable to be with her in time to see her alive. Mrs. Garvey was quite conscious and calm up to the moment of death. Her husband, Mr. Patrick Garvey, died 26 years ago. They had a family of twelve children, six of whom survive them. Mr. and Mrs. Garvey were among the first settlers of the township of Norwich. Mrs. Garvey had lived forty years upon the same place and saw it grow from the primitive wilderness to be one of the best improved farms in a county of good farms.

The Anniversary Concluded.

The anniversary of the George street Methodist Sunday school was concluded last night by a lecture by Rev. C. O. Johnston, on the subject of "Wisdom and Folly in Home Life." The school room was crowded. Rev. G. H. Davis presided, and at the close a resolution of thanks, moved by Dr. Fife and seconded by Mr. W. J. Magee, was carried with hearty unanimity. The anniversary has been a most gratifying success in every particular, the financial results being satisfactory. Rev. Mr. Johnston has won the admiration and esteem of Peterborough Methodists. He is a clever, eloquent speaker, and is undoubtedly destined to become a leading light among the church clergy. He returned to his home in Napanee to-day. Rev. Mr. Johnston will always be cordially welcomed in Peterborough.

A BIG BATCH OF BUSINESS

The Council holds a Lengthy Session.

Standing Committees for the Year—An Exciting Time Over the Appointment of School Trustees—The High Licenses By-law Again—Fire Alarm System Discussed—A Conditional Grant for an Armory.

The town council met Monday night. There were present Mayor Stevenson and Messrs. Cahill, Davidson, Winch, Kelly, A. Hall, Dawson, Moore, Retherford, Langford, Kendry and Hartley.

Mr. H. W. Kent, local manager, on behalf of the Bell Telephone Company, tendered to erect a fire alarm system for the town, and keep it in perfect working order, also to keep an operator constantly on hand day and night to answer all calls, in consideration of the town signing a three years lease, and paying the company a rental of $200 per annum; the town to supply the horse and bells now in use, the bells to be located as at present in the different houses of the firemen, and the horses to be placed where directed by the council. Mr. Kent claimed the system would be more perfect than any other, and referred the council to Mr. A. Hall and Chief Retherford, of the Fire Brigade, for recommendation.

Col. J. Z. Rogers, on behalf of the 57th Battalion, asked the council for a grant of $2,000 towards the erection of armories for the Battalion.—Received.

R. S. DAVIDSON, Chairman.

Peterborough, Jan. 20th, 1890.

The report was adopted.

AUDITORS APPOINTED.

The by-law confirming the appointment of Messrs. P. Henry and J. J. Hall as auditors was passed.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

The appointment of school trustees to fill the four vacancies on the Board was then proceeded with. There were motions and amendments galore, and considerable discussion on unimportant points.

The first vacancy was filled without opposition. Mr. Rutherford moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry,—That Dr. Boucher be appointed High School trustee.—Carried.

Mr. Moore moved, seconded by Mr. Hall,—That R. M. Denniston be appointed High School trustee in place of Mr. Jas. Kendry, resigned.—Lost.

Mr. Hartley moved, seconded by Mr. Kendry,—That Mr. Henry Dumas be appointed High School trustee in place of Mr. Jas. Kendry, resigned.—Carried.

Mr. Kelly moved, seconded by Mr. Dawson,—That Mr. Robt. Fair be appointed High School trustee in place of Mr. Jas. Stevenson, resigned.—Lost

Mr. Davidson moved, seconded by Mr. Winch, that W. G. Ferguson be appointed High School Trustee in place of Mr. Jas. Stevenson, resigned.—Lost.

Mr. Moore moved, seconded by Mr. A. Hall, that John McKee be appointed High School Trustee in place of Jas. Stevenson, resigned.—Carried.

Mr. Cahill moved, seconded by Mr. Davidson, that Dr. Brennan be appointed High School Trustee for the unexpired term of Mr. R. Weir, resigned.—Lost.

Mr. Retherford moved, seconded by Mr. Dawson, that Mr. J. McClelland be appointed High School Trustee in place of Mr. R. Weir, resigned.—Lost.

Mr. Kendry moved, seconded by Mr. Hartley, that R. Fair be appointed to the vacancy caused by the resignation of R. Weir.—Lost.

Mr. A. Hall moved, seconded by Mr. Davidson, that Mr. W. G. Ferguson be appointed in place of Mr. Weir.—Carried.

THE FIRE ALARM SYSTEM.

Mr. A. Hall moved, seconded by Mr. Kelly, that the offer of the Bell Telephone Company to put up a fire alarm for $200 per annum for three years, be accepted.

Messrs. KENDRY and RUTHERFORD wanted some guarantee that the system would be better carried out than the old one, which they claimed was most unsatisfactory.

Mr. HALL stated that he was not in the council when the system now in use was put up, and he was surprised that it had been such a slipshod job. The present system was rotten throughout, and it was for the purpose of getting a satisfactory system that he moved the motion.

Mr. DAVIDSON said if the town was going into this thing they should get the best system possible. An electrician who was here a while ago offered to put up a first-class electrical alarm for $2,000, the interest on which would be less than $100 a year.

Messrs. MOORE, DAWSON and HARTLEY also expressed disapproval of the motion and the system now in use.

Mr. LANGFORD thought it folly to talk of getting a "perfect" system. He considered the price of the one proposed was moderate and believed it could be made to give satisfaction. He moved that the matter be referred back to the committee.

Mr. KELLY held that the Bell Telephone Company had not broken their agreements as stated, and pointed out that while the company agreed to keep the new system in repair, if the council accepted the $2,000 system mentioned by Mr. Davidson it would require a man to keep it in repair.

Mr. A. MCNEIL, who was in the council chamber, made a statement of how the present system was secured while he was chairman of the Fire, Water and Light Committee. The understanding with the company was that the town would be allowed to string their alarm wires on the company's poles on consideration that the company be allowed to erect their poles on the main streets. The alarm boxes were to-day as good as ever.

Mr. HALL stated that that was just the trouble—the company were not allowed to erect their poles as it was understood they would be, and the company then upset the system wherever it suited their convenience.

Mr. T. RUTHERFORD, chief of the Fire Brigade, stated that the brigade had great difficulty in keeping the line in repair, and he considered the offer of the company a good one. The proposed system would be believed give satisfaction, and he did not think the $2000 electric system would give nearly as good satisfaction.

Mr. CAHILL did not see the necessity of a new system, he didn't think either system necessary. The old one he considered good enough if the company was made to stick to their agreement and keep it up.

The motion was then referred back to the committee for reconsideration.

THE SCOTT ACT BY-LAW.

Mr. Cahill moved, seconded by Mr. Davidson, that this council hereby declines to take no further action in reference to the high licenses by law, the Court of Appeal having just decided against the corporation, provided the parties having liquor licenses and their solicitor admit the validity of the liquor license by-law of 1886, in force in town prior to the adoption of the Scott Act.

Mr. EDWARDS, town solicitor, gave his view of the matter, as fully outlined in his letter. He was interrupted by a hot debate between Messrs. Retherford and Cahill, who engaged in argument over their respective actions in the council at the time of the by-law. Mr. Cahill accused Mr. Retherford of "ramming the by-law through," and Mr. Retherford made a vigorous denial. Finally it came to a question of veracity between the two men. Mr. Cahill demanded that Mr. Retherford take back what he said, Mr. Retherford replied that he took back nothing, whereupon Mr. Cahill retorted: "Well, then, you are no gentleman."

Mr. DAWSON rose and put an end to the discussion by chiding both members for their belligerent attitude toward each other, which should be abandoned at once. He did not think it was becoming.

Mr. EDWARDS, continuing said he had tried his best to do his duty to the town, and he had an interest in the by-law. He had the opinion of Chatsworth Robinson supporting his own views and he believed the town was right still. He asked the privilege of carrying the case to the Supreme Court. If the town lost it would cost $300 or $400; if the town won it would cost nothing. He asked the privilege of getting the opinion of Mr. Robinson on the matter, which he believed could be obtained for nothing.

Mr. CAHILL admitted that Mr. Edwards had been most successful in his cases so far, and he had a high opinion of his ability, but he thought it safer to take the judgment of the lower court and that of the three judges of the Appeal Court, in preference to private opinion. Then there was another view. The hotelkeepers, though perhaps deserving of all the hard things said of them, were yet ratepayers of the town and he did not think they should be persecuted. Mr. Cahill, referring to the subject of contention between himself and Mr. Retherford, still maintained his position.

Mr. MOORE said it was reported around town that the hotelkeepers did not intend to pay any more license fee than that due the government, and that they claimed there was no bylaw now in existence. Mr. Cahill complained that Mr. Edwards should have seen to that, but he held Mr. Edwards' duty was only to give his opinion when asked. Some one should have called his attention to the matter at the present time.

Mr. Cahill allowed his motion to hold over on the adoption of the following resolution:—

Moved by Mr. Moore, seconded by Mr. Kendry, that Mr. Edwards, town solicitor, confer with Mr. Robinson on the question of appeal to the Supreme Court, and obtain his opinion on the same.

Mr. Langford thought it better to let the matter drop; the town was squarely beaten.

THE BATTALION GRANT.

Col. Rogers was given a hearing with reference to the application for $2,000 towards the erection of an armory. He proposed to also visit the county council for the same purpose, and then proceed to Ottawa, the government having offered to bear one-half the expense. If something was not done at once it threw the matter over for another year. He asked an expression of opinion from the town council. They proposed to erect a building at a cost of $5000.

CAPT. DENNISTOUN said they had many precedents in coming before the council with their request. Their object was to get a suitable place for a drill shed and armory, but principally for the purpose of getting rooms where the young men can meet together and keep up their interest in military matters. The officers were doing their best to help the corps, and he thought it the duty and privilege of the council to make a grant to a corps which was a credit to the town. The town of Peterborough would be doing less than many other towns if it granted the $2,000.

In reply to a question, Mr. Dennistoun stated it was intended to place the new armory on the north side of the present drill shed.

Col. ROGERS said the officers intended buying new uniforms for themselves and helmets for the men, the latter at a cost of $400, which they would have to supply themselves. But unless they got a decent place to keep their new supplies in they would not feel like going to that expense.

Mr. Retherford did not see why the town should be called upon to pay so extensively for the protection of the country. He believed the government should bear the expense. In the present financial position of the town he could not favor such a grant.

Mr. Moore moved, seconded by Mr. Dawson, that the town of Peterborough grant $2,000 towards the erection of an armory, on the condition that the county grant $1,000 and the government $3,000.—Carried.

THE CORNER STORE.

Mr. Davidson moved, seconded by Mr. Kelly,—That this council recommend the Commissioners of the Town Trust to enter into a lease with the C.P.R. Company for the south store in the market building, for a term of five years, at $350 per annum, to be renewed by arbitration for a further term of five years, the town agreeing to put in counters and a closet and urinal, the company to put in their own fittings.—Carried.

The council adjourned till next Monday night.

DOMINION LAWMAKERS.

PROVISIONS OF MR. TAYLOR'S ALIEN LABOR BILL.

The New Deputy Speaker—Mr. Mulock Gives Notice of an Address to The Queen Expressing Loyalty to British Connection.

OTTAWA, Jan. 21.—The House sat about 20 minutes to-day but transacted two interesting pieces of business. The chief of these was the unanimous appointment of Mr. John Fisher Wood, M.P. for Brockville, to be chairman of the Committees of the Whole, or, in other words, Deputy Speaker. The salary is $2000 in addition to the member's indemnity.

Mr. Taylor's bill, to prohibit the importation and immigration of foreigners and aliens under contract or agreement to perform labor in Canada, was introduced and got its first reading. Mr. Taylor explained that it was for the protection of the laboring classes of Canada and was adopted from the bill passed by the United States Congress in 1885.

Hon. David Mills questioned the constitutionality of the Commons attempting such legislation and appealed to the Minister of Justice for his opinion, but Sir John Thompson put him off with the reply that he had not yet seen the bill.

The bill provides: "That from and after the passing of this act it shall be unlawful for any person, company, partnership or corporation in any manner whatever to prepay the transportation or in any way assist or encourage the importation or migration of any alien or aliens, any foreigner or foreigners, into Canada under contract or agreement, parole or special, express or implied, made previous to the importation or migration of such alien or aliens, foreigner or foreigners, to perform labor or service of any kind in Canada."

It is further provided that a fine of $1000 be inflicted for each breach, and this may be sued for by the Dominion or any person first bringing an action, the proceeds to go to the Dominion Treasury, but the Receiver-General may pay any sum up to 50 per cent. of the fine to the person who laid the information. Separate suits may be brought for each alien being a party to such contract, and it shall be the duty of the county attorneys to prosecute. The master of a vessel bringing such objectionable passengers shall be punished by a fine of $500 for each such passenger, and may also be imprisoned for six months at hard labor.

Nothing in this act is to be held to prevent the employment of skilled workmen in foreign countries to labor in Canada upon any new industry, provided that such labor cannot be otherwise obtained, and the act shall not apply to professional actors, artists, lecturers or singers, nor to persons employed as personal or domestic servants.

Mr. Mulock has given notice that he will move that an humble address be presented to Her Majesty Queen Victoria couched in the following terms:

"MOST GRACIOUS MAJESTY: We Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Commons of Canada in Parliament assembled desire most earnestly, in our own name and on behalf of the people whom we represent, to renew the expression of our unswerving loyalty and devotion to Your Majesty's person and Government.

"May it please Your Majesty, we have learned with feelings of the most sincere and earnest disapproval that various public statements have been made calling in question the loyalty of the people of Canada to the political union now happily existing between the Dominion and the British Empire and representing it as the desire of the people of Canada to sever such connection. We would therefore respectfully assure Your Majesty that such statements are wholly incorrect presentations of the sentiments and aspirations of the people of Canada, who are amongst Your Majesty's most loyal subjects and are devotedly attached to the political union existing between Canada and the rest of the British Empire and earnestly desire its continuance.

"We would therefore earnestly express the hope that Your Gracious Majesty will be pleased not to allow any of such statements, should they have been communicated to Your Majesty, to impair Your Majesty's confidence in the unswerving loyalty of your Canadian subjects to Your Majesty's person and Government, but would be pleased to accept the assurance contained in this humble address as representing correctly, which they do, the contentment of Your Majesty's Canadian subjects with the political connection between Canada and the rest of the British Empire, and of their unswerving determination at all hazards and sacrifices to aid in maintaining the same.

"We pray that the blessings of Your Majesty's reign may for your people's sake be long continued."

Mr. Cook, who made his first appearance in the House to-day, has already given notice of his intention to introduce his slaughtered bills of last year. These are an amendment to the Railway Act so as to discourage baggage-smashing or passenger-maiming, an amendment to the Civil Service Act designed to prevent the hire of Englishmen just out, and an act to provide for the licensing of persons having charge of steam engines.

Mr. O'Brien gives notice that he will move for a return showing the reports or opinions of law officers of the Crown relating to the Jesuits' Estates Act, also a copy of the case submitted to them, also all despatches and correspondence on the subject.

Mr. Casgrain has given notice of his intention to again introduce his bill making it an offence for M.'s P. to travel on railroad passes.

NOTES AND GOSSIP.

The Dominion Police—The Haldimand Election Case.

OTTAWA, Jan. 21.—A Dominion Police return submitted to-day shows the cost of the force to have been $17,340 in 1889. The average strength was 28 men but the total was raised to 30 at the end of the year. These police do duty round the Dominion buildings and parks at Ottawa and as new buildings are added the strength is gradually increased.

When the Inland Revenue officers obtain samples of merchandise for analysis they pay for them like any other person. The amendment to the Adulteration Act just introduced proposes to make a change so that if the samples are pure they will be paid for, but if not what they have been represented to be then the loss will be the trader's.

In the Supreme Court to-day judgment in the Haldimand election case was deferred until to-morrow on account of the illness of Mr. Justice Strong. From the fact that counsel were notified they need not attend it is inferred that the judgment unseats Mr. Colter. He so understands it and says that he will again be a candidate.

JAYBIRD AND WOODPECKER.

Murder in a Texas Courtroom—A Political Vendetta.

GALVESTON, Tex., Jan. 21—The cases of Kyle Terry and Judge D. W. Parker of Fort Bend County were brought here on a change of venue, the prisoner being charged with killing Ed Gibson and others in the "Jaybird" and "Woodpecker" political vendetta. The cases were called in the Criminal Court here to-day. A number of citizens had been summoned as special venire jurymen and the courtroom was crowded with witnesses of both sides and spectators.

Kyle Terry, Judge Parker and several friends entered the courthouse when a brother of Gibson and some friends who were secreted in a window near the sheriff's office opened fire. Terry was shot through the body twice and fell dead on the steps leading to the Chamber of Justice. Judge Weston, who was County Judge at the time of the vendetta organization was shot through the arm. The shooters are in jail and everything is quiet.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

TURBULENT DEPUTIES TO BE SUSPENDED.

A Caravan Attacked in French Territory in the Soudan—The National Line Steamer Erin Thought to Have Been Lost at Sea.

PARIS, Jan. 21.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day, M. Etienne, Under Secretary for the Colonies, confirmed the report of an attack upon a caravan proceeding from Djibouti to Harrar on French territory and said a force of French troops and Soudanese levies repulsed the attacking party. Harrar, he said, is an independent and important centre of commerce in Shoa, one of the states of Abyssinia, the trade of which place passes through the hands of the French. The commerce of Harrar is in no way menaced. Because of the murder of a British subject a small British force has gone to Harrar to enforce respect for the British flag. Italy, not England, M. Etienne declared, covets Harrar but France will never sanction an Italian occupancy of the place.

A resolution was introduced to suspend for the rest of the session the members who created the disorder yesterday when M. Joffrin attempted to speak. The resolution was received with murmurs of disapproval by the party of the Right. It was referred to a committee.

Funeral of Lord Napier.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The funeral of Field Marshal Lord Napier of Magdala took place to-day. The body was buried in St. Paul's Cathedral. There was a military procession from the Tower of London, of which Lord Napier was constable, to the cathedral. The Queen and other members of the Royal Family sent wreaths. The Prince of Wales, the Duke of Cambridge and other high officers of the British army and members of the diplomatic corps received the coffin at the grand portico of the cathedral.

Fears for a National Liner.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The National Line steamer Greece, which arrived to-day from New York, reports she saw nothing of the same line's steamer Erin, Capt. Tyson, which sailed from New York Dec. 28 for London and which has not yet arrived. It is feared the Erin is lost.

A Rough Voyage.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The steamer Catalonia in her trip from Boston encountered terrific storms and is in a worse battered condition than the Gallia. The Catalonia lost four boats and her bridge. Her bulwarks were also damaged. A steam pipe burst, scalding to death four of her crew.

The Queen to Visit Aix les Bains.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Queen Victoria will visit Aix les Bains in April and will remain there a month.

Cast Up By the Sea.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Twelve bodies have been washed ashore at Bridport. It is surmised they are part of the company of some ship that foundered in the recent gales.

Portugal's Little Boycott.

LISBON, Jan. 21.—The commercial association has resolved to do its utmost to prevent or restrict all trade or commercial intercourse with England. The inhabitants of Setubal forcibly prevented a Portuguese merchant of that place from shipping goods on an English steamer, which therefore sailed without any cargo. Many American, French and German commercial travelers are here making the most of the opportunity afforded to replace British goods in Portuguese markets by goods from countries they represent.

THE RAILWAY PROJECTORS.

What the Hamilton Junction Company Proposes—Bottlers on the Warpath.

HAMILTON, Jan. 21.—The application of the Hamilton Junction Railway Company for a charter will likely be made to Parliament in the course of a few days. The intention of the promoters is to provide a means of bringing into the city the Southern Ontario Pacific; Toronto, Hamilton and Buffalo; St. Catharines and Niagara Central, and any other railways; and furnishing them with passenger station accommodation in such a way as will be least expensive to the city and the railway companies, and avoid to the utmost extent interference with street traffic by level railway crossings.

The representatives of the Toronto Bottling Association were in the city to-day searching for bottles patented by the members, which are being used by Hamilton dealers. Under the new law the patentees have the right to search premises where they suspect that their bottles are stored.

The city quarries now give work to over 250 men. Fifty-two men are employed getting out the stone and 200 tickets have been issued to stone-breakers. When converted into macadam the stone is hauled into the city and piled on vacant property in different parts of the city for use next summer.

It is thought that two lucky Hamiltonians have each secured $5000 in the last drawing of the Louisiana state lottery. Ticket 12123 drew $100,000, and a tenth of the ticket was sold here.

The tea lottery case has been adjourned until Thursday.

AN INTERCOLONIAL SMASHUP.

Runaway Cars Collide With a Freight Train—A Brakeman Killed.

HALIFAX, Jan. 21.—A serious accident happened on the Intercolonial Railway some distance from Valley Station before daylight this morning. A coal train from Stellarton was descending a grade some miles long when the train parted. The fore part kept on, the accident not being noticed till Valley Station was reached, when the loss of a number of cars was discovered. The fore part of the train put back to secure the lost cars and met them descending the grade beyond the control of the brakes. A collision could not be averted, the two pieces of the train coming together with great violence and a number of cars being demolished and ditched. Brakeman A. E. Murray, who was on the hind part of the train when it parted from the rest, was missed after the collision, and on search being made, he was found a short distance back lying by the side of the road with a broken leg and other injuries. It is supposed he jumped from the cars when he saw the impending collision. He died from his injuries several hours later.

TAX REFORMERS.

Kingston Knights of Labor Send Their Demands to the Premier.

KINGSTON, Jan. 21.—The Knights of Labor have passed resolutions alleging that many farmers and working people who are able to obtain only a slender subsistence even with the utmost toil are by the present method of taxation compelled to surrender many days every year simply for the maintenance of government, and urging that a committee be appointed by the House of Commons to inquire into these allegations and if they be found correct then that some steps be taken to change the method of taxation so that a greater amount of large ground rentals be taken for taxes and thus some relief be afforded to those who are now so overburdened. A copy of the resolutions has been sent to Sir John Macdonald.

HIS TURN CAME NEXT.

Two Sudden Deaths at London, Ont.—A Singular Incident.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—Daniel Macfie, president of the Ontario Investment Association, died very suddenly last night. At about 10 o'clock he was playing in the parlor with some of his grandchildren, when all at once he became faint and fell to the floor, expiring almost immediately.

In connection with Mr. Macfie's death a sad incident happened this morning. John Burnett, a well-known stock broker and one of the directors of the Ontario Investment Association, on reading the account of Mr. Macfie's sudden taking off at his residence, remarked to one of the family that he supposed "his turn would come next," and in a few minutes afterwards dropped over in his chair dead.

THE NEWS IN LONDON.

A Gossipy Letter from Edmund Yates—Cumberland's Pearls.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The reason of the very eloquent telegrams sent by the German Emperor on the death of Lord Napier is that the old Emperor, his grandfather, had the greatest admiration for him. He always considered him the most brilliant of the English soldiers, and whenever Lord Napier went to Germany he was the Emperor's guest and most honored friend. Everyone connected with his grandfather, and everyone of whom he approved, is sacred in the eyes of the present Emperor, and when he heard of Lord Napier's death he at once telegraphed the message which surprised and pleased everyone in England. Lord Napier owed much of his success to his power of endurance and great strength and to his wonderful capacity of being able to get sleep almost any moment, under any circumstance and for as long a time as was necessary. No one, perhaps, ever possessed this faculty to so marked a degree, and brother officers who were with him in the expedition against Tantia Topee used to say that while they always considered him a most brilliant and able soldier, they thought he was not likely to live very long, for he was always dropping off to sleep without the slightest warning, which they considered a sign of great weakness.

The pearls of the Empress Augusta were famous, but are inferior to those now possessed by the Duke of Cumberland, which are the finest in Europe. These pearls and other jewels, the whole being worth about £160,000, were awarded to the late King George of Hanover in 1857, after a dispute of twenty years, as they had been claimed by the Queen on the death of William IV. Part of them were brought originally from Hanover, and the remainder had been the private property of Queen Charlotte, who left them to her son Ernest, Duke of Cumberland, and afterward King of Hanover. A commission, consisting of Lord Wensleydale, Vice-Chancellor Wood, afterward Lord Chancellor, and Lawrence Peel, was appointed by Lord Palmerston to investigate the matter and they unanimously awarded nearly all the pearls to the King of Hanover, a decision which greatly annoyed the Queen and Prince Albert. George III., by will, left Queen Charlotte all the jewels which had been given to her, and they were valued at £20,000. But many of them were seized by George IV. and disappeared during his reign, as did a number of crown jewels, including the celebrated Stuart sapphire, which was given by Cardinal York to George III. and by George IV. presented to Princess Charlotte on his marriage, and after her death Prince Leopold was obliged to return it and a few years afterward it reappeared in the headdress of Lady Conyngham.

The Princess Maria has had a very sharp attack of the influenza, and has really been very ill, while her natural tendency to bronchitis has made everyone anxious less complications should arise. She has, therefore, been most careful, and still remains at Luton Hoo, where Madame de Falbe and Princess May have nursed her with most assiduous care. The Duke of Teck has returned. While at the lodge he attended Mrs. Fitz-George's funeral, and went down occasionally to Luton to see what progress the Duchess was making.

The King of Spain has got over his illness, but his constitutional weakness is so great that it is extremely unlikely that he will live to grow up.

King Milan ought to be in very comfortable circumstances, for his allowance from the Servian Government is £1,000 per month, paid without deductions; and in order to prevent him making indiscreet and embarrassing revelations the Emperor of Austria gives him £400 a month. It is reported in Berlin that King Milan informed the Emperor of Austria that he was going to write his reminiscences in the hope of adding to an inadequate income, and the hint was promptly taken.

The Khan of Khiva and the Emir of Bokhara are to make a tour through Europe this year; but the Russian government stipulated that they are not to visit England, which is a real blessing. EDMUND YATES.

ON THE HOME STRETCH.

Nellie Bly Speeding Across the Continent—Miss Bisland's Ill Luck.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—The steamer Oceanic with Nellie Bly among the passengers arrived at 9¼ this morning. Miss Bly was taken off in a tug and conveyed at once to Oakland where she boarded a special train and started for the overland journey via the Southern Pacific and Atlantic and Pacific routes.

Miss Bly started from the dock at Hoboken, opposite New York City, at 9.40.30 o'clock the morning of Nov. 14, 1889, bound for Southampton. Arriving there she took a railroad train for London, and thence her journey lay through Calais, Paris and Turin. From the latter point she was whirled to Brindisi, and from there by the Peninsular and Oriental steamer to Ismalia. Then on to Aden and across the Arabian Sea to Colombo on the Island of Ceylon. A change of steamers was made here, and the long trip to Singapore—half way round the world—was made. Thence the route lay to Hong Kong, in China, and from thence to Yokahama, in Japan. In the two latter ports there was a delay of seven or eight days, but Jan. 7 Miss Bly bade adieu to the land of the Mikado and began the longest stretch of her earth-circling journey. From Yokohama to San Francisco the distance is 4,750 nautical miles. The itinerary as originally laid out from San Francisco to New York was by the Central and Union Pacific roads and via Chicago, but the snow blockade has caused a change of routes. By the Southern Pacific the ordinary time from San Francisco to New York is 5¼ days. In order to accomplish her undertaking of encircling the globe in 75 days it will be seen that Miss Bly must reach New York by 9.40.30 o'clock Sunday morning. Miss Bisland started from New York at 6 p.m. Nov 14, going round the world in the opposite direction. She was too late to catch La Champagne at Havre on Saturday or she would certainly have beaten Miss Bly. The slowness of the Bothnia on which she has sailed is greatly against her. As an evidence of the interest at New York, five gentlemen have offered to pay $1000 each for a swift steamer from Halifax to intercept the Bothnia on Sunday, take Miss Bisland to Halifax, and run her down on a special train from there to New York. Betting in the New York clubs is now 5 to 3 on Miss Bly.

DEATH OF INSPECTOR WOLFF.

He Succumbs to Complications Resulting from an Operation.

MONTREAL, Jan. 21.—James Fitzgerald Wolff, Special Agent and Inspector of Customs, died at 5¼ o'clock this morning at Strong's Hospital, University-street, after about a month's illness. Deceased had been in good health up to about a week before entering the hospital when he was attacked severely with neuralgia in the face which developed into ulceration of the teeth and jaw.

He left St. Lawrence Hall, where he had latterly made his home, for the purpose of undergoing an operation at Strong's institution, which was performed about two week's ago, a portion of the jaw and the diseased teeth being removed. Complications subsequently set in, accompanied with pneumonia, to which he succumbed this morning.

Mr. Wolff was the son of the late Dr. Wolff of Quebec and was 48 years of age. He was appointed in 1879 an inspector of customs by the present Ottawa administration, which position he filled with marked satisfaction. He was married to Mrs. Wood, widow of the late Mr. Wood a merchant of Brockville, who with a son and daughter survive him.

Mr. Wolff left considerable property, besides an insurance policy on his life for $11,000. His remains will be interred at Ottawa.

Mr. McMichael, Inspector of Customs at Toronto, takes temporary charge of the Montreal office.

TORONTO TOPICS.

At the Police Court yesterday afternoon "Professor" M. V. Lubon (F. W. Coulson) was tried on a charge of violating the Ontario Medical Act. The complainant was John Wasson, the officer of the Ontario Medical College. William Forbes of No. 12 Windsor-street swore that he went to Coulson's office, and after an examination he was told that he was in a dangerous condition, in fact it was a matter of life or death. Coulson thought, however, he could fix him up all right in three months for $60. Witness paid $30 down and got some medicine. Afterwards he went to a doctor who said that he was all right. He then went back to Coulson and demanded the return of the $30. He was unsuccessful. Coulson swore that he made no examination of the man, told him he was not a doctor and simply sold him a proprietary medicine which Forbes asked for. He had told Forbes on his second visit that he was an informer and showed him the door. He gave him a receipt for the $30 but would not return the cash. Magistrate Denison reserved judgment until to-morrow, but intimated at the same time that he would impose a fine of $50 and costs.

The number of immigrants that settled in Ontario during 1889, as reported through the several agencies, was 15,387. Nationalities were: English 9028, Irish 2266, Scotch 2347, German 779, Scandinavian 205, Swiss 7, American 676, other countries 77. In 1888 the number of immigrants, as reported through the agencies, who settled in the province was 20,532. The falling off in 1889 as compared with the previous year is about 25 per cent. These figures are furnished by the Ontario Immigration Office.

Two weeks ago a smart looking small sized Southerner arrived at the Walker House and registered himself as "John Long, Ohio." He paid his way all right for the first week, but after that he fell behind. Three days ago Detective G. F. Lund of the American Surety Company, came to the city in search of George A. Langstaff, manager of the Clarence (Ala.) branch of the Bell Telephone Company, wanted there for the embezzlement of $1100, belonging to the corporation. Lund soon recognised the man from Ohio as the one he was anxious to see, yesterday afternoon he explained the matter to Inspector Stark, and that officer sent Detectives Davis and Alf. Cuddy down to the hotel to arrest the boodler. Langstaff did not attempt to deny his identity, and after a short interview with Lund consented to return to Clarence, starting by last night's 11 o'clock train. On being searched all the money found on him was 90 cents.

Another large failure was recorded yesterday, the wholesale dry-goods firm of Tait, Burch & Co., Bay-street. As yet no authentic information can be obtained relative to the firm's affairs.

What Quebec's Board of Trade Ask of the Federal Government.

QUEBEC, Jan. 21.—A heavy gale and snowstorm from the northeast has been raging here all day and another blockade is expected. President Turner of the Board of Trade has sent an important memorial to Sir John Macdonald asking the Federal Government to erect elevators and to relieve the Canadian Pacific Railway of its indebtedness of $1,100,000 to the Government on the purchase of the North Shore Railway, if it is expected to realize any benefit from the splendid shipping facilities afforded by Quebec's new harbor works, which have cost $3,000,000 and which have yet been of no commercial advantage.

Mr. John Quinn of Michigan has left here on a trip to the St. Maurice with an exploring party, in the interest of Gov. Alger of Michigan and other gentlemen of Detroit, to look after Canadian pine.

A FATAL QUARREL.

Death of a Shantyman from Injuries Received in a Fight.

OTTAWA, Jan. 21.—Two men from Sorel, named Beaudoin and Dery, who were working in the Dumoine River district, have had several quarrels during the past month and bad blood was brewing between them, until finally Sunday before last Dery threw a tin dish of tea in Beaudoin's face. The men then fought until Beaudoin was knocked senseless by a fearful blow on the head from Dery. Beaudoin was attended to by the other shantymen but was unable to rise from his bunk to go to his work on Monday. The man raved incessantly for three days, when he died. Dery is still at work.

AT LAST!

[A Wonderful Vegetable Discovery That Removes the Terrible Results of Overwork.

A True Invigorator.

Weakness and prostration of the nervous system surely follow that overwork and worry which brings sorrow and suffering to so many Canadian homes. The terrible results of nervous weakness, are seen on every hand. Pains in the back, poor and unrefreshing sleep, lack of appetite dyspepsia, and lost energy add strength, are the first symptoms of more serious and danger. ous trouble. This is the way that Paralysis, Paresis and Insanity begin. Do not delay a moment longer, for some time it will be too late to regain your lost health and vitality. Use Paine's Celery Compound now, and the dull eyes will regain their brilliancy, the cheeks will grow rosy, the brain become clear, the nerves strong and steady, your sleep restful and refreshing, appetite good, and health and happiness will take the place of misery and suffering.

A. Sabiston, the well known lithographer of Montreal, writes: "In the summer of 1888 I had to work very hard, and was troubled considerably with insomnia (sleeplessness). I resolved to try your Paine's Celery Compound, and after taking the contents of two bottles, felt like a new man. A good night's rest gave me strength for the duties of the day, and instead of starting out to business in the morning feeling as if I had completed a day's work instead of being about to commence one I started out in good spirits, feeling fresh and strong. My wife and various friends, to whom I recommended the medicine, have been benefited greatly, and in fact 'Paine's Celery Compound is a household word in our family."

Wheels Within Wheels.

An Empire Editor Tracking the Mail Editor.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Interest in Canadian matters was a good deal excited here last week by the visit of one of the editors of the Toronto Empire, apparently sent here to specially investigate whether or not the editor of The Toronto Mail had been propagating Annexation sentiments in the min s of the Hose Committee, in order to induce them to report adversely to intimate trade relations, because such relations would pos e pone political union.

The Empire man interviewed several Senators on the Committee on Canadian Relations, and, much to surprise of the Democratic members, they learned the fact that Mr. Edward Farrer, editor of the Mail, had been before the Republican members in secret session, and that the information thus received, and which does not form part of the record, has not been conveyed to the Democratic members.

Considerable feeling has been engendered between the two sections of the Committee in consequence. The representative of the Empire apparently perfectly satisfied himself that the Republican members had been greatly influenced by the representations from the Mail office that Annexation was only a question of time if Reciprocity were dashed, and if existing complications were allowed to create the irritation natural to their continuance.

Patronize Home Industries.

New oats, new wheats, new potatoes, new plants and bulbs, are offered in the 1890 Catalogue of the Steele Bros, Co., Toronto. No need to send to the U. S. for seeds when such a work is issued here, for it beats them all. It is the largest, the handsomest, the most modern, and fullest in matter and illustrations of any we have yet seen. Canadians should be proud of a firm of such enterprise, energy and high standing. They offer the Banner oats, that yielded 96 bush., per acre in York county; nine new varieties of potatoes; new clovers for the North West, &c., &c. The catalogue is priced at 20c., which may be deducted from first order sent in, or they will send 1 lb. of Banner oats by mail prepaid, or 5 packets of vegetable or flower seeds and catalogue included for a remittance of 25c. It will pay every amateur, gardener, florist and farmer to send for it.

A Saint of the Nineteenth Century.

In the course of his sermon at St. John's Sunday night, Rev. J. C. Davidson alluded to the recent death of one of the church's greatest sons, Joseph Barber Lightfoot, Bishop of Durham. Late English papers give full accounts of his strangely impressive funeral, where Professors from the Universities, representatives from all the great centres of learning and religion in the kingdom, over 400 bishops and clergy, and a throng of dust-begrimed Durham miners all joined in testifying to the loss of a leader and a friend. Interesting historical reviews are also given of a life which was pre-eminent for the transcendent genius, the ceaseless activity and loving, humble devotion which characterized it. Dr. Lightfoot's abilities were recognized at an early age, and he occupied in succession several distinguished posts in the gift of the church, such as Chaplain to the Queen, Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral, and Professor in Divinity at the University of Cambridge. This last post proved most congenial, and in it his brilliant and painstaking scholarship shone brightly forth.—In 1879 Professor Lightfoot was offered by Lord Beaconsfield the Bishopric of Durham, one of the most important English sees, with an immediate seat in the House of Lords. The offer was refused, but Lord Beaconsfield again pressed it upon the distinguished savant, urging that he himself had abandoned the pleasant field of literature for public life out of a sense of duty! Dr. Lightfoot then withdrew his objection, though he must have been a little amused at the Premier's argument. It was then thought in the church that a great mistake had been made—that one who was so essentially a student and a man of letters, could not be a corresponding success in the widely different and difficult duties of administering the affairs of a great English diocese.

But this anxiety proved quite unfounded. The new bishop's wisdom, coupled with his earnestness and love, gradually diffused new life into the different parts of his diocese. The whole of the large income placed at his disposal was given up to its different needs, as contributions to one fund alone being £00,000. His episcopal residence became a home for his theological students and clergy, who found an inspiration from their contact with such a leader. Fresh enthusiasm was roused through the length and breadth of the diocese. New free churches were built in the crowded towns, which were quickly filled with artisans and miners, previously living in a state of heathenish indifference, entirely cut off from the worship of God. And during the ten years which witnessed this striking improvement, a great part of the active bishop's time was devoted to his favorite subject of the defence and exposition of the Bible, several books coming from his pen which will go down to a grateful posterity. But while all these different ministrations were being performed the end was unobservantly drawing near. Two years ago considerable alarm was felt by friends of the church at the state of the Bishop's health, which soon compelled him to leave his diocese. He returned some nine months ago to his work and built a new church as a thanksgiving offering for his restoration to health. At the same time in the thanksgiving service he thanked the Nonconformists of Durham for their prayers and sympathy during his illness. But again his health obliged the Bishop to go to Bournemouth, where he passed peacefully away to his rest on Dec. 21st. He last words to his Diocesan conference will now be read with interest. After speaking of his own life s being wholly in the hands of God and no m ter of anxiety to him, he said, "And what, after all, is an individual life? Men may come and men may go. Individual lives float down like straws upon the surface of the waters, but the deep strong tide of the Church of God flows on in river.

A Paper Worth Reading.

A representative of the well known firm of Telford & Co., Brockville, proprietors of Nasal Balm is in town this week in the interest of his firm, and among other advertising matter is distributing a paper which may be regarded as somewhat of a curiosity. It is called The Golden Age, and purports to be printed in the year 1936, and is filled with items and paragraphs of events that may reasonably be expected to occur at that date. It deals also with the transition of Canada from its present condition to an independent republic and its gradual absorption of the United States, and this article, to say the least, is ingenious. All the matter is breezy, spicy and readable, and much of it decidedly novel. We would advise our readers to get a copy of The Golden Age and give it a careful perusal. Any of our readers who have not received a copy of this paper can do so by sending their address on a postal card to Messrs. Telford & Co.

Day and Night

During an acute attack of Bronchitis, a ceaseless tickling in the throat, and an exhausting, dry, hacking cough, afflict the sufferer. Sleep is banished, and great prostration follows. This disease is also attended with Hoarseness, and sometimes Loss of Voice. It is liable to become chronic, involve the lungs, and terminate fatally. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral affords speedy relief and cure in cases of Bronchitis. It controls the disposition to cough, and induces refreshing sleep.

I have been a practicing physician for twenty-four years, and, for the past twelve, have suffered from annual attacks of Bronchitis. After exhausting all the usual remedies

Without Relief,

I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It helped me immediately, and effected a speedy cure.—G. Stoveall, M. D., Carrollton, Miss.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is decidedly the best remedy, within my knowledge, for chronic Bronchitis, and all lung diseases. —M. A. Rust, M. D., South Paris, Me.

I was attacked, last winter, with a severe Cold, which, from exposure, grew worse and finally settled on my Lungs. By night sweats I was reduced almost to a skeleton. My Cough was incessant, and I frequently spit blood. My physician told me to give up business, or I would not live a month. After taking various remedies without relief, I was finally two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I am now in perfect health, and able to resume business, after having been pronounced incurable with Consumption.—S. P. Henderson, Sauisburgh, Penn.

For years I was in a decline. I had weak lungs, and suffered from Bronchitis and Catarrh. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral restored me to health, and I have been for a long time comparatively vigorous. In case of a sudden cold I always resort to the Pectoral, and find speedy relief.—Edward E. Curtis, Rutland, Vt.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Bronchitis. The physician attending me became fearful that the disease would terminate in Pneumonia. After trying various medicines, without benefit, he finally prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved me at once. I continued to take this medicine a short time, and was cured. —Ernest Colton, Logansport, Ind.

OATMEAL FOOD

OATMEAL is one of the blessings of daily call in the family.

Rich and poor alike appreciate its value as a palatable and nutritious food.

It is to be found on every breakfast table—or ought to be.

ROLLED, GRANULATED or STANDARD, it beats all other competitors in public favor.

Its popularity is largely due to the excellence attained by improved machinery at our establishment.

PALATABLE, NUTRITIOUS CHEAP. The Oat contains all the constituents necessary for the [illegible] of which he may exist.

It is one of Nature's [illegible] which is capable of supporting life and health for an indefinite period.

In the border raids and forays of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries it was held in high esteem—an estimate at least—that of the soldiers.

The provision carried by a Scottish soldier in those days was simply a bag of oatmeal.

With his good Claymore and Shield, and reinforced by this food, in spite of scant attire and inferior camp equipage, how often did he cope successfully with the haughty Saxons and was enabled to join the heads of the best soldiers in the world.

Happily those days are past and milder and more peaceful times prevail.

But this food is still in the ascendant.

Its demand increases every day.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

THE DIAMOND BUTTON

FROM THE DIARY OF A LAWYER AND THE NOTE BOOK OF A REPORTER.

By BARCLAY NORTH.

(Copyrighted, 1889, by O. M. Dunham. Published by special arrangement through The American Press Association.)

"nowever, as a matter of fact, I can not recollect the names. The inquiries made little or no impression on me, and I answered them as I have answered you. It is only now when you come—a third—with practically the same inquiries, that my curiosity is excited. They were both men," he added.

"Both men," repeated the old man, evidently puzzled and alarmed. "They were not the same person calling twice?"

"Upon my word it would be hard for me to recollect were it not for the fact that they called the same day," and he added under his breath, "May I be forgiven for that lie. I recollect it," he continued, "because I was preparing a brief for an important cause and I was annoyed at the interruptions. I presume they had reference—as I presume yours does—to some action before the courts in relation to his unclaimed property."

"I presume so," said the old man, rising. "I am employed by a client to establish a claim against the property. I am an attorney. I find it difficult to construct a chain of evidence. There is a missing link, which must be among the late Mr. Pierson's papers. I am annoyed to find the possibility of a second contestant, when I supposed there was but one."

"May I ask who that one is?"

"You will pardon me if I maintain that as a secret."

Holbrook could only assent gracefully. The old man bade him good day and passed out.

"Your story may be true, or it may not be; I am inclined to believe the latter," said Holbrook aloud when he was alone.

He picked up the card again and read the name. He touched the bell which summoned his managing clerk.

When that person entered he said:

"Clark, do you know a lawyer by the name of George Parker?"

"Yes, that was the man who just passed out."

"What do you know about him?"

"Not much, and what I do, not to his advantage. A rather shady character. Said to have been disbarred many years ago. But I imagine he has been restored. I'd fight very shy of him."

"He came for information which I couldn't, and therefore didn't, give him."

"It was for no good, I'll bet," replied the clerk as he left Holbrook.

CHAPTER XIV.

TOM PURSUES A CLEW WITH SUCCESS.

WHEN Tom Bryant left Holbrook's office he sauntered up Broadway planning his day's work.

—"By George!" he cried, slapping his thigh and stopping short, much to the amusement of passersby: "that is an idea, to be sure; I'll be hanged if I don't try it."

Now the idea which had struck Tom with so much force gave out of the fact that he had been bothered to know how he could identify his man, after he had found where a suit of clothes of the kind of cloth a sample of which he had in his pocket had been purchased. While revolving many schemes in his mind, he had seen in the windows of a store a number of photographic cameras for the use of amateurs.

The thought flashed over his mind that he could have a picture taken of Fountain, unknown to that gentleman.

Tom had a friend engaged as a leader writer on the paper on which he was employed, who had been greatly taken by the amateur photographic craze, and who had become quite proficient in making instantaneous pictures.

Fired with this idea Tom pushed his way rapidly to Printing House square, and, dropping into a place which was at once an eating house and a beer saloon, and where he was in the habit of meeting his Shadow, summoned a messenger whom he sent to his friend requesting to see him immediately.

He looked about for his Shadow. He was there, deeply interested in the study of the various advertisements of the railroad lines hanging on the walls, with a sandwich in one hand, a mug of beer in the other, and one eye on Tom.

Seeing Tom nod to him, he walked over.

"Well," said Tom, "what news?"

"Our man"—it was one of the peculiarities of the Shadow that he never mentioned a name unless directly asked for it—"Our man had a father once, but he has been dead almost as many years as our man has lived."

"In other words," said Tom, "the father died when the son was young."

"When he was a baby not two years old."

"Who brought him up?"

"His mother. She lived with him up in Putnam county, coming here into the city in the winter. She lived very quiet, never went out anywhere, brought the boy up well, 'eddicated' him and then died, just after he was of age. Ever since he has lived as we know him. She left him a little property. Guess from all I can hear he has about lived it up."

"How did he get into this swell set?"

"Don't know, but I guess through his schoolmates."

"Probably. Well, it isn't much, and what there is makes him all the more mysterious."

At this moment his friend came.

"Hello, old boy," cried Tom, have a beer? No? In a hurry, hey? How soon will you be off?"

"In about three hours," was the reply.

"See here, old fellow, I want you to do me a favor. I want the picture of a man taken on the sly."

His friend was delighted to do it; would do it that very day if he could find the person.

Tom called the Shadow up and told him to take the gentleman to the most likely place where Fountain could be found and taken unobserved.

"If you don't take him today take him to-morrow."

He then hurried off. As he turned into Chatham street he thought that he would not lose time by trying the stores in that thoroughfare, for it would be quite unlikely that his man would come so far down town as Chatham street.

"The Bowery, and the upper part of it, is my field," he said aloud, and with these words he turned, crossed the street, and climbed up to the elevated railroad station.

Arriving at the Houston Street station he descended to the street. Standing a moment, he said: "I'll work up to Cooper Institute on this side and then down on the other."

He put his project into effect at once.

It is no purpose of our story to tell in detail his search. Suffice it to say, his experiences were commonplace, consisting of entering a store, producing the slip of cloth and asking if they had a suit of clothes of that material. When urged to buy others equally as good and of the same quality—as he invariably was—his answer was that he wanted the suit as a sort of uniform.

Wearily he traversed both sides of the thoroughfare between Houston street and the Cooper institute, and, indeed all that part of the Bowery on the east side as far down as Chatham square.

About half way up on the west side he entered a store and preferred his request as usual.

The clerk waiting on him examined the piece carefully.

"No," he said, "we have no cloth of that kind, but," and he hesitated, much to Tom's impatience. "I think if you will go down into Fulton street you will find it. A dealer bought all this we was in the market of this kind. I have a brother employed there, and if I am not mistaken this is the kind of cloth."

Tom took the address and the name of the man's brother.

Jack and Jill each took a pill,
Old-fashioned kind—full grown;
Jack's went down—but with a frown—
Jill died from "cause unknown."

Smiles will supersede many frowns, and many discomforts will be unknown, when Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets entirely supersede, as they bid fair to do, the large and less efficient pill of our forefathers. Every day they gain new laurels! Most popular when most ills abound! b

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Mango," and "Madre E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most skeptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate. mwf

THE OLD RELIABLE.
The Canada Life
Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder:"

When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5,040,186, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calender year, the result of which would be to reduce the ensuing one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would curtail it considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $840,186 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525,000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300,000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management. dw

A Busy Musician.

Mr. J. H. Ketcham's musical engagements keep him moving. In addition to his classes in the Public Schools, Mr. Ketcham has vocal night classes at Hastings, Warkworth, Westwood and Selwyn—a particularly strong class at the latter place, numbering over 100, with more to come. The combined strength of Mr. Ketcham's night classes is about 350 pupils.

Amateur Minstrelsy.

The Belleville Amateur Minstrels gave a performance before a crowded house in Belleville the other night. The press notices of the event were most complimentary. The Intelligencer says:—"The gross receipts at the performance were $452. The company will give performances at Peterborough and Napanee, and probably at Trenton, at an early date."

The idea is to make the club a permanent one, not only for the winter season but during the summer as well. The club rooms will always be open to members. There is a sitting room, supplied with a piano, a smoking room, and a billiard room, in which is a first-class table. The rooms will be lighted by gas. The first tramp of the season will soon take place, and if there is not enough snow to warrant the use of snowshoes, the members will go on a walking jaunt.

A Great Risk.

This is the time when it is dangerous to insure risks. Yesterday an enthusiastic Scotchman brought to the EXAMINER a bill of fare of a banquet at San Francisco, with the names of the dishes printed in the crankiest of broad Scotch. He asked to have it republished in the EXAMINER, but was told that, while the EXAMINER delighted to please Scotchmen, it could not run the risk of breaking the printing press. There is not the slightest degree of risk, however, in buying teas at Hawley bros.'s, who keep in stock the finest and freshest brands of all kinds of teas, and also the best coffee. dw

The Late Francis J. Hall.

The EXAMINER records with regret the death at Ashburnham, on Tuesday, of Mr. Francis J. Hall. The deceased gentleman was a son of the late James Hall, at one time sheriff of this county. Since reaching adult age he has spent most of his time out of town, coming to reside in Ashburnham about a year ago. He married a daughter of Judge Pringle, of Cornwall, and leaves behind him a widow and four children. His last illness, a rheumatic attack, was of about a month's duration, but it was only a few days since the disease involved the heart and a fatal result followed. The funeral takes place from his late residence, Sophia street, Ashburnham, on Thursday next at 1.30 p.m.

"The Canadian Churchman."

This is the revised version of the title of the Dominion Churchman, which began the new year under a new regime. It is devoted peculiarly to the needs, demands, and interests of the Anglican church in the Dominion. No churchman, who wishes to keep abreast of church work, and to appreciate to the fullest the responsibility arising from his relation to the church, should be without this excellent journal. It is in editorial charge of Rev. Prof. Wm. Clark, D.D., a fact of itself amply guaranteeing an exalted religious and literary tone. There is also a very great change for the better in the typography and general appearance of the Churchman.

"The Story of Emin's Rescue."

This book has just been published by Harper Bros. and gives the story of Emin's rescue as told in Mr. Stanley's letters and is particularly timely, including, as it does, all the explorer has yet written of his great discoveries, his thrilling adventures and perils, the fall of Emin's province, and the complete success of the expedition. Mr. J. Scott Keltie, the well-known geographical writer of London, has written an introduction, giving a valuable summary of the facts that led to sending Stanley to Emin's rescue, and the Fenn Pinsha Relief Committee contributes some interesting matter that has not before been made public. A more brilliant epitome of this remarkable trip across Africa could not be written than that which Stanley's own graphic pen has supplied. The brochure will also be noteworthy as containing, with other portraits and a fine map of the route, the only good likeness of Tippo Tib, the famous trader and the richest man in Central Africa, that has yet been published. It is reproduced from a fine photograph of that powerful chief taken last year at Stanley Falls, with map of routeand three portraits. Octavo cloth, 50 cents. A Terrible Tramp.

On Monday Mr. T. A. Hay, of the Engineer's Department, G. T. R., and Inspector Cheer walked over the line of the old Coburg and Peterborough railway, for the purpose of ascertaining in what condition it was. They left Harwood Monday morning and tramped the twelve miles between that village and Cobourg under tremendous difficulties. They found the road bed in places submerged in water, through which they had to wade, for to leave the line and attempt a circuitous route to avoid the ponds meant being lost in the dense woods. The wind was blowing a hurricane also, which greatly added to their troubles. They were frequently up to their knees in water, and when they reached Cobourg their legs were encased in ice. On the road Mr. Cheer, who is a hardy man and accustomed to such expeditions, was completely bowled out, either from exhaustion or is grippe. He was taken suddenly ill, and lay down on the track moaning that he felt he was going to die. Mr. Hay used every effort to revive him sufficiently to enable him to proceed, and finally managed to get the sick man to his destination. Mr. Cheer is now at his home in Port Hope quite ill.

Bensfort.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

The river is pretty well frozen over, but owing to the great expanse of water and light frost, it is not sufficiently solid for traffic.

Mr. C. Manley made his return trip for the season from Otonabee, with his thresher, on Monday, 13th inst. Since that time he has been over the ice, on Rice Lake, to one of the islands to thresh for Mr. R. Jackson.

The literary society is again organized for the winter. A number of changes have been made regarding the management, which, it is expected, will work to advantage.

Mr. J. W. Hall's gobbler started off on Christmas eve. It was found out, however, that he had gone eastward, and got no further than the first house, where he had the common misfortune to get roasted.

Why not comment upon the epidemic influenza, now of world-wide celebrity, and be fashionable? Yes. Well, he staid best with those who gave him the best show. Those who didn't just understand his ways didn't like him at first, but he turns out to be not so bad, after all. The most undoubted evidence of affection and attachment is seen in the dignified mein assumed by those who claim the distinction of a contest with the so-called fiend.

The business of the annual school meeting was done in a business way, Mr. E. Kerr presiding in the chair. Mr. F. Thompson was the unanimous choice for the position of trustee. The contract for fuel was given to Mr. Jos. Kerr, who also supplies school section No. 3. A discussion took place, somewhat animated, concerning the general management in and around the school during the year just closed, when it was found that the usual progressive tendencies, for which Bensfort has been noted, were wanting here.

The manufacturers are looking towards advancement in the near future. Mr. J. Fletcher, who has been the principal in these for a number of years, has decided to erect handsome and convenient buildings on grounds obtained recently from Mr. J. Weed. Amongst those named to continue work in the old shop are Messrs P. Dodds, W. Dawson and T. Ishister, all reliable men. It is hoped the times will warrant the continual clang of the hammers and tongs, and that there will be a good supply of such articles as will suit the wants of purchasers. Mr. Fletcher has bought Mr. J. Moncrief's vacant house for $100, which he intends moving to his new lot in about four days, so that for this a little manipulating of numbers will give the entire cost.

Knox, Dr. McNaughton.

The Salvation Army Case.

Police Magistrate Dumble's Opinion of the Army Parades—The Hands Bound Fined.

In the police court this morning the case against Jas. Curtin, hack driver, charged with using grossly insulting and abusive language towards the Captain of the Salvation Army, was tried. The defendant's counsel was Mr. W. F. Johnston.

The Captain and several soldiers who were in the parade Saturday night last, gave their evidence, which was to the effect that when passing the C.P.R. Hotel, on Simcoe street, Curtin got up on the box of his hack and drove the horses across the middle of the street, blocking up the march. The Captain gave orders for the drum and instruments to cease as soon as they came to the hack, and the witnesses were unanimous in stating that the horses were quiet and did not appear frightened in the least. The Salvationists deviated from their line of march and went to one side of the hack, continuing the parade as if nothing had occurred. The Captain, however, went back and remarked to Curtin that "he would see about this," and Curtin replied that he would "smash his bleeding thumbed mouth." Corporal Bacon then stepped up and said he wouldn't do anything of the sort while he was around. Finally the two Salvationists rejoined the procession, which had gone up George street and turned back again before they caught it. The procession again passed along Simcoe street to the barracks.

The magistrate in delivering judgment said that he considered the Salvation Army parades a nuisance in the legal sense. Where people interfere with what was recognized as the legitimate rights of others and interrupt traffic and become a source of annoyance and fright to horses, unsupported by any legal authority, they commit a public nuisance. It didn't make any difference, he said, whether it was done in the name of religion or by a circus; it was as much a circus in one case as in the other. True, the Army in this case stopped their music, which was most proper. Mr. Curtin's action was, he said, wrong; if the Army was doing what was wrong in his view, he could seek legal redress and not undertake their punishment himself. Both parties were to blame. Mr. Dumble said he thought Curtin did what he could to provoke an assault.

Mr. JOHNSTON—I think he did it because his horses would not stand.

Mr. DUMBLE—There is no evidence to show that the horses were restless. Continuing, he said that if the capella was annoyed, he did not wonder at him remonstrating, and Curtin answered him in an impolite and rude way. As for the Army not ceasing to play on the way back because the horses did not run away, Mr. Dumble was of opinion it would be too late to stop playing after they had run away. He thought it their duty to stop playing whenever they came to horses.

In this case, Mr. Dumble said, the question was whether the matter came under the by-law. Curtin simply drove his horses around the procession, and not into it. None of the Army people were struck or hurt in any way. He could not see how Curtin could be convicted for that. And the language he used was foul obscene; it was not blasphemous. Then was it grossly insulting? He was inclined to think there was profane swearing, and the language was insulting and therefore contrary to the by-law. He fined Curtin $2

At the same time, he said, he did not want the Salvation Army to understand that they had the run of the town and could do as they pleased. Mr. Dumble said he thought the whole procession business was a public nuisance, and as long as the public authorities tolerated them, the Army should take every precaution to give no offence. And if they got a rough word once in a while they should swallow it.

Re Croft and Peterborough.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—My attention has been called to statements made by the Town Solicitor to the different reporters as to the effect of the judgment of the Court of Appeal in this matter, and it may be assumed that these statements are made with a view to letting himself down easily, as well as belittling the opposing counsel. That the facts do not warrant his assertions will easily be made apparent.

When the motion to quash the by-law was made before Mr. Justice Rose, counsel for Mr. Croft simply contended that the term "Electors" was entitled to have a broader meaning than that given to it by the learned town solicitor; that it at all events included all classes of tenants; and that a sufficient number of tenants were prevented voting to have changed the result. This was as far as it was necessary for Mr. Croft's counsel to go, but Mr. Justice Rose went further holding that not only was this particular class entitled to vote but a much larger constituency, viz.:—All persons having the right to vote at an election of a member of the Legislative Assembly. Against this judgment the town appealed; the solicitor by his reasons of appeal again contending that the term "Electors" could have no broader meaning than that which he had originally assigned to it. Among the reasons against the appeal served by Mr. Croft's Solicitors is the following:—"Under Section 42 of 'The Liquor License Act,' Cap. 194, R. S. O. 1887, the By-Law in question is required to be approved by the Electors in the manner provided by the Municipal Act with respect to By-Laws, which, before their final passing, require the assent of the Electors of the Municipality"

"It is submitted that inasmuch as the Legislature by this enactment gives the Municipality certain powers, the electors referred to must be the Municipal Electors, that is, all persons having the right to vote at a Municipal Election," etc., and the judgment of the Court of Appeal is reported as follows:—"Re Croft and Town of Peterborough,—judgment on appeal by the Town of Peterborough from an order of Rose J., (17 O.R. 522), quashing a bylaw of the town imposing a high license upon sellers of intoxicating liquors. Rose, J. was of opinion that all electors entitled to vote upon the bylaw he not been allowed to do so, giving to the word 'electors' in sec. 42 of the Liquor License Act, R. S. O., ch. 194, the meaning of the word as used in sub-sec. 11, namely, those entitled to vote at an election for a member of the Legislative Assembly. The court dismissed the appeal with costs, not agreeing with the judgment of Rose, J., as to the meaning of the word 'electors' but holding that in any view certain persons entitled were excluded from voting, and being of opinion that the electors intended by the section were those entitled to vote at a municipal election. Robinson, Q. C., and E. B. Edwards, for the appellants. Pousette, Q. C., and Aylesworth, for the respondent."

From which it will be seen that the court exactly agreed with Mr. Croft's Counsel and not with Mr. Justice Rose.

It will be observed that it was unnecessary for Mr. Croft's counsel to give any specific meaning to the term "electors" and the Town Solicitor knows very well that the expression of the court upon this point is an obiter dictum. Mr. Croft only had to show that the Town Solicitor was wrong; he succeeded in doing so, and the by-law is quashed with costs.

Yours etc,

A. P. POUSSETTE,
Counsel for Mr. Croft.

A Plea for Dumb Animals.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—I saw a letter in the EXAMINER the other day regarding the formation of a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. My attention was called to another argument in favor of such a Society to-day. As I was going home to dinner, I saw a baker's cart ahead of me on George street. The horse between the shafts was apparently old and decrepit, and its gait necessarily slow—too slow for the driver. He hit the poor beast two or three vigorous cuts with the lash of his black-snake whip, and these having no effect, he wound the lash around his hand and used the heavy end. Standing up and leaning over the dash he clubbed the horse until it began to run in a feeble way. The equipage afterwards stopped at a grocery store, and as I passed I saw the effects of the beating in the scars and marks on the horse's back. Such inhuman conduct should be put a stop to if possible.

Yours,

MERCY.

THE BIG TELEGRAPH SUIT AT MONTREAL.

A Decision in Favor of the Defendants Expected—The Murder Mystery at Toronto—Did Jane Speers Wish to Shield Her Assailant?

MONTREAL, Jan. 22.—Gossip on the street is that in the suit of the G.N.W. Telegraph Company v. Montreal Telegraph Company a verdict is sure in favor of the latter. An appeal in any case is probable. The question has also arisen, in view of a favorable decision, to whom will the disputed balances, lodged in Court, be paid? To those who were shareholders at the date the dividends were paid, or the present holders of the stock?

The body of a child three months old was found this morning in the porch of a church in St. Denis-street. A coroner's jury decided that it had died from exposure. There is no clue to the guilty parties.

The Court of Appeal this morning confirmed the judgment of the Superior Court, condemning the Montreal Street Railway Company to pay to Mr. Lindsay, a farmer in the County of Comptos, the value of two horses bought by him from them, and which had to be shot as being affected with glanders, the allegation of plaintiff being that the horses were diseased when sold.

HAMILTON'S FINANCES.

A Big Balance on the Wrong Side—An Unnatural Father.

HAMILTON, Jan. 22.—The state in which the new Finance Committee finds the city finances caused some consternation among the members of the committee. Two years ago the council started in with a balance of $48,500 against it and that amount has been increased to $160,165 largely by the extensive public works entered into.

Nicholas Flood Davin, M.P., arrived in town this morning, but it was decided in consequence of the grippe to postpone his lecture until some later day. Mr. Davin left for Ottawa to-night.

At the police court to-day a plasterer named William Mapham was committed for trial on a charge of criminal assault upon his 16-year-old daughter Alice. The girl said that her father had conducted himself wrongly toward her for the past two years.

Late yesterday afternoon John McLeod, a young man about 28 years of age, whose home is at 44 Crooke-street, dropped dead on York-street.

The representatives of the Toronto bottle manufacturers found a small number of the missing bottles at Sherk's factory. Summonses were issued and the cases will be heard to-morrow.

THE TORONTO MYSTERY.

Did Jane Speers Know and Wish to Shield the Murderer?

TORONTO, Jan. 23.—Coroner Johnson held an adjourned inquest at the Police Court last night into the death of Jane Speers, the victim of the Agnes-street tragedy of Jan. 9. Inspector Ward stated that it had occurred to him that the murder had been committed by someone whom the victim wished to shield. Nothing else was developed beyond what has already been stated, and the inquest was adjourned until Feb. 4.

Losses Caused by Flames.

ORILLIA, Jan. 23.—Fire at 3 o'clock this morning gutted the store of P. W. Bell & Co. The stock is a total loss, but as Mr. Bell was in Toronto figures cannot be obtained. Said to be insured for $9000. The building was owned by T. Kern and was insured.

COBOURG, Jan. 22.—At 1½ o'clock this morning fire broke out in Plews & Co.'s photograph gallery. The losses will be heavy, the firms suffering being L. Woodcock, Thomas York, Gowans & Co., Plews & Co., Sentinel-Star. P. J. Lightburn, all fully insured. Another blaze at the same hour did $300 damage at the gas works—insured.

A Fashionable Wedding at Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Jan. 23.—One of the most fashionable wedding of the season took place at the Church of the Ascension at 3 o'clock this afternoon, when Miss Daisy Brown, daughter of Mr. Adam Brown, M.P., was married to Mr. Ernest Brown Smith of London. The marriage was performed by Rev. Dean Carmichael of Montreal, assisted by Rev. D. P. Crawford and the Bishop of Niagara.

A. W. Morris & Bros. Assign.

MONTREAL, Jan. 22.—Messrs. A. W. Morris & Bros., cordage works, assigned to-day at the demand of Bushnell & Co., with total liabilities amounting to $369,000. The principal creditor is Molsons Bank, with $92,386 secured and $37,823 unsecured.

Funeral of Prince Amadeo.

ROME, Jan. 22.—The funeral of the Duke of Aosta, formerly King of Spain, occurred to-day at Turin. The ceremonies were remarkably modest and simple, but evidences of grief and affection for the popular Italian Prince were almost universal.

MR. COLTER UNSEATED.

His Appeal Dismissed by the Supreme Court—Another Election in Haldimand.

OTTAWA, Jan. 22.—Mr. Colter's prospects seemed bright when, in the Supreme Court this morning, Chief Justice Ritchie led off with an elaborate judgment, which it took him half an hour to deliver, declaring that though Haslett was clearly a briber it had not been shown by the evidence that he was an agent of Colter's, and that therefore the latter should not be held responsible. The Chief Justice thought the appeal should be dismissed with costs.

As the judges speak according to their seniority, Judge Strong came next. He was not present, being yet ill, but his written judgment was read by the Chief Justice. It was a model of brevity: "For the reasons stated by Mr. Justice Falconbridge, which I accept in their entirety, I think the appeal should be dismissed with costs."

Justice Taschereau was entitled to speak next, but he asked to be passed over.

Then Justice Gwynne said that as the evidence did not clearly show that Haslett was not an agent he must adhere to the practice of the court and decline to interfere, thereby leaving the appeal to be dismissed with costs.

Judge Fournier, who was on the bench, had not been present when the case was heard, so said nothing.

Judge Patterson said sufficient reason had not been shown for interference by this court. If Haldimand had not such familiarity with elections there might have been greater doubt as to Haslett's agency, but the policy of the association in which it copied the teaching of another on a different side of politics was evidently to so conduct the business that there would be no written evidence. The Supreme Court should not upset the finding of a trial judge unless it was clearly wrong. And he thought the petition should be dismissed with costs.

Justice Taschereau then announced that he had grave doubts as to Haslett's agency and would have asked for more time make up his mind were it not that a majority of the court were agreed to dismiss the appeal.

The Chief Justice then declared the appeal dismissed with costs, and that the usual return should be made to Speaker Ouimet, who was himself among the auditors in the court-room. Mr. Colter had been, but he went away when the Chief Justice was reading his judgment. Of course his seat in the House was vacant this afternoon. It is understood that the writ for the new election will be issued immediately and the earliest possible day fixed.

Mr. Colter, who has been in the capital since the opening of Parliament, says he will certainly contest the county again, and says further that under the revised lists he can

DOMINION LAWMAKERS.

OFFICIAL FRENCH IN THE NORTH-WEST TERRITORIES.

Mr. McCarthy's Repeal Bill Introduced—His Reasons for the Measure Explained in a Long Speech—Mr. La Riviere Replies in French.

OTTAWA, Jan. 23.—Mr. McCarthy's bill for the abolition of French as an official language in the Northwest Territories was introduced this afternoon. He named Col. Denison as his seconder. Contrary to the usual custom here Mr. McCarthy made a lengthy address in asking leave to introduce the bill. He spoke for nearly an hour, very temperately and dispassionately, and was listened to with the greatest attention by the whole House. He was constantly interrupted by expressions of dissent from the French members, great and small, who exhibited a good deal of irritation at the attack upon the perpetuation of their mother tongue. There will evidently be a warm discussion when the bill comes up for second reading. Mr. Chapleau may be depended upon to deliver an oration upon that occasion, judging from the copious notes he took to-day and the eager attention with which he listened. It will be some little time before the second reading can be moved, as six bills, including three or four of general importance, are on the order paper ahead of it.

In opening his address Mr. McCarthy said he felt that no defence or apology was necessary, but some explanation was in order. It seemed most extraordinary that in 1877 the dual language should have been imposed upon the territories without any consent of theirs. First of all it needed explanation how we came to find this clause in the Territories Act. The act was passed in 1877, when the member for Bothwell was Minister of the Interior. The bill he had then brought in to amend the Territories Act did not contain the clause imposing the French language It was inserted in the Senate. How this came about he had no personal knowledge, but he was assured that it was at the instance of Senator Scott, then leader of the Senate and a member of the Government. Though he had positive assurance it seemed scarcely credible that this could be so, for when the bill so altered was returned to the Commons Mr. Mills, as appeared by the Hansard, expressed regret that the amendment had been made, but asked the House to adopt the bill as it stood, because were it again altered and sent back to the Senate it would be impossible to have it passed that session.

Mr. Mills had expressed his belief that it was inadvisable to call for the use of the French language. Almost all of the residents of the territories, he said, spoke Cree, and if the ordinances were to be published in the most prevalent language then they should be published in Cree. The bill seemed to have been passed without much consideration or any protest. He did not know whether he was himself present on the occasion, but if not present he should have been, and so shared the blame equally with the other members.

It was strange that any one ever proposed to perpetuate two official languages. No explanation was to be found in the treaty of cession, although a very large number of persons seemed to think that by that document the right of language was conceded to the conquered French.

"Conquered! Ceded," interrupted a member opposite.

"Ceded then," agreed Mr. McCarthy, "but I always prefer the word conquered.'" No explanation was to be found in the Quebec Act, for that act in restoring to the French their laws did not deal with the question of language. At the organization of Lower Canada in 1791 French was not provided for though the French nevertheless soon after took the right by resolution of the Assembly. At the time of the rebellion in 1837 Lord Durham reported that the troubles largely arose out of the use of two languages, and a clause was inserted in the act of 1841 absolutely prohibiting use of the French language, but the law was repealed in 1848 and 1849.

In the British North America Act the French language is for the first time authorized by statute, but only for the Dominion Parliament and the Province of Quebec. He did not think it of importance that the French language should be not permitted perhaps, but it should not be fostered and encouraged in the Dominion. An investigation upon the subject would show that no country could be prosperous where the people were divided by differences of language.

"How about Switzerland?" asked Mr. Mills, and Mr. McCarthy was proceeding to say that everyone knows that Switzerland is an exceptional case when he was interrupted by derisive laughter from Messrs. Desjardins, Bergeron and other of the French members. Seemingly annoyed, Mr. McCarthy asked those who interrupted him to remember that there was a grave matter before the House and said he hoped that they would do something more than laugh. They were assembled here for the purpose of promoting national unity, not of sowing the seeds of dissension. ["Hear! hear!" and laughter.]

Mr. McCarthy continuing said he trusted he would be given a quiet hearing as he had his own opinion on this subject and intended to adhere to it. We had, he said, expended an immense amount of money in attempting to build up a nation and why should we seek to make dissension and division by fostering two languages not only in Quebec where they already use it but in the new territory as well! If not to build up nationality then we had no object in making a sacrifice to secure this new territory.

He quoted from Freeman the contention that without community of language there could not be true national unity; from Prof. Muller, who said that as blood is thicker than water it may be declared even with greater truth that language is thicker than blood and a common language even without common blood makes the whole world feel akin. Prof. Powell declared that the ideas of race and nationality had taken such a hold founded on language that all other considerations were lost sight of. It had been the experience everywhere that the people of acquired territories readily took up the language of a new government.

"Alsace and Lorraine seem to be an exception," interrupted Mr. Mills, and Mr. Chapleau endorsed the remark with an appreciative "Hear! Hear!"

Continuing, Mr. McCarthy said he was glad to see that upon this question, as upon most others, Mr. Mills had now taken a decided stand. Though when it was passed he had said that he disapproved of the bill, he had apparently determined now to stand by it even though he were on the wrong side. Dissensions of race were calculated to rend the Dominion in twain. If in the past Canada had pursued the wise policy of encouraging only one language the French-speaking people would not now form so large a proportion of the community. The descendants of the original French settlers would have been English speaking, just as the descendants of all emigrants to the United States, no matter whence they came, speedily learned to use only the language of the country.

"Not the French," dissented Mr. Bergeron, and cries of "Hear! hear!" and applause from the French members greeted his remark.

Simulating surprise Mr. McCarthy remarked: "I see there is a good deal of feeling on this subject; more than I expected." This declaration provoked general laughter.

Mr. McCarthy then proceeded to quote from Lord Durham's report on the troubles of 1837 to show that the national view and the prevalence of the French language had caused all the ill-feeling that prevailed. He thought this testimony of Lord Durham's should be accepted without question, coming as it did from an impartial observer sent to make it his special business to enquire into the matter.

"Lord Durham did not write the report himself," objected Sir John Macdonald.

"Perhaps not," said Mr. McCarthy. "The report has been ascribed to Mr. Buller, but he was quite as able and intelligent a man as Lord Durham and has made his observations on the spot. At all events Lord Durham approved of the report or he would not have presented it."

This difficulty of race was observed not only in Canada but was patent to outsiders as well. He had in his hand a copy of a magazine publication, The Month, introduced to the House last session by the Minister of Justice as an authority on such questions, and in it he found a very interesting article on "Canadian Difficulties of Race." This described at length a latent hate declared to exist between the English and the French, or rather between the French and the Irish, for the difference of tongue had made more enmity than the difference of religion.

He also read from The Catholic World, a New York publication, which declared that the growth of the French in Canada was the chief cause of the annexation language commonly heard. This contention was no new thing, for he had heard it over and over again.

"Have you become an annexationist, too?" enquired Mr. Laurier, banteringly.

"No, I don't think I incur that suspicion," replied Mr. McCarthy. Both from within and without the general opinion prevailed that this question of language had come to a point where it must be solved to avert difficulty in the Dominion. On this occasion he was dealing only with what this Parliament was competent to deal with, dual language in the Northwest Territories.

He had been forwarded a copy of a petition from the Legislative Council of the Northwest Territories by which they almost unanimously asked for the discontinuance of the French language. Not only were they so unanimous, but he believed every newspaper in the Northwest had urged the same thing, that in every paper which had mentioned the subject, for one distinguished journal, The Regina Leader—[laughter]—had not considered it worthy of notice.

He had thought it well to make this explanation upon introducing the bill, so that before the general discussion occurred when it came up for second reading the House might be informed as to its ground of action, and he might then have an opportunity of answering the arguments brought against him. He desired to disclaim any hostility against the French race or against their representatives in this House.

[Cries of "Hear! Hear!" and "Thank you!" from French members.]

His greatest wish was to see Canada one race, with one national life and one language common to all.

Mr. La Liviere rose next and commenced to speak in French. No sooner had he uttered the words "Monsieur l'orateur" than a chorus of members called upon him to speak in English. "I'll speak English when this French question is disposed of," was Mr. La Riviere's retort. Then proceeding in French he asked why, if the French language were so great an evil as it was represented, Mr. McCarthy had not taken the more courageous course of striking at the root of the evil, its use in the House of Commons, in place of seeking to deprive only the few halfbreeds of the Northwest of the privilege they enjoyed. He thought Mr. McCarthy had been very unfair in insinuating anything against the loyalty of the French Canadians, who had shown how loyal they were when the country was in danger of falling into the hands of strangers.

Sir John Macdonald said the bill just introduced was one of much importance, but in addition the whole line of argument of the member who had introduced it was of a kind to involve the most serious and grave questions, so that it became necessary to take full time to consider what his contentions led to and the consequences that would follow if they were adhered to by the House. He would therefore ask that the discussion end here, as before the second reading the bill would be in the hands of every member and all could have given the matter earnest consideration.

Mr. Chapleau said he did not desire to prolong the discussion, but he wished to quote without delay the opinion of an experienced statesman who had given warning of the impolicy of all such attempts to denationalise the French. "If successful, he had said," what would be the result? You may Americanize but you can never Anglicise. Let them feel that their rights and privileges are respected and the last hand that waves the British flag in the Dominion will be that of a French Canadian." Those were the words of Lord Elgin, and he asked the House to remember and deliberate upon them.

Mr. Laurier agreed that further discussion was not called for at this stage. It would have been better if Mr. McCarthy had not in his explanation introduced a good deal of controversial matter. There were many who might perhaps favor the bill, but could not endorse the words with which it had been introduced. In accordance with the general practice he would not express any opinion upon the bill until, having been given to all the members, it was proposed for a second reading. He desired, however, to give Mr. McCarthy a piece of information. That gentleman had asked what but a racial question had caused the defeat of the Liberal candidate in Richelieu. As he always understood the real cause was the bank notes of the defunct Mechanics' Bank. [Laughter.]

The bill was then introduced and read the first time.

Having spent 1¼ hours in passing motions for returns of little interest except to the movers, the House adjourned at 5.45.

WINNIPEG NEWS.

The C.P.R. Denies Taking Leprous Norwegians to St. Vincent.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 22.—Mr. Hugh Sutherland returned from Ottawa to-day and says he expects shortly to be able to make a definite announcement that work will be resumed on the road with the opening of spring.

Mr. W. E. Crawford, nephew of Mayor Crawford of Birtle, is dead in that town of pneumonia.

The Canadian Pacific officials here deny positively the statement in the American papers, made in a telegram from St. Vincent, that leprous Norwegians had been brought there by the Canadian Pacific Railway.

A Terrible Wreck on the "Q" Road—Particulars Unobtainable.

NEBRASKA CITY, Jan. 23.—A terrible wreck occurred on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway this morning near Stanton, Iowa. The westbound passenger train collided with a freight train, both of which were running at high speed. The engineer of the passenger train and several passengers were killed and many wounded. Particulars of the wreck cannot be obtained.

Syracuse's Scandal.

SYRACUSE, Jan. 23.—Thomas Caffray, aged 22, David Costigan and Patrick Hughes each aged 19, were arraigned in a justice's court here to-day charged with assaulting Sexton George W. Ogden of the Danforth Congregational Church just before services last Sunday evening. The young men deny the charge made against them and charges of a crime against nature practised on scores of boys of the neighborhood are to be made against the sexton, who it is claimed has been guilty of vile practices for the last two years.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

THE ALLAN COMPANY AND THE MAIL CONTRACT.

Gladstone Cattle Trade—Gladstone Discusses a Wide Range of Topics at Chester—Gladstone to His Constituents—Somber Gomez on the Wane.

TOMORROW, Jan. 23.—The Globe's London special says: On inquiry here I can obtain no confirmation of the statement embied that the Allans had secured the mail contract on the promise of a speed of seventeen knots an hour. At the Allans' London office nothing was said to be known of the matter, but they would not authorize a contradiction. The general feeling here for some time past has been that some such arrangement would be the outcome of the present position of affairs, and would satisfy most parties connected with the Canadian trade.

It is much to be hoped the Dominion Government is not interested, as was recently reported, in promoting a change in the live stock trade relations by permitting the shipment through the United States of live stock for England, via Chicago and Montreal. It is very unlikely Mr. Chaplin will agree to any lessening of the restrictions now enforced. But it is still more important to remember that if United States cattle are admitted with Canadian cattle, any outbreak of disease among the former is almost certain to prove fatal to the trade.

Gladstone Talks at Chester.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—Mr. Gladstone speaking at Chester to-day declined to criticise the course of Lord Salisbury in the dispute with Portugal until he is more fully informed as to the details of the case. He considered it his duty to avoid cavilling at the foreign policy of the Government. Turkey appeared again as inviting England to intervene to protect the suffering population of Crete and Armenia, but he warned the Sultan that England's reply would involve a reference to that mockery of justice the trial of Moussa Bey, and the reply would be that he would not obtain British sympathy in times of trial and difficulty unless he governed with humanity and justice.

Referring to the United States and the plans for an enlarged navy, Mr. Gladstone said that country is still enjoying the blessings and comforts of a restricted trade and would therefore pay 40 or 50 per cent. more to build a navy than it would if contented to compete on equal terms with other nations. But its resources are so great that it can afford to pay for the luxury of protection. The worst of it was that while America would cite England's example for enlarging her navy, England will give a similar excuse for further naval increase. It is a matter of deep sorrow to reflect that the very ostentatious addition to the defences of a country made under a real or pretended necessity is made an apology for the increase of the burdens of every other country. Under profession of an additional security the policy of governments thus tended more and more to jeopardise the peace of the world.

The country would be likely soon to hear much about the Parnell Commission. Without anticipating the judgment or breathing a word of suspicion of the judges, he would say the subject must be probed with the deepest attention of the country and of parliament. His opinion was that the cumbrous proceedings constituted a case of oppression practised upon an individual by a legislative chamber and an executive government without a parallel since the evil times of the reign of Charles II.

He commended Scotland's unvarying support of Liberalism. If Scotland demanded Home Rule neither Tories nor dissident Liberals would blow the war trumpets against it in the name either of the Union or the integrity of the Empire. Scotland had a good claim to Home Rule because the Tory majority assisted a handful of Scotch members to outvote the Scotch majority. The conflict for home rule is a terrific struggle of powerful influence on one side against conviction on the other side. It is the principle of Liberalism to trust the people qualified by prudence, it is the principle of Toryism to distrust the people qualified by fear. He was confident of the ultimate judgment of the country. If ready to meet dissolution but without impatience for it, it was because he felt strongly the justice of the cause and knew it must triumph.

Goschen Talks.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—Mr. Goschen in speaking to his constituents said the dispute with Portugal was forced upon England. The Portuguese had not a shadow of a claim to Nyassaland and the violence of their action fully justified the resolute language of Lord Salisbury. The national finances he asserted promised well. Regarding the surplus on the budget he advised that the public expectation should be rather more moderate than it appeared to be. He hoped the surplus would be utilized in lightening the people's burdens. He could only promise that there should be a bill to amend the savings bank law.

Lisbon and London.

LISBON, Jan. 22.—The Official Gazette warns the public not to depend upon reports regarding the relations with England published in papers opposed to the monarchy. Senhor Dantas, Portuguese ambassador at London, has been transferred to Paris. He will be replaced in London by the Marquis Ficalho, a Councillor of State and Grand Master of the Court. The Government feels that in this emergency it should be represented at London by an ambassador more fully cognizant of the national feeling than is possible for one who has been a long time out of the country.

A Blow at Disaffection.

BELGRADE, Jan. 22.—The Government wishing to strike a blow at the disaffected portion of the army has placed Colonel Povlovics, commander of the Belgrade division, and Colonel Vanlici on the retired list.

Thousands of overworked business men, wearied brainworkers industrious mechanics, and tried women, in all parts of the Dominion are to-day in a terrible position. Their nerves are weak, digestion poor, head aching, and they cannot sleep, work or live in comfort. This is what fills our Insane Asylums. It removes the results of overwork, restores strength, renews vitality, regulates the whole system, and tones up the overworked brain and body. Do not despair, but use this wonderful remedy, and be restored to health and happiness, the same as was Mr. John L. Brodie, of Montreal, who writes: "I have great pleasure in recommending your Paine's Celery Compound. My system was run down and I was not fit for business, could not sleep well at night and was nervous. I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound and improved immediately. I am now able to transact my business and endure any amount of excitement without bad effect."

THE NEW POLITICAL PARTY.

Hon. Mr. Mowat gave an address to his constituents at Tavistock recently, which we have reprinted in another place in this issue. In this speech Mr. Mowat deals vigorously with the New or Third party. He showed conclusively, as a perusal of the speech will prove, that, so far as the chief planks of the New party are concerned, there is no reason for its existence. These principles, so far as they are good and practical, have been practically incorporated into the platform of the Liberal party of Ontario for years, and have been practically acted upon. He further shows that the New party does not hope to be able to elect any considerable following to the house, its only hope is to weaken one of the two existing parties. And from the fact that the planks of the New party platform, so far as they commend themselves to general approval, are borrowed from the Reform party, it seems plain that the chief object of the new organization is to withdraw support from the Reform party and to replace it by the Conservative in Ontario politics. There is something very significant in these tactics. The record of the Mowat government is so unassailable on legitimate grounds that its opponents have to resort to new combinations and raise the religious cry to assist them in accomplishing their ends. After nearly a score of years of fruitless endeavour to reach office, the opponents of the Mowat government have exhausted every resource, fair and unfair, of political warfare. Attacked on the merits of its administration, the Mowat government has proved invulnerable; it has withstood the assaults of a faction using religious bigotry as a weapon and, as a last resort, political proselytism in the shape of a New party is employed. Our readers are requested to carefully peruse Hon. Mr. Mowat's speech, it will well repay it.

THE NEW PARTY EXPOSED

Hon. Mr. Mowat's Trenchant Criticism.

A Fair Warning to Liberals—Specious Plans Put Forward to Mislead Them—Some Notable Examples—Hon. Mr. Mowat's Speech at Tavistock.

Following is a report of Hon. Mowat's recent speech at Tavistock. The salient points are given verbatim:—

After announcing that his subject was the "New, or Third Party," which had for a time got into our provincial politics, the Premier said:—I believe this party exaggerates very much its own importance; but as a politician I am not in favor of despising and ignoring any hostile movement, and therefore certainly not one which has for its principal leader and its president a minister of the Gospel, and has among his associates other ministers of the Gospel. I have been a pretty close student of politics and politicians for 35 years and more, with all the advantages which public life during most of that time, and official life for more than half of it, have given to me, and I say, with the greatest respect but with confidence, that this New Party is not in the country's interests, and that so far as it may exert any influence on public affairs, that influence is likely to be evil and not good. I will tell you how and why.

The motto adopted, "For God and our Country," sounds well; and some of the planks in the New Party platform are attractive to both Reformers and Conservatives. But, in view of the expressed aims of the party, I can quite understand some good Conservatives becoming New party men. The and representatives have been revolting to some of the best of their followers, who, notwithstanding, do not like to become vowed Reformers after having long been the opponents of Reformers.

Mr. Mowat recounted the course of misdeeds that marked Conservative administration, from the Pacific scandal down through to the present time; and showed how the provincial lieutenants of the Conservative leaders at Ottawa were content to adopt the political policy of their leaders without regard to provincial interests, concluding by quoting a noted divine of Conservative leanings, who was roused by a contemplation of the sins of his party to say:—"We must choke bribery or be choked. Pacific scandals, the insolent purchase of a Province with the intent to purchase the country, local railways to purchase counties in detail, blind shares for the purchase of members of Parliament, have all been defended. As well defend Sodom," Mr. Mowat continued:—

Still most of these same Conservatives have hitherto stood by their party, and have done so because it is their party. To some of them the "New Party" may be a relief. They can join it without surrendering, or seeming to be surrendering, to their old political opponents. So far as the new organization draws off from the Conservative party a few of its disgusted men, clerical or lay, the organization may, from our point of view, be doing a good work; and this is the only way in which the New Party is going to do any good as a party. You and I believe that in the country's interests a man had better belong to this New Party than to the present Conservative party of this Province. But all experience is against the expectation that any large number of Conservatives will leave their party for any reason.

Reformers are in this position: All that is good and ripe for action in the platform of the New Party is of the Reform party, and always has been. For example, with respect to "Righteousness and truth in our public affairs," I am as anxious for this to be so as the Rev. President of the New Party can be; and the Reform party as a body hold to that principle quite as firmly as any of the New party can. So, also, in regard to "Equal Rights for all." There is no good and true cause in which that plank can be taken that the principle does not find a home in the Liberal party of this Province. Every intelligent Reformer knows this.

The Reform party when in power has exemplified these principles as thoroughly as any party, however pure its purpose, could do. The Hon. Alexander Mackenzie was the leader of a Reform Government in the Dominion from 1873 to 1878; Reformers point with pride to the purity of his administration all that time; and its character in this respect is very generally admitted nowadays by intelligent and fair-minded Conservatives also. In fact Canadians generally feel a pride in the uprightness of the Canadian Administration during these five years; and, unless where it is politically inexpedient to make the admission, and where political expediency rules, they are heard speaking in that spirit.

After [illegible] out that Hon. Mr. Mackenzie gave up office, or at least submitted to the loss of it, rather than adopt a policy which, according to his idea of truth and righteousness, he could not adopt, Mr. Mowat further said:—

Then as for the Reform party in Provincial affairs, its record has been so satisfactory to Reformers and others that, at every general election during the eighteen years which have elapsed since Mr. Blake took office as the first Ontario Reform Premier, a decided majority of the Government candidates have been returned by the people. When an election is near you hear even Conservatives, fair-minded and intelligent Conservatives, frankly admitting that they have nothing to say against the Ontario Government; and a sprinkling of them almost everywhere have always voted for our candidates. Outside of Ontario, and in all the Provinces of the Dominion, it is well known that Ontario has long been regarded as the model Province in regard both to legislation and to the administration of public affairs. Conservative journals in the other Provinces, not being interested in our defeat, have repeatedly given expression to the same view. The latest of these is the Richmond Guardian, a Quebec Conservative journal. That journal lately said:—"Ontario has always been economically and wisely governed, which is more than can be said of Quebec, past or present; and we regard it as morally and patriotically bad policy to keep hounding at Mr. Mowat in the fashion common with the Federal Government partisans. Let Mowat alone and attend to your own business."

THE PLATFORM ADOPTED BY THE NEW PARTY

has nine planks, of which I have mentioned three. Of the remaining six, three relate to Dominion matters, not to Provincial—as Elective Senate; Manhood Suffrage (in elections to the Legislative Assembly we have Manhood Suffrage now); and Retrenchment and Economy in public expenditure, with a view to reducing our enormous national debt." The debt certainly is enormous, and has since Confederation made fearful leaps upwards under Conservative Administrations, until in 1888 the net debt had reached no less a sum than $234,531,358, according to Dominion Sessional Paper No. 2, 1889. Three other of the planks may perhaps refer to Provincial as well as Dominion matters: The extention of the Franchise to Women; Civil Service Reform—what specially is meant by this I have not observed any definite explanation; and "a national sentiment, a national literature, and in all matters of public policy our country first"—to which few of any party are opposed.

For carrying out the platform, the present announced policy, as set forth by the new organ, is, not to support candidates for the next Ontario Legislative Assembly nominated by either Conservatives or Reformers, even when the candidates so nominated announce themselves as favorable to one or more planks of the new platform. The New party are everywhere to select candidates of their own. They are told that the opinions of a candidate of any other party "cannot change either the constitution or the leadership of his party," and that the duty of all friends of the New party is to stand by their own platform, and their own candidate. Whether this policy will be carried out when the elections come on we shall see.

is made the most prominent at present of all the planks, and a chief objection made by the organ to the Reform party is, that that party is not, as a party, for Prohibition. I am not going to discuss Prohibition here. The Reform party consists both of Reformers who believe in Prohibition, and of Reformers who do not. And there are a multitude of the strongest reasons why, in the interest of Prohibition and good Government, at the coming Provincial elections Reformers who are Prohibitionists should not consent to withdraw from the Reform party, or to withhold their votes from Reform candidates, as the organizers and leaders of this New party urge on them to do.

First of all, Prohibition is not a matter with which the Ontario Assembly has to deal. It belongs to the Dominion Parliament. It is a Dominion issue, not a Provincial issue. No man who does not desire the defeat of the Reform Government of Ontario for other reasons than Prohibition can intelligently desire their defeat at the next General Election because of all the party not being Prohibitionists.

Then it is perfectly certain that for the term which the new Provincial Assembly is to last the question is, not whether the Provincial Government shall be in the hands of the New Party or of Prohibitionists, but whether it will be in the hands of Reformers or Conservatives, one or the other. Let no Reformer permit himself to be deceived as to this. It is perfectly certain that Prohibitionists are not yet numerous enough to win a majority of the Ontario constituencies; and without a majority they cannot possess themselves of the Government. By running candidates of their own they may contribute to the victory of one or other of the two existing parties, but they are not likely to win a single constituency for a candidate of their own. The recent election in West Lambton is an illustration of this. West Lamoton is a strong Temperance constituency. The county carried the Scott Act by a majority of over 3,000, though Lambton, like Oxford, has since reversed this vote. The agitation which the Jesuit Estates Act created had also been taken up in Lambton by many local leaders and prominent citizens of both the Reform and Conservative parties, and had great influence with the whole population of the riding; and this also helped the New party. During the recent contest the public were told by The Bulletin, then the organ of the New party, that "West Lambton was one of the first constituencies to organize on the basis of the new platform." The party chose a candidate whose antecedents as a well known Conservative were expected to make him acceptable to Orange and other Conservatives; but he was in the field before either the Reformers or Conservatives had nominated a candidate. The elegant President, and other influential gentlemen of the party, made speeches at public meetings during the campaign. The greatest possible activity was displayed by the local leaders; and the organ said that great enthusiasm for the party was manifested. But the result was that their candidate received only 775 votes, while the Reform candidate received 2,502, and the Conservative 1,842; and many McKenzies, while withholding their votes from the Reform candidate for personal or local reasons, did so on the avowed ground that the best of one supporter in the Legislative Assembly was of no consequence to us, and that at the general election they meant to be as active as ever in favor of the Reform candidate, whoever he should be. Some other Reformers voted for the New Party candidate because of pledges inconsiderately given and regretted.

Day and Night

During an acute attack of Bronchitis, a ceaseless tickling in the throat, and an exhausting, dry, hacking cough, afflict the sufferer. Sleep is banished, and great prostration follows. This disease is also attended with Hoarseness, and sometimes Loss of Voice. It is liable to become chronic, involve the lungs, and terminate fatally. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral affords speedy relief and cure in cases of Bronchitis. It controls the disposition to cough, and induces refreshing sleep.

I have been a practicing physician for twenty-four years, and, for the past twelve, have suffered from annual attacks of Bronchitis. After exhausting all the usual remedies

Without Relief,

I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It helped me immediately, and effected a speedy cure.—G. Stoveall, M.D., Carrollton, Miss.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is decidedly the best remedy, within my knowledge, for chronic Bronchitis, and all lung diseases.—M. A. Rust, M. D., South Paris, Me.

I was attacked, last winter, with a severe Cold, which, from exposure, grew worse and finally settled on my Lungs. By night sweats I was reduced almost to a skeleton. My Cough was incessant, and I frequently spit blood. My physician told me to give up business, or I would not live a month. After taking various remedies without relief, I was finally two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I am now in perfect health, and able to resume business, after having been pronounced incurable with Consumption.—S. P. Henderson, Sauisburgh, Penn.

For years I was in a decline. I had weak lungs, and suffered from Bronchitis and Catarrh. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral restored me to health, and I have been for a long time comparatively vigorous. In case of a sudden cold I always resort to the Pectoral, and find speedy relief.—Edward E. Curtis, Rutland, Vt.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Bronchitis. The physician attending me became fearful that the disease would terminate in Pneumonia. After trying various medicines, without benefit, he finally prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved me at once. I continued to take this medicine a short time, and was cured.—Ernest Colton, Logansport, Ind.

Arriving at this store he inquired for the clerk whose name he had obtained; he produced his piece of cloth and asked to look at the suits.

The clerk smiled and said: "Another of the U. S. T.'s, hey?"

Tom did not know what the U. S. T.'s were, but he assented.

The clerk was very chatty.

As he laid out the suits he said:

"We laughed when the 'boss' bought all there was of this cloth in the market, and thought he would make a mess of it; but he knew what he was about, after all."

"Evidently," said Tom, encouragingly.

"Let me get your waist measure. Yes, these pants will fit you. The very first day we got them on the counter your committee came in, looked over the stock and lit on this lot. 'They'll be just the thing for our clam bake,' said they."

"Oh, it's a clam bake I am going on, is it?" thought Tom.

"Let me take your chest measure. Here's the coat. You will have a fine day to-morrow from the looks of today."

Tom assented.

"They gave an order for a hundred suits right down. Since then twenty-eight have come in. You make the twenty-ninth. I suppose there'll be more in before we close to-night—that is, if you have got more than one hundred and twenty-nine members. We will work the stock off pretty well."

Tom now had a basis for proceeding and tried to stop the flow of talk.

"Have you sold the same clothes to any one else?"

"Just one suit that I know didn't belong to the U. S. T.'s."

om brightened up.

"We ought to get on to him and make him go with us."

"That's what you ought to do."

"Can you recollect the sort of fellow he was?"

"Well, sir, that's pretty hard to do."

"By thunder! I'll bet I know who it is. Tall fellow, slim, dark haired, dark eyes, handsome, swellish—kind o' a dudish fellow."

"Well, that does kind o' answer to him."

"Yes, by thunder! That's just like his pranks. See here, did he get a suit a size too large for him and didn't buy the vest?"

"Well, no, I can't recollect that, and I don't think—I know we sold a vest with every suit. You see it would cost the same whether they took the vest or not."

"If he was up to the game I think he was, it wouldn't make any difference about the price. I say, would you recollect his face if you saw a photograph of him?"

"I think it likely, sir."

"What day did you sell it to him, can you recollect?"

"I can tell by looking at the sales slips; I always keep the slips."

"Do, please."

The clerk went off and returned with a handful of papers. Looking them over he finally extracted one.

"It was on the 12th, in the afternoon."

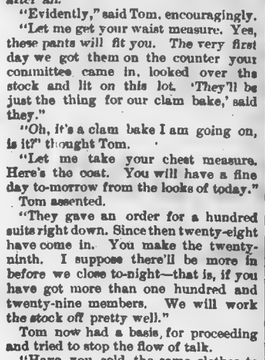
"Five days before the murder," thought Tom.

Aloud he said: "Thank you. I am on to him. Please send these clothes to No. 1,100 East Thirty-first street. I'll pay you for them now."

"This is such a good day's work," said he, when out on the street, "I think I will dine well and at the expense of the paper."

CHAPTER XV.

THE SHADOW OVERHEARS SOMETHING OF INTEREST.



HERE is in Varick street, the precise location of which it is by no means necessary to specify, a row of old fashioned, two story brick houses. In one of these houses, on the morning following the day Holbrook had been surprised by his three widely separated visitors bent on the same errand, there occurred a scene which greatly excited the interest, no less than the curiosity, of the Shadow, who occupied the back room of the second floor of the house in question.

On this particular morning, because he had been out the greater part of the previous night, and because Tom had informed him that he would not require his services until the afternoon, he had slept late.

The occupant of the adjoining room, that is to say, the front room, was an old man, nearly if not quite seventy years old. Who he was, or what his belongings were, had long since ceased to be of interest to anybody in the neighborhood. He was accepted as a fact of the locality, just as the corner grocery and the hydrant were.

He was rarely quite sober, and when he was, it was early in the morning before he had had time to make an early visit to the rum mill of which he was the most frequent customer.

It had become a settled fact that he was a man of property, for he had always enough money to buy drink and pay his board bill. From time to time he sallied forth from the street, and when he returned it was known that he was flush, and so the neighborhood had come to believe implicitly that these occasional excursions were for the purpose of collecting his rents and receiving his interest.

From his life long habit of spying on people, the Shadow had kept an eye on him.

Between the front and back rooms there was a space divided into closets. One was entered through a door from the front room and the other from the back room.

The Shadow had long ago discovered that there had been, once upon a time, an opening in the partition which divided the closets, doubtless for the purpose of ventilation. When the closets had been papered this opening had been covered up.

By standing on his trunk in the closet he could bring his head on a level with this opening, concealed only by the thin paper. If the door between the front room and the closet were open anything said in an ordinary tone of voice could be distinctly heard.

The Shadow had broken a hole into the wall which separated the front room from his closet, on his side. And once, when the opportunity had presented itself, he had slipped into the front room unseen and made a hole corresponding on the other side so deftly that it appeared as if it had been made by a violent pushing of a chair against it.

By this means he could frequently determine who were in that room.

When he was awakened on this particular morning by a noise apparently caused by the overturning of a chair, he sprang out of his bed as if he had received a shock.

That he should go into the closet and place himself at the point of observation was due only to his invariable habit of spying.

He saw the occupant of the room sitting with his back to him at a table in the center, while on the opposite side was George Parker, the attorney.

"Ah," said the Shadow, "here's mischief. I never knew that old scamp of a lawyer in anything that was not mischief."

He climbed to the top of the trunk and listened.

All he heard for a moment was the scratching of a pen as it was driven rapidly over paper.

On Tuesday following they returned from Trenton and took the train at Campbellford for Peterborough, where they expect to make their future home. The writer wishes them continued happiness all through life.

A Great Hint.

This is the time when it is dangerous to incur risks. Yesterday an enthusiastic Scotchman brought to the EXAMINER a bill of fare of a banquet at San Francisco, with the names of the dishes printed in the commonest of bread Scotch. He asked to have it republished in the EXAMINER, but was told that, while the EXAMINER delighted to please Scotchmen, it could not run the risk of breaking the printing press. There is not the slightest degree of risk, however, in buying tea at hawley bros.'s, who keep in stock the finest and freshest brands of all kinds of teas, and also the best coffees. dw

Club Rooms.

The Snowshoe Club have secured a suite of rooms on George street, over J. J. Sheehy's dry goods store, and have transferred them into comfortable club quarters. The idea is to make the club a permanent one, not only for the winter season but during the summer as well. The club rooms will always be open to members. There is a sitting room, supplied with a piano, a smoking room, and a billiard room, in which is a first-class table. The rooms will be lighted by gas. The first tramp of the season will soon take place, and if there is not enough snow to warrant the use of snowshoes, the members will go on a walking jaunt.

How he was Fooled.

The McGinty gag is rapidly replacing the la grippe "chestnut." On the street one hears nothing but "selle" about McGinty's ball, McGinty's kid, McGinty's whiskers, etc., ad infinitum. Last night a drug clerk was the victim of a more practical joke. The telephone rang and an order for a long and most peculiar prescription was rapidly spoken over the wires. Before the clerk could ask the name of his customer the telephone rang off. Here was a dilemma. Where was he to send the medicine? The central office could not inform him as to where the message had come from. However, he made up the prescription, a sort of cross between a horse liniment and a kidney cure, trusting to further orders to set the matter right. After some time the telephone rang again, and this conversation took place:—"Hello! Got that prescription ready?" "Yes. Who wants it?" "McGinty!" "Bah!,——— ——— !!!"

Re Croft vs. Peterborough.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

SIR,—While I cannot hope that any newspaper discussion between Mr. Poussette and myself will settle this matter I cannot allow his letter to go unnoticed. I regret that his well known courtesy should have so far deserted him as to allow him to use the sneering expression with regard to a brother member of the profession:—"It may be assumed that these statements are made with a view to letting himself down easily as well as belittling the opposing counsel." Such language is not properly applied to me with regard to my general course as a professional man, nor with regard to anything that I have said in connection with this matter. I have no necessity, and no wish, to "let myself down easily," and I have too much regard for Mr. Poussette to attempt to belittle him. What I said, and what I repeat, is quite to the contrary effect. Mr. Poussette conducted the case in accordance with what he considered a correct interpretation of the law, and properly declined to advocate any view that he did not consider tenable. On the argument in the Court of Appeal he declined to attempt to support the extraordinary view taken by Mr. Justice Rose. And he also expressly stated on the argument that it was not his contention that all persons entitled to vote at a municipal election under section 79 of the Act, were entitled to vote on this By-law, even going so far as to interrupt me in my argument for the purpose of making that statement. And yet the judges of the Court of Appeal decided in express terms—for I have a copy of the judgment before me and not the mere newspaper summary of it—"that the persons who should have been allowed to vote on the Bylaw were electors entitled to vote at any Municipal Election."

This is what I stated both to the reporters and to the Town Council and this Mr. Poussette makes no attempt to dispute; that twice in the same suit the courts have, in their effort to solve the question, arrived at a conclusion as to the class of the electors entitled to vote on this By-law that was not argued or contended for by the Counsel on the other side.

As Solicitor for a municipal corporation, where every individual ratepayer has a right to consider himself as, in a sense, my client, and to exercise a client's privilege of criticising my conduct of the case in which he is interested, I think it will be conceded that anything that I have said in the matter is fully justified in making the statements that I have made, and that I have not either for the sake of gaining any advantage for myself or of doing any injury to an opponent, overstepped the strict lines either of fair play or professional etiquette.

Yours Truly,

E. B. EDWARDS,

Town Solicitor.

Sudden Death of the Treasurer of Galway.

On Tuesday, January 14th, Mr. Charles Cobban, Sr., and his son Henry were at work in the woods cutting rails. Mr. Cobban suddenly complained of feeling very unwell, and the son said he would accompany the father home. The son turned away to get his coat and when he returned he found his father had fallen to the ground speechless. The son wrapped his coat about his father and ran for help. When it came Mr. Cobban was dead. A medical man who was called gave the cause of his death as heart disease. The deceased gentleman, who was about 58 years of age was, treasurer of the township. He was one of the first settlers and very highly respected as shown by the large attendance at his funeral which took place on Thursday, January 16th, to the place of interment, Kinmount. Mr. Cobban's terrible sudden death has cast a gloom over the community in which he was held in such high respect, and his family has the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

Treasurer.

Mr. Carnegie said these reports showed that the Society was holding its own, and that was all.

The reports were adopted on motion of Rev. Mr. Torrance, seconded by Rev. Mr. Parker. The latter expressed his surprise at the apathy of Peterborough people regarding this Society, and hoped to see interest revived in this important work. The attendance at all the annual meetings he had attended was very small, though no doubt this meeting had been affected by the epidemic which was prevalent in town. He urged the people to show their interest by a larger attendance at future meetings.

Mr. Robt. Kingan supported the motion, endorsing Rev. Mr. Parker's remarks, and deploring the waning public interest in the most important matter. He suggested that a change might be made in the proceedings by giving members a more direct voice in the election of officers, that instead of the committee recommending certain officers that they be nominated and voted for in regular form.

Mr. Carnegie replied that the committee would be only too happy to adopt Mr. Kingan's suggestions, but he believed this was one of the difficulties they had to contend with, that they had no one to make nominations at their meetings.

THE WORK OF THE SOCIETY

After the singing of a hymn, Rev. Mr. Manley began his address. He said he was reminded of his first visit to Peterborough fifty-two years ago, when he met and worked with Rev. Mr. Roger and Rev. Mr. Gilmour, long since deceased. The speaker said he had been engaged in his present work about eighteen years, and recognized in it one of the greatest avenues for the spread of the Gospel. The preacher had access to not more than one-half of mankind, and it was on this fact that the British and Foreign Bible Society based its claim for usefulness in scattering the tidings of salvation among those not reached by other sources. The Jew will not listen to the Gentile preach, but he will read the Hebrew Testament. The hundred million Mahommedans in the world, who believe the Koran is the inspired book, are reading in private the Bibles sent out by the Society and learning that Jesus of Nazareth is Saviour. The Greek Church, with its superstition and error, is being enlightened by this means. There are a hundred million people in Russia who are in a deplorable condition; Protestant preachers are not allowed to speak the word, but the government permit and encourage the Bible Society to circulate the printed word. Then there are thousands of women shut up in harems who are only accessible to Christianity by means of the Bible. Lastly, there was the Latin Church, whose people would not listen to Protestant teaching, but can be reached through the Bible. Roman Catholic countries are being opened to the circulation of the Bible, and the work was being pursued in earnestness and faith. The Bible Society was a great agent not only in the salvation, but also in the education of mankind. The Bible was the great school book of the church. It was more important that it should be put into the hands of all men, individually and universally. The Bible was the great means of successful missionary work, and all Protestants were bound to sympathize with and support the Bible Society, without which it was evident the world could not be saved. No church on earth could undertake to translate the Bible into 300 different languages and furnish copies to mankind the world over, as the Bible Society did. They print about four and a quarter million Bibles a year and circulated them by means of colporteurs, among whom were such consecrated men as William Murray, who labored in China. It was not only a great union society, making Christian of all sects love each other, but it was a missionary society. The Upper Canada Bible Society, of which Peterborough was a branch, was the greatest auxiliary of the British Society. The Upper Canada Society circulated 20,000 copies yearly, and gave one-third of their funds to the parent society in London. In this county the word of God was provided in all the languages spoken here. They sold them Bibles at cost or below, and gave the scriptures to the red man and the poor free of charge. The Society cheapened the price of the Scriptures, as was shown by the penny Testament, a well printed and bound book of which millions of copies had been sold at a penny each. In conclusion he urged the people to help the Bible Society and all other Christian work, and in doing so prove that "it is more blessed to give than to receive."

Rev. Mr. Shorey moved, seconded by Mr. S. Curtis, a vote of thanks to the speaker, which was carried, and the meeting closed with devotional exercises.

What to Do with Electricity.

"I may reasonably hope to see electric energy carried around as money is carried in men's vest pockets," said an eminent electrician recently, at a scientists' meeting in New York. While is getting electric storage down finer than there is really any necessity for it ground, but there may be developments in the near future which will gamble a man to light his path or his cigar from a storage battery which he can carry as he carries his wallet. It may come to pass that a man can at any time walk up to a taxi in a public place, drop a nickel in the slot and get enough electric energy stored in his pocket secondary battery to last him for twenty-four hours. This is what electric storage may come to in time. It is now an infant of four or five years, and since its birth it has made advances in an opposite direction from the general law of nature. Things usually increase in weight with added years, but the storage battery has been steadily diminishing in this respect. It was born heavy, and it is claimed for it that in the last eighteen months it has lost fully two-thirds in weight, meanwhile growing constantly healthier and more powerful.

The secondary battery emanated from the almost simultaneous discovery by two Frenchmen, Plante and Fezre, that sheets of corroded lead possessed the power or function of retaining electricity communicated to them by means of batteries or dynamo-electric generators. The result was a ponderous and weighty sheet filled with rolls or sheets of lead.

When this discovery was given to the world, although both discoverers had protected it with patents, all electricians and dabblers in electricity began to experiment in the same direction as the originators of the battery had been working. Two or three companies had been formed in this country, and licenses were obtained from the French patentees to protect the business from infringers. The ensuing experiments were exhaustive, and millions of dollars were spent in the endeavor to substitute something lighter for the lead. It was quickly discovered that oxides and certain salts of lead could be used to replace much of the weight of solid metal, and that time could be thus gained in getting the batteries up to their maximum efficiency.

Perforated sheets of lead were filled with red oxide and other products of lead, and one manufacturing concern constructed lead plates in the form of a honeycomb and filled up the cells with lead compounds. All this tended to diminish the weight of the storage boxes, and experiments were still continued with the view of making them still lighter. The decrease in weight in the last year is said to be nearly 75 per cent., and at the same time the efficiency has been increased largely and the cost of manufacture greatly reduced. It is claimed by some manufacturers that their batteries will give out 90 per cent. of the energy stored in them, but this statement is doubted by some electricians, who say that they will average from 60 to 75 per cent. at their best.

For two years storage batteries have been used in Newark with varying success in electro-plating and house lighting. The plater finds them a great boon, because they enable him to conduct his work day and night. He plates with his dynamo while the steam power is running during the day, and at the same time the dynamo is loading up the cells. When power stops in the evening the wires leading from the dynamo to the plating baths are attached to the storage batteries and they go on silently, depositing the metal through the still watches of the night. In the same manner a manufacturer who has a dynamo in his shop can easily fill storage batteries to light his house at night.

A Newarker interested in street railroads remarked a few days ago that he believed that the motor of the future would be run by stored electricity, and that cables and overhead wires would be entirely superseded. "The steam engine as a producer of electricity will be done away with as soon as the storage battery is perfected," he said. "Here we are burning coal and getting 13 per cent. of its heat energy in the form of power, converting this power into electricity and the electricity back into power at a great loss, and we consider that doing pretty well. In the near future we will make electricity by water power, which is now going to waste, and it will be supplied at our doors as milk and ice are now supplied. That, I think, is the future of electricity. Thousands of horse power can be utilized for storing electricity as Paterson, Boonton, Little Falls, Niagara, Rochester and a hundred other places where plants can be cheaply established, and all we are waiting for is the cheap, light and efficient storage cell. When it comes gas will go out, steam will stop hissing and horses will no longer be worked to death on the street cars. The only improvement I can conceive beyond the perfection of the storage battery is the discovery of getting and harnessing the electric energy in nature without the use of heat or power."—Newark Sunday Call

A High Official's Telephone Experience.

An amusing anecdote is told about the recent experience of Baron Von Mittnacht, the Wurtemburg minister president, with the telephone. His excellency was lately paying a visit incognito to his son at Ulm. While inspecting the sights of the town in company with his relatives and a Hamburg senator, he went at the request of the latter to the postoffice to try the new telephone connection between Ulm and Stuttgart. After ringing and asking to be connected with the foreign office at that town the familiar voice of the chancery servant was heard asking in broad Wurtemburg dialect: "Who is there?" To Herr Von Mittnacht's reply—"Minister President Mittnacht"—there came the impatient answer: "You be blowed; don't try and green me; the minister president is not at Ulm." His excellency replied: "Yes, I am here; call Councilor B. to the telephone." The servant would not believe the voice of the minister, and gave the well known evasive answer: "All the gentlemen have gone out." The minister's angry order had no effect. The servant at length broke off the communication after a final asseveration that his interlocutor was quite a different person from what he professed to be, and that he was not going to be caught so easily. —Chicago Times.

A Big Windfall.

The English plasterer who has been left a fortune estimated at £1,400,000 by a relative in Australia has been discovered at Kettering, in Northamptonshire. His name is John James Pearce, and until a few weeks ago he lived at the parish of Kingsthorpe, a hamlet of Northampton. He lodged with a lady named Weston, after the decease, a few months ago, of his wife, who committed suicide. Fear of poverty was ascribed as the cause of her act. Last Sunday, while reading, he came across a paragraph announcing that a Sydney clergyman had left £1,400,000 to a man in England named Pearce. "Why," exclaimed the plasterer to his landlady, "that's me; he's my uncle! That money belongs to me!" His identity has already been acknowledged by the London agents of the Australian solicitors to the deceased millionaire. Pearce leaves England for Australia in the course of a day or two. He worked for several master plasterers in Northampton, and is described by his fellow workmen as a quiet, reserved fellow, a teetotaler, and gave people the idea that he had seen better days.—London Times.

RETURNS MOVED FOR AND PETITIONS PRESENTED.

Two Interesting Measures Submitted by Members of the Opposition—The Amendments to the Banking Act—French in the Northwest Territories.

OTTAWA, Jan. 23.—In the House to-day Mr. McMullen moved for a return of moneys spent in railway subsidies, public buildings, etc., in each province of Canada since Confederation. Considerable bantering followed in the course of which Mr. Taylor proposed an amendment designed as a satire, calling for a lot of ungetatable data and Mr. McMullen said that his object was to secure for the benefit of his constituents information as to the cost of government, which they thought was much too high. Finally both motion and amendment were withdrawn.

A couple of interesting bills were introduced by Opposition members. One by Mr. Choquette makes it compulsory for persons seeking farmers' sons' qualifications under the Dominion franchise to continuously reside on the property on which they qualify from the time their name is placed upon the list until polling time.

The other bill was introduced by Mr. Casgrain, who takes an exalted view of the members' responsibilities, and would have it gravely impressed upon all elected to the Commons. This bill provides that in addition to the oath of allegiance every member-elect before taking his seat shall be required to swear upon the Holy Evangelists that he is eligible, has not been guilty of corrupt practices, is not and will not be during his term of office interested in any Government contract, will not receive emolument to promote or impede any measure in Parliament, and in short will do his duty faithfully, without fear, favor or partiality.

Discussion on the banking system was inaugurated to-day by Mr. Hesson, who in moving for a return showing the number of bank failures and particulars in each case, made a lengthy address, replete with interesting statistics and facts, and urged the Government to themselves undertake the issue of bank notes. He was followed by Mr Casey, who promised another address when the banking act amendments are introduced.

Sir Richard Cartwright inquired when the House might expect these amendments, and Mr. Foster said they would shortly be brought down. The Government will on Saturday receive a deputation of bankers and hear their views upon the subject and representations then made will, no doubt, have an important bearing upon the legislation.

In the absence of Mr. McCarthy, Mr. Denison to-day moved for a return showing by years the cost of printing the ordinances and other official papers and publications in the French language from the passage of the Northwest Territories Act of 1877.

Mr. Davis presented a number of petitions in French and English against the proposition to abolish the use of French as an official language in the Northwest. These were signed by the presidents and secretaries of public meetings held at Banff, Canmore, Lethbridge, Fish Creek, Anthracite and Ghost River.

Another petition against Mr. Brown's bill for the protection of pigeons was presented to-day by Mr. Small.

Mr. Hudspeth presented a petition for the incorporation of the Lindsay, Bobcaygeon and Pontypool Railway Company and another from the Imperial Trusts Company of Canada also asking for incorporation.

Mr. Masson presented a petition for the incorporation of the Sault St. Marie and Hudson Bay Railway Company.

Mr. Mara presented a petition from businessmen and other citizens of Vancouver bearing nearly 600 signatures, asking that the poll tax on Chinese immigration be increased to $100. It is understood that he will shortly introduce a bill to this effect and to place further restrictions upon Chinese immigration.

Mr. Willson of Elgin, presented a number of petitions from the Knights of Labor for labor legislation. Mr. Wood of Westmoreland, presented a number of petitions to the same effect from the Iron Moulders' Union of Sackville, N.B. Mr. Denison presented petitions from the Iron Moulders' Union of Toronto, and Mr. Small from Wheat Sheaf Assembly Knights of Labor, Toronto.

NOTES AND GOSSIP.

Senator Turner's Probable Successor—The Banks and the Currency.

OTTAWA, Jan. 23.—The rumor was revived to-day that the senatorship vacated by the death of Senator Turner would go to Mr. Roach of Hamilton. The fact is, however, that the matter is not yet decided and there is a chance that the appointment may go to someone from this side of Toronto.

Intercolonial Railway receipts for the last six months of 1889 were $1,543,341 and expenditure $1,808,481. The deficit was $6000 less than for the same period of the previous year.

The Dominion Dairymen's Association have arranged to hold their annual convention at Ottawa on Feb. 17, 18 and 19. The Dominion Fruit Growers' Association meet on Feb. 19, 20 and 21. On Feb. 19 the two associations will have a joint convention. The interest shown by the Government in farming and kindred matters by the establishment of the experimental farms and otherwise has done not a little to attract these associations to Ottawa for their annual meetings, where they receive a great deal of attention from the Minister of Agriculture and the officials of his department.

Hon. John Carling has given notice of a bill to amend the Patent Act. This is designed to remedy an omission in the present act so as to make the Deputy Commissioner of Patents eligible to hear and determine disputes as to patents. Mr. Carling also gives notice of a bill to amend the Trade Mark Act.

Mr. Laurier will move on Monday for a lot of correspondence on matters likely to provoke interesting discussion. These include the North-West Territory Assembly trouble over the appropriation, bonded freight traffic on the Pacific Coast, the North-West halfbreed claims and the proposed Anderson mail contract.

On Saturday the Finance Minister will receive a deputation of bankers to hear their views upon the proposed amendments to the banking act.

Mr. Casey will move this resolution: "That the Government should guarantee the absolute soundness of all paper currency issued and circulated as money and should make such guaranteed currency a legal tender whether issued by the Government itself or by banks."

Four Killed at a Funeral.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—While attending a funeral at Rose Hill this afternoon of their five-months child, Mr. and Mrs. Payne were instantly killed and two others fatally wounded by the Milwaukee express on the Northwestern railroad striking the carriage which they occupied.

A Northern Pacific Connection.

QUEBEC, Jan. 23.—At a meeting here yesterday the proposal to assist a railway between this city and Mattawa, to run for 400 miles through the counties of Pont Neuf, Champlain, Maskinonge, Pontiac and Ottawa and there to connect with the proposed direct extension of the Northern Pacific Railway to run to Sault Ste Marie and Duluth, was discussed and approved.

Missouri Live Stock Rates.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 23.—The Missouri Pacific has followed the Chicago & Alton and the Wabash and has made a live stock rate of 7½ cents from Missouri River and intermediate points to St. Louis and East St. Louis.

THE PACIFIC PROVINCE.

Opening of the British Columbia Legislature—The Speech.

VICTORIA, B.C., Jan. 23.—The Provincial Parliament was opened this afternoon by Chief Justice Sir. M. B. Begbie, who in the absence of the Lieutenant.-Governor delivered the Speech from the Throne. In the speech is noted a healthy improvement in every source of revenue, the receipts for the past fiscal year having exceeded the estimates 20 per cent. with prospects for a better year to come.

The discovery of rich mineral ledges in the Kootenay is attracting the attention of miners and capitalists, and an early commencement of quartz mining can be anticipated. The Legislature is expected to consider the question of improved communication with this district. The Ministry for some time has been urging upon the Dominion Government the importance of facilitating mineral development in the mineral belt by placing sole administration in the province. The subject is now occupying the attention of the executive and the result will soon be placed before the House.

The output of the coal mines during the year was greater than ever, agriculture has made great advance and the fisheries yielded an abundant harvest. The Behring Sea question has been kept before the Dominion Government and there is reason to hope for an early and satisfactory settlement.

The House will be asked to provide for carrying out extensive explorations and surveys, rendered necessary by increase of emigration.

The readjustment of constituencies having become necessary, a measure will be submitted to accomplish the desired result.

The prosecution and encouragement of new railways also require consideration, and legislation will be asked in the matter of defining the liability of employers for personal injuries to workmen.

D. W. Higgins was unanimously chosen Speaker of the House. Parliament settled down to business at once.

THE TEA JEWELLERS.

Hamilton Knows Them No More—The Scottish Rite Reunion.

HAMILTON, Jan. 23.—The charges of running a lottery which have been pending for several days against members of the Merchants' Tea Company were set down for investigation this morning at the Police Court. But to-day there was no Merchants' Tea Company in existence. Bare pine shelves was all that remained to show where the rows of diamond-laden tea canisters had all week been ranged to tempt the citizens who look with horror upon every species of gambling to invest his dollar in choice Bohea. In Toronto it was the Traders Tea Company, in Hamilton the Merchants'; it remains to be seen what the title will be in London, which place, it is reported, is to be the next base of operations. At the court the proceeding was as follows: H. Carscallen, Q.C., handed to Sergt.-Major Smith $30, which is the amount of statutory fine for such violation of the law as the defendants were guilty of, and said that Rodger F. Pickett pleaded guilty. County Crown Attorney Crerar then stated that he had no evidence to offer in the other two charges of the same kind, and they were withdrawn.

To-day's session of the annual reunion of the A. & A. Scottish Rite of Masonry was devoted to the work of the Sovereign Rose Croix degree. The great interest to-day centered around the 16th degree, which this afternoon received for the first time in Canada a full dramatised exemplification. The session will wind up to-morrow with a banquet.

In the pop bottle cases the defendants Sheik and Smith paid a nominal fine of $1 each and an agreement is to be signed by all the parties interested that they will return each other's bottles when they chance to come into possession of them.

Death of Mgr. Legare.

QUEBEC, Jan. 23.—Monsigneur Legare, vicar-general of this archdiocese, died this morning at 4 o'clock of la grippe, complicated with inflammation of the lungs. He was a favorite with everyone, amongst his best friends being Protestants of all denominations.

Colin Hetherington, son of T. Hetherington, bread and biscuit manufacturer, died to-day from an aggravated attack of la grippe.

The death is also announced of l'Abbe L.G. Lemoine, for 40 years chaplain of the Ursuline convent. He was a brother of Mr. J. M. Lemoine, the well-known literateur.

Fourteen Years for Burglary.

MONTREAL, Jan. 23.—On Tuesday the store of Mr. Walker, a leading diamond dealer, was broken into and jewelry to the value of several thousand dollars was stolen. The burglar, with an accomplice, fastened the door and broke the window with a hammer to gain his booty. One of the men was pursued and caught. He gave his name as Martin, but cannot be identified by any of the detectives. This morning in the Police Court he pleaded guilty, and was at once sentenced to 14 years in the penitentiary.

Crossed on the Ice.

MONTREAL, Jan. 23.—Arthur Vinet of Boucherville crossed on the ice with a load of hay at Longue Point to-day.

Eighty thousand cases of influenza are reported at St. Gall.

A deputation of the Miners' Federation will interview Gladstone, Salisbury and Churchill and ask them to support an 8-hour bill.

The London Times says the Samoan treaty secures the English a fair field and no favor in Samoa.

Telephonic Amusement.

A novelty is reported from Hastings in connection with the performance of "The Yeoman of the Guard" at the theatre. The stage had been connected by telephone with various private houses and hotels so that numbers of people are nightly hearing the opera without seeing it. We are not aware that this has ever been tried except in isolated cases as an experiment. Hastings may, therefore, be congratulated on being in the van of progress.—London Globe.

Sutter's Fort.

Californians propose to restore and keep in condition Sutter's Fort, where California gold was first discovered. A hall containing relics of the pioneer era will probably be erected on the lines of the old fort.—Exchange.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

ALLEGED CONSPIRACY TO DEFEAT THE ENDS OF JUSTICE.

The London Scandal—Newton and His Fellows Held for Trial—One of the Missing Steamer Erin's Lifeboats Picked Up at Sea.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The defence in the case of Newton, Taylorson and De Galle, charged with conspiring to defeat justice in connection with the West End scandal, was opened to-day. Mr. Gill, who appeared for the accused, commented upon the police and Government for allowing Hammond, the proprietor of the Cleveland-street House, to escape and for taking young scoundrels at night to and around club-houses to whisper men's characters away and for offering Newton as a sacrifice to atone to the public for police delay. The prisoners were committed for trial. They were subsequently admitted to £100 bail each.

The Missing Erin.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—Capt. Darling of the steamer Creole, at Bremen from New Orleans, which reported sighting and bringing alongside a lifeboat supposed to belong to the steamer Erin, says that the oars, etc., which were taken from the boat were lashed fast to it and had not been used. There was a hole in the bottom of the boat. Capt. Darling thinks from the appearance of the boat it has been washed from its fastenings. The officials of the National Line, to which the Erin belongs, state that all the small boats belonging to the Erin are marked "Erin, Liverpool," while the boat seen by the Creole was marked "Erin, London."

Disastrous Storm in England.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—There has been a great storm of wind and rain in southern England and enormously high tides as a consequence. The Severn has overflowed its banks. Gloucester valley is submerged. There is great loss of property. The Lymington, Llanelly, Portsmouth and the South Wales Railways are temporarily stopped. The damage due to the storm is found to be enormous as it is reported in detail. A quarter of a mile of the sea wall between New Haven and Seaford has collapsed.

New Ironclads Ordered.

LONDON, Jan. 23.—The Board of Admiralty has ordered the construction at the Portsmouth dockyards, of four ironclads during the next financial year.

Russian Reforms.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 23.—An imperial ukase directs that the system of administrative reforms, elaborated by Count Tolstoi while Minister of the Interior, shall commence in February in the Provinces of Moscow, Riarsan, Tchernigoff, Kaluga, Vladimir and Kostroma.

As a consequence of scrutiny into the court expenses the Czar has abolished the "general administration of the palaces." The chief of the administration was Prince Obolensky, A.D.C. to the Emperor, but the man who performed the duties was Colonel Guarnet.

Portugal Quieting Down.

LISBON, Jan. 23.—The tremendous patriotic fury against England is abated. The Anglophobists are nearly silent and the excitement and the demonstrations in the provinces have ceased.

Would Ruin Agriculture.

LISBON, Jan 23.—It is rumored the United States Congress will be asked to subsidise a line of steamers to this country. This would ruin Portuguese agriculture, already half destroyed by imports of American wheat.

They Will Fraternize.

PARIS, Jan. 23.—The party of the Right in the Chamber of Deputies to-day resolved to form a union of all the Conservative members, to be known as the General Union of the Deputies of the Right.

The Socialist Bill.

BERLIN, Jan. 23.—The Reichstag to-day adopted the clauses of the Socialist Bill relating to suppression of periodicals, etc., and agreed to make it a permanent measure but rejected the expulsion clause.

La Grippe at Rome.

ROME, Jan. 23.—The epidemic of influenza is general throughout the city. Among those attacked are Cardinals Jacobini, Hohenlohe, Parochi and Mocenni.

WHITES AND BLACKS.

The Race War in Florida—The Citizens "Well Prepared."

APALACHICOLA, Fla., Jan. 23.—The Escambia Rifles arrived last night, 37 strong. Guards were posted throughout the town, and every white man not on duty slept with arms within reach. Thirty-five ringleaders of the negro strikers were arrested to-day, but the chief one, Sanches V. Thomas, cannot be found. One negro was shot to-day while fleeing from arrest. The trial of some prisoners commenced this afternoon. Intense excitement prevails among both whites and blacks. The negro women are violent in denunciation of the action of the whites and are thronging the streets. The citizens are worn out with fatigue. It is generally believed the arrest of the ringleaders will have a quieting effect but some think the negroes will attempt to make further trouble to-night. The whites are well prepared and this fact it is hoped will restrain the negroes.

The Flour Market.

MINNEAPOLIS, Jan. 23.—The Northwestern Miller says the flour output last week was 118,980 barrels. A larger capacity is in operation the present week. Some millers say they find a trifle of improvement in the flour trade but more think the demand about as light as it can be. There is a wide margin of production over the current sales. Some export orders have been booked but the bids of foreigners are usually lower and holders are not quite so firm. Bakers' continue in best demand and some mills are pretty well sold ahead on them. The direct exports of the week were 55,513 barrels.

Iron Production in the States.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 23.—The bulletin of the American Steel Association states the total production of pig iron in the United States in 1889 was 7,604,395 gross tons, an increase over 1888 of 1,114,787 tons, or over 17 per cent. The production in net tons was 8,517,066 in 1889 against 7,308,507 in 1888. There were at the close of 1889, 570 blast furnaces in the United States 344 of which were in blast, 226 out of blast. At the same time in 1888 there were 589 furnaces, 339 of which were in blast and 267 out.

PORCINE GRIP.

Twenty-Four of a Drove of Thirty-Two Hogs Die in one Night.

ST. THOMAS, Jan. 23.—Messrs. R. & T. Hepburn, of Port Stanley, have sustained a loss of between $300 and $400 by the death of 24 out of 32 hogs owned by them. The animals were found dead, and one of them was dissected by Dr. Evely, V.S., who is of the opinion that death was caused by a disease of the lungs. The hogs, it is believed, could not have been poisoned, as all the feed was locked up. There does not appear to be anything wrong with the eight hogs remaining of the thirty-two. The Provincial Board of Health will be notified of the matter so that if the disease be a contagious one, measures to stop its spead may be taken.

A THEFT OF TIME.

Thirty-Three Watches Stolen from a St. Thomas Jeweler.

ST. THOMAS, Jan. 23.—M. A. Payne, jeweler, Talbot-street east, left for supper last evening at 6 o'clock, or a few minutes afterward. He forgot to fasten the shack window, and when he returned before 7 o'clock he found the window open, with a stick of wood under it to hold it up, and the lamps he had left burning when he went to tea were out. An examination showed that 33 watches had been stolen, 26 of which were repaired or awaiting repairing and were hanging on the watch-board, and 5 from the show case. One of the watches was a gold one. The thieves carried off every watch in the shop. No clue to the thieves has been secured.

The International League.

Montreal Applies for Admission—The Red Sox Meeting.

BUFFALO, Jan. 23.—At the meeting of the International League owner or special was there as little trouble, so little excitement and such an air of calm as was noticeable to-day. The corridors of the Genesee Hotel were almost deserted and the only player to show himself was Lloyd-baseman Reidy of last season Buffalo team who dropped in for the purpose of getting some knowledge as to his standing and the probability of his release by the Buffalo management. What he didn't find out on that point equalled the general fund of intelligence which the International delegates were able to obtain.

The first arrivals this morning were President Mills and Manager Leadley of Detroit, President Hobbs of London, Secretary Dixon and Manager Powell of Hamilton. President Mills entertained these gentlemen and the press representatives with a story to the effect that Detroit lost $18,000 last season and expected to lose $10,000 the coming season. He would not admit, however, that the loss was due to excessive salaries, but rather to lack of patronage.

President McConnell of Toronto did not show up but wired a proxy to Secretary White. Syracuse did not send a representative, and it was nearly 3 o'clock before Deacon White ambled into the parlors of the Genesee. Although he stated that himself and Rowe had disposed of their interest in their International Club to Secretary Fitzgerald, Moss Shire and Ex-sheriff Gilbert, he was mined upon as being the only apparent relic of the Buffalo Club at all connectable and repaired to Mr. Hobbs' private room, where the meeting was in session with closed doors.

The good deacon was unsatisfactorily kicking, but the association by formal resolution adopted a plan which will make it imperative upon Buffalo and Syracuse to declare themselves promptly. The guarantee payment which should have fallen due on March 1, will be called on Feb. 10. The cities named will have to pay on or before that date or get out.

No direct action was taken in regard to filling the vacancies, except the appointment of a committee consisting of Messrs. Mills, Hobbs and Dixon, who will visit the cities most likely to be good payers, and this committee is vested with full powers to fill vacancies. It was practically decided that Saginaw and Bay City together as one city should have one of the vacancies.

A letter from Mr. Campbell of Montreal was read in which that gentleman spoke hopefully of the prospects for baseball in that city. The writer stated that grounds were already in hand and that there was much public interest in the game there. Mr. Hobbs was strongly in favor of Montreal and if Buffalo and Syracuse eventually retired he favored Albany and Troy to fill the vacancies created by their desertion. The matter was discussed at some length and finally left absolutely in the hands of the committee.

Some of the International people are feeling sore over the Brotherhood's overtures to certain players. Schiebeck had a telegram from John Ward asking his terms, but the London people expect that Schiebeck will not insert but consent to his transfer to Toledo or Columbus, both of which cities want him. Kinslow's desertion to the Brotherhood has been a severe crack. The delegates all left for home this evening.

THE U.S. MERCHANT MARINE.

Government Subsidies Urged on the Congressional Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The hearing on the question of payment of subsidies to American ships engaged in the foreign trade was continued by the House Committee on the Merchant Marine and Fisheries to-day. Mr. H. G. Hughes of New York, an officer of a company running steamers between New York and Havana and other semi-tropical points, said there was competition between New York and Havana with lines subsidised by the Spanish Government. The Spanish line between New York and Havana received a subsidy of between $4500 and $5000 per trip, or an aggregate of $168,000 a year. The competing line makes but three trips a month while witness' line makes ten. Mr. Hughes recited at length the evil effects on shipping wrought by the large number of ocean tramp steamers. The line in which he is interested owns nine vessels built entirely of material found in the United States, and should the Farquhar Bill pass in its present form the line would receive about $320,000 per year in subsidy payment. The ships are manned by American officers and seamen so far as they can be obtained. Wages of seamen had been increased from $18 to $25 per month in the last ten years. The wages paid to Spanish seamen were considerably lower.

Mr. Hughes said the tramp steamers, most of which are of English make, were not required to pass American inspection laws and they would not be able to stand such inspection. The witness said the war was the primary cause of the decline of the American merchant marine. It has not picked up since then, partly because of the high wages prevailing in various employments and because so much money has been invested in railways. Mr. Hughes declared that if the Government did not aid his line it would in time be obliged to withdraw its steamers.

J. W. Lachlan, general manager of the United States and Brazilian Mail Steamship Company, next spoke. This line runs from New York via Newport to St. Thomas, Martinique, to ports in the Windward Islands and to ports in Brazil. The line has been in operation for seven years and has three ships built entirely of material produced in America. For 4¼ years the company had carried the United States mails, for which the government offered the company about $43,000 which had not been accepted. The line was under contract with the Brazilian government for bringing the mails from that country and received about $95,000 a year of sixteen trips. Had it not been for this contract the company would not have been able to exist as it has.

The Samoan Treaty.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The publication of the Samoan treaty in Berlin has led to its denunciation by the German press of both parties. Dispatches received here say that Radical and Conservative papers alike call it a "German retreat."

ALLEGED DISCRIMINATION.

A Buffalo Firm Sue the N.Y., L.E. & W. Road for $2,612,000.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—Andrew Langdon & Co., coal dealers of Buffalo, have brought suit here against the New York, Lake Erie & Western Railway, to recover $2,613,000 damages for alleged unjust discrimination in freight rates. The plaintiffs have been miners and shippers of coal since 1865, and ship on the defendants' lines. They claim certain concessions on the public freight rates were made to the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company and the Hillside Coal and Iron Company, which were not extended to them. They also claim the Hillside Company is controlled by defendant, and is a device to cover up its unlawful ownership and operation of coal lands in Pennsylvania. Langdon & Co. assert they lost $505,189 and that under the law they are entitled to treble that amount with costs.

The National Crusaders.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 23.—The non-partisan ladies who met here for the purpose of organizing a new national woman's Christian temperance union to-day decided to call their new organization "The National Crusaders." A constitution was adopted. It provides that the organization shall be non-sectarian and non-partisan. The pledge adopted is the same as that of the W.C.T.U. except that the words "as a beverage" are inserted after "cider."

They can all gang their ain gait, while we go on making our clothing business bigger by making it better; the only sure way and we hold our own with the best in quality, style and make with real cheapness. Our boys' Readymade clothing cannot be beaten in style, quality and price.

We had a heavy run on Ladies' Mantles last week, A lot of good goods at Bargain Prices still to select from.

Our 40c. Heavy Canadian tweeds please the eye and pockets of all.

In the name of Jack Frost—Blankets. If we could only tell you all we know of Blankets, it would be good reading. One thing we do know, and don't fear to say is, you will get more good wool and generous size in the Blankets now here at $5, than is generally offered. Blankets at $4 and $3.75 of good medium sizes.

Once more the cheapest stock of Grey Flannels and Cottons is with us. The people carry it off with more industry than ants, which is the best proof that business men have that goods are cheap.

Thousands of overworked business men, worried tradesmen, industrious mechanics, and tired women, in all parts of the Dominion are to-day in a terrible position. Their nerves are weak, digestion poor, head aching, and they cannot sleep, work or live in comfort. This is what fills our Insane Asylums. This is the cause of that terrible Parasis Before it is too late, use Dr. Phelps' wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound. It restores the results of overwork, restores strength, renews vitality, regulates the whole system, and tones up the overworked brain and body. Do not despair, but use this wonderful remedy, and be restored to health and happiness, the same as was Mr. John L. Brodie, of Montreal, who writes: "I have great pleasure in recommending your Paine's Celery Compound. My system was run down and I was not fit for business, could not sleep well at night and was nervous. I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound and improved immediately. I am now able to transact my business and endure any amount of excitement without bad effect."

THE NEW PARTY EXPOSED

Hon. Mr. Mowat's Trenchant Criticism.

A Fair Warning to Liberals—Specious Pleas Put Forward to Mislead Them—Some Notable Examples—Hon. Mr. Mowat's Speech at Tavistock.

(Continuation of Hon. Mr. Mowat's Address.)

Continuing his discussion of the West Lambton election and its relation to the New Party, Mr. Mowat said:

What are we to think of the New Party, claiming as they do superiority in truth and righteousness over all others, when, in the face of these statements, we find them after the election intimating to us that a vote of 760 was all they expected, or more? and that, there having been three candidates, "success was impossible?" Were all the statements of the organ to the contrary mere election tactics, and neither true nor righteous? Does the special party of truth and righteousness recognize the legitimacy of dishonesty of this kind in elections? I am quite sure many of its members do not. But does not the use of such tactics show that the whole organization is a mistake? that it is not through this New Party, or any new party, that the cause of truth and righteousness in public affairs is to be advanced? that that object is to be best attained by good men of the two existing parties taking an active part in public affairs as electors and candidates, and bringing their love of what is good to bear on the methods and operations of their party? Is not the idea Quixotic, of promoting truth and righteousness by isolating good men from the two great historic parties, and leaving these parties to be manipulated without check by the less scrupulous of their members? Is not such a plan plainly unpractical for real good, and injurious instead of helpful to the cause of righteousness and truth?

TORONTO MAYORALTY.

The West Lambton election is one illustration of the uselessness of the New party. The Toronto election to the Mayoralty is another illustration. One of the candidates for the Toronto Mayoralty, Mr. McMillan, had been prominent in the Equal Rights agitation, and thereby made many new friends, and his candidature had the active support of the New party. One of the leading editorials in the first number of their new organ was devoted to his praises, and to obtaining for him the votes of Liberals. It truly said of him that his "record, both public and private, is above reproach." He had likewise the advantage of being an Orangeman, and of dividing the Orange Conservative vote with Mr. Clarke, his opponent. He had also been an active Reformer; and though, irrespective of politics, the Globe favored the election of Mr. Clarke for another year, and recommended the postponement of Mr. McMillan's candidature until next year, yet the President of the Toronto Reform Association and most of its active members were in Mr. McMillan's favor and voted for him, as did a majority of the Reformers generally. These constituted a large addition to the "New party" vote. On the other hand, his opponent, Mr. Clarke, had been twice Mayor already, and there was a prejudice against any one standing for a third term. What was still more important, he had estranged from himself those of his former Orange and other Conservative supporters who had been excited by the Equal Rights agitation, and many of them worked energetically against him throughout the contest. The New party voted for Mr. McMillan to a man, and worked for him enthusiastically; and yet, with all the advantages of the additional support he had from other quarters, he was defeated by a majority of 1,894, at the very centre of the New party movement.

THE SCHEME.

Though the leaders of the New party hoped to carry West Lambton, or at all events their organ pretended they did, I have not observed that they profess to expect a majority of successful candidates of their own at the general election. Sometimes, I understand, they frankly admit that they have no such expectation. Their very platform shows that they cannot have. It contains so many planks, and some of these of such a nature, that but a small minority of the electors of the Province can possibly be expected to adopt them all for many years to come. The plank "Prohibition" excludes all but Prohibitionists; and it is unquestionable that Prohibitionists are yet in a minority of the electorate. But even many Prohibitionists are excluded, for a member of the party must not only be a Prohibitionist, but must be prepared to insist also on an Elective Senate, Woman Suffrage at Parliamentary elections, and other measures, on which Prohibitionists are far from being agreed. So, also, I find in the organs denunciations of Unrestricted Reciprocity and its advocates, quite in the line of the Empire and other Conservative newspapers. Many Conservatives believe in Unrestricted Reciprocity, and regard it of great importance to the country. Opposition to Unrestricted Reciprocity has nothing to do with the nine planks, but it makes the New party somewhat nearer to the great body of Conservatives, who as a party are against the measure. Their hope evidently is that in some constituencies in which Prohibitionists are numerous, and Conservatives not strong enough to elect a Conservative, they may refrain from putting a candidate into the field, and may prefer voting for a New party candidate (a Conservative otherwise, as Mr. MaRae was in Lambton), in order to defeat the Reform candidate. When elected, such a candidate will sit and vote every day with other Conservatives, and may not have occasion to air his New party views once during a whole session. In like manner their organs adopt as their own, without a pretence of examination, the false and refuted charges made by the Opposition press against the Ontario Government. They eulogize the Opposition leader as with all his faults even "too good" a man for his party. Most Prohibitionists who are earnest Reformers perceive what all this means. I hope that before it is too late all will do so. I shall be surprised if they do not.

AGAINST THE REFORM PARTY.

While it is perfectly certain that the New Party will not and cannot, as the result of the coming election, take the place of the Reform party in governing the country, the only possible effect of its operations would be to weaken one of the old parties more than the other; and the hope of those (who ever they are) that really direct the policy of the party evidently is, that the party so weakened will be the Reform party. If any of the leaders of the New party do not perceive this, I must say that those are being made use of by those who do perceive it. The harm which in any constituency the New party may do to the Reform party is, by withdrawing from us, where a constituency is close, the votes of more Reformers than they withdraw of Conservatives from the Conservative candidate. If earnest Reformers are not on their guard they may thus be used to defeat their own party, and to place in office their opponents, the Conservatives, and without anything being gained for Prohibition or any other good thing. That result, I venture to say, every Prohibitionist Reformer would regard with the greatest possible aversion. The President refers to this matter in another connection and in exaggerated terms, averring that the party leaders whom he opposes are "convinced that there is a new tester in the political problem of sufficient value to turn the scale in any constituency, as its weight may be thrown to the one side or the other." But its weight may be thrown to one side or against the other, not merely by obtaining votes for the candidate of one side, but also by withdrawing to a candidate of their own, whom they cannot elect, votes which would otherwise have gone to the other side, and, in a close constituency, would give to the other side a majority; and that is the evident purpose in view. Any special danger to the Reform party lies in the fact of their being in most constituencies more Reformers than Conservatives who favor Prohibition, and more Reformers than Conservatives who favor an Elective Senate, Woman's Suffrage, and other planks of the New party platform.

It being quite certain that Prohibitionists cannot hope, and do not hope, that this New party will obtain a majority, or take the place of what is its formation to effect beyond what would be accomplished by its members occupying themselves, as individuals and otherwise, in leavening both parties with their views? The formation of a separate party means for Reformers that they are to become indifferent to everything else in legislation or government which they have heretofore contended for. Because they cannot get Prohibition, they are asked to do their best, not to make law and government in other respects better, but to allow all to go as wrong and be as bad as may be. They are asked to say that until they get Prohibition some years hence, if ever, they would just as soon have meanwhile a Government so bad that you could no more defend it than you could defend Sodom, as to have in the meantime a Government of pure-minded, patriotic men. They are asked to say that for them, without Prohibition, there is no difference between good government and bad government, or between good laws and bad laws.

There is abundant other evidence that the organization is being used by its directors, whoever these are, for the special purpose of injuring the Reform party. When the Conservative party is blamed in the New Party organ, both parties are said to be equally blameable, but when the two parties are compared, the pretence always is that the Reform party is the worse, and by far the worse. I will give you some of the statements of the New Party organ in proof of this policy in order that Reformers may not, by mistakes and misstatements, be led into assisting unawares the party they have always justly condemned. In the first organ of the New party, it was asserted that righteousness and truth had been ruled out of the politics of both parties." Intelligent Reformers know that righteousness and truth have not been ruled out of the politics of the Reform party. Intelligent Reformers know that the Reform party is and Reformers generally of all Churches have manifested their knowledge of the fact at every general election during my Premiership. Again, the leaders of the two parties are spoken of as "leaders who, by putting party before country, have led their followers by crooked and dirty ways, into entangling and disgraceful alliances." Reformers know that this is false as to the Reform leaders. They know that we have not put party before country; they know that we, like our fellow Reformers generally, are for our party because in that way we are for the country. They know that we have not advocated "crooked and dirty ways." We have made no "entangling and disgraceful alliances." Speaking in reference to the coming Provincial elections, the country is falsely described by the organ as in "a quagmire of political corruption, out of which it is the mission of the New party to lift it. It is false to assert any such corruption as respects the Reform party exists.

As to the question of temperance Mr. Mowat thus referred to the record of the Reform party as represented by his government. Year after year we have passed acts at the instance of the Temperance organizations and against the wishes and interests of the liquor dealers. We have not passed everything Temperance organizations desired, because the Reform party does not consist exclusively of the members of those organizations; and the legislation proposed, in order to be carried, needs to have the support of friends of Temperance who do not belong to those organizations, and do not concur in all their views. But our legislation has been in the direction desired by temperance men, and has assuredly not been in the interest of liquor men. In fact, we have heard from many quarters of Tory Temperance men endeavoring to persuade Reform tavern-keepers (of whom there are some, though they are a small minority) that they should vote against Reform candidates now, because of our Temperance legislation. It is false that the Reform party stand "flat-footed" or footed in any other way, "square-toed" or with any other kind of toes, upon the plank of the saloon.

So, the record of the Ontario Government is spoken of as a record which could not be defended—that the Liberal party organizer had been sent into Lambton to "whitewash a record he could not defend." Could not defend? The notorious facts are the very contrary. The record of the Reform party has been so satisfactory that it has been practically unassailable, instead of being indefensible. It is on account of our record being so satisfactory to the people of the Province that, but for the religious agitation which our opponents are endeavoring, as a matter of political tactics, to turn to their advantages, the case of our opponents would be desperate; and it continues desperate, notwithstanding that agitation.

But the New party organs do not leave to inference the side which has the special sympathy of the real directors of the party, whoever they are. The members and friends of the party are expressly told that, while "voting the Conservative ticket in Canada" is "throwing the vote away"; on the other hand, "a vote for the Reform party, from a moral standpoint, is worse than thrown away." Wherever there is an acknowledged difference between the two parties, the Reformers are always asserted to be decidedly the worse party, and the Conservatives the better party.

Time will not permit of my giving to-day some further illustrations which I had noted of the true character and aims of those, whoever they are, that are directing the policy and proceedings of this New party; but what I have said is surely sufficient without more to demonstrate that the party is under however this has come about, and has decidedly Conservative aims; that its proceedings are not governed by its professed principles; that the party has no chance, and its leading directors have no expectation of success for the party for many years; and that, notwithstanding the protestations more or less sincere of a number of its members, they are going to be used as the tools of the Conservative party at the coming elections, and without attracting, but on the contrary perplexing, the minds for which Reformers join the party. I am glad to know that the Reformers of North Oxford are already alive to all this, and are ready to do, each according to his opportunities, what he can to make others alive to it also.

A Winter's Tale.

LAST winter my little girl caught a severe cold which lasted all season. I doctored with everything I could get but to no avail. Finally I got Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam and gave her two doses which improved her, and in a week she was entirely cured by its use. 2w4d MRS. C. NEEMAN, Cornwall, Ont.

Day and Night

During an acute attack of Bronchitis, a ceaseless tickling in the throat, and an exhausting, dry, hacking cough, afflict the sufferer. Sleep is banished, and great prostration follows. This disease is also attended with Hoarseness, and sometimes Loss of Voice. It is liable to become chronic, involve the lungs, and terminate fatally. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral affords speedy relief and cure in cases of Bronchitis. It controls the disposition to cough, and induces refreshing sleep.

I have been a practicing physician for twenty-four years, and, for the past twelve, have suffered from annual attacks of Bronchitis. After exhausting all the usual remedies

Without Relief,

I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It helped me immediately, and effected a speedy cure.—G. Stoveall, M. D., Carrollton, Miss.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is decidedly the best remedy, within my knowledge, for chronic Bronchitis, and all lung diseases.—M. A. Rust, M. D., South Paris, Me.

I was attacked, last winter, with a severe Cold, which, from exposure, grew worse and finally settled on my Lungs. By night sweats I was reduced almost to a skeleton. My Cough was incessant, and I frequently spit blood. My physician told me to give up business, or I would not live a month. After taking various remedies without relief, I was finally two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I am now in perfect health, and able to resume business, after having been pronounced incurable with Consumption.—S. P. Henderson, Saulsburgh, Penn.

For years I was in a decline. I had weak lungs, and suffered from Bronchitis and Catarrh. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral restored me to health, and I have been for a long time comparatively vigorous. In case of a sudden cold I always resort to the Pectoral, and find speedy relief.—Edward E. Curtis, Rutland, Vt.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Bronchitis. The physician attending me became fearful that the disease would terminate in Pneumonia. After trying various medicines, without benefit, he finally prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved me at once. I continued to take this medicine a short time, and was cured.—Ernest Cokon, Logansport, Ind.

OATMEAL FOOD

OATMEAL is one of the items of daily call in the family.

Rich and poor alike appreciate its value as a palatable and nutritious food.

It is to be found on every breakfast table—or ought to be.

ROLLED, GRANULATED or STANDARD, it leads all other competitors in public favor.

Its popularity is largely due to the excellence attained by improved methods of manufacture.

PALATABLE, NUTRITIOUS, CHEAP. The Oat contains all the constituents necessary for the maintenance of high bodily vigor.

It is one of these complex foods which is capable of supporting life and health for an indefinite period.

In the border raids and forays of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, it was held in high esteem—on one side at least—that of the raiders

The provision carried by a Scottish soldier in those days was simply a bag of oatmeal.

With his good Claymore and Shield, and reinforced by this food, in spite of scant attire and inferior coat-of-mail, how often did he cope successfully with the haughty Southern and was enabled to see the backs of the best soldiers in the world.

Happily these days are past and milder and more peaceful times prevail.

But this food is still in the ascendant.

Its demand increases every day.

THE DIAMOND BUTTON

FROM THE DIARY OF A LAWYER AND THE NOTE BOOK OF A REPORTER.

By BARCLAY NORTH.

(Copyrighted, 1889, by O. M. Dunham. Published by special arrangement through The American Press Association.)

Finally he heard Parker's voice.

"Now see here, Preston, I have carefully written this story down, and you must familiarize yourself with it."

"How much is true and how much false?"

"It doesn't make any difference how much is true or false; this story" (slapping the papers) "has got to be the true one. Now, I want you to study over it, and I will come again and again and talk with you until you get it pat."

"Well, I'll try it."

"If you would stop drinking and get the rum out of your sodden old brain you would get it all right enough. You used to be sharp enough, in all conscience sake."

"Am as sharp now as I ever was, only I can't recollect as I used to. That's because I'm getting old."

"It's because you are getting your skin full of whisky every day. Now, see here. You are a brother of Charles Preston."

"Of course I am, or why did he give me money for fifteen years?"

"What's the use of our arguing that point? It makes no difference between us whether it was because you were his brother, which he denied, or because you had a secret of his worth paying for. For all we want, you are."

"Well, I was, I tell you."

"Never mind; we can establish, by putting your papers and my papers together, that Charles Pierson was an assumed name; the reason why he changed it; that you were his brother; that he had no relations other than you, and no descendants; and establishing these facts we can take his property. Now, I don't dare take the first step before the surrogate until I have seen you have got the story so straight you won't stumble when you go on the stand."

"Oh, I'll get it, don't you fear."

"Well, I do fear. Then there is the story of your own life, I have written that, too."

Parker laughed an ugly laugh.

"It was a tough job to reconstruct the twenty years of your life you spent between four stone walls."

"Hush," said the other old man, "for heaven's sake don't talk of that."

"Well, you served your time out; they can't take you for it again. It was a rocky path that of your life, old man, and I have smoothed it very ingeniously."

"Keep quiet!" cried the old man, with an oath, "or I'll kick the whole thing overboard."

This threat had a subduing effect upon Parker.

"Well, don't get huffy," he said; "I'll be quiet. But you must be pat with it when you're called upon for it. I don't think you will be, for I doubt if there will be a contestant. But the lawyer whom I shall employ may want to know your story."

"Why don't you do it yourself? You are a lawyer."

"There are certain circumstances connected with my professional career which make it advisable for me to keep out of court. But I can't idle here. I've got a great deal to do today. Here are some papers I want you to sign."

"What are they?"

"The agreements and contracts of transfer to me of one-half of the property when you get it."

"Well, I am entitled to the whole."

"Of course you are, you old ass; but if you don't give me half you won't have any part of it. Sign, or you won't get a smell of it; and besides, I'll stop your allowance."

This was a dire threat, and meant a stoppage of liquor, so he signed with a trembling hand:

"James Preston."

"Now, wait a moment," said Parker. He went to the window and beckoned to a man who stood upon the opposite side of the street.

In a moment more the person entered the room.

"You are a notary public; I want you to verify these signatures."

It was a ceremony soon accomplished, and Parker, placing the papers in his pocket, went off, after leaving a ten dollar bill with the old man Preston.

The Shadow remained long enough at his post to hear Preston say:

"Well, there's something crooked about this, but I don't know what. Anyhow, I know I am the brother of the man they call Charles Pierson. I can't figure it out, but I can go and get a drink."

As the old man went out, the Shadow stepped down lightly and passed into his room.

"I don't know that the matter has any bearing on that which the 'Boss' has in hand. I guess not. But I will tell him anyhow."

When he did tell Tom, that astute young gentleman said:

"No, I do not believe it has any immediate bearing on our matter. It has this effect, however, and that is, that we won't worry much about Parker's participation in the matter, for he is not crossing the line we are and has no connection with it. What he is in for is clear enough. He will make a blunder of it, for he don't know it all, and he'll get in a mess before he is aware of it. I'll drop a hint to the surrogate to go slow on any application made on behalf of James Preston. But, I say, old Parker may be a valuable man to follow up on the line of Pierson. He evidently knows more about him than we do. It will be worth while to cultivate him when we get the chance. Not just now there are other things to be done."

CHAPTER XVI.

CUPID TRIM THE FLUTTERS HIS WINGS.

S the time drew near to visit the Templetons, Holbrook found that he had regarded this visit with greater interest and emotion than he had been really conscious of.

Such had been the excitements of the two previous days that he had given himself to little sedate or profound thought. Events had occurred with such rapidity and close succession that life was really whirling with him.

It was only as he drew near the hotel where the mother and daughter were staying that he realised that, after all, the one thing which seemed important to him above all others was this visit.

Why, he was at a loss to tell, and it was with something of a shock that he was compelled to confess to himself that above all and through all the beautiful face of Annie Templeton had been before him constantly.

Men will deceive themselves, just as Holbrook did, when he answered his own awakening by saying: "Her face haunts me as a beautiful picture I sometimes see will linger with me for days."

The ladies met him in the public parlor of the hotel. They welcomed him as a highly prized friend, and the trust with which they fairly threw themselves upon him was very pleasant.

They had waited for him anxiously, and they were deeply interested in the smallest detail of the business he had undertaken for them. They hung upon his words as if he were to bring them salvation.

"My first step," he said, "will be to take out letters of administration for Mrs. Templeton, and this done we can take possession of all your brother's affairs."

He explained to them that the proceedings were likely to be long delayed and vexatious, and it was not long before he found himself installed not only as legal counsel, but as adviser upon all points in family matters.

It was very agreeable to him, to be the recipient of all the little confidences as to family details, cost of living, the ways and means—and he, who for twelve years had lived a bachelor life, found domestic considerations highly interesting, especially when presided over by a beautiful girl who paid special deference to his own wisdom.

It was agreed that they should return to their home in Plainfield the following day, and set it in order for a prolonged absence.

While they were gone he was to obtain for them apartments, where they would be at less expense than a hotel and secure greater comforts.

He did not tell them of the suspicions entertained by Tom Bryan and himself, for, in truth, he would have found it difficult to have presented them in an intelligible manner, if he had thought it wise to arouse hopes he was not certain of realizing.

Touching the murder, he informed them that a series of inquiries had been instituted, but that as yet it was impossible to say anything as to the result.

Finally he drew away from the subject in which the two ladies were so much interested, and directed their thoughts to other channels. Thus he induced them to lay aside their sorrows for a time, until the hours passed so rapidly that the clock pointed 11 before he was aware it was so late.

He was more and more pleased with the character of Annie Templeton, her artlessness and sincerity and her charms of mind and temper.

That night he sat long in his room at the open window over his cigar, his thoughts busy with the charming young girl with whom, through accident apparently, he stood in closer relation than any other man, and he grew very tender over them.

THE OLD RELIABLE.
The Canada Life
Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract from one of the Addresses at the recent Annual Meeting taken from the "Shareholder:"

When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5,040,185, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calendar year, the result of which would be to reduce the earning one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would curtail it considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, for which $240,186 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business as $525,000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300,000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its hold standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up the new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management.

GEO. A. COX, General Agent.

A Great Risk.

This is the time when it is dangerous to insure risks. Yesterday an enthusiastic Scotchman brought to the EXAMINER a bill of fare of a banquet at San Francisco, with the names of the dishes printed in the crankiest of broad Scotch. He asked to have it republished in the EXAMINER, but was told that, while the EXAMINER delighted to please Scotchmen, it could not run the risk of breaking the printing press. There is not the slightest degree of risk, however, in buying teas at hawley bros.'s, who keep in stock the finest and freshest brands of all kinds of teas, and also the best coffees. dw

St. Paul's Presbyterian Church.

Annual Congregational Meeting—Reports of the Past Year's Progress in all Departments—The New Members of the Board of Managers—A Plea for the Missionary Cause.

The annual congregational meeting of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church was held last night. The attendance was not as large as usual, owing, no doubt, to the pastor, Rev. Mr. Torrance, remarked, to the fact that some of those who would have been present were sick, and others had to stay at home to nurse them. However, the utmost harmony prevailed, and all the reports of the past year's progress were quite satisfactory. St. Paul's Church is in a flourishing condition, and the officers and members have reason to congratulate themselves on that account.

The usual tea was provided by the ladies in their usual excellent manner. About eight o'clock the meeting was began in the school room, Mr. Peter Hamilton being elected chairman. Rev. Mr. Torrance, pastor, offered up a prayer.

THE CHURCH'S PROGRESS.

The report of the session was first read by Rev. Mr. Torrance. It comprised a review of church work during the past year, and stated that, though 118 new members had been added to the roll; by the death or removal of others, the actual gain had only been 18. There was now a total membership of 682, the congregation including 230 families, which made St. Paul's one of the largest congregations in the whole church. The report in conclusion referred with pleasure to the harmony and good-feeling which had always existed in the church.

Mr. Walter Paterson, Treasurer, presented his statement in printed form for distribution among those present. The statement showed total receipts during the year of $6,183 26, made up of a balance from last year of $603 57, collections $4,781 54, special collections $400 42, note discounted $700, on mortgage $1,000, from the Orange Society $10, on account of debt, including $500 from the Ladies' Aid Society, $662; leaving a balance due bank and outstanding check of $25 53. The principal expenditures were salaries $3,650.30, mortgage account $2,000, and accounts for interest, running expenses and grants to outside institutions.

Mr. D. B. Gardner, Secretary, read the report of the Board of Managers, which remarked upon the satisfactory financial position of the church. They had met all current expenditure, wiped off the floating debt and spared a portion of the revenue to paying of the mortgage.

ELECTING OFFICERS.

Five new members of the Board of Managers were appointed to replace the retiring members. The new ones are Messrs. W. Paterson, C. N. Brown, W. Walsh, J. W. Bennett and H. S. McDonald.

Mr. R. S. Davidson was re-appointed representative on the Nicholls Hospital Trust, and Mr. J. H. Roper was elected representative on the Wm. Hall Trust.

The annual report of the church missionary society was then read by Mr. J. D. Collins, in which it was regretted that the increase in this department was not proportionate to the increase in the congregation. The amount at the disposal of the society this year was $905.61, and the following appropriations were recommended:—Home Missions, $300; Foreign Missions, $250; French Evangelization, $150; Augmentation Fund, $150; Manitoba College, $25.61.

MORE REPORTS.

Mr. Gardner then read the following reports:—

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society's seventh annual report showed an average attendance of 21 out of a membership of 60, at the meetings during the year. There had been $222.45 contributed this year to the Society's funds. The report referred to the parcels of clothing which had been sent to the Northwest Indians and other missionary efforts; to the meeting of the Presbyterial Society and other details in connection with the Society. An accompanying statement showed the total receipts to have been $402.40, of which $23.45 had been expended in clothing for the Indians, and $378.75 remitted to the Presbyterial Society.

The report of the Mission Band showed a gratifying result of the past year's work. The little folks took an active interest in the Band, and contributed besides money, dolls which were sent out to India. The average attendance at the meetings was 25.

In the Sunday school report an increase of 20 in the average attendance, which was now 293 out of 429 pupils on the roll, was shown. The average collections were $6.45. Last year $340 34 was raised for missionary purposes, and besides 186 volumes, at a cost of $120, had been added to the library. The school had held two entertainments and a picnic during the year. Forty scholars had been admitted to church membership.

The Ladies' Aid Society reported receipts of $560.14 for the year, a considerable increase over last year. One social had been held, and a sale of fancy articles which netted $371 35. The proceeds of the anniversary, $45.83, they proposed to place as a nucleus for a charitable fund in connection with their Society. They had also given $500 to the Board of Managers. The report announced that the ladies intended holding another sale of fancy articles in the near future.

The first annual report of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor was presented. The society was founded in April, 1889, and had now on the roll 50 acting and 69 associate members. Their meetings Monday evenings were most useful and helpful, and great results were confidently expected. The object of the society was to promote an earnest Christian life among its members and make them active in church work.

The reports were all adopted unanimously.

VOTES OF THANKS.

Votes of thanks were then passed to Mr. D. B. Gardner for his valuable services as secretary; to Mr. Parker, organist, and the members of the choir for their musical efficiency; to the Ladies' Aid Society for their grant of $500; and to Mr. Peter Hamilton for his able occupancy of the chair during the evening.

THE MISSIONARY CAUSE.

Before the meeting closed Mr. E. B. Edwards made a suggestion which he thought if followed out would be a grand thing for the church. He thought a congregation like St. Paul's could well afford to be more liberal in the matter of missions. They expended far more on themselves than they did on outside church work, and he considered the least they could conscientiously do would be to give an equal amount—dollar for dollar—to the missionary cause. He proposed that all envelope contributors double the amount of their weekly donations, instead of special collections being taken up at different times for different missions, so that at the end of the year the Board of Managers could devote to home and foreign missions as much as was expended on their own church.

There was some favorable discussion on this matter, Rev. Mr. Torrance urging the congregation to think it over.

The meeting then closed in the usual way.

The High License Appeal.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

DEAR SIR,—Besides the correspondence going on between Mr. Possette and Mr. Edwards there is a great deal of talk about the town respecting the liquor by-law.

It appears to me that the question would be simplified and Mr. Edwards' standing as a municipal lawyer better understood if the public knew that he does not now receive the support and advice of Mr. Sanderson, reeve of Smith, one of the best posted men in the Province in municipal law. During the time he has been solicitor for the town and county, and carrying on the law suits that gave him any reputation he has as a municipal lawyer, Mr. Sanderson was his right hand man.

Mr. Edwards might still have been able to profit by Mr. Sanderson's advice, had he not made such exorbitant charges against the county. Before the town and county councils renew his appointments as solicitor, they had better consider the position they will be in without Mr. Sanderson to advise him, for in the future, if appointed, he will have to stand on his own merits.

Yours truly,

OBSERVER.

Preservation of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life an energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. An Experience with a Tramp.

Farmers Should Beware of Strange Unknown Strangers—A Rough Customer.

A couple of weeks ago a stout, well-built stranger visited the house of a farmer living near Allandale, in Ontonabee. The man had the appearance of being a thoroughbred tramp, but as he asked for work and told a sad tale of hardships, the kind-hearted farmer took him in and treated him as one of his own household. Everything went well for a time. The man was a fairly good worker and behaved himself. After he had been with the farmer about eight or ten days, however, the fellow's true nature showed itself and proved him to be a deceitful scoundrel. While in the stable one day the fellow took liberties with the farmer's wife and it is said actually committed an assault. He accomplished nothing beyond exciting the righteous indignation of his employer, who at once ordered him to leave the place. This fellow refused to do, whereupon the farmer called in two or three neighbors to help him forcibly eject him. The demoralized tramp with a temerity born of desperation undertook to defend himself, and pulling off his coat announced his intention of licking the quartette of brawny farmers who faced him. He also threatened to use his revolver (if he had any) and for a time there was some prospect of a small sized Donnybrook. However better counsels and second thoughts prevailed, and the festive intruder took his waterproof and valise and cleared out in the direction of Keene. The farmer also started for Keene with the intention of notifying the police of Hastings and Peterborough by wire to be on the look-out for the fellow. As soon as the latter saw his late employer walking after him he returned to the house, but the farmer again summoned his trusty aides, the neighbors, and the persevering stranger was obliged to start off once more. This time he took the Grand Junction line, which passes through the farm, and started westward in the direction of Peterborough. The police and farmers will do well to recollect this little episode when they catch sight of a seedy looking stranger with a rubber coat and small black valise, who is looking for work.

Ashburnham Brevities.

Messrs. Rooney and Reazel, the municipal auditors, will commence their investigations next week.

South Monaghan Council.

Council elect for the year 1890, met at the Agricultural Hall, Centreville, at 11 a.m. on Jan. 20th. Each member subscribed to the declaration of qualification and of office, viz., John Buckham, Reeve; Councillors, David Baxter, Robert Fisher, James Greer and Wm. R. Morrison. Minutes of last meeting were read and confirmed. Communications were received from Ontario Government re exemptions; from J. E. Stratton on account of printing, and from the Sheriff re John Moyes, vagrant. The council went into committee on exemptions from taxation, filled up schedule of same and ordered it sent to Toronto.

The Reeve reported on dead and bylaw affecting the road on the west side of lot 5, 4th concession. The following bills and accounts were ordered paid:—

Andrew Flanis, 81 loads of gravel for bush west half of lot 8, $4.05; John Donaldson, culvert on west boundary, $6.00; Wm. Gilroy, gravelling on west boundary, $11; Richard Parker, stone hammer for west boundary, $1; Agricultural Society, for use of hall, wood and light for 1889, $10; Treasurer's salary and discounts, $25 40; councillors' pay, one day, $10. By-law appointing Edward Truscott and Joseph Morrison auditors for 1890 was introduced and passed; also a by-law for members of Board of Health, Messrs. Wm. Emberson, Joseph Fisher, John Mounsey and the Reeve and Clerk; and for Assessor, James Ward. Mr. Fisher was appointed to see after the Treasurer's bonds, and Mr. Buckham to arrange with Mr. Greer about the road on west side of lot 5, 4th concession. It was decided to place a railing on the embankment on 3rd concession, east of Centreville, and to ask for tenders for cedar for that purpose, and for use of the township, the same to be advertised for by posters. Council then adjourned, to meet at the call of the Reeve.

Robert Shaw, Reeve; and Thomas Flynn, James N. Goodenough, Charles Mallmoyle, Andrew G. Shearer, councillors. Minutes of the last session read and confirmed. Communications read from T. G. Haslitt, re taxes on the Scott's Mills property for 1889: Charles Fairbairn, re trespass of men cutting timber on road. The Clerk was instructed to notify the County Treasurer to remove from his books all the non-resident taxes charged against part of Lot 11, con. 10, Harvey, as it was Government land up to 1886 inclusive. A bylaw was passed in due form re-appointing the Clerk, Treasurer, and Assessor for the current year. A bylaw was passed appointing W. F. Chase and John Elliott as auditors for 1890. A bylaw was passed appointing health officers for the current year, viz.:—Reeve and Clerk, ex-officio; Thomas Flynn, Robert Renwick, Charles Mallmoyle, James N. Goodenough and James Pardy. Weir, salary as treasurer for 1889, $45. Robert Shaw and Andrew G. Shearer were appointed to attend the Easternore council, re road from ferry to main road in Easternore. Restoration of Oil.

There are places in Canada (though where men extract oil from the rattlesnake and use it to cure rheumatism. These persons will give a negro $1 to point out a rattlesnake to them, and then they kill it in a peculiar manner. They place a forked stick over the snake's head, then put a cord around it and strangle the snake. This is done to keep the snake from biting itself. The body of the reptile is then strung up and the oil extracted from it. It sells at $2 per ounce, and this industry is a very profitable one. The snakes in this section are very large, averaging five feet in length, and one rattler gives up a great deal of oil. A little negro once saw two rattlers lying close together and wanted to get the money for finding them. It was a mile to the nearest house. He was afraid the snakes would crawl off while he was gone, and so he took off his coat and placed it between the snakes. He went off, came back, and found them still eying the coat. He had them charmed. So the snake is cultivated down there as a profitable industry.—Athens (Ga.) Banner.

A Young Trapper.

Sixteen-year-old Harry Spencer, of Ransom, is a successful crow trapper. Young Harry's guinea hens got in the notion of laying their eggs in the bushes back of the house last summer, and every now and then the crows would swoop down and carry off the eggs. At first Harry was at a loss to account for the disappearance of the eggs, but one day he caught two crows in the act of stealing them, and he straightway went to work to outwit the black thieves. Out in the field he built a little well of sods, with an opening on one side wide enough for a crow to pass through, and in the passage he set a steel trap. Then he placed an egg in the centre of the well, and the first crow that saw it alighted on the outside of the circle of sods, tripped into the opening after the egg, and got its foot in the trap. The crow began to flutter like fury, and Harry ran out and clubbed it to death. He has caught nearly two dozen of the sly birds in that way this season.—Ransom (Pa.) Letter.

Hunting for the Meteorite.

It is reported that the Alpinites are greatly excited over the falling of an immense meteor in the vicinity of Mount Bullion. The ball of fire, which is described as much larger than the Markleville court house, struck with a force that made the earth tremble, giving a report like a cannon. The citizens of Alpine have been out scouring the hills in search of the aerolite. Although many people saw it fall, opinions differ in location from five to ten miles.—Genoa (Nev.) Courier.

A Special Number.

The Bobcaygeon Independent issues this week a "la grippe number." It is about the size of a vegetarian's butcher bill. The editor says in explanation of the reduced size of this mighty engine of enlightenment: "Last week these members of the staff of this great and influential journal, who were unaffected by the prevailing epidemic, put forth every effort to give to our esteemed subscribers their weekly allowance of intellectual refreshment. Working day and night, the paper was brought out, one day after time. Since then we have wrestled with the bacteria with all our might, but even the might of this gigantic exponent of Advanced Thought has to succumb to these measley molecules. It is a disgusting admission. But it has to be done. Floored by a microscopical protoplasmic microbe. Our staff is reduced to one man. The other fellow is laid up with his system filled with bacteria and quinine. We offer our apologies to our readers for appearing in so reduced a form, and sincerely regret having fallen such a sneaky victim to the wretched disease. All we can do is to throw ourselves on your indulgence, and hope that by next week our staff will have shaken loose from la grippe and be back to work again. In the meantime we again express regrets, and wish our readers safety through the epidemic."

Woman's Modesty.

Many women are prevented by feelings of delicacy from consulting a physician in those disorders arising from functional derangement that peculiarly delicate organism, and the most serious results are often caused by this neglect. To such persons Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an especial boon, as it offers a sure and safe cure for all those distressing disorders to which women are peculiarly subject, while it saves a modest girl or woman from the embarrassment of a personal consultation with a physician. "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money will be refunded. If your children are ruptured or deformed, call and see him with your physician. Having spent his whole life in improving and perfecting appliances for rupture and other deformities, is conceded by the best authorities that he is the only man in this line of business who can, after examining the patient, invent and construct a correct appliance to overcome the most difficult cases, as many thousands have testified. No two are made alike.

Case of Toronto's most prominent wholesale merchants testifies, one week after I had adjusted this new truss:—"For six months, by the advice of my physician I have been attending a well-known firm of truss makers on Church street, sometimes as often as three times a day, but they never succeeded in holding the rupture. What they have been attempting for six months you have effected at the first attempt. I thank you heartily, and you may reckon on my assisting you all I can to attain the success you deserve."

ORANGE INCORPORATION.

GRAND MASTER CLARK WALLACE PRESENTS THE PETITION.

Farmers Demanding That the National Policy Be Extended for Their Benefit—The Niagara Central's Hamilton Branch—Other News from Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Jan. 24.—Simultaneously from Ontario and the Maritime Provinces there appears before the House of Commons a demand that the farmers shall have a larger share of the protection which is the rule for this country, but which the manufacturers are the most forward in asking. Mr. Marshall, the member for East Middlesex, has given notice of a motion affirming the expediency of increasing the duty on imports of meat of all kinds, and in moving for a return of such imports Mr. Wood of Westmoreland to-day spoke strongly in favor of such an increase. He pointed out that the traders of Chicago and other points in the Western States were now invading the markets of Canada by wholesale and that the transportation facilities at their disposal are so good that they can lay down meat in the market of the Maritime Provinces without greater expense for transportation than that secured by the Canadian farmer living only 100 or 150 miles away from the same markets. The official returns do not distinguish between the imports of fresh and salt meats, but for both kinds the returns show this surprising increase for the Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick:

Year.	Pounds.
1885	864,000
1886	1,179,000
1887	1,520,000
1888	2,000,000
1889	2,910,000

The increase, Mr. Wood says, is mostly in imports of fresh beef by the quarter and such importations have very seriously affected the interests of the farmers. He hopes that the duty will be increased to at least double what it is at present.

These bills were introduced to-day: To incorporate the Alberta Railway & Coal Company; respecting the Port Arthur, Duluth & Western Railway Company; to incorporate the Saskatchewan Colonization Railway Company; to confer on the Commissioner of Patents powers for the relief of Samuel May. The relief sought for in this last bill relates to the lapsed patent for pulley improvements mentioned the other day. Mr. Denison explained how the mishap came to occur and the bill was read a first time.

In accordance with a report from the Standing Order Committee the time for receiving petitions for private bills has been extended to Feb. 11, and the time for the introduction of such bills to Feb. 18. Mr. Bergeron was to-day elected chairman of this committee, vice Mr. Wood, now Deputy Speaker.

Amongst the petitions presented to-day was one by Grand Master Clarke Wallace from the Loyal Orange Association of British America asking incorporation. This is the text of the petition:

The petition of the undersigned officers and members of the Loyal Orange Association of British America humbly sheweth that the association known throughout Canada as the Loyal Orange Association of British America are desirous of obtaining an act of incorporation. That your petitioners have caused due notice of their intentions to apply for such incorporation to be published according to the rules of your honorable House. Therefore your petitioners humbly pray that your honorable House may be pleased to pass an act incorporating them and such other members as may hereafter be admitted with them under the name, style and title of the Loyal Orange Lodge of British America, and your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray.

A petition from the St. Catharines & Niagara Central Railway Company was presented by Mr. Rykert. They ask authority to construct a branch line through the City of Hamilton to a point in or near the Village of Burlington and to issue first preference mortgage bonds to the amount of $80,000 in lieu of those issued to the City of St. Catharines, and to extend the time for commencement and completion of the railway and branches.

MANY MEN OF MONEY.

Bankers Gathering at the Capital—Opposed to the American System.

OTTAWA, Jan. 24.—Among the bankers who are here to interview the Minister of Finance to-morrow respecting the proposed changes in the Banking Act are Messrs. Andrew Thompson, President of the Quebec Bank; A. Geboury, President of the Banque Nationale, Quebec; R. R. Grindley, President of the Bank of British North America, Montreal; Wolferstan Thomas, General Manager of Molsons Bank, Montreal; D. Coulson, Cashier of the Bank of Toronto; D. R. Wilkie, Cashier of the Imperial Bank; B. E. Walker, General Manager of the Bank of Commerce, and J. Turnbull, Cashier of the Bank of Hamilton.

They express themselves as opposed to an adoption of the American banking system. Said General Manager Walker of the Bank of Commerce to-day: "We do not apprehend any radical change in the Banking Act. A number of suggestions will be made to the Government in the interest of the bankers and people. Every leading banker in the United States is alarmed at the tendency of the banking system and is discussing a remedy. Some of them are seriously urging the adoption of the Canadian or Scotch system. A leading American banker, after studying the question, has declared in favor of ours. At one time the late Mr. Smithers of the Bank of Montreal and myself favored the adoption of the American system, but experience has taught us the error of our early judgments. In 25 years 600 American banks have collapsed or gone out of business. In 300 instances the losses were very extensive, as the security provided is not perfect. American bankers are also becoming alarmed at the sudden manner in which Government bonds are being paid up. We do not favor the idea of the Dominion Government taking over the issue of higher denominations of bank notes."

All the banks, except the Bank of British North America and the Bank of Montreal, are opposed to a national issue.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—Reports from Buenos Ayres via London received here to-day state that there has been a large number of failures there which footed up nearly $10,000,000. This house did an immense business in jobbing the products of the Argentine Republic and had considerable shipping interests in Europe.

THE WARNING UNHEEDED

THREE LOST THEIR LIVES AND MANY WERE INJURED.

Terrible Explosion of Natural Gas at Ohio's Capital—A Crowd Gathered in the Street by one Disaster Become the Victims of Another.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 24.—Soon after 5 o'clock to-day an alarm of fire called the fire department out. The news spread that there had been a natural gas explosion and a crowd rushed to the scene. The explosion had occurred in a two-story dwelling at the south corner of Wall and Noble-alleys. Patrol No. 1 was on the scene but no rope was stretched and the people crowded by hundreds into the narrow alley and pushed up close to the house. The moans and shrieks of injured people within could be heard. A whisper ran through the throng that a natural gas main ran through Noble-alley but this was soon converted into a rumor that the blaze was due to a gasoline explosion in the house and the people did not believe the warning. The fire was almost under control and the people were laughing and talking. The alley was crowded with lookers-on, many of whom were turning to go home. At that moment a terrific explosion rent the air. A sheet of flames burst from the building at the north-west corner of Noble and Wall-alleys, carrying mass of bricks, beams and stone that thirty seconds before had constituted a two-story brick building were flying with terrific force through the air.

The scene that followed was terrible. The people fled, shrieking in all directions, while the alley was instantly covered with a mass of debris, from which the moans of buried men came. Pallid, trembling women tottered and ran across the alley and streets moaning or shrieking. Men with foreheads and shoulders drabbled with blood staggered from among the debris.

A woman enveloped in a sheet of flame, bareheaded and frenzied, ran shrieking from the house across the alley. A man dashed off his overcoat and ran to throw it around her. A fireman who held the nozzle of a hose turned the stream on her. It knocked her down but saved her life, extinguishing the flames. She was hurried into a neighboring house. Every inch of her clothing had been burned from her down to her waist. Her name was Pet Marrott.

An old man with white hair and beard was dug from the ruins and hurried to a place where medical assistance could be given him. A tearless mother staggered from the ruins holding tight to her heart the seemingly lifeless form of her 3-months-old babe.

The explosion as near as can be ascertained resulted from an accumulation of natural gas in the cellar of the house occupied by Michael Bowes and Mr. Marrott. No natural gas pipes were ever put into that house, but a natural gas main in Noble-alley leaked. The gas has no scent and its presence could not be detected. The explosion scattered bricks, etc., for a considerable distance. The side of the Marrott house was blown out and the roof fell over and hung from the top of the house to the ground.

The exploded vapor after doing its terrible work on the south side of Noble-alley leaped over to the north side and completely destroyed the house occupied by Edward Olstot and Mr. James. This house was similar to the one opposite. Here everything was blown to chips. The house shot up and parted like a piece of fireworks.

The work of getting out the dead and caring for the wounded has been attended with great excitement. At the morgue are three bodies. The killed are:

CHARLES BECHT, barber.
— SEYMOUR, a colored boy.
MRS. P. MARROTT.

The woman's body was taken from the cellar. The other members of her family are badly injured.

The wounded are: T. K. Wissinger, Walter Beedy, William Neil, William James and wife, — Blasdinger, Theo. Schutte, Officer Lyndsay, Charles Licklighter, William Riley, Elmer Gates, Mrs. Carn, Ed. Keswer, Elmer Geachy, Charles Lowery, — Westlander, Patty Marrott, Thomas Doyle, Flora Bowers, and Emma Bowers, aged 14, badly burned but not fatal, Aaron Bern, Benjamin Morgan, Marshall Kilbourne, Peter Marrott, and two men named Berry and Wolf.

A Test Case Decided.

ROCHESTER, Jan. 24.—The case of Joseph H. Poule v. the Vacuum Oil Company for damages for the destruction of plaintiff's mill in the great naptha sewer explosion two years ago resulted to-night in a verdict of $45,000 for plaintiff. This is the first of several suits that will involve several hundred thousand dollars.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Another Breach of Promise Suit—Charged With Criminal Libel.

TORONTO, Jan. 25.—A sensational breach of promise, case was on trial at the Assizes yesterday and will be continued to-day. The facts alleged in the statement of claim are briefly that the defendant, Dr. D. A. Dobie of 160 McCaul-street, in the year 1892, made an offer of marriage to Miss Kate Gokey, the plaintiff. Both plaintiff and defendant resided in Wallaceburg, Kent County, at that time. The plaintiff claims $10,000. But this is not all. The action is brought only for breach of promise, but from the evidence yesterday the fact was brought out that the plaintiff was seduced and as a result a child was born at Montreal. According to the evidence of the plaintiff it seems that the defendant, before the accouchement, advised her to adopt certain measures for the purposes of a criminal operation upon herself. She refused to follow his advice. There is also another complication. It appears that a Mrs. Underwood, residing in Toronto, came between the defendant and plaintiff in their love-making, and was the source of a good deal of jealousy on the part of the latter. The plaintiff, who appeared in the court room heavily veiled, is somewhat under 30 years of age, of interesting appearance and possessing a fine pair of dark eyes. A number of letters written by defendant to plaintiff were introduced, in which the doctor referred to past intimacies and made arrangements for future assignations.

In consequence of articles which have recently appeared in The Empire a summons was last night served upon the managing director, David Creighton, M.L.A., charging him with criminal libel of The Mail and Mr. C. W. Banting. The case will come up in the Police Court to-day.

William H. Godwin, ex-accountant of the Ontario Bank, was arraigned at the Police Court yesterday on three charges of embezzlement of the moneys of the bank. No evidence was gone into on the charge against Godwin, who was remanded until Jan. 29. William Pinkerton, barrister, and William J. Fleury, student-at-law, were accepted as bondsmen in $1000 each and Godwin was once more free. "Folly" Moffatt was remanded to the same day, but without bail. As he was suffering from a troublesome tooth he was allowed, under escort of Detective Cuddy, to pay a visit to his dentist's, at the conclusion of whose tender mercies he was once more taken to the jail.

The address in reply to the speech from the Throne in the Ontario Legislature, which opens Thursday next, will be moved by Mr. Charles Mackenzie of Sarnia, the newly-elected member for West Lambton, and seconded by Dr. Gilmour, member for West York.

R. J. Maclennan, Toronto; T. A. McGillivray, Whitby; W. Cook, Toronto have been appointed notaries public.

John Livingstone, Harriston, has been appointed clerk and Henry Torrance, Harriston, bailiff of the 20th division court of Wellington.

Martial Chevalier of Montreal has been appointed general manager of the Credit Foncier Franco-Canadien.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—The Southern Pacific road has been blocked for ten days, which is the longest it has ever been closed. The storm is the most severe experienced since the first overland road was built into California.

BUTTERWORTH'S BILL.

The Ohio Congressman Before the Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—S. J. Ritchie of Ohio appeared before the Ways and Means Committee to-day and argued in favor of the free importation of Canadian mineral ores and in favor of unrestricted reciprocity with the Dominion. The chairman, having ascertained that Mr. Ritchie was conversant with Canadian matters, inquired what sentiment was in Canada in regard to annexation. Mr. Ritchie replied that any sentiment could be found in Canada which anybody wished to fish for. There was a considerable sentiment in favor of reciprocity and by taking the proper course the United States could increase the sentiment.

Mr. Payne asked as to the feeling towards the Butterworth Reciprocity Bill. Mr. Ritchie replied that the Opposition in the Canadian Parliament, numbering about ⅓ of its membership, had adopted the Butterworth Bill as its platform.

In reply to a question by Mr. Carlisle, Mr. Ritchie stated that the American interests in Canada were very large. Mr. Carlisle asked whether Canada would give the United States free coal if the United States gave her free iron. Mr. Ritchie replied emphatically in the affirmative.

Hon. Benj. Butterworth of Ohio addressed the committee in support of his bill for reciprocity with Canada. The object of the measure, he said, was to bring about unrestricted trade between Canada and the United States and incidentally to settle all disputes growing out of the Atlantic fisheries question. He contended that Canada had as ample power to make the proposed arrangement as the United States had. It was proposed to enlarge the trade and commerce of the country. That was desirable beyond question, for to-day the Government was spending a large sum of money for the establishment of trade between the United States and peoples 3000 miles away. If the time had come when the multiplicity of facilities for doing a thing which could be done lessened the opportunity for doing it the rules of logic were inverted. He insisted that it was incontestably true that the multiplicity of facilities for doing a thing enlarged the opportunity.

In Canada the United States had a vast storehouse of supplies. It had there a splendid market. In 1887 Canada had purchased from the United States $61,000,000 worth of goods. In the same year the South and Central American States and Mexico had purchased $41,000,000 worth. In 1888, 1894 and 1895 Canada had purchased from the United States more than all the other countries and islands of the western hemisphere combined. During the existence of the Reciprocity Treaty from 1855 to 1866 Canada bought from us more than she sold to us to the extent of $60,000,000. Canada was the only country on the western hemisphere which bought more from the United States than she sold to the United States, and in the aggregate during 1887 the balance against the United States in the American countries (except Canada) including the Hawaiian Islands amounted to $112,000,000. Was there any conceivable reason why the United States should not offer as broad and liberal trade measures to Canada as it was seeking to thrust upon all of South and Central America and Mexico by a most hospitable diplomacy?

The United States was a great nation; Canada was a small nation as far as numbers are concerned. Geography and destiny had decreed that the two peoples should be one. Nothing but parsimonious statesmanship would enable them to continue as two countries.

He was a Republican with ultra tendencies, but he laid it down as an incontrovertible proposition that in the present [illegible] conditions protective tariff had no proper office to perform and never had; and the fathers of the Republican party and those who advocated protection, never believed it had and never so said. He believed the protective system was not to foster healthful and equal competition, but to correct the hurtful. Protection of this which is unequal and unjust. If the arbitrary control of competition by Congress without regard to condition was desirable—that is if a protective tariff as a means of limiting competition was good in the abstract—Congress should at once, if it has the power, divide the United States into six divisions, so that each one would be able to get rich by fencing out all competition.

As between Canada and the United States there was not a gentleman who did not know that from every standpoint the United States had the colign of vantage. The trouble with the question of reciprocity was that politics entered into it and not statesmanship. Suppose an owner of a potato patch near the Canadian line opposed it. Imagine that a potato patch must control the destiny of a nation. He did not appeal to politics but to that statesmanship which would give to our people an opportunity to have the benefit of the broad domain north of the St. Lawrence.

Canada would be assimilated—he did not use the word "annexed" as it might be unpleasant to some people. It was so written in the book of destiny. The people of Canada were our kith and kin and a very good assortment too. The highway to assimilation was closer commercial relations, because where a man's treasure was, there would be his heart also.

Two Chicago Boodlers Said to be in Toronto—"Old Hutch" Robbed.

CHICAGO, Jan. 24.—Benjamin Peters Hutchinson, more familiarly known as "Old Hutch," has again been robbed. Tommy Stoner, one of his settling clerks on the Board of Trade, is now in Toron to the embezzler of from $35,000 to $40,000. Bert King, a clerk for W. P. Dickinson & Co., a firm on the same floor with Hutchinson, it is alleged, was in the conspiracy, and Dickinson is a loser of $7000 to $15,000. King is also in Toronto. Both clerks went home Tuesday complaining that they had la grippe. They have not been seen here since. Yesterday the books were examined and the thefts were revealed. Dickinson's books had been badly mutilated. The stealing had been going on for some time, and until the accounts of both firms are settled there is no way of arriving at the actual amount.

Avenged His Wife's Wrongs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 24.—L. L. Bromwell, president of the California Insurance Company, was shot and badly wounded in his office here to-day by G. C. Pratt, general agent of the company. The shooting caused a sensation. Pratt was arrested. He says he was recently sent to Japan by Bromwell and upon returning one week ago received from his wife the confession that she had been seduced by Bromwell. Both men are widely known in business and social circles. Pratt was married 20 years ago and has two sons. Bromwell also has a family and has one of the finest houses in Oakland. Pratt said one of his principal reasons for his act was that his wife by reason of her betrayal has become insane.

Anarchist Most's Conviction.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The general term of the Supreme Court has affirmed the conviction of Johann Most and his sentence to one year's imprisonment in the penitentiary. Most was convicted of using language tending to incite riot during a speech at an anarchist meeting held in November, 1887, to express indignation at the hanging of their Chicago brethren. An appeal was taken and Most was released on bail. A bench warrant for his arrest was issued this afternoon.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

DALHOUSIE VISITS GLADSTONE HAWARDEN CASTLE.

This "Gospel Gladstone" Says the Gospel is the Only Guidance of the Dog—Gladstone Exchanges Is Spanish Sunrise Images for the Queen of Greece.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 24.—To-day Rev. Dr. Talmage of Brooklyn took luncheon and spent the afternoon with Mr. Gladstone at Hawarden Castle. Mr. Gladstone had telegraphed an invitation to the preacher. Dr Talmage was received cordially and the two gentlemen had a long talk on religious and political questions. Mr. Gladstone said: "Talk about questions of the day, there is but one question and that is the gospel. It can and will correct everything needing correction. All men at the head of great movements are Christian men. During the many years I was in the cabinet I was brought into association with sixty master minds and all but five of them were Christians. My only hope for the world is in bringing the human mind into contact with divine revelation."

After luncheon the two men linked arms and took a walk over Mr. Gladstone's estate, its proprietor commenting lovingly on his wonderful trees. He inquired eagerly if Americans paid proper attention to tree culture.

Dr. Talmage asked if the cause of Irish Home Rule would be victorious. Mr. Gladstone responded emphatically: "Yes, when next election comes." He continued: "It seems to be a dispensation of God that I should be engaged in battle. At my time of life I should be resting. I never had any option in these matters. I dislike contest, but when Ireland once the refuge of persecuted Englishmen showed herself ready to adopt a righteous constitution and do her full duty, I hesitated not a moment to espouse her cause."

Concerning America he said: "No one outside of the United States is bound to love it more than I am." Pointing to numerous beautiful gifts from America he said: "Everywhere I have practical expression of the tender thoughtfulness and kindness of the American people."

A NARROW ESCAPE.

The Queen of Greece Entangled in an Electric Light Wire.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—While the Queen of Greece was walking in the grounds of the palace yesterday afternoon an electric light wire became detached from its fastenings and fell upon her in such a manner as to encircle her body. She struggled to free herself but her efforts only resulted in binding her more securely. The wire was carrying no current at the time, but the hour when it should be turned on for the evening was near, a fact which Her Majesty fully realized. Attendants rushed to her assistance and she was extricated, but not a moment too soon, for scarcely had she been freed when the deadly current was turned on and brilliant lights flashed in every direction.

FOR BETTER FACILITIES.

Whitby and other Towns Agitating for Railway Accommodation.

WHITBY, Jan. 24.—The council is again moving in regard to betterment of our railway arrangements. The public is awakening to the disadvantages of a railway station two miles from the centre of town and dangerous of approach. Whitby is not alone in this respect. The towns east are more or less the same way. A special committee of the Town Council, to which the matter is referred, propose holding a conference with representatives of these municipalities to see what can be done before the Grand Trunk double tracking through here further confirms the mistake of the original alignment. The Canadian Pacific Railway also might relieve these suffering communities by the proposed line from Agincourt on the Ontario and Quebec division through these towns.

IMPORTANT!

Remarkable Restoration to Health of Well Known Canadians whose Cases were Given up as Incurable.

From the few of the hundreds of letters we have received from those who have been restored to health and strength by the use of that wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound, we make a few extracts. We hope that the thousands of Canadian men and women who are suffering from nervous and wasting diseases, will profit by these true and plain statements of facts.

D. S. Davidson, of Montreal, suffered for years with nervous dyspepsia, pain in his back, and sleeplessness. He tried doctors without relief, was losing flesh rapidly, and had about given up heart when he commenced the use of Paine's Celery Compound. "Now," he says, "I am a new man. I sleep well and my food does not hurt me."

Mr. Jas. Johnson, 302 St. Charles Borromee Street, Montreal, was weak and nervous, had no appetite, and could not rest at night. His nerves were soothed and strengthened by Paine's Celery Compound, and he soon became well and strong.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P. Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

A customer of Harrison Bros., druggist, Hamilton, Ont., told them that he was entirely cured of nervous weakness by the use of two bottles of the Compound, after everything else has failed.

The little child of Mrs. G. E. Meredith, 56 D'Arcy St., Toronto, was saved of St. Vitus' Dance by Paine's Celery Compound.

THE "GOOD SAMARITAN" INN

Otherwise the New Nicholls' Hospital.

To Be (Opened on Tuesday) Next—And Officially Handed Over to the Trustees by Mrs. Nicholls—The New Hospital Building—Its Situation and External Appearance—Magnificent Grounds—Description of the Interior—Pen and Ink Reption of the Architect's Plans—Convenience and Elegance—Sanitary Arrangements of the Most Modern Approved Character—Plumbing, Heating and Ventilation the Best that Can be Introduced—A Magnificent Memorial Window.

On Tuesday next the new Nicholls' Hospital building will be opened with due formality. The building has been completed for some time, but the formal opening had been postponed owing to the illness of Mrs. Nicholls, the donor of the hospital. A few months ago the EXAMINER gave a full description of the structure, but considering the great interest in the subject, it will doubtless be of interest to describe the building again.

It will be generally remembered that in the spring of 1885, Mrs. Charlotte J. Nicholls tendered the town, as a memorial of her late husband, who died the previous autumn, the Moira Hall residence for the purpose of a hospital, the gift being accompanied with an endowment of $15,000. The public will also gratefully recollect, how successful the Nicholls' Hospital has been in the fulfilment of the benevolent intentions of the foundress, and that in the fall of 1887, the fact that the Moira Hall for several reasons, was unsuitable for the purposes of a hospital, coming to Mrs. Nicholls' knowledge, she generously offered to give $25,000, a sufficient sum for a new site and a new hospital building. The site selected and procured is situated north of Argyle street, at an with an environment of ample breathing space supplying the conditions of abundance of pure, fresh air, and cheerful outlook in every direction.

The building is a handsome structure of 2½ stories in height, the main edifice 40x104 feet in area, with a rear wing 32x50, and a one story annex for the various offices, 18x56, and another structure at right angles to this, 18x40. The building is of the Queen Anne style. The stone foundations are built up four feet above the level of the lawn, and above them the red brick work, beautifully tuck pointed, rises gracefully with its cut freestone dressings—window sills and caps and string courses. The central portion of the facade is recessed about seven feet and the verandah and balconies that extend between the flanking portions, as well as the gables that surmount the latter, agreeably break the monotony which a plain expanse of front would present. An effective feature of the brick work is the panels in rock face brick work beneath the gable windows. From the middle of the front a pointed tower, with hooded dormers on its four sides, ascends. There are two entrances to the grounds of the hospital. One is at the foot of the slope, which is, however, not a slope but a succession of terraces about fifteen feet in height each. This drive proceeds along the base northward, and at the further end of the grounds takes an ascending sweep to the level of the lawn and upper grounds, passes in front of the hospital and terminates at the top of the hill, where it joins Argyle street at its junction with Sunnyside street. From the drive in front several broad steps lead to the main entrance. Passing through a vestibule, 8x14 feet with a seat on the right, the principal hall, fourteen feet in width, is reached.

One striking feature of the main entrance hall is the erected by the trustees of the hospital in memory of the late Robert Nicholls, and in honour of his wife, the donor of the hospital building and grounds. The window is placed on one side of the partition separating the main hall from the vestibule, balancing the folding doors also fitted with stained glass. The size of the window is 4 feet in breadth and 7 feet in height. The subject of the beautiful picture which composes the window is our Lord's pathetic parable of the Good Samaritan. The foreground shows the Samaritan supporting the poor man who "fell among thieves" upon his ass and bearing him to an inn. At the foot of the group the wayside grass and flowers spring up. In the middle distance is seen the Heartless Levite passing "by on the other side" reading his scroll with a unctuousness absorption and leaving to the despised Samaritan the work of mercy. In the background the rocky way from "Jerusalem to Jericho" is very happily depicted, rock, trees and water filling in the details. The whole scene is powerfully shown, and is more free than usual from the conventional stiffness of outline and inflexibility of detail inseparable from the emphatic nature of the materials. The lower part of the window contains this legend:—

"This Window was Erected by the Trustees of the Nicholls Hospital, to the Memory of Robert Nicholls, Esquire, and in honor of his wife, Charlotte Jane, who Donated this Hospital in the year 1889."

The window was supplied by Messrs. Elliott & Son, Toronto, who also supplied the other stained glass in the folding doors and in the transom.

From the hall, on the left opens the office and from it the lady superintendent's sitting room, the latter with an open fire place and a French window opening upon the verandah, and on the right the reception parlour similarly finished. At right angles to the hall a corridor extends eight feet in width from end to end of the building. From this corridor, in the front range of apartments on the right of the main hall open the reception room and two large wards at either end of the building, each 23 x 25 feet.

On the opposite side of the corridor on the left of the main hall on this floor is the dispensary, composed of a waiting room and private apartment. The waiting room gives on to a verandah formed by a recess, which provides an entrance distinct from the main one. At each end of this corridor on this side are bath rooms and flush closets. At the middle of this side of the corridor and opposite the main entrance is placed that leads to the next floor. However before ascending, one follows the hall rearward to its termination in a corridor, which admits on the right to the dining hall for the nurses and patients, connected by an archway. Accessory to this are pantries, etc. The corridor, which is in the rear annex, has an outer door, leading to a verandah but four wide extending the whole length of the annex—fifty feet. A passage extends rearward to the spacious kitchen which is filled with a capacious range furnished with a hood to extract and carry off the odours of cooking. On the right side of this passage is a pantry containing the hoist for elevating the food prepared for patients. The hoist extends to the upper story, the well enclosing it having openings on all the floors. On the left of the passage is the back staircase. Off the kitchen is a large pantry, with sinks and every conceivable convenience. In the one story annex are conveniently a second kitchen and the laundry a most important part of the hospital. This is provided with stationary tubs of slate, one side of which is a washboard, the corrugations chiseled out of the slate. These are provided with hot and cold water. A special boiler and stove are among the complete equipments of this department. Next comes also completely equipped for its purposes. Along the whole front of this one story wing runs a broad verandah, which terminates at the wounded, store rooms, etc., etc.

These compose the accommodations of the first floor. Returning and ascending the stairs one reaches the second floor, with hall and corridors corresponding in size and use to the first. In the middle of the front range of rooms is a sort of ante-chamber to a private ward on the left and giving access also to the second floor balcony. On this side of the corridor there is also one other private ward and two large general wards, the counterparts of the floor below. On the other side of the corridor to the left of the main stairs is with excellent light and all the necessary appliances. At each end of the rear part of this floor are also two bath rooms and flush closets. There are also another private ward and broom rooms, and balconies corresponding to the verandahs in the recesses of the first story.

The landing of the principal stairs is a corridor, leading on the left to a balcony 10x30 feet. On the right of a passage leading to the maternity ward, are linen closets and pantry provided with sink for washing the dishes used by patients before they are sent below on the hoist which passes through this room. On the left of this passage is the matron's pantry and the back stairs to the third floor. The maternity ward is a large airy room opening on the large south balcony.

The third floor of the main building contains a central room opening on a balcony, two large general wards, private wards and the sleeping rooms of nurses and servants.

The third floor of the annex contains the termination of the hoist and sleeping rooms for nurses, etc.

THE TANKS FOR HOT AND COLD WATER ARE also in the third story. The hot water tanks are heated by a separate tubular boiler in the basement, and the cold water tanks are for storage in case of a temporary interruption of water supply.

There are altogether accommodations for about 70 patients—ten private wards and six general wards with ten beds each, not to mention the large maternity ward in the annex. All the wards both general and private are spacious, and well lighted, while special attention has been devoted to securing the best sanitary conditions.

With this object in view, the hot water system of heating has been adopted. It has many advantages—there is no danger from fire—the heat is more evenly distributed—there can be no explosion as sometimes occurs when steam is used—the air is not vitiated and desiccated by overheating.

The Gurney hot water system is the one in use. In the basement are situated two of Gurney's largest hot water boilers, and radiators are placed in all the rooms—sufficiently large to give a heat of

SEVENTY DEGREES IN THE COLDEST WEATHER.

Mr. McAndrew, a former townsman, now of Toronto, superintended for the Messrs. Gurney, the putting in of the heating apparatus.

In connection with the heating the Gurney gold pin radiator is used for indirect heating. Fresh cold air from the outside enters a box of coils in the basement and the warm air heated to about 70 is conveyed to the halls into which it passes through registers and finds its way into the rooms. The means for supplying pure air are the best yet devised. In all the rooms and wards are foul air flues opening near the floor and cold air is admitted through large metal pipes controlled by a valve. This pure cold air enters the room near the ceiling and mixes with the warm air. In addition, all the rooms have open fireplaces, as much for ventilation as for warmth. And there are no tiny, toy tinsman's firepots set in the wall, either, but the largest grates procurable have been used.

But the most attention has been given to the most important matter, in a sanitary sense, that is, the plumbing. There is no tile drain whatever inside the building, the soil pipes being of iron extending six feet outside the foundation walls, and these are outside the building. The system of soil pipes passes up through the several floors, taking the waste from the different fixtures, and passes out through the roof. A smaller iron pipe passes up alongside it its whole course and this is used to ventilate all the traps and prevents all syphoning and back pressure in them. This is a feature generally overlooked in all work of this kind done here. The soil pipe is of cast iron with lead joints. These, as well as the lead pipes, are of specified weight and the latter have "wiped" joints—something only used in first class work. The lead pipes are connected to iron soil pipes with brass ferules and all pipes are exposed, easy of access in case of need. They are painted to correspond with the paint of the room.

All the fixtures have standing wastes (removable for cleaning), in place of the old style of overflow pipes. This admits of cleaning the parts and of an avoidance of

A FRUITFUL SOURCE OF FOUL SMELLS.

All the water closets are flush closets—the latest style, and each closet has its own flush tank. The traps to all the fixtures are the "Bower" trap which holds a large quantity of water, thus elevating the dipper entirely by evaporation, and every trap is thoroughly ventilated. There are also supplied five bath tubs and seven marble wash basins and two sinks—copper and enamelled iron. The latter, five in number, are of enamelled iron, without any seams. All the fixtures are supplied with hot and cold water, a special tubular boiler in the basement being used for hot water. Each stack of soil pipes has its own tank to supply water in case of failure of waterworks temporarily. All the plumbing has been done to the specifications of the architect, Mr. W. Blackwell, according to the plumbing by-law of the city of Toronto, and in this, as in all other respects, he has been most assiduous in his efforts to see that none but the best work in every department has been done. That he has succeeded, there is little room for doubt.

PROTECTION FROM FIRE.

The most ample provisions have been made for protection from the consequences of fire. Centrally placed, on every floor, are hydrants with fifty feet of hose, coiled ready for use in case of need. From the highest balcony hose can be escaped from one to another descend, till the ground is reached. There are five of these at different points.

The floors throughout are of maple laid in planks of narrow width. The wood work as well as the walls and ceiling, is painted in cheerful neutral tints, and one peculiarity of all the wards and rooms is the abundance of facilities for securing direct light, and for gaining access to the outer air in suitable weather by means of balconies and verandahs. From all these, and from the front and end windows a magnificent view of the town and country is obtained, and especially from the attic room windows in the main tower. In the foreground is the river running rapidly, and beyond greenly wooded hill and dale and crop-clad slope. Nor is the picture all still life. There in the traffic on George street visible, and in different directions the view obtainable of the rushing trains on the railways, serves to break the monotony of the confinement in a sick room.

A SPLENDID STRETCH OF DIVERSIFIED SCENERY,

Water is supplied the hospital and grounds from the waterworks mains.

In the rear of the grounds are the brick stable and coach house with stabling for horses and cows. Here is also the ice house, a wooden building. In rear of all is the morgue, a brick building with concrete floor and lighted from the roof, a circumstance which admits of its being used for post mortem operations, if necessary. A careful survey of the new hospital building reveals the fact that it is entirely and autocratically built. Not only have the structural conditions been carefully supervised but in every respect the arrangements tend to secure comfort of patients, the convenience of attendants, the most desirable temperature and the

MOST PERFECT POSSIBLE SANITARY CONDITIONS

In these respect the plumbing and heating play an important part and they have been well done. In fact all those connected with the building operations have performed their part satisfactorily. Mr. W. Blackwell is the architect, Mr. A. Rutherford contractor, and sub-contractors were as follows:—Stonemasonry, Mr. H. Sherwood; brickwork, Mr. P. J. McNamara; plastering, Mr. W Whitehair; painting, M. Carton. Besides these were separate contracts for the hot water heating, Messrs. E. & C. Gurney, Toronto, plumbing, Adam Hall, and Mr. A. Blade, the grading, terracing and sodding of the grounds.

Day and Night

During an acute attack of Bronchitis, a ceaseless tickling in the throat, and an exhausting, dry, hacking cough, afflict the sufferer. Sleep is banished, and great prostration follows. This disease is also attended with Hoarseness, and sometimes Loss of Voice. It is liable to become chronic, involve the lungs, and terminate fatally. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral affords speedy relief and cure in cases of Bronchitis. It controls the disposition to cough, and induces refreshing sleep.

I have been a practicing physician for twenty-four years, and, for the past twelve, have suffered from annual attacks of Bronchitis. After exhausting all the usual remedies

Without Relief,

I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It helped me immediately, and effected a speedy cure.—G. Stoveall, M.D., Carrollton, Miss.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is decidedly the best remedy, within my knowledge, for chronic Bronchitis, and all lung diseases. —M. A. Rust, M. D., South Paris, Me.

I was attacked, last winter, with a severe Cold, which, from exposure, grew worse and finally settled on my Lungs. By night sweats I was reduced almost to a skeleton. My Cough was incessant, and I frequently spit blood. My physician told me to give up business, or I would not live a month. After taking various remedies without relief, I was finally two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I am now in perfect health, and able to resume business, after having been pronounced incurable with Consumption.—S. P. Henderson, Saulsburgh, Penn.

For years I was in a decline. I had weak lungs, and suffered from Bronchitis and Catarrh. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral restored me to health, and I have been for a long time comparatively vigorous. In case of a sudden cold I always resort to the Pectoral, and find speedy relief.—Edward E. Curtis, Rutland, Vt.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Bronchitis. The physician attending me became fearful that the disease would terminate in Pneumonia. After trying various medicines, without benefit, he finally prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved me at once. I continued to take this medicine a short time, and was cured. —Ernest Colton, Logansport, Ind.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

CHAPTER XVII.

ON A NEWPORT VERANDA.

OUR story moves along a day or two, and we are carried to Newport.

On a bluff overlooking a wide expanse of water, and well along the drive, stands a cottage, which elsewhere might be called a mansion, yet as compared with its neighbors it is small.

It has many angles, short towers and high ones; many gables, curious windows, like eyes, in long sloping roofs—a recessed balcony here, and verandas cropping out there, in unexpected places, and a jumble of corners, projections and angles, yet all orderly, harmonious and artistic.

On the veranda which adjoins the porte cochere, a young lady paces up and down with evident impatience. The sun, slowly sinking into the west, sends its rays shooting under the roof of the veranda and lights up with golden gleams the shining hair of Flora Ashgrove.

The house is the summer residence of Robert Witherspoon, and therefore the summer home of the lady.

The roll of carriage wheels in the distance attracts her attention, and she leans over the railing.

The carriage turning into sight, she views it with great expectancy plainly manifest on her beautiful face.

In a moment more she is enabled to ascertain its occupant, and as she does so a smile of relief wreathes itself about her rosy lips.

The carriage draws up at the steps and the occupant who alights is—

Harry Fountain.

She greets him with suppressed joy.

She hurries him off in charge of a servant, bidding him to hasten to a meeting with her on the veranda as soon as he can remove the stains of travel.

Then she seats herself in one of the willow chairs which invite repose. She leans her head upon her hand, her elbow resting upon the arm of the chair, and she relapses into a deep study.

The thoughts she indulges are evidently not pleasant, for she frowns and her face is dark.

Thus she sits when Fountain, newly arrayed, rejoins her. He says gayly:

"You perceive how obedient I am. You command and I am here."

She looks at him gloomily and says she is glad to see him.

"I should only know it," he retorts, "by your saying so, ma belle."

She looks at him angrily as she replies:

"You can be very gay under all the circumstances. Is the distance from New York so great that you feel perfectly at ease here?"

He looks down upon her somewhat puzzled, for he is standing in front of her. He draws a chair closer to her and sits down very deliberately.

"Flora," he says slowly, but gazing at her steadily, "your moods are inexplicable. For the past three weeks I have not understood you. When I saw you last in New York you were nervousness personified, and you treated me at times with disdain, and sometimes I imagined positively with aversion. Then comes your imperative summons to come hither, disregarding as nothing my reasons for remaining in New York. Now, tell me, what is the meaning of your strange conduct?"

"You have then observed my conduct?" she returns, with an expression of contempt as she looks over the water. "Can you find no reason for it?"

"Upon my word I cannot. If you have fault to find with me speak out, and don't resort to innuendo."

"Innuendo," she repeats, with fine scorn in her tones. "Harry Fountain, are you a hypocrite, or the coldest blooded man who lives?"

I do not think you are well," he replies. "I shall advise your uncle to consult a physician."

"Don't treat me as if I were a child," she answers, passionately. "I am entitled to your confidence if to nothing else. Does not your conscience reproach you, or have you none?"

"The charge of withholding confidence from you comes with but ill grace, Flora," he said sternly. "I jeopardized my chances of peace, comfort and happiness in this world in order that I might give you my confidence. You hold every secret of my life—you know that of me which no other person in this world knows."

"Except one—except one," she cried passionately, leaping to her feet and striding up and down the veranda. "Except one, and from the consequences of that one I would save you at the risk of my own life and honor, though it seems to me I hate you, hate you for it."

Fountain regarded her with amazement, and his face grew pale as he muttered under his breath, "Is it possible that she can have been informed by some one?"

He stopped her as she passed him, and forced her to sit down.

"I do not know what you refer to," he replied. "From the time I confessed my love for you I have concealed nothing from you I considered important, or which could or ought to affect our relations, even remotely."

"Oh, indeed! Have I had a record in your daily life?"

"No, you have not, nor will I give it you. The number of cigars I smoke, the glasses of wine I drink, the passages of the daily life of a young man of leisure, permissible in a bachelor, if to be condemned in a benedict, I have not given, nor will I give; nor would any broad minded girl, such as I have regarded you until the past three weeks, demand them."

"Passages in the life of a young man of leisure—such, for instance, as strange disguises at late hours of night."

He flushed a dull red through his dark skin.

"I do not know to what you refer," he replied.

"You do not know," she repeated scornfully, and then, lifting her hands before her face as she clasped them so tightly as to fairly pain her, she cried in agonized tones, "I cannot, I cannot bring myself to speak of it to him. My God, can I not hate him? must I go on loving him in spite of myself?"

MEMORY

DISCOVERY AND TRAINING METHOD

In spite of widespread business which spoke the opinion, and practical results of the Original, it seems to the greatest misrepresented upon by various persons who, and in spite of "base attempts to palm off" of the fraud of his system, (all of which, fortunately, the public have seen through and condemned), the Prof. Loisette's Art of Memory Training is recognized by both Science and Common Sense as the best system of Memory Culture. His Prospectus (issued free) still gives opinions of people in all parts of the globe who have actually studied his System by correspondence, showing that his System is now only what it never pretended to be—a method, not something stored, &c. THE OLD RELIABLE.
The Canada Life
Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder:"

When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5,040,182, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calendar year, the result of which would be to reduce the ensuing one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would curtail it considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $840,182 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525,000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300,000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management. dw

A Social in Smith.

A parlour social will be held at the residence of Mr. Thomas Edgar, Communication Road, Smith, on Tuesday evening, Jan. 28th, in aid of the funds of the Bridgenorth Methodist church. A good programme will be rendered during the evening. Mr. Edgar's residence is at a pleasant driving distance from Peterborough, and the Methodists of the Bridgenorth circuit will be glad to welcome their friends in Peterborough at Mr. Edgar's on Tuesday evening next.

Concert at Indian River.

Friday afternoon a 'bus load of about twenty persons drove down to Indian River, where a concert was given in the school house by Miss B. Fairweather, of Peterborough, and some of her village pupils. The concert was a success, and displayed a proficiency in both teacher and pupils which reflected credit upon the musical abilities of all concerned. Other Peterborough friends also took part. At the close of the concert lunch was served to the performers and Peterborough visitors, the latter of whom reached home shortly after midnight.

A Great Risk.

This is the time when it is dangerous to incur risks. Yesterday an enthusiastic Scotchman brought to the EXAMINER a bill of fare of a banquet at San Francisco, with the names of the dishes printed in the crankiest of broad Scotch. He asked to have it republished in the EXAMINER, but was told that, while the EXAMINER delighted to please Scotchmen, it could not run the risk of breaking the printing press. There is not the slightest degree of risk, however, in buying tea at hawley bros.'s, who keep in stock the finest and freshest brands of all kinds of tea, and also the best coffees. dw

Sunday School Social.

The first annual social of the Baptist Sunday school in the South Ward was held last night. There was a good attendance of the parents and friends, and a full attendance of the children. The pastor, Rev. P. Clifton Parker, opened with prayer. Mr. E. J Colville presided. Quite an elaborate programme had been prepared, consisting of readings, recitations, songs and glees. The children went through this programme with great credit to themselves and their instructors. Addresses were delivered by Rev. P. C. Parker, Messrs. Coville, Routley and Miss M. Mann, Miss Kernaghan and Messrs. W. Mann, S. Mann and Herb. Dix gave several instrumental quartettes during the evening, and Messrs. T. Graham and W. Mann a duet. Bags of candy, cake and fruit were distributed to the children during the evening. The report showed that during the year the sum of $127 had been received and expended on the work. The following are some of the workers who should have the credit for the success of the same:—Misses M. Mann and S. Mann, Miss Minore, Mrs. Cuckoo, and Messrs. W. Mann, E. J. Kidd, E. J. Colville and H. Grundy.

Painless Extraction of Teeth.

By reference to an important dental announcement in another column, it will be seen that Mr. A. J. Robertson, L.D.S., late of Toronto, has opened an office for the practice of his profession in Cox's block, near the post office, same entrance as to Green's photograph gallery. Mr. Robertson has most successfully practised his profession in Toronto for some years, but on account of ill health disposed of his practice and returned to his former home in Norwood, where he has been recruiting for several months. Mr. Robertson holds the exclusive right for the town and county of Peterborough to use the dental electric vibrator, a new invention for the painless extraction of teeth, and in order to introduce the instrument to the public announces that on certain days he will give its use free of charge to any persons who may desire it. Mr. Robertson has many friends in Peterborough who will welcome him as a worthy citizen and wish him every success in his profession.

Fire in Smith.

Last night the house of Mr. B. E. Vanalstine, in Smith township, about a mile from Peterborough, was totally destroyed by fire. The reflection was plainly visible in town. Mr. and Mrs. Vanalstine were sitting at the tea table, their sick child lying in the cradle, when their attention was attracted by a crackling noise in the upper part of the house, and on going upstairs it was found that the whole place was ablaze. In all probability the fire originated from a defective stovepipe. Being a frame structure the house was speedy consumed, and nearly all the contents were destroyed also. None of the neighbours noticed the conflagration in time to be of any assistance, and Mr. and Mrs. Vanalstine alone were able to save only a small portion of the household goods. The house was burned to the ground. A winter's supply of potatoes and other provisions in the cellar were also lost. There was an insurance of only $200 on the building and contents in the Norwich Union. Mr. and Mrs. Vanalstine will be sympathised with in their privation, which to them means more than the actual monetary loss might imply.

The Foresters' Concert.

Court Peterborough, of the Canadian Order of Foresters, held a tea and concert in its handsome hall on Simcoe street last night. The wives and lady friends of the Foresters provided the supper at six o'clock in the dining room and a good number partook of the edibles. At eight o'clock the concert was began in the main hall, Mr. A. McNeil, P.C. R., occupying the chair—and delivering a brief address appropriate to the occasion, referring particularly to the benefits of Forestry. The following varied and interesting programme was rendered, the fine new piano lately purchased by Court Peterborough being used in the accompaniments:

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM.

After the programme the floor was cleared and the young people were allowed full swing to orchestra music for a couple of hours. The concert was a success, and netted a nice little sum to Court Peterbrough.

Important Dental Announcement.

Alex. J. Robertson, Dentist, No. 140½ Hunter street, believes he makes the most important dental announcement ever made to the Peterborough public, when he says that a means of extracting teeth, absolutely WITHOUT THE LEAST PAIN, has been discovered, and that, too, without making the patient unconscious or in any way interfering in the slightest with a person's ordinary condition. The method is perfectly harmless, even to a little child, or to those who have heart or lung troubles. For many years electricity has been experimented with to produce the results accomplished by the "Dental Electric Vibrator," but always heretofore unsuccessfully. It is now an accomplished fact, however, that any number of teeth can be EXTRACTED WITHOUT THE SLIGHTEST PAIN, and in order to give the people of Peterborough an opportunity to become convinced of the wonderful results attained by the "Vibrator," Mr. Robertson will name Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, between the hours of 10 and 12.30 a.m., as days upon which he will cheerfully extract teeth for all who wish, and in any number, free of all cost. No person need feel themselves under the least obligation because of this, since Mr. Robertson will be more than repaid if he convinces you of the marvellous merit of the "Dental Electric Vibrator."

Re Croft vs. Peterborough.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

SIR,—A letter, signed "Observer," appeared in your issue of yesterday casting some reflections upon Mr. E. B. Edwards's reputation as a municipal lawyer. It is said that but for Mr. Sanderson, Mr. Edwards would, before this, have ceased "to shine as a legal light," Whilst I admire Mr. Sanderson's ability and have always been much impressed with his capacity for public affairs, a sense of justice demands that a word be said for Mr. Edwards though it may be superfluous. Some of the leaders of the Bar in Canada have, to my knowledge, spoken in the highest terms of our Town and County Solicitor, placing him in the very front rank of the expounders of municipal law. In such a case as this, Mr. Edwards cannot defend himself against his anonymous critic, therefore I hope that you will excuse my humble interference.

Yours &c.,
J. HAMPDEN BURNHAM.

Personal.

Mrs. Stevenson, wife of the Mayor, is very ill.

Mr. C. H. Sheffield is so ill that his condition is considered dangerous.

Mr. Jack Downer left this morning for Toronto, where he has secured employment.

Mr. Montgomery, who was recently transferred to the Peterborough branch of the Bank of Montreal, leaves in a few days for Brockville, Mr. Miles Hamilton, of that town, taking his place here.

Mr. Thomas Brooks, of the Lock Works, to-day received intelligence of the death of another relative, his nephew, Mr. Chas. Brooks Spencer, at Meriden, Conn. His death was due to complications consequent upon an attack of epidemic influenza.

News Nuggets.

—The monthly Children's Service takes place at St. John's to-morrow at 3.30. Adults are heartily welcome.

—Messrs. Ransey and Blackwell have removed their office from the Cox block to Mr. Dumble's block, near Mayor Stevenson's office.

—A prominent physician states that while la grippe appears to be slowly passing away, there are yet a large number of cases, and most of them of a more serious nature than when the epidemic first appeared. In nearly all the cases which have come under his charge recently, the doctor notices the presence of more or less serious lung troubles.

Ashburnham Brevities.

The Rev. J. W. McCleary is so far recovered as to be able to take the services on Sunday.

The want of the second snow plough was felt yesterday. Some of the main streets in the north end of the village were not cleared until beaten by feet. As the only expense will be the cost of the plough the council should at once purchase one.

Taxpayers have just five days more to balance accounts with the collector. After Friday next legal proceedings may be entered into at any time for the recovery of all uncollected taxes. A word to the wise is sufficient.

The corporation snow plough is a very treacherous animal, particularly when ridden by amateurs. On his first round Friday Mr. Frith was thrown from it and severely hurt in the side.

The attendance at the school for the last two days was so small that they were taught by two teachers, the other two being absent on account of severe attacks of influenza. However, it is expected the teachers will be on duty on Monday.

SKIN DISEASES are most annoying because so noticeable. Dr. Low's Sulphur Soap heals and cleanses the skin. dw

Charged with Attempted Rape

A Middletown Wretch who took Liberties With a Woman old Enough to Be his Mother — Arrested and Bailed the Base on Four Separate Charges.

The EXAMINER on Friday contained an account of a tramp's unpardonable and brutal conduct towards an Otonabee farmer and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. McNevan, who had given him employment. A warrant for the fellow's arrest was sworn out and this morning he was apprehended on George street by P.C. Stewart. Since Wednesday last, the date of his alleged indecencies, Thos. Bowman, for that is the name of this remarkable looking and physically well developed brute, has been in the country looking for work, and only arrived in town this morning. He still [illegible] the long rubber coat with which he left the farm, and had left his valise at the C.P.R. station. He was at once looked up [illegible] brought before P.M. Edmison and remanded till Monday for trial. He elected to be tried summarily.

Bowman's misdemeanors are serious ones. There are no less than four charges against him—assault with intent to commit rape upon the person of Mrs. McNevan, indecent exposure of person, the larceny of a small sum of money, about 75c., from the house, and common assault upon Mr. McNevan. Mr. McNevan is in town to-day and has identified the prisoner. He and his wife are people well advanced in years, and well known and highly respected in the community in which they live. Bowman came to this country from England when a lad of six years and has since been tramping about the country, having no fixed abode. He has been in town before, and worked for some time with Mr. John Moore, Asburn. He is now about 23 years of age, stalwart, ruddy faced and rather good looking.

After Bowman's arrest Mr. Wm. Stewart, of Otonabee, reported to the police that the prisoner, who stopped at his place last night, had stolen his Persian lamb cap on leaving this morning. Bowman confessed the theft and stated the cap was in his valise at the station.

For Mercy's Sake.

A Humane Society to be Organized in Peterborough—The Initial Steps taken.

Last week a letter appeared in the EXAMINER advocating the formation of a Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, the letter having been drawn out by an article in the EXAMINER a few days previously, describing the cruelty which had been perpetrated against a steer while being driven to the slaughter house. The writer asked all persons who recognized the need of such a Society to forward their names to Box "L," and they would be notified of an organization meeting to be called at an early date. In response to the call a number of people interested themselves in the matter, and Friday afternoon a meeting was held in the Y.M.C.A. rooms for the purpose of taking steps to organize the Society.

There was a goodly number of ladies and gentlemen in attendance, and considerable enthusiasm was manifested in the formation of the Society. Mr. J. H. Roper was placed in the chair, and Mr. R. R. Hall appointed secretary pro tem. It was resolved on motion of Rev. Mr. Kenrick, seconded by Miss Mills, to organize a Society to be known as the Humane Society of Peterborough, whose objects are the protection of children and animals, the former from cruel treatment and neglect at the hands of unworthy parents or guardians, and the latter, particularly horses, from beating, ill-feeding, over-loading, etc., by brutal drivers or owners. These Societies are too well known to require a fuller exposition of their principles. They are entirely non-sectarian, people of all creeds and classes in life, with the cause at heart being welcomed to membership.

A committee consisting of Rev. C. B. Kenrick, Mr. J. H. Roper, Mrs. Jas. Kendry, Miss Clara Ludgate and the Secretary, were appointed to communicate with other similar societies for the purpose of getting information as to the rules and regulations and general bylaws governing societies of this kind, and to draft a constitution for submission at the next meeting.

Another informal meeting will be held next Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, when any persons interested are cordially invited to be present. Afterwards a general public meeting will be called, when the matter will be placed before the people in a definite shape. Final organization will then be proceeded with, the membership roll opened, officers elected, constitution adopted, etc. The date of the public meeting has not yet been fixed.

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Munga," and "Madre E Hija," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the later of nearly half a century should convince the most sceptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate, more

"La Grippe" or Lightning Catarrh.

MR. EDITOR,—"La Grippe," or Russian influenza, as it is termed, is in reality an epidemic catarrh, and is called by some physicians "lightning catarrh," from the rapidity with which it sweeps over the country. Allow us to draw the attention of your readers to the fact that Nasal Balm, as well as being a thorough cure for all cases of the ordinary cold in the head and catarrh, will give prompt relief in even the most severe cases of "La Grippe," or Russian influenza, as it will effectually clear the nasal passages, allay irritation and relieve the dull, oppressive headache accompanying the disease. No family should be without a bottle of Nasal Balm in the house, as cold in the head and catarrh are peculiarly liable to attack people at this season of the year, and Nasal Balm is the only prompt and speedy cure for these troubles ever offered the public. Easy to use and agreeable. If you cannot get it at your dealers, it will be sent, post free, on receipt of price (50 cents and $1 per bottle) by addressing FULFORD & Co., Brockville, Ont. ww

AMBITIOUS CITY NOTES.

A Step-Father's Awful Crime—The Agricultural Societies.

HAMILTON, Jan. 24.—John Webb, laborer, was found guilty this morning of criminally assaulting his 14-year-old stepdaughter. Judge Muir sentenced the accused to 18 months in the Central Prison.

The board of directors of the North and South Wentworth Agricultural Societies have not yet amalgamated with the city society to hold the great central fair. To-day they met to discuss the matter, and considerable objection was raised to the way the fair has been run. The country members want to go in for retrenchment and reform.

The reunion of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite ended this evening with a banquet. There was a large attendance at the session to-day. The degrees conferred to-day were from the thirteenth to the thirty-second, Moore Sovereign Consistory.

A Rector and His Club.

The rector of Gwaenygon, in Wales, is a man of more than ordinary energy and enterprise. In an attempt to collect the tithes due him, and which the people are not disposed to pay, he headed a party of bailiffs who were sent to protect the auctioneer in an attempt to distrain. The auctioneer had been driven off three times while making similar attempts, and when it became known that he proposed again to enter the farms, assisted by the bailiffs and the rector himself, a large crowd, armed with sticks, assembled and made a desperate attack upon the distinguished party. The rector fought nobly in defense of his rights, and with a heavy club, which he wielded with great dexterity, he felled four of his flock to the earth. The bailiffs, however, showed less grit and fled with the auctioneer from the field, so that the enterprising rector was forced to yield. He now declares that he might as well turn pirate out and out as attempt to collect the tithes due him from the stubborn Welsh farmers.—London Letter.

Dr. Talmage.

When the last tabernacle was built, Dr. Talmage was receiving a salary of $7,000 a year, and his plan for the new edifice was considered so pretentious that it was feared he could not fill it. He entered into an agreement with the trustees, which was, in effect, that if he did not succeed in filling the tabernacle every Sunday during the year, he would not claim a cent of salary. His success was so great that the huge edifice was absolutely crowded at every service, and his salary was raised to $12,000 a year. People even sat in the aisles until the fire commissioners passed a special resolution forbidding this dangerous practice.—Once a Week.

Fresh Water Freshmen.

The haxing of freshmen seems to be confined to what are known as the fresh-water colleges of late. The older and larger colleges have pretty thoroughly outgrown this species of barbarism. The sooner the smaller institutions catch up with the times the better for all concerned.—Boston Herald.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

THE BANKERS AND THE MINISTER OF FINANCE.

W. Foster Receives a Big Deputation of Moneyed Men—The New in the Government Printing Bureau—The New County Judge of Norfolk.

OTTAWA, Jan. 25.—A large and influential deputation of bankers waited on Hon. George E. Foster, Minister of Finance, in reference to the proposed banking legislation to be introduced into Parliament this session. The deputation was introduced by Senator Lawin, president of the Bank of New Brunswick and chairman of the Bankers' Association, and Mr. George Burn of the Bank of Ottawa.

The deputation remained with the minister for over two hours. The press were excluded. Hon. Mr. Foster in an interview this morning said: "We have had a long and very exhaustive discussion. It is true that a scheme has been discussed for the currency at par of bank notes, issued in any one province, throughout the Dominion, the regulation of circulation and a guarantee fund to cover notes issued by any bank that might have to close its doors. The terms were discussed generally, but no definite decision arrived at. That is all I wish to say at present."

He admitted that at the introduction of the American system was discussed.

One of the most prominent bankers present, in an interview this morning, said: "The most important thing done this morning was to discuss the circulation of notes. It was agreed by all present that all notes should be redeemed at par wherever presented and a guarantee fund be established. I think that 5 per cent. was a great mistake for the guarantee fund. That sum was mentioned this morning for the first time. At Montreal the sum of 5 per cent. was not mentioned but a very much smaller one was thought sufficient. When I say that it was agreed on, I mean by the bankers present, as the minister did not open his mouth. The American system was strongly condemned and almost unanimously. Mr. Walker introduced a scheme and was the chief opponent of a national circulation. The question of national currency was discussed and strongly condemned. The matter was a very one-sided one; the bankers talked and Mr. Foster listened.

Having secured the backing of the International Typographical Union, the printers employed in the Government Bureau here have got the Government in a corner and the increase in wages from $11 to $13 per week seems bound to be made. A special meeting of the Ottawa Union was held last night to consider the matter and among those present was J. B. Keefer of St. Catharines, organizer for Canada, who has been deputed by the International to advise the local union in the matter.

Recently $13 was adopted as the scale for the bur u and last night by a vote of 130 to 36 it w lesided to enforce this scale. The ultima. n will be laid before Mr. Chapleau to-morrow by a deputation consisting of Organizer Keefer, Ald. Frank Farrell, President of the Ottawa Union, and C. S. O. Bondreault. They will be introduced by Mr. Rykert, M.P., and expect to be accompanied by other members of Parliament.

They will tell Mr. Chapleau that unless he agrees to the increase a strike will be ordered at a special meeting to be held for that purpose on Monday night, and that no work will be done in the bureau and no Government work will be permitted to be done elsewhere while the strike lasts. They are further authorized to state that the printers are supported in their demand by labor organizations of all descriptions all over the country.

Of course the printers contend that their demand is of itself righteous, but they freely admit that it would not have been made had they been treated decently in the bureau. They allege that Superintendent Senecal has been a veritable tyrant, that he has irritated the printers by hundreds of little petty meannesses and has acted in a manner which would not have been tolerated for a week by the employes of any private establishment.

The specific grievances have so often been ventilated in the press that it is needless to go over the list again. Prominent, however, of the complaints made is the intolerable nuisance of stopping work on every saint's day observed by the Catholic Church in Quebec, the men being docked the day's wages of course and Protestants as well as Catholics being compelled to observe the holiday.

Then again gross favoritism is charged, Mr. Senecal being said to have voluntarily advanced the wages of cronies of his, who though incompetent workmen made up for their deficiencies in this respect by acting the part of spies. One of the alleged spies was handled without gloves, so to speak, at the meeting last night, and quite an excitement was caused by the episode, the culprit making a very poor defence.

Some of the Opposition members of Parliament are making preparations for a thorough expose of the methods of Superintendent Senecal and those in authority under him, and if the misdoings alleged can be proven the Government will have a heap of trouble in making atonement.

A successor to the late Judge Livingston, County Judge of Norfolk, has been appointed, Mr. Robb, Q.C., of Simcoe being chosen for the place.

Lieutenant-Governor Schultz of Manitoba, is ill and will not be able to open the Provincial Legislature on Thursday and Chief Justice Taylor has therefore been deputed to act for him.

A Montreal firm proposes to solve the problem of providing additional accommodation in the parliamentary building by raising the roof bodily and putting another story under it. There are at present only two stories and the basement. It is suggested to put all offices not in general use on the top story, thus leaving available for committee room purposes and the use of members the present offices.

Lady Stanley, an influenza victim, has been laid up since before the opening of the session. She is still unwell and all festivities at Rideau Hall are off for the present so far as the ladies are concerned.

BAD FOR BISMARCK.

DEFEAT OF THE SOCIALIST BILL IN THE REICHSTAG.

Herr Bebel's Plea.—A Leader of the Anti-socialists Defends the Socialists.—Prorogation of the Reichstag.—The Emperor's Speech.

BERLIN, Jan. 25.—Herr Bebel, Socialist, resumed debate on the Socialist Bill in the Reichstag to-day. He denied that state persecution effected anything towards the destruction of Socialism. He said he was not surprised that the Government sought to render the suppression law permanent, but the Social Democracy was indestructible. The proceedings of the Government toward the Socialists recalled the medieval persecution of heretics. If the means are incapable, as the Government alleged, of forming a political judgment, it was the fault of the Government. Even the simplest minds among the workingmen would become enlightened as soon as the burden of the lately voted taxes, which amounted to millions of marks, was brought home to them. Necessity taught men to think. Herr Bebel compared the present administrative system of Germany with that of Napoleon III. It was to be placed to the credit of the Social Democracy, he said, that Anarchism had disappeared. Herr Most's paper, The Freiheit, was the product of secret police agents and provocateurs. He knew as a fact that the first publisher of The Freiheit was now a police official of Hanover. In concluding his speech Herr Bebel predicted that his party would be found strong enough to destroy the present majority in the Reichstag.

Prince Schonach Carolath, Moderate Conservative, reminded the house of the statement made by the Socialist Dietz at Thursday's sitting that the author of the pamphlet printed in Zurich, entitled "A Woman's Hand in German Policy," was Duke Ernst of Saxe Cobourg Gotha. The manuscript, it was asserted, had been sent to the publisher with some hundred mark notes. The Hamburg police had suppressed a poem about a railroad employe's sacrificing his life to save a train, but this Zurich pamphlet was not suppressed, though English ladies of high rank and a German lady of exalted position, who, though cradled in England, had been connected with Germany for weal or woe for 30 years, were insulted in it. The pamphlet had to find a publisher of it outside of Germany in the Socialist press of Zurich.

A. the Government abstained from any declaration showing its willingness to accept the bill without the expulsion clause, the Conservatives voted "No" with the Progressists, the Centre party, and the Socialists, against the combined yeas of the Imperialists and the National Liberals. The bill was rejected, 169 to 98. As soon as the vote was concluded Herr Boetticher, amid the suppressed excitement of the occasion, announced that the session was closed and requested the Deputies to convene at the Schloss at 6 p.m. Prince Bismarck did not appear in the Chamber during the day.

The Emperor, surrounded by his Minister and the officers of State, received the Deputies in the White Hall of the Schloss at that hour, and read to them an address thanking them in his own name and that of the Federal Government for their faithful and laborious work and hoping for the continued peace and prosperity of the Fatherland, and that the content of the people proceeding therefrom might be the Reichstag's most welcome reward for its labors. The absence from the speech of all political allusions and the failure to make any mention of the Socialist bill surprised everyone.

A Terrible Gale.

LONDON, Jan. 26.—Menai Strait in Wales is rendered impassable by the fury of the gale. Many sailors have been swept overboard and drowned. The Parade at Sandgate is partially destroyed. The ship Irex, from Greenock for Rio Janeiro, was wrecked off the Needles. Several of the crew were drowned. The survivors clung to the rigging all day Saturday and part of Sunday. It was impossible to send a lifeboat to the rescue as no boat could live in the turbulent sea, but a life line was finally shot across the vessel by means of a rocket and in this way the men were safely landed. The Umbria reports the roughest passage ever experienced.

A Montreal Hotel Scorched.

MONTREAL, Jan. 26.—A fire broke out this noon in the Balmoral Hotel, which proved to be of rather a serious nature. Mr. Dawson, one of the guests occupying room 332, was lying on his bed and was awakened by smoke around the steam pipes entering his room. On opening the door the corridor also was found filled with smoke, and he descended by the fire escape to the next story. He climbed in a window and gave the alarm, which soon brought the brigade. By that time the fire was burning fiercely but was soon got under control. The damage from water was heavy and the total loss will amount to $25,000. The building is insured for between $20,000 and $105,000 and the furniture for $30,000.

THE EXTRADITION TREATY.

Provisions of the Document Negotiated by Sir Julian and Mr. Blaine.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The new extradition treaty negotiated by Secretary Blaine with Great Britain and now pending in the Senate "leaked" from the official reservoir and is published to-day. Secretary Blaine and Sir Julian Pauncefote have agreed upon these following crimes in addition to those already included in the present agreement as extraditable:

Manslaughter.
Counterfeiting of money.
Embezzlement of money or other valuable articles.
Fraud by a bailee, banker, or agent or officer of similar character.
Perjury or subornation of perjury.
Rape.
Abduction, child stealing, kidnapping.
Burglary, house breaking or shop breaking.
Piracy, revolt or conspiracy to revolt on ship-board at sea.
Political crimes are not extraditable.

No person surrendered can be tried for crimes of a political character. No person extradited shall be tried for any other crime committed before extradition except the one extradited for until he has had a chance to return to the country extradited from. All articles seized in the possession of the person extradited shall be given up when extradition takes place, unless a competent authority of the state becomes custodian. If several States demand extradition of the same person the State making application first will have priority. Fugitives convicted of extraditable crimes who escape after conviction to be surrendered on evidence of the court record of conviction. The present convention is not to apply to crimes specified which shall have been committed, or convictions pronounced, prior to the date at which the convention shall have come into force.

Accompanying the treaty is a long letter from Secretary Blaine to the President recommending its ratification and explaining and calling attention to the great necessity of providing extradition authority for a large number of crimes for which the perpetrators now find easy refuge in the territory of Great Britain and the United States.

LOUNSBERRY'S CASE.

The Defaulting Cashier of the New York Postoffice.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Postmaster Van Cott spent almost the entire day conducting his investigation into the accounts of George H. Lounsberry, late cashier of the post-office here, who committed suicide at his home when he was about to be arrested for defalcation. The amount of his thefts is shown to be much larger than at first announced. Examination of the postage stamp accounts to-day showed that about $18,000 worth had been carried away and it is stated that Lounsberry's peculations will come between $40,000 and $45,000. Notices sent to Lounsberry's bondsmen brought only one of them, John Mooman. Theodore Hoffman, Lounsberry's partner in the hay business, and Edgar Washburne of Catskill, N.Y., who justified for $20,000 and $15,000 respectively, did not respond. Rumors were afloat to-day that arrests of men connected with the defalcations were to be expected at any moment, but from an authoratative source it was learned that these statements were without foundation. Additional disclosures are expected on Monday however. The present Mrs. Lounsberry was Miss Carrie Wright before her marriage and used to act with Kate Claxton in the "Two Orphans." Mrs. Lounsberry is in a delicate condition, and serious results from the shock were feared last night. To-day she is calmer and immediate danger seems to have passed.

DIDN'T LIKE THE CHANGE.

Buffalo Polish Catholics Object to Parting With Their Priest.

BUFFALO, Jan. 26.—There was a small riot at St. Albert's Church to-day. Father Klawitser was recently removed by Bishop Ryan to Dunkirk, and the Dunkirk priest, Father Pawlier, brought here. The church members, who are Poles, strongly objected and have sent a delegation with an indignant protest to the Pope. To-day Father Pawlier attempted to hold divine service in the school house, not being able to gain access to the church and a few of the Poles attended with him. An infuriated crowd gathered outside and ordered the Pawlierists out. All came out except three men, whereupon a number of those outside rushed in and unceremoniously dragged two of them out. The other got out of a back door and, thinking he was going to be murdered, ran away. Father Pawlier then arrived at the conclusion that it would not be safe to go ahead with devotions, so he left the scene, escorted by a squad of patrolmen.

A Monster Ice House at Havelock.

HAVELOCK, Jan. 25.—The C.P.R. is erecting a monster ice-house at this point to accommodate the fresh meat traffic of Swift & Co. of Chicago, whose refrigerators are now passing over this line (the Ontario and Quebec). It is 150 x 80 feet and 50 feet high. This means increased traffic, increase of population, more engines and cabooses, and consequently more men.

The charge of libel brought against David Creighton, M.L.A., manager of The Empire, by The Mail newspaper came up at the Police Court Saturday morning and was adjourned until Monday. Wallace Nesbitt appeared for the plaintiff, and Harry Brock and R. S. Cassels for the defence. The defendant pleaded not guilty. Mr. Nesbitt asked that the case might come off as early as possible, and asked the magistrate to take steps to prevent the libel being repeated. The defendants stated they were willing to risk repeating it.

Crimes Against Criminals.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 26.—In the legislative investigation of the management of the penitentiary by the lessees, two witnesses, both convicts whose terms had expired, testified yesterday as to the treatment of convicts in railroad camps. They said their quarters swarmed with vermin, their food was often spoiled meat and bread and they were inhumanly beaten when unable to perform the tasks given. One said he had been compelled to work when he was sick till he fainted and fell to the ground. Then the officer beat him with a pole to make him rise.

SARATEA, Kas., Jan. 25.—In a street fight Thursday night Wesley McNamara, a prominent citizen, was bitten on the finger by a stranger, whose supposed name is Gilbert Jones. To-day McNamara died in terrible agony, exhibiting all the symptoms of hydrophobia. Jones fled.

BELLIE BLY'S TIMES IN GOING AROUND THE GLOBE.

A Rousing Welcome Accorded the Intrepid Tourist Upon Her Reception in New York.—A Graphical Tale Through the Papers.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The official time as announced by The World's timers for the arrival of Nellie Bly was 3.51 o'clock, this morning her complete trip around the world in 72 days, 6 hours and 11 minutes.

A party of ladies and gentlemen went to Philadelphia this morning to meet Miss Bly, among them being her mother, her friend, Cora Linn Daniels, Judge Holmes, Dalancey Nicoll, John H. Watson, formerly president of the Columbia Bank, James B. Reynolds of 1Ats, James B. Townsend, Charles S. Scanlon, H. B. McDowell, Allan Forman and other well-known newspaper people. Early in the afternoon people began gathering at the station in Jersey City, and by 3.30 the crowd was beyond the control of the police. It was a perfect jam, inside the station as well as outside, the largest crowd—so the railroad people say—that ever gathered there. Mayor Cleveland of Jersey City was on the platform with an immense basket of roses. Several other gentlemen bore large bouquets.

As the time for the arrival of the train drew near the excitement of the surging, struggling mass of humanity was intense. Almost before the people were aware of it an engine, No. 1231, in charge of George Headden, rolled into the station with two Pullman cars attached. A roar that increased with the assistance of all the factory and locomotive whistles in the neighborhood, until it was beyond compare, came from the throats of the waiting crowd as they descried the form of the plucky traveler on the platform of the parlor car Beatrice. When the train stopped Nellie Bly stepped to the platform and was promptly timed. Mayor Cleveland attempted to make an address and present his flowers, but it was impossible on account of the crush of people, over whom the police had lost all control. The cheering never ceased.

Finally the police formed a circle around Nellie Bly and the Mayor, and with their sticks beat their way to the carriage in waiting. This was only accomplished by two of her escorts lifting her and carrying her the length of the platform. When the coach started for the ferry boat the stampede of people in the same direction was awful. Men, women and children were pushed down and trod on, but no fatalities occurred. On the trip across to New York every tug boat and steam craft kept up a continuous whistling.

At the Cortlandt-street station another large crowd had gathered, and the same scenes were gone through with. On the drive from the Cortlandt-street landing up to The World office on Park Row, Nelly stood up in the carriage, and with her peak cap in her right hand, bowed right and left to the throngs on the sidewalk, at the same time handing out roses with her left hand to the conglomeration of swells, brokers, clerks, laborers, newsboys and bootblacks, who ran by the side of the vehicle, all frantically endeavoring to get hold of some part of it.

At The World office she was conducted to the manager's room, where, after receiving the congratulations of the officials, she held a short reception. There was an immense crowd outside, and Nellie Bly waved her traveling cap out of the window. The yells following this were deafening. After a brief stay upstairs Miss Bly returned to her carriage and was driven to the Astor House where a collation was served.

Nellie Bly's real name is Elizabeth Cochran. She came to New York from Pittsburg, Pa.

Miss Bisland Not Yet In.

NEW YORK, Jan. 26.—Miss Bisland, The Cosmopolitan Magazine's round-the-world traveller, who started on the same day with Nellie Bly, is a passenger on the steamship Bothnia, which sailed from Queenstown for New York Sunday, Jan. 19. The Bothnia is an eight or nine days' steamer, and owing to the prevailing bad weather at sea she may occupy an even longer time on this trip.

BATTLING FOR SUPREMACY.

War Between the Michigan Central and Cincinnati, Saginaw & Mackinaw.

BAY CITY, Mich., Jan. 25.—The bitterest kind of feeling pervades railroad circles in this neighborhood. The new Cincinnati, Saginaw & Mackinaw road has been making big inroads into the freight traffic of the Michigan Central. Yesterday the appearance in this city of a number of mogul engines owned by the new road caused considerable consternation among the Central people. They smelled war at once, and began telegraphing in all directions for idle engines to come quickly.

The whole thing grew out of the fact that the Hotchkiss mill property possesses a large quantity of salt ready for shipment. The Cincinnati, Saginaw & Mackinaw had built a spur which intercepted a siding of the Central's on the Hotchkiss property. A Cincinnati, Saginaw & Mackinaw mogul and six cars shifted into the vicinity and swung from the main track to the siding. They were greeted with a hissing of steam, and found that just where the Cincinnati, Saginaw & Mackinaw spur touched the Central siding there was an old engine with a Vanderbilt trademark upon it. The switch was open for the admission of the Cincinnati, Saginaw & Mackinaw train, and in a moment the cars were against the tender of the Michigan Central engine.

Then followed a severe battle for supremacy. The Saginaw engines had a little advantage and the Central engines soon drew off to await reinforcements. Engines began arriving from all directions, but the Saginaw road still had a majority, and after an hour's pushing and snorting a lull followed.

The Central is determined upon victory and it is expected the war will re-open in a day or two. The war has created great excitement and the conflict was witnessed by thousands.

His Request Granted.

HAMILTON, Jan. 25.—Morris Ryan, the young man captured last Saturday evening by Detectives Campbell and Doyle as the perpetrator of the robberies at Robert P. Lesak's house and the gift tea store on James-street, and who pleaded guilty to both charges at the Police Court on Monday morning, was brought up for sentence this morning. Prisoner had a special request to make of the magistrate, which was that he would not send him to Central prison. "I will endeavor to accommodate you this time," said the kind-hearted magistrate. "I will sentence you to four years' confinement in Kingston penitentiary."

Monahan Beats Mitchell.

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 26.—Jimmie Mitchell of Philadelphia and Tom Monahan of Pittsburg, fought to a finish last night with 8-ounce gloves, for a purse of $500. The men fought viciously. Mitchell was knocked down several times in the 6th round and five times and out in the 7th round.

TURNBULL'S

If you should give the days of the week trade names, Saturday would be clothing man's day.

Look at the clothing store news up and down the columns of the papers! Is it not so.

We could pile adjective upon hyperbole—could print with display type the most impossible statement if we choose, but we spare you.

They can all gang their ain gait, while we go on making our clothing business bigger by making it better; the only sure way and we hold our own with the best in quality, style and make with real cheapness. Our boys' Readymade clothing cannot be beaten in style, quality and price.

We had a heavy run on Ladies' Mantles last week. A lot of good goods at Bargain Prices still to select from.

Our 40c. Heavy Canadian tweeds please the eye and pockets of all.

In the name of Jack Frost—Blankets. If we could only tell you all we know of Blankets, it would be good reading. One thing we do know, and don't fear to say is, you will get more good wool and generous size in the Blankets now here at $5, than is generally offered. Blankets at $4 and $3.75 of good medium sizes.

Once more the cheapest stock of Grey Flannels and Cottons is with us. The people carry it off with more industry than ants, which is the best proof that business men have that goods are cheap.

Pains in the back, poor and unrefreshing sleep, lack of appetite dyspepsia, and lost energy and strength, are the first symptoms of more serious and dangerous trouble. This is the way that Paralysis, Paresis and Insanity begin. Do not delay a moment longer, for some time it will be too late to regain your lost health and vitality. Use Paine's Celery Compound now, and the dull eyes will regain their brilliancy, the cheeks will grow rosy, the brain become clear, the nerves strong and steady, your sleep restful and refreshing, appetite good, and health and happiness will take the place of misery and suffering.

A. Sabiston, the well known lithographer of Montreal, writes: "In the summer of 1888 I had to work very hard, and was troubled considerably with insomnia (sleeplessness). I resolved to try your Paine's Celery Compound, and after taking the contents of two bottles, felt like a new man. A good night's rest gave me strength for the duties of the day, and instead of starting out to business in the morning feeling as if I had completed a day's work instead of being about to commence one I started out in good spirits, feeling fresh and strong. My wife and various friends, to whom I recommended the medicine, have been benefited greatly, and in fact 'Paine's Celery Compound is a household word in our family."

DUAL MUNICIPAL REPRESENTATION.

Our evening contemporary in its issue of Saturday, assumes to find fault with the amendment of the statute, which makes it illegal for a town councillor to appoint himself a high school trustee. It seems that objection is taken, not to the soundness of the principles underlying the amendment, but to some individual and exceptional complications said to have arisen from it. Mr. Stratton is willing to assume the entire responsibility for the amendment, whose passage he promoted solely in the public interest. He is satisfied that any ratepayer, who is not personally or otherwise interested in opposing the amendment in question, will agree that it is in the public interest to prevent members of the town council from appropriating to themselves an appointment which should be vested in the people themselves. Had Mr. Stratton been able to overcome the opposition of some members of the Assembly, he would have included in the amendment in question, the removal from councillors altogether, of the power of appointing High school trustees, and have placed the power where it properly belongs—in the hands of the ratepayers. As the law now stands, if the people see fit to elect the same man upon both the school and council board, that is their affair; they are acting within their right and for themselves, and are supposed to know what will conduce to the promotion of their own interests. It may be pointed out that there is hardly an important change in any law that does not, at the beginning, create some friction with individual or personal interests, which are, however, expected to yield to the consideration of the general good. In respect of the amendment under consideration, councillors and others interested had one year to make any arrangement which the new order of things might suggest; if they failed to do so the blame of anything which has been in any degree unpleasant or disappointing, does not rest with the law. The members of the town council are elected to look after the interest of the town; and it is difficult to understand why they should at the same time be expected to have the oversight of High School matters. The existence of this state of things is an anomoly which should be remedied, and doubtless will be remedied in course of time. The burden of supporting schools rests directly upon the people, and the more directly the people themselves can speak upon such matters the better. The right thing, now that the power of town councillors appointing themselves high school trustees is removed, is to agitate for the election of all high school trustees by the people. The trustees are responsible to the people, and not to the town council, and consequently the people should elect them, as they do public school trustees. This of course, applies to urban municipalities, where all the conditions favour and demand it.

THERE is not wanting abundant evidence to indicate that the "new party" is simply an annex of the Conservative party—and as the self-styled party of Truth and Righteousness, this addition will be regarded as a much needed complement. Hon. Mr. Mowat pointed out plainly in his Tavistock speech that when the organ of the New party showed its independence by attacking the party press and the political parties—it is the Liberal party and the Liberal government that gets the heavy end of the club. In the last issue of the Canadian Nation, the organ of the New party, the party journals are denounced in round, swinging, general terms, but the Globe is severely denounced in particular terms. We have such expressions as "The Globe's maudlin and pitiful appeals"; "The Globe is out-Heroding Herod," and other uncomplimentary expressions. The Tory organs are denounced with a wink to show that the hard words are not meant, but the Globe and the Liberal party are belaboured with bona fide blows and knocks. The game is very transparent. All this "New party," "equal rights" (though in the latter there are many well meaning but misled men) agitation, this anti-Jesuit business, had its beginning as a systematic attempt, has its present prosecution and its ultimate hope centred in the ousting of Mr. Mowat, and the replacing him by Mr. Meredith, or when the scheme is worked out, by Mr. McCarthy.

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre," "Monga," and "Mastro Felix," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most sceptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate, save

Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life or energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Day and Night

During an acute attack of Bronchitis, a ceaseless tickling in the throat, and an exhausting, dry, hacking cough, afflict the sufferer. Sleep is banished, and great prostration follows. This disease is also attended with Hoarseness, and sometimes Loss of Voice. It is liable to become chronic, involve the lungs, and terminate fatally. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral affords speedy relief and cure in cases of Bronchitis. It controls the disposition to cough, and induces refreshing sleep.

I have been a practicing physician for twenty-four years, and, for the past twelve, have suffered from annual attacks of Bronchitis. After exhausting all the usual remedies

Without Relief,

I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It helped me immediately, and effected a speedy cure.—G. Stoveall, M. D., Carrollton, Miss.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is decidedly the best remedy, within my knowledge, for chronic Bronchitis, and all lung diseases. —M. A. Rust, M. D., South Paris, Me.

I was attacked, last winter, with a severe Cold, which, from exposure, [illegible] and finally settled on my lungs. At night sweats I was reduced almost to a skeleton. My Cough was incessant, and I frequently spit blood. My physician told me to give up business, or I would not live a month. After taking various remedies without relief, I was finally two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I am now in perfect health, and able to resume business, after having been pronounced incurable with Consumption.—S. P. Henderson, Saulsburgh, Penn.

For years I was in a decline. I had weak lungs, and suffered from Bronchitis and Catarrh. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral restored me to health, and I have been for a long time comparatively vigorous. In case of a sudden cold I always resort to the Pectoral, and find speedy relief.—Edward E. Curtis, Rutland, Vt.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Bronchitis. The physician attending me became fearful that the disease would terminate in Pneumonia. After trying various medicines, without benefit, he finally prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved me at once. I continued to take this medicine a short time, and was cured. —Ernest Colton, Logansport, Ind.

OATMEAL FOOD

OATMEAL is one of the items of daily call in the family.

Think and your seller appreciates its value as a palatable and nutritious food.

It is to be found on every breakfast table—or ought to be.

ROLLED, GRANULATED or STANDARD, it leads all other competitors in public favor.

Its popularity is largely due to the excellence obtained by improved methods of manufacture.

PALATABLE, NUTRITIOUS, CHEAP. The Oat contains all the constituents necessary for the maintenance of high bodily vigor.

It is one of those complete foods which is capable of supporting life and health for an indefinite period.

In the border raids and forays of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, it was held in high esteem—on one side at least—that of the raiders.

The provision [illegible] in those days was simply a bag of oatmeal.

With his good Oatmeats and shield, and reinforced by Oats fresh, in spite of recent attire and inferior cattle conditions have often did he ever succeed with his sturdy followers and ever succeed in see the backs of the best soldiers in the world.

Happily these days are past and milder and more peaceful times prevail.

But this food is still in the ascendant.

Its demand increases every day.

If your children are ruptured or Deformed, call and see him with your physician. Having spent his whole life in improving and perfecting appliances for rupture and other deformities, it is conceded by the best authorities that he is the only man in this line of business who can, after examining the patient, invent and construct a correct appliance to overcome the most difficult cases, as many thousands have testified. No two are made alike.

One of Toronto's most prominent wholesale merchants testifies, one week after I had adjusted this new truss:—"For six months, by the advice of my physician I have been attending a well-known firm of truss makers on Church street, sometimes as often as three times a day, but they never succeeded in holding the rupture. What they have been attempting for six months you have effected at the first attempt. I thank you heartily, and you may reckon on my assisting you all I can to attain the success you deserve."

DEAR SIR.—I feel it my duty to inform you that my little girl, who was afflicted with double Curvature of the Spine and whom you supplied with one of your Appliances, is restored to health again, and is now as straight and natural as could be. She has worn the Appliance constantly without hindrance or pain. I would advise and strongly recommend any person similarly afflicted to apply to you at once for relief. Our family physician, Dr. J. E. King, of Toronto, recommended me to you as being the best maker of these instruments, and I cannot say that I am more than pleased with the result of your Appliance, and think it cheap at any price.

THE DIAMOND BUTTON

FROM THE DIARY OF A LAWYER AND THE NOTE BOOK OF A REPORTER.

By BARCLAY NORTH.

(Copyrighted, 1889, by O. M. Dunham. Published by special arrangement through The American Press Association.)

He watched her, strongly moved himself, showing anger and alarm. He muttered, "Some one has discovered it and betrayed me to her;" finally he said with forced calmness:

"I cannot tell what possesses you. I presume in your own good time you will inform me what it is, when I can defend myself as I shall. I repeat, the withholding of confidence from you cannot be charged against me.

"When I confessed my love for you," he continued, "I told you that I did not have the fortune rumor credited me with; that it was nearly exhausted. When I made that discovery which shocked and nearly crazed me, I came to you at once, offering you the freedom the world did not know you had given up, telling you I was illegitimate.

"When I made the further discovery that by an effort I might receive a fortune, but involved in the effort might possibly be the exposure of my illegitimacy, I came to you with it and you bade me make the effort, promising to face the world with me, saying you had no property and we would fight together.

"These are the great events of my life. Is the aversion with which you have seemed to regard me recently due to my illegitimacy? If it is, let me say, as I once said to you before—you can be free. I am too proud in my degradation to hold you against your most slightly expressed wish, though it broke my heart to release you."

She shook her head, murmuring:

"It is not that; it is not that."

"Is it," he pursued, "that we are both poor, and you have finally concluded you cannot face poverty with me?"

"It is not that; it is not that," she repeated.

"No, I could hardly believe it was, for they are to both of us now old stories, and we have grown accustomed to them. Things are not worse for me, they are better. Providence has removed Templeton from my path"——

She leaped to her feet, crying aloud:

"My God! can he refer to it like that? Is it possible that such a man can live?"

She swept up the veranda, so charged with emotion and passion that she could not remain still.

He followed her, saying:

"Well, I have begun the effort, but I will abandon it if you wish. I have taken the first steps. I have even gone so far as to inquire for certain papers, and have called on a lawyer, Henry Holbrook"——

She whirled upon him, her face picturing the greatest alarm.

"On Henry Holbrook? Are you mad? That man would hang you if he could. Great heavens! It was to take you from the possibility of meeting that man that I called you here. Do you know that Holbrook saw the murderer of Templeton escape into the park?"

She had grasped him by the shoulders and pulled him squarely in front of her.

Before Fountain could reply, a hearty laugh rang out upon the air.

"Ha, ha, ha! Good! good! I applaud! Encore! Encore! The scene is good. You should go to the front veranda to rehearse, and you would get, immediately, a fashionable audience."

They saw a friend of the house approaching by a path some distance off. The next moment he was hid behind shrubbery, long enough to enable them both to recover themselves. When next he appeared he was near the veranda.

"When I heard that Fountain was due here," he said, as he stopped beneath to talk, "I said to Mamie, 'Now we will have some private theatricals.' And at the first pop I catch you at rehearsal. I congratulate you, Flora. I was too far off to hear the sentiment, but the acting was realistic."

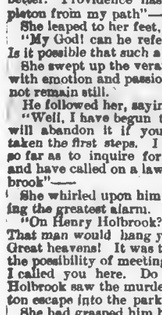
"Glad you like it," replied Flora. "I'll give you a secret—will you keep it?"

"As my life."

"Then it is a scene of my own composition."

CHAPTER XVIII.

TOM DISPLAYS THE DIAMOND BUTTONS.



FOUNTAIN found excuse to leave the veranda, and go on to the grounds.

"What infernal scoundrel can have told her?" he muttered to himself. "How could she have found out? And the disguise, too? But who could have supposed she would have shown such passion, such resentment? Yet it is one of those things a woman does not forgive. But what could she mean about Holbrook? What does he know about it? Or how can it concern him? I will return to New York and"——

A turn in the path brought him face to face with a man who was trimming the shrubbery.

"Hello," said Fountain, "you're new about here. Has Mr. Witherspoon changed his gardener?"

"Yes, sir," replied the man, still continuing his work.

"How long ago?"

"About three weeks now, sir." The man spoke with a strong Scotch accent.

"I had not heard of it," said Fountain, indifferently, as he turned away.

"No, sir," replied the man, bending down over a bush.

As Fountain turned into another path the gardener watched him disappear from view, then tossed his pruning shears into the bush, and saying, "I've heard all I want to know," fled rapidly in the opposite direction.

Fountain did not find another chance for confidential conversation with Flora that night again.

Late in the evening he did find an opportunity to say to her:

"If you will formulate your charges against me, I will try to meet them to your satisfaction. You have been misinformed about something, evidently."

"No," she replied in a low tone, placing great restraint upon herself, "never shall I revert to the matter again; I have thought it over, and accept the consequences. I love you too deeply, though I hate myself for it, but I'm yours, and I cast all consideration to the winds. Let it pass."

"Shall I be able to see you alone to-morrow? I must go back to New York to-morrow night."

"To-morrow night," she said in alarm.

"Yes, I must. It is very important."

"Is it that enterprise we talked of?"

"No—it is not that which calls me back—some notes to meet—some money to raise."

"Promise me you will keep out of the sight of Holbrook. Promise me you will avoid him in every way."

"We have not been in the habit of meeting."

"But promise me faithfully you will seek every way rather than meet him. He is dangerous to you."

"I do not understand you, neither do I fear him, but I will promise you."

Upon this they parted, she retiring for the night.

Dick Witherspoon persuaded Fountain to walk out for a smoke, and they shortly found themselves at a resort much frequented by the young men of that exclusive watering place.

A little play was going forward. In a far corner of the room a number were sitting at a table.

"Hello!" said Dick Witherspoon, "there is Tom Bryan; what under the sun brings him here?"

"Who is Tom Bryan?" asked Fountain.

"The keenest newspaper man in New York, and the best of fellows, as well as one of the most amusing."

The two joined the party and were warmly greeted, while Fountain was presented to Tom.

Tom was telling a rattling story of adventure, in which figured persons known to fame, and which was eliciting much laughter.

During its recital Tom placed both elbows upon the table, holding his hands upright to illustrate some point in his anecdote. He was telling the story at Fountain, and did not fail to notice that Fountain looked curiously at the buttons Tom wore in his cuffs.

They were the ones Holbrook had given him.

To draw his attention to them was Tom's purpose.

The Canada Life

Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder:"

When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5,040,188, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calendar year, the result of which would be to reduce the ensuing one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would curtail it considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $840,188 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525,000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300,000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management. dw

A Great Risk.

This is the time when it is dangerous to incur risks. Yesterday an enthusiastic Scotchman brought to the EXAMINER a bill of fare of a banquet at San Francisco, with the names of the dishes printed in the crankiest of broad Scotch. He asked to have it republished in the EXAMINER, but was told that, while the EXAMINER delighted to please Scotchmen, it could not run the risk of breaking the printing press. There is not the slightest degree of risk, however, in buying teas at hawley bros.'s, who keep in stock the finest and freshest brands of all kinds of teas, and also the best coffees. dw

The Late Mrs. Stevenson.

On Sunday the town was pained to learn of the death of Mrs. Stevenson, wife of Mr. Jas. Stevenson, M.P., Mayor. Mrs. Stevenson had been in a precarious condition for some days previous to her death. She was attacked some time ago by the prevalent malady, influenza, but did not recover from its effects and pneumonia ensued. She died shortly after Saturday midnight. Deceased was about sixty years of age. She was a lady of most estimable qualities of head and heart, a tender mother and a kind friend to all with whom she came in contact. Her maiden name was Emma Appleton, and she was married to Mr. Stevenson in 1852. Their family consists of two sons and four daughters, all of whom, except the wife of Mr. C. H. Clement, being still resident under the paternal roof. The bereaved husband and children will be deeply sympathized with in the loss of a beloved wife and mother. The funeral takes place Tuesday afternoon to the Little Lake Cemetery.

The Leverage in His Business.

The following statement by one who ought to know is well worth perusal by all our merchants:—

John Wanamaker:—When I came to my desk last Wednesday morning I was naturally thinking about the Christmas trade which we had. We did a great deal of Christmas business in this store this year. During the ten days previous to Christmas our sales averaged about $100,000 a day. The grand total for the ten days fall only a few dollars under a million. I spent $6,000 a week in advertising, and I pay a skilful man—a former newspaper editor, and a good one—$1,000 a month to do it for me. I make money by it. Advertising is the leverage with which this store has been raised up. I do not see how any large and successful retail business can be done without advertising. Continuous advertising, like continuous work, is the most effective.

Unavoidable Postponement.

Mr. A. J. Robertson, dental surgeon, whose announcement of the opening of an office at 140½ Hunter street, appeared in Saturday's issue of the EXAMINER, to-day received a telegram announcing the death of a near relative, which will necessitate his immediate absence from town. Mr. Robertson also announced that he would extract teeth free on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, but, owing to the above circumstance, he is compelled to withdraw this offer. He will, however, make it good for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, on which days he will extract teeth free for all-comers from the hours of 10 to 12 30. On these dates and at these hours Mr. Robertson will extract teeth not only free of charge but absolutely without pain, by means of the Electric Vibrator. The electricity is applied to the affected tooth, which is removed absolutely without pain. The patient is not rendered insensible and there is no danger to any person with affected heart or lungs, as there is from the use of ether or chloroform. The only part affected by the Electric Vibrator is the tooth itself. Mr. Robertson does not want the public who have teeth removed free to consider themselves under any obligation. He simply seeks to have the merits of his system of painless extraction demonstrated.

"Observer" Again.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I notice that my letter touching Mr. Edward's obligations to Mr. Sanderson, in the way of legal butnessing, has excited the friendly ire of Mr. J. Hampden Burnham. Who is this gentleman that he assumes to build up legal reputations to a most dizzy height by a mere stroke of the pen? Mr. Edward's must be highly gratified with the heavily signed certificate of legal distinction you published in Saturday's issue, and all the more because his self-constituted champion doubtless made an immense sacrifice in withdrawing his attention from the exigeant demands of his overwhelming professional business sufficiently long to stoop and reach down his hand to help raise an aspersed brother to the same lofty legal plane he, himself, occupies. While Mr. Edwards finds his brother chip in so gracious, condescending and patronizing a mood, he should, if he has any ambition in the direction of a "Q.C." have only to mention it. Is it probable that this affecting fraternal sympathy springs from the fact that Mr. Edwards, in his green and oillow professional youth, "parted his signature in the middle."

Yours, etc.,
OBSERVER.

P.S.—Mr. J. Hampden Burnham says that some of the leaders of the Bar (which Bar?) have spoken in the highest terms of our town and county solicitor. Did those gentlemen know that Mr. Edwards had the advice and assistance of Mr. Sanderson before expressing an opinion? If they had that information, would they have given the credit to Mr. Edwards? I am surprised that any gentlemen who had received a legal training like Mr. Burnham, would endeavor to offer such evidence to an intelligent public; if Mr. Burnham, acting for a client, was to offer as evidence what some person had said to some other person, would he get the most inexperienced magistrate, let alone a judge, to accept of such evidence?

I claim that Mr. Sanderson knows more municipal law than Mr. Edwards, and to prove that I have confidence in my opinion, I enclose herewith a cheque for $100.00, and if Mr. Burnham or any other friend of Mr. Edwards will put up an equal amount in your hands, the loser to pay over his $100 to some charitable institution, we will test the legal ability of those two gentlemen in the following manner:—Let Mr. Burnham select some legal gentlemen, I will select another, and they two choose a third, who will prepare a number of questions on municipal law to be submitted to Mr. Edwards and Mr. Sanderson at the same time and in the same place, when it will be impossible to obtain outside assistance, the answers to be submitted to Judge Weller for his decision.

Church Chimes.

Rev. M. L. Pearson is still confined to the house by illness, though on the mend. His pulpit Sunday was taken in the forenoon by Rev. S. J. Shorey and in the evening by Rev. Mr. Payton. The latter also supplied the pulpit of the Charlotte street church Sunday morning.

The first week's mission services which are being conducted by the Redemptorist Fathers at St. Peter's Cathedral concluded on Sunday. They will be continued this week. In the afternoon a meeting was held on Sunday for young men only. The edifice was nearly filled. One of the Redemptorist Fathers delivered a stirring address upon the duties of young men to their church and their parents, and further impressed upon them the necessity of personal purity and temperance above all things. All the services are very largely attended. On Sunday evening at Vespers the capacious church was crowded in every part.

After the regular service in the George street church Sunday evening, Mr. J. Arlington Cooke, a temperance speaker late of New Orleans, delivered an address to a large number of the congregation who remained behind. Mr. Cooke spoke under the auspices of the Royal Templars of Temperance.

A very interesting children's service was held in St. John's on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There was a large attendance of children, comprising those of both the Sunday schools and a good number of adults. The service, which was very bright, hearty and cheerful, was conducted by Rev. J. C. Davidson, the Rector. These services are held regularly and are of excellent effect in stimulating interest in Sunday School work, and impressing the teachings of the intervals of the Sunday services.

Annual Meeting—Election of Control and Township Exhibitions—The Officers Elected—The Rate Grants for this Year's Exhibition—Secretary Collins Resigns.

The annual meeting of the West Peterborough Agricultural Society was held in the council chamber, Peterborough, Saturday afternoon, President Rutherford in the chair. There was a good attendance of directors and members.

The Secretary, after reading the minutes, read the following report:—

The annual report of the Smith, Ennismore and Lakefield Agricultural Society, H. C. Garbutt, President, and M. S. Dean, Secretary, showed total receipts to have been $628.55, and expenditure $555.34, leaving a balance on hand $73.24.

The directors of the Scottish Monaghan Agricultural Society presented their annual report, showing their annual fair at Centreville to have been a success. Total receipts were $294.65, and expenditures $255.30, leaving a balance on hand of $39.35.

Report of F. J. Lewis, Treasurer of the Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society, showed the Society have a balance on hand of $69.72.

THE WEST PETERBOROUGH SOCIETY.

To the members of the West Peterborough Agricultural Society:

GENTLEMEN,—As is usual, you will expect a report from your directors of the progress of the year. We may state that we held our spring show and had a good exhibit, especially in horses, some renowned prize winners being entered. From a financial standpoint, however, we must say that we do not know that it would be wise to continue the spring show, as it is held at such a busy time, and we thus fail to get the gate receipts that would warrant a continuance. Would it not be better to give better prizes to those exhibiting at the fall exhibition? To give prizes twice a year of course makes both small.

Our fall exhibition was held on September 24th, 25th, 26th and 27th, and as an agricultural fair was a grand success. In almost every department there was strong opposition and a keen competition to secure the coveted red ticket.

The treasurer's statement will show that we gave a largely increased prize list, which was very fully filled up, notwithstanding the fact that exhibitions were being held in the same week at Lindsay, Bellaville, Collingwood, St. Thomas, Whitby, Hamilton and Almonte. You will say, Why not fix the date so as not to clash with these places? How is it to be done? If you take the next week you run foul of as many more. After giving a week to the Provincial and two weeks to Toronto, then commences the scuffle to get in all the other shows in the short time at our disposal. Now, we think it would be worth consideration whether or no it would not be better for us to hold our show earlier, even if we have to clash with a big show like Toronto. Is it not better to take a hand in and try to get some of the money while it is going, than to let Toronto or any other town get all; and then get only a slim attendance with correspondingly small gate receipts. Another thing which makes it hard to get a large attendance is that the railways do not give as good excursion rates as they should. Last year they would only give return tickets at one fare on one day; the other days fare and a third. Now this fare and a third rate is only a finale and hardly a reduction at all, as any one knows who ever bought a return ticket on a railway. Now we complain when we do not get as liberal treatment as other places; for instance, Kingston fair rates were considerably less than single fare, while the little town of Cnatham got single fare for 4 days of their show, and if this is the way to get a large crowd together, we think it is a strange way. Last year it seemed almost a drag to get a pass from either lines for the bill poster, good for sufficient time to allow him to post the bills. This is not as it should be, for the railway companies reap tour-fold the benefits from it we do.

In June an appeal was made to the County Council for a grant amounting to $500 in favor of the Agricultural Societies of East and West Peterborough—$200 to the east and $300 to the west—which we are happy to say was voted to the Societies.

Also the town council was waited on for a grant, and they voted the handsome sum of $300, showing that the sympathy of the best men in town and county is with us. Also, we must not forget the noble list of people who subscribed in aid of the funds as acknowledged in the prize list. Also the same may be said of the people who gave such a magnificent amount after the show, when we found we were short of funds to pay the list in full. A list is appended of the latter.

PRESIDENT—Wm. Rutherford.

1ST VICE-PRESIDENT—Wm. M. Fair.

2ND VICE-PRESIDENT—Geo. E. Elliott.

DIRECTORS' MEETING.

After the adjournment of the general meeting, the Directors met and considered several matters. Mr. Wm. Vance was heard in advocacy of the continuance of the Provincial Exhibition, by the abolition of which he pointed out that in his view very little good would result to other exhibitions.

The directors decided not to send any representatives to the meeting of the Canadian Fairs Association at Ottawa.

It was also decided to hold the exhibition this year during the same week as last; but covering only three days, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, Sept. 24, 25 and 26.

Mr. Wm. Collins, Secretary, notified the Board that he wished to withdraw and asked that some one be appointed in his place. The matter was discussed, and though the directors appeared to be loth to accept his resignation, an adjournment was made for two weeks for further consideration.

Personal.

Hon. Senator Howlan, Charlottetown, P. E. I. spent over Sunday in town, a guest of his brother-in-law, Mr. P. D. Doran, dry goods merchant.

Rev. J. Gallaher, of Dufferin, preached in St. Paul's church Sunday morning. He lectures in the same church Tuesday evening on "Martin Luther and his Times."

Rev. James Kendall, of Downsbury, England, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church on Sunday evening. Rev. Mr. Kendall, and Mrs. Kendall, will probably remain in Canada, the former finding it necessary to seek a change of climate for the benefit of his health.

The Wicked "Hugh Man."

The Shooting of Beaumont on a Charge of Attempted Rape Upon Mrs. McNevan—Examination of the Prisoner—Judgment Reserved.

The trial of Thos. Bowman, or Beaumont, as he says it is spelled, took place to-day before F. M. Hinkson, at the court house. Mr. R. E. Wood, Q. C., conducted the prosecution and Mr. E. B. Stone defended the prisoner. The latter was comparatively cool and took an anxious interest in the case. His early manners lost all disappointment, it is said that on Sunday, which he spent in gaol, he became very humble and penitent.

The prosecutor, Mr. Duncan McEwen, is an intelligent and prepossessing looking farmer, about sixty years of age. His wife, who was ill last week from the effects of a cold, appeared weak and pale. She is somewhat over fifty years of age. There are two charges against the prisoner, one laid by Mr. McNevan and a charge of larceny preferred by Mr. Wm. Stewart, who has recovered the cap stolen by Beaumont Friday night.

The first case taken up was the charge of assault with intent to rape upon Mrs. McNevan. The plaintiff, Mr. D. McNevan who lives in the seventh concession of Otonabee stated that he had first seen the prisoner a week ago last Thursday, when he came to work for him, having been hired for him by a friend. A week afterwards, on Wednesday, 22nd Jan. when he (the witness) came in from his work at night his wife told him that the prisoner had been guilty of improper conduct. Mr. McNevan thought it safer to wait till morning before he said anything to Beaumont, so he put his wife and two daughters in the same bed, and lay on a lounge in another room all night to watch. After breakfast next morning Beaumont was missing for over an hour, and when he saw him, prisoner was coming down the road from a neighbour's house. The prisoner went to his work, and Mr. McNevan went for a neighbor to witness his discussion with Beaumont, but Geo. Scully was sick and his brother would not come. Mr. McNevan, however, borrowed their revolver, in case the prisoner cut up rough, and then he went to where Beaumont was sawing wood and told him to pick up his duds and go. Beaumont wanted to know what harm he had done, and said he would not go until his time was up. Mr. McNevan replied that he knew well enough what he had done and he must go. Mr. McNevan threatened to go for a constable, and the prisoner replied that there were not enough constables around to take him. Prisoner then came towards him with the saw in his hand and Mr. McNevan showed his revolver and prisoner stepped to the kitchen door, saying he had a revolver upstairs. Mr. McNevan then went off to another neighbor's, Mr. Miller's, and his wife and daughters, being afraid of the prisoner, started for Richardson's, to get some one to go after the constable, leaving Beaumont in possession of the house. Mr. McNevan returned and brought three men with him, Mr. Thos. Richardson and a couple of others. Beaumont came out of the house and after some parleying took off his coat and seized Mr. McNevan by the breast. He was in a great passion, demanded his money, wanted to see the revolver and threatened him. Finally he started off down the road towards the Keene station. Three of them followed him down the road a piece, but when he saw them Beaumont turned back and went west again. He turned in at Mr. McNevan's gate, but continued on again, and the others watched him while Mr. McNevan went to Keene to telegraph the police.

To Mr. Stone—Witness stated Beaumont was to work from Thursday, Jan. 16th, till March 1st, for ten dollars. He did not expect to pay Beaumont for the time he worked after the way he had acted. They all sat down to supper that night with him, but when they went to bed he sat guard with only a poker for a weapon. He denied threatening to blow Beaumont's brains out with the revolver. Beaumont also stole some 75 cents from a table in his wife's bedroom, and some tobacco—or at least it was gone and there was no one else to take it. Mr. McNevan never knew of his wife being out of her senses at any time.

Mrs. McNevan said that on Wednesday evening last, about five o'clock, she went out to milk; the prisoner, who had been working for them about a week, went out ahead of her, carrying some bran mashes for the cows. They went into the cow stable and each milked a cow. That left one cow to milk, and she asked him to milk her for the calf, and go and get the pail the cow had been eating from, but he would not. Mrs. McNevan then told him to go into the house with the pails already full of milk, but he would not do that either. She herself went to get the pail the cow had been feeding from, when prisoner followed and caught her around the shoulder and waist and took other liberties. Mrs. McNevan screamed and prisoner ran away into the horse stable. She began milking the cow, and the prisoner came back and stood in the doorway and made an indecent exposure. The prisoner then went away again.

To Mr. Stone Mrs. McNevan said she was positive the prisoner attempted to commit rape upon her. That evening they had no talk about her daughters, but some other evening the prisoner remarked that her daughters were very pale. Nothing was said as to the cause of it. On the previous Sunday evening she went out to milk the cow when he caught hold of her and said he was a doctor and could cure all diseases. She told him he was an old blather, and did not allow him to hold her long. She milked one cow and he the other, and they went to the house. Her husband was away from home, but came in about dark. On Wednesday morning he made improper advances in the wash room. She went in for a pail of water, but he took the pail out of her hand and set it down. Mr. McNevan was out at the barn. Prisoner put his arm around her and tried to kiss her. They were in the wash room about five minutes, and when prisoner heard her husband come into the house he left the room. Mrs. McNevan told her husband right away that Beaumont was teasing her and tried to kiss her. She couldn't remember what husband said. That evening prisoner committed further offences as stated above. She did not know of prisoner making any advances to her daughters. They were afraid of him and were not well anyway, so they did not go out of the house. Prisoner did not at any time make any proposition to her.

At the conclusion of Mrs. McNevan's evidence another count was added to the indictment, for indecent assault.

Constable Stewart then gave evidence concerning the arrest of the prisoner.

There being not sufficient evidence to warrant a conviction on the charge of attempted rape, the information was amended to make it a charge of indecent assault and adjournment for one hour was made to enable the prisoner's counsel to arrange a defence.

The case being resumed, the counsel were heard. Judgment was reserved.

CLEVELAND'S SUPERIOR BAKING POWDER

THE PUREST AND BEST

Is made only of strictly pure grape cream of tartar, strictly pure bicarbonate of soda, and a small portion of flour as a preservative, nothing else whatever, and is warranted entirely free from alum, ammonia, phosphates, lime, and all the adulterants frequently found in baking powders. The character of materials used, their purity, and the nicety of their combination, render Cleveland's superior baking powder the most healthful, most economical in use, and it always affords wholesome, nutritious, and delicious food.

It is recommended for purity, healthfulness and efficiency by Government and State chemists, chemists of Boards of Health, and professors in institutions of learning throughout the country.

Sold only in cans, full weight.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

At the young men's meeting Saturday evening, Mr. Wm. Wallbrook gave an earnest and heart-searching address. There was a good attendance, singing being ably led by orchestra.

Rev. Mr. Kendall, of Downbury, England, gave a straight talk at the personal purity meeting yesterday afternoon. It made a profound impression on the young men. We hope to have our brother soon again at the gospel and song service. Last evening, Mr. H. S. Griffin gave a Bible read g based on the 32nd Psalm. It was much enjoyed by all present. We all felt it good to be there and feel confident much fruit will be the result of studying God's word together. It is the great revealer and upbuilder and trust we may have more of it in our work.

Bible training class Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. Annual meeting of association will be held on Friday evening from 7 30 p.m.

The Electric Light

Is a matter of small importance compared with other applications of electricity. By this agency Poison's Nerviline is made to penetrate to the most remote nerve—every fiber, muscle and ligament is made to feel its beneficient power. Nerviline, pleasant to take, even by the youngest child, yet so powerfully far reaching in its work, that the most agonizing internal pain yields as if by magic. Neglect no longer to try Nerviline. Buy to-day a ten cent trial bottle and be relieved from all pain. Sold by druggists and country dealers everywhere. 6dw5

His Mother Dead.

Last night Constable Charles McGinty received the tidings of the death of his mother at Liverpool Market, Ontario County, near Whitby. Mr. McGinty left to-day to attend the funeral.

Mr. Thomas Ballard, Syracuse, N.Y., writes:—"I have been afflicted for nearly a year with that most to-be-dreaded disease dyspepsia, and at times worn out with pain and want of sleep, and after trying almost everything recommended, I tried one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. I am now nearly well and believe they will cure me. I would not be without them for any money." w5

MR. MULOCK'S MOTION GOES OVER BY REQUEST.

The Premier Wishes to Confer With the Mover—Hon. John Carling's Measures to Relieve His Department From Patent Disputes—Cattle Quarantine.

OTTAWA, Jan. 27.—Three Government bills were introduced to-day by Hon. John Carling. They deal respectively with patents, trademarks and copyrights, and provide that for the future disputes in relation to these may be heard in the Exchequer Court in place of by the Minister of Agriculture who is also Commissioner of Patents.

The private bills relating to the Alberta Railway and Coal Company, the Port Arthur, Duluth and Western Railway Company and the Saskatchewan Colonization Railway Company were read a second time.

Petitions asking for labor legislation were presented by Mr. Denison from the Toronto Typographical Union, Assembly No. 2305 Knights of Labor, Union No. 27 of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

Mr. Small presented a petition from Toronto against Mr. Brown's bird bill and also from the Home Benefit Society asking confirmation of their incorporation.

Mr. Brien had a series of questions on the paper respecting Rufus Stephenson's connection with the public service since June 30 last. They were all answered by Hon. Edgar Dewdney's statement that Mr. Stephenson had not been employed during that time.

Mr. Pope asked if it was the intention to establish a cattle quarantine station on the frontier at some inland port in Ontario or Quebec, and in reply Hon. John Carling said it was not, as this would be impossible without imperilling the advantage at present possessed by Canada in the markets of Great Britain. It might become necessary in consequence of an intimation recently received, to prohibit the importation of any animals from countries where pleuro-pneumonia was shown to exist.

Col. O'Brien moved for copies of the opinions expressed by the law officers of the Crown on the Jesuits' Estates Act and of the case submitted to them, together with the correspondence on the subject. His motion was seconded by Clarke Wallace. In explanation Col. O'Brien made a brief address which was listened to with great attention. He said the value of this opinion must depend on the case presented and the correspondence accompanying the bill. The opinion was so worded that it might be confined to a most narrow and technical sense, or interpreted in the widest sense. He thought that it was due to the public that the very fullest information should be presented. It was unfortunate that the Government had not submitted the case to some tribunal where it could have been manfully fought out with both sides represented. This would have tended to allay public excitement in the place of fostering the discontent that so widely obtained.

When the Speaker put the motion the whole House was eloquently silent. "Carried!" said Sir John, and carried it was.

Mr. Mulock's motion expressive of the loyalty of the Canadian people to the Queen and the Empire was next in order, but as Mr. Mulock was about to rise Sir John Macdonald sprang to his feet:

"I would ask the mover," he said, "to let it stand over until I have an opportunity of conversation with him." Mr. Mulock agreed.

Correspondence relative to the Anderson mail contract was asked for by Mr. Laurier, but Sir John requested that this motion should stand over, as negotiations for a fast Atlantic service are now in progress with another line.

Dr. Roome will move: That in the opinion of this House, the time has come when the Federal Government should establish a health department with a responsible head, presided over by a minister, or deputy minister, for the purpose of preventing the spread of disease, collecting mortuary statistics and educating the people as far as possible in all health and sanitary matters.

Mr. Bain will enquire whether it is within the Government's knowledge that, as shown by U.S. official returns, for eleven months ending Nov. 30 last 584,146 pounds of oleomargarine were exported to British North America, and has the Minister of Customs any reason to believe that it is being brought into the Dominion under assumed names.

Dr. Platt has given notice of a resolution that machinery designed for use in mining operations should not be subject to customs duty when imported into canals for mining purposes.

Mr. Small has given notice of an enquiry whether it is the intention to take action on the petitions presented to the Post master General by the railway mail clerks and letter carriers throughout the Dominion. It is his intention to endeavor to have the grievances of these employes ventilated and redressed.

Dr. Ferguson of Welland will again ask the attention of the House to the matter of erecting a monument at Lundy's Lane.

A deputation, consisting of District Organizer Keefer of the International Typographical Union, President Farrell of the Ottawa Union, and foreman Boudreault of The Citizen waited on Hon. J. A. Chapleau this afternoon. They represented the local union and asked for a definite answer in connection with the printing bureau trouble. Mr. Chapleau took notes of whatever was said and stated that he was the workingman's friend, but could not give the required raise from $11 to $13 without consulting his colleagues. He asked the deputation to wait until Monday for an answer. A meeting of the union will be held to-morrow night, at which the deputation will report.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Murderer Kane Loses His Stoicism—Alleged Criminal Malpractice.

TORONTO, Jan. 28.—Thomas Kane, the murderer condemned to be hanged on Feb. 13, has lost all his original stoicism and indifference to the sentence of death passed upon him by Mr. Justice Street. He has grown much thinner since his confinement and looks pale and careworn. He implores his counsel to intercede for him with the Minister of Justice, and it is Mr. Macdonald's intention to go to the capital for that purpose as soon as the Taylor-Johnston case, in which he is engaged for the plaintiff, is concluded. Mr. Macdonald will interview Sir John Thompson and will present to him the petition signed by the jurors who brought in the verdict of guilty and by others. He does not think that the Minister will permit the extreme penalty of the law to be carried out and he will urge upon him as a precedent the case of Thomas Buckley, who was sentenced by Chief Justice Galt to 15 years' imprisonment. Kane still protests his innocence and asserts that his neighbor, Mrs. Stirling, and her child, swore his life away.

George Sinclair, the brakeman who was run over on Wednesday last and underwent amputation of both legs at the Hospital, is in a dying condition.

Mrs. Mary Macdonald of 120 Agnes-street was taken to the Hospital yesterday afternoon suffering from the effects of an alleged attempted criminal operation. She is progressing favorably. In connection with this case Dr. Walwin, a young physician of 155 Simcoe-street, is held at Police Headquarters.

The charge of libel preferred by Editor Farrer of The Mail against Messrs. Creighton and Kribs of The Empire came up yesterday and was adjourned until this morning. The charge against Mr. Creighton himself preferred by Mr. Bunting and adjourned from Saturday was resumed, and defendant was committed for trial in his own bail of $200.

The Globe this morning announces that the "Nelson" stock in that paper has been bought by a syndicate of prominent Canadians, principally by residents of Toronto, who have long been financially and largely interested in The Globe Printing Company.

Leading physicians recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Old and young take it with perfect safety. It cleanses the blood, strengthens the nerves, and vitalizes the system. Popular experience has long placed this medicine at the head of tonic alteratives.

A PLUNGE TO DEATH.

FRIGHTFUL WRECK ON THE MONON LINE IN INDIANA.

Fire Adds Horror to the Dreadful Scene—An Appalling List of Dead and Wounded—Children Cremated in the Burning Cars.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 27.—Passenger train No. 1, on the Monon route, which left Chicago Sunday night at 11.15, was wrecked this morning at 7.50 one mile above Carmel and sixteen miles north of this city. The train was running at a rapid rate and was approaching the long trestle across Williamson creek, when the tender of the engine jumped the track. The engineer reversed his engine, but before the air-brake could check the speed of the train the locomotive and baggage-car had cleared the trestle, but the four coaches attached went over into the creek. The ladies' coach immediately caught fire and in an incredibly short time was reduced to ashes. Fortunately for the occupants of this coach, train No. 2, which left this city for Chicago at 7.30, had been ordered to meet train No. 1 at Carmel and as soon as word of the wreck was received the passengers hurried to the scene and went earnestly to work rescuing the occupants of the burning car.

A horrible scene met their eyes. In plain view of all were two boys and a woman, all dead, but their bodies were being rapidly consumed. The arm of one projected through the side of the car and could be touched by those on the outside, but the opening was not large enough to draw the body through. Immediately in front of the boy was a lady who got on the train at Frankfort and is as yet unidentified. Her body was enveloped in flames but there was no possible way to get her out of the burning coach. Across from this lady was Mrs. Enbanks of Broad Ripple, Ind. Her head was horribly crushed. The brakeman and a passenger seized her by the arms and by a desperate effort pulled the body through the window. Life was not yet extinct, but she lived only a few minutes after being taken out.

Another of the rescued, but who has since died, was Mr. Deming of Sheridan. He was pinioned to the floor by timbers and horribly crushed. Some heroic men seized axes and after a few minutes' work cut away the timbers that held the body which was removed to the north side of the track. There was no medical aid present and the man died in a few moments. Buckets having been procured from the farm houses near by the flames were soon subdued and prevented from communicating to the sleeper or other coaches. As soon as it was possible search was made for the dead. The following is an accurate list of the victims:

DEAD.

MRS. NELLIE ENBANK, Broad Ripple, burned to death.

C. C. DEMING, Frankfort, Ind., head crushed.

MRS. D. S. OLDHAM'S TWIN CHILDREN, Sheridan, Ind., burned to death.

MISS MARY HOOVER, Horton, Ind., crushed to death.

MRS. HATTIE HENSLEY, Cyclone, crushed and burned.

INJURED.

GEORGE MUNGER, express messenger, left foot badly cut, back severely injured.

F. JACKSON, porter of the sleeper, hip severely injured, head badly cut.

J. P. ALTIMIER, Chicago, shoulder bruised and otherwise slightly injured.

CHARLES L. WIRT, Frankfort, severely bruised.

E. C. WHITSETT, Indianapolis, head badly cut, back bruised.

R. C. MILLER, New York, head bruised, right leg broken, and internal injuries.

J. D. PEARSON, Sheridan, Ind., back hurt, head cut, right arm broken, possibly internal injuries.

N. E. INGERSOLL, Detroit.

GEORGE S. BIGELOW, Chicago.

LOUIS NAURAN, Indianapolis.

THOMAS CADWALADER, Chicago.

W. S. HALLADY, Boston.

D. JUSTUS.

HENRY SLUSSER, Indianapolis, all slightly injured.

S.W. STINGEL, Rossville, hurt through the hips, and arm cut.

HARRY ANGLE, Indianapolis, head and arm cut.

A. R. ANGLE, conductor of the train, badly cut about the head.

OTTO GERDMAN, Indianapolis.

J. D. BALDWIN.

WILLIAM H. MARKER.

MICHAEL FITZSIMMONS.

GEORGE L. MILLER, injured, but not seriously.

MRS MAY FITZPATRICK of Indianapolis, spine injured and head badly cut.

MRS. ELLA DOUGLASS, Frankfort, severely bruised and possible internal injuries.

W. J. Collins of The Indianapolis Sentinel, a passenger, says: The shock threw the passengers in the sleeper from one end of the car to the other, out of one berth into another and demolished everything in the car. A gentleman kicked out a window through which a number escaped. Others seeing there was no immediate danger to those in the sleeper dressed themselves. When Mrs. Oldham and her little boy were taken out of the burning car the lady, whose two other children were in the car, although badly injured made a desperate effort to return to the burning coach. Clasping her youngest in her arms she exclaimed "Thank God I have you left, but I have two other children in that fire. God be merciful," and then turning to the passengers urged them to rescue her burning children. Axes were procured and a determined effort made to get the dying and dead out, but the flames spread so rapidly the work had to be abandoned.

The train bearing the injured arrived here at 11.45. On the train all was excitement In the Pullman car at the head of the train were the more seriously injured.

Pearson, a traveling man, lay in a berth. His mind wandered and in his delirium he was selling his wares. "I can sell you better goods than any man on the road. Our house is a big one and we can give you first figures."

Mrs. Oldham and her three children got on the train at Sheridan where they bade Mr. Oldham an affectionate adieu. The mother and children were all very handsome. The party were bound for Indianapolis where they expected to spend a week with relatives. Conductor Angle sat a short distance from the happy group watching the antics of the children when the crash came. He was stunned and Mrs. Oldham also became unconscious. By her side lay her eldest child. As the rescuers bore her away she came to and called for her children. She was told they were all right and she fainted away. Through the window of the car a little hand stretched limp and lifeless. A man seized it, but the man looked through the window and there saw the impossibility of rescue.

The red hot stove loosened from its fastenings, had fallen upon the babies, pinned them down with its awful weight and burned the bodies horribly. The children were already dead. The mother recovered from her faint but her eye caught the burning car and she realised the truth and again lost consciousness.

The U.S. Navy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The Senate committee on Naval Affairs to-day decided upon the policy which will govern during this Congress in the work of building up the navy. This is, in brief, that great line-of-battle ships like the English Renbow should be constructed at once. Senators Chandler and McPherson, however, are not in accord with the decision reached and majority and minority reports will be submitted to the Senate.

THE WHISKY HEAD MUST GO.

A Big Scene Temperance Mission in Washington Official Circles.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—In his annual message to Congress President Harrison urged that steps should be taken to restrict the liquor traffic in the District of Columbia, and now it appears that, irrespective of Congressional action, a temperance mission has been established in connection with each executive department. The mission does not proclaim itself from the housetops, but operates by private and personal coercion—that is to say, by imbuing the clerks and other employes of the Government with the dread of being dismissed if they fail in any degree to keep the commandments.

The methods of the mission are the methods of the secret society, the methods that employers adopt to make their employes vote the political ticket which they favor. It appears that in one way or another Treasury employes have recently been made aware that it did not improve their standing with their superiors to be seen going into saloons or other places where intoxicating liquors are sold. A clerk who holds a responsible position and who is regarded as one of the most valuable men in his division is said to have been called up by his chief and asked if he was not in the habit of visiting public drinking-places more or less frequently.

"Yes," the clerk answered, "I take a social glass now and then with the boys when I feel like it, but I have never allowed it to interfere with my work or in any way unfit me for the discharge of my duties here."

"I am aware of that," his chief is reported to have said, "but take my advice and don't be seen in drinking-places or billiard saloons around town at night, or at any other time, for that matter."

"But I fail to see," the clerk answered, rather indignant at this attempt to interfere in his personal affairs, "what business it is of anybody else whether I drink a glass of beer now and then or not."

"Well," his superior officer replied, "I don't want to see you lose your place, and so I thought I would speak to you about it."

Other clerks who are known not to be teetotalers are said to have received similar warnings, until gradually it has come to be generally understood in the Department that an employe's standing is injuriously affected by his being seen going into saloons.

"Yes, I've lost a great deal of trade lately," said the proprietor of a restaurant near the Treasury. "I don't know just what the cause of it is, but I expect it must be the talk about the treasury that clerks who go into saloons hurt their standing and are liable to lose their places."

Temperance pledges are said to be exacted of candidates for office before an appointment is given. The case of Mr. Johnson, who was recently appointed Postmaster at Baltimore, is in point. Johnson was very strongly backed for the position, and Postmaster-General Wanamaker was inclined to give it to him, but at the White House the objection was raised that Mr. Johnson was a drinking man. Finally, in an interview with the Postmaster-General, Mr. Johnson was given to understand the objection raised against him by the President. Thereupon the candidate gave the Postmaster-General a promise that, if he were appointed to the office, he would not touch liquor during his incumbency. The Postmaster-General informed the President of this and Mr. Johnson received the appointment.

TRADE AND TRAFFIC.

Leading Features of the Grain and Produce Markets at Home and Abroad.

TORONTO, Jan. 28.—Deliveries of barley at outside points are very light, and dealers report no change in prices, quoting No. 3 extra at 30 cents. Advices from the other side confirm local dealers in the belief that the market will soon be much higher, though it may take a few weeks longer. New York dealers are hunting for large supplies, but, are not raising prices. There have, however, been sales there at 2 to 4 cents higher than a month ago. New York dealers are also acting on the belief that there is a very large quantity of barley yet in that State, but reliable advices say there is not. Bradstreet's report gives the stocks of barley in store in the United States at 2,000,000 bushels against 4,000,000 bushels last year, 3,000,000 in 1888 and 4,000,000 in 1887. With only half the stock of each of the past three years, and with large inquiries, there is every prospect of higher prices to Canadian farmers, if they will not load up the market as soon as quotations begin to advance.

Boulanger Disimproves.

PARIS, Jan. 27.—General Boulanger has written to M. Laner, member of the Chamber of Deputies, and an active Boulangist on the subject of the proposed affiliation of the Boulangist party with the Anti-Semitic agitation. The General totally disapproves this association.

The Kaiser's Birthday.

BERLIN, Jan. 27.—To-day was the thirty-first anniversary of the birth of Emperor William. It was observed very quietly. The Emperor received a number of princes, generals, and other high officials, who came to congratulate him. He also gave a reception to 3000 army officers.

The Siberian Railway.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 27.—The Russian Government has decided to construct a railway from Lake Baikal in Southern Siberia to Stretinsk on the Chinese frontier and on the Amoor River. This is to be an important link in the great through Siberian railway, the ultimate end of which is to be Vladivostok on the Japan sea.

Enough to Do at Home.

MADRID, Jan. 27.—The Minister of Foreign Affairs said in the Chamber of Deputies to-day: "It is absurd to suppose Spain is ready or is inclined to send an army to establish the monarchy in Portugal if the Republic should be proclaimed there."

Was Bismarck Huffy?

BERLIN, Jan. 27.—There is much speculation as to the reason why Prince Bismarck, after coming to Berlin to attend the closing session of the Reichstag, failed to appear. The Freisinnige Zeitung attributes his absence to irritation produced by a difference of opinion with the Emperor on the language used in the Speech from the Throne.

Cholera in Khorassan.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 27.—Advices from Astrabad report Persian Khorassan is ravaged by an intestinal disease of excessive fatality. Three thousand deaths are reported. At Nourin Meshed there were 100 deaths daily. Owing to the scarcity of doctors the nature of the disease is unknown. As Western Persia was ravaged with cholera throughout the autumn, and as thousands of people fled eastward in the hope to escape the disease, it is regarded as possible they carried it with them and that this may account for the trouble in Khorassan.

LATE LONDON GOSSIP.

A "Coming Man"—The Silver Story—The Queen's Health.

LONDON, Jan. 27.—The recent invitation of the Prince of Wales to Henry Fowler, M.P., to visit him at Sandringham, is viewed by politicians as an indication that His Royal Highness expects the early return of the Liberal party to power. To be invited to Sandringham is justly regarded as marking a definite stage on a public man's progress toward celebrity, for the Prince of Wales has an extraordinarily quick perception for "coming men" and shows the most sagacious alacrity in making friends of them. In inviting Mr. Fowler the Prince has formally recognised and ratified the public judgment which has assigned to Mr. Fowler a prominent and merited place in the next Liberal cabinet.

It is learned on the authority of one of the governors of the Bank of England that the story about silver has for its foundation the fact that Mr. Goschen, Chancellor of the Exchequer, has been urged to introduce a bill into Parliament to provide means for the coinage of silver bullion to relieve British bankers and merchants from embarrassments caused by the constantly recurring scarcity of silver in Shanghai and other trading centers in China. For several months this scarcity of silver has been more remarkable than at any other period, especially as in addition to the imports of this metal, a noteworthy supply has long been obtained from mines in the Chinese empire itself. An increasing demand for the higher form of currency—silver—in China, however, seems a natural consequence of its commercial progress.

It is said by those about the court that the rheumatism from which Queen Victoria suffers has been of late very troublesome, and that the variations of climate this winter have made it more acute, so that the projected journey to Homburg is regarded by Her Majesty's advisers with great satisfaction. Regret has been expressed in a high quarter that the Queen is not advised to try the effect of a visit to Buxton or Bath. At the latter place great improvements have been carried out, but it is said that at both places there is no residence suited for the retirement desired by the Queen, and it is also remarked that Her Majesty derives benefit from the thorough change of scene involved in a visit to the continent.

A Terrible Crime.

CANANDAIGUA, N.Y., Jan. 27.—At South Bristol the house of Fred Johnson was burned this morning early. None of the neighbors knew of the fire until they got up from their beds. Then they were horrified to learn that there had also been a sacrifice of human life, but after an all-day search had only been able to find one body and that so badly charred that the sex could not be determined. A telephone message from South Bristol says Johnson and his wife had been quarreling for some time past and the belief is obtaining that he set fire to the house and then made good his escape, permitting his wife to perish in the flames.

A Mysterious Explosion.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Jan. 27.—The Cambria Iron Company is building a dump along the Conemaugh River. Last night a load of cinders was thrown into the river when a terrific explosion followed shaking the whole town and terrifying the citizens who all rushed out of their houses. In Woodvale beds were tilted on their edge and the occupants thrown out. No one was hurt.

The Bar Opposed to the Hall Bill—Senator Bodier's Wealth.

MONTREAL, Jan. 27.—Revivalists Crossley and Hunter preached yesterday in two of the leading Methodist churches.

The polling of the Montreal bar on the Hall bill now before the Legislature, which has for its object that candidates having the "B.A." title shall not need to undergo the regular examination, resulted in an adverse vote of 152 to 73. The bar considered that it was an encroachment upon their rights.

The late Senator C. S. Rodier was a great philanthropist and had amassed a fortune of upwards of $2,000,000. He was a staunch Conservative and a great temperance worker. The deceased was a director of the Scottish Commercial Insurance Company and Mutual Life Insurance Company. He lately gave $25,000 to the Grey Nunnery Convent and $40,000 to St. Peter's Cathedral. He leaves a wife and eight children.

Archbishop Fabre issued a circular to be read in the different churches yesterday asking the prayers of the faithful for the disappearance of the disastrous epidemic which is now ravaging the province.

AT LAST!

A Wonderful Vegetable Discovery That Removes the Terrible Results of Overwork.

A True Invigorator.

Weakness and prostration of the nervous system surely follow that overwork and worry which brings sorrow and suffering to so many Canadian homes. The terrible results of nervous weakness, are seen on every hand. Pains in the back, poor and unrefreshing sleep, lack of appetite dyspepsia, and lost energy and strength, are the first symptoms of more serious and danger. ous trouble. This is the way that Paralysis, Paresis and Insanity begin. Do not delay a moment longer, for some time it will be too late to regain your lost health and vitality. Use Paine's Celery Compound now, and the dull eyes will regain their brilliancy, the cheeks will grow rosy, the brain become clear, the nerves strong and steady, your sleep restful and refreshing, appetite good, and health and happiness will take the place of misery and suffering.

A. Sabiston, the well known lithographer of Montreal, writes: "In the summer of 1888 I had to work very hard, and was troubled considerably with insomnia (sleeplessness). I resolved to try your Paine's Celery Compound, and after taking the contents of two bottles, felt like a new man. A good night's rest gave me strength for the duties of the day, and instead of starting out to business in the morning feeling as if I had completed a day's work instead of being about to commence one I started out in good spirits, feeling fresh and strong. My wife and various friends, to whom I recommended the medicine, have been benefited greatly, and in fact 'Paine's Celery Compound is a household word in our family."

The Daily Examiner.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 1890.

A Difference.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I am a careful reader of both the town dailies, the Review and EXAMINER; I have a lively and painful recollection of the late visit of the evangelists, Crossley and Hunter, to Peterborough. Both papers were filled evening after evening, ad nauseam with elaborate reports of their meetings—from a column and a half to two columns per day. I had no sympathy with these reports and did not read them; but I did not complain, for I recognise that every religious interest must be studied by the two newspapers. But I observe with surprise—justifiable under the circumstances—that, while for the past week the Redemptorist Fathers have been holding a mission in St. Peter's Cathedral, yet we see nothing by way of report in either paper—merely a paragraphic recognition of the mission. Nor do I complain that elaborate reports are not given of the mission. The services in connection with it are common sense and not sensational, and therefore do not furnish material for sensational reports.

I simply make this comparison and make these remarks as showing that the newspapers are not doing the amount of "pandering" which a certain class of bigots are fond of attributing to them. By the way, I may remark that the newspapers of Peterborough devote a very large amount of their space to certain church and moral objects of the town, day after day and month after month, and I see with pain, when on some special occasion, a column or two is devoted to the Roman Catholic Church, that the cry of "pandering to Rome" is raised. I contend that in my view, the proper way to conduct a newspaper, is to give to each church the amount of space the meetings in connection with it deserve. As it is, it seems to me that the Methodists and Presbyterians get the big end of the space devoted to religious matters.

Yours truly,

JUSTICE.

Jan. 27th, 1890.

Six Months in Gaol.

Beaumont, the Wicked Hired Man, Convicted on Two Counts—He will Spend Half a Year in Gaol.

The trial of Thomas Beaumont was concluded yesterday afternoon. The magistrate reserved judgment in the indecent assault case, and did not give his decision until the larceny case had been disposed of.

Beaumont was charged with the larceny of a Persian lamb cap from Mr. Wm. Stewart, of Otonabee.

The plaintiff said he lived on con. 16, lot 18, Otonabee, and on Friday evening last the prisoner came to his place about dark, looking for work. He stopped all night, had supper and breakfast, and left about half-past nine. Mr. Stewart missed his cap from its place on the wall in the kitchen, and he identified the one produced in court as the missing article. Prisoner hung his oilcloth coat on one of the hooks alongside his cap. When prisoner left, Mr. Stewart was out in the barn, but his housekeeper was inside. He next saw prisoner in the police court Saturday afternoon, and when he accused him of taking his cap prisoner said something about not taking it, and then he said it might be in his valise. Mr. Stewart said he and Chief Rossel went down to the station, opened the valise and found the cap.

Chief Rossel said he was present when Mr. Stewart accused prisoner of stealing his cap. Beaumont denied it, but Mr. Stewart persisted and the prisoner admitted that if he did take it, it was in his valise at the station.

Constable Stewart testified to his arrest of the prisoner, who acted a little unruly. He also heard prisoner speak as the Chief had said in his evidence.

Prisoner's counsel asked the magistrate to take a lenient view of the case. The matter could not be explained, but the fact that the prisoner told the police about the valise did not tend to show any guilt. Prisoner stated also that the cap had been taken by mistake, with the rubber coat. The Crown Attorney pointed out that even if the cap was taken with the coat and put in the valise, which was scarcely possible, prisoner must have seen the cap when he opened his valise to take out the rubber coat, which he was wearing when arrested.

SIX MONTHS IN GAOL.

The magistrate said he had no alternative but to find the prisoner guilty of larceny. The facts were too apparent, and the prisoner could not have made any mistake about it.

He also found the prisoner guilty of indecent assault upon Mrs. McNevan. He did not think the woman was of very strong mind, and that she was insulted three or four times because she had not the strong mind to strongly resist the prisoner's advances. While her conduct was not justifiable, still she appears to have resisted as much as she was able. The prisoner's conduct was grossly improper. Her husband, too, he considered to blame for harboring the prisoner after his attempts came to his knowledge. Prisoner's conduct since his arrest had not been such as to impress him (the magistrate) very favorably, but being a young man he was disposed to be lenient. For each of these conviction he sentenced the prisoner to six months in prison at hard labor, the sentences to run concurrently.

Stewart's, Otonabee.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

Threshing is nearly done in this neighborhood, and big straw stacks are numerous, but the quantity of good reliable grain is below that of last season and of an inferior quality. Peas did the best here, of which there was a great many sown. But the farmers look happy and contented except a few of our bachelor friends who have a sort of a deserted look on their faces and seem to be thinking of the happy times they might have if they only could pluck up courage and pop the question to some of the girls who have been just sixteen these last twenty years.

The cold weather of the past few days seems to be checking Mr. La Grippe in his speedy tour through this neighborhood, and the afflicted ones have nearly all recovered.

South Dummer.

From a Correspondent.

There's going to be no end of a row at South Dummer over the removal of the South Dummer post office to Norwood, thus putting the people in this vicinity to great inconvenience and trouble, and, withal, treating them most unfairly. The Dominion Government must expect very little, if any, support from this corner of the East Riding. We are strong Equal Rights people here and we are going to have post office rights equal to our neighbours or we shall know the reason why. We have stood the outrage of the removal of the post office with very exemplary patience, but patience has ceased to be a virtue. The Government has been importuned and begged of, but they refuse to listen to us. Of course we can't compel them to do us justice, but we can present an ultimatum like this: No post office; no vote. Mr. Maggart should make a note of this.

Day and Night

During an acute attack of Bronchitis, a, ceaseless tickling in the throat, and an exhausting, dry, hacking cough, afflict the sufferer. Sleep is banished, and great prostration follows. This disease is also attended with Hoarseness, and sometimes Loss of Voice. It is liable to become chronic, involve the lungs, and terminate fatally. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral affords speedy relief and cure in cases of Bronchitis. It controls the disposition to cough, and induces refreshing sleep.

I have been a practicing physician for twenty-four years, and, for the past twelve, have suffered from annual attacks of Bronchitis. After exhausting all the usual remedies

Without Relief,

I tried Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It helped me immediately, and effected a speedy cure.—G. Stovell, M. D., Carrollton, Miss.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is decidedly the best remedy, within my knowledge, for chronic Bronchitis, and all lung diseases. —M. A. Rust, M. D., South Paris, Me.

I was attacked, last winter, with a severe Cold, which, from exposure, grew worse and finally settled on my Lungs. By night sweats I was reduced almost to a skeleton. My Cough was incessant, and I frequently spit blood. My physician told me to give up business, or I would not live a month. After taking various remedies without relief, I was finally two bottles of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I am now in perfect health, and able to resume business, after having been pronounced incurable with Consumption.—S. P. Henderson, Saulsburgh, Penn.

For years I was in a decline. I had weak lungs, and suffered from Bronchitis and Catarrh. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral restored me to health, and I have been for a long time comparatively vigorous. In case of a sudden cold I always resort to the Pectoral, and find speedy relief.—Edward E. Curtis, Rutland, Vt.

Two years ago I suffered from a severe Bronchitis. The physician attending me became fearful that the disease would terminate in Pneumonia. After trying various medicines, without benefit, he finally prescribed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which relieved me at once. I continued to take this medicine a short time, and was cured. —Ernest Colton, Logansport, Ind.

OATMEAL FOOD

OATMEAL is one of the items of daily call in the family.

Rich and poor alike appreciate its value as a palatable and nutritious food.

Is it to be found on every breakfast table—or ought to be.

ROLLED, GRANULATED or STANDARD, it leaves all other competitors in public favor.

Its popularity is largely due to the excellence obtained by improved methods of manufacture.

PALATABLE, NUTRITIOUS CHEAP. The Oat contains all the constituents necessary for the maintenance of high bodily vigor.

It is one of those complex foods which is capable of supporting life and health for an indefinite period.

In the border raids and forays of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, it was held in high esteem—an example at least—East of the Tweed.

The provision carried by a Scottish soldier in those days was simply a bag of oatmeal.

With his good Claymore and Shield, and reinforced by this food, in spite of scant attire and inferior camp conditions, how often did he cope successfully with the haughty Southern and was enabled to rear the backs of the best soldiers in the world.

Happily those days are past and milder and more peaceful times prevail.

But this food is still in the ascendant.

Its demand increases every day.

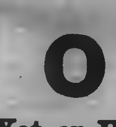
RUPTURE.

CHAS. CLUTHE

who after many years trial by the medical profession has secured their confidence and esteem, will be in your neighborhood, see below.



If your children are ruptured or deformed, call and see him with your physician. Having spent his whole life in improving and perfecting appliances for rupture and other deformities, it is conceded by the best authorities that he is the only man in this line of business who can, after examining the patient, invent and construct a correct appliance to overcome the most difficult cases, as many thousands have testified. No two are made alike.

One of Toronto's most prominent wholesale merchants testifies, one week after I had adjusted this new truss:—"For six months, by the advice of my physician, I have been attending a well-known firm of truss makers on Church street, sometimes as often as three times a day, but they never succeeded in holding the rupture. What they have been attempting for six months you have effected at the first attempt. I thank you heartily, and you may reckon on my assistance for all I can to attain the success you deserve.

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 14, 1890.

CHAS CLUTHE, Esq.

DEAR SIR,—I feel is my duty to inform you that my little girl, who was afflicted with double Curvature of the Spine and whom you supplied with one of your Appliances, is restored to health again, and is now as straight and natural as could be. She has worn the Appliance constantly without hindrance or pain. I would advise and strongly recommend any person similarly afflicted to apply to you at once for relief. Our family physician, Dr. J. S. King, of Toronto, recommended me to you as being the best maker of these instruments, and I must say that I am more than pleased with the result of your Appliance, and think it cheap at any price.

THE DIAMOND BUTTON

FROM THE DIARY OF A LAWYER AND THE NOTE BOOK OF A REPORTER.

By BARCLAY NORTH.

(Copyrighted, 1889, by G. M. Dunham. Published by special arrangement through The American Press Association.)

When the tale was ended and the talk flagged for a moment, Fountain leaned forward and said:

"I beg your pardon, Mr. Bryan, I am not often guilty of the enormity of directing attention to the wear of gentlemen, but the buttons you have are so curious that I should like to make an inquiry."

"Pardon is granted, for I am rather fond of these buttons. They are rare, and as a poor devil of a newspaper man doesn't often mount valuable jewelry, I am distinguished among my fellows for them."

"I never saw but one pair like them," continued Fountain, "and they were in the nature of an heirloom. Those buttons were of Florentine manufacture—my friend having had a diamond inserted in them. They had belonged to his grandfather, who received them as a present from an Italian, so he told me."

"Yes?" said Tom, dumfounded by the coolness displayed by Fountain. "These buttons were given me by a gentleman—a friend for whom once it lay in my power to do a very great favor."

"It was possibly the same person," said Fountain.

"Possibly," replied Tom.

Tom had expected to disconcert Fountain by displaying them, and was taken aback by the fact that Fountain had directed attention to them.

He thought that either Fountain was a man of the coolest nerve, or that the buttons did not belong to him. He was loath to give it up so, and consequently he dexterously turned the conversation to New York matters, and then watching Fountain so that he could observe every shade of expression, he suddenly said:

"I have been given a hint from headquarters that they are on the track of Templeton's murderer."

Fountain's face never flinched, and an expression of mild curiosity only arose upon it.

"Indeed, I hope they may catch the rascal; it was a dastardly deed."

As extraordinary as was the command Tom exercised over his features at all times, it is to be feared that astonishment, if not disappointment, was visible for a moment. However, Fountain had turned to the others as he pronounced these words, and did not notice the fleeting expression on Tom's face.

"How long do you stay, Fountain?" inquired some one at the table.

"I return to-morrow night," was the reply.

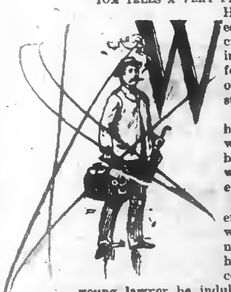
"And I to-morrow morning," interposed Tom airily. "And as I have to get off at an unconscionably early hour, I shall retire from this enchanting scene of vice, flee the temptation of your seductive society, and say good night."

Once on the sidewalk, he struck his cane on the stones and said aloud:

"Well, he beats the deck for coolness and self possession. I expected to carry him by a coup de grace, but not a tremor, by Jove! He is a man of nerve. However, my trip, as much by good luck as by tact, has not been unfruitful. One or two more turns of the coil and I've got him." After a moment's silence: "Hang it, I'm growing frightfully stupid. Why in the name of common sense didn't I ask him who it was who owned the buttons? If there was a convenient stone wall here I'd butt my head against it to see if it has turned soft. However, that photograph ought to be ready by the time I get back to New York, and then for the identification. By St. George, the work goes bravely on! So I'll to bed."

CHAPTER XIX.

TOM TELLS A VERY PRETTY STORY.



WHEN Tom arrived in New York city it was early in the morning, for he came in upon the Sound steamer.

Breakfasting, he went straightway to Holbrook's office. He was anxious to exchange news.

He felt that the end of the search was growing near, and while he waited the coming of the young lawyer, he indulged in pleasant anticipations of the sensation he would create, the largeness of the "scoop" he would have upon his contemporaries, and he even began to arrange in his mind the details of the narrative for his paper.

It was characteristic of the man that he felt no pity for the intended victim, or gave thought to the distress his exposure would carry into the household of Witherspoon.

Not that Tom was an unkindly man. He had only been hardened in the practice of his profession and sought his ends remorselessly.

While he was indulging these expectations Holbrook came in.

"Where have you been for the past few days?" he said, without waiting for salutations. "I have been seriously alarmed. I sent everywhere for you and could not find you."

"To Newport."

"A pretty time to go pleasuring," grumbled Holbrook. "I found your Shadow, but he wouldn't tell me anything."

"No, he never tells," said Tom, complacently.

"You gave me a pretty fright; why didn't you let me know you were going?"

"Hadn't time. But," said Tom, "I'll relieve you. I went on the very business you think I neglected. Shadow, who keeps very close to Fountain's man—his valet—and worms everything out of him, came to me hastily before I was out of bed a few days ago, with the information that Fountain had been summoned to Newport, after considerable telegraphic correspondence with the Ashgrove girl. Upon the impulse of the moment, I determined to go, and I made up my mind that if I started at once without delay I could get there before he did. An instinct—intuition—what you will—impelled me to go. So not having time to see you I left at once. I made a big strike."

"Oh, then you have learned something?"

"A great deal. Listen. I had not time to pack anything, but I grabbed a bag I had used on my last trip out of town, in which I knew there was a change of clean linen, and just caught the train."

"Get to your point," said Holbrook impatiently, deeply interested.

"Take it easy, my boy, it is not to be told that way. The beauty of telling a tale is telling it in a sequential manner; you make your points much stronger, and a clearer understanding is the result."

"Oh, go on your own way," returned Holbrook, irritably, realizing that Tom was not to be driven and that interruption only delayed the course of his narrative.

"Well, then, as I traveled on I had time to examine the reasons laying back of my impulse. Of course, if Fountain went to Newport he would go to Witherspoon's. That several telegrams had passed between himself and the Ashgrove girl, and that Fountain had expressed a desire to remain in New York a few days longer and had yielded in obedience to the last telegram from Newport, showed urgency. Now, what urgency, and why? That was what I was traveling to Newport to find out if I could."

"I should take it a very poor reason," interrupted Holbrook. "The idea of traveling off so many miles upon an impulse."

"My dear fellow, your inability to appreciate how controlling such impulses are upon some temperaments, shows me clearly you would never succeed as a newspaper man. I make it a rule of life to obey the promptings of my intuitions. Hence my success."

"Well, get on with your story."

The Canada Life

Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder:"

When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5,040,186, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calendar year, the result of which would be to reduce the ensuing one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would certain it considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $840,186 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525,000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300,000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management. dw

Royal Arcanum.

The Royal Arcanum has just closed the fiscal year with another remarkable record of work in the cause of fraternity and protection for the homes of its members. As near as can be ascertained at the present date there were initiated during 1889 nearly 11,000 members and the present membership is very nearly 96,000. During the year 1889 the amount paid in death claims was $2,146,525, making the total payments to the 31st of December, $12,557,726. From every section, both in the States and in Canada, the reports indicate a steady and healthy increase in membership. Fraternity and harmony prevail. The balance in the Widow and Orphans Benevolent Fund at the close of business December 31st, was $126,321.64 in current account, and $23,500 in delayed claims, amply sufficient to cover all accrued and contingent liabilities, with a good working surplus for emergencies.

Opening of the School.

The new North Ward School building was opened this morning in so far as was possible. The desks have not yet arrived, and it is not known when they will be here; but the Property Committee of the School Board sent a number of seats from the other schools and this morning two classes were started. The attendance was of course small, on account of the prevalent sickness and the fact the Board has as yet drawn no line of division between the school sections. This will be done at a future meeting. The teachers in attendance at present are Miss McClelland and Miss Beckett. The school will not be in good running order until the desks arrive. The new building is one of the best and most complete in the province. There are four large, well-lighted and airy rooms, heated and ventilated by the Smead-Dowd system. The building occupies a commanding position and will no doubt be sufficient to relieve the pressure on the other schools.

Over Twelve Years Established.

A live and well established grocery and provision business for sale. R. H. Green, on account of continued ill-health, has decided to sell his entire stock of groceries, provisions, &c., en bloc, at a bargain, to a suitable purchaser. The goods are nearly all new, well assorted and bought at the lowest possible wholesale prices. The stock, furnishings, horse, rigging, &c., will amount to about twelve hundred dollars, but will be reduced considerably within the next few weeks (if I don't meet with a wholesale purchaser in the meantime), as I am now retailing them at a great sacrifice. Parties wanting good fresh groceries, provisions, &c., for the holiday season will find it to their advantage to call before buying elsewhere, as decided bargains will be given. The goods must be sold. R. H. GREEN, corner of Hunter and Aylmer streets, Peterborough, Dec. 3rd. w47tnf

The High License Bylaw.

The public meeting called for the old Music Hall last night, for the purpose of considering the high license bylaw, could not be called large and enthusiastic. In fact it was rather a fizzle. At eight o'clock there were not more than fifteen people in the hall, including councillors Rutherford and Dawson, and hotelkeepers Cavanagh, Daly and Snowden. Some more came and others left, but only one or two of those who signed the requisition asking for the meeting were present. By 9 o'clock there were about fifty present, including Councillor Langford. The other councillors did not wait. The meeting was consolidated about the platform, Mr. Geo. Ross was elected chairman. The bylaw was discussed, or rather freely condemned, Mr. John McNaughton, Mr. H. B. Merrick, Mr. Daly Mr. Bogue, the chairman, and others speaking on the subject. Finally this resolution was passed:—

Moved by Mr. James Bogue, seconded by Mr. J. Campbell,—That the Town Council be requested so take no further action in regard to the High License Bylaw, and that should the Council do so, the members of that body individually be held responsible for any additional costs that may be incurred.

The Board adjourned till the first Monday in March, when a new caretaker will be appointed.

NEW NICHOLLS HOSPITAL

Formally Handed Over by Mrs. Nicholls.

Interesting Ceremonies—Address and Reply—A Handsome Endowment—The Address Illuminated—The Chairman's Reply—Other Addresses.

One of the most interesting ceremonies ever performed in the town, took place to-day as the new Nicholls Hospital building, that is the formal handing over of the magnificent structure with its complete equipment and appliances for the relief of the afflicted and the healing of the sick, to the trustees, coupled with the munificent gift of $35,000 for endowment. This noble benefaction, will be, to Mrs. Nicholls, a monument more enduring than brass, and will be, to generations to come, a perpetual source of health and relief, a systematic and practical realization of the spirit of the parable of the Good Samaritan, whose story is blazoned on the magnificent memorial window erected in the main hall by the Hospital Trust.

The day was beautifully bright and pleasant, and at the hour of two o'clock the streets leading to the hospital were alive with equipages. The hospital building was in special festive flags floating brightly from different salient points.

Before the beginning of the formal ceremony the large number of citizens present spent the time in going through the building inspecting the completeness of its equipment and convenience of arrangement.

The ceremony took place in the large south ward.

Mr. Richard Hall, Chairman of the Hospital Trust, escorted Mrs. Nicholls into the room, which contained a company, including the several ministers of the town, the Trustees of the hospital, several of the physicians of the town, the members of parliament, Mr. Stratton, M.P.P., and Mr. Stevenson, M.P., represented by His Honor Judge Weller, who after announcing that he had been requested by Mrs. Nicholls, to preside on the occasion, called upon Rev. P. Clifton Parker, who opened the proceedings with an appropriate prayer.

Judge Weller read a letter of regret from the Hon. the Provincial Secretary, stating that a previous engagement prevented him being present.

After stating the object of the gathering and paying a high tribute to Mrs. Nicholls' generosity, Judge Weller called upon Rev. A. Bell, representing Mrs. Nicholls, who was however present.

REV MR. BELL, on her behalf expressed her pleasure at seeing so many persons present, an evidence of sympathy she highly appreciated. Rev. Mr. Bell then read the following statement:—

MRS. NICHOLLS' STATEMENT.

I have long entertained the conviction that those to whom God has given the means should, to the best of their ability, use present opportunities for doing good, and not leave their gifts and kindnesses to be distributed by other hands when they are gone. Moved by this thought I have been trying in the way that seemed to me most appropriate and needful to give practical effect to my conviction by doing something for the relief of the suffering in the community, and especially for those who, in circumstances of affliction and in emergencies, are not able to provide for themselves.

That a beginning was made five years ago is well known. The premises then occupied as the hospital, and since under your care, were considered amply sufficient for the lowly requirements of the town for years to come, but it was soon found that the accommodation was at times inadequate and the conveniences necessary for doing the work somewhat hampered.

Under these circumstances it was clearly foreseen that the appreciation of the public in using the hospital, with the growth of the town, would soon make an enlargement necessary, if the institution was to keep the place in the community which it was intended to fill and do the work, for which it was established. I have seen and considered all this, and with the view of meeting the want of securing the increased accommodation required of providing greater convenience for doing the work, and so enlarging the capacity of the hospital and widening its usefulness. I have had this place in which we are now assembled specially prepared for the purpose.

All the arrangements have been made with care, and I hope will be found to be both suitable and convenient. The place is now ready for occupation, and I beg that the Board will do me the favor of accepting this building with all its appurtenances, as a substitute for the other now in use, henceforth to be used and known as the Nicholls Hospital, within the meaning and upon the terms and conditions of the Trust.

And the more certainly to provide the funds necessary to give effect to my desire, and as a grateful acknowledgment of mercies and relief vouchsafed to myself during a season of affliction, I wish to place in your hands this small addition of $35,000, to the Endowment Fund.

The title deeds, without encumbrance, were then presented to the Chairman of the Trust, Mr. Richard Hall, accompanied with a cheque for $35,000, as "a small addition" to the endowment fund of the hospital.

MR. HALL then read the following reply:

TO MRS. CHARLOTTE J. NICHOLLS:

MADAM,—In accepting at your hands the gift of this hospital and its accompanying endowment, we can but feebly express the gratitude which you have so nobly earned, not only from the citizens of this generation, who will receive the benefit of your bounty, but from all future generations; and the philanthropic motives which have induced you to bestow so much of the means with which it has pleased God to bless you, upon an object designed to minister to the comfort and well-being of suffering humanity, could not have a more fitting monument than the building in which we stand, equipped as it is with all things necessary to accomplish the purpose for which it is intended.

On behalf of those citizens of the town of Peterborough, whose interest you have had at heart, we thank you for the gift; and, while humbly assuming the responsibilities which the trust imposes upon us, we venture so express the hope that we and our successors shall at all times so perform the duties imposed upon us that this hospital shall prove the blessing and comfort which, we are well assured, it is your wish it should be, to the afflicted of this community.

On behalf of the Nicholls Hospital Trust,

RICH'D HALL,
Chairman.

C. MCGILL,
Hon. Secretary.

Peterborough, January 28th, 1890.

As his reply concluded the band, stationed outside, struck up and played "God Save the Queen."

Then followed a series of brief addresses.

Rev. Mr. BELL could not find words to express the nobleness of the gift the occasion signalized which he aptly characterized as munificent. Mrs. Nicholls was a lady of noble thoughts and noble deeds, and the suffering would bless her name as long as this hospital stood.

Rev. J. C. DAVIDSON, rector of Peterborough, said that only one thing could be said, and that was to thankfully acknowledge the benefits that would accure to his flock from the hospital, and he thanked Mrs. Nicholls, on their behalf, most heartily for her noble gift.

Rev. Mr. SHOREY, Charlotte street Methodist church, added his congratulations, and spoke of hospitals as the direct outcome of the compassionate spirit of Christ. He spoke in flattering terms of Mrs. Nicholls, munificent gift, and hoped the noble objects of its foundation would be realized.

Mr. J. R. STRATTON, M.P.P., after expressing his pleasure at being present, referred to the great benefit such an institution would be to the town, and the benefit already derived from the old hospital. He had no doubt that with the usual liberality of the Ontario Government, they would liberally assist the institution from the funds of the province.

Dr. FITZ expressed the sentiment that the hospital would be a lasting institution, in connection with which the name of Nicholls would go down to future generations as a most worthy example to others. He referred to Mrs. Nicholls' munificence as beyond that of any other citizen of the town.

Dr. HALLIDAY said that while the medical staff had done much good in the old building, with all its imperfections, in the new building they could hope for much better success. One great benefit was derived from the complete isolation it afforded those suffering from contagious diseases. He thought in all instances when the isolation of individual cases contagious diseases could not be preserved, it should be made compulsory to send them to an hospital.

The Chairman, Judge Weller, then rose, and with a few preliminary remarks said:—"I declare this Nicholls' Hospital now open for the purposes for which it has been dedicated by Mrs. Nicholls. (Applause.)

He took occasion to say facetiously, on one's behalf of Mrs. Nicholls, that he felt assured that in bestowing the gift she was not actuated by any desire for personal gratification, but that she had performed the great charity in the spirit o' that language found in the Bible:—"All beings come of thee, O God, and of thine own have I given thee."

The Chairman then invited the public to remain and inspect the building and partake of the refreshments which the hospital staff would dispense in the dining room.

In consolation, a vote of thanks was moved to the chairman by Mr. J. R. Stratton, M. P. P., seconded by Mr. W. H. Moore, who, as a member of the Town Council, took occasion to express his sense of thanks to Mrs. Nicholls.

The CHAIRMAN made a brief reply, and the audience dispersed.

A large number remained behind to ramble through the immense building and visiting the dining room, where refreshments were served by the neatly uniformed young ladies attended to the hospital staff, headed by Miss Dalby, the diligent and capable matron.

Our Kindergarten.

Miss Warner Ready to Open Her Room—Results of the Teaching.

To-morrow morning our kindergarten teacher Miss Warner, will receive her little pupils in the newly furnished room. The large room on the ground floor, at the south east corner of the Institute building has been thoroughly renovated—the ceiling has been brightened up, the walls nicely tinted, the woodwork painted, the old blinds which so thoroughly darkened the room removed, and a new hardwood floor laid. The room is now sweet and inviting. For the west folk little chairs are provided—the twenty smallest children having bright red chairs, while every two children preside over and have for themselves a small table. The teacher uses for purpose of instruction—all manner of cunning blocks with which the children erect structures varying from simplest forms to elaborate castles, all manner of figures and designs are made, paper, strings, straws, Berlin wools, slates, pencils, etc., are brought into requisition, developing skill neatness and accuracy. It is found that it is the close attension which the child is obliged to give in order to perform the necessary movements in various pleasing constructive employment, that sets the mechanism of the senses in motion and thus secures the development of power. The pupils learn to know by doing, and to do by knowing. Interspersed with the heavier exercises the little ones sing and are exercised in gentle calisthenics.

The efficiency of a system of education depends on the efficiency of its primary education. It is found wherever kindergarten trained children enter the Public Schools that they make by far the most progress, while the deftness acquired by the training of hand and eye are a benefit for life.

RESULTS MANIFESTED.

One writer says:—"In schools in which modified forms of kindergarten work have been adopted, the following results have been clearly manifested:—(A)—The pupils have a much higher degree of general intelligence; (B)—They have a much higher power of concentration; (C)—They do better in arithmetic, getting the first ideas more readily, and also conceptions for fractions; (D)—They have a much better command of language; (E)—They learn more easily the forms of letters and words, and hence reading comes easier; (F)—The exercises have completely displaced the inveterate idea that school is a pleasant place to go from; (G)—The little ones being delighted with the school, the interest of parents is awakened, and the interest of the parents helps the teacher to make the school.'"

Miss Warner will have two assistants, who enter her department as students of the system. The greatest trouble the board will experience will be their inability to provide kindergarten accommodation for all who desire it.

An Unpleasant Experience.

STRATFORD, Jan. 27.—Geo. Bain, a traveller from Peterborough, had an exceedingly unpleasant experience here this morning. Pagsley, the Yankee fugitive from justice, who does not want to go back to his own country because of frauds perpetrated there that benefitted him and depleted the purses of many farmers, has been hanging round Goderich for some days. He was noticed, and word was sent to the other side. He got wind of the fact that an American detective was after him, and left Goderich on the morning train that arrives here at about nine o'clock. A request to have him arrested was wired here. G.T.R. Constable Ashmore was on hand when the train came in, and Gaoloaster Crawford pointed out Pagsley to him. He got the assistance of Chief of Police McCarthy, and the two got on the train bound for Toronto, in one of the coaches of which Ashmore pointed out Mr. Bain as the man above him by Gaoloaster Crawford. The two policemen therefore suffered him, and despite his protestations took him out of the car and up town. Pagsley was in the most excited and viewed with remarkable equanimity the carrying out of the farce that gave him his liberty. Mr. Bain was released as often as Mr. Crawford said he was not the man. He missed his train, had a hotel and lunch bill to pay, and visits of sorrow for damages, &c. He left for Toronto on the afternoon train.

THE HOUSE AT WORK ON SIR JOHN THOMPSON'S BILL.

More Than Half the Measure Relating to Commercial Paper Passed in Committee —Another Batch of Petitions—The Printing Bureau Trouble.

OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—The Government settled down to business to-day and having had the bill relating to bills of exchange, checks and promissory notes read a second time, moved the House into committee of the whole and in 2¼ hours more than half the lumsome bill was adopted.

The bill as re-introduced is practically the same as when withdrawn at the close of the last session. During the recess copies were sent out to bankers and others interested but they had no suggestions to offer. A few clauses were held over to-day for further consideration. One of these relates to sight drafts. It has been customary to consider these payable only at three days' grace but by the provisions of this bill they were declared to be payable on demand. Mr. Peter White objected to this departure from custom, and he was warmly backed up by Hon. Peter Mitchell, Mr. Weldon (St. John), Mr. Charlton and others, and as Sir John Thompson seemed rather inclined to agree with their arguments it is probable that what hitherto has been only custom will henceforth have the force of the law, and there will be three days' difference between sight and demand drafts.

Another point discussed at length was a suggestion made by Mr. Kirkpatrick that this bill should distinctly provide that notes given for patent rights should have that fact plainly stated on their face. The fraudulent transactions arising out of these patent rights notes are said to be very extensive. Mr. Burnett says the nuisance has prevailed to such a great extent in his locality that he contemplated introducing a bill dealing with it.

At 5.50 Sir John Thompson apparently decided that sufficient progress had been made for one day and the committee rose and the House adjourned.

The crop of petitions continues bountiful. To-day Mr. Denison presented a number asking labor legislation from District Assembly No. 126, Knights of Labor, Toronto, and Mr. Livingston presented a number to the same effect from Iron Moulders' Union, No. 103, of Galt.

Mr. Denison also presented a petition from John N. Cheesworth, G. N. Grant, B. W. Clark, J. E. Schiller, A. H. Royce, and F. R. Powell of Toronto, Dr. J. H. C. Willoughby of Regina and George E. Kidd of Ottawa for authority to extend their line of railway, from its present authorised terminus near Saskatchewan.

Mr. Wallace presented a petition from the Manitoba & Northwestern Railway Company asking that their authority to issue bonds, which is now limited to $30,000 per mile, may be limited by the amount of annual charge created thereon in place of by the amount of capital borrowed.

The French residents of the Northwest are still petitioning against Mr. McCarthy's proposal to disallow the official use of their mother tongue. Mr. Davis to-day presented petitions from residents of St. Laurand, Prince Albert, Carlton and Battleford districts.

These bills were introduced to-day and read a first time:

Mr. Hudspeth: To incorporate the Lindsay, Bobcaygeon and Pontypool Railway Company.

Mr. Corby: To incorporate the Belleville and Lake Nipissing Railway Company.

Mr. Curran: To incorporate Belding, Paul & Co. (Limited).

Dr. Hickey: To incorporate the Ottawa, Morrisburg and New York Railway Company.

Mr. Dawson: To incorporate the Sault Ste. Marie and Hudson Bay Railway Company.

Hon. Mr. Colby has changed his seat, but remains as a Minister at the same desk at which he sat for many years as a private member. He merely changed places with his companion, Mr. Rykert, who has hitherto literally sat between Mr. Colby and the Cabinet. The Ministers sit in the first and second rows. Hon. Mackenzie Bowell is on the extreme right in the first and Hon. Mr. Colby sits immediately behind him. Mr. Bowell's desk-mate is Mr. McCarthy.

Mr. Charlton gives notice of this motion: That a select committee be appointed, to consist of Messrs. Patterson (Essex), Kirkpatrick, Mills (Bothwell), White (Renfrew), McMullen, Weldon (Albert), Somerville, Bryson and the mover, to enquire:

1. As to the extent of the alarming exodus of native born Canadians and settlers in Canada of foreign birth to the United States.
2. As to the chief causes of such exodus.
3. As to the best means to be adopted to counteract the influences which have hitherto promoted such exodus and for the purpose of diminishing this serious drain upon our numerical strength and other sources.

Since Mr. Marshall gave notice of his motion affirming the expediency of increasing the import duty on meat he has had numerous communications from Canadian packers and others congratulating him upon the step he has taken. There appears to be a very widespread feeling in support of the movement and an interesting discussion is expected when the motion is reached, which will probably be to-morrow.

THE PRINTERS' ALTERNATIVE.

The Secretary of State Makes a Compromise Offer.

OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—At a special meeting of the Typographical Union to-night Hon. Mr. Chapleau's answer to the deputation who waited upon him yesterday was submitted. He was, it was stated, opposed to the demand made for $13 per week, but was favorably disposed to two alternative propositions: (1) That wages should be advanced to $12 per week and men paid for all holidays, and (2) that for such work as could be done that way the piece system should be introduced. He had asked until Monday next to make a definite reply.

This did not satisfy the Union and a strong effort was made to have a strike ordered immediately. Better counsels prevailed, however, and it was at length decided that Mr. Chapleau's answer would be awaited. An endeavor will be made to secure it before Monday, as a regular meeting of the Union takes place Saturday night.

Fatality at Springfield, Ont.

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 28.—Milton Clark, cheesemaker, formerly of Lyons, Ont., died at 4.30 o'clock this afternoon from injuries received on the Michigan Central Railway here this morning.

Bowers Knocked Out by an Australian.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—Joe Bowers of London, weight 138 pounds, was knocked out in the fourth round by Billy Smith, an Australian, weight 160 pounds, at the Occidental Club rooms last night. Frank Glover was referee. In the first round Smith received two stomach blows. In second Bowers was hard hit four times and ran around to escape. The fighting was heavy on both sides. In the fourth Smith landed heavily on Bowers' head. Bowers sank to the floor and refused to rise until time was up. He then jumped up suddenly and knocked his second down as he approached him. The audience was very indignant at Bowers quitting, and hooted vigorously. The fight was for $1000, loser to take $250.

ELMIRA, Jan. 28.—There was a largely attended meeting of horsemen at the Rathbun House to-day and the Central New York Trotting Circuit composed of Waterville, Phœnix, Hornellsville, Elmira, Binghampton, Syracuse, Auburn and Oswego was formed. TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

MR. GLADSTONE'S CIRCULAR TO HIS FOLLOWERS.

Reported Unionist Demonstration—A Demonstration in Honor of Lord Londonderry —A Ferry Boat Catastrophe on the Rhine—Floods in Queensland.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Mr. Gladstone's usual circular to his supporters in the House of Commons just before the opening of the session of Parliament was published to-day. He says the condition of public affairs is not without some peculiar features, and that the questions to be considered at the opening of the session may be of pressing interest. The wording of the circular is unusual and is taken to indicate an early division on the Pigott letters and other matters of vital importance to the Liberal and Home Rule members.

Mr. Gladstone and members of the last Liberal cabinet who are in sympathy with the Home Rule movement will discuss party policy at Mr. Gladstone's house Feb. 5.

The Marquis of Hartington, leader of the Unionist Liberals, has issued a circular to his followers in reference to the opening of Parliament.

Unionist Discussions.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—It is now certain that the absence of the Marquis of Hartington from the opening of the coming session of Parliament, enforce upon him by his recent illness and departure for the Continent to recuperate, is productive of ill results which threaten more serious consequences than the mere loss of its leader at a critical time would naturally entail upon a political party. It had no sooner become an absolute certainty that Lord Hartington could not be present at the opening of the House than factions of the Unionist party headed respectively by Sir Henry James and Mr. Joseph Chamberlain began contention, which have since developed into a downright fight to determine which of the two was entitled to the ad interim leadership of the Dissident party.

An Orange Demonstration.

BELFAST, Jan. 28.—The Unionist demonstration in honor of the late Viceroy of Ireland, the Marquis of Londonderry, held here to-day was successful beyond expectation. The Duke of Abercorn presided, 2000 persons were present and the proceedings were conducted amid great enthusiasm. A number of county addresses were presented to the Marquis of Londonderry expressive of appreciation of his administration and condemnation of those who persistently antagonized his efforts to promote the welfare of the country. It was a typical Orange manifestation throughout.

Quiet was restored in Adowa, and the Italians returned to Mareb. It is hoped amicable relations with Abyssinia will be maintained. The Riforma makes a semi-official announcement that the kingdom of Tigre will be left in possession of King Menelek.

THE GILMORE-HANLEY MATCH OFF

The Ex-Torontonian Unable to Appear on Account of Illness.

BUFFALO, Jan. 28.—The Hanley-Gilmore contest is off. A telegram was received from Gilmore to-day saying that he was sick and could not appear to-morrow night. The directors of the Erie County Athletic Club met at two this afternoon and expressed their dissatisfaction at Gilmore's action, which appears to be nothing but an unwarrantable excuse. The directors voted to annul all contracts with the Chicago man. Faulkner and Leonard met the directors of the Athletic Club at noon to-day to arrange for a match. The directors decided to offer a $500 purse for a competition. Both men accepted, Tom McMahon of Detroit will probably act as referee. The style is catch-as-catch-can two points down.

Incendiarism at Guelph.

GUELPH, Jan. 27.—Between three and four o'clock this morning a stable in Waterloo-avenue owned by James Boyle and occupied by Joseph Kirby was discovered in flames. Four of Kirby's horses were cremated and harness, etc., destroyed. Loss on stable about $200, insured in the London and Lancashire. No insurance on contents. Incendiarism is suspected.

A GUSHER AT FOREST.

Natural Gas in Large Quantities Struck at a Depth of 1400 Feet.

FOREST, Jan. 28.—For some months past several residents of Forest have been heating and lighting their houses with natural gas, obtained from ordinary wells. A few days ago George M. Vanvalkenburg began boring for gas on his premises in this town. When the men quit work last night the hole was down about 1400 feet. Shortly after commencing work this morning indications of gas were apparent. A match was applied and instantly a sheet of flame burst twenty feet into the air. This continued for some minutes, when a terrific explosion occurred, throwing stones, earth and water 100 feet high and redoubling the volume of flame.

All efforts to suppress the fire were futile and the derrick burned down. All day long the 8-inch hole has been belching forth with a continual roar thousands of gallons of water and thousands of feet of gas with no signs of quitting. During the afternoon the heat became so intense that the crowds surrounding the well had to fall back, and the fire department are ready to go out at a moment's warning, as adjacent buildings are in danger. The sight to-night is a grand one.

WALKED IN HIS SLEEP.

A Hamilton Somnambulist Breaks His Leg—A Church Row.

HAMILTON, Jan. 28.—About 2 o'clock this morning Edward Carr, flour and feed merchant, who is subject to fits of somnambulism, arose from his bed in a room over the store and walked out of a rear window, which happened to be open. He fell with great force on the frozen ground and fractured the thigh bone of his right leg.

A vestry meeting was held in the schoolroom of the Church of the Ascension last evening for the purpose of receiving the report of the committee appointed at a former meeting held Feb. 25, 1889, to select a rector. The meeting was largely attended by both the supporters of Rev. Mr. Crawford and those who object to what has been called his ritualistic practices. No result was reached, but some hard names were called, much bad feeling engendered and many personal enemies made among the members of the congregation. It was a decidedly stormy meeting.

A quiet wedding took place this afternoon at Christ Church Cathedral, when Miss Mary Gourlay Harvey, eldest daughter of Mrs. Margaret Harvey, was married to Octavus Sydney Colbran of Tunbridge Wells, England. Rev. E. M. Bland was the officiating clergyman.

Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education, arrived here this afternoon and was received by the Board of Education in the council chamber of the new City Hall. The minister formally opened the new Ryerson School in Queen-street. A banquet was tendered Hon. Mr. Ross by the Board at the Royal Hotel this evening.

MRS. MORRIS ACQUITTED.

Her Beauty and Social Position Seem to Have Helped Her.

WENTWORTH COURT HOUSE, N.C., Jan. 29. —Mrs. Cora May Morris is again a free woman. The jury acquitted her of the charge of poisoning her husband yesterday afternoon. It was 2 o'clock when C. B. Glenn of Greensboro arose to make the last appeal to the jury in behalf of the fair defendant. His speech was very affecting and moved three of the jurors to tears. Mr. Glenn closed his speech at 3.40 and Judge Merriman at once began his charge to the jury. At 5.50 the jury retired. Several friends went across and, spoke encouraging words to Mrs. Morris, who seemed inclined to grow nervous. She was seen to smile hopefully once or twice. It was just 4.20 when the jury entered the court-room. There was a death-like stillness as the voice of the clerk rang out:

"Gentlemen of the jury, have you agreed on a verdict?"

"We have," answered Foreman Sanders.

Mrs. Morris cast a half-hopeful and half-despairing look at the man who held her life in their hands.

"What say you, gentlemen—guilty or not guilty?"

Not guilty, answered Foreman Sanders, and the others nodded their heads in assent. Hearty rounds of applause would have gone up, but Judge Merriman commanded the sheriff to keep order. Mrs. Morris at once left the court room, accompanied by her father and other relatives and friends. Many rushed up and extended congratulations. At the courthouse door stood a two-horse phaeton. She was assisted in and at once driven to her home at Reidsville. The verdict is not at all satisfactory, but was just what was expected. The State introduced some very strong circumstantial evidence, but on account of the high social position and beauty of the defendant it was plainly evident all through that she could not be convicted. An indignant citizen remarked to your correspondent: "You can't convict a pretty woman of a capital crime in North Carolina. There's no use in trying, let the evidence be ever so strong."

A FATAL EXPLOSION.

Three Men Killed Outright and Many Injured, Some Fatally.

SUNBURY, Pa., Jan. 28.—A gang of Italians, Poles and Hungarians, employed in widening the roadbed of the Shamokin, Sunbury and Lewisburg Railway from a single to a double, were at work to-day in a cut near Paxinos blasting rock. Just before noon three blasts were set and the gang retired to wait the explosion. Unkown to them only two blasts exploded. The men went back into the cut and were shovelling away the dirt and broken rock when the third blast exploded and the men were hurled in all directions. Three dead bodies were taken from the debris. They are too badly mutilated to be identified. Antonio Pasguid was hurt internally and will die. One Finlander had his chin blown off. Another was crushed and his legs broken, while a third had his eyes blown out and head crushed. All three were injured internally and will die. Their names are not known. Joseph H. Gordon, pit boss, had his skull crushed and was internally injured. His recovery is doubtful. Gravino Borie had his arms and legs injured. He will probably recover. Nine other Italians and Finlanders were badly cut and bruised. The injured were taken to the miners' hospital at Ashland.

A Cincinnati Blaze.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 25.—At 6.10 this evening flames were seen bursting from the windows of the high building on the southeast corner of Fifth and Sycamore-streets. The fire started after all the occupants of the building had left it. It was caused by an explosion in the office of Knight & Co., printers, occupying the third floor. The fire spread rapidly, and within an hour the entire building, with all its contents, was destroyed, the loss probably approximating $300,000. The building, which contains seven stories, is a comparatively new one and belongs to the William Glenn estate. The Henderson Achert Lithographing Company was on the sixth and seventh floors. The loss of this company is total, amounting to $160,000. The insurance is about $75,000. H. Beckeburn & Co., shoe manufacturers, occupying the fifth floor, estimate their loss at from $15,000 to $20,000. Lapthorn & Co., on the fourth floor, lose $12,000 or $15,000. Knight & Co., printers on the third floor, put their loss at $15,000 to $18,000. On the third floor were Taber & Duncan, manufacturers of paper boxes. Their loss is $3000. The Keck Diamond Manufacturing and Importing Company on the third floor had a stock worth $100,000. Of this $15,000 worth of diamonds were saved uninjured. The rest of the stock is in the safe, but as yet its condition is unknown. A real estate office, a barber shop, Heck & Farley, plumbers, and the office of two of the manufacturing companies up stairs occupied the first floor. The losses on these will reach $2000.

In Gardner, Mass.

GARDNER, Mass., Jan. 25.—Stevens' Block, occupied by a number of business firms, was burned this afternoon. Loss, $60,000.

THE TORONTO BURGLAR.

A BUFFALO FUGITIVE ARRESTED ON A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Alleged Criminal Malpractice—A Belligerent Lunatic — City Engineer Sproatt Resigns—Mr. Jennings Likely to Be His Successor—The Hall-Baughen Libel Case.

TORONTO, Jan. 28.—Detectives Davis and Slemin made an important arrest in one of the down town hotels last night. Two weeks ago it was common rumor in Buffalo that Prof. Frederick Freund, principal of one of the German evangelical parochial schools of that city, had been guilty of criminally assaulting the girls under his tuition. On Monday of last week a warrant, charging him with debauching one Sophia Fink, a pupil, was sworn out and the next day Freund disappeared and it was generally understood that he had crossed the line to Canada. Freund is a married man and left his wife and children in destitute circumstances behind him in Buffalo. The Toronto police had been notified of Freund's disappearance and yesterday in circulating among the hotels Davis spotted his man. Last evening, accompanied by Detective Slemin, he visited the hotel where he saw Freund and located him in his room and marched him thence to Police Headquarters. Freund acknowledged his identity and on his way to the station told the officers that he had been guilty of indiscretion and was quite ready to go back to face the music. He believed that he would be better off among his friends in Buffalo than by himself in Canada. Freund gave his age as 33 and his profession as teacher. He was stylishly dressed. The only thing taken from him was a penknife, he being allowed to keep his money and the rest of his property. The Buffalo police were informed of the arrest.

Dr. Henry Wallwin of 155 Simcoe-street was yesterday arraigned at the Police Court on the charge of administering poison for the purpose of a criminal operation on Mrs. Carrie McDonald of 120 Agnes-street. County Crown Attorney Badgerow appeared for the prosecution and Mr. Armstrong for the accused. As the woman is in the hospital in a critical condition the case was adjourned for a week. The Doctor was liberated, bail in two sureties of $1000 and himself in $2000 being accepted. Inspector Archabold states that the woman McDonald was one of the accomplices of Stewart, who three years ago was sentenced to to two years imprisonment for abducting girls for immoral purposes. For this offence she served 10 months in the Mercer. The charge made by the woman against Dr. Wallwin is believed to be a malicious one and without any foundation.

Detective Watson arrested a man named Charles D. Andrea on Monday evening for conducting himself in an extraordinary manner in All Saints' Church. He requested Rev. Arthur Baldwin to permit him to enter the church and to pray in the sacred edifice. After some natural hesitation the unusual request was granted. Mr. Baldwin afterwards became uneasy, and entering the building found the stranger in a nude condition, having divested himself of every stitch of clothing. He had demolished the surroundings of the communion table. Detective Watson arrested the religious maniac. He was remanded for a week yesterday to undergo a medical examination.

The resignation of City Engineer Sproatt has been presented to the chairman of the Board of Works, who will advise its acceptance, and that the position be given to Engineer Jennings of the Canadian Pacific Railway at a salary of $5000. Mr. Sproatt will perhaps be offered the position of assistant engineer with no reduction from his present salary.

Mr. Farrer's suit against City Editor Kribs of the Empire was dismissed yesterday morning in the Police Court, the complainants being unable to prove authorship. Manager Creighton was committed for trial on the charge, the same bail as that of Monday being accepted.

E. D. Hamilton's $5000 damage suit against F. X. Cousineau, proprietor of the Bon Marche, for false imprisonment is on trial at the Assizes. This litigation grows out of the fire at the Bon Marche last year.

CHANGING SHADES.

Two Notable Examples of Nature's Unaccountable Vagaries.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—William F. Smith of Dublin, Laurens County, Ga., is here consulting specialists regarding the color of his skin, which during the past ten years has changed from a white to a light blue and then deepened into an ultramarine. His hair, eyeballs, and the inside of his lips kept pace with the skin in changing from the original colors, but in spite of his variegated appearance Mr. Smith's health is perfect.

Physicians pronounce his case incurable. They say that his tinted appearance is due to immoderate doses of nitrate of silver given Smith when a boy to cure epileptic fits, to which he was subject. The trouble only affects the skin.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 28.—Henry Harvard, a United States prisoner at the penitentiary, has been gradually changing color from black to white since he was incarcerated with several other moonshiners two years ago. When arrested it was noticed that his skin was spotted. The first thought was that he was a dirty white man; the second that he had leprosy. Further investigation convinced the physicians that their patient was a black man turning white.

To-day Harvard's back and chest are perfectly free from all color, and although his face is spotted yet, medical experts agree that when he leaves the penitentiary he will go forth a white man.

Pugsley in Court.

WELLAND, Jan. 28.—The notorious crook Pugsley had a hearing before Police Magistrate Hellems to-day. The prisoner was charged with bringing stolen goods into Canada. Witnesses and lawyers from many parts of the United States were present. The court was crowded with spectators. The case was adjourned until 2 o'clock Thursday for the purpose of getting more evidence.

Curling at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—Two rinks of the Ottawa and Governor-General's clubs competed here to-day for the Quebec branch tankard, the city men winning by 45 to 27.

A Pennsylvania Tragedy.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Jan. 29.—Andrew Weaver, 65 years of age, was found murdered yesterday morning in front of the house of his daughter-in-law, Flette Weaver, about three miles from Coburn, this county. There was a large knife wound between the ribs and penetrating the heart. Flette Weaver, Jones Auman and his mother, Mrs. Auman, were arrested and taken before Justice Gerhoff who committed Flette as the murderer and the Aumans as accessories.

A Crazy Father's Deed.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—John Votonio, a crazy cigar maker, threw his 5-year-old son out of the fifth-story window of a tenement house in Pitt-street to-day and then attempted to throw his old mother out. The woman resisted with all her might, and help coming Votonio was overpowered after making a desparate fight. The child was fatally hurt.

Losses Caused by Flames.

LONG ISLAND CITY, Jan. 28.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon a still exploded at the Standard Oil Works at Hunter's Point. The flames communicated to other stills and threatened the entire works. An hour later the fire was under control. The damage is $30,000.

The Blockade Raised.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—Supt. Fillmore of the Southern Pacific says the blockade in the Sierras is practically raised and all west-bound trains at Truckee, Wadsworth and Reno will move to-night.

Mexican Thieves in Texas.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Jan. 28.—Two bands of thieves from Mexico have been operating on this side of the river lately. The rangers are in pursuit.

TURNBULL'S

If you should give the days of the week trade names, Saturday would be clothing man's day.

Look at the clothing store news up and down the columns of the papers! Is it not so.

We could pile adjective upon hyperbole—could print with display type the most impossible statement if we choose, but we spare you.

They can all gang their ain gait, while we go on making our clothing business bigger by making it better; the only sure way and we hold our own with the best in quality, style and make with real cheapness. Our boys' Readymade clothing cannot be beaten in style, quality and price.

We had a heavy run on Ladies' Mantles last week, A lot of good goods at Bargain Prices still to select from.

Our 40c. Heavy Canadian tweeds please the eye and pockets of all.

In the name of Jack Frost—Blankets. If we could only tell you all we know of Blankets, it would be good reading. One thing we do know, and don't fear to say is, you will get more good wool and generous size in the Blankets now here at $5, than is generally offered. Blankets at $4 and $3.75 of good medium sizes.

Once more the cheapest stock of Grey Flannels and Cottons is with us. The people carry it off with more industry than ants, which is the best proof that business men have that goods are cheap.

DOMINION LAW-MAKERS.

THE HOUSE AT WORK ON SIR JOHN THOMPSON'S BILL.

More Than Half the Measure Relating to Commercial Paper Passed in Committee —Another Batch of Petitions—The Printing Bureau Trouble.

OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—The Government settled down to business to-day and having had the bill relating to bills of exchange, checks and promissory notes read a second time, moved the House into committee of the whole and in 2½ hours more than half the immense bill was adopted.

The bill as re-introduced is practically the same as when withdrawn at the close of the last session. During the recess copies were sent out to bankers and others interested but they had no suggestions to offer. A few clauses were held over to-day for further consideration. One of these relates to sight drafts. It has been customary to consider these payable only at three days' grace but by the provisions of this bill they were declared to be payable on demand. Mr. Peter White objected to this departure from custom, and he was warmly backed up by Hon. Peter Mitchell, Mr. Weldon (St. John), Mr. Charlton and others, and as Sir John Thompson seemed rather inclined to agree with their arguments it is probable that what hitherto has been only custom will henceforth have the force of the law, and there will be three days' difference between sight and demand drafts.

Another point discussed at length was a suggestion made by Mr. Kirkpatrick that this bill should distinctly provide that notes given for patent rights should have that fact plainly stated on their face. The fraudulent transactions arising out of these patent rights notes are said to be very extensive. Mr. Burdett says the nuisance has prevailed to such a [illegible]tent in his locality that he contemplated introducing a bill dealing with it.

At 5.50 Sir John Thompson apparently decided that sufficient progress had been made for one day and the committee rose and the House adjourned.

The crop of petitions continues bountiful. To-day Mr. Denison presented a number asking labor legislation from District Assembly No. 125, Knights of Labor, Toronto, and Mr. Livingston presented a number to the same effect from Iron Moulders' Union, No. 103, of Galt.

Mr. Denison also presented a petition from John N. Cheesworth, G. N. Grant, B. W. Clark, J. E. Schiller, A. H. Royce, and F. R. Powell of Toronto, Dr. J. H. C. Willoughby of Regina and George E. Kidd of Ottawa for authority to extend their line of railway, from its present authorised terminus near Saskatchewan.

Mr. Wallace presented a petition from the Manitoba & Northwestern Railway Company asking that their authority to issue bonds, which is now limited to $20,000 per mile, may be limited by the amount of annual charge created thereon in place of by the amount of capital borrowed.

The French residents of the Northwest are still petitioning against Mr. McCarthy's proposal to disallow the official use of their mother tongue. Mr. Davis to-day presented petitions from residents of St. Laurand, Prince Albert, Carlton and Battleford districts.

These bills were introduced to-day and read a first time:

Mr. Hudspeth: To incorporate the Lindsay, Bobcaygeon and Pontypool Railway Company.

Mr. Corby: To incorporate the Belleville and Lake Nipissing Railway Company.

Mr. Curran: To incorporate Balding, Paul & Co. (Limited).

Dr. Hickey: To incorporate the Ottawa, Morrisburg and New York Railway Company.

Mr. Dawson: To incorporate the Sault Ste. Marie and Hudson Bay Railway Company.

Hon. Mr. Colby has changed his seat, but remains as a Minister at the same desk at which he sat for many years as a private member. He merely changed places with his companion, Mr. Rykert, who has hitherto literally sat between Mr. Colby and the Cabinet. The Ministers sit in the first and second rows. Hon. Mackenzie Bowell is on the extreme right in the first and Hon. Mr. Colby sits immediately behind him. Mr. Bowell's desk-mate is Mr. McCarthy.

Mr. Charlton gives notice of this motion: That a select committee be appointed, to consist of Messrs. Patterson (Essex), Kirkpatrick, Mills (Bothwell), White (Renfrew), McMullen, Weldon (Albert), Somerville, Bryson and the mover, to enquire:

1. As to the extent of the alarming exodus of native born Canadians and settlers in Canada of foreign birth to the United States.
2. As to the chief causes of such exodus.
3. As to the best means to be adopted to counteract the influences which have hitherto promoted such exodus and for the purpose of diminishing this serious drain upon our numerical strength and other sources.

Since Mr. Marshall gave notice of his motion affirming the expediency of increasing the import duty on meat he has had numerous communications from Canadian packers and others congratulating him upon the step he has taken. There appears to be a very widespread feeling in support of the movement and an interesting discussion is expected when the motion is reached, which will probably be to-morrow.

THE PRINTERS' ALTERNATIVE.

The Secretary of State Makes a Compromise Offer.

OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—At a special meeting of the Typographical Union to-night Hon. Mr. Chapleau's answer to the deputation who waited upon him yesterday was submitted. He was, it was stated, opposed to the demand made for $13 per week, but was favorably disposed to two alternative propositions: (1) That wages should be advanced to $13 per week and men paid for all holidays, and (2) that for such work as could be done that way the piece system should be introduced. He had asked until Monday next to make a definite reply.

This did not satisfy the Union and a strong effort was made to have a strike ordered immediately. Better counsels prevailed, however, and it was at length decided that Mr. Chapleau's answer would be awaited. An endeavor will be made to secure it before Monday, as a regular meeting of the Union takes place Saturday night.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—Joe Bowers of London, weight 158 pounds, was knocked out in the fourth round by Billy Smith, an Australian, weight 160 pounds, at the Occidental Club rooms last night, Frank Glover was referee. In the first round Smith received two stomach blows. In second Bowers was hard hit four times and ran around to escape. The fighting was heavy on both sides. In the fourth Smith landed heavily on Bowers' head. Bowers sank to the floor and refused to rise until time was up. He then jumped up suddenly and knocked his second down as he approached him. The audience was very indignant at Bowers quitting, and hooted vigorously. The fight was for $1000, loser to take $350.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

MR. GLADSTONE'S CIRCULAR TO HIS FOLLOWERS.

Reported Unionist Dissensions—A Demonstration in Honor of Lord Londonderry —A Ferry Boat Catastrophe on the Rhine—Floods in Queensland.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—Mr. Gladstone's usual circular to his supporters in the House of Commons just before the opening of the session of Parliament was published to-day. He says the condition of public affairs is not without some peculiar features, and that the questions to be considered at the opening of the session may be of pressing interest. The wording of the circular is unusual and is taken to indicate an early division on the Pigott letters and other matters of vital importance to the Liberal and Home Rule members.

Mr. Gladstone and members of the last Liberal cabinet who are in sympathy with the Home Rule movement will discuss party policy at Mr. Gladstone's house Feb. 8.

The Marquis of Hartington, leader of the Unionist Liberals, has issued a circular to his followers in reference to the opening of Parliament.

Unionist Discomforts.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—It is now certain that the absence of the Marquis of Hartington from the opening of the coming session of Parliament, enforce upon him by his recent illness and departure for the Continent to recuperate, is productive of ill results which threaten more serious consequences than the mere loss of its leader at a critical time would naturally entail upon a political party. It had no sooner become an absolute certainty that Lord Hartington could not be present at the opening of the House than factions of the Unionist party headed respectively by Sir Henry James and Mr. Joseph Chamberlain began contention, which have since developed into a downright fight to determine which of the two was entitled to the ad interim leadership of the Dissident party.

An Orange Demonstration.

BELFAST, Jan. 28.—The Unionist demonstration in honor of the late Viceroy of Ireland, the Marquis of Londonderry, held here to-day was successful beyond expectation. The Duke of Abercorn presided, 3000 persons were present and the proceedings were conducted amid great enthusiasm. A number of county addresses were presented to the Marquis of Londonderry expressive of appreciation of his administration and condemnation of those who persistently antagonized his efforts to promote the welfare of the country. It was a typical Orange manifestation throughout.

Italy's Abyssinian Campaign.

ROME, Jan. 28.—Advices from Massowah state that the force of Italians and natives which entered Adowa, the capital of the Tigre province, numbered 6000. They had eight guns. The Riforma makes a semi-official announcement that the kingdom of Tigre will be left in possession of King Menelek.

THE GILMORE-HANLEY MATCH OFF

The Ex-Torontonian Unable to Appear on Account of Illness.

BUFFALO, Jan. 28.—The Hanley-Gilmore contest is off. A telegram was received from Gilmore to-day saying that he was sick and could not appear to-morrow night. The directors of the Erie County Athletic Club met at two this afternoon and expressed their dissatisfaction at Gilmore's action, which appears to be nothing but an unwarrantable excuse. The directors voted to annul all contracts with the Chicago man. Faulkner and Leonard met the directors of the Athletic Club at noon to-day to arrange for a match. The directors decided to offer a $300 purse for a competition. Both men accepted, Tom McMahon of Detroit will probably act as referee. The style is catch-as-catch-can two points down.

Incendiarism at Guelph.

GUELPH, Jan. 27.—Between three and four o'clock this morning a stable in Waterloo-avenue owned by James Boyle and occupied by Joseph Kirby was discovered in flames. Four of Kirby's horses were cremated and harness, etc., destroyed. Loss on stable about $200, insured in the London and Lancashire. No insurance on contents. Incendiarism is suspected.

A GUSHER AT FOREST.

Natural Gas in Large Quantities Struck at a Depth of 1400 Feet.

FOREST, Jan. 28.—For some months past several residents of Forest have been heating and lighting their houses with natural gas, obtained from ordinary wells. A few days ago George M. Vanvalkenburg began boring for gas on his premises in this town. When the men quit work last night the hole was down about 100 feet. Shortly after commencing work this morning indications of gas were apparent. A match was applied and instantly a shoot of flame burst twenty feet into the air. This continued for some minutes, when a terrific explosion occurred, throwing stones, earth and water 100 feet high and redoubling the volume of flame.

All efforts to suppress the fire were futile and the derrick burned down. All day long the 6-inch hole has been belching forth with a continual roar thousands of gallons of water and thousands of feet of gas with no signs of quitting. During the afternoon the heat became so intense that the crowds surrounding the well had to fall back, and the fire department are ready to go out at a moment's warning, as adjacent buildings are in danger. The sight to-night is a grand one.

WALKED IN HIS SLEEP.

A Hamilton Somnambulist Breaks His Leg—A Church Row.

HAMILTON, Jan. 28.—About 2 o'clock this morning Edward Carr, flour and feed merchant, who is subject to fits of somnambulism, arose from his bed in a room over the store and walked out of a rear window, which happened to be open. He fell with great force on the frozen ground and fractured the thigh bone of his right leg.

A vestry meeting was held in the school-room of the Church of the Ascension last evening for the purpose of receiving the report of the committee appointed at a former meeting held Feb. 28, 1889, to select a rector. The meeting was largely attended by both the supporters of Rev. Mr. Crawford and those who object to what has been called his ritualistic practices. No result was reached, but some hard names were called, much bad feeling engendered and many personal enemies made among the members of the congregation. It was a decidedly stormy meeting.

A quiet wedding took place this afternoon at Christ Church Cathedral, when Miss Mary Gourlay Harvey, eldest daughter of Mrs. Margaret Harvey, was married to Octavus Sydney Colbran of Tunbridge Wells, England. Rev. E. M. Bland was the officiating clergyman.

Hon. G. W. Ross, Minister of Education, arrived here this afternoon and was received by the Board of Education in the council chamber of the new City Hall. The minister formally opened the new Ryerson School in Queen-street. A banquet was tendered Hon. Mr. Ross by the Board at the Royal Hotel this evening.

MRS. MORRIS ACQUITTED.

Her Beauty and Social Position Seem to Have Helped Her.

WENTWORTH COURT HOUSE, N.C., Jan. 29. —Mrs. Cora May Morris is again a free woman. The jury acquitted her of the charge of poisoning her husband yesterday afternoon. It was 2 o'clock when C. B. Glenn of Greensboro arose to make the last appeal to the jury in behalf of the fair defendant. His speech was very affecting and moved three of the jurors to tears. Mr. Glenn closed his speech at 3.40 and Judge Merriman at once began his charge to the jury. At 5.50 the jury retired. Several friends went across and spoke encouraging words to Mrs. Morris, who seemed inclined to grow nervous. She was seen to smile hopefully once or twice. It was just 4.20 when the jury entered the court-room. There was a death-like stillness as the voice of the clerk rang out:

"Gentlemen of the jury, have you agreed on a verdict?"

"We have," answered Foreman Sanders.

Mrs. Morris cast a half-hopeful and half-despairing look at the men who held her life in their hands.

"What say you, gentlemen—guilty or not guilty?"

Not guilty, answered Foreman Sanders, and the others nodded their heads in assent. Hearty rounds of applause would have gone up, but Judge Merriman commanded the sheriff to keep order. Mrs. Morris at once left the court room, accompanied by her father and other relatives and friends. Many rushed up and extended congratulations. At the courthouse door stood a two-horse phaeton. She was assisted in and at once driven to her home at Reidsville. The verdict is not at all satisfactory, but was just what was expected. The State introduced some very strong circumstantial evidence, but on account of the high social position and beauty of the defendant it was plainly evident all through that she could not be convicted. An indignant citizen remarked to your correspondent: "You can't convict a pretty woman of a capital crime in North Carolina. There's no use in trying, let the evidence be ever so strong."

A FATAL EXPLOSION.

Three Men Killed Outright and Many Injured, Some Fatally.

SUNBURY, Pa., Jan. 28.—A gang of Italians, Poles and Hungarians, employed in widening the roadbed of the Shamokin, Sunbury and Lewisburg Railway from a single to a double, were at work to-day in a cut near Paxinos blasting rock. Just before noon three blasts were set and the gang retired to wait the explosion. Unkown to them only two blasts exploded. The men went back into the cut and were shovelling away the dirt and broken rock when the third blast exploded and the men were hurled in all directions. Three dead bodies were taken from the debris. They are too badly mutilated to be identified. Antonio Pasguid was hurt internally and will die. One Finlander had his chin blown off. Another was crushed and his legs broken, while a third had his eyes blown out and head crushed. All three were injured internally and will die. Their names are not known. Joseph H. Gordon, pit boss, had his skull crushed and was internally injured. His recovery is doubtful. Genevine Borie had his arms and legs injured. He will probably recovr. Nine other Italians and Finlanders were badly cut and bruised. The injured were taken to the miners' hospital at Ashland.

A Cincinnati Blaze.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 25.—At 6.10 this evening flames were seen bursting from the windows of the high building on the southeast corner of Fifth and Sycamore-streets. The fire started after all the occupants of the building had left it. It was caused by an explosion in the office of Knight & Co., printers, occupying the third floor. The fire spread rapidly, and within an hour the entire building, with all its contents, was destroyed, the loss probably approximating $300,000. The building, which contains seven stories, is a comparatively new one and belongs to the William Glenn estate. The Henderson Achert Lithographing Company was on the sixth and seventh floors. The loss of this company is total, amounting to $100,000. The insurance is about $75,000. H. Beckenburn & Co., shoe manufacturers, occupying the fifth floor, estimate their loss at from $15,000 to $20,000. Lapthorn & Co., on the fourth floor, loss $12,000 or $15,000. Knight & Co., printers on the third floor, put their loss at $15,000 to $18,000. On the third floor were Taber & Duncan, manufacturers of paper boxes. Their loss is $6000. The Keck Diamond Manufacturing and Importing Company on the third floor had a stock worth $100,000. Of this $15,000 worth of diamonds were saved uninjured. The rest of the stock is in the safe, but as yet its condition is unknown. A real estate office, a barber shop, Heck & Farley, plumbers, and the office of two of the manufacturing companies up stairs occupied the first floor. The losses on these will reach $6000.

GARDNER, Mass., Jan. 25.—Stevens' Block, occupied by a number of business firms, was burned this afternoon. Loss, $60,000.

THE TORONTO BUDGET.

A BUFFALO FUGITIVE ARRESTED ON A SERIOUS CHARGE.

Alleged Criminal Malpractice—A Religious Lunatic — City Engineer Sprouts Religion—Mr. Jennings Likely to Be His Successor—The Mail Slapped Libel Once.

TORONTO, Jan. 28.—Detectives Davis and Slemin made an important arrest in one of the down town hotels last night. Two weeks ago it was common rumor in Buffalo that Prof. Frederick Freund, principal of one of the German evangelical parochial schools of that city, had been guilty of criminally assaulting the girls under his tuition. On Monday of last week a warrant, charging him with debauching one Sophia Fink, a pupil, was sworn out and the next day Freund disappeared and it was generally understood that he had crossed the line to Canada. Freund is a married man and left his wife and children in destitute circumstances behind him in Buffalo. The Toronto police had been notified of Freund's disappearance and yesterday in circulating among the hotels Davis spotted his man. Last evening, accompanied by Detective Slemin, he visited the hotel where he saw Freund and located him in his room and marched him thence to Police Headquarters. Freund acknowledged his identity and on his way to the station told the officers that he had been guilty of indiscretion and was quite ready to go back to face the music. He believed that he would be better off among his friends in Buffalo than by himself in Canada. Freund gave his age as 32 and his profession as teacher. He was stylishly dressed. The only thing taken from him was a penknife, he being allowed to keep his money and the rest of his property. The Buffalo police were informed of the arrest.

Dr. Henry Wallwin of 155 Simcoe-street was yesterday arraigned at the Police Court on the charge of administering poison for the purpose of a criminal operation on Mrs. Carrie McDonald of 120 Agnes-street. County Crown Attorney Badgerow appeared for the prosecution and Mr. Armstrong for the accused. As the woman is in the hospital in a critical condition the case was adjourned for a week. The Doctor was liberated, bail in two sureties of $1000 and himself in $2000 being accepted. Inspector Archabold states that the woman McDonald was one of the accomplices of Stewart, who three years ago was sentenced to to two years imprisonment for abducting girls for immoral purposes. For this offence she served 10 months in the Mercer. The charge made by the woman against Dr. Wallwin is believed to be a malicious one and without any foundation.

Detective Watson arrested a man named Charles D. Andrews on Monday evening for conducting himself in an extraordinary manner in All Saints' Church. He requested Rev. Arthur Baldwin to permit him to enter the church and to pray in the sacred edifice. After some natural hesitation the unusual request was granted. Mr. Baldwin afterwards became uneasy, and entering the building found the stranger in a nude condition, having divested himself of every stitch of clothing. He had demolished the surroundings of the communion table. Detective Watson arrested the religious maniac. He was remanded for a week yesterday to undergo a medical examination.

The resignation of City Engineer Sproatt has been presented to the chairman of the Board of Works, who will advise its acceptance, and that the position be given to Engineer Jennings of the Canadian Pacific Railway at a salary of $5000. Mr. Sproatt will perhaps be offered the position of assistant engineer with no reduction from his present salary.

Mr. Farrer's suit against City Editor Kribs of the Empire was dismissed yesterday morning in the Police Court, the complainants being unable to prove authorship. Manager Creighton was committed for trial on the charge, the same bail as that of Monday being accepted.

E. D. Hamilton's $5000 damage suit against F. X. Coustneau, proprietor of the Bon Marche, for false imprisonment is on trial at the Assizes. This litigation grows out of the fire at the Bon Marche last year.

CHANGING SHADES.

Two Notable Examples of Nature's Unaccountable Vagaries.

CHICAGO, Jan. 28.—William F. Smith of Dublin, Laurens County, Ga., is here consulting specialists regarding the color of his skin, which during the past ten years has changed from a white to a light blue and then deepened into an ultramarine. His hair, eyeballs, and the inside of his lips kept pace with the skin in changing from the original colors, but in spite of his variegated appearance Mr. Smith's health is perfect.

Physicians pronounce his case incurable. They say that his tinted appearance is due to immoderate doses of nitrate of silver given Smith when a boy to cure epileptic fits, to which he was subject. The trouble only affects the skin.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 28.—Henry Harvard, a United States prisoner at the penitentiary, has been gradually changing color from black to white since he was incarcerated with several other moonshiners two years ago. When arrested it was noticed that his skin was spotted. The first thought was that he was a dirty white man; the second that he had leprosy. Further investigation convinced the physicians that their patient was a black man turning white.

To-day Harvard's back and chest are perfectly free from all color, and although his face is spotted yet, medical experts agree that when he leaves the penitentiary he will go forth a white man.

Pugsley in Court.

WELLAND, Jan. 28.—The notorious crook Pugsley had a hearing before Police Magistrate Hellems to-day. The prisoner was charged with bringing stolen goods into Canada. Witnesses and lawyers from many parts of the United States were present. The court was crowded with spectators. The case was adjourned until 2 o'clock Thursday for the purpose of getting more evidence.

Curling at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Jan. 28.—Two rinks of the Ottawa and Governor-General's clubs competed here to-day for the Quebec branch tankard, the city men winning by 66 to 57.

A Pennsylvania Tragedy.

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Jan. 29.—Andrew Weaver, 65 years of age, was found murdered yesterday morning in front of the house of his daughter-in-law, Flette Weaver, about three miles from Coburn, this county. There was a large knife wound between the ribs and penetrating the heart. Flette Weaver, Jones Auman and his mother, Mrs. Auman, were arrested and taken before Justice Garthoff who committed Flette as the murderer and the Aumans as accessories.

A Crazy Father's Deed.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—John Votonio, a crazy cigar maker, threw his 5-year-old son out of the fifth-story window of a tenement house in Pitt-street to-day and then attempted to throw his old mother out. The woman resisted with all her might, and help coming Votonio was overpowered after making a desparate fight. The child was fatally hurt.

Losses Caused by Flames.

LONG ISLAND CITY, Jan. 28.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon a still exploded at the Standard Oil Works at Hunter's Point. The flames communicated to other stills and threatened the entire works. An hour later the fire was under control. The damage is $30,000.

The Blockade Raised.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 28.—Supt. Fillmore of the Southern Pacific says the blockade in the Sierras is practically raised and all west-bound trains at Truckee, Wadsworth and Reno will move to-night.

Mexican Thieves in Texas.

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., Jan. 28.—Two bands of thieves from Mexico have been operating on this side of the river lately. The rangers are in pursuit.

TURNBULL'S

If you should give the days of the week trade names, Saturday would be clothing man's day.

Look at the clothing store news up and down the columns of the papers! Is it not so.

We could pile adjective upon hyperbole—could print with display type the most impossible statement if we choose, but we spare you.

They can all gang their ain gait, while we go on making our clothing business bigger by making it better; the only sure way and we hold our own with the best in quality, style and make with real cheapness. Our boys' Readymade clothing cannot be beaten in style, quality and price.

We had a heavy run on Ladies' Manties last week. A lot of good goods at Bargain Prices still to select from.

Our 40c. Heavy Canadian tweeds please the eye and pockets of all.

In the name of Jack Frost—Blankets. If we could only tell you all we know of Blankets, it would be good reading. One thing we do know, and don't fear to say is, you will get more good wool and generous size in the Blankets now here at $5, than is generally offered. Blankets at $4 and $3.75 of good medium sizes.

Once more the cheapest stock of Grey Flannels and Cottons is with us. The people carry it off with more industry than ants, which is the best proof that business men have that goods are cheap.

CANADIANS Work Too Hard!

The Result is Sleeplessness, Nervousness and a Broken-Down System, often

Ending in Insanity.

Thousands of overworked business men, worried brainworkers industrious mechanics, and tried women, in all parts of the Dominion are to-day in a terrible position. Their nerves are weak, digestion poor, head aching, and they cannot sleep, work or live in comfort. This is what fills our Insane Asylums. This is the cause of that terrible Dyspepsia. Before it is too late, use Dr. Phelps' wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound. It removes the results of overwork, restores strength, renews vitality, regulates the whole system, and tones up the overworked brain and body. Do not despair, but use this wonderful remedy, and be restored to health and happiness, the same as was Mr. John L. Brodie, of Montreal, who writes: "I have great pleasure in recommending your Paine's Celery Compound. My system was run down and I was not fit for business, could not sleep well at night and was nervous. I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound and improved immediately. I am now able to transact my business and endure any amount of excitement without bad effect."

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., Montreal.

The Daily Examiner.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 29, 1890.

MR. WARDEN CASEMENT.

The EXAMINER extends its most cordial congratulations to Mr. W. H. Casement on the occasion of his unanimous election, on Tuesday, to the important and responsible position of Warden of the county of Peterborough. Mr. Casement has reason to feel gratified, for he is the youngest man that has ever occupied it, both in years of life and, perhaps, also in municipal life. These circumstances show, on the part of Mr. Casement, qualities of a high order, fitting him for the position and a hearty recognition of this fact by his fellow members. Mr. William Henry Casement was born in Douro township in 1856, and is consequently thirty-five years of age. He has occupied a prominent position as a merchant for many years. He is postmaster since 1872 and agent of the Montreal Telegraph Company, and he has for eight years occupied the secretaryship of the Lakefield School Board. In Mr. Casement's case the course of municipal life has run smoothly. Three years ago he was elected reeve of Lakefield, "no mean village," by acclamation and has since been twice returned in the same manner, and on Monday he was elected Warden, practically by acclamation. Mr. Casement's popularity must be well founded to yield such results. No doubt Mr. Casement's occupancy of the Warden's chair will justify the choice of the council, and its duties be discharged in a manner creditable to both the Warden himself and the county he represents.

Religious Instruction in the Schools.

In a recent article upon educational questions the Globe said:—

"In all countries where the State undertakes education great battles have been fought over 'religious instruction.' Generally the parties have been fighting over the name and not the thing. What shall be the precise form of certain religious exercises is of little consequence compared with the question, 'Is the education given in the school thoroughly permeated with the true spirit of religion?' Are the children taught to be honest and truthful, respectful, kind to one another? Is the deformed or crippled or eccentric child an object of peculiar love, instead of the butt of scorn and ridicule? Is the timid new boy welcomed kindly by his fellows? Is the poor boy made to forget his poverty, or does it seem exquisitely funny to the other fellows that he wears his father's old clothes cut down? These are the things which show the practical tests of Christian teaching; and what the school shall be in these respects depends to a very great extent upon the choice of a teacher."

About the same time the New York Christian Union said:—

"For ourselves, we are clear that the Public Schools not only cannot teach without teaching religion—they cannot even exist without teaching religion. But, then, perhaps our definition of religion would be different from that of some who hold that religious teaching must be excluded from the Public Schools. We remember an ancient writer who defines religion as doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with God. Was he right? If so, surely at least two-thirds of religion must be taught in the Public Schools. Perhaps it could exist without teaching its pupils to walk humbly with God; but not without teaching them to do justly and to love mercy. And that is teaching religion. We remember another ancient writer who declared that all the law of God was summed up in the one command, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. The playground cannot be kept in order without some teaching of mutual consideration and justice founded on this law. And that is teaching religion. A third ancient writer defines religion as visiting the widow and the fatherless in their affliction and keeping one's self unspotted from the world. We know one Public School teacher who every Thanksgiving season encourages her pupils to bring in potatoes and apples, and we believe also old clothing, which is then distributed to the poor in the vicinity. This is teaching religion; but we hardly think that the most radical Secularist would condemn this teaching.

"The next time we have a discussion of the question, Shall we teach religion in the Public Schools? let us have a definition of religion. For ourselves, without discussing that question, we hold that the Public Schools should teach all that is necessary to make good citizenship, and that includes education of the moral nature as well as of the intellect. Whether that is teaching religion we will leave the dictionary makers to determine."

We believe that upon the lines indicated in these articles, the question of religious or ethical instruction in the schools may be solved. Upon points of doctrine there are the widest differences of opinion between different religious bodies. Upon points of practice, that is of morality, all Christendom is agreed. It is not reasonable to suppose that some day Episcopalians, Roman Catholics, Presbyterians, Methodists, Baptists, Congregationalists and all other Christians will come together and say, "Let us have taught in our Common Schools those things in which we are all agreed—justice, mercy, truth, love, honesty and charity—and let us, at home in our churches and Sunday Schools, teach the faith and doctrine in regard to which we differ?" This would not, of course, mean that faith and doctrine were relegated to an inferior place. It would simply be an admission that in those matters they are not agreed.

We believe also that great good would result if Christian people of all sorts would throw all their strength into a movement for bettering ethical instruction in the schools. We have said before that the whole question is involved in the question of the choice of a teacher. In order to secure good moral teaching it is not sufficient that the teacher shall be of good moral character. There are required also a thorough sympathy with children, insight into the child nature, and skill in developing that nature on the moral as well as on the intellectual side. Generally these things do not come except in mature years, and after much thought and long experience. How to get teachers possessing these qualities is the real problem before the friends of religious training in the schools.—Globe.

Provincial Q. C's.

The Ontario Government have issued their patents to the legal gentlemen, whom they recently raised to the honor of Q. C. The patents bear date the 3rd of January, 1890, and confer upon each patentee "rank and precedence as such Counsel from the day of the date of these Presents in all the Courts of Our said Province, next after Our Counsel learned in the Law for the Province of Ontario, appointed by Us on the 19th day of March, 1876, and as between the several Counsel whose Commissions bear even date herewith, having and taking rank and precedence according to the date and respective dates of his and their being called to the Bar of Our said Province." Whatever may be urged as to the right of the Ontario Government to attach to any lawyer's name the letters "Q. C.," there can be no doubt that precedence in the Courts of Ontario can only be regulated by the Provincial Government. It appears to us that the precedence Q. C.'s patented since March, 1876, must take a back seat in the Provincial Courts when the Provincial Q. C.'s make their appearance.—Hamilton Times.

A Business Report.

MR. JAMES McCARTY, of Rounds & McCarty's Collecting Bureau, Drumbo, Ont., states:—Have used several bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters for kidney disorder and find it a wonderful remedy. Previously I had been taking pills, thinking I had liver complaint, but now I am quite well and will always praise B.B.B. 2w4d

A Winner's Tale.

LAST winter my little girl caught a severe cold which lasted all season. I doctored with everything I could get but to no avail. Finally I got Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam and gave her two doses which improved her, and in a week she was entirely cured by its use. 2w4d MRS. C. NORMAN, Cornell, Ont.

Little Lucy's Luck.

I HAD a disease of the skin for which Ma tried everything I could think of, but without effect, but the first bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters I tried, I found relief. It gave me great satisfaction. LUCY VENABLES, (aged 11), Boisevain, Man. 2w4d

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. B. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

"La Grippe" or Lightning! Catarrh.

MR. EDITOR.—"La Grippe," or Russian influenza, as it is termed, is in reality an epidemic catarrh, and is called by some physicians "lightning catarrh," from the rapidity with which it sweeps over the country. Allow us to draw the attention of your readers to the fact that Nasal Balm, as well as being a thorough cure for all cases of the ordinary cold in the head and catarrh, will give prompt relief in even the most severe cases of "La Grippe," or Russian influenza, as it will effectually clear the nasal passages, allay irritation and relieve the dull, oppressive headache accompanying the disease. No family should be without a bottle of Nasal Balm in the house, as cold in the head and catarrh are liable to attack people at this season of the year, and Nasal Balm is the only prompt and speedy cure for these troubles ever offered the public. Easy to use and agreeable. If you cannot get it at your druggists, it will be sent, post free, on receipt of price (50 cents and $1 per bottle) by addressing FULFORD & Co., Brockville, Ont. ww

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

THE DIAMOND BUTTON

FROM THE DIARY OF A LAWYER AND THE NOTE BOOK OF A REPORTER.

By BARCLAY NORTH.

(Copyrighted, 1889, by O. M. Dunham. Published by special arrangement through The American Press Association.)

"After a while I thought I would open my bag and find what I had with me, and to my surprise I discovered a suit of clothes for a laboring man—a working suit. Then I remembered that I had used it as a disguise some time ago when I was on another affair, and the thought popped into my head that I could use it again, possibly to good effect. After I got to Newport I made my way to the Witherspoon cottage and took in the surroundings. I knew what time Fountain was to leave New York, and, therefore, about what time he would arrive.

"I determined to disguise myself as a gardener, get on the grounds, and risk detection. So procuring a pair of garden shears, I did my working clothes up in a package, smuggled it out of the hotel, and on a plausible pretext secured a room in a cottage in the town, where I could make the change. About the only thing I learned on the stage was expertness in make up, and when I issued from the room I was as fit a gardener as you ever saw. I loitered around until about the time for his arrival. I was near the gates when the carriage drove up, and quickly followed it. Fortunately for me, such as were at work on the grounds were in front and not in the rear."

"Oh, do skip the details, for heaven's sake!" cried Holbrook.

"You seem to be nervous this morning," rejoined Tom, who, between a desire to tease Holbrook and an intense relish in his own tale, was indulging his vein of graphic recital. "Well, I saw the Ashgrove girl waiting for him, saw her greet him, and then sit down and wait for him while he entered the house. Shortly he came out again, and I had an opportunity to get close up to the veranda out of sight, on the pretext of trimming some vines. Then there began the most extraordinary conversation."

Tom here detailed that scene upon the veranda, of which the reader is fully informed. During its recital Tom was not interrupted; Holbrook was too anxious and interested to lose a word.

When he had finished Holbrook said:

"That settles it. Fountain is the man."

"I think there is no doubt of it," replied Tom.

"None in the least. What power of self possession! Of course he is sure of her love, and does not propose to admit it even to her."

"It is only such a firm, determined, cold blooded kind of a person who could commit so deliberate and cold blooded a murder."

"True, but I think his exhibition of firmness and self possession at the club was even greater than on the veranda."

"How?"

"Why, on the veranda he was sure of the girl, he could depend on her love for him; but in the club an intimation that he was the murderer, backed by proof or strong suspicion, would have made each man there an enemy."

"True," commented Holbrook. "But Flora! How that girl does love! It is a wild, unreasoning, an all pervading love—a love sacrificing every thing. I could not have believed it of her."

"Come, tell me," said Tom, "of your doings since I've been gone."

CHAPTER XX.

THE LAWYER CONSTRUCTS A THEORY.

FROM Holbrook's recital it appeared little had been done in the way of shedding light on the dark places. He had applied for letters of administration for Mrs. Templeton, and had received them. He had taken possession of the property and papers in her name, and with her permission had examined all the personal effects of the deceased. He had found letters in plenty, both at the office of Templeton and his boarding place, but none that threw any light upon the motive of the deed or which even demanded inquiry.

The books and business papers were in excellent and methodical shape. He was certain after closing everything up and paying all outstanding obligations he could turn over something above thirty thousand dollars to be added to the fortune of Mrs. Templeton. The greater part of this money was already in government bonds deposited in a safety vault.

The ladies were comfortably situated in Lexington avenue, and he saw them nearly nightly.

He had been over to see old George Dolwell on Long Island, and had conversed with him as to Wessing's visit.

Little had come of that visit. Wessing had not been by any means communicative, had adroitly avoided direct answers to direct questions, and had tried to draw upon Dolwell for recollection of the papers of Pierson when in the office.

As these principally related to litigation over the collecting of business debts, and the settling of partnership enterprises and speculations, wholly commercial and financial affairs, Dolwell's recollection had interested him little.

He had asked how much Pierson had left, and Dolwell thought over two millions. His only significant question was this:

"Had Mr. Dolwell reason to suppose that Pierson had ever borne any other name?"

"Ah!" cried Tom, "that is getting warm. What was Dolwell's reply?"

"No, upon the contrary he had every reason to believe he had not; he had first known of Mr. Pierson twenty-five years ago, and he then bore that name, and was known as a reputable merchant."

"This thing is very perplexing," remarked Tom thoughtfully. "I cannot make out the connection. Wessing is here making inquiries with regard to Pierson's papers; Fountain makes the same inquiry, and yet so far as we are enabled to ascertain there is no relation between the two."

Holbrook was pacing up and down his narrow room in profound thought. Finally he said:

"Tom, the case stands like this. Now, follow me closely: Templeton is murdered in the open streets and there is no apparent motive for the deed. Circumstances, wholly arising from Flora Ashgrove's manner and words, point the way to suspicions of Fountain."

"Good, I follow you."

"As soon as we set inquiry on foot we run against the dead Pierson. Wessing inquires for his papers, so does Fountain."

"Yes, and so does Parker."

"Oh, that is nothing; he is an attorney, probably acting for one or other of them. Don't interrupt me, you destroy the continuity of my thought. To get back—so does Fountain. Now, in the talk between Flora and Fountain, overheard by you, there are three points made—first, Fountain is an illegitimate son; second, he is proposing to engage upon an enterprise in the following of which is involved the exposure of his illegitimacy; third, Providence has removed Templeton from his path."

"Oh, ho, I begin to see your drift."

"Now to weave these facts. Let us make some suppositions. Suppose Pierson was one of those men who, having a fair and reputable business exterior, lived a double or even triple private life. This is not a wild supposition—there are plenty of such instances; the records of the courts are full of them. Now to proceed: Note that Wessing is making inquiries because—now mark—because his mother—his mother, mark you, thinks that Pierson is a relative, and if he is then she is an heir."

"Good. I follow; I follow."

Martin Luther and His Time.

A small audience assembled in the school room of St. Paul's church Tuesday evening, when Rev. J. Gellaher delivered a lecture on the above subject. His address was a review of the life and works of the great German reformer, the incidents of which are too well known to require a reproduction. The lecturer drew a number of important lessons from the subject. A the conclusion a vote of thanks to the speaker was moved by Rev. P. C. Parker. The chair during the evening was occupied by Mr. W. W. Johnston.

The jury was composed of Messrs. H. Mallaish, S. A. Moore, J. Maiden, S. A. Spangenburg and A. R. Chown. The case arose out of the defendants renting a farm near Frankford village from the plaintiffs, which had formerly been leased to one Cassley. The plaintiffs claim the amount which is sued for as due them for rent.

County Court.

A session of the county court without jury was held before His Honor Judge Weller at his chambers Tuesday. The only case tried was that of W. H. Hall vs. Geo. Goodwin. The plaintiff claimed $100 damages for a quantity of boom chains, ropes, etc, alleged to have been borrowed by the defendant from the plaintiff, who resided at Buckhorn, while the defendant was engaged on a contract in connection with the Trent Valley Canal in 1886. The defendant contended that the claim had been fully satisfied by payments, and set up a counter-claim for $60 for alleged appropriation of an old building owned by the defendant. Poussette & Johnson for plaintiff; Taylor McVeity, Ottawa, for defendant. Judgment was given by consent for plaintiff for $40.

Information Wanted Respecting W. A. Taylor.

A correspondent of the Winnipeg Free Press, Mr. W. H. Nevins, writes from Portage la Prairie, describing the unfortunate condition of one William Alfred Taylor, who is at Mr. Nevins' hopelessly insane and in a bad way generally. It appears that this W. A. Taylor was a former resident of this vicinity, belonging to the neighbourhood of Minden, where a few years ago he acted as foreman for a lumbering firm. He is possessed of considerable means, being worth about $70,000. It seems he has no relatives in the Northwest, and very little is known of him in Manitoba. Perhaps some of the readers of the EXAMINER will be able to throw some light on the relations or connections of Mr. Taylor.

Absenting Church Members.

Several prominent members of St. Andrew's church congregation were summoned to appear before the Session Tuesday to answer to a charge of "wilfully absenting themselves from the regular ordinances of the church." Those summoned were Messrs. J. J. Landy, Dr. Bell, A. McFarlane and T. Fitzgerald, members of the Board of Managers; and Messrs. John McClelland, Alex. Stewart, Jas. Carey, Wm. Fowler and —— Armstrong. The Session sat Tuesday and examined into all but three of the cases, when an adjournment was made until next Wednesday, to complete the examination. The Session was composed of Messrs. J. Carnegie, G. Edmison and Robt. Tully, of St. Andrew's church; Rev. A. Bell, pastor; and Rev. Messrs. Douglass and Cameron, representing the Presbytery.

Social in Smith.

On Wednesday evening a parlor social was held at the residence of Mr. Thos. Edgar, Communication Road, Smith, in aid of the funds of the Bridgenorth Methodist Church. The evening was bright and sleighing good, and in consequence a large number were present. The usual refreshments and amusements were provided, and a programme rendered under the chairmanship of Rev. Mr. Hoack. Mrs. W. A. Sanderson, Mrs. John Weir, Miss Maud Bradburn, Mr. W. C. Leinster, Mr. R. B. Hall and Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., contributed to the programme. It is the intention of the ladies of the church to hold socials in aid of its funds, at intervals during the winter, and no doubt when the people have fully shaken off the effects of the prevalent epidemic the socials in the future will be still more liberally patronized. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar did all in their power to make their guests feel at home and enjoy themselves. The entertainment broke up shortly after eleven o'clock.

Amateur Theatricals.

The opera house was well filled last night, when the well-known old temperance drama, "Ten Nights in a Bar-room," was presented under the auspices of the Royal Templars. When the performance was given at Keene some time ago, it took the villagers by storm, and the presentation in Peterborough was looked forward to with pleasant anticipations. The large audience was not disappointed. It was a really creditable amateur performance. Special mention of any of the cast might appear unwarranted where all are deserving of more or less praise, but the roles assumed by Messrs Messrs. Dixon, Wyatt, Turner, MissSanders, Miss Thompson and little Eva Carey the latter particularly, were exceptionally well taken. By the time the company have presented the play in all the places it is intended to appear, they will, no doubt, be still more improved. They perform in the near future at Lindsay and Omemee, and Thursday night go to Centreville. Other dates will probably be made. The cast of characters is appended. The performance concluded with a touching tableau, representing little Mary Morgan as an angel.

A MARK OF RESPECT.

Mr. KIDD suggested that it would be a graceful thing for the council to adjourn to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Stevenson. Mr. Stevenson was not only a member of parliament, but a veteran member of the town council, and the courtesy of the adjournment would be a tribute of respect he well deserved.

Mr. WILSON endorsed Mr. Kidd's suggestion heartily and unreservedly.

Mr. MOLONEY also thought adjournment would be but a fitting tribute of respect.

Mr. Kidd moved, seconded by Mr. Wilson, —That the council when it adjourns stand adjourned till ten o'clock to-morrow morning, to permit the council as a body to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Stevenson.—Carried.

SCOTT ACT FINES.

Mr. Burnham moved, seconded by Mr. Brown,—That the clerk prepare a statement showing the receipts from fines under the Canada Temperance Act, received by the county, and a statement of fines unpaid, and showing all expenditures incurred in enforcing the Act.—Carried.

The council adjourned.

Obituary.

The Late Mrs. Isaac Garbutt.

The numerous friends and acquaintances of the late Mrs. Isaac Garbutt, will learn with deep regret of her death, which took place at the family residence, Lakefield, on Tuesday, January 28th. The late Mrs. Garbutt has been an honored resident of the county for more than a half a century, and the intimate associations she and her family have had with the growth, development and history of the county, have given her a wide acquaintanceship, while her many excellences of character in all the relations of life have won for her a correspondingly high esteem and veneration. The late Mrs. Garbutt, nee Mary Clarke, was born in Yorkshire, England, on the 12th of July, 1807. She was the fourth child of a family of nine children, all of whom have preceded her to the better land. She was married to Mr. Isaac Garbutt in 1831, and came to this country the following year, together with her husband, parents and their family. They settled in the vicinity of Port Hope, known then as the "front," where they all remained except Mrs. Garbutt and her husband who came to the township of Smith, and settled on the lot now occupied by Mr. H. C. Garbutt, in 1835, where they lived fifteen years, and then removed to the homestead now occupied by Mr. Robert Garbutt, where they lived until 1875, when they retired from the active duties of life and removed to the village of Lakefield, where they have since resided. She experienced the attendant difficulties and hardships of settlement in a new country, but she did her part nobly. Her passing away was peaceful and without apparent pain. Her true womanly character won for her the warm affection of all with whom she came in frequent contact. She was for many years a member of the Baptist church, a devoted Christian, and died in the full hope of a blessed immortality. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved husband and family. This is a grief which time cannot fully efface.

A Wonderful Dream.

The latest and best thing in poetic literature, and which will perhaps prove the biggest hit of the decade, has just been published by the author, Mr. Joseph Carver Robinson, of Boston, Mass.

The poem is entitled "A Dream," and deals with both the mundane, practical, and the celestial, supernatural, in a grave, yet interesting and amusing manner. The poem displays bold and original thinking—a quality comparatively rare now-a-days—an intensity of ambition, frantic greed, a sample of ghoul and the torments of the wicked; and sublime and finished pictures of a journey through the infinity of space, with a description of the recondite glories of the universe. The public is recommended to write to Mr. J. C. Robinson, publisher, No. 24 Broad street, Boston, Mass., and Titusville, Pa., if they want any copies of the book, and it is worth having, for in vivid imagery and flights of poetic fancy, it will probably go down through future ages with the works of Milton and Bunyan, and perhaps in estimation. Our Shakesperian and literary scholars are invited to peruse work—if they don't they will miss a thing of the day.

Mr. Robinson draws that he [illegible] oil monopolist and [illegible] "interests" until he had [illegible] control of the world, and [illegible] supplying the wants of [illegible] ed the world with [illegible] found himself on[illegible] wants" of oil. OUR VILLAGE.—Business has been retarded to a considerable extent owing to the bad condition of the roads, all merchants complaining except our popular smith, Mr. John Irwin, who is doing a rushing business in his line of trade.

A FIRE.—While Mr. John Wright was absent from home Thursday evening last a spark from the stove ignited some inflammable substance near the stove and before it was discovered the fire had made considerable progress in the floor. The neighbours removed all the furniture and succeeded in extinguishing the flames. Mr. Wright's loss will be considerable, as there was no insurance.

APPEAL.—One of our musical counsellors gives as his reason for wanting twenty dollars of the people's money with the head, believes it will never be an efficient hand, but thinks it will have the effect of keeping the boys out of the bar-rooms. Now, boys, if those instruments are attractive for the kittens and have the desired effect, it might also prove equally so with the cats. Invite them up and give him the little drum, as they will compare well as to size, and materially diminish the bar room habit. He might have been afflicted with la grippe.

PERSONAL.—Miss Priscilla Payne, who has been visiting friends in New York City for about two months, resumed her duties as organist and choir leader in the Presbyterian church on Sunday last.

A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL WANTED.—For the convenience of young men of our village, an issuer of marriage license will soon be much needed. Mr. Charles McCaul would fill the bill in every particular, as he possesses a very discreet sense of duty in such matters.

La grippe is the prevalent disease; no deaths reported as yet.

A Boston Eviction.

In Boston, on Monday last, Mrs. Carrol, a poor woman who had been robbed of her money by an absconding broker, was evicted from the house she occupied. While she was lying ill and penniless the officers of the law removed all the furniture in the room, except the bed on which she lay, then took the meshes out of the windows and poured a bucket of water on the fire, at which the oldest girl was trying to prepare some medicine for her mother. The woman died from exposure that evening, and her little ones were turned out to shift for themselves. The father was killed in the Wollaston disaster. The Post says:—That such things can happen in cultured, humane Boston, is humiliating and shameful to relate; and none the less so because the person who owned the tenement was acting within her legal rights. There is a right higher than the mere legal right to evict a tenant under such distressing circumstances. That is, "the right divine of helplessness."

FREE BROWN-HILL [illegible]

Threatened by Vigilantes, This Man Disarms Himself.

TIFFIN, O., Jan. 29.—James Lawrence, who died at the Toledo Asylum for the Insane on Saturday, was buried in the little village of Matmore, in this county, and despite the almost impassable roads, a large crowd of friends and former neighbors followed his body to its last resting-place. Lawrence was taken to the asylum last summer a raving maniac. His condition was due to a threatening notice signed by "regulators" and served on him about eight months ago. He was born in Eden Township along in the forties, and came from a reputable family. When the war broke out he enlisted and served his country till the close of hostilities. He came home broken in health. A few years after the war he was married and had one daughter, who is now the wife of Brooks Baker, a well-to-do young farmer residing in the vicinity of Matmore.

Mrs. Lawrence died about five years ago, and three years later he was again married, the bride being Miss Meyers, who survives him. Prior to his second marriage Lawrence was accused of being intimate with his niece, Miss Lay, daughter of a respectable resident of the village of Nevada, in Wyandotte County. About the time the regulators were at work Lawrence made improper proposals to Miss Wolf, now married and living in Henry County. This occurred while they were riding together, and the young woman at once leaped from the vehicle and returned home, where she informed her family of Lawrence's conduct. Just prior to this time the Matmore regulators visited several persons and warned them that they must behave better. Lawrence was among the number who received one of their mysterious missives.

He was much worried, and at the same time it is said, he received letters from the family of Miss Lay, threatening him with exposure and afterwards with death, if he did not pay her $100 of the $150 he had promised her. These things so worked upon his mind that it became unbalanced, and he made several ineffectual efforts to end his life, once by shooting and a second time by poisoning. After the second attempt he became so violent that it was found necessary to send him to the asylum. After being taken there he was apparently sane for the greater portion of the time, but would suddenly become possessed with the idea that an unseen enemy was attacking him and he would then go into spasms. These became more and more frequent, until death came to his relief. After Lawrence became insane the regulators feared that they would be prosecuted, and now that one of their victims has passed away, the indignation against them has increased, and there is a determination to hunt them down and bring them to justice.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

THE SOCIALISTS' HOT CAMPAIGN AGAINST BISMARCK.

Improvements in the British Museum—The Lost National Liner—The Greedy Portuguese—A Resolution of Confidence in Parnell—A Bold Robbery in Vienna.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—The British Museum, which has been lighted throughout with electric lamps at a cost with other improvements of £14,000, is henceforth to be thrown open evenings for the benefit of the working classes who have hitherto had little opport unity to avail themselves of the advantages the place affords.

Vessels arriving at various English docks from American ports report having met with quantities of wreckage and dead cattle supposed to have belonged to the National line steamship Erin, which vessel is now given up as lost with all on board.

German Socialists are flooding factory towns throughout Germany with Socialistic leaflets exhorting uncompromising opposition to the Government at the coming elections, and claiming the rejection of the Socialist Bill by the Reichstag as a victory which if followed up at the polls will compel complete recognition of the rights of the Social Democracy.

HELVETIA'S DREAD.

Looking to English Capital to Free Her From German Control.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—The large number of cipher telegrams passing recently between M. Dros, Swiss Minister of Foreign Affairs, and the Swiss Minister in London, has aroused curiosity and conjecture. The solution which gains most credence is that negotiations are to be opened up in England for a loan of unusual magnitude to the Swiss Government. The Helvetian republic has grown alarmed by a consideration of its financial situation, which shows it to be at the mercy of its greatest creditor and most dreaded neighbor, the German empire. The Swiss railroads are virtually owned by German bankers, who, probably by the instigation of those at the head of affairs, advanced the money for their construction at suspiciously low rates, underbidding English capitalists who expected to obtain the contracts. In case of a war with France there is no doubt that Germany would seize upon and make use of the roads and tunnels with or without going through the farce of demanding the reimbursement of the sum expended upon them in an incredibly short time. The Swiss Government has become aware that it is a matter of vital importance to redeem its iron ways from German control, even at a considerable outlay for such necessary independence, but it may be expected that Germany will throw every obstacle in the way of a consummation so desirable for the republic.

A Bold Robbery in Vienna.

VIENNA, Jan. 29.—Thieves entered the office of a navigation company here to-day and engaged in conversation with the cashier. Suddenly one of the men threw pepper into the cashier's eyes. They then seized a large sum of money and escaped.

Heavy Floods Along the Rhine.

BERLIN, Jan. 29.—Heavy floods prevail along the Rhine. The bridge of boats at Dusseldorf has been broken and sections of it have been carried away.

Ismail and the Irish Lass.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 29.—Ismail, ex-Khedive of Egypt, while in London eighteen months ago settling his affairs with the British Government, was smitten by the charms of a young Irish girl of good middle class family. She accompanied Ismail to Turkey. There she became head of his harem, and lived in oriental luxury. Lately she has been making herself obnoxious to the other ladies, and most unseemly scenes have occurred. Ismail, becoming indignant, ejected her, upon which she went to the British embassy, showed various severe bruises, complained bitterly of the practices which she averred were of daily occurrence in the seraglio, and revealed some political intrigues to which she was privy. At the request of the embassy the sultan ordered Ismail to be kept in honorable confinement in his palace pending inquiry into the affair.

MITCHELL, Jan. 29.—At a convention of Reformers of the South Riding of Perth, held at Fullarton village, Mr. W. C. Mascrip was elected president and T. H. Race, secretary-treasurer. There was a large representation from all parts of the riding. James Trow, M.P., was unanimously chosen to represent the Reform party for the Commons, and Thomas Ballantyne, M.P.A., for the Assembly.

Death of a Venerable Mason.

BELLEVILLE, Jan. 29.—Joseph P. Huyck, the oldest inhabitant of the city, died this morning in his 86th year. Deceased, who was a veteran of 1812, was for upwards of 70 years a Freemason, being the oldest member of the craft in Canada and the oldest but one on this continent. He will be buried on Friday.

THE SNOW BLOCKADE.

Strenuous Efforts to Clear the Central Pacific Track—Deaths in the Drifts.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—The rotary plow which has been making a big fight in the Sierra Mountains toward raising the blockade on the Central Pacific broke down yesterday in the final drift near Colfade. The plow had been working fifteen days continually. Only 200 yards of snow bank remained. An army of shovelers worked all night under double pay to clear away the snow obstructing five cars of delayed mails sent west from Reno last night.

John Coughlin, telegraph operator at Cisco, died of his lonely station four days ago of pneumonia. Three men including a doctor, who went to his aid on snow shoes, arrived too late to save his life.

Mrs. McVean died at Truckee Monday of diphtheria while on one of the delayed trains.

Yesterday Lucia Zebrette, the Mexican midget, said to be the smallest human being in the world, a passenger on the same train, died at Truckee from gastric fever.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 29.—Information was received this afternoon that the blockade on the Central Pacific is still unbroken. Near Oroville parties have been formed to visit persons in out-of-the-way places. In some of these places the people were found dying and several needed relief. It is feared old miners who have lived alone in the mountains have fallen victims to the winter.

Killed by a Snowslide.

DUTCH FLAT, Cal., Jan. 29.—Three children were killed by a snowslide at Green Valley on the American River. One body was carried into the river and has not been found.

A WEALTHY FISH.

It Must Have Picked the Pocket of a Johnstown Victim of $10,176.

ELDORA, Ia., Jan. 29.—This town comes to the front with a startling fish story that is vouched for as true in every particular. It is recited that John Webster with several boon companions made a fishing excursion down to the Iowa River. They cut holes in the ice and speared a fine pike.

Cutting it open, they were much surprised to find within a fat pocketbook containing $65 in gold, $15 in silver, $75 in bank notes, $10,000 in bonds and a certificate of deposit on a bank of Johnston, Pa., for $26. A slip of paper was also found, bearing a statement that the book and contents belonged to John J. Jones of Johnstown, who was supposed to have perished in the terrible flood. There is no doubt that the fish made its way to the Iowa by traversing the famous Conemaugh River in Pennsylvania into the Alleghany, then to the Ohio, then to the Mississippi and up into the Iowa River.

The U.S. Navy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—In his letter to the Senate, transmitting the report of the Naval Policy Board, Secretary Tracy says that to bring the navy up to the strength suggested in his report would involve an annual appropriation during 15 years of $9,000,000 or less than ¼ the amount proposed by the Naval Board. The Policy Board's report says there are indications that sharp commercial complications with other nations will result in our obstructing the interests of foreign nations. The construction of a canal between the Atlantic and Pacific and competition between other nations for our vast and increasing ocean carrying trade will bring responsibilities and chances of war which we should prepare to meet. Our weakness and total lack of preparation is astonishing. The board recommends the addition of 93 ships and 100 torpedo boats to the navy.

The National League Meeting.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The annual meeting of the National Baseball League reconvened here to-day. The negotiations committee reported 300 applications from players had been received. Only a few were successful. The special law committee made a report referring to the case against Ward and the case against the Brotherhood in Philadelphia. The report recommended that suits in equity be instituted in every state and federal court in the United States in all cases where it is necessary to obtain jurisdiction to restrain players, who are bound or reserved by contract with League clubs for 1890, from giving their services to other clubs. The report was adopted.

The Board of Arbitration referred Swartwood's case against the Hamilton team to Phelps of Louisville, for treatment.

Losses Caused by Flames.

GLENCOE, Ont., Jan. 29.—Early this morning the large frame store owned by George Dobie and occupied by J. H. Hunt, grocer, was discovered to be on fire. The fire spread and soon all the frame buildings between the Traders' block on the south and McMillan & McLean's block on the north were destroyed. The total loss is about $30,000.

SALEM, Mass., Jan. 29.—Hamilton Hall, built in revolutionary times under the name of Assembly Hall and named Hamilton Hall in 1805 in honor of Alexander Hamilton, was gutted by fire to-day.

Retired From the Association.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Chairman Walker to-day made public the official notices of the Union Pacific and Chicago Northwestern Railway companies withdrawing from the Interstate Commerce Railway Association. Chairman Walker has called a special meeting of the association for Feb. 11 to consider the action of the seceders and also to consider and act upon the report of the committee appointed at the last regular meeting of the presidents to revise present methods and organizations.

To Regulate Telegraphic Commerce.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The Senate Interstate Commerce Committee to-day instructed Senator Cullom to report favorably Senator Spooner's bill authorizing the Interstate Commerce Commission to regulate telegraphic commerce between the States. The committee discussed various propositions to make the Canadian railroads doing business in the United States amenable to the interstate commerce law but came to no conclusions.

A ROW IN WASHINGTON.

The Wild Scenes of Reconstruction Days Revived at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The wildest and most tumultuous scene since reconstruction times was enacted in the House to-day over the motion to take up the Smith-Jackson West Virginia election case. After the House had passed the bill relieving the political disability of D. C. Smith of Texas, Mr. Dalzell (Rep., Pa.) called up the West Virginia contested election case.

Mr. Crisp (Dem., Ga.), raised the question of consideration, and filibustering at once began. On this the Democrats generally refused to vote. While the role was being called Speaker Reed noted the names of those present and not voting. When the vote was announced it was found that 161 votes were in the affirmative and 2 in the negative.

Mr. Crisp at once raised the point of "no quorum" and Speaker Reed directed the clerk to record the names, a list of which he had kept, of members not voting but present. A loud shout of approval was raised on the Republican side. Then as the names of the Democrats were read by the Speaker the members got up in their places and protested against their names being recorded against their will.

Mr. Breckenridge (Dem., Ky.) when his name was called took the floor and denounced the action of the Speaker as "revolutionary." With this the Democrats stood up and cheered him, or shouted their protests by cries of "Czar" which the Republicans characterized as the "rebel yell."

The scene at this moment on the floor of the House was one of tumult and riot. When quiet was partially restored Speaker Reed said he was simply announcing a fact, not voting for members. Subsequently he made a long statement in justification of his course, quoting precedents to maintain the correctness of his position. Other speakers followed and Mr. McKinley (Rep., O.) had the floor when the House agreed to adjourn without a division. The matter will come up again to-morrow.

CANADA AND BRITAIN.

MR. MULOCK'S LOYAL RESOLUTION ADOPTED.

Addresses by the Mover and Seconder, the Premier and the Leader of the Opposition—The Vote Unanimous—Other Capital Topics.

OTTAWA, Jan. 29.—Everyone stood up to-day for Mr. Mulock's loyalty resolution, which having passed the Commons is to be suitably engrossed and presented to the Governor-General for transmission to Her Majesty. That the names would be called was not anticipated, but when the discussion was over Sir John Macdonald called for the yeas and nays, and the bells and whips succeeded in collecting 161 members for the first division of the session. It proved to be no division at all, not one man allowing himself to be passed over when the deputy-clerk called the ayes.

Mr. Mulock had been very careful in the preparation of his motion, as he did not desire that there should be any contention over it. A friendly conversation with Sir John Macdonald resulted in some verbal alterations, not affecting the tenor of the resolution, and as thus altered it was then re-printed and a copy given to every member, so that if there were any objections they could be urged and met privately. The result of this wise foresight was that the House was quite unanimous to-day. Mr. Mulock has been congratulated on all sides on the way he managed the business.

Mr. Mulock's address was, like the motion, carefully calculated so as to avoid the introduction of controversial matter. It was couched in temperate but forcible language and was listened to with deep attention by members on both sides. Applause was frequent and cordial. At the outset Mr. Mulock was careful to impress upon the House the fact that his motion was not the outcome of any act or movement lately occurring in Canada. It was not for the information of this House or the country, that he proposed this motion for, notwithstanding party differences, we had in Canada as a common bond of union the desire for British connection—a principle which had developed for us the position of citizens of the greatest Empire in the world. It had developed a common understanding and a common cause that made the hearts of the whole people beat as one.

He made this motion for the purpose of removing apprehensions which had been created and statements which had been made. Reading American papers of the last few months you found it asserted that the political institutions in Canada are broken down, that we are torn asunder by political differences which had made us about to seek refuge in annexation. These paragraphs had appeared in the press in all quarters of the United States, but their similarity was such that it appeared to him they all emanated from one mind.

He thought that a dissemination of such statements was calculated to greatly prejudice the interests of this country, as neither capital or immigration was likely to be directed towards a country whose Government was not stable. He made this motion for the information of the outside world and that it should have proper effect he trusted that there would not be one dissenting voice. For his own part he was anxious to avoid reference to any matter which would occasion dispute.

Some time ago the United States appointed a commission on relations with Canada. Instead of being a commission of enquiry it seemed that the principal desire of that committee was to produce evidence that Canada was anxious for annexation. He knew of no better way to give positive information that no such anxiety existed than for Parliament to pronounce such an opinion as was now called for. The effect of this information he hoped would be to again set flowing towards our shores the surplus population and surplus capital of the old world.

As for the aspirations of the United States he could not blame them for desiring to possess Canada, but rather looked upon their efforts as a tribute to Canada's worth. That a land of so much promise as this should be in its very infancy ready to commit political suicide he could not believe. He could not believe that they were prepared to undo the work of Confederation, to disappear from the nations of the earth amid the universal contempt of the world. No matter who might hold this belief the Canadian people did not. They rejoiced to-day more than ever they rejoiced before in their connection with an Empire which had girdled the whole earth with a confederacy of provinces, not for mere purposes of conquest but for the promotion of civilization.

As for Canada he did not think there should be anything in political differences to interfere with the material prosperity of the country. He hoped that he was promoting that prosperity in moving this resolution, which he believed would be not an unwelcome intimation to Her Majesty. [Applause.]

The seconder was Col. Amyot, who spoke at considerable length in English, the language he always uses in addressing the House. He expressed the pleasure it gave him to speak for the French-Canadians on this occasion and he delved away back into history to show that they had ever since the cession been amongst the most loyal subjects of the Crown in Canada. Their loyalty was based upon sentiment, upon their faith and upon their material interest, for they enjoyed in this country the fullest freedom imaginable. They enjoyed the constitution under which they lived, they were proud to belong to a country which had mastered the whole world and whose constitution was based on the experience of centuries. Under the form of government we received from England the people governed themselves.

Whilst were we independent we might feel some pride in being our own masters, yet we realised that we now derived from our connection with Great Britain advantages which more than made up for our nominal dependence. Though in the past England might have been accused of neglecting Canada, the same could not be said now, and as England showed her desire to deal fairly with us, it was our duty to see that England was kept well informed as to the condition and sentiment of this country. The more the French knew of their English-speaking friends of this country the more they respected them, and though there were some who manifested hostility to those of his nationality he thought a better acquaintance would produce feelings of friendship.

The resolution was very cordially supported by Sir John Macdonald, who said that if any one had had any doubt as to the intention and useful purpose of the motion this must have been removed by Mr. Mulock's clear and lucid speech. He hoped that the House would endorse unanimously the sentiments contained in the resolution and that there would be no controversial remarks or statements likely to mar its effect.

Hon. Wilfrid Laurier was also a cordial supporter. Though he saw no occasion for the resolution all would appreciate the motive which had prompted it for nowhere in Canada was there, he believed, anything but the most unswerving loyalty to the British throne. Towards Her Majesty there was a feeling of not only loyalty but of personal affection in the hearts of all her subjects. He believed that what was sometimes mistaken for disloyalty was only a natural anxiety as to our future. He approved of what had been said by Mr. Amyot on behalf of the nationality to which they both belonged. The fair and generous treatment the French had received in Canada had converted the old feeling of bitterness into one of devotion. If it was the aim of the French to found a great nation on this side of the ocean this was to be based as he hoped on British connection.

It seemed to be plain that our relations with the rest of the Empire could not always remain as they are now. He did not expect that Canada would always be a colony, but on this subject he would not dwell further at present. They could not lose sight of the fact that there was an important movement in favor of Imperial Federation. Our relations might be improved by closer connection or otherwise, but [illegible] have in store we are all more [illegible] our deep attachment to the [illegible] land and the pursuit of the [illegible] pations.)

Hon. Peter [illegible] of the resolution, [illegible] Mr. Patterson [illegible] taking the opportunity [illegible] no truth in the [illegible] question [illegible] or in the town of Windsor. [illegible] were largely made on the strength of the utterances of Mr. Bat. Wilson. He had, however, Mr. Wilson's personal assurance that he had not advocated a change in our present relations. What he had said was that if there was to be a change he would rather have annexation than independence. Mr. Patterson hoped the time was far distant when there would be any severance of the present tie.

THE NIAGARA CENTRAL.

A Delegation Ask a Subsidy for the Toronto Extension.

OTTAWA, Jan. 29.—A delegation interested in the Niagara Central Railway arrived here this morning to ask the Government for further assistance to complete the road. Among the delegates were Dr. Ollis and Sylvester Nesbitt of St. Catharines, Mayor Lawson of Thorold and John Shields of Toronto. Messrs. McKay, Rykert, Fargusson, Carpenter and Small, M. P.'s, took the delegation in tow and introduced the members thereof to the Government. They explained to Sir John Macdonald that the road was now finished between St. Catharines and the frontier, connecting with some five leading railways on the American side. Last session a subsidy was granted to the projected line from St. Catharines to within fourteen miles of Hamilton, a distance of twenty miles, and ending somewhere about the centre of a farmer's field. The delegation pointed out that the surveys were completed to Hamilton and all the financial arrangements made to build the road if the subsidy were granted. While they desired the Government subsidy all the way to Toronto, it is understood that if it was granted to Hamilton in the meantime the work could be proceeded with.

An amendment to the company's charter will be asked from Parliament this session to run into the city of Hamilton instead of passing outside the limits on the way to Toronto. In the meantime a charter extends along the beach, with a spur running into Hamilton. The outlook is that the St. Catharines & Niagara Central Railway will be swallowed up by the Canadian Pacific.

No definite promise was given the delegates, but the chances are that they will get the additional subsidy for the fourteen miles in question.

NOTES AND GOSSIP.

Consolidated Fund Statement—The Superannuation Return.

OTTAWA, Jan. 29.—A statement presented to-day shows the receipts on account of consolidated fund for the first six months of the current fiscal year to have been $20,004,023, and the payments $14,426,202. For the same period of the previous year the receipts were $18,869,084, and payments $14,098,157.

A return of superannuations made during 1889 was presented to-day. It shows a total of 79 superannuations, the annual allowance to be paid to these officials being $33,989. The gratuities paid were $3094, making the total cost of the year's superannuations $36,918. Collector Ross of Halifax, whose dismissal was so much discussed last session, gets an allowance of $640 a year. His salary was $3000.

The expense of the Trent Valley Canal Commission appointed in Oct., 1887, has been $2371. It is expected that their report will be presented this session.

It is said that ex-Lieutenant-Governor Masson will be appointed to the vacancy in the Senate caused by the death of the late Hon. C. S. Rodier.

At a meeting of the Private Bills Committee to-day Mr. Ives was re-elected chairman.

Col. Prior, M.P., is down with a serious attack of la grippe.

The Liberals held a caucus to-day, at which Mr. Scriver presided. A vote of continued confidence in the leadership of Mr. Laurier was carried amidst enthusiasm.

THE BRASILIAN REPUBLIC

Formally Recognized by the United States Government.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 29.—The formal recognition of the United States of Brasil by this Government was completed this afternoon when the President received the credentials of Senhor Valente, the new minister accredited by the Provisional Government, and also the credentials of Senhor Mendonca as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a special mission to the United States. The ceremonies were marked by great cordiality.

A Brooklyn Lawyer Turns Forger.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—M. F. Eller, a Brooklyn lawyer, has been arrested charged with swindling Isaac Johnson. When apprehended Eller tried to shoot himself but was prevented. Then he fiercely resisted arrest. Johnson employed Eller to give out loans on mortgages, paying him a commission. Eller issued 199 forged mortgages.

WINNIPEG NEWS.

Extension of Galt Railway—Development of Deloraine Mines.

WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 27.—Capital has been secured for the construction of the projected extension of the Galt Railway from Lethbridge, N.W.T., to Great Falls, Montana. The money has been raised, the contract been let and construction work will be commenced just as soon as the frost is out of the ground this spring. The veteran railroad builder, Donald Grant of Faribault, Minn., has been given the contract. The present Galt Railway, from Dunmore to Lethbridge, will be widened to the standard gauge by the time the new extension is completed.

Moosejaw farmers at a public meeting discussed a resolution favoring an increase in the duty on flour. The motion was laid over for further argument.

Deloraine coal mines are now in operation. The coal is of good quality and gives out considerable heat. Soon there will be a number of trains hauling coal to Deloraine, whence it will be shipped to points in the province. The Galt Railway Company is having plans prepared for a twenty-five stall round house and machine shop, which are to be erected at Lethbridge in the spring.

A despatch received in the city to-day says W. Draper, the defaulting dry-goods merchant, has gone to Spokane Falls, W.T.

A number of St. Paul capitalists purpose visiting the province early in the spring, their intention being to look over the Northern Pacific & Manitoba Railway extensions with a view to erecting a line of elevators. Already Messrs. Martin & Mitchell have elevators along the extension with a capacity of 450,000 bushels.

THE GILMORE-HANLEY MATCH OFF

The Ex-Torontonians Unable to Appear on Account of Illness.

BUFFALO, Jan. 28.—The Hanley-Gilmore contest is off. A telegram was received from Gilmore to-day saying that he was sick and could not appear to-morrow night. The directors of the Erie County Athletic Club met at two this afternoon and expressed their dissatisfaction at Gilmore's action, which appears to be nothing but an unwarrantable excuse. The directors voted to cancel all contracts with the Chicago man. Faulkner and Leonard met the directors of the Athletic Club at noon to-day to arrange for a match. The directors decided to offer a $600 purse for a competition. Both men accepted, Tom McMahon of Detroit will probably act as referee. The style is catch-as-catch-can two points down.

If you should miss the days of this week (only seven, happily) would be clothing men's days.

Look at the clothing store news up and down the columns of the papers! Is it not so.

We could pile adjective upon hyperbole—could print with display type the most impossible statement if we choose, but we spare you.

They can all gang their ain gait, while we go on making our clothing business bigger by making it better; the only sure way and we hold our own with the best in quality, style and make with real cheapness. Our boys' Readymade clothing cannot be beaten in style, quality and price.

We had a heavy run on Ladies' Mantles last week, A lot of good goods at Bargain Prices still to select from.

Our 40c. Heavy Canadian tweeds please the eye and pockets of all.

In the name of Jack Frost—Blankets. If we could only tell you all we know of Blankets, it would be good reading. One thing we do know, and don't fear to say is, you will get more good wool and generous size in the Blankets now here at $5, than is generally offered. Blankets at $4 and $3.75 of good medium sizes.

Once more the cheapest stock of Grey Flannels and Cottons is with us. The people carry it off with more industry than ants, which is the best proof that business men have that goods are cheap.

THE LADIES!

A New and Startling Form of Disease which is afflicting Canadian Women.

How cases of Worn, Neglected Fresh Complexion, Pimples and Impure Blood Regained Beauty.

A great London Physician says that he notes a new and distinct form of nervous disease prevalent in Canadian women by worry about servants and overwork in caring for the home. This is only too true. It is they we see so many ladies pale, weak, languid, and suffering from headaches and innumerable weaknesses. They cannot stand the strain upon their nervous system. Many of them have found the means to sustain their failing strength, to give color to the cheeks, and new life and vigor to the body, in Paine's Celery Compound. This pure and scientific remedy is especially adapted to the needs of women, and to daily making the most remarkable cures. Mrs. W. K. Cooper, 64½ St. Hyacinthe St., Montreal, was for a long time troubled with nervous headaches, loss of appetite, low spirits, etc. After using the Compound, her headaches disappeared, appetite was good, and her spirits revived.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P.Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now looks as well as she ever did.

Many a Canadian lady has the same reason to be grateful.

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., MONTREAL.

HIGH SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

In the Review of Tuesday a return is made to the question of High School Trustees, and no little rejoicing is made over the alleged fact that the people have no sympathy with the abolition of dual representation, from the fact that they elected as High School trustees members of the Council who had been compelled by the amendment of last session to resign their positions. Such a statement instead of being meekly accepted, suggested a little investigation, the result of which shows that the Review's jubilation has a very imperfect legal justification. There is no doubt that the members of the Council elected trustees, under the circumstances which seem to afford so much comfort to our contemporary, are not entitled to the seats they occupy. The law upon the subject seems to be too plain to admit of a doubt. Reference to section 230 of the Revised Statutes of Ontario Relating to Education, defines the status and powers of members of Union, High and Public School Boards and asserts that "a majority of the members of such board shall form a quorum, and such board shall have the powers of the trustees of both high and public schools," evidently warranting the conclusion that upon union boards there is no legal distinction of the status, respectively, of Public and High school trustees. For instance, a majority of the board is a legal quorum. In case this majority should be composed, as it might be, of exclusively public school members of the board (so called for the sake of distinction,) such majority would be fully competent to transact all and any High School business they might choose, a proof of the contention that the section quoted contemplates that every member of an Union School Board, is ex officio, so to speak, a High School trustee, no matter under what title he was elected, and that such member would come under the disqualification of the amendment of last session, whereby High School trustees are added to the list of persons ineligible for seats at a municipal council board. The section quoted, is no new law though it has been to some extent overlooked. The clause was contained in 37 Victoria, Chap. 28, amended by 48 Victoria, Chap 49, the amendment consisting of changing the word "seven" to "a majority" as constituting a quorum. If this interpretation of the law is correct, then those members of the town council who happen to be High or Public school trustees, the words being legally identical in union boards, hold their seats by a very precarious tenure—looking at the subject from a legal point of view. If our contemporary is so anxious in the present case as it has shown itself on another occasion, to see that the letter of the law is complied with, in reference to qualification for the position of school trustee or municipal councillor, here is an opportunity presented for the application of its solicitude for the public interest. When it has fulfilled its mission in this respect an opportunity may be presented it for dealing with the interest certain members of the school board may have in section 247 of the Consolidated School Law of 1887, which says:—

"Any trustee who has any pecuniary interest, profit or promise or expected benefit in, or from any contract, agreement or engagement, either in his own name or in the name of another with the corporation of which he is a member, or who receives, or expects to receive any compensation for any work, engagement, employment or duty on behalf of such corporation shall ipso facto vacate his seat, and every such contract, agreement, engagement or promise shall be null and void, and the remaining trustees or a majority of them, shall declare the seat vacant, and forthwith order a new election."

The EXAMINER has no Herodian hankering for anybody's "head on a charger;" it merely suggests to its evening contemporary an opportunity for entering upon a crusade for the purging of the school board, similar to that it entered upon with so much vim recently.

GREAT Britain's foreign trade for 1889 was the largest in any year in the country's history. The iron and steel trades were specially brisk, the home demand showing even a greater increase than the export business, owing to the activity in shipbuilding circles. The total import and export trade of the United Kingdom amounted to £675,677,000, nearly £9,000,000 more than the largest previous total on record, that of 1883. Imports aggregated £437,585,000 in value, a total never surpassed. The exports aggregated £238,091,000, and the exceeded twice previously, viz., in 1872 and 1873, when the demand at of Foun- of the Franco-Prussi Compared with the "make out" asked a gain of 10 got two views of him— the rate of per cent. "all face." He took the gain in a week. larger receipts from inspected them closely in the year and the imports of textiles, particularly raw cottons, in the autumn months.

Live Stock Markets.

TORONTO, Jan. 29.—We had a somewhat better market here to-day, as far as the activity being more pronounced, the demand better, and prices, though nominally the same, decidedly higher, were made firmer and more readily paid. The total receipts were 23 loads. The best thing one can say about the quality of the stuff offered is that it was fair; better prices would have realized for any very prime stuff, but it is out of the question to look for fine grades of cattle here just now. We had some buying for Montreal, where business improved a little. The demand for cattle at the Western yards is to a certain extent checked on account of the movement by the recent transport to Toronto of a considerable quantity of American dead meat; and this morning three loads of dead meat came in here from Calgary. This is the first shipment from that quarter. This dead meat supply can be sold at less than the usual rates to which our dealers are accustomed, and of course will not be acceptable to Ontario drovers; but they may as well face the fact that they have to meet a new development of the meat supplying industry that has certainly come to stay. The market was about cleared out at noon.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

If your children are ruptured or Deformed, call and see him with your physician. Having spent his whole life in improving and perfecting appliances for rupture and other deformities, it is conceded by the best authorities that he is the only man in this line of business who can, after examining the patient, invent and construct a correct appliance to overcome the most difficult cases, as many thousands have testified. BOOTS! BOOTS! BOOTS!

Our Boots for Ladies' and Men's wear at 85c., $1, $1.25, $1.75 and $2.00, beat anything in Canada, either wholesale or retail; and why should they not when we bought them at 50c. on the dollar, and therefore when wholesale houses cannot compete with the Wonderful Cheap Men, it is simply impossible for small retail houses to compete. Sixty per cent. of the Goods we sell we buy at less than first cost of manufacture, and hence the reason we make the bold assertion that no wholesale house in Canada can touch our prices. THE DIAMOND BUTTON

FROM THE DIARY OF A LAWYER AND THE NOTE BOOK OF A REPORTER.

By BARCLAY NORTH.

(Copyrighted, 1889, by O. M. Dunham. Published by special arrangement through The American Press Association.)

"Now, suppose Wessing should be a son of Pierson's under another name, that would account for his inquiries after Pierson's property in so guarded a manner, wouldn't it?"

"Yes."

"And suppose, since Fountain acknowledges that he is an illegitimate son, he was another son of Pierson's by another mother, that would account for his inquiries."

"Yes, but I don't follow you closely now."

"And suppose that Pierson was an assumed name in middle life to escape the consequences of a devious way of living, and that, having had two illegitimate sons, he had a third, a legitimate son, whose mother he had abandoned, and that son was Templeton—Templeton, whom Providence had removed from Fountain's path—that is to say, Providence in the shape of a sharp knife in the hands of Harry Fountain."

"You take my breath away. And what then?"

"Why, you have the motive for the murder."

"But how do you bring Wessing in?"

"I don't bring him in; he is there only from the fact that he inquires for Pierson's papers."

"And that he was present at the murder; don't forget that in your theorizing."

"I don't; it is nothing, a mere coincidence, but one of those curious joining of lines and crossing of paths, which if not carefully avoided confuse the judgment and mislead you—which makes truth always so much stranger than fiction."

"Wessing would have the same motive for getting Templeton out of the way?"

"But he didn't do the deed; and besides, Wessing is not a man who would pursue any point to death and who could do deliberate murder; a glance is sufficient to determine that—he is weak. On the contrary, Fountain would. We have both agreed to that."

"But," said Tom, "is not your theory fanciful? There is a great deal to suppose. I admit that, so far as Fountain is concerned, it is plausible."

"Only plausible above the rest because you have certain ascertained facts or statements of himself and Flora to reason upon. Fountain is proposing to seek a fortune; Pierson's fortune lies waiting to be sought; Fountain inquires here about Pierson's papers, and admits to Flora that he called upon me in reference to that enterprise. Flora is horror stricken at the idea of his coming to me, who saw the murderer at a distance, and who pretended to see more than I did. These are the connecting links which make the reasoning seem plausible as to Fountain. You seem to stumble over the idea that there must have been some knowledge of Wessing by Fountain, and of Fountain by Wessing."

"I confess it."

"It is not necessary to the truth of my theory that they should not have knowledge or that they should. See here: Suppose Fountain did know of Wessing, which I wholly doubt, and that he was an illegitimate son also, it would make no difference in his enterprise of killing Templeton. It would be the legitimate heir he would have to be rid of before he or any other illegitimate heir could pretend to have a claim on the unclaimed fortune."

"There is a true reasoning in that. But you have no basis for supposing there was any abandonment of Templeton's mother."

Holbrook had been pacing up and down as he was thus reasoning. Upon Tom's remark he turned quickly around and bringing his hands together with a resounding whack he exclaimed:

"Yes, by Heaven, I have! Mrs. Templeton told me that her father had left her on her mother's death to the care of an aunt, and went to Philadelphia; that subsequently a rumor of his marriage had reached them, but was never verified. That was after they had heard of his death abroad."

"The facts in this case come out slowly," said Tom. "The line of inquiry to follow is the Pierson line. Why not push your inquiries with Mrs. Templeton? See if it is not possible to connect the Templetons with Pierson."

"I'll do it, and at once. You'll go with me too, won't you?"

"Yes, I'll go with you, and would be glad to."

"But haven't we already ground enough to begin a judicial inquiry?"

"No; wait until I have established the identification of Fountain with the man who purchased the clothes. "I'll go about it now and then meet you."

"But I say, Tom, if Fountain don't own the gold button, who does?"

"I'll be hanged if I can tell—that is one of the puzzles in this most puzzling of all cases."

Tom hurried off to his friend, the leader writer, who had undertaken to obtain a surreptitious portrait of Fountain.

"Well, how did you make out?" asked Tom.

"First rate. I got two views of him—profile and full face." He took them from his desk.

Tom inspected them closely. "Capital," he said, "perfect pictures."

"What are you going to do with them?" asked the leader writer.

"Pardon me," said Tom, "I am in a desperate hurry, and if I do not wait to explain and thank you for them you will excuse me, I know."

Then he went to the clothing store and found the clerk.

"What kind of time did you have on your clambake?"

"Bang up," said Tom. "See here, you recollect my asking you if you could identify the man who bought that suit—the man outside of U. E. Tait?"

"Yes."

"Well, here's the man I suspect. Do you recognise him?"

The clerk took the photographs and examined them carefully.

Tom waited in an agony of impatience, his heart beating with such throbs that he thought the clerk must surely hear it.

Finally the clerk said:

"I am certain—positive, that is the man."

"Good," said Tom. "He'll find his little joke turned upon him. Thank you. I'll tell you all about it shortly. I'll come here to tell you for your kindness."

He hurried out of the store.

"The coil is finally wound about him. Fountain, my boy, there is a surprise in store for you. In two days' time, my gentle lad, your name will be the best known in New York town."

He hurried off to meet Holbrook.

Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder."

When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5,040,186, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calendar year, the result of which would be to reduce the ensuing one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would curtail it considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $840,186 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525,000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300,000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management. dw

A Contract Made by Telephone.

A Toronto correspondent of the Montreal Star says:—Judge Falconbridge has decided that a contract made by telephone is as valid as by word of mouth, but has dismissed a case brought before him on this point because the defendant repudiated the contract, and it was impossible to tell from the contradictory evidence whether the plaintiff had heard accurately or not.

Died at Castleton.

This morning the sad intelligence was received of the death, at his home in Castleton, of Mr. Frank S Gould, son of Mr. H. P Gould. Deceased was a young man of promise, and conducted a dry goods business in Peterborough in 1888. He had a number of friends in town who will deeply regret his death. The funeral takes place Saturday.

Horticultural Society.

Mr. John Burnham and Mr. J. R. Stratton, directors of the Peterborough and Ashburnham Horticultural Society, waited upon the Finance Committee of the County Council this morning and secured a continuation for another five years of a $75 annual grant towards the maintenance of the Court House Park. It might be said that this is the average amount that it cost the county to look after the court house green previous to the Horticultural Society undertaking its management.

The Armoury.

Col. J. Z. Rogers, Col. H. C. Rogers, Captains Edwards and Dennistoun, composed a deputation which waited upon the Finance Committee of the County Council this forenoon, soliciting a grant for the proposed new armoury for the 57th Battalion. After discussion, a resolution was adopted by the committee requesting the government to dispose of the drill sheds in Ashburnham and Norwood and apply the proceeds to the credit of the county of Peterborough, the county thereupon agreeing to grant a sufficient amount, if required, to make up the balance of the $1,000 asked for. The town has already voted $2,000, and, in view of the county's action, it now rests with the Dominion Government whether the armoury shall be erected or not.

A Resolution of Appreciation.

At the regular meeting of Mount Hebron Encampment, I.O.O.F., No. 56, held on Tuesday evening, Jan. 28 h, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:—Whereas, the Order to which we belong has for its object the amelioration of the condition of mankind, and as we view with the greatest satisfaction the actions of those whose aims are of a similar nature, be it, therefore, resolved that this Encampment express its high appreciation of the munificent gift which Mrs. Nicholls this day bestowed upon the residents of this town for the relief of suffering humanity, and that a copy of this resolution be conveyed to the noble benefactress whom we, as well as all other sympathisers with the suffering, delight to honour.

The Late Peter Sheehan.

In the death of Mr. Peter Sheehan as recorded elsewhere in this issue, there passed away one of our oldest residents—a gentleman who has been a citizen of Peterborough continuously over a half century—53 years. He was a native of the County Cork, Ireland. He married Miss Julia Driscoll, who passed away three years ago. To this marriage ten children were born, of whom seven are living, two in New York, one in Georgia, one in Montana, Mrs. John McGrath, Mrs. T. Cahill, and one in Michigan, Mr. T. Sheehan, who arrived in town an hour before the death of his father. The deceased gentleman was highly respected, and no doubt this respect will be shown at the funeral, which takes place on Friday at 9.30 o'clock.

Petition Being Signed.

The EXAMINER has been favored with a view of a testimonial as to the absolute genuineness of the extraction of teeth by Mr. Robertson's Electric Vibrator, in use at his office, 140½ Hunter street, signed by well-known citizens of the town. A prominent medical gentleman brought a patient to Mr. Robertson's rooms this morning for the purpose of making a crucial test of the Electric Vibrator, and it worked in a manner to elicit the expression that it was the "best thing of its kind he had ever seen—it was wonderful."

Hymeneal.

Wednesday afternoon about four o'clock the nuptials of Mr. Bruce A. Ledgate, a well-known former resident of Peterborough, now of Jefferson, Texas, and Miss Alice Hamilton, were quietly solemnized at the residence of the brides father, Mr. Wm. Hamilton, Reid street, Rev. E. F. Torrance officiating. Only a few of the most intimate relatives and friends of the young people were present. The bridesmaid's were Miss Annie Hamilton, sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Cookburn, of Beaverton. Mr. Wm. Hamilton, jr., was groomsman. After the ceremony the bridal party sat down to a recherche repast, at which the warmest wishes for the future happiness of Mr. and Mrs. Ledgate were pledged. The newly married couple left on the evening train for their home in the south, via New York. Both young people had a host of warm friends in Peterborough, who will unite in tendering them their heartiest congratulations upon the auspicious event.

The Late Mrs. R. B. McKee.

The busy hand of death is reaping a doleful harvest these sad days. The EXAMINER regrets deeply to add to the death roll the name of Mrs. R. B. McKee. After a brief illness she died on Wednesday night at about 11.30. The deceased lady was, in every way, worthy of the high respect and esteem in which she was held. As a wife and mother she performed the duties of these sacred relations with an unostentatious but affectionate solicitude, which will make her loss felt with peculiar keenness. In her social relations and as a kind and considerate neighbor and faithful friend, she will be held in reverent and affectionate memory. The bereaved husband and children have the sympathy of a very wide circle of relatives, friends and acquaintances in their inexpressibly sad bereavement. The funeral takes place from the family residence, 315 Rubidge street, on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Lindsay Wins the Championship.

Peterborough and Whitby Defeated on the First Round—Lindsay Wins the Final from Bowmanville.

The contest in Group No. Two for the representation in the final for the Ontario Tankard was finished last night, and Lindsay once more becomes the district champion.

The first draw resulted in Whitby and Peterborough being left out. Lindsay scored an easy victory, though the redoubtable Flavelle was just a little short with his rink. Interest centered in the close contest between Peterborough and Bowmanville. The two clubs tied frequently as the game progressed, but the visitors finally pulled the match out of the fire in the last end and won by two points. Following is the score of the first draw:—

At night Lindsay and Bowmanville played off. The ice was rather gummy, but a close and exciting game resulted as follows:

Majority for Lindsay, 4 points.

The Provincial Convention of Ontario and Quebec will convene at Brantford, February 6—10th and promises to be the most profitable ever held. The following leaders among young men have promised to be present and will give addresses:—Rt. Rev. Bishop Baldwin, London, Rev. G. H. Wells, Montreal, Messrs. Morse and Ober, New York, Rev. R. G. Boville, Hamilton, and others. The following are expected to be the delegation from this Association:—Messrs. G. M. Roger, John Carlisle, H. Grundy, Charles Collins, R. C. Hunter, R. H. Beattie and the General Secretary. It is fully expected that the Convention will meet here next year. We hope the noble example set by Mr. Jonas Ordway, a prominent business man of Glen Falls, N.Y., he presenting the Y.M.C.A., of that place with a cheque for $50,000 to build a home for the young men, will be followed by some of our citizens to whom God has given much of the world's wealth. It would be a living monument to their name and love to save the young men of our town, and whose fame would spread throughout the world, and thousands would call them blessed of the Lord. It can be done. Who will have the honor of providing us with such a site?

Personal.

Mr. Wm. Clarton is slowly improving.

Mr. P. H. Green, photographer, is quite ill.

Mr. Chas. Wynne is on the highway to recovery.

Mr. Chas. Manning continues about the same as yesterday.

Mr. Uriah Wilson, M.P., Napanee, was in town to-day, the guest of Mayor Stevenson.

Mr. W. M. Green, painter and decorator, has been confined to the house since Monday with a severe attack of la grippe.

Mr. C.H. Sheffield, who has been seriously ill, is, we understand, in about the same condition as for several days past.

Mr. Thos. Blezard, M.P.P., left for Toronto this morning to attend the opening ceremonies of the Legislative Assembly, which opens to-day. Mr. J. R. Stratton, M.P.P., goes to Toronto in the morning. The opening ceremony is of a merely formal character, the Lieut.-Governor simply reading the Speech from the Throne. The debate on the address usually takes place the following afternoon.

Police Court.

THURSDAY, Jan. 30th, 1890.

Messrs. Gough Bros. were brought up under the Early Closing bylaw, charged with selling a pair of rubbers after 7 o'clock on Monday night. The witnesses, Mr. Neil and clerk, and a gentleman named Manly, showed that about ten minutes after seven, a pair of rubbers were sold to Mr. Manly, who required the goods as he was leaving by train before the shops would be open in the morning. The magistrate imposed a nominal fine of $1.00 and costs.

An old journeyman tailor named Robt. Bates, who has been freely indulging his appetite for drink lately, was sent up to gaol for a day, to allow him to sober up.

Crossley and Hunter in Montreal.

The Montreal Star says:—The revivalists, Crossley and Hunter, held their first week night service last evening in the St. James church, Montreal. There was a good attendance, a large number of young people being present. Seated on the platform with the evangelists were Rev. Jas. Henderson, Rev. S. F. Rose, Rev. C. B. Flanders, Rev. T. G. Williams. After a service of song and devotion, Rev. Mr. Crossley spoke along with very fine effect. He is a man of about forty, with dark full beard and slightly bald, and looks like a practical man of business. Mr. Hunter is younger, tall and slim, and of wonderfully quick movements. He goes through the church, as Mr. Henderson remarked last night. "like a streak." In the same breath that he announces "Amen," he gives out a hymn, and is up and ready to sing before the audience knew the prayer is concluded. Mr. Hunter read for the lesson the 24th Chapter of Acts, interspersing the reading with explanatory and doctrinary remarks. "Those in pointing Felix into sin," he remarked, "we just preach the gospel and talk to people." He believed

IN COURTESY.

A preacher at Parkhill stopped a man and shouted to him: "You are going to hell," and the fellow knocked him down, "and I could not blame him much for doing it." At the conclusion of the reading Mr. Crossley sang very feelingly, "He wants to pardon you," and Mr. Hunter followed with prayer, especially "for the boy, the unconverted husband, the two brothers and the sick lady, for whom their prayers were desired." Mr. Crossley then addressed the meeting for about half an hour upon the passage, St. Luke 15.10. "There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth." He was certain that the faithful departed looked down from heaven upon them. Those who objected to this urged that it would detract from a mother's happiness to look down and see her son going the wrong way. But knowledge would not militate against her happiness as much as suspense. He believed that the saved rejoiced in Heaven with the angels over a sinner's conversion. He hoped that none were so diabolical as to come there to ridicule and criticise. "I would rather be in Montreal than in Heaven, for in Heaven I could only rejoice at a conversion, but I can both rejoice and assist in saving." At the conclusion of the address there was prayer, and those wishing to be prayed for were requested to hold up their hands. A few were raised here and there in the audience. A large number remained to the "after meeting." At three o'clock this afternoon there was a meeting in the Dominion Square Church, and again this evening at the St. James.

THE MESILLA VALLEY.

Some of the Characteristics of a Rich Section of New Mexico.

Las Cruces is the principal town in what is known as the Mesilla valley. The Mesilla valley is a distinctive name applied to that portion of the Rio Grande valley in the extreme southern part of New Mexico, extending from Fort Selden on the north to the Texas line not far from the city of El Paso, Tex. Its average width is about three miles and its greatest width ten miles. The soil is exceedingly rich and fertile, and is especially adapted for the cultivation of fine fruit, although almost every variety of fruit, vegetables and grain can be produced with great success. One of the principal and best paying crops of the valley is alfalfa hay, of which four, and sometimes five, cuttings are made in one season. There is always a good market for alfalfa hay, which brings from $10 to $14 per ton. Every acre of the valley is so located that it can be irrigated from the river, which divides the total acreage into two nearly equal parts. The main line of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad passes through the entire valley on the east side of the river. The altitude is about 3,800 feet lower than Santa Fe and 1,200 feet lower than Denver, and the average of the climate is mild and as near perfection as can be found anywhere. The only real winter experienced by the people of the valley is in the month of January, and even then the temperature rarely falls below 20 degs. above zero. In the midsummer the temperature is about the same as that of the Pacific coast, but one does not experience anything like the discomforts that attend an eastern summer.

The store buildings and most of the residences are built of adobe (mud) bricks, and usually around an open square called a placiti. In these placitis, or open air gardens, it is no uncommon thing to pick roses at Christmas, while about Feb. 1 the trees commence to put forth a new growth of leaves. About ten days ago the enterprising citizens of Las Cruces and the Mesilla valley, assisted by the territorial board of immigration and the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, fitted out a car with fine fruit and other products of the valley, and started east, taking in the principal towns along the line of the Santa Fe route. The scheme of sending out this car is to intelligently show to the people of the east the resources and capabilities of this wonderful valley, and to demonstrate the fact that cattle raising and mining are not the only industries of New Mexico. This fine exhibit of fruit is kept fresh by supplies which are shipped from here daily.

Two and one-half miles southwest of this point is situated the historical Mexican town of Mesilla. It is the second oldest town in the territory, Santa Fe being the oldest, and it is claimed to be the third oldest town in the United States. Twenty years ago it was the metropolis of southern New Mexico. Seven stages arrived and departed daily from different points of the territory, Arizona and Texas. Business was brisk, prices high and money plenty. The inhabitants were mostly Mexican, and the American element chiefly composed of men who had come west for their health—the climate in the states being too hot for them. In those days the man who set his stakes in this country and staid with it was a man of unquestionable courage. When the railroad was built through the valley it left Mesilla several miles to one side, and she now stands an isolated wreck of her former greatness.

Six miles northwest of Las Cruces is located the Shalam colony. This colony is composed of the followers of Dr. A. M. Howland and J. B. Newbrough, who claim to be something higher and wiser than ordinary mortals. Their Bible is called Oaspie, and they claim that it is a direct revelation from God through their prophet, Dr. Howland. They are at present constructing an immense temple according to instructions and plans given in Oaspie. They are peaceful and law abiding, attending strictly to their own affairs and making no attempt to secure converts. At stated intervals Newbrough or Howland make extended trips throughout the east and come back with some half dozen or more young babes. These babes will be brought up in the faith, and in this way the followers of Oaspie will be increased. Dr. Tanner was at one time an active member of this peculiar sect.—Las Cruces (N. M.) Cor. A Rear End Collision on the Erie.

BINGHAMTON, N.Y., Jan. 29.—A collision occurred on the Erie Railway at Owego, 20 miles west of this city, at 12 o'clock to-night. Train No. 13, an eastbound passenger, was standing in the station and train 14, the Wells-Fargo express also east bound, dashed into the rear sleeper wrecking it. Three persons are reported killed.

International Ferries.

ALBANY, Jan. 29.—The Assembly Railroad Committee had decided to report favorably the bill authorizing the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railway to run ferries from any of their termini in St. Lawrence and Jefferson Counties to any point across the St. Lawrence River in Canada.

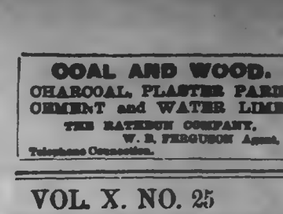
THEIR LAST SESSION.

THE ONTARIO LEGISLATURE OPENED IN DUE FORM.

The Proceedings Marked by the Absence of Old Time Pomp and Circumstance—The Full Text of the Speech from the Throne.

TORONTO, Jan. 31.—Time was not long ago when the inaugural ceremonies of the Provincial Assembly were attended by the roar of cannon, the flash of sabres, the glint of bayonets, and all the pomp and circumstance of glorious war, while within the chamber was gathered many of the ecclesiastical dignitaries of the province, bright ornaments of the judiciary and the bar, officers of the garrison in gay uniforms, consuls and vice-consuls wearing the bright and particular ensignia of the country they represented, fitting little pages in white chokers, the rural member in his best suit of broadcloth, a phalanx of political hangers-on and office-seekers wearing shining plug hats, and last, but oh, not least, bevies of maids and matrons in their gayest of mid-winter costumes.

That seems to have passed away, and the opening of the Assembly yesterday, the last session of the sixth since confederation, was about as informal and common-place an affair as is the gathering of the York



THE PARTY CHIEFS.

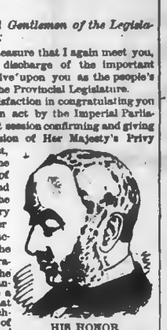
County Fathers in our dingy old Court House. This is said to be due in a measure to the unattractiveness of the exterior and interior of the Parliament Buildings and a return to the days gone by will be in order when the new legislative halls in Queen's Park are ready for occupancy.

All of the Cabinet Ministers except the Provincial Secretary were on hand yesterday. At 3 o'clock His Honor seated himself on the throne and proceeded to read this Speech:

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly:

It is with much pleasure that I again meet you, assembled for the discharge of the important duties which devolve upon you as the people's representatives in the Provincial Legislature.

I have special satisfaction in congratulating you on the passing of an act by the Imperial Parliament since your last session confirming and giving effect to the decision of Her Majesty's Privy Council in August, 1884, respecting the westerly boundary of the province and finally settling the northerly boundary as well as the westerly in substantial accordance with the award of the arbitrators in 1878. The people of Ontario cannot but experience a feeling of relief that we have at last reached the final stage of this long-protracted dispute between the province and dominion and that the territorial limits claimed by the province have been definitely secured for all time.



HIS HONOR READING THE SPEECH.

I regret that owing to the attitude of the dominion with respect to the question of interest, there now appears little probability of a settlement of account as between the two governments being arrived at through negotiation and proposals have accordingly been made on the part of the province to refer to arbitration the points in dispute. The correspondence on the subject will be laid before you.

It is also a matter of disappointment that the Quebec Government declines to concur in any arrangement for settling our differences as to the land improvement fund and steps have in consequence been taken to have them settled through the courts.

I regret that the agricultural industry, the most important in the province, is still in a depressed condition. Untoward climatic conditions in extensive sections of the province blighted the hopes which were entertained in the early portion of the year of an abundant harvest. This, with the continued low price of cereals and other causes, has tended to prevent that improvement in the condition of those engaged in this industry which had been hoped for. It is pleasing to note, however, that in the manufacture of cheese, our great agricultural staple, Ontario holds a foremost place, the product of Ontario ranking in point of quality among the best offered on the English market, and the Dominion trade tables showing that the yearly value of cheese exports, which are chiefly from Ontario, is far in excess of the aggregate value of all the manufactures exported by the Dominion. I rejoice to know that in every branch of agriculture our farmers are evincing a growing appreciation of intelligent methods. The continued success of farmers' institutes is one of the evidences of a strongly prevailing desire to profit by practical information on economic husbandry.

It having been alleged that the regulations of the Education Department requiring instruction in English to be given in all public schools of the province were not observed in certain localities in which the French language prevails, commissioners were appointed to visit these schools to report the facts and to consider in what way the study of English may be most successfully promoted among the pupils whose mother tongue is French. The same commissioners were afterwards directed to visit the German schools of the province and to report in like manner regarding them. Their reports will be submitted to you, as well as certain regulations for giving practical effect to the recommendations of the commissioners, so far as this could be done by immediate executive action. You will be asked to make the grant which is necessary for the establishment of a training school in Eastern Ontario as recommended by the commissioners.

It affords me pleasure to state that the revenue derived from timber dues and the sale of crown lands considerably exceeds the estimate submitted to the Assembly last session.

In February last I issued my proclamation declaring in force the Rainy River Free Grants and Homestead Act and at a later period of the year I approved of an order-in-council appropriating under the act twenty townships in that district for the purpose of free grants. I also issued a commission to take evidence and report upon the claims of settlers along Rainy River. The commissioners examined into and took evidence respecting numerous claims, and patents are being issued to such settlers as have performed the conditions of settlement. A commission was also issued to investigate disputed claims to mining and other locations in Rat Portage and the territory contiguous thereto. Many claims were enquired into and much evidence was taken, and patents are being issued to applicants who have established their claims and complied with the conditions of sale.

The public interest in the mineral wealth of the province continues to increase. The immense deposits of silver, iron, copper and nickel recently discovered or developed have attracted the attention of capitalists and others interested in mining in Europe and America. As a result large investments are being made in developing our mineral resources, and both capital and labor are finding remunerative employment in that connection. Measures relating to the sale of mining locations and to regulate mining operations will be presented for your consideration.

I am glad to know that the completion of two of the asylum cottages at Mimico, together with enlarged accommodation at the London Asylum, have permitted the removal of all those lunatics temporarily confined in the jails of the province who have been certified to be proper subjects for asylum treatment. Six cottages providing further accommodation for 360 patients are in course of construction and will probably be completed during the present year.

Public attention has of late years been directed to the inadequate provision by county municipalities for the care and support of the aged, helpless and poor within their boundaries, only nine counties having yet availed themselves of the provisions of law authorizing the establishment of industrial farms and houses of industry and refuge in connection therewith. Organized philanthropy in the larger centres of population has provided institutions for the care of such persons in these localities and provincial aid to many of these institutions has been extended under our Charity Aid Act. With a view of encouraging the erection of county houses of refuge in connection with industrial farms and of thereby relieving the jails of this unfortunate class of their inmates, a measure will be submitted for your consideration providing for a grant from provincial funds of a sum not exceeding four thousand dollars towards the cost in every county or union of counties availing itself of the act, the grant to be subject to such conditions as you may deem fitting. The bill will also provide for the case of counties which have already established a house of refuge.

Your attention will be invited to the consideration of changes in the law relating to the assessment of property for the purpose of municipal taxation. Steps have been taken to procure a general expression of opinion from the various municipal councils and boards of trade throughout the province on the vexed question of exemptions from local assessment and a measure on this subject will be submitted, which will, I trust, meet with your approval.

Among other measures, there will also be submitted for your consideration: a bill to facilitate the speedy determination of important constitutional questions, a bill respecting the jurisdiction of the Court of Quarter Sessions in criminal cases, a bill for the further improvement of the liquor license laws, a bill relating to the licensing of cullers and the measurement of sawlogs and a bill respecting contagious diseases among horses.

The public accounts for the past year will be promptly laid before you. You will be pleased to learn that the expenditure has been kept within the amount granted and that the revenue has exceeded the amount anticipated.

The estimates for the current year will in due time be presented for your approval. Some will be found to be framed with a due regard to economy and to the necessities of the public service.

I feel assured that your deliberations will, as hitherto, be characterized by wisdom and patriotism, and will conduce to the happiness and prosperity of the people.

Then the Governor and his staff quietly filed out of the chamber and the genial Dr. Baxter, the speaker, took the chair and heard formal motions. The Attorney-General and Mr. Freeman of Norfolk slid out into the west corridor and returned in a second with a tall, erect figure between them. This was Mr. Charles MacKenzie, the new member for West Lambton. He was introduced to the Speaker, and after shaking his white-gloved hand took his seat on the last row of benches behind the ministers beside Mr. Stratton, of Peterboro'. There is a strong "family resemblance" between Mr. Mackenzie and his famous brother, the ex-Premier of Canada. He is over 6 feet and as straight as an arrow. Mr. Mackenzie will move the address this afternoon.

MANITOBA'S LAW MAKERS.

Opening of the Fourth Provincial Legislature—Government Measures.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 30.—In the absence of Lieut.-Governor Schultz, who is ill, Chief Justice Taylor opened the session of the Legislature of Manitoba this afternoon. The Government has a fair working majority, the Opposition consisting of only 13 members. The Government promises to grant aid to the Hudson Bay Railway and to amend the School Act. These are the most important matters to come up this session.

To Meet Feb. 20.

HALIFAX, Jan. 30.—The Provincial Legislature is summoned to meet Feb. 20.

P. E. I. ELECTIONS.

The Government Probably Sustained by a Narrow Majority.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., Jan. 30.—The general elections for the House of Assembly took place to-day. The Government has probably been sustained, but their majority will be a narrow one. Several seats are in doubt and the result will not be known until to-morrow. The indications are that the Government will have 17 and the Opposition 13 seats in the new House.

MARITAL INFELICITIES.

Some of the Domestic Woes That Will be Aired This Session.

OTTAWA, Jan. 30.—The divorce petitions of which notice had been given were presented in the Commons to-day.

David Philip Clapp of Harriston, Ont., asks a divorce from his wife Alice Mae Clapp, nee Macdonald, to whom he was married in 1870. In his petition he alleges that in March, 1887, his wife deserted his home in his absence and proceeded to Detroit and there lived with one Frederick W. Pingle of Harriston as his wife. He alleges also other instances of adultery.

Emily Walker, nee Herald, of Hamilton asks that her marriage with Alfred Percy Walker be declared null and void. Her petition states that they were married on Nov. 1, 1884, by Rev. George A. Forneret, but petitioner never lived with or cohabited with Walker either before or since the ceremony. She was under 21 years of age at the time of marriage, having been born on May 3, 1864, and Walker was also under 21, being born on Dec. 1, 1863. The petitioner's father was dead and the marriage was without the knowledge or consent of her mother. Soon after the ceremony Walker went to Guelph, Belleville, and subsequently to Texas. He is now believed to be living at Brooklyn, N.Y. The marriage was not made known till about ten months after it took place, and Walker has always refused to live with petitioner.

Hughes Forbes Keefer of Vancouver, B.C., formerly of Thorold, asks divorce from Rebecca Ann Keefer, nee Tisdall, to whom he was duly married in March, 1871. His petition alleges adultery with one Frank Simpson at Thorold in 1883 and on divers occasions since.

Christiana Tilman Glover of Burlington, Ont., nee Tilman, asks divorce from Christopher Columbus Glover, formerly of London but now of Michigan. They were married in April, 1874. Petitioner said they lived together only three days, when he sent her home to her father's house and that shortly afterwards he was discovered to be living in open adultery with one Hattie Glover, now living with him in Michigan as his wife. The petitioner asks custody of a male child born as the issue of her marriage with Glover.

Losses Caused by Flames.

HAMILTON, Jan. 30.—Fire at 2 o'clock this morning did $200 damage in a restaurant in York-street, kept by Mrs. Evans and her daughter. The two women, who were nearly overcome by smoke, were rescued from a second-story window. Constable Johnston gave the alarm from the box at King William and James-streets, and was knocked down by an electric shock.

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 30.—Fire this morning destroyed the two-story building occupied by the Langenan Manufacturing Company. Loss $25,000.

COVINGTON, Neb., Jan. 30.—Fire at 8 o'clock this morning burned eight saloons and three wholesale houses. Loss $20,000, fully insured.

TORONTO TOPICS.

A Sensational Seduction Case on Trial at the Assizes.

TORONTO, Jan. 31.—The case of A. N Taylor against William F. Johnston for $5000 damages for the seduction of the plaintiff's daughter, Emma, is on trial at the Assizes and a large crowd was attracted yesterday by the unsavory details of the evidence. Both plaintiff and defendant were employed by the Massey Manufacturing Company, but Taylor has been recently discharged. Johnston was a class-leader and Sunday school teacher in the Euclid-avenue Methodist Church, but some months ago was expelled as the result of a church trial based upon this scandal. The defendant's main reliance is a release executed by the plaintiff and Emma in consideration of the payment of $800. This release was procured by a "mutual friend" named McBride who claimed to be acting as Johnston's agent, but at the church trial referred to the latter denied that he had anything to do with the payment of the $800 and claimed that McBride was not empowered to negotiate for him. The suit which had been withdrawn at the time of the execution of the release was in consequence of this denial recommenced. Miss Emma was on the stand several hours yesterday. She is a bright-eyed little brunette, 20 years of age, and told her story like a modest girl feeling keenly the shame of her position. The first assault occurred, she said, in the absence of the defendant's wife from home and was followed by the birth of a child which has since died. There were two subsequent offences of the same kind, she said. She left the defendant's house where she had been living and he gave her $10 and urged her to go to the States. The case will be continued to-day.

Mr. Justice MacMahon yesterday decided in one of the actions brought against the G.T.R. for damages arising out of the great St. George accident that Patrick Cleary, track foreman, William Young, switch foreman, J. W. Kearns and William Blackwell, one of whom was the regular engine driver and the other the one in charge of the ill-fated train on the day of the accident, were not examinable as officers of the G.T.R., and therefore refused the motion for leave to do so with costs. The decision is an important one.

The Master-in-Chambers yesterday made an order setting aside the election of Mayor Morton of Campbellford on the ground that he was disqualified on account of holding the clerkship of the neighboring township of Seymour.

A DASHING FINANCIER.

GETS A BIG NEW YORK BANK INTO SERIOUS TROUBLE.

The Newly Elected President of the Sixth National Scatters $200,000 of the Assets in Two Days—Another Institution Involved—Startling Developments.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The Sixth National Bank has been closed by order of the National Bank examiner. Irregularities have been found in its method of doing business and an investigation is under way. It has been discovered that the new president of the bank, F. J. Clausen, who went into office only two days ago, has attempted to dispose of $600,000 of the bank's securities, consisting of gilt-edged bonds of a market value of over $600,000. All but $250,000 of these bonds have been sold and where the money has gone is not yet known.

There was no better bank in New York than the Sixth National. It has $3,000,000 of deposits and a large surplus invested in first-class securities. The market value of its stock was about $400 per share. Mr. Leland sold his stock, 1625 shares out of 2000, however, at $650 per share. Mr. Leland was before the Clearing House Committee yesterday and was warmly scored by them for his impolitic conduct. He seemed much disturbed at the situation. There was also a very lively scene between the bank examiner and Mr. Clausen when the former demanded the return of the abstracted bonds or the equivalent in money. Mr. Clausen pretended to be entirely innocent of wrong-doing but could give no satisfactory explanation of his action in trusting so large an amount of securities to a broker for sale or indeed any reason for desiring their sale. When Pell tried to sell some of the abstracted bonds one firm of brokers declined to have anything to do with the securities. It is presumed the missing bonds for $431,000 of the $629,000 abstracted have been hypothecated.

George H. Pell of Pell, Wallack & Co., who it is said had charge of the scheme for purchasing the bank, was the junior partner of the stock broking firm of Crovesteen & Pell, whose failure caused a commotion on the stock exchange in 1887. Pell could not be found to-day.

F. D. Tappen, president of the Gallatin National Bank and member of the Clearing House Committee, speaking of the trouble said the proceeds of the sale of stocks and securities belonging to the bank were used to pay certified checks given to Leland for his 1625 shares of stock. Mr. Tappen strongly denounced the transaction and declared it was a second Ives & Stayner case. The syndicate, he said, having obtained possession of the bank sold the stock and securities in the vaults, depositing the proceeds in the clearing house the following day to make good the checks before 11 o'clock, the regular hour of closing. Mr. Tappen said he had been authorized to say Mr. Leland would make good any deficit that there might be due to the depositors.

About the closed doors of the Lennox Hill Bank a large crowd of people gathered and read the notice announcing its suspension. Bank Examiner Hepburn said he could not see that the depositors are in any danger. He declared this was the most scandalous case of wrecking in the bank history of the city. The Sixth National, he said, was formerly regarded as the strongest in the city. One week ago its surplus amounted to $500,000.

United States Marshal Jacobus to-night admitted he had warrants for the arrest of several persons. It is rumored he is after Pell and Clausen. This afternoon State Bank Examiners Preston and Trenholme came here to look into the affairs of the Lennox Hill and the Equitable Banks. Mr. Preston went to the former and Mr. Trenholme to the latter. This evening they said the affairs of the Lennox Hill Bank would be examined to-morrow. The Equitable Bank would probably be able to go on doing business to-morrow.

President Tallman and the directors assured the examiners they were able to take care of all the bank's papers. They said they expected to raise $60,000 to put in the bank and they could secure a release from the Western National Bank which did their clearing business.

A rumor was started this afternoon that the St. Nicholas Bank was mixed up in the transaction but a denial was made by the cashier of that institution. It is stated that some of the parties concerned in the transactions of the Sixth National attempted some time ago to establish a bank under the name of the Knickerbocker. The scheme fell through, however, as some subscribers failed to materialize and the St. Nicholas Bank refused to clear for it. It is said that out of the ruins of the scheme the Equitable was raised and the Western National took up the clearing business.

Mr. Lelaid was seen with much difficulty to-night. He said the price of $650 a share paid for his stock in the Sixth National was not extraordinary as negotiations for the purchase of the stock at that price had been made three years ago. At that price he said it would pay 6 per cent. The first one who detected anything wrong in the affairs of the Sixth National was Cashier Colson, who notified the Clearing House Committee.

PRESENT BUT NOT VOTING.

The Democratic Minority in Congress Resort to Filibustering.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—There was a long discussion in the House to-day over Speaker Reed's ruling that members actually present but abstaining from voting should be counted as present in order to make a quorum. When the question of tabling the appeal from the Speaker's ruling was put the Democrats again refrained from voting and 163 Republicans voted aye. The point of no quorum was again raised but the Speaker again decided that a quorum was present. Another similar discussion and vote were had and the House adjourned.

But She Beat Phineas Fogg.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Miss Bisland, who tried to beat Nellie Bly in her journey around the world, arrived from Europe to-day. The time of her journey was 77d. 16h. 46m. Miss Bisland started from New York for San Francisco ten hours after Miss Bly had sailed for Europe. Failure to connect with a fast steamer at Havre greatly delayed her.

NEWS OF THE OLD WORLD.

Imperial Penny Postage—Gladstone at Barnum's Circus.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—A strong movement is starting to induce Mr. Goschen to devote two per cent. of the four million surplus to the introduction of imperial penny postage. It is regarded by many as an excellent chance to consolidate the living foundations of imperial unity. Hamilton Heaton, the author of the scheme, writes a letter to the public saying it is the most popular and least expensive gift England can confer on her children and on her children's children in Australia, Africa, Canada, Indies and the United States.

DOMINION ESTIMATES.

FIGURES FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 1891.

The Total on Consolidated Fund Account About $200,000 Less than the Previous Year — Railway and Canal Expenditure — Ontario Public Works Items.

OTTAWA, Jan. 30.—The estimates for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1891, submitted this afternoon, show a total of $38,085,445 required on consolidated fund account against $36,885,000 for the current year, but as there are always supplementary estimates no comparison of totals can be made at present.

For arts, agriculture and statistics $220,300 is asked against $151,302. The large increase arises from a vote of $135,000 asked for the pending census. The experimental farm will cost $78,000, an increase of $5000. For immigration $101,525 is asked, an increase of $6000, this being for general expenses of the service. Quarantine will cost $67,200, a decrease of $984, and of this $6000 is asked for quarantine ports unorganized at present. The pension bill is $765,888, being $4966 less. Superannuation will cost $240,940, an increase of $19,642.

Railway and canal expenditure is thus stated:

	1889-'91.	1889-'90.
Canadian Pacific Railway..$	100	$ 33,154
Intercolonial	197,160	260,000
Cape Breton Railway	60,000	1,102,000
Oxford & New Glasgow	30,000	200,000
Eastern Extension Railway	25,000	.....
Canals	4,286,000	654,740
Total	$5,128,109	$2,294,894

Of the total $3,371,893 is to be revoted. Heavy expenditures this year on the Intercolonial for construction and providing increased accommodation account for the large increase in the vote.

Under Canals there is $1,641,000 asked for the Sault Canal, or $280,000 more than this year, but $1,141,000 is a revote. Cornwall Canal calls for $1,000,000, against 1,300,000, but $980,000 is a revote.

These new expenditures are asked:

Farran's Point	$100,000
Rapid Plat	200,000
Gallops	240,000

A million dollars is asked for St. Lawrence River and canals, against $600,000 this year. On the Murray Canal it is estimated that $150,000 will be required for completion of the work. This is a revote, as is also $104,000 asked for the Welland Canal for deepening to 14 feet throughout and paying for land damages at Grand River. A revote of $76,000 is asked for Trent River navigation.

For public works chargeable to capital, $397,000 is asked against $515,000. The vote is thus made up:

Construction of Port Arthur harbor	$ 40,000
Dredging Kaministiqua River	85,000
Kingston graving dock	160,000
Cape Tormentine Harbor, N.B.	110,000
Improvement of ships channel between Quebec and Montreal	80,000
Esquimalt graving dock	180,000

For public works chargeable to income, $1,704,485 is asked. These are some of the Ontario items:

Brampton public building	$ 6,800
Brantford drill shed (revote)	10,000
Cobourg postoffice and custom house	1,200
Goderich postoffice and custom house	7,900
Guelph postoffice	800
Hamilton Dominion buildings improvements	1,000
Lindsay postoffice and custom house	800
London custom house	1,800
London military buildings (revote)	5,800
Orillia public buildings	6,000
Peterboro custom house (revote)	10,000
Strathroy postoffice and custom house	12,000
Toronto Dominion buildings	1,800
Toronto drill hall (revote)	30,000
Walkerton postoffice and custom house	7,200

These are some of the Ontario appropriations for harbors and rivers:

Cobourg	$ 4,000
Kincardine	21,000
Owen Sound	30,000
Port Elgin	5,000
Toronto, works at east entrance	30,000
Southampton	35,000
Midland	6,000
Meaford	3,500

The postoffice service is estimated to cost $1,766,000, being $19,000 more than for this year. As usual the main estimates contain little except appropriations required for established service, new items of all kinds being received for supplementaries.

FRESH MEAT DUTIES.

A Movement for the Benefit of Farmers —Orange Incorporation.

OTTAWA, Jan. 30.—A number of members representing rural constituencies held a meeting to-day to discuss the duty on fresh meat which it is desired to have increased. There were present Messrs. Coughlin, McKay, Carpenter, Marshall, Brown, Roome, Smith, Pope, Davis, Cimon and others. While advocating an increase for both pork and beef, they are specially interested in the pork duty which they desired to have raised to 3 cents per pound on all descriptions. It is now 1 cent per pound on heavy mess and 2 cents on other descriptions. A vast quantity is imported, chiefly for the use of lumbermen, and these latter have always opposed an increase in the duty on the ground that Canada could not produce the grade of pork desired in sufficient quantity for the lumberman's purposes. In the belief that our farmers are quite capable of supplying the demand the members above named agreed that a deputation should wait upon the Ministers of Customs and Finance at an early day to press for the change desired. Not only would farmers benefit by profits on hog raising, but this if developed would enable them to dispose of vast quantities of coarse grain not now in demand.

The Orange Incorporation Bill introduced to-day is, as far as the circumstances of the case will permit, a copy of the Foresters' incorporation Bill which passed the House last year without any trouble. Mr. Wallace states that provisions involving questions of provincial or Dominion jurisdiction which wrecked the bill on the former occasion have been carefully evaded this time, so the House has a simple matter to decide upon. He expresses confidence that the bill will pass. Unless called for by opposition offered those promoting the bill will not take up time in its advocacy beyond simply explaining the situation, but if challenged they are prepared for an exhaustive debate.

Mr. McMillan (Huron) gives notice of a resolution favoring the expediency of placing on the free list grains which do not ripen in Canada but are largely imported and sown for the production of food for cattle under the system of ensilage.

Dr. Wilson of Elgin will move for the repeal of the Franchise Act and reversion to the use of the provincial voters' lists.

Mr. Purcell will reintroduce his bill for the protection of persons employed by contractors in the construction of railways against being de...anded of their wages.

Ontario County's Treasurer.

WHITBY, Jan. 30.—The appointment of a county treasurer, an office rendered vacant by the default of J. B. Laing, the late occupant, in an amount somewhere near $6000, is the great question before our County Parliament now in session. The matter is expected to be decided to-morrow.

IMPORTANT!

Remarkable Restoration to Health of Well Known Canadians whose Cases were Given up as Incurable.

From the few of the hundreds of letters we have received from those who have been restored to health and strength by the use of that wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound, we make a few extracts. We hope that the thousands of Canadian men and women who are suffering from nervous and wasting diseases, will profit by these true and plain statements of facts.

D. S. Davidson, of Montreal, suffered for years with nervous dyspepsia, pain in his back, and sleeplessness. He tried doctors without relief, was losing flesh rapidly, and had about given up heart when he commenced the use of Paine's Celery Compound. "Now," he says, "I am a new man. I sleep well and my food does not hurt me."

Mr. Jas. Johnson, 302 St. Charles Borromeo Street, Montreal, was weak and nervous, had no appetite, and could not rest at night. His nerves were soothed and strengthened by Paine's Celery Compound, and he soon became well and strong.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P. Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

A customer of Harrison Bros., druggist, Hamilton, Ont., told them that he was entirely cured of nervous weakness by the use of two bottles of the Compound, after everything else had failed.

The little child of Mrs. G. E. Meredith, 96 D'Arcy St., Toronto, was cured of St. Vitus' Dance by Paine's Celery Compound.

The Daily Examiner.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1890.

In accordance with a resolution moved by Mr. McMullen, the Hon. Mr. Foster laid on the table of the House on Wednesday a return showing the amounts of money deposited in the several savings banks in the Dominion and in the Postoffice Savings Banks on the 30th of June and December 1st. On the 1st of July the balance was $19,925,043, and on December 31st $19,223,611.

Dr. Landerkin will re-introduce this session his resolution, moved last year, declaring that whereas distillers are allowed a rebate of duty upon corn imported for use for the manufacture of spirits for export, it is but just and right that farmers and stock raisers who import corn to feed cattle or other stock for export should also receive a similar rebate. Why not? If a necessity like good whiskey enjoys a rebate, why should not a luxury like meat receive a similar exemption from taxation?

Hon. Alex. Mackenzie celebrated his 68th birthday on Tuesday, and was the subject of many congratulations from his friends. His legion of well-wishers throughout the Dominion will join in the wish that his health may soon be restored to him and that he will be long spared to take an active part in the public affairs of a country which stands so much in need of men of integrity and ability like himself. Mr. Mackenzie was born at Dunkeld, Perthshire, Scotland.

The officers and directors of the Ontario Reform Club were elected Tuesday. They are as follows:—Sir Richard Cartwright, President; Hon. A. S. Hardy, Vice-Presidents; G. B. Smith, 2nd Vice-President; John Flett, Treasurer; E. Dickie, Secretary; F. G. Inwood and T. C. Anderson, Auditors. Stockholders—Sir Richard Cartwright, M. P., J. D. Edgar, M.P., Joseph Tait, G. B. Smith, M.P.P., Hon. A. S. Hardy, T. C. Anderson, Major Gregg, John Flett, Wm. Mulock, M. P. Members' Directors—J. A. Proctor, F. G. Inwood, Philip Jamieson, H. P. Eckardt, J. C. Smith, Peter Ryan.

It will be a great shock to the Yankees to learn that Nelly Bly, the girl that performed the journey round the world in 72 days, is a Canadian. She was born in Frontenac county, near Kingston in 1860. It takes your genuine Canadian to do things in good style. Why the Canadians threw a railway partly round the world, that can be run all winter, without being buried under snow drifts as the American transcontinental roads to the south are buried. Canadian soil, Canadian climate, Canadian conditions produce the men that lead. The two cleverest men in the United States to-day in their respective spheres, Edison and Wiman are Canadians. Its no wonder the Yankees are so anxious to annex Canada—but Canadians under American institutions would ultimately degenerate and become merely Yankees—of a superior brand.

The Toronto Empire promptly resents any infringement of the copyright it seems to hold for the expression of loyal sentiments. It seems to regard itself as the repository of all the loyalty extant, and no sneer is spared against those who differ from the Empire politically. When Mr. Mulock introduced his loyalty resolution into the House of Commons, this course was made necessary by the slanderous accusations of annexation sentiment said to exist in Canada by the Empire and a certain class of Yankee newspapers. With the Yankee journals we have nothing to do, but the Empire slanders loyal and patriotic citizens—fouls its own nest. Mr. Mulock's resolution was passed by an unanimous vote, but the Empire, commenting on this, stated that there were three Reform members "shirked the vote." Perhaps these gentlemen were absent from the city when the vote was taken, as were Messrs. Adam Brown M.P., Hamilton, U. Wisse, M.P., Lennox, and James Stevenson, M.P. Yet nobody but a journal like the Empire will say that the three latter "shirked the vote" on Mr. Mulock's loyalty resolution. The slanders of the Empire have called out full and emphatic and unanimous expression of loyalty to British connection, which will place Canada in her true light before the world, and brand the Empire as a maligner slanderer of the most unscrupulous character. This may seem strong language, but it was written after reading one of the average editorial articles of the junior Tory organ, and the fin spirit of political tolerance was caught from the perusal, like the measles or smallpox—and it is to be hoped like these things in another respect—that one attack will suffice.

A Hundred Thousand a Year.

Rideau Hall is keeping up its old reputation as a receptacle for public funds. There were employed there last year a "clerk of works" at $1,080, six carpenters, a carter, six general laborers, a gardener, a kitchen gardener, a "fireman in greenhouse," six garden laborers, a watchman and a charwoman. These are permanent employees. Nineteen others were employed for broken periods. The wages paid to all these persons amounted to $17,000. Their work was to keep the grounds in order and to keep the building from falling to pieces. The expenditure on crockery and table ware was $800, the largest linen being $125 for 144 napkins, $63 for 60 jugs, $120 for 288 towels of various kinds for drinking various kinds of wines. We may be blamed for entering into these details; but surely the people who pay for the wine and don't drink any of it may be allowed the amusement of knowing in what manner it is drunk. Furniture, carpets and bedding cost last year some $4,900, the largest item being $1,006 for 422 damask napkins. There are many persons in Ontario earning less than $60 000 a year who buy their own damask napkins—but let this pass. The plumbing and heating of the building cost nearly $1,700. This item does not include fuel—a fixed sum of $6,000 a year being granted to His Excellency for fuel and light. Painting and carpentering to the value of $4,000 were done. This sum also may be charged to the account of keeping a rotten and unlovely building from falling about the ears of its occupants. The drainage system of the hall was examined—a very wise thing. But we do not understand how these items are connected with drainage:—

Waiting on His Excellency at Quebec, eight days at $15 per day.....$120 00
Railway fares, four trips.....22 50
Hotel bills.....14 75
Cab hire $13, telegrams $1.25.....15 25

From all of which it appears that the proper way to examine drainage in Ottawa is to go away from Ottawa and converse with a Governor-General in Quebec. It is certainly more pleasant to spend eight days in the quaint old city and have all your bills paid, than to go poking about in dirty drains.

For these and various other little matters connected with the upholding and adornment of Rideau Hall, and the comfort of the people who congregate there, the people of Canada paid last year $30 644, which, being added to the Governor-General's salary of $50 000, makes $80,644 a year. The rent of Rideau Hall, and the grounds attached thereto, would make the Governor General's allowance more than $100,000 a year. And it is our conviction that if his services are worth that sum, he should be paid it honestly and openly, in such a way that the taxpayers may know just what they are paying. —Globe.

Peculiarities of the Hair.

A Winter's Tale.

LAST winter my little girl caught a severe cold which lasted all season. I doctored with everything I could get but to no avail. Finally I got Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam and gave her two doses which improved her, and in a week she was entirely cured by its use. 2w4d Mrs. C. Norman, Cornell, Ont.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good, until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff. —Mrs. E. B. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

OATMEAL FOOD

OATMEAL is one of the items of daily call in the family.

Rich and poor alike appreciate its value as a palatable and nutritious food.

It is to be found on every breakfast table—or ought to be.

ROLLED, GRANULATED or STANDARD it leads all other competitors in public favor.

Its popularity is mainly due to the excellence attained by improved methods of manufacture.

PALATABLE, NUTRITIOUS CHEAP. The Oat contains all the constituency necessary for the sustenance of high bodily vigor.

It is one of these complex foods which is capable of supporting life and health for an indefinite period.

In the border raids and forays of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, it was held in high esteem—on one side at least—that of the raiders.

The provision carried by a Scottish soldier in those days was simply a bag of oatmeal.

With his good Claymore and shield, and reinforced by this food, in spite of scant attire and inferior camp equipage how often did he cope successfully with the haughty Southern and was enabled to win the hands of the best soldiers in the world.

Happily these days are past and milder and more peaceful times prevail.

But this food is still in the ascendant.

Its demand increases every day.

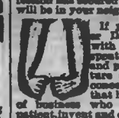
who after many years trial by the medical profession has secured their confidence and esteem, will be in your neighborhood, see below.



If your children are ruptured or Deformed, call and see him with your physician. Having spent his whole life in improving and perfecting appliances for rupture and other deformities, it is conceded by the best authorities that he is the only man in this line of business who can, after examining the patient, invent and construct a correct appliance to overcome the most difficult cases, as many thousands have testified. No two are made alike.

One of Toronto's most prominent wholesale merchants testifies, one week after I had adjusted this new truss:—"For six months, by the advice of my physician I have been attending a well-known firm of truss makers on Church street, sometimes as often as three times a day, but they never succeeded in holding the rupture. What they have been attempting for six months you have effected at the first attempt. I thank you heartily, and you may reckon on my assisting you all I can to attain the success you deserve."

CHAS. CLUTHE, Esq.

Dear Sir,—I feel it my duty to inform you that my little girl, who was afflicted with double Curvature of the Spine and whom you supplied with one of your Appliances, is restored to health again, and is now as straight and featured as could be. She has worn the Appliance constantly without hindrance or pain. I would advise and strongly recommend any person similarly afflicted to apply to you at once for relief. Our family physician, Dr. J. S. King, of Toronto, recommended me to you as being the best maker of these instruments, and I must say that I am more than pleased with the result of your Appliance, and think it cheap at any price.

CHAPTER XXI.

TOM MEETS WITH A CRUSHER.

THE satisfaction with which Tom reviewed his work was mixed with wonder that Fountain should have been so easily and rapidly trapped. He marveled that the police authorities had not seen that the obvious thing to do was to discover at once where the clothes worn by the murderer were purchased.

It was true, he admitted, that he had had an advantage in determining who the purchaser was, through Holbrook's acquaintance with Flora Ashgrove, but why had not the detectives of the regular force found out, as he had done, where the clothes had been bought?

He was in high glee over his discovery, and much pleased with himself. The facts were indisputable, and were to be recognized at a glance.

There was the conversation between Flora and Fountain on the veranda at Newport, and there was the identification of Fountain with the man who had purchased the one suit which had not been bought by the U. S. Ts. While these were not conclusive, still they were sufficient to justify the immediate arrest of Fountain, when the facts necessary for proofs before the jury could be easily brought out by judicious inquiry.

To construct the chain of evidence which would convict Fountain in court was work for the authorities, not for him. He had detected the criminal, and that was all that could be demanded of him, and all that he had set out to do.

It was thus filled with triumph that he sought Holbrook to consult with him as to the next step—the placing of all the facts before the district attorney. To his surprise no less than to his indignation, he found the lawyer loath to go further in the matter.

So long as there was a question of doubt involved in the investigation, Holbrook had been earnest and energetic, but now, when all question of doubt had vanished—when the identification was complete, he hesitated, "baulked," as Tom said, "right at the finish."

The fact that Flora Ashgrove would be inevitably drawn into the matter disturbed Holbrook greatly. While all the tenderness with which he had formerly regarded her was wholly dissipated, still it seemed a horrible thing to him, that she should be dragged to the witness stand and compelled to give the evidence which would send to the gallows the man she had shown she so deeply, and even wildly, loved. He shrank from the idea that he should be instrumental in putting her in such a position.

With these sentiments Tom could not, or at least would not, sympathize. It might be hard for her, but it was hard also for Annie Templeton that her brother should be struck down and killed, and it was one of the inevitable consequences of crime that the innocent suffered no less than the guilty, and while it was unfortunate that Miss Ashgrove was in the position in which she was, yet justice must be done.

To all of this argument Holbrook had no reply, and he realized he could make none. In the end, however, he gave a reluctant consent that everything should be laid before the district attorney, but he positively refused to go with Tom to that official. If he appeared at all in the matter, it should only be as an unwilling witness, to tell how his suspicions of Fountain had been aroused, and he sincerely hoped that even that much would not be required of him. So Tom was compelled to go alone. On his way he dismissed Holbrook's scruples as fanciful to the last degree, and busied himself with the order of the narrative which he was to submit to the prosecuting officer.

On entering the office he saw the door of the private room was closed, and he was about to send in his card, when a voice called out from an adjoining room:

"Hallo, Tom! Come in. Where have you been this month of Sundays?"

Tom passed into the room and saw an assistant of the district attorney, in the center of a group of his fellow deputies."

"Is the chief engaged," asked Tom after salutations.

"Yes," was the reply, "but only for a short time. Come in; I was just telling the boys some of my adventures while yachting. We were out in Teddy Braham's yacht—only a small party, Jack Hanshaw, Fred Cox, Harry Fountain and myself."

"Who? Fountain?"

"Yes, Harry Fountain. Do you know him? A fine fellow."

"What Fountain?" asked Tom, somewhat interested; "Fountain of the Union and the Lambs—athletes?"

"The same. Why?"

"Oh, nothing particular. When was this?"

"Oh, let me see. We were out the 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th of last month. We went on board the 14th at night, and sailed early the next morning."

"O, August," said Tom, with sudden alarm. "Hold on; where were you on the 17th?"

"We ran into Greenport bay, about 9 o'clock at night, under the brightest moon"——

"You are sure of that date?" queried Tom earnestly.

"Why, yes. Certainly. What's the matter with you?"

"This is important. You've made no mistake?"

"Mistake, no. Here's my diary with the entry. See," and he held it up for Tom to read.

"For heaven's sake!" cried Tom, "let us get this straight. When did that murder in Union square occur?"

"Ask Jim there; it's his case."

"You mean Templeton's?" asked the one referred to. "On the morning of the eighteenth, an hour after midnight."

"Great heavens!" cried Tom.

They all stared at him.

He took the photographs out of his pocket and handed them to the first speaker.

"Was this the man—the Fountain who was with you?"

"The very same. These are good pictures of him?"

"Was he never away from you during the trip?"

"Never, from the time he joined us on the fourteenth."

Tom stood like one rooted to the spot. In the meantime the others looked upon him amazed. Finally Tom said:

"I do not think I want to see the district attorney after all."

He turned on his heel without a word and walked out, leaving them wondering at his strange manner and questions.

"He's been drinking," he heard one say.

"One would suppose he thought Fountain had committed that murder," from another.

He paid no heed, but passed on and descended the stairs like one who had met with a distressful blow of misfortune.

He walked along the street dazed, unheedful of all about him. Without knowing just how he had gotten there he found himself in Broadway, opposite the postoffice.

His emotions were difficult to analyse. Heartfelt gratitude and thankfulness that the story had been told him before he had gone in to the district attorney possessed him, but dominating every other sentiment was his feeling of keen and bitter disappointment. His quest had ended in failure, his triumph had turned to ashes.

THE OLD RELIABLE.
The Canada Life
Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder:"
When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5,040,186, no enjoinment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calendar year, the result of which would be to reduce the amazing one to reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would curtail it considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $840,186 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525,000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300,000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management. dw

Strange Feathered Visitors.

Small birds about the size of robins commonly known as grosbeak are visiting this district this winter in great numbers. The birds although not strangers in Ontario are by no means common and the mildness of the weather this winter is, no doubt, the cause of their appearance. Observers state that they eat nothing but mulberries although the birds themselves are found excellent eating. The male bird is in no partion or resembles his mate except in size, the former having a dull, yet attractive, reddish hue, while the female has the appearance of a dusty grey. Their beaks are of an enormous size and cover the entire front of their head,

Work Among Men.

There are now three different organizations of the sterner sex in connection with St. John's Church. The young men's Bible class, embracing youths of from fifteen to twenty-five years of age, has been in operation for nearly a year, and this, as many of our readers are aware, is something much more than a mere Bible class. Then there is the young men's Guild, which includes many of those who belong to the Bible class, but appeals also to others outside of that society. The third society organized last night, when an enthusiastic meeting of the men of the congregation was held for the purpose of consulting together as to the best means of increasing the attendance of men at the church's services. The result of the meeting was the formation of a "Men's Church Extension Association," all the members of which pledge themselves both to regularly attend church themselves and endeavour to induce others to do the same.

The stock, furnishings, horse, rigging, &c., will amount to about twelve hundred dollars, but will be reduced considerably within the next few weeks (if I don't meet with a wholesale purchaser in the meantime), as I am now retailing them at a great sacrifice. Parties wanting good fresh groceries, provisions, &c., for the holiday season will find it to their advantage to call before buying elsewhere, as decided bargains will be given. The goods must be sold. R. H. GREEN, corner of Hunter and Aylmer streets, Peterborough. Dec. 3rd. w6tf

Wedding Bells.

The Port Hope Guide says:—Somewhere in the neighborhood of seventy persons, from Napanee, Belleville, Cobourg, Peterborough, Millbrook, Newcastle, Port Hope, and the Townships of Hope, Clarke and Hamilton, met at Glenmore, the residence of Moore Fanning, Esq., on Wednesday evening, the 29th inst., to witness the marriage of his daughter, Miss Emma, to Mr. John Lewis, of Hope. The Rev. Jos. Killgour, Welcome, united the happy couple. The bride looked charming in her bridal robes and the groom appeared exceeding happy. The marriage service was over the guests repaired to the dining room, where it goes without saying, a royal repast awaited them. Glenmore is noted for its generous hospitality, but in this instance the host and his bevy of charming daughters fairly out-Moored Glenmore. The tables groaned under the load of good things provided, and the truth must be told, justice was done and the inner-man was filled to repletion. A most enjoyable evening was spent, with music, singing and conversation. The bridal presents were numerous, costly and useful, proving conclusively that Mrs. Lewis is most popular among all her friends. At ten o'clock the newly wedded pair started for their home, followed with the blessings of the guests and dozens of old shoes. We join with their many friends in wishing the bride and groom a long and happy married life.

A Farmer Asks Information.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

DEAR SIR,—I wish to mention a grievance which farmers have in connection with the marketting of grain. I find (and I am not alone in my experience) that when I bring a load of grain to the market I am docked from a quarter to half a bushel on the weight of every load, as compared with the weight of the same load indicated by my own scales. My scales are standard and approved by the inspector. But when I buy grain or stuff from the mills I find that the mill scales correspond exactly with my own. Now, I would like to have this peculiarity explained, why the scales of the grain buyers disagree with my own, to my disadvantage, when I sell, but agree perfectly when I buy. I have been greatly vexed over this matter time after time and I should like to have it explained. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, I remain,

Yours very truly,
FARMER.

The Death Roll.

Three Other Citizens Pass Away.

The alarming frequency of the death of our citizens, shows itself in our columns, where day after day the record appears of one or more deaths of well-known citizens. To-day's contribution to the sad list contains the names of Mr. C. H. Sheffield, Mrs. Abraham Dormer, Ashburnham, and Mr. Donald Bailley, foreman carpenter of the Midland Railway here.

Mr. C. H. Sheffield.

Last night Mr. C. H. Sheffield succombed to an attack of typhoid pneumonia, the sequel to an attack of epidemic influenza. He had been in so dangerous a condition that rumours of his death before its actual occurrence were circulated. Mr. Sheffield was a native of England and came to Canada first in 1876. After remaining for some time he sold his property to Mr. R. A. Morrow, the residence now occupied by the latter, and removed from the town for a time. Some eight or nine years ago he returned to town and purchased the property he occupied at the time of his death, and built the beautiful surburban home next south of Miss Chamberlen's residence. He had shown great taste and energy in the beautifying of his home, and just as he had succeeded in making it one of the most pleasant places in this part of the county, death called him away from its enjoyment. In the death of Mr. Sheffield Peterborough loses one of its most respected and valued citizens. His reliability of character and exemplary life were well known and generally recognized. He was for four or five terms church warden of St. John's, and held that position at the time of his death. He took an active and intelligent interest in the work of the church and unostentatiously but efficiently worked for its advancement. Previously to his removal to Canada, Mr. Sheffield held a lieutenancy in a line regiment of the British army—7th Royal Fusileers. Mr. Sheffield, who was aged about 46 years, leaves behind him one brother, George, who lives in London, England, a widow and five children. Mr. Sheffield was an active member of the Masonic fraternity, having been connected with Corinthian Lodge. He held the position of secretary treasurer of the board of Masonic hall trustees for several years. The funeral takes place from the family residence on Saturday at 2 30 p.m.

The Late Mrs. Abraham Dormer.

One of the oldest residents of this vicinity died in Ashburnham this morning, in the person of Mrs. Dormer, relict of the late late Abraham Dormer. Mrs. Dormer had reached the advanced age of 86 years. She was a native of County Wexford, Ireland. She came to Canada with her husband in 1848, coming to Peterborough in 1867. The deceased lady was an active and exemplary member of the Methodist church. She leaves behind her four children, Messrs. John and Isaac Dormer, Mrs. T. Smiley, and Mrs. Robert Baker, all of Ashburnham. Her last illness was pneumonia, resulting from an attack of the prevalent influenza malady. The funeral takes place from the residence of Mr. T. Smiley, Ashburnham, on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

The Late Donald Bailley.

Last night Mr. Donald Bailey, foreman of the carpenters' department of the Grand Trunk car shops, died of pneumonia and heart complications, superinduced by an attack of la grippe. Deceased came to Peterborough about three years ago from Prescott, and was esteemed as an upright and industrious citizen. About a month ago he joined Otonabee Lodge of Oddfellows. Deceased leaves a wife and daughter to mourn his loss. The funeral takes place from the family residence, 200 Sherbrooke street, Sunday afternoon under Oddfellows' auspices.

Personal.

Mr. Murray, photographer, of Brockville, was in town to-day.

Mr. Mark Curtis is suffering from bronchitis, following an attack of la grippe. He will be laid up for some time.

Mr. John Fanning, who has been managing Mr. Thos. Kelly's branch store at Port Hope, is home on sick furlough. His place has been taken pro tem by Mr. Fred Altree, of Mr. Kelly's establishment.

The Shepherd Scatters the Sheep.

The Pastor of St. Andrew's Dismisses a Meeting of the Congregation—The Disappointment of the People—Indignation Freely Expressed—A "Most High-Handed" Proceeding.

The above heading figuratively expresses the aspect of another phase of the trouble which is well known exists in St. Andrew's church. The adjourned annual congregational meeting, was to have been held on Thursday night. It had been called by the Board of Management and announced from the pulpit once, to have taken place the fortnight previous, but at the request of some members of session a postponement of two week—to Jan. 30th, was willingly agreed to by the Board of Management. This postponement was announced from the pulpit on three Sundays, Jan. 12th, Jan. 19th and Jan. 26th, and the congregation generally understood that the meeting would be held on the 30th.

In consequence a considerable number assembled at the school room, of the church—some having driven long distances from the country. At about 7 30, Rev. Alex. Bell, the pastor of St. Andrew's entered the school room where the people were assembled, and after a little time, read a resolution of the session, adjourning the meeting over a fortnight. Upon this some went out at once, but at length all dispersed, the lights were put out and the doors of the school room was locked. The people retiring met others coming to the meeting and a large number assembled upon the walk in front of the church, where, which might be called an informal "indignation meeting" was held. The opinions of those present were freely and warmly expressed, one of the members of the Board of Management stating with indignant emphasis, that the summary and abrupt adjournment of the annual meeting was he had ever heard of, and his remark was endorsed by many who were present.

The members of the Board of Management several of whom were seen, contend that the session had no right whatever to adjourn the announced annual meeting on their own authority. They would have been satisfied with the legality of the proceeding if the meeting had been allowed to be organized and an adjournment moved which they (the Board of Management) would have been willing to assent to. The Managers feel that they have a right to complain that the Clerk of the Session failed to extend to them the courtesy of apprising them of the wish or intention of the session to postpone the annual meeting. It has always been the custom in St. Andrew's Church for the Board of Management to call the annual meeting, and it is contended that they have also a right to make adjournments, or, at least, to be consulted upon the matter of adjournment. The previous adjournment was made by the Board of Management at the request of a member of the session, though another member of the session contended that the matter of adjournment was wholly in the hands of the board.

It is stated on good authority that the

has been to cause the withdrawal of others, in addition to those that have already withdrawn their names from the list of church supporters.

Among members of the congregation and of the Board of Managers, the opinion is not suppressed that the object of the postponement is to secure the advantage of the result of the examination of the nine members who were summoned before the session to answer a charge of "systematically absenting themselves from the ordinances of the church." If the result of this examination is to erase certain members from the church roll, these persons will not of course have a voice in the annual meeting, and the clerk of the session, Mr. John Carnegie, will not be confronted with the distinct disproof of a statement made by him at a congregational meeting held on November 22nd, when, in reference to a statement of the Board of Management, that there would be a deficit in the church funds of over $600, he asserted that the chairman and secretary-treasurer of the board (Dr. Bell and Mr. T. H. Best) either through ignorance or wilfully, misled the people, adding that the parties accused might take either horn of the dilemma as they choose. He (the clerk of the session) contended, speaking from personal inspection of the books, that the deficit would not amount to $75. The members of the Board of Management now point out that they were right and the clerk of the session wrong. The annual report (to have been presented Thursday night) as printed and distributed, shows that the actual deficit is $741.27. The correctness of the financial statement is attested by the following certificate of the auditors:—

"We, the undersigned, having examined the accounts for the year 1889, the vouchers for payments obaiged and the bank book, find the same correct, and have great pleasure in saying that we find the books most accurate.

LUCIUS SHERLOCK, } Auditors.
T. W. GLADMAN, }

Peterborough, January 23rd, 1890."

In view of these facts, the Board of Management conclude that there is reason on the part of certain persons to be anxious for a postponement in the hope that the voices of certain members of the Board may be silenced in the annual meeting.

The above statement is given on the authority of members of the Board of Management, who were seen upon the subject, but Mr. Bell was not at home when the representative of the EXAMINER called at his residence to see him in relation to the affair.

Ashburnham Brevities.

Mr. W. S. Deacon is confined to his house, a subject of the epidemic.

Messrs. J. Throop councillor and J. Kylie are off duties owing to attack of la grippe, the latter being unable to leave his home for the last two weeks.

This is the last day of grace for tarpayers. Those in arrears may get into trouble.

Mr. Geo. Nelson is making extensive preparations for the ice harvest, should there be such an event this year. This weather is very encouraging to those who have ice houses to fill. Its sincerely to be hoped that Jack Frost will make his stay of longer duration when his gracious majesty may again make his appearance.

The Rev. J. J. Wright, B. A., is to be inducted to the charge of the Presbyterian churches of Lyn and Mallorytown this, (Friday) evening. Mr. Wright got a unanimous call to these places a short time ago at a salary of $900 a year and a free manse. He is the eldest son of Mr. Stewart Wright, who has been a respected resident of this village for the past twenty five years. During his arts and theological course at Queen's College, Kingston, covering a period of seven years, Mr. Wright won honors every year, receiving scholarships at the close of each. He is a young man of culture and high scholarly attainments. For a young man he has few equals as a speaker. Judging from his past record and his present attainments, the rev. gentleman has a bright future of usefulness to the congregation over which he will have charge, and to his church in general. His host of friends in town will extend to him their best wishes for his success.

The inhabitants of this burg will thank the County Council for their wisdom in asking the Government to have the drill shed, which has been an eyesore for years, removed. It not only depreciates the value of property in its vicinity by its looks, but also by its being a great danger in case of fire.

Saved by His Little Boy.

A 2½ year-old child saved his father from going to the penitentiary the other day, says the Albany Argus. The father had been arrested on complaint of his wife for abuse and neglect. He was addicted to drink and his family had been made to suffer all the miseries which that habit entails. On being brought before the police magistrate that officer was inclined to give him the punishment which the law provides.

The wife began to relent and beg the magistrate to be lenient for this time. Seated on a chair near by was the little boy, apparently engrossed in admiring the cuts in a newspaper which he was holding upside down. The magistrate, after mentally resolving to give the man another chance, turning to the boy and said:—"What do you say, my lad; shall I send your father to the penitentiary?" The little fellow lifted his big blue eyes from the paper, gazed at the group in an inquiring way, and then, in a deliberate manner and with all the dignity of a judge on the bench, he said: "I wouldn't do dat." The father was released at once.

Hotels Not Pawn Shops.

Landlords Must Not Take Goods in Pawn or Barter for Liquor—Police Court on the Subject.

In the police court this morning Mr. Jos. Brault, keeper of the Montreal House, corner of Aylmer and King streets, was charged with taking goods from one Robt. Bates, giving in exchange for a quantity thereof money and liquor, and taking the same back in pawn.

Robt. Bates, an old journeyman tailor, has been "spreeing" for a long time until his nervous system and financial resources were completely shattered. According to his own evidence, he was down to "last pass," and finally had to sell and pawn the clothes on his back in order to gratify his inordinate thirst for the death-dealing liquor which had mastered complete control of his appetites. Wednesday night Bates went to the Montreal House with his overcoat on and a parcel of underclothing under his arm. The coat he gave to Harry Brault, who was behind the bar at the time, taking therefore $1 on condition that he should be allowed to redeem it whenever able. The underclothing he sold for 25c., which he spent spent on liquor. A pair of cuffs were carried on his person were also sacrificed the same way, Mr. Brault himself giving the old man about half a dollars worth of drink. The next day Bates saw one of the boarders wearing his coat, and on questioning him concerning it, the young man said he had bought it of Harry Brault. Bates went to the latter and told him to be careful with his coat, as he intended soon to take it back. Young Brault replied:—"Go on, I bought the coat and gave you a dollar for it." Bates at once sought the police station and an information was laid against Mr. Brault. The case came up for trial this morning, Mr. E. B. Edwards, town solicitor, conducting the prosecution and Mr. W. F. Johnston the defence.

THE LAW ON THE SUBJECT.

Following is the reading of the statutes in the matter:—

LIQUOR LICENSE ACT, CHAP. 194, SEC. 95.—If any person holding a license purchases from any person any wearing apparel, tools, implements of trade or husbandry, fishing gear, household goods, furniture or provisions, either by way of sale or barter, directly or indirectly, the consideration for which, in whole or in part, is any intoxicating liquor or the price thereof, or receives from any person any goods in pawn, any Stipendiary or Police Magistrate, or any two Justices of the Peace, on sufficient proof on oath being made before him (or them) of the facts, may issue his (or their) warrant for the restitution of all such property, and for the payment of costs; and in default thereof the warrant shall contain directions for levying by sale of the offenders' goods to the value of such property so pawned, sold, or bartered, and costs; and the offender shall also be liable to a penalty not exceeding $20.

From the above it will be seen that Mr. Brault was guilty of an infraction of the law referred to. In this instance, Mr. Brault promising to return all the goods, the prosecution was not pushed to the fullest extent. The magistrate spoke strongly in giving his judgment, telling Mr. Brault that he had been guilty of a worse offence than stealing. But in this case he would not impose a fine, simply ordering that all the property in question be returned to Bates, the defendant also to pay costs.

After the trial of this case Bates was sent to gaol for fifteen days on a charge of drunkenness. When he comes out he will be pretty well straightened up.

Extradition.

The Extradition Treaty negotiated by Secretary Blaine and Sir Julian Pauncefote has got into the newspapers by some means or another before it has been discussed by the Senate, but as it will more than likely be ratified by that body, it may be taken for granted that it will become law. The treaty makes persons charged with the following crimes extraditable in addition to those included in the old or present one:—

Manslaughter, counterfeiting or altering money, uttering or bringing into circulation counterfeit or altered money, embezzlement, larceny, obtaining money, goods or valuable securities by false pretences; receiving any money, valuable security or other property, knowing the same to have been embezzled, stolen or fraudulently obtained; fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee or director, or member, or officer of any company, made criminal by the laws of both countries; perjury or subornation of perjury, abduction, child stealing, kidnapping; burglary, housebreaking or shopbreaking; piracy by the laws of nations; revolt or conspiracy to revolt by two or more persons on board a ship on the high seas against the authority of the master; wrongfully sinking or destroying a vessel at sea, or attempting to do so; assaults on board ship on the high seas with intent to do grievous bodily harm; crimes and offences against the laws of both countries for the suppression of slavery and slave trading."

It is expressly agreed in the second article that

"A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded be one of a political character; or if he proves that the requisition for his surrender has in fact been made with a view to try to punish him for an offence of a political character.

"No person surrendered by either of the high contracting parties to the other shall be triable or tried, or be punished for any political crime or offence, or for any act connected therewith, committed previously to extradition.

"If any question shall arise as to whether any case comes within the provisions of this article, the decision of the authorities of the government in whose jurisdiction the fugitive shall be at the time shall be final."

The third article enacts that—

"No person surrendered by or to either of the high contracting parties shall be triable for any crime or offence committed prior to his extradition other than the offence for which he was committed, and until he shall have had an opportunity of returning to the country from which he was surrendered."

It is to be hoped that the treaty will soon received the ratification of both governments. Boodling will not then have the same attractions as it at present has, owing to the easy means of escape provided by the proximity of Canada and the States. The most notable features of the treaty is the complete withdrawal of the Old Country from the position she so long held as to the extradition of political fugitives.

The Oldest Mason, the Oldest Inhabitant.

A Veteran of 1812, and a Pioneer of Belleville.

Mr. Joseph P. Huyck, the Belleville Intelligencer says, the oldest inhabitant of Belleville, the oldest Free Mason in Canada—the senior member, with one exception—of the A.F. & A.M. in America—passed away at about 4.30 o'clock on Wednesday morning, after a long illness, in the 97th year of his age. Mr. Huyck, who was born near Albany, N.Y., in 1793, was brought to Canada at an early age by his parents, and learned the business of bricklaying, and plastering. The date of his arrival in Belleville is not certain, but he aided in building the first Church of England here, and became a resident of the then hamlet about 1810. During the succeeding years, with perhaps a short interval, he lived here and worked at his trade until he was about ninety years of age. He was a man of vigorous but not large frame, and was quiet and kindly in disposition. His wife—long since deceased—was a daughter of the late Col. Wm. Bell, of Thurlow, by whom he had a family, one of whom is Mrs. Owen Wesse, of Thurlow, and the other, a widow lives in Belleville. Mr. Huyck served in the war of 1812 14, and was one of the honored veterans to whom the Government awarded a pension. He took part in the re-union of veterans here last year, and remained in good health until about three months ago, when he was seized with his last illness. Remarkable as was his great span of life, it was in connection with Free Masonary that his name will go down to posterity; for he joined that Order in his youth and lived to be the oldest member of the craft in Canada, and the oldest but one of the brethren of the mystic tie in America. On the 27th of August, 1819, he was initiated in Belleville Lodge No. 17, (now 123, G. R. C.,) and remained in connection with that lodge up to the end of his life. As a Mason, then, he has a record of 70 years and 6 months—a record memorable for its duration even in the ancient and widespread organization.

MR. CHARLTON'S ELECTION ACT AMENDMENT.

The Second Reading of Mr. McCarthy's Bill re Official French Fixed for Feb 18—Night Sittings to Begin Monday—The Printing Bureau.

OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—Mr. Charlton has introduced a bill to amend the Election Act. It provides that:

"Any candidate who, either by himself or by his agent, shall at any time during the progress of an election contest promise that the Government in the interest of which he is a candidate will make, will be likely to make or will be solicited by him to make any grant for any railway, road, bridge, harbor, pier, public building or other public work, to be expended within the bounds or for the benefit of the constituency for which he is a candidate, such promise being calculated to influence the result of the election in his favor, shall be deemed to be guilty of a corrupt practice and a violation of this act."

The succeeding sections provide that any grant of money for any railway, public work or building of any nature whatsoever, except for urgent repairs, being made within any constituency within ten months of an election being held there, shall be held to be a corrupt practice, providing such grant is calculated to influence the election, and any promise, direct or inferential, made within that period by the Government, its employes or representatives, of such expenditure is also to be held to be a corrupt practice.

The second reading of Mr. McCarthy's bill touching the abolition of French as an official language in the Northwest is the first order of the day on Wednesday Feb. 12.

The House will settle down to serious business next week, as night sittings are announced to commence Monday. The time of adjournment to-day was 5¾.

THE PRINTING BUREAU.

Hon. Mr. Chapleau Thinks the Trouble Will Pass Over.

OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—The printing bureau troubles were lightly touched upon when the appropriations for the department of public printing and stationery were being discussed. Messrs. Somerville and McMullen twitted the Secretary of State with having increased the clerical staff in connection with the bureau and also of having considerably added to the cost of printing. They announced that when the appropriation for this service was asked they would have more to say.

Hon. Mr. Chapleau denied that the staff had been increased, because he said if there were one or two more men in the employ of the Government there were now no contractors and surely the two contractors' services must be held to be of some value. Though the cost of organization had made the printing more expensive up to the present, he still believed that in the end there would be a considerable saving.

He hoped that the trouble with which they were threatened would pass over.

TORONTO TOPICS.

The Montreal Diamond Robber Run to Earth in the Queen City.

TORONTO, Feb. 1.—On the afternoon of Jan. 20 last two men were seen in front of W. S. Walker's jewelry store, Notre Dame-street, Montreal. After remaining quiet for a moment or two one of them leisurely proceeded to the store door and inserted a short, stout piece of wood in the handle, thus preventing any possible egress from the place. The other fellow, when he saw that his companion had got through with his share of the work, deliberately smashed in the plate glass front with a piece of rock which he had concealed under his coat. In the hole thus made he inserted his hands and calmly scooped up two or three trays of diamond rings and gold watches and then fled down the street. The clerks were helpless for a minute, being unable to get out, but Mr. Walker finally jumped through the broken window and started in pursuit of the smasher. He was finally overhauled, arrested, taken before Judge Desmoyer, pleaded guilty and elected to be tried summarily. None of the stolen goods were found in his possession but the pursuit had been so close that his identity was fully established. He gave his name as Martin but refused to tell anything further about his previous history. He was given fourteen years in St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary and took the sentence with apparent coolness. On the day of the robbery Chief Hughes communicated by wire with the Toron to police giving a description of the missing goods and as nearly as possible of the man who had so neatly fastened the door of the jewelry store and who had escaped with the valuables. Sergeant Detective Reburn took special interest in the case, being under the impression that perhaps the thieves might have been Toronto men. Information was given him that Gilbert Skeates, a well-known ex-bartender, had disposed of a diamond ring to a private party at a pretty liberal discount. The ring was hunted up and found to form part of the stolen goods. Skeates was arrested last night by Detectives McGrath and John Cuddy and taken to Police Headquarters. At first he denied all knowledge of the ring, but on being shown the jewel, confessed that he had sold it. A detective left Montreal last night for Toronto to take Skeates back to that city. Skeates gave his Toronto address as 134 York-street.

The Court House was crowded all yesterday, when the evidence for the defence was given in the case of Taylor v. Johnston, the action for $5000 on account of the alleged seduction of plaintiff's daughter. At the close of the plaintiff's evidence defendant asked for a non-suit on the ground that the agreement entered into by Taylor with Johnston and the acceptance of $800 by the former on condition that proceedings were stayed, put plaintiff out of court. Justice Street decided that the case should go to the jury. Then the full force of the defence opened. William F. Johnston took the stand and in the course of a long examination denied the charge in toto. The utmost he admitted was that of being "foolish" with the girl. He had romped with her and had taken hold of her arm and swung her around but had never been guilty of any wrong-doing. "I have often," he admitted, "scuffled with Emma Taylor. Usually I never fooled with her when my wife was present. I had no intention of anything beyond fooling with her. I have been in Emma's bedroom at night when dressed." He admitted having had a slight suspicion that something was wrong with the girl. The investigation at Euclid-avenue Methodist Church he regarded as a church farce, not a trial.

On Tuesday night Lilly, the 12-year-old daughter of W. M. Clarke, 102 Gore-street, was sent out by her father to buy an evening paper. Since then nothing has been heard of her. She was supposed to go to No. 5 on the same street, and when Mr. Clarke started out to hunt her up it was found that she had not called there, and up to date no trace of her whereabouts can be found. The only clue so far to her whereabouts is furnished by a school mate, who claims she saw her on the corner of Arthur and Claremont-streets about an hour after she had started on her errand.

The condition of Hon. John Macdonald at midnight was reported to be somewhat critical. Yesterday afternoon Drs. W. H. Aikins, Grasett, Strange and Cameron performed an operation for an affection of the bladder, from which, it is understood, the honorable gentleman has suffered for a few years. Notwithstanding the painful nature of the operation the patient is doing as well as could be expected.

The Government have made the following appointments: William Albert Matheson, solicitor, Sault Ste. Marie, to be a notary public; William E. Tisdale, solicitor, Simcoe, to be a notary public; Adam Graham, Glamorgan Township, to bailiff of the Third Division Court of the provisional County of Kalliburton, instead of John Dovell, resigned.

THE ONTARIO ASSEMBLY.

The Debate on the Address—Mr. MacKenzie's Maiden Speech.

TORONTO, Feb. 1.—There was a 2¼ hours' talk in the Assembly yesterday on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne. Mr. Charles Mackenzie, the new member for West Lambton and the brother of Hon. Alexander Mackenzie, is the only newcomer in the House since last session. His maiden address was frequently applauded. His references to the late Commissioner of Crown Lands were as touching as they were deserved.

In dealing with the address the member for Lambton first considered the great question of agriculture. The depression in this industry mentioned in the address was, of course, greatly to be regretted. The reasons leading to that depression were manifold, but the great and paramount cause was the competition in cereals induced by the foreign market supply. Now, the question was not one of distance; distance in fact had well-nigh been annihilated by electricity and railways, and now it was not a question of miles, but of so many cents per bushel. To compete with this new foreign field seemed almost an impossibility. Yet was there something upon which to congratulate ourselves—our farmers were now turning their attention to the raising of cattle, the products of the dairy, and thereby creating for themselves an ample compensation for the loss they may sustain through the competition in cereals.

The question of onerous taxation heaped upon the farmer was also dealt with. He could scarce build a house or a barn but he must be subject to an almost unnecessary taxation.

Mr. Mackenzie was glad that the Government had undertaken to assist county houses of refuge. This aid extended by the Government would be a means of establishing houses of refuge in almost all the counties of the province.

Dr. Gilmour of West York seconded the resolution for the adoption of the address. He gracefully complimented the mover upon his oratorical effort, and then referring to the agricultural question, spoke of the great importance of dairy industry as some compensation for the loss sustained in the cultivation of cereals. The farming vocation was a highly honorable one. "If you take history," said Dr. Gilmour, "you will find that the first man God ever created was a farmer." The farmers of Ontario had also listened to the allurements of a tempter who had not his best interest at heart, but unlike Adam he had the power to rectify his mistake. The mining interest was also touched upon, the rich possessions of the Port Arthur country and of the whole territory extending from Sudbury to the western limit of Ontario.

Another great advantage we possess was the easy and convenient railway transit all through that country. The work of the mining commission recently appointed was commended and confidence expressed that the Government would give all possible encouragement to opening up these rich regions. The attack upon the "Ross Bible" was briefly referred to, likewise the much discussed question of French in the schools. With regard to this latter question a commission had been appointed which did its work thoroughly and well. Their report went to show that the majority of the allegations made by the Opposition were without foundation.

The Leader of the Opposition now arose and was greeted with tumultuous applause by his supporters. He was of opinion that matters had been introduced into the House which should not have been mentioned, notably the evident effort of the gentlemen opposite to drag into the discussion the policy and action of the Government members at Ottawa. "I do not propose to be drawn into such a discussion." With regard to the much vaunted victory of the Government in securing the disputed territory he believed the Province would long since have possessed it had it not been for the misrepresentation of the leader of that party which claimed the victory. So far as the labors of the mining commission were concerned Mr. Meredith believed the contents of that report had never been properly placed before the country.

Proceeding he said: "What I desire to insist upon is that the English language should be the language of the public schools." With regard to separate schools he believed that every citizen should be rated and considered a public school supporter unless by his voluntary act he chose to become a supporter of a separate school. With respect to the granting of the ballot to separate schools a universal sentiment existed that a change should be made in this direction, and with that end in view he purposed moving an amendment to the law during the present session.

The Premier replied at some length, first, however, complimenting the mover and seconder of the address. He also paid a tribute to the memory of Mr. Pardee. With regard to introducing matters of Dominion policy into the Ontario House the Premier said: "My honorable friend opposite does not want to defend the policy of the Dominion party; it would be a difficult task for any man to undertake. [Laughter.] Everybody knows that without the assistance of that party the party with which he is connected could have no chance whatever of removing the present Government." [Laughter.] He believed it quite proper that such matters should be discussed. Mr. Meredith had disapproved of adopting a doleful tone with regard to the agricultural depression, but that depression should not be concealed. We had of late cultivated other branches of the industry, notably the production of cheese, which took a first place in the markets of the world. "When we can honestly say anything in favor of our country," said the Premier, "we say it; when we cannot we don't say it."

With regard to the liquor license laws they were undoubtedly in great measure due to the sentiment of the community. "But," said Mr. Mowat, "all our laws rest upon the sentiment of the community. It is because we consult that sentiment that our laws are as good as they are." Speaking of the Third Party he said: "I am against this Third Party because I see it is a branch and ally practically of the Conservative party." The question of the French and Separate Schools was also gone into at length. When speaking of the teaching of French in the schools Mr. Meredith asked: "Do you intend to teach French and English together all the time?"

Mr. Mowat: "I don't say all the time, but it is a great advantage that the children should know both languages."

At the conclusion of the Premier's speech the address was adopted and a resolution passed that it be engrossed and presented to the Governor.

At 5.34 the House adjourned till Monday.

The Teutonic Scorched.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—The steamship Teutonic, at Liverpool, was to-day on fire in her storeroom. The damage is very heavy.

Signor Crispi, the Italian Prime Minister, has conferred a medal of the Order of the Grand Cordon on Osmanich for his services to the Italian forces operating in Abyssinia.

The Novoe Vremaya (St. Petersburg) advises Europe to check England's extensions in Africa. The article is believed to be of Imperial inspiration and has created a sensation.

There Should Be a Hanging There.

MACON, Ga., Jan. 30.—At Morgan yesterday 7000 people, mostly negroes, gathered to witness the execution of Polk Newton, a negro murderer. Interference by the Governor prevented the execution. The crowd lingered and there was much drinking. A riot took place, in which race lines were drawn. It was caused by a drunken negro striking a white child and the attempts of officers to arrest him. A great number of shots were fired. One white man was fatally wounded and three others seriously. It is not known how many negroes were injured.

Took Poison and Cut His Throat.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 30.—W. O. Shank, a leading drygoods merchant of Hamilton, O., committed suicide in this city to-day. He had been absent from his home since Tuesday arranging business matters. His friends could not find him and concluded to have a receiver appointed. When Shank read of it in a paper it set him wild and he took poison and cut his throat.

CASHIER SILCOTT FOUND.

HE DEFAULTER RUN TO EARTH IN TERREBONNE, QUE.

He Says That He Is Not So Black as He Has Been Painted—Not Afraid of the Detectives—The Forgery Charge Denied—His Dutchman With Him.

MONTREAL, Jan. 31.—Craven Edward Silcott, the absconding cashier of the Sergeant-at-Arms of the United States House of Representatives, who decamped with $96,000, the proceeds of forgeries of the names of members who were accustomed to draw their pay through him, has at last been traced to Terrebonne, a little village about 20 miles from Montreal on the Canadian Pacific Railway. With him is Louise Thibault, the frail beauty for whom it is said he went wrong, and the erring pair were seen at the house of her aged parents, who are connected with the Masson estate at Terrebonne.

When interviewed Silcott said: "This is neither the time nor the place to speak of defalcation, but the time will come when those who are now hardest against me will know I was not so much to blame. As to the charges of forgeries, that is all bosh. There is scarcely a member of the House to whom I did not advance his pay every month and received notes as receipts. When I left Washington for New York I had not the remotest idea of leaving the United States. As proof of this I have only to point to the fact that on the Wednesday before last Thanksgiving I drew $96,000 from the Treasury and with $14,000 of this amount I took up the notes of some thirty members which had been discounted in the National Metropolitan Bank. As to the other money I am accused of decamping with, I assure you I had but very little when I left New York.

"There is something else I wish you to contradict, and that is the stories that I was a big winner at the races. This is not true, for my losses far exceed my winnings. It was to keep up and be hale-fellow-well-met with these same members of Congress who now are running me down that I first went to the races. My curse on the races! I wish to God I had never gone near them."

"Was it true that you went to Buffalo from New York?"

"Yes, that was true, but it was not true that I bought two tickets at the Grand Central Depot. Nor is it true that I had been in the company of Fred Miller on my last visit to New York."

"There is another thing I want stated and that is that Miss Thibault, of whom such hideous falsehoods are told, had nothing to do with my fall. Had I always taken her advice I would be in a different position to-day!"

"Would you tell me how you left the States?"

"From Buffalo I went to Detroit, then crossed to Windsor, Ont., and then went to Toronto where I remained at a private boarding house until I was joined by Miss Thibault. We remained there a couple of weeks and then came on here to Terrebonne to visit some of her friends."

"Then the story published in some papers that you and the lady had been in a boarding house on Sanguinet-street in Montreal is untrue?"

"There is not a word of truth in it. We were never in Montreal. We went from Toronto to Ottawa and then to St. Martin's Junction and then here.

"And your plans for the future?"

"I have none. Had you come 24 hours later you would not have found me, for I leave here to-morrow."

"Will you not tell your destination?"

"I will not, but this I will say: I do not care a cent for all the detectives in the United States and Canada. I would face arrest to-morrow, and that is all they could do, for they would be as far from that $5000 reward as ever."

"How so?"

"I have obtained the best legal advice in Canada and feel assured that I have committed no offence for which I could be extradited. The day will come when I will not appear as black as I am now painted. Good night." And thus the interview was brought to a close.

THE BIG TELEGRAPH SUIT.

A Victory for the Montreal Company—The Case Dismissed.

MONTREAL, Jan. 31.—Judgment was rendered this morning by Justice Wurtele in the case of the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company against the Montreal Telegraph Company, dismissing the action with costs, but compelling the defendants to pay the costs of providing unnecessary proof.

The decision had not such a bearing on the stock market as was expected. Montreal Telegraph opened at 90½ asked and 90¼ bid, at which price sales were effected. The price gradually rose until 101 was asked and 100¾ offered. The transfer amounted to 2050 shares.

The Temiscoustra's Short Line.

HALIFAX, Jan. 31.—John Herbert Beatty and E. D. Boswell appeared before a joint meeting of the Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce this afternoon and presented the claims of the Temiscoustra Railroad Company's scheme for a short line from Edmundston to Moncton to the favor of Halifax business men. The matter was discussed by those present and further consideration postponed till next Tuesday.

NOTES AND GOSSIP.

The Boot and Shoe Deputation—Dr. Landerkin's Tariff Resolutions.

OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—A deputation representing the wholesale boot and shoe trade of Montreal and Toronto have an appointment with the Government for Tuesday morning next, when they will urge an increase of duty from 25 to 35 per cent.

Dr. Landerkin gives notice of tariff resolutions in effect providing that (1) farmers should receive a rebate on corn duties similar to that now granted distillers and starch manufacturers; (2) that whereas importers of cotton which is used for sails of ships or other vessels are allowed a drawback, farmers who import goods for use on their farms should receive a similar drawback; (3) that farmers who grow tobacco should be allowed a rebate on stamp duty similar to that now allowed manufacturers of tobacco; (4) that farmers should receive a bounty on grain equivalent to the bounty on iron now given.

Mr. Denison to-day presented a number of petitions from the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, No. 279 of Toronto, asking labor legislation, and Mr. Cockburn presented a number to the same effect from Local Assembly No. 5743 K. of L., Toronto.

Mr. Cockburn also presented the petition of the Confederation Life Association for an amendment to their charter.

Major Charles A. Boulton, recently appointed to the Senate, has had further dignity conferred upon him in the shape of the title of lieutenant-colonel. The rank is brevet and he became entitled to it in 1873, though when he retired from the 46th Battalion in 1881 he took with him only the rank of major.

E. O. Erhatinger of St. Thomas has been appointed Junior Judge of the County of Elgin.

The Canadian Government have been invited to have the Dominion represented at the Jamaica Industrial Exhibition to be opened in January next.

TRANSATLANTIC ADVICES.

BISMARCK RESIGNS HIS POST AS MINISTER OF COMMERCE.

The Duke of Connaught to Succeed His Grace of Cambridge as Commander-in-Chief of the British Army—Parnell Appeals for Funds.

BERLIN, Jan. 31.—Prince Bismarck to-day resigned as Minister of Commerce. It is believed that he was prompted to this step because of his strained relations with Emperor William since the incident of the misunderstanding over certain language used in the Speech from the Throne on the dissolution of the Reichstag, and which the Emperor refused to modify at Bismarck's request in advance of its delivery.

PARNELL'S APPEAL.

Funds Asked from the League in America for Election Purposes.

DETROIT, Jan. 31.—President Fitzgerald of the Irish National League has received this cablegram:

DUBLIN, Jan. 31.—Parnell strongly advises that no convention be held by League in America at present. General election pending. Urge our friends to redouble their efforts to place us in position for the contest.

J. HARRINGTON, M.P., secretary.
J. R. KENNYE, M.P., treasurer.

This was cabled from Detroit to-day:

KENNEY, Treasurer League, Dublin: I send you to-day £3000 more. O'Reilly auditing committee put in busy day. Will work till investigation completed.

DETROIT, Jan. 31.—Pat Grant ("Railroad Laborer"), who came here for The Chicago Inter-Ocean to attend the auditing of Dr. Reilly's books, was arrested to-day on a capias issued at the instance of the League Treasurer for alleged libel of that official in the columns of The Inter-Ocean.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—Mr. Parnell has issued a circular calling the attention of his followers to the opening of Parliament. He writes that constant and unremitting attention to their parliamentary duties will be especially necessary in the coming session because opportunities are certain to arise for rendering effective service to the Irish cause.

The Head of the Army.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—It is reported the Duke of Cambridge will resign his position as commander-in-chief of the British army in October next and that he will be succeeded by the Duke of Connaught, the Queen's third son.

The Duke of Connaught is 40 years old and a brigadier-general. His principal service has been at Aldershot. He went with the guards to Egypt at the time of the war with Arabi Pasha.

THE PULSE OF TRADE.

Business Generally Light—Stock of Wheat in Store—The Week's Failures.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's confirm previously reported indications of an unexpected check to general trade in January as compared with 1889. California reports decreased wheat acreage and adverse weather conditions with reference to the next crop. General trade on the Pacific coast has been restricted by 11 weeks of rain and 6 days' blockade of the Central Pacific Railroad. Hats, caps, furs, boots, shoes, clothing and wool have all been unfavorably affected by a return of mild weather. Almost all leading trade centres report only a fair volume of business. At New York, except fine linen and cotton goods, steel and the better grades of iron, nearly all staple commodities have declined in price or have shown a tendency to do so.

The New York stock market after the heavy gain of $7,000,000 in bank surplus reserves promised higher prices and a bullish temper, which appeared promptly on Monday, but a desire to realize on paper profits resulted in a reaction and the market closes heavy and hesitating with prices lower. Money continues easy. Bonds are firm and in good demand.

The probability of a decline of 50c. per ton in pig iron prices, with the increased attention attracted to the enormous production, has been discussed by makers and buyers. A few weaker furnace companies have sold at shaded figures. Larger makers demand full prices. Western steel rail mills have advanced prices $1 per ton but report no sales at the advance.

Available stocks of wheat, United States and Canada, east of the Rockies, as reported to Bradstreet's aggregate 53,301,319 bushels Jan. 25, a decrease on the week of 609,408 bushels. Like corn stocks were 18,430,631 bushels, a fair gain of 147,396 bushels. Exports of wheat and flour as wheat, from both coasts this week as reported to Bradstreet's equal 1,613,854 bushels against 1,809,500 bushels last week and 1,193,107 bushels the last week of January, 1889. Total exports July 1 to date equal 61,817,751 bushels against 58,283,101 bushels in seven months of the previous cereal year. Wheat flour, with unusually heavy local stocks estimated at about 1,000,000 barrels and sacks, and continued pressure of supplies and tame demand, is off 5c to 15c on the week. Indian corn, 400, has declined sharply ½c to ¾c on dull cables and decrease d export movement.

There has been a sharp reaction in hog products led by the West, pork dropping 25c to 75c a barrel and lard 8 to 15 points per pound.

Business failures reported to Bradstreet's are declining in number, amounting to 286 in the United States this week, against 334 last week and 331 this week last year. Canada had 30 this week against 39 last week. The total of failures in the United States for the month of January is 1628 against 1603 in 1889.

THE PROFESSOR ABROAD.

Goldwin Smith's Address Before the Nineteenth Century Club.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Prof. Goldwin Smith of Toronto delivered an address at the Nineteenth Century Club to-night on the "Political Relations of Canada to Great Britain and the United States."

He said the separation between the United States and Canada is a historical accident and there is no natural boundary. The populations are constantly fusing. The United States and British Canada are now one people under two governments and with a customs line drawn across. Canada, like the United States, is an absolute democracy.

French Canada, however, said he, is a French nation with a practically theocratic government. Their loyalty is morally superseded by a reliance to the Pope.

A Complainant Prosecuted.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Counsel for Thomas B. Kerr and James A. Richmond, indicted for bribery in connection with the granting of the Board of Railway franchise, moved before Recorder Smyth to-day the dismissal of the indictments against them. District Attorney Fellowes did not oppose the motion and announced that he would not try either Richmond or Kerr. Decision reserved.

TURNBULL'S

If you should give the days of the week trade names, Saturday would be clothing man's day.

Look at the clothing store news up and down the columns of the papers! Is it not so.

We could pile adjective upon hyperbole—could print with display type the most impossible statement if we choose, but we spare you.

They can all gang their ain gait, while we go on making our clothing business bigger by making it better; the only sure way and we hold our own with the best in quality, style and make with real cheapness. Our boys' Readymade clothing cannot be beaten in style, quality and price.

We had a heavy run on Ladies' Mantles last week. A lot of good goods at Bargain Prices still to select from.

Our 40c. Heavy Canadian tweeds please the eye and pockets of all.

In the name of Jack Frost—Blankets. If we could only tell you all we know of Blankets, it would be good reading. One thing we do know, and don't fear to say is, you will get more good wool and generous size in the Blankets now here at $5, than is generally offered. Blankets at $4 and $3.75 of good medium sizes.

Once more the cheapest stock of Grey Flannels and Cottons is with us. The people carry it off with more industry than ants, which is the best proof that business men have that goods are cheap.

IMPORTANT!

Remarkable Restoration to Health of Well Known Canadians whose Cases were Given up as Incurable.

From the few of the hundreds of letters we have received from those who have been restored to health and strength by the use of that wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound, we make a few extracts. We hope that the thousands of Canadian men and women who are suffering from nervous and wasting diseases, will profit by these true and plain statements of facts.

D. S. Davidson, of Montreal, suffered for years with nervous dyspepsia, pain in his back, and sleeplessness. He tried doctors without relief, was losing flesh rapidly, and had about given up heart when he commenced the use of Paine's Celery Compound. "Now," he says, "I am a new man. I sleep well and my food does not hurt me."

Mr. Jas. Johnson, 302 St. Charles Borromee Street, Montreal, was weak and nervous, had no appetite, and could not rest at night. His nerves were soothed and strengthened by Paine's Celery Compound, and he soon became well and strong.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P. Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and new foods as well as she ever did.

A customer of Harrison Bros., druggist, Hamilton, Ont., told them that he was entirely cured of nervous weakness by the use of two bottles of the Compound, after everything else has failed.

The little child of Mrs. G. E. Meredith, 76 D'Arcy St., Toronto, was cured of St. Vitus' Dance by Paine's Celery Compound.

For Toilet Use.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriously, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary E. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

Positive proof has been given, that in the case of several responsible parties who have taken in the town and compared prices, that GOUGHS in every case give by big odds the Best Value. One customer stated:—"I looked at a suit up town for $10 (ten dollars) and GOUGHS' price for the same suit and cap and boots to fit the same person included, came to a trifle over $8. Make a note of this. You can save money on every deal at GOUGHS.

BOOTS! BOOTS! BOOTS!

Our Boots for Ladies' and Men's wear at 85c., $1, $1.25, $1.75 and $2.00, beat anything in Canada, either wholesale or retail; and why should they not when we bought them at 50c. on the dollar, and therefore when wholesale houses cannot compete with the Wonderful Cheap Men, it is simply impossible for small retail houses to compete. Sixty per cent. of the Goods we sell we buy at less than first cost of manufacture, and hence the reason we make the bold assertion that no wholesale house in Canada can touch our prices. Give us a look; we will greatly add to your personal appearance without affecting your pocket.

COLD IN HEAD CATARRH THE 4 STAGES CONSUMPTION DEATH.

There is positive danger to health and life in neglecting a case of Cold in the Head or Catarrh, and at this season with its changeable weather, unusual moisture and sudden changes from heat to cold, there is peculiar liability to cold in the head. A neglected case of Cold in the Head rapidly develops into Catarrh, and neglected Catarrh just as certainly develops into Consumption and leads to premature Death. Medical testimony proves conclusively that a large percentage of all the deaths occurring from Consumption had their origin in a neglected Cold, which, by gradual stages, developed into Catarrh, and then into Consumption, that dread disease [illegible] is yet unable to cope successfully. If you are suffering from Cold [illegible] the numerous symptoms of Catarrh, such as bad breath, dull [illegible] from the head into the throat, hawking and spitting, copious discharges from the nostrils, impaired sense of smell, or taste becoming dull, hacking cough, [illegible] general feeling of debility, husky voice, wheezing or cracking sound in your chest when breathing, a feeling of dizziness, particularly when stooping, a feeling of tiredness and indisposition to exertion, a feeling of nausea in the morning when attempting to clear the throat, some in the throat. Do not neglect them. In a few of the many symptoms of Catarrh, and if you experience any, BE WARNED IN TIME. Do not permit them to run [illegible] the mistaken impression that the disease will eventually wear away. It will not, but on the contrary will [illegible] you away at last. Do not delay [illegible] once a bottle of NASAL BALM, the only certain and speedy cure ever offered the public for Cold in the Head and Catarrh. This is no idle assertion, but an unquestionable fact, which is verified by thousands of testimonials in our possession telling of marvellous cures. These testimonials we have received from all parts of the Dominion, and we append a few, selected at random, as a fair sample of the whole:—

Mr. Alex. Burns, of Sudbury, Ont., says:—Gents, I may state that I have been afflicted with Catarrh for seven or eight years, and of late I have was attended with consequent symptoms such as foul breath, constant dropping in the throat, hawking and spitting, [illegible] ringing in the ears, and sleeplessness. I have in head directly over either [illegible] powders and douches, [illegible] only resulting from the use of such [illegible] temporary relief, followed by the usual symptoms in a more aggravating form. The results arising from the use of NASAL Balm are sweet breath, stoppage of the dropping into the throat consequent on [illegible] and quiet nights. Completeness of hearing, and not once since I began its use have I had pain in the head. [illegible] is my opinion that a general and [illegible] use of the "Balm" will effect a cure in the worst case of catarrh.

James H. McLeod, Mink River Road, N.S., says:—I have tried other remedies for Catarrh, but received little or no good from them. Your NASAL BALM [illegible] is certainly the BEST REMEDY I have tried, and all you claim for it. The fact that it is [illegible] and convenient to use adds greatly to its [illegible] but its chief worth lies in being a CERTAIN CURE for that unpleasant disease.

W. Chas. Hanley, postmaster, [illegible] says:—I submit the following to [illegible] that any who may be afflicted may [illegible] profited by the same remedy. Two bottles of your NASAL BALM has RESTORED to PERFECT HEALTH a four year old child of ours, suffering from Catarrh.

Henriette Blackwell, Parker, Ont., says:—Your NASAL BALM is the BEST REMEDY I have yet used for Catarrh. I can breathe more freely than before and my breath has regained its sweetness. I consider NASAL BALM a boon to the suffering.

A CAUTION:—Beware of imitations. If your dealer has not NASAL BALM in stock do not let him persuade you to take any other remedy which he may say is just as good, but send direct to the undersigned and it will be sent you on receipt of price—50 cents and $1.00 a bottle.

FULFORD & CO., Brockville, Ont.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

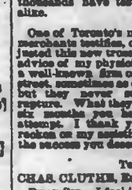
who after many years trial by the medical profession has secured their confidence and esteem, will be in your neighborhood, see below.



If your children are ruptured or Deformed, call and see him with your physician. Having spent his whole life in improving and perfecting appliances for rupture and other deformities, it is conceded by the best authorities that he is the only man in this line of business who can, after examining the patient, invent and construct a correct appliance to overcome the most difficult cases, as many thousands have testified. No two are made alike.

One of Toronto's most prominent wholesale merchants testifies, one week after I had adjusted this new truss:—"For six months, by the advice of my physician I have been attending a well-known firm of brass makers on Church street, sometimes as often as three times a day, but they never succeeded in holding the rupture. What they have been attempting for six months you have effected at the first attempt. I thank you heartily, and you may reckon on my sending you all I can to attain the success you deserve."

CHAS. CLUTHE, Esq.

DEAR SIR,—I feel it my duty to inform you that my little girl, who was afflicted with double Curvature of the Spine and whom you supplied with one of your Appliances, is restored to health again, and is now as straight and natural as could be. She not worn the Appliance constantly without discomfort or pain. I would advise and strongly recommend any person similarly afflicted to apply to you at once for relief. Our family physician, Dr. J. S. King, of Toronto, recommended me to you as being the best maker of these instruments, and I trust my that I am more than pleased with the result of your Appliance, and think it cheap at any price.

THE DIAMOND BUTTON

FROM THE DIARY OF A LAWYER AND THE NOTE BOOK OF A REPORTER.

By BARCLAY NORTH.

(Copyrighted, 1889, by C. M. Dunham. Published by special arrangement through The American Press Association.)

He made his way hurriedly to Holbrook. The lawyer was engaged with a client, and Tom paced the outer office in a fever of disappointment, thankfulness, humiliation and even anger. How could he have been such an idiot as to have supposed Fountain could have been guilty of such a crime? he asked himself, and then in the most illogical way he found himself growing angry with Fountain for going off on that yachting trip, and thus making it impossible for him to have committed the deed.

Unable to contain himself longer, he sent his card, on which was scribbled "Important. All the fat's in the fire," to Holbrook.

Holbrook came out immediately.

He looked wonderingly at Tom, who bore the visible traces of his crushing defeat.

"What's the matter, man?" asked Holbrook.

"Harry Fountain didn't commit the murder."

Holbrook could not have suppressed his surprise if he had desired, nor his evident relief at the information.

That increased Tom's bitterness.

"Why?" asked Holbrook. "Do they know who did it?"

"No."

"How do you know, then, that he didn't?"

"He was not within a hundred miles of Union square when the deed was done."

Holbrook told him to wait a moment and he would dismiss his client at once. This he did speedily, and calling Tom in made him tell all that had occurred.

There was silence at the conclusion.

After a moment Tom said:

"We are just where we were ten days ago. We've been on a false scent."

"No," said Holbrook, "not quite. There is the motive we reasoned out this morning. We must now follow up the Pierson inquiry."

"Until we get near the finish, when I suppose you'll baulk again," replied Tom bitterly.

Holbrook laughed.

"Be reasonable, Tom. You know it was a hard thing to bring Flora Ashgrove into the matter, and I am sincerely glad she is out of it."

"Unless," said Tom, "Fountain hired some one to do it."

"Oh, dismiss that idea," replied Holbrook. "Our suspicions of Fountain were caused wholly from our belief that Flora thought Fountain had himself done the deed. If her manner and words did not mean this, they meant nothing. No, the 'handsome Flora' herself has been on a wrong scent."

"But she didn't think so without there was a reason for it."

"You're right there, Tom. Now what was that reason?"

"To find that out would put us on the right track again. By Jove, Holbrook, I've an idea."

"Let us have it, then."

"See. The Ashgrove girl thinks Fountain did the murder. She hasn't told him of her belief, nor won't—you remember the conversation. Now, she still labors under that belief. You can go to her and earn her undying gratitude by disabusing her mind of that error."

"Well, what then?"

"In her joy at finding that the object of her love is not a guilty man, she will tell you her reason for supposing he was."

"You have an idea, Tom."

"Yes, and besides, she'll tell you who was the owner of the diamond button."

"Surely. But she is still in Newport."

"No," said Tom, "I saw in this morning's papers that the Witherspoons have returned to the city."

"Then I'll go to her this very day."

"Do. And while you are on that line I'll seek out Fountain, tell him my former suspicions, and ask his assistance in our effort."

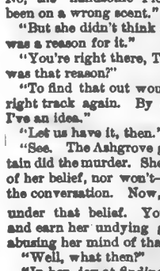
"He won't talk to you."

"Well, I can try all the same."

Having agreed to this plan, and appointed a place of meeting, they parted.

CHAPTER XXII.

ANOTHER VISIT TO THE "HANDSOME FLORA."



FROM the manner in which Flora had received him on the night he had met her at the Casino, Holbrook had no reason to suppose his visit would be met with much cordiality.

Therefore, when the servant returned after he had presented his card, with the information that the lady was not at home, he was not surprised or disconcerted.

"If that means," he said to the servant, "that Miss Ashgrove is denying herself to visitors this afternoon, please say to the lady that Mr. Holbrook calls upon business of the utmost importance and of unusual interest to her."

The servant went away a second time, leaving him seated in the reception room, and returned to say that the lady would see him in a few moments.

He did not wait long, for Flora, still in morning toilet, followed the servant closely. She was cold and haughty in the extreme, but none the less wearied and anxious.

She saluted Mr. Holbrook, and without waiting for a return, she said to the servant:

"I am not at home to any other callers, no matter who they may be."

She closed the door after her, and sat down in such a position that the light was upon Holbrook's face, while her own was in the shadow. She waited for Holbrook to speak, turning upon him with a polite look of inquiry.

Her manner conveyed that the call was to be regarded as one purely of business.

Holbrook felt it, and was stung by her manner. Upon her part she felt that the blow she dreaded so much was about to fall.

Holbrook accepted the situation, feeling that in the end he must win.

"I beg you will excuse my urgency," he began, "but necessity knows no law of etiquette or custom. The last time I had the honor of calling upon you, the conversation was wholly, if my memory serves me, upon the then recent murder of Mr. Templeton. I desire to renew it."

Flora visibly paled under this exordium. She replied:

"The subject is not an agreeable one, but I suppose you have a purpose in renewing it."

"I have, and also a confession to make."

"A confession!" she repeated in surprise."

"Yes, a confession. From your manner and from your words at that time, and subsequently from your manner at the Casino, where I met you some days afterwards, I arrived at the conclusion that you suspected Mr. Fountain of having committed the murder."

"The dreaded blow has fallen," she thought, as she gasped out, her face ghastly white, "but you did not know him; he told me so."

"I learned who he was that night at the Casino," he replied calmly.

"I feared so," she said, with a low moan. "And yet he went to you the next morning. Fool, fool, fool, that he was!"

"That conclusion," continued Holbrook, conscious he was torturing her as a cat does a mouse, "was strengthened by the report of an interview between yourself and Mr. Fountain on the veranda of your uncle's house at Newport."

She sprang to her feet, nerved by the strong tide of anger and contempt that swept over her.

"And were you low enough, base enough, to spy upon us, or to place a spy upon us?"

Holbrook was struck with her great beauty as she stood before him, burning with scorn, and he admired her.

"No, Miss Ashgrove," he replied, quietly, "you wrong me. You are mistaken in both conjectures. I neither spied on you nor placed one on you. The report came to me in my professional capacity, after it was all over, and without my knowledge that Mr. Fountain was being followed and watched. This, I say, confirmed the suspicions and strengthened my conclusions, but I desire to say to you now that both of us have been wrong. I hasten to inform you that Mr. Fountain did not commit the deed."

"Did not!" The revulsion of feeling was too great. She sank back in her chair, and for a moment Holbrook thought she would swoon.

He started up hastily to go to her assistance, but she waved him back, and after a supreme effort regained control of herself.

"How—he is innocent?"

"Yes, innocent. He was not within a hundred miles of Union square when the deed was done."

"And why do you come to me with all this?"

Having repossessed herself, she took refuge in haughtiness, while her manner was an assumption of extreme indifference.

The Canada Life
Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder:"

When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5,040,188, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calendar year, the result of which would be to reduce the ensuing one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would curtail it considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $840,188 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525,000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300,000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management. dw

Rough on Druggists.

One Clinkinbroomer, representative of the School of Pharmacy, has been making it hot for some Napanee druggists. This informer induced the boys left in charge of two stores to sell him a box of rough on rats. The next day an information was laid before the police magistrate and the proprietors fined $20 and costs for neglecting to record the sale of the rat poison Until a few weeks ago this article was not regarded as falling under the head of poisons requiring registeration, and in no town in Ontario was it treated as such. It has been rumored that the informer is to be presented with a parcel of ripe eggs.

Resolution of Sympathy.

At a special meeting of the congregation of St. John's church, held Wednesday evening, 22nd January, 1890 in the vestry, the following resolution was adopted:—Moved by Mr. Pearce and seconded by Mr. Pope, and resolved that the rector and congregation of St. John's wish to express to the widow and children of the late lamented rector of this parish, the Rev. John Walton Ronayne Beck, M. A., Canon of St. Albans, and Rural Dean of Northumberland, their sense of the great loss sustained in his death by his parish and by the church in Ontario, and further, to express their very deep sympathy with the family of the late rector in their sad bereavement.

A Priests Testimony.

In the course of an address to the Young Mens Society, (Montreal) Rev. Father Morrell, said:—"Catholics can learn many lessons from Protestants in their manner of church work, and especially in their organizations for temperance work and young men's work. If there is on this continent of America, exclaimed the speaker, an organization that is powerful in many ways, it is the Young Men's Christian Association. He instanced the work of that institution in Boston, where thousands were made welcome every year in the magnificent brown stone building overtopped by a cross, where visiting young men were made welcome, were taught and kept from evil. "That is Christianity,' he said.

The Late Mrs. Richardson.

Mrs. Eliza Williamson, relict of the late Edward Richardson, of Cavan, died at her residence, 500 George street, on Saturday, Feb. 1st, at the age of 77 years. The deceased lady was one of the pioneer settlers of Cavan, having lived near Millbrook nearly 70 years. She came with her parents from Ireland at an early age. Five years ago she removed to Peterborough. Her husband died about twenty years since. She leaves behind her a brother, Mr. James Williamson of Cavan. Her last illness was of about two week's duration. The cause of death was congestion of the lungs, following upon an attack of influenza. The funeral takes place on Monday next, February 3rd, at 10 a.m.

The Fire Alarm System.

The Fire, Water and Light Committee met last night and decided to recommend the acceptance of the Bell Telephone Company's offer to provide the town with a magneto-electric fire alarm system for $200 a year. This system will be an excellent one. There will be alarms in the fire hall and in each of the firemen's houses. All alarms come to the Central Telephone office, where there will be some one in constant attendance to receive. An alarm of fire may be sent from any of the ward boxes or from any of the 273 telephones in town. From the Central office the alarm is communicated to the fire hall and the firemen's houses. This system if accepted should give every satisfaction.

The Scarin' Game.

A couple of rinks of the Brockville Curling Club will pay a visit to Peterborough next Thursday and meet rinks of the Lindsay and Peterborough clubs.

The Lindsay Post says:—It is to be hoped that the Peterborough juniors have not eschewed the "roarin' game," and retired into strict seclusion for the balance of the season. Such a course would be cruelly hard upon their Lindsay brethren, who are aching for keen ice and a crack at their old-time opponents.

Lindsay will send a rink to Winnipeg next Thursday to enter the great bonspiel to be held there Feb. 11, 12 and 13. The rink will be composed as follows:—W. H Simpson, lead; E. Bradburn, 2nd vice; Wm. McLennon, 1st vice; J. D. Flavelle, skip. Mr. W. Dundas, of Peterborough, will accompany them to play first stone in some of the matches.

Young Men's Christian Association.

Annual Meeting—Reports of Secretary and Treasurer—Election of Officers and Other Business.

The annual meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association was held at their rooms Friday night. There was a fair attendance of members. Mr. G. M. Roger, President, occupied the chair and made a few introductory remarks.

An invitation was received for all members of the Association who could to attend the Provincial Convention at Brantford, Feb. 6th to 10th.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The annual report of General Secretary from May, 1889, to January, 1890, was read:—

We desire to praise Almighty God for His sustaining grace since coming to take the responsible position of General Secretary, for the uniform kindness shown by the citizens, and to the members for their hearty co-operation in the great work God has called us to. We congratulate the Association that they are getting a place in the hearts and homes of our people, and if we are true to God He will supply us the power to do the work. "Them that honour me, I will honour," says the Lord.

During the past seven months the average attendance at the reading room has been 40, and now that the winter months have set in and many are out of employment, it is a delightful sight to see our young men filling the room, taking advantage of the excellent reading matter provided, which comprises all the leading English and American periodicals, as well as all of our local newspapers, which are absolutely free to all young men, regardless to creed or station. We are thankful they are appreciating these privileges and as one remarked the past week, "I do not know what we young men would do without the Y.M.C.A." I tremble when I think, for it is the only place in our town that is open to them, where they can feel at home and be safe and free from all that is debasing and sapping the manhood of the youth. Let the fathers and mothers and business men stop and calculate, if they can, what it would mean to them and their boys if there was no such a place of refuge. If our business men would be wise and protect their homes and tills, they would support the work nobly, and not grudgingly. They will find it the best investment they can make.

Our members' parlor which has been so handsomely furnished by our Ladies' Auxiliary, is a cosy place to spend an hour or two playing a game of chess, checkers or crokinole, etc., or to meet friends and have a jolly time singing college songs, or to have a quiet read of the few excellent books which form the nucleus of our coming library.

Our membership is now 226, composed of 149 active and 30 associate members; 59 have joined the Association since your secretary has come among you. Perhaps one of the most valuable features in connection with our work is the bond of union that exists between the various Associations throughout the world, and nowhere is this more apparent than in the letters of introduction which we furnish young men as they go forth to the various cities in almost every country in the world. Young men move about from place to place, and it is of special value to them to be furnished with letters of introduction, that will secure for them a warm welcome and a suitable boarding house, as they come strangers to a strange land. We have furnished thirty such letters of introduction to young men as they have gone to different places in Canada, Great Britain and the United States; and we have received several such letters of introduction.

We are deeply grateful for the quiet work of grace which has been going on since coming here. The good work began by Messrs. Hunter and Crossley, under the power of the Holy Spirit, and carried on with so much blessing to all by Miss Gordon and Mr. Burson, has been felt in all our work. Many have been led to accept Christ as their precious Saviour, and twelve have been introduced to pastors with view to church membership.

All our devotional meetings have been seasons of refreshing, the interest being on the increase. At our young men's meeting, held Saturday evenings, the average attendance has been 25; consecration meetings, Sabbath morning, 5; personal purity meetings, Sabbath afternoon, 25; Gospel and song service, Sabbath evening, 35; Bible class, Tuesday evening, 12. During the week of prayer, Nov. 10th to 17th, two meetings were held each day—afternoon for ladies, average attendance, 35; evening, for men only, 30. The mass meeting in the opera house Sabbath afternoon, Nov. 10th, brought an attendance of 400, and a collection was taken for provincial work of $6 50. A special personal purity meeting was held in the George Street Church, addressed by Mrs. Bradley, when a special collection was taken for the W.C.T.U. We also close our rooms, as far as practicable, each evening at 9.45, with family worship, every person in the rooms being invited to attend. They have been times of blessing, and the seeds thus sown have, no doubt, taken root and borne fruit. The attendance has been from 26 to 25, and we have received many heartfelt thanks for blessing received.

We have held five receptions with an average attendance of 125, our Ladies' Auxiliary giving us valuable aid in providing refreshments for same. Our New Years reception was a grand success in every particular, barring the weather, over 200 young men attending. Our reception to the ladies on January 3rd was greatly appreciated by our lady friends.

Our Star Course of entertainments has been, notwithstanding the many annoyances and disappointments, which were no fault of ours, well attended; and as far as the have gone have given entire satisfaction. We hope to show a balance at the close of the season on the right side. The great expense to bring real first class talent is very gratifying to our patrons but not much money for us. Our committees have done the work assigned to them fairly well, but we look for better and more consecrated service during this year. We hope all our members will fully realise this is the Lord's work. We have much to encourage us in this labor of love for young men; there are several very encouraging cases which, if time would permit, we could relate. Still we do feel we have left much undone which we might have done. We ask the Lord to forgive our sins of omission, and by His grace we shall this year spend and be spent for Him who gave His life for us.

Our Finances have been a source of much anxious thought and painstaking service. And the time has now come when we all must put our shoulders to the wheel and push our best to get the Y.M.C.A. chariot out of the Slough of Despond. We regret very much that there seems to be always so much difficulty on this line. Now our God has promised to supply all our need according to his riches, in glory by Christ Jesus. We believe the only proper way to give is systematic giving, and a plan has been prepared after much prayer which will be submitted to you to-night. We trust you will see the feasibility of it and put it into practice this coming year. I am safe in saying if you do so we shall not be making spasmodic efforts to raise the Lord's money to carry on his work. Let there be unity of purpose and with God's help, which He has promised, and a strong steady pull, we shall not be compelled to made frantic and pathetic appeals for funds for this most important work.

We desire to thank sincerely and heartily the Ladies' Auxiliary for their untiring efforts to make us comfortable and happy in our home; the press for their uniform kindness ever shown us, their willingness on all occasions to say a good word for us; also the pastors for their helpful advice and sympathy, at every opportunity, showing their willingness to help in the work among their people; and to our Board and their honored leader for great blessings they are to our association.

We are believing that the Lord has laid it on our hearts to expect someone to whom He has given much of this world's good, will give us this year a site for a home for our young men, when we shall be able to supply the four fold nature of mankind, the proper requisites for developing every one into a perfect man. Whoever this honor is for, he shall have his name handed down to posterity as one who has been blessed and been a blessing all over the world. And now let us to work. Time is short, men are perishing for the bread of life. Each one in his place, to his work for Christ and his fellowmen, and this will indeed be the best and happiest year we ever had, of service for our dear Lord, at whose feet we shall learn wisdom for the great work committed to us.

THE FINANCES.

Mr. J. W. Bennett presented the Treasurer's statement, which showed a deficit. A discussion took place as to ways and means of reducing this debt, and it was resolved that efforts should be made forthwith, now that that the members were aware of the financial position of the Association, towards wiping out the deficit.

Mr. Colville and Mr. J. Carlile spoke in reference to the finances, and suggested a plan which had been talked of for some systematic way of giving. It was proposed to get as many young men as possible to give 10c. or 25c. a week, which with the subscriptions and funds received from the other sources would place the Association on a sound financial basis. It is probable another meeting will soon be held for the further consideration of matters of finance.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

A nominating committee was appointed to make out a list of officers for the year. They reported recommending as follows:—

PRESIDENT—H. S. Griffin.
VICE-PRESIDENTS—J. W. Bennett and Dr. Scott.
TREASURER—G. A. Schofield.
EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE—Messrs. G. M. Roger, W. W. Johnston, A. J. Johnston, V. Best, G. J. Early, Jno. Miller, Geo. S. Rean, Jas. Carlisle, Thos. Tobb, Thos. McFadden, Jame Richardson, O. C. Rowes, Arthur Tobb, Wm. Hart, Fred Saunders, A. Chase, J. C. Turnbull, W. Anderson, R. J. Kidd, A. D. Reesor and Melville Stevens.

Several members spoke against a change in the office of President, but Mr. Roger explained that it had been deemed advisable to make a complete change all round. For himself he wished to be relieved from duty this year; he would, however, always retain his active interest in the Association.

Mr. Colville stated that there was a tacit understanding a year ago between Mr. Roger and Mr. Griffin in this respect, and if Mr. Griffin was tendered the Presidency they would be simply enlisting the services of a new man while not parting with the old one.

The report was then adopted, and after some announcements had been made the meeting adjourned.

IS IT FREE FROM AMMONIA?

As is well known, ammonia is unhealthful in food, and dries up the bread material.

Protection to consumers of food compounds lies in their ability to choose those made from healthful substances. Unless manufacturers publish just what their baking powder is made of, do not use their goods, but buy instead

"La Grippe" or Lightning Catarrh.

MR. EDITOR.—"La Grippe," or Russian influenza, as it is termed, is in reality an epidemic catarrh, and is called by some physicians "lightning catarrh," from the rapidity with which it sweeps over the country. Allow us to draw the attention of your readers to the fact that Nasal Balm, as well as being a thorough cure for all cases of the ordinary cold in the head and catarrh, will give prompt relief in even the most severe cases of "La Grippe," or Russian influenza, as it will effectually clear the nasal passages, allay irritation and relieve the dull, oppressive headache accompanying the disease. No family should be without a bottle of Nasal Balm in the house, as cold in the head and catarrh are peculiarly liable to attack people at this season of the year, and Nasal Balm is the only prompt and speedy cure for these troubles ever offered the public. Easy to use and agreeable. If you cannot get it at your dealers, it will be sent, post free, on receipt of price (50 cents and $1 per bottle) by addressing FULFORD & Co., Brockville, Ont. ww

The Registrar Dead.

BOWMANVILLE, Jan. 31.—Robert Armour, barrister, registrar of West Durham, died here, yesterday after an illness of four months. He was born at Doune, Perthshire, Scotland, in 1818, and was the third and eldest surviving son of Rev. Samuel Armour and Margaret Douglas. Chief Justice Armour is his youngest brother. He was admitted as an attorney in 1840, called to the bar in 1847 and appointed registrar of West Durham in 1859, which office he filled at the time of his death. In the rebellion of 1837 he served as a volunteer and was one of the party which cut away the steamer Caroline from the American side of the Niagara river during the disturbance. He was at one time a commissioner of the Provincial Lunatic Asylum at Toronto. In 1843 he married Marianne Barton, daughter of the late Rev. Edmund Barton, some time rector of Kildare, Lower Canada, and perpetual curate of Dysart Face, in Ireland, and a cousin of Sir Richard Barton, the celebrated African explorer, and of Lady Stisted, whose husband, Gen. Stisted, was Provisional Lieutenant Governor of Ontario after confederation. He leaves a widow and six children, Mr. E. D. Armour, Q. C., of Toronto, being his eldest son.

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Mungo," and "Madre E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most skeptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate. mws

BISMARCK AND WILLIAM.

CHANCELLOR AND KAISER NOT ON GOOD TERMS.

The Man of Blood and Iron Maintains a Sulky Silence While the Emperor Diverts the Campaign — The Proposed France-German Alliance.

BERLIN, Feb. 1.—Daily incidents strengthen the impression that there is a serious divergence of views between Prince Bismarck and the Emperor, or those having the immediate confidence of the Emperor, upon the proper course of the Government in some important internal concerns. The Prince's objection to the tone of the Speech from the Throne has been commented upon for some days. The fact that the objectionable part was the reference to labor troubles and that Von Berlepsch has been appointed to a place in the ministry, giving him control of those things practically in place of Bismarck, seems to imply that the Emperor intends that those things shall be in the hands of one in sympathy with the ideas set forth in the speech.

Within these few days the Emperor has received successively all the leaders of the different groups included in the Cartel coalition, and he is in conference every day with some prominent member of the Government groups, having a free interchange of views and communicating his own ideas on the proper management of the elections. There is a great contrast between his demeanor and that of Bismarck, who, though he has accorded interviews to various leaders, has maintained a singular reticence as to the policy to be pursued in the elections. His silence embarrasses the Government candidates as to the ground they shall take. He has been asked to make a speech before the Lower House of the Diet expressing the Government's policy, but he has declined to do so.

Prince Bismarck's letter to the German ambassador to the Vatican is published obviously to influence the opinions of Catholic voters. It declares the Government sees with pleasure the establishment of Catholic missions in German colonies, promises that all religious orders shall be admitted, including the Jesuits, and that all may rest assured of the protection of Germany. Cardinal Rampolla has responded expressing the extreme satisfaction of the Pope at this step and making his congratulations upon this further advance towards complete concord.

The new Reichstag is convoked for the middle of March. It is likely to present a formidable phalanx of Socialists who, combining with the Centre party and German Liberals, will easily outvote the Government group.

The Foreign Office regards the agreement between the Germans and Czechs in Bohemia as a triumph for the diplomacy of Bismarck and the personal influence of Emperor William. Incessant efforts have been made by Bismarck through the German ambassador at Vienna to induce Emperor Francis Joseph to adopt a policy that should tend to recover for the Germans the greater share in the government of the Austrian empire. The semi-official declaration in the facts put forth from Vienna admits that the foreign policy of the empire weighed with the Emperor as a main consideration in the case, that it was necessary to end race quarrels to enable Austria to stand on an equality with her allies in the triple alliance and be respected by Russia as a soundly constituted great power. In consequence of the German triumph in Bohemia a meeting of the Emperors is projected at Breslau.

Colonel Stoffel's pamphlet on a Franco-German alliance excites the greatest interest. The Kolnische Zeitung says the idea that Germany would buy peace from France by a cession of Alsace and Lorraine is the merest chimera, that no generation of Germany will ever dare cede an inch of German soil soaked with the blood of its fathers. The only value Stoffel's argument has is the fact that now, while his countrymen in France are wild with Russomania, he warns them against the danger of Slavdom and the influence of a vast barbaric state in the councils of Europe.

The Bolsen Courier and The National Zeitung believe that Stoffel's warning to France against an alliance with Csardom will fall on deaf ears now as did his warning in 1870 against the precipitation of France unprepared into a great war.

THE FRENCH WAY.

Much Speedier and Quite as Effective as a Libel Suit.

PARIS, Feb. 2.—The Marquis de Mores, well known in America in connection with a gigantic but unsuccessful dressed beef enterprise, feeling insulted by certain articles in La Nation, sent his friends MM. Feuillant and Dion to M. Dreyfus, the editor of that journal, to demand satisfaction. The gentlemen were referred by M. Dreyfus to MM. Loukroy and Pichon. Arrangements were made for a hostile meeting. The weapons chosen were pistols and it was agreed that six shots should be exchanged and if neither party was touched the seconds should decide whether the duel should proceed. The distance was to be twenty metres.

The fight took place at 1¼ this morning on the Belgian frontier near Commines. The Marquis was cool and calm, the editor was somewhat nervous but showed no signs of fear. At the first fire M. Dreyfus was struck in the right arm, the ball burying itself in the biceps but not breaking the bone. The bullet was immediately extracted by the surgeon, and although there was considerable effusion of blood the wounded man finding his right arm was not disabled demanded that the fight should be continued. While the seconds were consulting M. Dreyfus fainted from loss of blood, whereupon the physicians of both parties declared the gravity of the wound rendered him hors de combat. This put an end to the contest.

A DESPERADO KILLED.

The Notorious Sim Lowry Shot by His Father's Slayer.

CHARLESTOWN, S.C., Jan. 31.—Sim Lowry, son of the notorious Steve Lowry, of the famous Lowry gang of outlaws, who several years ago instituted a reign of terror in Marlboro County, S.C., and Robinson County, N.C., killing no less than a dozen United States marshals and deputies, was shot and killed last Saturday night at Maxton by J. D. McQueen. McQueen had killed Steve Lowry, the father, and the son swore he would kill McQueen when he became of age. Saturday he filled up with fighting whisky at Maxton and began a row with McQueen with the above result.

The Pelican Club at its meeting last night requested Abington to resign because of his conduct in connection with the Smith-Slavin fight.

DEATH IN THE FLAMES.

TERRIBLE SCENES AT A BOSTON BOARDING HOUSE FIRE.

The Inmates Shut Off from Escape by the Rapid Spread of the Conflagration—Some of the Victims Roasted and Others Killed by Jumping.

BOSTON, Feb. 2.—A terrible fire occurred on North-street early this morning resulting in the death of at least six persons. The fire originated mysteriously in the clothing store, No. 235 North-street, kept by a Jew, whose name is unknown. The flames quickly communicated to the floors above, which were occupied as an Italian boarding house, and contained a large number of lodgers. So quickly was the place wrapped in flames that retreat for many of them was impossible and they were roasted to death. Others attempted to escape by jumping from windows and thereby received serious injuries. Five are already dead, and one other was said to be dying when removed to the hospital. The damage to the building will not be large. Only one of the five victims has been identified, this being a woman, Mrs. Della Scanlon, about 46 years old. The other dead are three men and one child.

Besides these five there were seven others removed to the Police Station, where they received medical attendance and were taken to the hospital. Their names are given as follows: Mrs. Hannah Gilmartino, very badly burned about the body; Guiseppe Cerollo, 3 years old, severe burns about the legs, chest and side; Lodovico Mulani, broken ribs, caused by jumping from a third-story window; Peter Lombardizo, shoulder broken by jumping from window; Francesca Letiere, slight injuries about the head and body; Bernard Gilmartino, husband of Hannah, injured about the legs and body; an unknown man, terribly burned, said to be dying. With the exception of the children noted above the other sufferers are between 20 and 40 years of age. The building is a four-story brick structure and the three upper stories were filled with lodgers and boarders, there being in some families six and eight persons.

The complete list of killed is: Madalina Clarolone, 51 years old; Filamond Clarolone, Giovanni Clarolone and a boy, son of Filamond Pasqualina Clarolone, Felice Conte, Martine Marchione, Rosa Marchione, Emila Marchione, infant daughter of Marchione, Raffaeli Petrilizal, Tomaso Petrilizal, Bella Scanlan.

It is now believed that the fire resulted from a kerosene lamp thrown in a drunken row. Albert Smith, who lives in the rear of the burned building, says that just before midnight he heard a row in the back room of the burned house. Smith looked out and saw three men quarreling; one man threw a lighted lamp at another and the flames followed. Smith made haste to escape with his family and saw no more.

Losses Caused by Flames.

BOSTON, Feb. 2.—Sear's block in Boston was burned to-day. Loss over $300,000.

Hull's block in Danbury, Conn., is reported burned. Loss $350,000.

MANGLED MINERS.

Fatal Explosion in a Shaft at Wilkesbarre, Pa.---Colliers Entombed.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 1.—A fall of rock took place in the Nottingham shaft of the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Co. in No. 5 plane this morning which drove the accumulated gas into the gangways were 10 men were at work with naked lamps. An explosion soon followed. Peter Heim was cut upon the head and his hands and face were badly burned. John Crossin with his mule was buried beneath the falling rock. His body has not been recovered. William Roberts, a driver boy, is also missing. John S. Humphries, a miner, died while being removed from the mine. His body was burned to a crisp. Joseph Dunson, fire boss, was badly burned. His injuries are said to be fatal. Joseph Jones was fatally burned. John P. Tomas was burned on the face and hands. David Fox is seriously burned and his recovery is doubtful. Thomas Lake was slightly cut on the head.

Five men are imprisoned in the mine and there is little hope of their being taken out alive. When the fall of rock took place John Dunston, the fire boss, was on his way from the fifth to the sixth lift carrying his naked lamp. This, it is said, fired a body of gas which exploded with great force, shattering the gangways and breaking the timbers, and causing large quantities of roof rock and coal to fall. The debris closed the outlet for the miners who were in the interior of the mines making repairs, entombing John Crossin, David J. Williams, John Davis, Edward Morris, and an unknown man. It not known when those outside will be able to reach these men. It is firmly believed they are all dead.

The Nottingham shaft, which was the greatest anthracite coal mine in the world, is nearly a total wreck. It had at one time an output of 3000 tons a day, and netted the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Company $500,000 profit last year.

LOST AT SEA.

Three Men Swept Overboard from the Steamer Jersey City.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—The steamer Jersey City, from Bristol Jan. 6, which arrived here to-day had heavy gales from the west during the entire passage. On Jan. 19 she encountered a terrific hurricane which lasted 34 hours, losing two boats from the davits, starting the funnel, smashing ventilators, washing battings and tarpaulins from No. 4 hatchway and flooding the hold. During the hurricane the vessel was going with all possible speed and would not steer. Seas broke over the ship continually. On the 18th a heavy sea struck the ship on the starboard side. The watch were then reefing the maintrysail and endeavoring to keep the ship's head to the sea. Boatswain Albert Davis of Bristol, Alfred Tuplin, carpenter, and Gustay Weber, seamen, were washed overboard and drowned. William Stanbury had a leg broken and E. Stohberg was injured in both legs and in the head.

HALIFAX, Feb. 1.—The steamer Colina arrived here to-day from Glasgow. She had a very rough passage of 14½ days. The vessel was damaged by tremendous seas and her cabin was flooded several times. One day the steamer was stuck fast for 8½ hours in a vast field of ice, studded with about 200 icebergs, some of them being of immense proportions.

Lincoln Conservatives' Choice.

ST. CATHARINES, Feb. 1.—At a meeting of the Liberal Conservative Association of the County of Lincoln, held in Victoria Chambers here this afternoon, Eugene F. Dwyer, reeve of Port Dalhousie, was nominated to represent that party in the next election for member of the Ontario Assembly by a vote of 120 to 116 over A. H. Pettit of North Grimsby.

O'REILLY'S BOOKS.

The Land League Treasurer's Accounts Reported Correct.

DETROIT, Feb. 1.—The auditing committee of the Irish National League has completed its examination of the accounts of Dr. Charles O'Reilly, treasurer of the league. The committee found that the books were kept in a model manner in all respects. It reports as follows:

Balance on hand at the last national convention in August, 1888	$ 21,985 78
Receipts since that date	851,982 79
		$873,968 57
Expenditures of all kinds	$ 23,235 57
Remitted to Ireland	267,269 08

HORRIBLE !

A Kansas City Infant Fatally Mutilated by Rats.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 1.—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Reeves, living in a basement here, died to-day from wounds inflicted by rats last night. Mrs. Reeves was awakened by the infant's cries. The child's nose was bitten off, and horrible wounds appeared on both cheek bones; the scalp was torn away from the top of the head down to the ears, and the skull was gnawed in one place so that the brains were exposed.

GOOD BUT GREEN.

The New Orleans Pug Badly Pounded by Kilrain.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 2.—For a purse of $2000 Jake Kilrain and Felix Vacquelin, the latter a local heavy weight, had a contest to-night with soft gloves. They were called 4-ounce gloves, but looked a little less than 2. The crowd showed enthusiasm when Vacquelin shook hands with Kilrain. At 3.49 the referee called time and the fight commenced. Kilrain made the fight scientifically and showed all the generalship for which he is noted.

In the first round he tried to draw Vacquelin on, but the latter was wary and never once assumed the offensive.

In the second round Kilrain squeezed the savageness out of Vacquelin in a clinch, so that when he let him go Vacquelin dropped to one knee. When Kilrain found his rival weakening he rushed the fighting. When the round ended Vacquelin's jaw was swelling up and his ribs were rosy.

In the third round Vacquelin was confident and swung out his right, but relapsed to the defensive when he failed to reach. Meantime Kilrain kept pounding Vacquelin's sore jaw and when the round ended Vacquelin was nearly ready to fall when his seconds pulled him away.

Cleary urged Vacquelin to continue the fight, but the big fellow's sore leg had swollen from the exercise and he said he would not go on. He was far from being knocked out, although his lip was cut and his jaw and sides were very sore. He said he had no business to fight at all, but would not back out. Under the circumstances Cleary threw up the sponge and Kilrain was declared the victor. Kilrain said his opponent was a good man, but green. Mike Donovan remarked that Kilrain was the best man in the world but he was sick at Richburg.

THE HALDIMAND WRIT.

Nominations Fixed for Feb. 13, Polling a Week Later.

OTTAWA, Feb. 2.—Haldimand's next polling day is fixed for Feb. 20, nominations being on Feb. 13. The writ has been issued directed to Mr. Reighhardt, returning officer. The organizers of both parties have been in Ottawa the greater part of the time since Mr. Colter was unseated and are no doubt well primed for the contest.

The last created vacancy in the Senate caused by the death of Senator Rodier has been filled by the appointment of Hon. Mr. Mason, who sat for the division until appointed Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec.

Concerting the Turner vacancy and the confirmation of the hint given some time ago that the new senator would come from this side of Toronto, the name of Peter MacLaren, Perth's millionaire alderman, is prominently mentioned.

Dr. Landerkin says his tariff resolutions are serious business and he is going to continue the crusade he commenced last session until the drawback system or he himself disappears. He says there are some 40 different drawbacks. The resolutions of which he has given notice refer to only five but he will attend to others in their turn.

MONTREAL CIVIC ELECTIONS.

Little Interest Excited---Few Changes in the Council.

MONTREAL, Feb. 1.—The civic elections were held to-day and excited only the mildest interest. The following is the result: Mayor, Jacques Grenier (re-elected); Centre ward, Ald. Farrel; St. Mary's ward, Ald. Jeannotte; St. Louis, Ald. Boisseau; St. Ann's ward, Ald. Malone; St. James ward, Mr. Lamarche; Hochelaga, Mr. Gauthier; St. Gabriel's, Ald. Tansey. In all the other wards election was by acclamation and in every one the former aldermen were elected except in St. Antoine, where Mr. Shorey replaced Ald. Archibald. From this it will be seen that the composition of the new council will be the same as of the old except for Mr. Lamarche, Mr. Gauthier and Mr. Shorey.

AMONG THE RAILWAYS.

The C., B. & N. Reduces Freight Rates—Boston and Nebraska Tariff.

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—The Chicago, Burlington & Northern Railroad has cut freight rates between Chicago and St. Paul from the present rate of 60 cents to the old rate of 40 cents a hundred first-class. This is due to reductions by other lines.

CHICAGO, Feb. 2.—Chairman Walker of the Interstate Commerce Railway Association has authorised the Omaha road in connection with the "Soo" line and Canadian Pacific to make as low rates from Boston to Nebraska points by way of St. Paul as any made by way of Chicago. The decision is due to the fact that an outside line will soon compete with the lines in the association.

THE CHAMPION SKATER.

Hugh McCormick of New Brunswick Takes Away Paulsen's Title.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Feb. 2.—Hugh McCormick of New Brunswick defeated Alex Paulsen in the 10-mile race this afternoon and takes the title of champion skater of the world, which Paulsen had held for eight years. The weather was mild and the track bad. A fair start was made at 3.35 o'clock. McCormick made his first 5 miles in 27 mins. and his last in 19¼. He had gained half a lap during the first four and then the two skaters kept along easy and close together till the 20th lap when McCormick increased his lead and completed his 32nd and final lap ½ of a mile ahead of Paulsen. Time 46¼ mins. Three hundred dollars was up as a purse. The leading Scandinavians backed Paulsen heavily. Five thousand people were present, fully 1000 coming from St. Paul, Minneapolis and other cities.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Emma Taylor Gets a $1200 Verdict—Senator Macdonald's Illness.

TORONTO, Feb. 3.—The Taylor-Johnston seduction case was concluded Saturday night, the jury bringing in a $1200 verdict for the plaintiff.

Lilly White, who was reported missing in Saturday's dispatch, has turned up at Whitby.

Murderer Thomas Kane, in jail under sentence of death, has a bad case of la grippe. His counsel goes to Ottawa to-day to see what can be done to secure a commutation or arrest of sentence.

Senator Macdonald's condition continues critical.

President Classen and Broker Pell Unable to Procure Bail.

NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—President Classen of the Sixth National Bank failed to procure bail to-day and was obliged to go to Ludlow Jail until Monday. Broker Pell's wife and sister offered to go on Pell's bond, but the wife's property did not seem adequate, and as the sister's property is in New Jersey and therefore not acceptable in a New York court, Mr. Pell was returned to jail. Mr. Leland has advanced $500,000 to guarantee payment of the Sixth National depositors in full.

One of the bank wreckers is charged with squandering thousands of dollars upon an American burlesque actress now in London. It is alleged that the real leader of the syndicate which got possession of the Sixth National was James A. Simmons, the contractor, who had many large financial and contracting schemes on hand. Simmons took 785 of the 1035 shares sold by Leland. His whereabouts are unknown. Wallack, Pell's partner, and president of the Lennox Hill Bank, and Kilduff, another partner, are also said to be missing.

The assets of the Equitable (face value) are $160,503. There are said to be 300 shares of Sixth National Bank stock hypothecated with another bank, the par value of which is $30,000; market value not yet determined. This will make the total $190,503. The liabilities are: Capital, $100,000; certified checks, $4435; due depositors, $31,118; due banks (10 not proved), $198,503. This shows a deficiency of $143,553. There is also evidence of an actual liability which does not appear on the books of the bank of $150,000 certification.

The total liabilities of the Lennox Hill Bank are $946,492.55; the total assets $370,675.94, leaving a deficiency of $575,616.61. The liabilities include the capital stock of $100,000.

LATE LONDON TOPICS.

THE DUKE OF FIFE ENTERS THE FIELD OF POLITICS.

It is Thought Likely That His Grace is to be the Next Governor-General of Canada—Parnell's Clarion Call to the Irish Party.

LONDON, Feb. 2.—It is noted as a sign of the times that the Duke of Fife, who recently married the Princess Louise of Wales, has entered the field of politics. The Duke, however, is not to be restrained by royal conventionalities. He is too ambitious for that. He regularly attends political meetings and is sedulously coaching himself for a public career. The only explanation the political world can give of his erratic proceedings is that he aims at vice-royalty, and it is hinted that he may follow the precedent of the Marquis of Lorne and succeed Lord Stanley of Preston as Governor-General of Canada.

Mr. Parnell although invisible is not inactive. His address to the Irish party sounds like a clarion call. He has weighty work on hand. It is believed that as this session the question of Home Rule for Ireland is to be settled. Mr. Parnell acts as if he wished to have every member of the party think so. His influence is felt in every direction. He will leave no stone unturned to further the cause. He intends to produce the whole mass of Piggott's letters, forgeries and all.

Mr. Davitt, speaking of the forthcoming documents and testimony, says the revelations they will make will be startling even to a world jaded with the proceedings of the special commission. Mr. Parnell no longer seeks his own vindication from the accusations of The Times. In the interest of the cause he supports he proposes to disclose and denounce to the world the nefarious conspiracy which was formed against its leaders in order to kill it, and complete the investigation, which the special commission refused to allow him to do and which it left undone.

DILKE'S NEW BOOK.

Unprotected Coasts and Imperial Federation Discussed.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—Sir Charles Dilke's new book, "The Problems of the Greater Britain," is well received and promises an immense sale. The writer deals chiefly with the questions of the resources and defences of Great Britain and embodies in his work much of the condemnatory matter which formed the basis of the articles he published some time ago calling attention to the defenceless state of England's coast. He insists that imperial defensive measures after the plan of those adopted by Germany are absolutely essential and also earnestly recommends that England follow the German system of federation as speedily as possible.

Imperial federation, he asserts, is bound to come sooner or later, and the sooner the better. It must not, however, be forced upon Canada and Australia, which are the best and most reliable political labor guides that England has, and whose solution of the great problem of the exact relations of capital to labor and vice versa must ultimately be accepted by the home country. Altogether the book, which is issued in two volumes, is a stronger presentment of the problems to be confronted and cogent suggestions for dealing with them than has yet been set forth by any recognised authority upon the matters treated of, and it is safe to predict that it will be heeded.

Salisbury Breaking Down.

LONDON, Feb. 1. — Lord Salisbury has yielded to the political pressure brought upon him and has abandoned his proposed trip to the Continent, for the present at least. His health is very poor and it is believed that at the Cabinet council which is to be held within a few days he will pave the way for his early resignation from the Foreign Office, the recent exactions of which have told heavily upon his physical and vital resources. Speculation is rife as to the Cabinet changes which will result from his withdrawal from the Foreign Department, but nothing worthy of serious acceptance is evolved from the labors of the self-constituted slate-makers, whose vaticinations are as varied as they are absurd.

Hartington Going to Egypt.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—The Marquis of Hartington will take his departure for Egypt on Friday, to be absent indefinitely. He has rallied somewhat from the shattered state in which his recent illness left him, but is still greatly in need of the change he seeks. He has deputized Sir Henry James to act as the Parliamentary leader of the Unionists in his absence, and instructed him to consult with Mr. Chamberlain upon questions of great importance. The measure of Mr. Chamberlain's acquiescence in this arrangement is not stated.

The Anglo-Portuguese Situation.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—Portugal sent a lengthy note to the European powers to-night appealing to them for arbitration of Portugal's differences as to territory with England and claiming the right to make such appeal under the treaty concluded at the Berlin conference. It was the hint that Portugal might call in the continental powers to adjudicate in matters which he regarded as none of their business that caused Lord Salisbury to launch the thunderbolt of the ultimatum. The actual appeal now made will not tend to improve England's temper. The situation has been dangerously complicated by the obstinate and insubordinate behaviour of the the Governor of Mozambique. He continues to defy all orders from Lisbon and refuses to deliver up the territory claimed by England. If this statement is confirmed there is no doubt that a British squadron will seize Pelogoa Bay.

Mobbed by Angry Portuguese.

LISBON, Feb. 2.—During a circus performance here to-day the clowns represented Major Serpo Pinto and Castellar and burlesqued the struggle in Makalolo. The audience became frenzied with anger and started in to mob the show. They seized and tore down the flags and were only stopped from the most extreme conduct by the police. As it was the circus was wrecked. Many arrests have been made.

Trial of the Bishop of Lincoln.

LONDON, Feb. 1.—The trial of the Right Rev. Edward King, Bishop of Lincoln, on a charge of having violated certain requirements of the ritual of the Established Church, will begin before the Ecclesiastical Court next Tuesday. One of the points of the Bishop's defence is that the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Primate of all England, has repeatedly observed the same forms in conducting services as those which the former is alleged to have practiced. It is predicted that the trial will result in the Bishop's acquittal.

THE STATE NOT READY.

Suspect Kunze's Case Goes Over to the Next Term.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—John Kunze, the Cronin suspect now out on $5000 bail, walked into Judge Clifford's court to-day with his attorney and demanded a new trial in accordance with Judge McConnell's decision. The State's Attorney was not ready to go on with the trial and the case was continued to the next term.

Death of Witness Gibbons.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Patrick Gibbons, the politician and witness in the Cronin trial shot Tuesday by Police Captain Schuettler in a saloon brawl, died to-day.

Charged With Malpractice.

TROY, N.Y., Jan. 31.—The coroner this evening issued a warrant for the arrest of Dr. Milton Parsons of Sand Lake on a charge of causing the death of Emma C. Sharpe, a married woman of that place. The doctor has fled and is supposed to have gone to Montreal.

The Teutonic Scorched.

LONDON, Jan. 31.—The steamship Teutonic, at Liverpool, was to-day on fire in her staterooms. The damage is very heavy.

CANADIANS Work Too Hard!

The Result is Sleeplessness, Nervousness and a Broken-Down System often

Ending in Insanity.

Thousands of overworked business men, wearied brainworkers industrious mechanics, and tried women, in all parts of the Dominion are to-day in a terrible position. Their nerves are weak, digestion poor, head aching, and they cannot sleep, work or live in comfort. This is what fills our Insane Asylums. This is the cause of that terrible Pneumia. Before it is too late, use Dr. Phelps' wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound. It removes the results of overwork, restores strength, renews vitality, regulates the whole system, and tones up the overworked brain and body. Do not despair, but use this wonderful remedy, and be restored to health and happiness, the same as was Mr. John L. Brodie, of Montreal, who writes: "I have great pleasure in recommending your Paine's Celery Compound. My system was run down and I was not fit for business, could not sleep well at night and was nervous. I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound and improved immediately. I am now able to transact my business and endure any amount of excitement without bad effect."

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., Montreal.

14. That the Dominion Government be requested to dispose of all rural drill sheds in the County, and apply the proceeds there from to the erection of the 57th Battalion Armoury at Peterborough, and that this county add a sufficient sum to such proceeds to make the sum total amount to $1000 00.

A. R. KIDD, Chairman.

Council Chamber, Feb. 1st.

On motion to adopt the report, Mr. J. B. Pearce moved, seconded by Mr. Anderson, that the report be referred back to the committee to strike out the grant of $1,000 to the 57th Battalion.—Carried.

After the passing of the motion Mr. Burnham stated that as the feeling of the council was against the grant therefore he did not see the use of asking a division on the amendment. In reference to the paragraph respecting the bill of Mr. Edwards, late county solicitor, he stated that the council agreed to pay Mr. Edward's bill, and as it had been taxed by Mr. Moloney, taxing officer, he would therefore move that the clause relating to this matter be struck out.—Carried.

The report was then adopted.

Bylaws were passed confirming the reports of the several committees. A bylaw was also passed authorizing the Warden and Treasurer to borrow money to meet current expenses—the amount not to exceed $25,000.

LEGISLATION VIGILANCE COMMITTEE.

On motion of Mr. Burnham, seconded by Mr. Moore, Messrs. Moloney, Pearce and Sanderson were appointed a committee to act with the Warden to watch legislation which might have the effect of saddling the construction of boundary bridges on Peterborough County.

The Clerk was authorised to procure a supply of ice for the Court House.

Just before the adjournment, Mr. Burnham called attention to a card in a local newspaper inviting the County Council to call on Mr. Kidd. Mr. Burnham showed the paper to Mr. Kidd, Reeve of Dummer, and asked him if he confirmed the invitation, and of course there was a great burst of laughter, for the invitation was an advertisement of Kidd the "Booter."

The council adjourned.

It is a simple matter to remove corns without pain, for if you will go to any druggist or medicine dealer and buy a bottle of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor and use it as directed the thing is done. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. B. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

It is to be found on every breakfast table—or ought to be.

ROLLED, GRANULATED or STANDARD it leads all other competitors in public favor.

PALATABLE, NUTRITIOUS CHEAP. The Oat contains all the constituents necessary for the maintenance of high bodily vigor.

It is one of those complex foods which is capable of supporting life and health for an indefinite period.

In the border raids and forays of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, it was held in high esteem—on one side at least—that of the raiders

The provision carried by a Scottish soldier in those days was simply a bag of oatmeal.

With his good Claymore and shield, and reinforced by this food, in spite of scant attire and inferior camp equipage, how often did he cope successfully with the haughty Southern and was enabled to see the backs of the best soldiers in the world.

Happily those days are past and milder and more peaceful times prevail.

But this food is still in the ascendant.

Its demand increases every day.

RUPTURE.

CHAS. CLUTHE

who after many years trial by the medical profession has secured their confidence and esteem, will be in your neighborhood, see below.

If your children are ruptured or deformed, call and see him with your physician. Having spent his whole life in improving and perfecting appliances for rupture and other deformities, it is conceded by the best authorities that he is the only man in this line of business who can, after examining the patient, invent and construct a correct appliance to overcome the most difficult cases as many thousands have testified. No two are made alike.

One of Toronto's most prominent wholesale merchants testifies, one week after I had adjusted this new truss: "For six months, by the advice of my physician I have been attending a well-known firm of truss makers on Church street, sometimes as often as three times a day, but they never stopped the bleeding at the rupture. What they have been attempting for six months you have effected at the first attempt. I thank you heartily, and you may reckon on my assisting you all I can to attain the success you deserve."

CHAS. CLUTHE, Esq.

DEAR SIR,—I feel it my duty to inform you that my little girl, who was afflicted with double Curvature of the Spine and whom you supplied with one of your Appliances, is rapidly to health again, and is now as straight and natural as could be. She has worn the Appliance constantly without hindrance or pain. I would advise and strongly recommend any person similarly afflicted to apply to you at once for relief. Our family physician, Dr. J. S. King, of Toronto, recommended me to you as being the best maker of these instruments, and I must say that I am more than pleased with the result of your Appliance, and think it cheap at any price.

THE DIAMOND BUTTON

FROM THE DIARY OF A LAWYER AND THE NOTE BOOK OF A REPORTER.

By BARCLAY NORTH.

(Copyrighted, 1889, by C. H. Dunham. Published by special arrangement through The American Press Association.)

She made Holbrook angry, and it was with difficulty he could control himself.

"You will pardon me, Miss Ashgrove, I hope, if I remark that your tone and manner are particularly offensive to me, and neither wise nor just. It is far from my purpose to descend so low as to threaten a lady, but prudence should suggest to you that it is not wise to show such contempt, whatever you may feel, toward a man who is in possession of such knowledge as you know I am."

"And pray, what may that be?"

"That you love the man Fountain with a strong, powerful love—a love which excites my respect and admiration; that the object of that love is a man who bears a name by sufferance only, not by right; and that even when you believed him to be a murderer you shed the bright light of your love upon him."

"How do you know these things?"

"They come to me professionally—I am the legal adviser of the dead Templeton's mother and sister."

"Mother and sister!" she exclaimed. "I thought he had neither mother nor sister—nor any relative."

"That is strange, since he was a relative of yours—a remote one."

Flora blushed.

"That was a fib, Mr. Holbrook, I freely confess it; I confess also in the game of wits I am beaten. Though I am not pleased that you know so much."

"Be not alarmed. But one other person possesses these facts, and you can rest assured neither he nor I have any desire to use the knowledge thus obtained to your disadvantage or to that of Mr. Fountain."

"Thank you. But may I not ask what your purpose is in telling me these things?"

"I might fall back on the statement," replied Holbrook smiling, "that having a feeling of regard for you I desired to relieve your mind of unjust suspicion against one you love so well and the entertaining of which must have given you so much torture; but such statement would not be the whole truth, for I have another purpose as well, not an entirely unselfish one."

"And that purpose is?"

"Let me explain. The fact of Mr. Fountain's innocence came out incidentally in the pursuit of certain inquiries and the proposed initiation of some actions touching the murder of Mr. Templeton, and perhaps it may be said also in an effort, feeble as yet, to connect the late Mr. Templeton with the late Mr. Pierson. I shall be very frank—brutally so, I fear, Miss Ashgrove. The fact that you suspected Mr. Fountain of the murder of Mr. Templeton—that Mr. Fountain had remarked, with reference to an enterprise he was engaged upon, that Providence had removed Mr. Templeton from his path, and the final fact that that enterprise was made known to me by Mr. Fountain's call upon me, to be an effort to obtain the late Mr. Pierson's property, shows that in some way, unknown to me, Mr. Templeton was connected with Mr. Pierson, and the interests of Mr. Fountain and Mr. Templeton were antagonistic. I have the audacity to ask you in what way Mr. Fountain touched Mr. Pierson, and how it was that Mr. Templeton's interests were antagonistic to those of Mr. Fountain? In that point lay your reason for accusing in your mind Mr. Fountain of the deed."

"May I ask to what use you would put the information were I to give it to you—always presuming I had such information?"

"I believe I had the honor of informing you that I am the legal adviser of Mrs. and Miss Templeton. The interests of the brother are now the interests of the mother and sister."

Flora showed clearly that the knowledge of the existence of a mother and sister of Templeton was not pleasant to her, and she remained in profound thought for a moment or two.

Holbrook waited patiently for her to speak. Finally she said:

"Mr. Holbrook, I shall not conceal from you that I know the relationship you ask to be informed of. In the brief time I've had to consider I have made up my mind that I cannot speak of it, for I cannot explain it without giving you secrets I have no right to give to a third person without the consent of Mr. Fountain—they are his—they belong to him and concern him only. You have reasoned most accurately. Therein lay the reason of my unjust suspicion of Mr. Fountain; the motive was so strong, and he himself felt the bitterness and disappointment of finding Mr. Templeton in his way so much, that I feared in a moment of passion he had been led into a frightful crime. I must, however, decline to answer your question."

Holbrook bowed courteously and remarked:

"Of course, that sends me to Mr. Fountain."

"If Mr. Fountain determines to inform you, I, of course, can offer no objection."

"Perhaps you may find yourself able to answer another question?"

Flora seemed to give him consent by an inquiring expression of face.

"You will perhaps remember," he continued, "that on the occasion of our previous interview in this house I displayed a diamond button I had found that morning at the place of murder."

"Perfectly well."

"You seemed to recognize it then. May I ask to whom you thought it belonged?"

"So," said the lady laughingly, but partly vexed as well, "your display of the button was a trap laid for me!"

"I confess it. Laid on the impulse of the moment."

"I have no objections to tell you. I had seen a similar one worn by Kendrick Noble."

"Ah!"

"He was very proud of it, as he had inherited it from his grandfather, who had received it from an Italian nobleman in whose family it had been for many generations. It was given the grandfather in recognition of some great service rendered. Concerning Mr. Noble I presume you know quite as much as I do. He is but little more than an acquaintance, a young gentleman of our set."

"What earthly connection can he have with the matter that puzzles me so?"

"That is for your astuteness to discover," replied the lady, not without the suspicion of sarcasm in her tones. "I cannot help you in that matter."

At this point Holbrook rose to take his leave, and as he did so Miss Ashgrove, rising with him, said:

"I fear an apology is due you. But surely you will excuse a woman seeking to protect her secrets?"

Holbrook began to feel ashamed of himself under the gentle dignity of her apology, and felt it almost a rebuke; so he replied:

"The apologies should be mine for having performed a delicate task with much awkwardness and little kindness."

Thus, with a better understanding between them than had existed since their first interview, and perhaps than ever before, they parted after a warm grasp of the hand.

(To be Continued.)

The Coming Comet.

It is fancied by a grateful patron that the next comet will appear in the form of a huge bottle, having "Golden Medical Discovery" inscribed upon it in bold characters. Whether this conceit and high compliment will be verified, remains to be seen, but Dr. Pierce will continue to send forth that wonderful vegetable compound, and potent eradicator of disease. It has no equal in medicinal and health-giving properties, for imparting vigor and tone to the liver and kidneys, in purifying the blood, and through it cleansing and renewing the whole system. For scrofulous humors, and consumptions, or lung scrofula, in its early stages, it is a positive specific. Druggists. o

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Mango," and "Madre E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most skeptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate. mwe

Peculiarities of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life on energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic will do the word, it works in accordance with nature, supplys fresh nourishment to the glands keeper, the hair luxuriant and natural in shade. Be sure to get, you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisement in another column.

The Canada Life

Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder:"

When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5,040,186, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calender year, the result of which would be to reduce the ensuing one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would curtail it considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $840 193 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525 000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300 000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management. dw

An Oddfellows Death.

The funeral of the late Donald Baillie took place Sunday afternoon. The funeral cortege was a very large one, including about one hundred and fifty men on foot. Otonabee lodge of Oddfellows, of which deceased was a member, turned out about a hundred strong, a number of the brethren of Peterborough lodge also taking part. Behind the Oddfellows marched about fifty Grand Trunk Railway employes, many whom were Port Hope men, who came out on a special train in the afternoon. The funeral services were performed with the impressive Oddfellows' rites.

The Late Robert Armour.

The funeral of the late Robert Armour, Barrister and Registrar of West Durham, took place under Masonic auspices at Bowmanville on Saturday. Mrs. A. H. Peck, of Ashburnham, is his only surviving sister, and Chief Justice Armour his only surviving brother. His father, Rev. Samuel Armour, was at one time Rector of Peterborough, and incumbent of Cavan when he died. Mr. Armour served his Queen and country in the Rebellion of 1837, and assisted to cut away the steamer "Caroline," from the American shore of the Niagara River. He will long be remembered by all who knew him for his genial good-fellowship and kind generosity. He wrote extensively for the local press, and was a forcible public speaker.

Intending patients will confer a favor and greatly facilitate Mr. Robertson's duties by kindly keeping the above in remembrance. Mr. Robertson now has in his possession over fifty actual signatures of well known citizens of our town and vicinity who testify—after personal experience—to the absolute painlessness of the operation. 1d1w

The Reid Benament.

Another charge has cropped up against Thos. Benamont, who was the other day sentenced to six months in gaol on convictions for indecent assault and larceny. It seems that after Benamont left Mr. McNevens, on Tuesday, Jan. 23rd, he stopped over night at the residence of Mr. John Hetherly, in Otonabee, about five miles from McNevens's. He asked permission to lodge with Mr. Hetherly, giving his name as Smith. He was conducted to his room by Mrs. Hetherly, and the hoid fellow began to undress before the woman had gone. She picked up a small cash box which was lying on the stand, but did not think of a watch, a family heirloom, also in the room. In the morning Benamont had his breakfast and left about eleven o'clock. Mr. Hetherly thought no more of the occurrence until stories were told them of Benamont's doings, when he recalled the fact that the old watch was missing. Mr. Hetherly came to town to-day and reported the matter to the police. The watch in question was found in Benamont's valise among other traps when searched at the time of his first arrest. It has not been decided whether another charge will be preferred against Benamont.

A Ghost Story.

A Phantom that was not a Freak of Fancy.

In some families the custom of watching with the bodies of dead persons is observed. On Saturday night two of the watchers on such an occasion were terribly upset by the appearance of a ghostly visitant. At the hour, when the silence of the night can be heard, when the ticking of even a clock sounds loud and threatening; the hour when "church yards yawn and graves give up their dead," they were startled to observe at one of the windows a tall ghostly figure, waving its weird arms in front of the window as though feeling its way in. After a short interval the figure that showed gruesome and ghastly in the misty moonlight, appeared at another window, going through the same phantom pantomime. One of the gentleman who was watching, went out to investigate. As he approached the mysterious figure, it showed no signs of being disturbed, but the set, stony stare of the eyes, gazed fixedly into vacancy. The gentleman addressed the ghostly apparition,—"Who are you? What do you want? Why are you here?" The figure gave a sudden start and the reply came—"O I guess I've lost my way." The figure turned out to be that of a neighbour lady, who, it appears, was walking in her sleep. She wore only her night clothing and had her feet thurst in slippers—hence her startling resemblance to the appearance of the conventional ghost. Had the gentleman not had the courage to investigate and had he allowed the lady to go as she had come, a very pretty ghost story would have been the result. The lady in question is in delicate health and is accustomed to occasional attacks of somnambulism. When aroused at the house spoken of, she was nearly "perished with the cold," but fortunately no serious results have followed from her exposure to the inclemency of the weather, which is all the more remarkable, as she had only thrown on a light petticoat over her night dress, and she had put on no stockings —only a light pair of slippers.

Consecration meeting led by Mr. Wm. Freeborn, was well attended Sunday morning, and was a season of much blessing. Mr. O. C. Rowse gave an impressive and practical talk on "Work" at the personal purity meeting Sabbath afternoon, which will be of great service to all in their lives among their fellows. At the gospel and song service held last night, Rev. Mr. Parker gave an earnest address full of sound wisdom to young men. It was good to be there. Ladies' Prayer Meeting Thursday afternoon at 3.30. Auxiliary Monthly Meeting Tuesday afternoon at 4 p.m. Bible Training Class Tuesday evening from 8 to 9.

The fourth of the star course of entertainments will take place Tuesday evening, Feb. 18th. Rev. Dr. Thomas, Toronto, will deliver his famous lecture "The Great Metropolis of the World, and Rural Districts of England," illustrated by Prof. A. Hay, with the finest stereopticon views ever shown in Canada.

Gannon's Narrows Ferry Scow.

A Great Convenience to the Public.

A portable bridge at Gannon's, a great success, both as a means of transit and as a boon to the people of Harvey and Ennismore, is in the form of a scow of peculiar construction, drawn from shore to shore, a distance of about 800 feet, by means of a steel rope and windlass. This scow is fifty-eight feet in length and eighteen feet wide, fitted with guard rails and gates at each end, which are closed when teams are driven on, and let down when the opposite shore is reached. This scow, which has been long expected, and secured largely through the exertions of Mr. Shaw, Reeve of Harvey, has been running since October and up to the middle of January, gives great satisfaction. It was built at Bridgenorth after designs furnished by Mr. J. E. Belcher, County Engineer, by Mr. Stoneburg. It has been, and is, the means of the annexation of Harvey and Ennismore. It is a great convenience to the public and answers well the place of a permanent bridge. Mr. W. P. Chase is the custodian of the bridge and of the conveyances that patronize it.

Mr. Packenham, Stewart Street, is in a very low condition from inflammation of the lungs, brought on by an attack of the prevalent epidemic. Little hopes were entertained for his recovery on Saturday and Sunday, but he is somewhat better to-day.

The Rev. J. W. McCleary was called to Otonabee to day, to attend upon some of his parishioners who are in a low condition with la grippe.

THE LIBEL CASE SETTLED

Mr. Parnell Receives $25,000 Damages.

The Celebrated Case Settled Out of Court.

(Special to the Examiner.)

LONDON, Eng., Feb. 3.—Mr. Parnell's suit against the Times for libel has been settled. The trial of the suit was to have begun today, but when the case was called the counsel announced that the suit had been compromised, the Times paying Parnell five thousand pounds damages.

A Couple of Windfalls.

Unexpected Fortunes Received by Deserving People.

COBOURG, Feb. 2.—Several days ago lawyers proceeded to the humble dwelling of Mrs. Matilda Delear, on the lake shore, and there, on a plain pine table, counted out and paid over in gold coin and bank notes the sum of $12,637.27. This pile of money represented the pension fund which the United States Government at Washington had finally acknowledged was due to the widow of the late Francis Delear, an old soldier in the American army, who died at Cobourg about three years ago last September without receiving his pension. He was a member of company "I" in the 15th regiment of Illinois infantry, who went all through the great civil war between the North and South. At the close of the war he came to Canada, and after many wanderings settled in Cobourg. For 18 years the Pension Bureau were investigating and considering his claim to an allowance for military service. Just at the time when they had decided to admit the validity of his claim the old soldier died. It has taken ever since to prove that Mrs. Delear was his widow. She is a Frenchwoman, and was married to Delear in Montreal. She divided the money with her stepson who has cared for her.

NAPANEE, Feb. 2.—For some time past there has resided in the town an aged lady named Miss Margaret Hopper, who, unknown to her relatives, was possessed of a large property estimated at over $30,000. Miss Hopper resided for several years with relatives until a few months ago, when it became evident that a change of habitation was not only possible, but probable. Acting on this resolution she removed to the pleasant home of Herman Meag. Here she met with that kindness which the aged appreciate, and continued to reside with the family until death called her away on Wednesday morning last.

Some time ago Miss Hopper, a practical business woman, called in a lawyer and two medical gentlemen, and in their presence made a will, the doctors certifying that she was capable of making a legal will. By this document all former wills are revoked, and the whole of her property is bequeathed to Herman Meag, in recognition of his kindness in caring for an old lady.

The nearest relations of the deceased are several nephews and nieces, who reside on Amherst Island. Rumour has it that these will enter an action to have the will set aside on the ground that Miss Hopper was not in a mental condition to execute a will at the time she did.

Advertising Science.

Newspapers are the Only Satisfactory Medium, an Expert Says.

(From the New York Sun.)

"Nobody has tried more different kinds of advertising than we have," said Mr. Chambers, of the firm of Rogers, Peet & Co., a few day ago, "or tried the different kinds more thoroughly, but we have settled down now to regular newspaper advertising, and believe that, for a permanent business, that alone pays. We were the first to use sails of vessels in the harbor as an advertising medium. Then we got up the 'alphabet puzzle' and gave away half a million puzzles while the craze lasted. Afterward we invented the Waterbury watch idea. We had to do something because three of our principal competitors had failed and their stocks were being sold for next to nothing by assignees, so we decided to give a Waterbury watch with every twelve dollars' worth of goods purchased. We advertised the watches 'wound and set.' To wind them fast enough we had to rig up a little machine worked like a sewing machine that would do the winding, and we kept several boys at work winding and setting them. Before we quit we had given away forty thousand of the watches.

But nothing every pays us like the ordinary newspaper advertising. The fact is, there has come to be in this city a class of advertisement readers, just as there is of news readers. They read the advertisements every day, and, of coures, the man who wants to attract them has to get up an advertisement that will do it. We have proof of this all the time in our business, for an advertisement of any certain thing is sure to bring throngs of people into the store inquiring for it next day. By the number of such inquiries we rate the success or failure of an advertisement. I can guarantee to bring a thousand people to our stores any day by the insertion of an advertisement of some specialty in the morning papers.

"We were the first firm to introduce the use of outline cuts in newspapers. An Englishmen who had done caricaturing on the other side, offdand sketches as a part of the entertainment of a show of some sort, and had come to this country first brought the matter to our attention, and we tried a few of the cuts as an experiment. They succeeded so well that we made them a regular feature. After a while the newspapers themselves caught onto the outline idea, and now that is almost the only style of newspaper illustration used. A while ago we concluded to try the experiment of dropping the cuts. They are expensive, because, besides the cost of them, the papers charge double rates for the space they occupy. It has been poor economy, however. The cuts were worth much more than they cost as an advertisement, and we shall go back to them.

"Another thing about advertising of late years is the gradual increase in the truthfulness of it. People are learning that it doesn't pay to lie in an advertisement any better than it does anywhere else. The theory that 'a sucker's born every minute and he's just as likely to come in here as anywhere else,' won't do for a permanent thing. I think that there has been a noticeable improvement in this respect lately, and that business men are rapidly learning that honesty is the best policy in an advertisement as well as outside of it.

"A curious thing is the difference there is between advertising for women and for men. For a man an advertisement must be short and to the point. It ought to treat of but one subject and to be written as terse ly as possible. Men read advertisements on the jump; they never deliberately sit down to go through the advertisements in a paper. For the women, on the contrary, you can put in as much detail as you please; once a woman is attracted to an advertisement she will read it all through, no matter how long it is or how fine the type is."

How's Business?

"Only fare," says the restaurant keeper.
"Sow-sow," replies the farmer.
"Squally," groans the nursemaid.
"Clothes times," growls the tailor.
"Enough to give a fellow fits. Trade is all cut up. Too many breeches of trust."
"Looking up," smiles the astronomer.
"Fine," ejaculates the police court judge.
"No shoes awl it ought to be," remarks the cobbler. "But I'll peg away in hopes it won't last."
"Waking up," responds the hotel porter.
"Mighty scaly," whines the fishmonger.
"Red hot," pants the firemen.
"Good deal of tick," snaps the watchmaker. "Don't strike me favorably. I'd spring at a chance to get into something else—wind this up mighty quick."
"Dead, I'd rather not say," warily rejoins the conveyancer, "Least said soonest amended."
"Business! Don't talk about business!" chuckles the editor of the funny paper. "That's sheer nonsense! Paste that in your hat."—Texas Siftings.

Old lady (to grocer's boy)—Aren't these very small apples in that barrel, boy? Boy—Yes'm, on top, but down below they're great big fellows. Old lady—Isn't that very unusual, to put the small fruit on top? Boy—Yes'm; but the boss has just bought a motto to hang up on the wall, "Honesty is the best policy," and I heard him say that he would try the new fake on the apples just to see how it worked.—*N. BURNED TO A CRISP.

Fatal Fire in a Washington House.

The Wife and Daughter of Secretary of Navy Tracy Burned to Death—Mr. Tracy Badly Injured.

(Special to the Examiner.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 3.—The house of Secretary of the Navy Tracy caught fire early this morning and was completely destroyed. The bodies of four females have been taken from the ruins, two of whom are known to be Mrs. and Miss Tracy. The other two are as yet unidentified. Secretary Tracy was taken from the house by means of a ladder in an unconscious condition, but the extent of his injuries is unknown. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Benafort.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Mr. R. Simon, recently of Peterborough, our enterprising organ and piano dealer, has opened out anew in Millbrook, where he has the finest instruments on exhibitions, and will deal with intending purchasers as the times will warrant.

There's a boom in the east again. Mr. J. McLeod has been call on several times in connection with the sale of his lot, which is now boomed to the sum of $6,000, pending negotiations, backed by a supply of the coin necessary. A one-acre lot immediately south, on the river, changed hands recently for a sum considerably above the average price, even in Monaghan.

By the recent windstorm a number of structures have been over-turned, which were considered proof against Canadian storms. Amongst others we notice a number of stretches of the new patent farm fence tumbled over. These, however, may probably be replaced without being taken apart. Mr. W. Dixon's new barn near Zion also was put down.

Considerable change is expected in our manufacturing establishments. Mr. John Fletcher, who has for a number of years had chief control, will remove to another lot, handsomely and conveniently fitted for a new business, on the farm of Mr. J. Wood. Several names have been mentioned of reliable men who contemplate continuing the business in the old shop, amongst which are Messrs. W. Dawson, P. Dodds and T. Lalister. We anticipate good times to warrant the continual clang of the hammers and tongs, and that it will not be necessary to import any more carriages or waggons.

Christmas times have brought little excitement this time with us. Literary and other social entertainments have been nearly lost sight of. The literary discussions of the debating society seem to be of the past. We also have to endure the monotony of no stir in connection with the Municipal election. The councillors and others assembled as usual at the seat of government for new nominations, if necessary, but unanimously decided, and wisely we presume, that no present change is needed. This means that the council is elected by acclamation, and consequently we conclude we have just the right men in office.

Miss Nugent is employed as teacher for the year. At the recent school meeting, the usual business was done, in a business way. Mr. E. Kerr presiding as chairman. Mr. F. Thompson was the unanimous choice for trustee. The contract for the supply of fuel was given to Mr. Jas. Kerr. After a short discussion, somewhat animated, it was discovered that the school progress of the last half year, for which Benafort has aforetime been noted, was deficient.

He waited patiently Mrs. Fuhrmann's arrival until yesterday, when he received word from his friends in the east that his wife had died. The purser was so overcome with grief that he killed himself.

Prohibiton Revival in Iowa.

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 2.—The first bill for the repeal of prohibition has been introduced in the State Senate. It proposes township option, a special election on the application of 100 citizens, and if license is voted for then the applicant must have his petition signed by 80 freeholders in the township or ward in the district in which he resides.

An Insolvent Railway.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 1.—In the United States Circuit Court to-day a petition was presented asking for the sale of the Alleghany Valley Railway. The road has been in litigation for some years. The petitioners represent $23,-500,000 of the income bonds. They allege the road is in default to the amount of over $6,000,000. March 14 was fixed for a hearing.

Acted in Self-Defence.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.—The coroner's jury which investigated the death of Robert Gilbons, the witness for the defence in the Cronin case who was shot by Police Captain Schuettler in a saloon row, rendered a verdict to-night that Schuettler acted in self-defence. Schuettler was immediately released from custody.

DEBATE ON DR. LANDERKIN'S REBATE MOTION.

The First Division of the Session—The Alaska Boundary—The Banking Act Amendments—A Press Gallery Sensation—The Printers Compromise.

OTTAWA, Feb. 3.—The first division of the session on party lines took place to-day on Dr. Landerkin's motion that:

Whereas distillers are allowed a rebate of duty upon corn imported for use in the manufacture of spirits for export, it is in the opinion of this House but just and right that farmers and stock-raisers who import corn to feed cattle or other stock for export should also receive a similar rebate.

The yeas and nays were called for shortly before 6 o'clock but the whips could scare up only a slim representation and the motion was defeated, 54 to 74.

The Liberal doctor from South Grey has entered upon a vigorous campaign against drawbacks. Speaking in support of his motion he said that this was part of a fight he was going to wage to the end against the system, which was legislation in favor of the manufacturing classes against the masses. He dwelt at length upon the hardships he alleged the farmers suffered by reason of the discrimination dealt with by his resolution.

Mr. Corby quoted facts and figures to show that the rebate granted the distillers was very trifling, being only $800 in five years, and as a distiller he did not care whether it was abolished or not. But he fancied that the farmers would very decidedly object to such an extension as proposed, which would bring foreign corn into competition with our own coarse grains and depreciate the value of the latter.

Dr. Sproule followed, stating that this accorded with his experience as a practical farmer. Mr. McMillan of Huron and Mr. Fisher spoke in support of Dr. Landerkin's attack.

Hon. Mackenzie Bowell made a vigorous defence of the drawback system. It was singular, he said, that its defects were only now being talked of, for the system was no new thing but had been part of the statute law since before the gentlemen opposite were in power. The particular clause objected to had been re-enacted in 1877 in the Consolidated Customs Act. If the system was so bad as represented he wondered that an extension should be asked for, as was done in this motion, but he did not agree that the system was bad and thought that it might with advantage be extended. Canada ought to be as liberal as the United States in this way, so that bounties offered by that country might not give their manufacturers undue advantage over ours. Canada's policy was to so arrange her tariff as to induce manufactures of every possible article in this country.

Then the House divided with the result stated. It was a strictly party vote except that Dr. Brien of Essex was with the majority. The vote exhausted the energies of the House and at 6.10 they adjourned for the day.

Mr. Massue, who succeeded the late Captain Labelle in the representation of Richelieu, was introduced to the House to-day by Sir John Macdonald and Hon. J. A. Chapleau. He was warmly applauded as he took his seat. Mr. Massue is one of the wealthy men in the House and he has every appearance of being a gentleman of culture as well as of means.

Hon. John Carling has promised that he will correspond with transportation companies to ascertain how it is that rates from eastern points to the northwest are lower for European emmigrants than for French Canadians from the States desiring to return to Canada and proceed to the Northwest. Mr. Doyon brought the matter to his attention.

Hon. Charles Tupper says he is investigating that tar and feather outrage on the Baltic with a view to ascertaining to what extent the captain is to blame.

Hon. John Haggart says the railway mail clerks' complaints will receive due consideration.

Hon. G. E. Foster says there will be no legislation this session respecting benevolent societies.

Hon. Edgar Dewdney said in answer to a question that it is a mistake to suppose there is any difficulty about the boundary between Alaska and the Dominion. That was defined by the treaty of 1825 known as the St. Petersburg Treaty. All that was wanted now was a survey, and though the United States had been invited to join in having this made they had made no response.

The proposed Banking Act amendments were brought up again by Mr. Casey, who moved a resolution affirming that the Government should guarantee the absolute soundness of all paper currency issued and circulated as money and make all such currency legal tender. His idea, he said, was not that this motion should be voted upon, or that the Government should at this time declare its policy, but he wished merely to raise a discussion which might be of benefit in solving the problem presented by the expiration of bank charters. He spoke at some length in support of his plan.

Hon. G. E. Foster said the Government would give due consideration to the remarks made by Mr. Casey in framing the bill, which would shortly be submitted to Parliament.

Mr. Casey's motion was then withdrawn.

This is the amendment Mr. Barron proposes to the Franchise Act: "In regard to each and every name sought to be added by way of solemn declaration there shall be a distinct and separate declaration and the qualification of the person so sought to be added shall be set forth in the body of the declaration and not in a schedule attached thereto."

Mr. Brown to-day presented petitions from Toronto bearing several hundred signatures in favor of his bird bill. He also presented a petition bearing the names of several of Hamilton's best known residents. On the other side petitions were presented by Mr. Brien from Leamington, Mr. Small from Goderich Peterboro, Hamilton and Montreal, Mr. McNeil from Wiarton, Mr. Wilson of Elgin from Ridgetown and St. Thomas, Mr. Jamieson from Almonte and Carleton Place and Mr. Dawson from Port Arthur.

Mr. Burdett gives notice of this resolution: "That it is expedient to bring in a bill to prevent frauds in the sale of cereals and seed grain." He offered the bill itself to-day, but as no notice had been given it was ruled out of order.

NOTES AND GOSSIP.

A Press Gallery Sensation—The Printers Accept a Compromise.

OTTAWA, Feb. 3.—Quite a sensation was caused in the press rooms this evening by the appearance of Sergt. Phil Moylan, the handsome man of the Ottawa police force, in quest of Mr. Fred Williams, the parliamentary correspondent of The Montreal Gazette, whom having found, he presented with a summons to appear at the Police Court tomorrow morning to answer to a charge of having falsely and maliciously libelled no less a person than Mr. William C. Van Horne, general manager of the Canadian Pacific. The paragraph upon which the charge is based appeared in The Gazette's Ottawa correspondence Saturday and was to the effect that when complaint was made to Mr. Van Horne that one of his subordinates had, in reply to a question, told the customer to go to shoal, the manager had replied: "You need not go," only that and nothing more. Mr. Van Horne does not think this is a becoming answer and is much annoyed at the circulation of the paragraph. Mr. Williams is one of the most conscientious members of the gallery and his associates wish him safely out of his pending courting experience.

Hon. Mr. Chapleau's answer to the bureau printers' demand for an increase from $11 to $12 per week was presented at a meeting of the union to-night. He offered a compromise, $12 per week and three holidays each year without pay being docked. After a hot debate the union decided by a vote of about 4 to 1 to accept the offer.

The barley tests going on for the past two years have come to a very satisfactory conclusion. A bulletin just issued from the Central Experimental Farm states that it has been found that the two-rowed variety which our farmers desire to grow to cater for the English market, can be grown in many parts of Canada more profitably than the six-rowed variety hitherto grown exclusively and for which there is no market in England and a gradual decreasing demand in the States.

Two more bine heads were tabled to-day, the report of the Public Works Department and the Civil Service List.

TRADE AND TRAFFIC.

Leading Features of the Grain and Produce Markets at Home and Abroad.

TORONTO, Feb. 4.—St. Lawrence market was quiet to-day. Prices are practically unchanged. Dealers continue to ask 25c. for fresh eggs in spite of the fact that they are buying them at 16c. They will probably come down in a day or two. In New York eggs are quoted at 18½c.

Butter—Dealers continue to complain of the large receipts of poor butter, and many will not take any more. Deliveries are in the proportion of one box of good to three and four of poor. The blame seems to lie at the doors of country storekeepers who will take any amount of poor butter from farmers for the sake of getting their custom and will pay as much for low grade as for choice, for fear of offending the farmer who offers the poor stuff by paying him less than his neighbor.

Poultry—Receipts light. Turkeys, 12c.; geese, 8 to 9c.; chickens, 60 to 75c.; ducks, 80c. to $1.

Dressed hogs—Are tending firmer in sympathy with Chicago. Saturday evening a car averaging 175 lbs. sold at $5.50. That is about as high as dealers care to go.

STREET MARKETS.

Wheat—300 bushels sold at 98c. for red and white, 94 to 95c. for spring and 70 to 71½c for goose.

Barley—Sales, 2000 bushels at 38 to 45c.

Peas—Unchanged, 200 bushels selling at 55 to 57c.

Oats—About 200 bushels sold at 29 to 30c.

Hay—Receipts moderate and with small demand. Prices were easy at $10 to $12.

Straw—Firmer on a good enquiry. Half a dozen loads sold at $7 to $8.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.

Liverpool reports:—Wheat, firm; demand improving; holders offer sparingly. Corn steady; demand improving. Spring wheat 7s 3½d; red winter 6s 11d; No. 1 Cal. 7s 2¾d. Corn 3s 10⅝. Peas 5s 6d. Pork 54s 6d. Lard 31s 9d. Bacon, long clear heavy, 29s 6d; light 29s; short clear 28s 6d. Tallow 24s 6d. Cheese, white and colored, 51s 6d.

BEERBOHM'S REPORT.

Beerbohm reports: Floating cargoes—Wheat nfl, corn quiet. Cargoes on passage—Wheat steadier, corn slow. Mark Lane—Wheat rather firmer, American corn quiet and Danube steady, flour slow and probably cheaper. London—Good shipping No. 1. Cal. wheat, prompt sale, 34s 9d, was 34s 6d; do. nearly due, 33s 9d, was 33s 9d. French country markets quiet. Weather in England frosty. Liverpool—Spot wheat, more enquiry; corn, moderate demand; No. 1 Cal., 7s 2¾d, ¼d dearer; Walla, 7s, unchanged.

THE WASHINGTON FIRE HORROR.

Latest Details—A Struggle Against Death —Only Three Victims.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—Mrs. Tracy endeavored to escape the raging element by dropping herself from her bedroom window and in her effort to decrease the distance to the ground she grasped the narrow stone window sill and lowered herself as far as she was able. Those who saw her in her perilous position shouted to her to hold on, but either she did not hear or her strength failed her, for after thus hanging a moment between life and death she fell 40 feet into an area way before anything could be done towards rescuing her or relieving her fall. She was immediately taken to the house of a neighbor, Dr. Rheim, and placed upon a lounge in the sitting-room. She was perfectly conscious and did not seem to suffer pain. Occasionally she complained of an oppression near her heart and found a difficulty in breathing. She talked awhile, coughed slightly and then became silent. The physicians looked at each other significantly. Mrs. Tracy was dead. The immediate cause of her death was supposed to be injuries to her heart, sustained in her fall from the window, which flooded her lungs with blood. It is said that had she delayed her movements a couple of minutes ladders and mattresses and other means of safe escape would have been at hand. Her body was soon removed to the residence of Attorney-General Millar.

Almost at the same time two bodies were taken from the burning building—one was the secretary's daughter, Miss Marie, and the other was that of the French maid, Josephine. That of the former was found by Chief Earle lying on the floor in the second floor hall at the head of the stairs. The body was not greatly disfigured by the fire. She had evidently died from suffocation. The chief lifted the lifeless body in his arms and though the stairway was ablaze brought it safely out into the street. It is said Miss Tracy could have saved herself if her strength had held out a few minutes longer. She fell in the hallway of the second story a few yards from the bathroom, which, had she reached it and closed the door, would have insured her against the fire and smoke until assistance could have reached her.

Of the French maid little is known save that her dead body was found in her room on the top floor of the house, burned beyond recognition. Both the bodies of Miss Tracy and her maid were taken to an undertaker's establishment in the vicinity.

The remains of Mrs. Tracy and Miss Tracy lie to-night in caskets in the centre of the East Room of the White House, beneath the crystal chandeliers whose light less than a week ago shone upon them as they gaily greeted their numerous friends at the last presidential reception. No final arrangements for the funeral have been made as yet.

Owing to the calamities which have befallen the households of Secretaries Blaine and Tracy a large number of invitations for receptions, dinners and dancing parties to have been given during the present week by prominent society people have been recalled. Among them were those of Sir Julian and Lady Pauncefote for Wednesday evening next. President and Mrs. Harrison have recalled the invitations to the state dinner in honor of the Supreme Court set for Thursday next.

ATTEMPTED POISONING.

A PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND SENSATION.

The Wife of a Prominent Charlottetown Barrister Narrowly Escapes Death From Arsenic Administered in Her Medicine—A Mysterious Veiled Woman.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., Feb. 3.—This city is greatly excited over a case of alleged poisoning, the victim of which moves in the first society. For some time past Mrs. J. M. Sutherland, wife of J. M. Sutherland of the firm of Davies & Sutherland, barristers, of which L. H. Davies, M.P., is the senior partner, has been under the care of Dr. Johnstone. Mrs. Sutherland grew steadily worse and Dr. Johnstone became suspicious that his medicine was being tampered with. It was analyzed and found to contain arsenic as well as the medicine prescribed. The patient was being slowly poisoned.

The doctor communicated with Mr. Sutherland, but what steps were taken to discover the would-be murderer has not yet transpired.

The interest in the case has been increased by the sudden disappearance from the city of a well-known woman who left Charlottetown closely veiled at 9 o'clock Saturday morning and crossed on the ice from Cape Traverse to the mainland. The police are now investigating the matter.

WINNIPEG'S SENSATION.

An Attack in the House on Premier Greenway's Private Character.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 3.—The Legislature reassembled this evening and the actual work of the session began with the discussion of the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne. The public galleries were crowded.

Petitions were presented from a number of municipalities by the French members protesting against the proposed abolition of separate schools.

Attorney-General Martin gave notice that he would introduce the new Municipal Bill Wednesday.

Sensation was created by the bringing up of a certain scandal affecting Premier Greenway which has been the theme of whispered conversations in Winnipeg for some days. It was brought up by E. J. Wood, member for Cypress, on a question of privilege. Mr. Wood said that he considered it his painful duty to move a resolution affecting every member of the House.

He began moving a resolution but at once, and before Mr. Wood could utter more than two or three words. Attorney-General Martin jumped to his feet and raised the point of order that the matter in question was not one which could be brought up as a question of privilege by Mr. Wood. Any member could rise to a question of privilege about matters reflecting on himself, but another member could not do it for him. Only the person affected could bring up such a motion in this way and others would have to follow another procedure and bring it up as a motion, of which notice would have to be given.

Speaker Winram sustained the objection, contending that this resolution had reference to a street rumor affecting the private life of the Premier and did not come within the province of the Legislature. Members of the Legislature, he said, were there to discuss the business of the country, not scandals.

Mr. Wood then said he would give notice that on Wednesday he would move the motion, which he began to read, but before he had spoken two words the point of order was raised and the Speaker ruled it out. Mr. Wood said he would bring the matter up again on Wednesday.

Mr. Thompson of Emerson moved the address in reply and Mr. Harrower of Shoal Lake seconded it, making unimportant speeches.

A Young Heiress.

MONTREAL, Feb. 4.—A young French girl named Marie Anne Jeanne Catellier, who lives at 7 St. Urbain-street, has come into a fortune, part of which was quite a surprise. Her grandmother, aunt and mother have lived together in the same house for many years. The grandmother died 18 months ago, the aunt on the 9th of last month, and the mother, who was a widow, two days later. After the death of the latter, and when the house was being cleaned up, there was an interesting find. Three leather bags were hauled out of their hiding, and inside of each was a tin box. Inside of each tin box was a miscellaneous collection of bank bills and gold and silver pieces, including several French gold coins. The whole amounted to $15,000, most of which it is believed has not seen the light of day for many years. Some of the money is dated sixty years back. It is believed that the dead ladies each owned one of the bags into which they dropped their savings. The estate on the whole amounts to about $60,000, and the heiress, who is 15 years of age to-morrow, has no nearer relative than an aunt. A tutor and sub-tutor have been appointed.

LONDON, Feb. 4.—The Times says upon the Parnell libel case, which it settled by paying Mr. Parnell $35,000 and all costs including lawyers' fees:

"After our withdrawal of the letters it was clear we had no legal defence, therefore no alternative was open to us but to come to terms or abide the verdict of the jury. As we had at the outset challenged such action we cannot complain at having been taken at our word." The Times claims that the result will not affect the larger questions at issue.

On the contrary they should exercise great patience and demand of no one more than he is able to perform. At a time when the monarchy is much and frequently assailed it is the duty of all officers to give it the support of the most exemplary conduct."

TURNBULL'S

If you should give the days of the week trade names, Saturday would be clothing man's day.

Look at the clothing store news up and down the columns of the papers! Is it not so.

We could pile adjective upon hyperbole—could print with display type the most impossible statement if we choose, but we spare you.

They can all gang their ain gait, while we go on making our clothing business bigger by making it better; the only sure way and we hold our own with the best in quality, style and make with real cheapness. Our boys' Readymade clothing cannot be beaten in style, quality and price.

We had a heavy run on Ladies' Mantles last week, A lot of good goods at Bargain Prices still to select from.

Our 40c. Heavy Canadian tweeds please the eye and pockets of all.

In the name of Jack Frost—Blankets. If we could only tell you all we know of Blankets, it would be good reading. One thing we do know, and don't fear to say is, you will get more good wool and generous size in the Blankets now here at $5, than is generally offered. Blankets at $4 and $3.75 of good medium sizes.

Once more the cheapest stock of Grey Flannels and Cottons is with us. The people carry it off with more industry than ants, which is the best proof that business men have that goods are cheap.

CANADIANS Work Too Hard!

The Result is Sleeplessness, Nervousness and a Broken-Down System, often

Ending in Insanity.

Thousands of overworked business men, worried housekeepers industrious mechanics, and tried women, in all parts of the Dominion are to-day in a terrible position. Their nerves are weak, digestion poor, head aching, and they cannot sleep, work or live in comfort. This is what fills our Insane Asylums. This is the cause of that terrible Paresis Before it is too late, use Dr. Phelps' wonderful discovery, Paine's Celery Compound. It removes the results of overwork, restores strength, renews vitality, regulates the whole system, and tones up the overworked brain and body. Do not despair, but use this wonderful remedy, and be restored to health and happiness, the same as was Mr. John L. Brodie, of Montreal, who writes: "I have great pleasure in recommending your Paine's Celery Compound. My system was run down and I was not fit for business, could not sleep well at night and was nervous. I commenced taking Paine's Celery Compound and improved immediately. I am now able to transact my business and endure any amount of excitement without bad effect."

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., Montreal.

Tax-Ridden Farmers.

Although the exports of Canada for 1889 are placed at $89,189,167, the exports of goods the produce of Canada were only $77,201,804, the remainder being composed largely of foreign goods shipped through Canada. Of this sum of $77,201,804, only $4,434,949 are placed to the credit of manufactures. Mr. Charles Mackenzie was therefore speaking well within the truth when he said that the value of our export of cheese was more than the value of our entire export of manufactures The fact is that the value of the export of cheese, $5,915,684, is more than double the value of the export of manufactures. The export of barley, $6,456,600, is two millions more than the export of manufactures; and nearly half the value of the export of manufactures was reached by the product of the humble and unprotected hen. The value of the barley, cheese and eggs together was seventeen and a half millions, which is nearly one-fourth of the value of our entire exports, and four times as valuable as our export of manufactures.

This is the more remarkable because the Government has, for the purpose of encouraging manufactures, levied enormous taxes itself, and allowed certain manufacturers to levy enormous taxes upon the other classes of the community, including the producers of the aforesaid cheese, barley and eggs; while the latter have received no "protection" or other encouragement whatever, and have thriven by their own energy and enterprise, and the good gifts of providence, and in spite of the policy of the Government. As an instance of what the N. P. is doing for the people, we may take the fact that the duties on sugar paid into the Treasury last year amounted to more than three and a half million dollars. It makes more than half the value of our entire export of barley merely to pay this tax, and as for what is left, the greater part probably goes to the refiners. The duties paid on iron and steel and its manufactures last year were nearly three millions. This does not include the tax paid to the protected manufacturers of steel, iron, agricultural implements, hardware, stoves, sewing machines, etc. Nearly three millions more went in payment of the duties on woolen manufactures, nearly two millions in payment of the duties on cotton and three-quarters of a million in payment of the duties on coal. Directly and indirectly, the farmers of Canada pay a great share of these and other duties, levied mainly upon the prime necessaries of life; and we think we are well within the mark in saying that a good deal more than half the value of the farmers' exports is eaten up by taxes paid to the Government and to the protected manufacturers. Surely it is not unreasonable for the farmer to say to the Dominion Government, "I do "not expect you to raise the price of my "grain, although you promised to do that; "but I do expect you to take off some of the "burdens you have laid upon me, and give "me a chance to keep myself out of bank-"ruptcy."—Globe.

Fire in Hope Township.

About eight o'clock Friday night the barn and sheds of Mr. Wm. Beatty, lot 26, 7th concession, Hope, with all their contents of grain, hay and fodder raised on the farm during the past season were destroyed. With the greatest difficulty the horses and other stock in the stable and sheds were got out of the burning buildings. The farm and barns belonged to the estate of H. B. Williams, and were insured in the Guardian, of England, for $350. There was also a small insurance on the contents.

The Coming Comet.

It is fancied by a grateful patron that the next comet will appear in the form of a huge bottle, having "Golden Medical Discovery" inscribed upon it in bold characters. Whether this conceit and high compliment will be verified, remains to be seen, but Dr. Pierce will continue to send forth that wonderful vegetable compound, and potent eradicator of disease. It has no equal in medicinal and health-giving properties, for imparting vigor and tone to the liver and kidneys, in purifying the blood, and through it cleansing and renewing the whole system. For scrofulous humors, and consumption, or lung scrofula, in its early stages, it is a positive specific. Druggists. 6

La Grippe's Rapid Progress

And Powerful Hold Upon its Victims.

Some catching breeze, some foul disease
From Russia o'er the ocean,
It's direful head o'er all this land
Is casting great commotion,
When it appeared some people sneered,
Many were in a frenzy,
Some called it grip, some a cold dip,
And some plaid left tennis.

Many in joke their fun did poke,
And laugh'd at their neighbor tossing;
Next day feel cold, friend grip took hold,
They felt it not so pleasing.
The Russian foe strikes high or low—
Regardless of their station,
With lightning streak, grips strong or weak
Of every race and nation.

Like balls of lead it strikes the head,
Or fifty millstones squeezing.
It cuts the breath like swords of death
Throat tearing cough and sneezing.
Eyes streaming pools—the hot head fools
Like Vesuvius' burning mountains,
From eyes and nose the water flows
Like some unceasing fountain.

While down the back pains force their track
Like twenty wrenches screwing.
The tortured frame seems in a flame,
As if their flesh was stewing.
The aching legs most sluggish drag
Weak power of local action,
Pains grips and stiffens each horrid stings
Had crushed old Job's devotion.

It spoils the face of natural grace
To twitching, twisting, screwing.
Pain powerful cause propels the jaws
As if they gum were chewing.
We pass a joke but dares to mock
This world wide spread contagion,
Both far and near around us here
Its deadly power is raging.

Cities and towns, the country round
Throughout the whole Dominion,
It leaves its trace, in many a case
Bears death upon its pinion.
Attach no blame from where it came,
We need afflictions schooling,
Think, understand there is a hand—
Above—vile sinners ruling,

You may depend it serves the end
For which it was intended.
Some bear its smart, some purer hearts
True joy and sorrow blended.
With thanks I say up to this day
It passed your humble servant,
Perhaps it thinks the man the clinks
Is wholly undeservent

Smith.

"La Grippe" or Lightning Catarrh

MR. EDITOR,—"La Grippe," or Russian influenza, as it is termed, is in reality an epidemic catarrh, and is called by some physicians "lightning catarrh," from the rapidity with which it sweeps over the country. Allow us to draw the attention of your readers to the fact that Nasal Balm, as well as being a thorough cure for all cases of the ordinary cold in the head and catarrh, will give prompt relief in even the most severe cases of "La Grippe," or Russian influenza, as it will effectually clear the nasal passages, allay irritation and relieve the dull, oppressive headache accompanying the disease. No family should be without a bottle of Nasal Balm in the house, as cold in the head and catarrh are peculiarly liable to attack people at this season of the year, and Nasal Balm is the only prompt and speedy cure for these troubles ever offered the public. Easy to use and agreeable. If you cannot get it at your dealers, it will be sent, post free, on receipt of price (50 cents and $1 per bottle) by addressing FULFORD & Co., Brockville, Ont. ww-w

Sure Cure for La Grippe.

In these days when so many are suffering from the prevailing epidemic, a certain cure would be welcome. The very best course of treatment to adopt, is, after taking the advise of a good physician, to drink nothing except hawley bros. prime tea, the finest brands at the lowest prices kept always in stock. Also the most fragrant coffees and the choicest glassware. Don't forget these facts when you want a cup of the above reviving beverages.

To Cure a Corn.

There is no lack of so-called cure for the common ailment known as corns. The vegetable, animal, and mineral kingdoms have been ransacked for cures. It is a simple matter to remove corns without pain, for if you will go to any druggist or medicine dealer and buy a bottle of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor and use it as directed the thing is done. Get "Putnam's," and no other. 6dw6

Would Not Do Without It.

The Candid Truth.

For Toilet Use.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had, was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

RUPTURE.

CHAS. CLUTHE

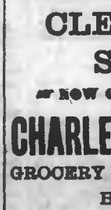
who after many years trial by the medical profession has secured their confidence and esteem, will be in your neighborhood, see below.

IF your children are ruptured or Deformed, call and see him with your physician. Having spent his whole life in improving and perfecting appliances for rupture and other deformities, it is conceded by the best authorities that he is the only man in this line of business who can, after examining the patient, invent and construct a correct appliance to overcome the most difficult cases, as many thousands have testified. No two are made alike.

One of Toronto's most prominent wholesale merchants testifies, one week after I had adjusted this new truss:—"For six months, by the advice of my physician I have been attending a well-known firm of truss makers on Church street, sometimes as often as three times a day, but they never succeeded in holding the rupture. What they have been attempting for six months you have effected at the first attempt. I thank you heartily, and you may reckon on my naming you all I can to attain the success you deserve."

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 14, 1890.

CHAS. CLUTHE, Esq.



DEAR SIR,—I feel it my duty to inform you that my little girl, who was afflicted with double Curvature of the Spine and whom you supplied with one of your Appliances, is restored to health again, and is now as straight and natural as could be. She has worn the Appliance constantly without hindrance or pain. I would advise and strongly recommend any person similarly afflicted to apply to you at once for relief. Our family physician, Dr. J. S. King, of Toronto, recommended me to you as being the best maker of these instruments, and I must say that I am more than pleased with the result of your Appliance, and think it cheap at any price.

Your very thankful,

CHAPTER XXIII.

TOM MAKES A LONG STEP FORWARD.

TOM was not displeased to be alone for a time, in order that he might give himself up to thought. When he parted from Holbrook he had little idea of going to Fountain—that is, little definite idea of what he could accomplish by seeing and talking with him.

The truth is, he was much disturbed. The bitter disappointment in finding that he had not detected the murderer had unsettled him. Beginning in doubt, he had gradually gone on to a full conviction, and had discounted his triumph. Now everything was astray. He had never failed so before; he had never before been enticed so far upon a false scent.

He began to fear he was losing his cunning.

If the story were to become known, how they would laugh at him at police headquarters; what gleeful stories of his defeat would his competitors have to tell; he would be compelled to leave town because of their jokes and laughter; his prestige would be gone in the office of The Sol; he was now conscious, with a feeling of self contempt, that he had of late been assuming airs of superiority among his fellows.

Then he consoled himself with the thought that after all no one else had made the progress in the affair that Holbrook and himself had made. Then he recollected, with another wave of self contempt, that when he thought triumph was theirs he had attributed all to his own efforts and shrewdness, and now in failure he was quite willing to take Holbrook into partnership. After all, say what might be said, the affair was deep, intricate and mysterious, back of which lay a mass of facts which must be ascertained, arranged and digested.

Finally he said, with an inspiration of hope:

"All is not lost yet, and my commission has not been recalled."

By that time he had reached the City Hall park, with a view of hunting up the Shadow and relieving him from duty for a time at least, or until he was wanted again.

As he passed the city hall he saw the old attorney, George Parker, descending the steps.

"There's the Shadow's friend," he commented. "That old fellow is sloshing around with a claim against Pierson's estate, not knowing against what momentous affairs he may be knocking. If there is anything crooked in his proceedings on behalf of that driveling old drunkard in Varick street, how he will take to cover when we light the fuse—if we ever do."

Tom chuckled; presently an idea struck him.

"I'll give him an interview. Perhaps I'll elicit something."

As the old man was about to pass, Tom checked him.

"Good afternoon, Mr. Parker. I've heard that notice of a claim to Pierson's estate on behalf of James Preston has been made before the surrogate. What is there in it?"

The old man looked at him sharply and not with a pleasant expression.

"Who are you?"

"Bryan, of The Sol."

"Oh, a reporter, hey," replied the old man, with a grin and an expression of relief. "You reporters are very sharp. The notice was only filed within the hour."

"Oh, yes, we lay pretty close for the news. But what is there in it?"

"Well, I think there is a good deal in it, or the notice wouldn't have been filed. A lawyer would naturally say that after he had taken up a client's case, wouldn't he? However, the matter is not in such form yet that I can talk about it, especially without conference with the counsel who bears the leading part. I can say this, that the notice was filed merely as a precautionary step. I don't care to say anything about it or have anything said now. If you will promise to say nothing now, when the matter comes up I'll give you the inside of it exclusively. That's what you young men want—a beat—isn't it?"

"Yes, that's what we are always looking for," replied Tom. "I'll keep my promise, if you will. I know there will be a great story. The old man Pierson lived a double life."

"What do you know about it?" inquired the old man fiercely.

"Not very much, to be sure. I know he used to pass under another name at one time."

"You do? What name?"

"Fountain," coolly replied Tom. This was a reckless and audacious assumption upon the part of Tom. He knew nothing of the kind.

"Fountain, did you say?" queried the old man, knitting his brows, deeply interested. "When, and how long ago?"

"Oh, that is my secret."

"What else do you know about Pierson?"

"That's about all. I learned it by accident. I know why he assumed it—it was because he wanted to marry a woman under that name."

The face of the old man took on an expression of serious alarm. Tom watched him narrowly.

"Ah, had he any children?" asked the old man.

"Yes, I think so. A son and a daughter."

"A daughter," repeated the old man, and now he seemed puzzled. "I think, Mr. Bryan, you have information of great value to us—more value than you know. Cannot we go to some quiet place where we can exchange confidences? I should not be surprised if your information were worth paying for handsomely."

Tom felt that he was getting into shallow water, for he had been drawing upon his imagination for his facts, led to go on from the evident alarm he was causing the old man.

It was not his purpose to go further, so he said:

"I am always on the make, if I can do it squarely, Mr. Parker. I have no objection to giving you all the information I possess on the subject. But I cannot go now; I have an important engagement at which I am already overdue."

"Can we not meet this evening?"

"No—engagement again."

"To-morrow, then. No, not to-morrow. I have engagements out of town. This is Thursday; make it Monday next, at 11, at this spot."

"All right. This place is convenient for me."

"One moment, Mr. Bryan. Do you know where the son—Fountain, you know—is now?"

"I do not know, but I could obtain knowledge easily, I think."

"Very well. Don't fail me on Monday."

Tom hurried away, glad to escape, for from a sense of pure mischief he had been led into this encounter.

"I'll have to concoct a story," he said to himself, "and meet the old man on Monday. I may learn something of value. But what was it in my lie that disturbed him so? Let me see; he is making a claim on behalf of that old drunkard on the ground that the old sot is a brother of the late Pierson. Now, if that is so, one of them bears an assumed name. Which? From his disturbance when I said Pierson had once been known as Fountain, it must have been the dead man. Now what? Why, he is frightened about the idea of the marriage and wants to know about the issue. Um."

Just then he crossed the path of one of New York's most eminent lawyers.

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Mungo," and "Madre E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most skeptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate. mws

The Canada Life
Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder:"

When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $6,040,186, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calendar year, the result of which would be to reduce the ensuing one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would curtail it considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $340,186 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525,000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300,000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management. dw

Hull was in bed and asleep, when the police awakening came, the Chief was witness to a most affecting parting scene between the accused husband and his wife. This morning Hull pleaded guilty and was remanded for a day for sentence. His offence is the theft of a cross-cut saw from Mr. Jos. Barnard, of North Monaghan. One day in January Hull, who was working for a neighbor, passed through Mr. Barnard's premises and picked up a cross-cut saw, which he afterwards sold at Mallaby's junk-shop on Hunter street. The saw was found at the Jew's and thence traced to Hull.

George Street Church Organ Recital.

An Organist Engaged—An Excellent Programme of Classical Music Excellently Presented—Mr. G. E. E. Price, A. C. O., (London), Formally Engaged—A Good Choice—The Congregation to be Congratulated.

There were about two hundred and fifty ladies and gentlemen present at the George Street Methodist Church on Monday evening, to listen to an organ recital, given by Mr. Price, recently of England, more lately of Montreal and now of Peterborough. The audience was composed of representatives from all the congregations in town, and comprised the most capable and critical elements of these. And to say that all were delighted with the music presented would be to give feeble expression to their feelings. Mr. Price is a finished organist, and those who have heard all, say that he does not bear an favorable comparision with Frederick Archer and Dr. Davis, who have occupied the seat of the George Street Methodist organ. Some idea of his capabilities may be formed by the following programme. Mr. Price performed the whole programme without leaving his seat, and though his auditors gave evidence of being highly pleased, there was no applause till he had ended Handel's magnificent "Hallelujah Chorus," when the enthusiasm of his hearers broke forth in loud applause. The organist recognized this appreciation by playing "God Save the Queen," which brought a delightful evening's music to a close. The following is the PROGRAMME.

Second Sonata, in C Minor	Mendelssohn
(a) Grave, (b) Adagio (c) Con Vivace, (d) Fugue.
Andante, in E Minor	Smart
Festal March	Elvey
Andante in F	Merkel
Offertoire in D	Batiste
Air in E (est)	Paradies
Marche Religieuse in F	Guilmant
Chorus, Hallelujah	Handel

Mr. Price conducted the musical services in the George street church on Sunday, and from the satisfaction he then gave, his handling of the chour, and from his performance last night, the church authorities closed an engagement with him, and he is now the organist of the George street Methodist church. He has returned to Montreal his present place of residence, but will come to town the latter part of the week, and be here for the services on Sunday. Mr. Price comes highly recommended, and from the evidence given of his abilities, he will fully justify the recommendations he is possessed of. A gentlemen that has occupied so important a position as that of deputy organist to Ely Cathedral, England, must have a high standing as an organist. The congregation of the George street church are to be congratulated upon having secured the services of a musician who gives every guarantee of being exceptionally well fitted for the position. Their musical services will now, it is safe to say, be conducted with that excellence which will comport with the importance of the other services, new life will be infused into the choir, and one of the most important features of the service of the church will be placed upon a sound and satisfactory basis.

The Waterworks Company.

Annual Meeting—Reports of the Directors and Superintendent—The New Board of Directors.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Water Company was held Monday afternoon at the offices, 253 Hunter street. There were present, Mr. John Burnham, President; R. A. Morrow, Vice-Pres.; G. W. Hatton, Sec-Treas; Messrs. F. J. Lewis, J. E. Belcher, Judge Weller, R. B. McKee and A. Stevenson; Accountant Adams and Superintendent Henderson.

The first business was the reading of the Director's Report, showing a satisfactory state of affairs as regards finances, and giving details as to the work which had been done during the past year. In 1889 there had been laid 5,132 feet of mains, different sizes, making a total length of mains now in use of 9 miles. The number of services put in during the year was 88, and applications had been received for 13 more than they were able to supply. The total number to date is 460, of which only 201 are domestic, being about 13 per cent of the total number of houses in town. The total number of hydrants now set is 74, of which 71 are in the service of the town.

The report of Superintendent Henderson and Auditor Budden was also read.

A vote of thanks was passed to the retiring Directors, for the satisfactory condition to which the affairs of the Company had been brought; also to the Superintendent, for his faithful and efficient services the past year.

The Directors elected for the ensuing year are Messrs. John Burnham, R. A. Morrow, G. W. Hatton, R. B. McKee and A. Stevenson.

Mr. W. H. Budden was re-appointed Auditor.

At a subsequent meeting of the Directors, officers were elected as follows:

PRESIDENT—John Burnham.
VICE-PRESIDENT—R. A. Morrow.
SEC.-TREAS.—G. W. Hatton.

The committee, have examined the questions submitted by the Provincial Secretary re exemptions, and would recommend the clerk th sign the same and forward them to the Ontario Legislature.

It is recommended also that a telephone be placed in Chief Rozel's house.

The report was adopted.

THE FIRE ALARM.

Mr. A. Hall, chairman, presented the report of the Fire, Water and Light Committee, recommending that the offer of the Bell Telephone Co., to build and manage the Magneto-Electric Fire Alarm for the town, for two hundred dollars per annum, be accepted.

Mr. ANDERSON, whose communication was read previously, was given a hearing. He stated that a local telephone company was being formed here, to be known as the Peterborough Telephone Company. They would give the town a first class fire alarm system for $100 a year, and guarantee a more efficient service than any other. They gave a service much cheaper than the Bell Telephone Co., whose rights they did not infringe upon, and at the same time claimed to give a better one. The local company would have a stock of $10,000, mostly taken up here. They were established in several places in Canada. They would have their system in operation here by the first of May.

Mr. HALL said that $100 a year would be a considerable saving, but it would be twelve months before the new system could be adopted, as the new company had to get their subscribers yet. The proposed contract with the Bell Co. was only for one year, and if anything was offered better later they could then take it up.

Mr. DAWSON favored referring the matter to the committee for further consideration. He did not think Mr. Hall's statement that they would have the benefit of 180 telephones in the town amounted to much.

Mr. HALL pointed out that alarms could be sent from any of these 180 telephones.

Mr. LANGFORD believed the contract with the Bell Co. should be signed, as the streets were disfigured with enough poles already; they knew what the Bell Co. were, and they didn't know who this new company were.

Mr. W. H. KENT, agent of the Bell Co. addressed the council, and stated that they gave as good a system as anyone could. He claimed that Mr. Anderson could not do it well for $100.

There was some discussion as to the merits of the Bell Co. Mr. Dawson claiming that the police station telephone was out of order nearly all the time; Mr. Hartley also finding fault similarly. He thought a little opposition would not do the Bell Co. any harm. He though Mr. Anderson's proposal was worth consideration.

Mr. E. H. D. HALL thought it better to take the Bell Telephone Co's offer for one year; it would not be safe to rely upon the new company being in working order by May 1st. As regarded the Bell Co., he believed it was more satisfactory here than in other towns. The recent change of system would perhaps account for the disruption among the telphones.

Mr. CAHILL advocated signing the contract because the Bell Co. offered them the use of 180 telephones, and the contract was only for a year and could then be dropped. He had alway found the local system satisfactory and Mr. Kent and his assistants obliging.

The report of the committee was adopted.

Mr. MOORE said that he understood this new system was being introduced in order to keep up our standing with the Underwriters' Association, and while they were building their castle of scant with one hand it was foolish to pull is down with another. He noticed that there were a number of frame buildings erected, the past season, within the fire limits, contrary to the bylaw, in spite of the fact that an inspector was appointed for the purpose. He intended to move in the matter later.

THE LICENSE QUESTION.

Mr. Cahill then presented his motion left over from the last meeting, as follows:—

Moved by Mr. Cahill, seconded by Mr. Davidson, and resolved, that this council hereby decide to take no further action to take the high license bylaw to any higher court (the Court of Appeal having decided against the corporation), provided the parties holding liquor licenses admit the validity of the liquor license bylaw of this corporation, for the year 1885, as being now in force; and that the clerk notify the License Commissioners of the action of the council, and request the Commissioners to take steps to refund to the licensees who have signed an agreement to that effect, all money coming to them over and above the amounts fixed by the above bylaw, and the Ontario Liquor License Act.

Mr. CAHILL said he understood the hotelkeepers had signed an agreement admitting the validity of the bylaw.

Mr. MOORE thought that document should be presented to the council.

Mr. W. F. JOHNSTONE, of Fenaette & Johnstone, on behalf of the hotelkeepers, stated that they were willing to make an amicable settlement with the town, and if the council deferred action till the next meeting he was prepared to promise that the hotelkeepers would pay the same license fees as under the bylaw of 1885—$270 and $200 for hotel and shops.

Mr. RUTHERFORD asked that if action was deferred for a week the council might not have time to pass a license bylaw in the proscribed time, by Feb. 4th. He held a new high license bylaw in his hands which however the License Commission could not press if the hotelkeepers chose and others came forward and agreed as these said they would. Mr. Rutherford believed if the high license bylaw suit was carried to a higher court, the town would win. He was not in favor of forcing high license upon the hotelkeepers, but he wanted the hotelkeepers to act at once so that the town would not be left at their mercy.

Mr. KELLY asked who had prepared that bylaw.

Mr. RUTHERFORD—Mr. Edwards, the Town Solicitor.

Mr. KELLY then wanted to know who was to vote for it? The judge's decision in the council case had left the question open.

Mr. Johnston stated that if he was given till the 5th, he would go around and get the hotelkeepers signatures to an agreement to pay $270 and $250, for hotel and shop licenses.

Mr. E. H. D. Hall, Mr. Langford and Mr. Hartley advised giving the new by-law two readings now, so that the council would be in a position to meet any emergency.

Mr. Cahill advocated sending the matter at once, but if there was going to be any trouble over it he would withdraw his motion.

Mr. Moore then presented a document by which the hotelkeepers agreed to pay the sum of $270 for hotel licenses and $250 for shop licenses, admitting also the validity of the by-law of 1885.

Mr. Cahill then moved, seconded by Mr. Rutherford, that the matter in reference to liquor licenses be referred to the License Committee, the said committee to have power to settle with the licensees on the basis proposed by Mr. Cahill's previous resolution, and that if they fail to arrive at a settlement that a special meeting of the council be called for Wednesday night.

MOTIONS.

Mr. Davidson moved, seconded by Mr. Winch, that the Street and Bridge Committee be authorized to advertise for tenders for plank and cedar for the use of the corporation for the current year, and report to the council.—Carried.

Mr. A. Hall moved, seconded by Mr. E. H. D. Hall, that the Fire, Water and Light Committee, confer with the Waterworks Company with reference to the extension of the water mains, and consider the matter of hydrants.—Carried.

THE COUNCIL'S APPROVAL.

Mr. Moore presented the following motion, with a few appropriate remarks reiterating the sentiments voiced below:—

Moved by Mr. Moore, seconded by A. Dawson, and resolved: That the municipal council of the town of Peterborough assembled, place on record an expression of its sense of gratitude to Mrs. Charlotte J. Nicholls for her munificent gift of the farther sum of $35,000 to the endowment of the Nicholls Hospital, thus raising that fund to $50,000; and for the noble and very suitable hospital building erected by her at a cost of upwards of $30,000, now bearing her name, with the beautiful grounds adjoining, which she has dedicated to the benevolent and Christian purpose of relieving the suffering and healing the sick, in the town of Peterborough.

That this council convey to Mrs. Nicholls its appreciation of the manifestation of her great concern for the unfortunate, and of her love to the citizens of Peterborough, among whom she has so long lived, and who will always speak her name with thankfulness and affectionate remembrance, for that God put it in her power and in her heart to do this beneficent act.

That this council feels quite confident it can assure Mrs. Nicholls of the support of the citizens at all times in supplementing the income from the endowment fund, if that may prove insufficient, in order to the maintaining of the Hospital in an efficient and effective condition; and that this council will always co-operate with the Trustees of the fund in doing everything necessary for the permanent safety of the splendid grant made by Mrs. Nicholls for the support of the Nicholls Hospital.

That this resolution be presented, on behalf of the council, to Mrs. Nicholls by the Mayor and the moved and seconder.

The motion was carried unanimously.

THE EXTRA ENDOWMENT.

Mr. MOORE in presenting this motion stated, that Mrs. Nicholls had not yet handed over the $35,000 with which she had promised to endow the new hospital, on account of the lack of security therefor; he believed the following motion would satisfy all requirements:—

Moved by W. H. Moore, seconded by E. S. Davidson—Resolved: That the council of the town of the town of Peterborough, desiring to meet the views of Mrs. Charlotte J. Nicholls, in reference to the Edowment Fund of the Nicholls Hospital, hereby undertakes to receive from the Trustees of the Hospital the $35,000 lately added by Mrs. Nicholls to the Fund, and to allow and pay to the Trustees interest upon the same at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum half-yearly for the same from the date of receipt thereof, and that the town will also receive from her the balance of the said fund, being the sum of $15,000, as soon as the same can be handed over to the town, and will pay interest on the same at the rate of 5 per cent per annum half yearly; the mayor and treasurer being hereby authorized to borrow the said sum of $35,000 at the said rate for public school purposes; and further, that as soon as the necessary authority can be obtained, the town will issue the proper debentures for the said sum of $50,000 in favor of the Nicholl's Hospital Trust, so as to net the trustees of said Hospital not less than 5 per cent per annum interest, payable half yearly.

That the corporate seal of the town be affixed hereto.

Mr. Moore said the five per cent. arrangement was Mrs. Nicholls' wish, and he thought the town should accept the loan for public school purposes in view of Mrs. Nicholls' great charity. It mattered nothing that 5 per cent. interest was asked, because though the town debentures were worth more, still the town was legally bound to maintain the hospital and it amounted to the same thing in the end.

The motion was passed, and the resolutions signed by the Mayor and Clerk.

THE FIRE LIMIT BY-LAW.

Mr. MOORE reverted to a matter he had previously mentioned, the question of permitting buildings to be erected within the fire limits contrary to the by law. He said a building was not yet finished which was in flagrant violation to the law. He moved, seconded by Mr. Rutherford, that the Building Inspector report to this council at its next meeting whether or not there have been any breaches of the Fire Limits By-law during the year 1889; and if there have been any such breaches, that he do give the particulars thereof, and also the particulars of any prosecutions that followed, and if none, full reasons therefor.

There was some discussion concerning the by-law and its enforcement. Mr. Moore and Mr. Rutherford claimed that the Inspector had not done his duty, and they should know the reason why. Messrs. Cahill, Langford, Dawson and others objected to the motion on the ground that if it was passed it would give publicity to the shortcomings of the town's fire system and bring the Underwriters down on them.

Mr. A. HALL said the fire limits by-law was defective, and he moved an amendment, seconded by Mr. Kelly, that the Fire, Water and Light Committee look into the building bylaw, and if necessary recommend any improvement they deem advisable.

The original motion was lost and the amendment carried.

THE ARMOURY GRANT.

Col. J. Z. Rogers and Capt. Hill, of the 57th Battalion, appeared before the council in support of the communication read at the beginning of the meeting. As the county council had refused to grant them anything, they asked the council to pass a resolution granting them $3000, and submit it to a vote of the people, who would either ratify or disapprove of the grant, thus indicating the line of action the council should take. The Government had promised to grant a duplicate amount for the purpose of erecting the armoury.

CAPT. HILL spoke further on the subject and pointed out the pressing need for a new armoury. This town should, he thought, do as much for their city battalion as other towns had done. In reply to a question, Capt. Hill stated that the cavalry troop used one room at the drill shed now.

Mr. LANGFORD favored letting the people speak on the matter.

Mr. RUTHERFORD said it appeared the government would do nothing unless Peterborough did first, and he was in favor of supporting the volunteers.

Mr. MOORE stated he heard the proposed building could not nearly be built for $3,000.

Col. ROGERS replied it could, and Mr. Rutherford said as far as he had examined the plan he believed it would not cost more than that sum.

Mr. MOORE said the action of the County Council was not to their credit; but while he was in favor of bridging the volunteers, it would cost $150 to submit the matter to the people, and they had no guarantee that the town would not be called on for an extra thousand or more before the building was completed. He wanted an assurance that there would be no such possibility.

Mr. HARTLEY asked that proper estimates be made before the by-law was passed, for in his opinion the building it was proposed to erect would cost more than $6,000.

Col. ROGERS stated that the town would not be called upon for its share until the building was completed.

Mr. LANGFORD moved, seconded by M Rutherford, that the town solicitor prepare a by law to be submitted at the next meeting of the council, providing that the sum of three thousand dollars be granted for the purpose of assisting in improvements to the drill shed in the town of Peterborough, on condition that the Dominion Government make a like grant, and that the total expense to the town shall not exceed three thousand dollars.

Mr. DAWSON asked the town clerk what it would cost to put this bylaw before the people, and was told from $100 to $125 Mr. Dawson said it appeared to him throwing money away, as he felt sure the people would vote it down.

Mr. CAHILL said he did not believe the armoury could be built for $6 000 and if a by-law was submitted at all it should be for for $5 000.

Mr. LANGFORD said he thought the volunteers were entitled to have the matter go before the people.

The motion was carried and the council adjourned.

DR. WILFORD HALL'S Health Pamphlet

A Marvellous Triumph Over Disease Without Medicine.

The full knowledge of this discovery, by which all future outlays for medicine or losses from ill health may be avoided, costs but $1, and will last a person for life.

To show the most skeptical reader that this treatment is a genuine remedy for most forms of disease, as well as a real promoter of good health, we will furnish undoubted testimonials, every one of whom may be addressed, with stamp, as to the genuineness and absolute truth of his testimonial.

The distinguished pulpit orator and evangelist, Rev. Miles Grant, Boston, Mass., writes, October 7th: "Touching your wonderful discovery I take much pleasure in saying, I am delighted with its effects upon my system. I sent for it that I might know its influence on a healthy person. I have now used it about three months, and intend to continue its use during mortal life. The treatment produces a general refreshing, invigorating effect,—sharpens my appetite, awakens my sleep, and makes me feel as though I had a new lease of life. I have persuaded several of my brethren of the ministry to send for your Health-Pamphlet, and so far I have heard from them they are exceedingly pleased. One of them said to me a few days ago, 'I would not take $20 for it.—It knocks the bottom out of disease.' I can say for myself I never spent $1 to better advantage than when I bought your pamphlet. Your brother in Christ, MILES GRANT."

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL

TWO-ROWED BARLEY TO BE FURNISHED FARMERS AT COST.

Mr. Bowell Proposes to Smooth the Half-Breeds' Ruffles—The House Spends a Three-Hours' Sitting in Supply—A Few Items Passed.

OTTAWA, Feb. 4.—To help the farmers to carry out the recommendation contained in the experimental farm bulletin issued yesterday, the Government upon the recommendation of Hon. John Carling have decided to expend $25,000 in the purchase in England of the very best two-rowed barley to be used as seed by such as desire to substitute it for the six-rowed variety now grown. The great difficulty in making the change would be in securing proper seed at first, and the Government has thought it well to remove the possibility of failure by importing this large quantity of seed barley. It is not proposed to have a free distribution of it, but all farmers desiring to purchase will be supplied with the seed at the cost of importation.

The House spent three hours yesterday in committee of supply, but only three trifling items were passed. There were some lively passages at arms between the Opposition critics and Hon. Mr. Colby over cab hire and lunches. The House adjourned at 6 o'clock with the statement heard before that there would be a night sitting to-morrow.

Mr. Burdett of East Hastings will endeavor to have passed an act that will kill one of the cleverest swindles ever practised upon the Canadian farmer. Three years ago there came to the counties of Hastings and Prince Edward smooth-tongued gentlemen who proposed to certain selected farmers a capital and easy way to make money. They said: "You buy of us now ten bushels of seed oats at $10 a bushel and we will enter into a bond to buy of you next year 20 bushels at $10, and sell for you all the rest that you raise at $7.50 a bushel, taking 25 per cent. off for our commission." Several farmers bit eagerly, and next year, just before harvest time the agents turned up again as they had promised. Going confidentially to several of their first farmers' neighbors they again discoursed in this way: "You see how Smith will make a nice sum out of his transaction with me last year that I can make you a similar offer now." In this way the first farmers' oats were sold to his neighbors, and the agent would find himself with a large number of good farmers' notes on his hands, which he promptly "shaved." In some cases these scoundrels came back the third year, and might have gone on considerably longer had not the press exposed the swindle. It is calculated that local note shavers hold as the result of these negotiations at least $40,000 in notes that the farmers of these counties will have to pay. Mr. Burdett's bill, which is a copy of an Ohio measure, proposes to make it a criminal offence to sell or offer for sale, to buy or offer to buy, grain seed or other cereals at a fictitious price, or a price equal to or more than twice the market price, for which the person found guilty of the offence may be imprisoned from one to three years or fined from $100 to $500.

The Government have received a petition numerously signed by Quebec merchants asking that Mr. Grandbois, M.P. for Temiscouata, be appointed collector at Quebec.

A large deputation representing the boot and shoe manufacturers of the whole Dominion waited upon the Ministers of Customs and Finance to-day to press for an increase of duty from 25 to 35 per cent. They complained of injury to their business by United States competition. The ministers paid great attention to their complaint and closely questioned the deputation as to the extent of competition and probable effect of the increase asked for. The petition presented was signed by upwards of 40 firms of Quebec, Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, Victoria, B.C., and other places.

After a two weeks' holiday the Senate met at 8¼ this evening. A new member, Hon. Edward Murphy, was introduced by Senators Smith and Ogilvie. Senator Macdonald of British Columbia introduced a bill respecting offences relating to the law of marriage. This is aimed at the threatened polygamy in the Mormon settlement in the Northwest, and provides for heavy fine and imprisonment of persons violating the provisions of the act and their disfranchisement. Senators Smith and Paquet made feeling references to the death of the late Senator Rodier, who died since the last meeting, and the Senate then adjourned just before the arrival of the news of the death of Senator Macdonald of Toronto.

The report of the commission who visited Scotland and Holland to seek improved methods of curing and packing fish is nearly ready for issue. It will be distributed in the fishing districts. Mr. Masson to-day presented a petition from the County Council of Grey asking an increase in the per diem allowance to volunteers who drill in camp.

If a bill introduced by Hon. Charles Tupper to-day becomes law the sawdust nuisance will become a thing of the past except for the damage already done. The Governor-General-in-Council will no longer have power to except any streams from the operation of the act for the protection of navigable waters, and lumbermen who are now throwing sawdust in the rivers will have a year in which to make preparations for otherwise disposing of it.

FORTESCUE.

To this Secretary Tracy replied as follows:

A Fraternal Fraud.

ROCHESTER, Feb. 5.—George Taft was arrested here yesterday charged with defrauding Rochester Lodge 660 F. & A.M. and Kislingbury Lodge K. of P. of money. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months' imprisonment in Monroe County Penitentiary. He has been defrauding Masonic, Oddfellows, Knights of Pythias and Ancient Order of United Workmen lodges all over the country. He gave the names here also of George Marr and F. P. Kellman. He stole the credentials of the last named from Midlothian lodge K. of P. at Temple, Tex., and with this secured admission to the secrets of other lodges. He is wanted in Illinois, Virginia, Ohio and other States.

MURDERED, BUT BY WHOM?

THE JURY'S VERDICT IN THE SPEARS TRAGEDY.

The Pharmacy College Question—A Short Session of the Assembly—False Charge Against a Doctor—Death of Senator Macdonald of Toronto.

TORONTO, Feb. 5.—A month has gone by and old Mrs. Jane Spears' murderer is still at large. Coroner Johnson and his jury, after four or five sittings and examining many witnesses, closed their enquiry at the Police Court last night, the jury returning a verdict of wilful murder against a person or persons unknown.

The council of the Ontario College of Pharmacy held their first session yesterday afternoon in the college building, St. Johnsquare. The president informed the council that he had written to the heads of the various pharmacy colleges in the United States asking that the Ontario College of Pharmacy diplomas be received in those states in lieu of examination. In reply to his communications he had received answers from 13 states. Of these, 10 stated that they would receive the Canadian diploma, viz.: Missouri, New Jersey, Wisconsin, Georgia, Florida, District of Columbia, Illinois, Alabama, Connecticut and North Dakota. As these comprise a population of nearly 16,000,000, he considered that the advantages offered to the college were considerable.

The Ontario Assembly sat for a few minutes yesterday and transacted routine business. The usual supplies pending the bringing down of the estimates were voted. Mr. Hardy introduced a bill governing the working of mines. It is in effect an application of the Factory Act to mines, provides for inspectors, the non-employment of women and children, etc. The Opposition sent up a batch of enquiries in the shape of notices of motion.

County Crown Attorney Badgerow stated to the Police Magistrate yesterday that he believed Carrie McDonald had made a false charge against Dr. Henry Wallwin. He therefore asked that the case, criminal operation, be remanded for a week and the doctor be allowed out on his own bail. The application was granted.

The Equal Rights Association have named Ald. William Bell as one of their candidates for a Toronto seat in the Ontario Assembly.

There was an impressive ceremony at Loretto Abbey yesterday morning when three young ladies, Misses O'Donohue, Leith and Finnigan, formally renounced the worldly life and entered on the religious by taking the veil. The Archbishop presided over the ceremonies, which were witnessed by a large number of the clergy and the sisterhood.

At the meeting of the Separate School Board last night there was much handying of epithets. Trustee Hannessy called Trustee Walsh a liar and the latter replied: "You are a contemptible puppy, sir, and a dirty swell-head." A subsequent challenge to fisticuffs outside was not accepted.

A despatch received from Ottawa last night says that the Minister of Justice has decided not to interfere with the case of Thomas Kane, sentenced to be hanged on Feb. 19 for the murder of his wife. Kane has not yet been informed of the result of his counsel's application. He will be hanged on the same gallows on which William Harvey expiated his crime at Guelph.

Death of Senator Macdonald.

TORONTO, Feb. 5.—Hon. John Macdonald, Senator, died at Oaklands at 9 o'clock last night. His family and pastor were with him as he passed from an unconscious sleep to death. The late Mr. Macdonald was born in Perthshire in December, 1894, came to Canada at an early age, completing his education at Halifax and Toronto. After a varied mercantile career in Gananoque, Toronto and Jamaica, he commenced business on his own account in 1849 in this city and has since built up the large wholesale house which bears his name. In politics he was an independent Liberal, in religion a consistent and earnest Methodist. He was chosen Senator in November, 1887.

Manitoba Coal.

MINGO, Man., Feb. 5.—The first carload of coal from the Turtle Mountain coal fields went through here this week to be distributed at different stations along the line. The coal has been tested at different places, both in stoves and in stationary engines, and burns well, giving out a great heat. One million tons of coal were shipped from the Pennsylvania coal mines to Manitoba last year, which took about $4,000,000 out of this province. Now there has been a bed of coal fully as good if not superior to the Pennsylvania article found only 13 miles southwest of Deloraine at the west end of the Turtle Mountains and 215 miles from Winnipeg. The find is destined to build up the country around Deloraine and give cheap fuel to the whole province, thus saving millions of dollars to Manitoba, besides giving employment to thousands of men. The prospective emancipation from the sway of the Pennsylvania coal barons is hailed with delight here.

"Psycho" Train's Scheme.

BOSTON, Mass., Feb. 5.—The mania for globe trotting has found lodgment in the brain of George Francis Train. George is full of the idea. Eighty days or even seventy days is slow for him. He is certain this mundane sphere can be circumnavigated in sixty, and without wings, too.

"I'll go," he says, "and show the world that I'm not dead yet. Highwaymen, pirates and railway accidents will be overcome and George Francis Train will get around the world in sixty days."

Train's proposed route is via the Canadian Pacific Railway and steamship lines from Boston to Hong Kong in twenty-two days; either via Brindisi or Marseilles to Southampton, and thence across the Atlantic to New York. He declares that he will start next week and on his return in April will build a theatre in Boston. He goes, he says, to advance the interests of American shipping, commerce and trade.

Printers v. Machines.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Feb. 5.—The printers of this city are greatly excited because E. A. K. Hackett, proprietor of the Fort Wayne Sentinel and the Indianapolis Sentinel, has gone to New York to purchase type-setting machines for both newspapers. It is feared by members of the local Typographical Union that these machines will enable the newspapers to dispense with the services of most of their compositors.

Halifax and the Grand Trunk.

HALIFAX, Feb. 4.—The Chamber of Commerce to-day discussed at length the proposal of the Grand Trunk Railway to connect with Halifax. The Chamber unanimously adopted a resolution that it ask the Dominion Government to assist the project in every way.

TRACES OF AN OLD CRIME.

The Shadowing of the Victim of a Murder Found in Ancaster.

HAMILTON, Feb. 4.—Intense excitement prevails in Ancaster and Alberton villages and in the whole Township of Ancaster over the revival of a sensation of twelve years ago. Nobody is talking of much but the "murder," and there is certainly a strong combination of circumstances to justify the belief that an old crime has just been brought to light.

Twelve years ago a negro named George Harris was employed on the farm of R. Phillips, situated between Ancaster and Alberton villages, in the Township of Ancaster. About that time there was some talk of his having had a quarrel with a white man living near by, and it was said that the latter used threatening language towards Harris. Soon afterward Harris disappeared and was never again heard of. His disappearance created quite a sensation at the time and foul play was openly spoke of. The general opinion was that he had been done away with. A search was made for his remains, but without success. Letters were also written and enquiries made from every person who would be likely to know anything about his whereabouts, but all without success. After a time Harris was almost forgotten, but his supposed murder was occasionally talked of among neighbors and the remark was on such occasions generally made: "I wonder will he ever be heard of [illegible] we ever find out what became of him?"

Five or six months ago the farm of R. Phillips was leased to Butcher Passmore. Among the works which Passmore found necessary to be done on the premises was the cleaning out of an old privy vault. Last Saturday was decided upon as the time for the doing of this work, and accordingly men were set to work. They had progressed to a considerable extent when consternation was brought upon them by the announcement that the skull of a man had been found among the matter that had been taken out. An investigation revealed the fact that the find was really that of a human skull with a hole through the sides apparently made by a bullet. The news of the find made Mrs. Passmore quite ill and Dr. Richardson was at once sent for. In addition to attending Mrs. Passmore he took the other affair in hand and had a search made. As the skull had been taken out it was thought that some of the other bones might also be around somewhere too, but none could be found, so the men went on with their work and before long they brought out many of the parts of a human skeleton.

As soon as the skull was found the affair of twelve years previous was remembered and it was surmised that it was that of George Harris, the colored farm hand. When the other parts of the skeleton were found this belief was strengthened. Dr. Richardson made a minute examination of the skull and gave it as his opinion that it was that of a negro. Many persons who had known Harris were called in to see if there was any possibility of identifying the skeleton. The lapse of time it was thought would make that an impossibility, unless there was some very extraordinary means by which the identification could be established. Among others who saw the remains was a Mr. Walker, who thought he could identify the skull on account of some mark.

A more certain means, however, was at last found. It was remembered that just before he disappeared Harris had had a tooth in his left jaw operated upon by a doctor. A search was made and unmistakable signs of the operation were found. Some of the bones of the skeleton were missing and the search for them was continued, with the result that a few more were found. The search is still going on. Of course there was no trace of flesh to be found. Men are at present engaged in trying to get together sufficient information to warrant the holding of an inquest and one will be held when that information is forthcoming. The general belief in the theory that Harris was murdered and his body done away with is now so strong that no person in the section seems to doubt it.

TEN WERE KILLED.

A Construction Train Goes Through a Bridge in Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4.—Heavy rains and floods are reported in Oregon. A telegram from the Dalles states that a construction train with a gang of laborers which left there to work on the track went through a bridge 66 feet high on Sunday. The engine passed over safely but the tender fell on the caboose and killed ten men and injured sixteen. A train with three doctors left for the scene of the accident.

The End of a Drunken Dance.

SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 5.—A number of Polanders, who were celebrating the christening of a child at Megahwood, a mining village five miles from here, last night set fire to Andro Farita's dwelling by upsetting a lamp while they were having a drunken dance. The flames spread rapidly through the building and Michael Swita and Mrs. Joseph Strassen, who were upstairs in a drunken stupor, burned to death. Several others were barely dragged down stairs in time to escape a similar fate. Two children are also believed to have perished in the flames. The fire consumed ten double dwellings occupied by Poles. The loss on the buildings is $10,000.

CAMP 20 WANTS ITS BOOKS.

State's Attorney Longenecker Angry and Refuses the Request.

CHICAGO, Feb. 3.—State's Attorney Longenecker was blazing mad to-day when talking about the "gall" of the representatives of Camp No. 20 in demanding the books of the camp now in the possession of the State. The latest request for the books was made by the attorney for the camp.

"I told John O'Connor, treasurer of the camp, some time ago," Judge Longenecker said, "that he would have to get an order of court, and I will not give up the books without it."

"Then give me the books which you did not introduce in evidence," said the attorney. "I represent a corporation which wants to renew its organization, and these books are necessary."

"No, I will not give them up," was the reply. "Camp No. 20 is a treasonable organization. Its objects are opposed to the laws of the country and I don't propose to help them in any way. You can't have the books."

The Eighth Deadly Sin.

WATERTOWN, N.Y., Feb. 3.—Last Monday evening the family of Thomas Cavanagh gave a party at their home in this city. Father Glenn, pastor of St. Patrick's Church, visited the house and taking the names of the persons present warned them that a law of the church forbade dancing after dark. Some of the guests left the house, but the majority remained. Yesterday at both masses the names of the dancers were read and a statement was made on behalf of Mr. Cavanagh, exonerating him and blaming the wife and daughter, who, it is charged, insisted on continuing the party contrary to the wishes of the husband.

A BOARDING HOUSE DEAD BEAT.

Sent to Jail for Two Months—A Big Eagle Shot Near Hamilton.

HAMILTON, Feb. 4.—William J. Stewart, who describes himself as a sailor in hard luck and obtained $18 worth of board at $3 per week from Mrs. Sarah Howe without gladdening the heart of his landlady by any pecuniary compensation, was to-day sentenced to two months in jail at hard labor, the Police Magistrate remarking that it was a contemptible transaction to defraud a poor woman in such a manner.

At the conclusion of this discussion Messrs. Greenway, Martin (Morris) and Wood spoke on the reply to the Speech from the Throne, Premier Greenway moving the adjournment of the debate.

To-morrow Mr. Wood threatens to bring up his motion regarding the Greenway scandal.

The case will be immediately inscribed for the next term of the Court of Appeals, which will open on March 15. "The judgment was on procedure," says Mr. Girouard, "and not on the merits of the case."

TURNBULL'S

If you should give the days of the week titles [illegible] Saturday would be clothing [illegible] day.

Look at the clothing store news up and down the columns of the papers! Is it not so.

We could pile adjective upon hyperbole—could print with display type the most impossible statement if we choose, but we spare you.

They can all gang their ain gait, while we go on making our clothing business bigger by making it better; the only sure way and we hold our own with the best in quality, style and make with real cheapness. Our boys' Readymade clothing cannot be beaten in style, quality and price.

We had a heavy run on Ladies' Mantles last week. A lot of good goods at Bargain Prices still to select from.

Our 40c. Heavy Canadian tweeds please the eye and pockets of all.

In the name of Jack Frost—Blankets. If we could only tell you all we know of Blankets, it would be good reading. One thing we do know, and don't fear to say is, you will get more good wool and generous size in the Blankets now here at $5, than is generally offered. Blankets at $4 and $3.75 of good medium sizes.

Once more the cheapest stock of Grey Flannels and Cottons is with us. The people carry it off with more industry than ants, which is the best proof that business men have that goods are cheap.

THE LADIES!

A [illegible] which is suffering Canadian Women.

How many of them Neglect Fresh Complexion, Perfect Health and Superb Physical Beauty.

A great London Physician says that he makes a rare and distinct form of nervous disease produced in Canadian women by worry about servants and overwork in caring for the home. This is only too true. It is why we see so many ladies pale, weak, languid, and suffering from headaches and innumerable weaknesses. They cannot stand the strain upon their nervous system. Many of them have found the means to sustain their failing strength, to give color to the cheeks, and new life and vigor to the body, in Paine's Celery Compound. This pure and scientific remedy is especially adapted to the needs of women, and is daily making the most remarkable cures. Mrs. W. E. Cooper, 60 St. Hippolite St., Montreal, was for a long time troubled with nervous headaches, loss of appetite, low spirits, etc. After using the Compound, her headaches disappeared, appetite was good, and her spirits revived.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P.Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and now feels as well as she ever did.

Many a Canadian lady has the same reason to be grateful.

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., MONTREAL.

The Daily Examiner.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1890.

THE greatest tunnel in the world is the new aqueduct which has been built to convey the waters of Croton Lake to New York, and which is to be completed by midsummer. Its total length is thirty-three and one-eighth miles, its flowing capacity 318,000,000 gallons every twenty-four hours, and it cost will be nearly $23,000,000. The amount of brick-work laid in the aqueduct is estimated at 312,258 cubic yards, or about 163,000,000 bricks, which would construct thousands of buildings of very respectable dimensions.

THE Hamilton Spectator has been neatly cornered by the London Advertiser, which points out the inconsistency between the Spectator's attacks on the Ontario Government, and particularly on the Education Department, and its assertion the other day that Hamilton had the best Public Schools in Ontario, and Ontario the best in the world. If the Spectator's statements be true, the credit of it must certainly be due to the Education Department, and to Mr. ROSS as its official head.

Reference was made in the Speech from the Throne at the opening of the Ontario Legislature to the fact that the receipts from Crown lands had exceeded the estimates. The increase is considerable. The estimate was $1,000,000, while the actual receipts were $1,205,000. Of this sum $1,079,000 was from woods and forests and $126,000 from Crown lands, including the fees on mining locations. There has been no sale of timber limits since the great sale of 1887, in which $1,300,000 was obtained in bonuses upon 450 miles of timber. Last year was only a normal or average year, and the fact that in such a year $1,079,000 was received as revenue from timber is very satisfactory.

Women's Work.

There is no end to the tasks which daily confront the good housewife. To be a successful housekeeper, the first requisite is good health. How can a woman contend against the trials and worries of housekeeping if she be suffering from those distressing irregularities, ailments and weaknesses peculiar to her sex? Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a specific for these disorders. The only remedy, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers. Satisfaction guaranteed in every case, or money refunded. See printed guarantee on bottle wrapper. b

In the Political Limbo.

The complete disappearance of the Rose Bible agitation after the elections of 1888 is an incident full of instruction to the honest persons who were deceived by it. It is obvious that if the Rose Bible was a very bad book before December, 1888, it was a very bad book afterwards. It is plain that if in 1886 a book of selections from the Bible ought to have condemned the whole Bible, the same rule applied in 1887. The fact that Mr. Meredith was very badly beaten in 1886 did not alter the quality of the book of selections. Yet, the moment Mr. Meredith was badly beaten, the agitation against the book began to die. Speakers ceased to denounce against it; editors ceased to write against it; no Board of Trustees showed its zeal for the Sacred Word by burning the Sacred Word. The agitation has gone to that bourne from which no played-out political cry returns.

"La Grippe" or Lightning Catarrh

MR. EDITOR,—"La Grippe," or Russian influenza, as it is termed, is in reality an epidemic catarrh, and is called by some physicians "lightning catarrh," from the rapidity with which it sweeps over the country. Allow us to draw the attention of your readers to the fact that Nasal Balm, as well as being a thorough cure for all cases of the ordinary cold in the head and catarrh, will give prompt relief in even the most severe cases of "La Grippe," or Russian influenza, as it will effectually clear the nasal passages, allay irritation and relieve the dull, oppressive headache accompanying the disease. No family should be without a bottle of Nasal Balm in the house, as cold in the head and catarrh are peculiarly liable to attack people at this season of the year, and Nasal Balm is the only prompt and speedy cure for these troubles ever offered the public. Easy to use and agreeable. If you cannot get it at your dealers, it will be sent, post free, on receipt of price (50 cents and $1 per bottle) by addressing FULFORD & Co., Brockville, Ont. ww-w

Teachers' Permits.

It has been the custom of the Education Department to grant permits or temporary teaching certificates to persons who have not obtained regular certificates. This was done to meet the necessities of school sections which could not afford a regular certified teacher, or of schools which required an assistant. The same needs gave rise to the practice of extending third-class certificates. The engagement of unqualified teachers is a necessary evil, and it is satisfactory to know that the number of permits and extensions of third-class certificates is rapidly decreasing. Permits were granted as follows:—1883, 578; 1885, 400; 1887, 226; 1889, 71; while the number of temporary certificates has declined from 210 in 1885 to 87 in 1889. This means better teachers, better salaries, better service.

To Cure a Corn.

There is no lack of so-called cures for the common ailment known as corns. The vegetable, animal, and mineral kingdoms have been ransacked for cures. It is a simple matter to remove corns without pain, for if you will go to any druggist or medicine dealer and buy a bottle of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor and use it as directed the thing is done. Get "Putnam's," and no other. 6dw6

Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using this medicine a short time I was completely

Cured

My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as ever.—Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.

For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.—C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.

From childhood, and until within a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Philips, Glover, Vt.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, three bottles of this medicine, have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendal T. Bowen, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with Scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored, and she can now look steadily at a brilliant light without pain. Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky.

Sixty per cent. of the Goods we sell we buy at less than first cost of manufacture, and hence the reason we make the bold assertion that no wholesale house in Canada can touch our prices. OATMEAL FOOD

OATMEAL is one of the items of daily call in the family.

Rich and poor alike appreciate its value as a palatable and nutritious food.

It is to be found on every breakfast table—or ought to be.

ROLLED, GRANULATED or STANDARD it leads all other competitors in public favor.

Its popularity is largely due to the excellence attained by improved methods of manufacture.

PALATABLE, NUTRITIOUS, CHEAP. The Oat contains all the constituents necessary for the maintenance of high bodily vigor.

It is one of those complex foods which is capable of supporting life and health for an indefinite period.

In the border raids and forays of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, it was held in high esteem—on one side at least—that of the raiders.

The provision carried by a Scottish soldier in those days was simply a bag of oatmeal.

With his good Claymore and Shield, and reinforced by this food, in spite of scant attire and inferior camp equipage, how often did he cope successfully with the haughty Southern and was enabled to rear the backs of the best soldiers in the world.

Happily these days are past and milder and more peaceful times prevail.

But this food is still in the ascendant.

Its demand increases every day.

THE DIAMOND BUTTON

FROM THE DIARY OF A LAWYER AND THE NOTE BOOK OF A REPORTER.

By BARCLAY NORTH.

(Copyrighted, 1889, by C. M. Dunham. Published by special arrangement through The American Press Association.)

"Good afternoon, Mr. Bryan," said the distinguished ornament of the bar.

"Good afternoon, judge," returned Tom as he stopped him. "Judge, I want a woodshed opinion."

The distinguished man laughed.

"They are often the most expensive kind of opinions, even if you do get them for nothing, Mr. Bryan."

"Nevertheless, I'll risk it, with so great an authority. I am on the hunt of a mysterious affair. Not five minutes ago I had a conversation with a man who touches the matter slightly, and I made a remark or two which disturbed him greatly. He was not at all frank or communicative, so I tried to reason it out, and I ran against a legal wall."

"Well, if I can assist I should be pleased."

"Let me put a suppositious case: John Smith marries a woman under the name of Jacob Brown and raises a family of children. He amasses a fortune under the name of John Smith—living a double life—and dies without a will. John Smith is supposed to be childless. Can his children under the name of Brown claim to inherit the property?"

"There is no other or previous marriage of which there is issue?"

"No."

"Well, I should say if the identity of John Smith and Jacob Brown could be established that the Brown children could inherit and the mother take her dower rights."

"Notwithstanding there was an undisputed brother of John Smith claimant to the estate?"

"Yes, notwithstanding there was a claimant in the person of a brother. But you understand that this is an opinion given on your statement of the facts."

"Thanks," said Tom, "I can see through the wall now, and it helps me greatly."

"He moved off. "Ah," he said to himself, "that's what frightens Parker. His little scheme would go to grass if my little romance were true."

With this, Tom dismissed the incident from his mind and set about finding the Shadow. This was quickly done, and Tom dismissed him for the day.

Then he thought seriously about calling upon Fountain, and finally determined to seek him. With Tom, to decide was to act, and forthwith he sought the places where he thought the gentleman was most likely to be found.

CHAPTER XXIV.

HOLBROOK TAKES UP THE CASE WITH RENEWED INTEREST.

HE visit to Flora Ashgrove had brought forth a fact which was of importance, though in Holbrook's mind it did not receive the consideration it was entited to. His mind was fixed upon establishing the lines connecting Fountain and the dead Templeton, and the relation they bore to the dead Pierson.

These lines established, he thought the way to the determination of the mystery would be straightforward and rapid. Hence he gave little thought to the fact that an owner of the diamond button had probably been found.

He did not blame Flora for refusing to yield up the secrets of Fountain, and in fact respected her reserve. He did wish, however, that Tom had not gone to Fountain before the result of his visit to Flora had been known, and his first impulse was to set out in search of his journalistic friend and communicate the facts in his possession. Indeed, it would be so much easier to meet and talk with Fountain after the interview with Flora.

A little reflection told him how useless would be the effort, for he had no knowledge of Tom's plans.

It was now late in the afternoon, and he could do nothing if he returned to his office, so he determined to call upon the Templetons and see if he could not elicit something from them that would point to their connection with Pierson.

He found both ladies in and both unaffectedly glad to see him. He plunged at once into his subject by asking if they had any relatives of the name of Pierson.

Mrs. Templeton was quite sure she had none, and as equally sure Mr. Templeton had none.

On Mr. Templeton's side it was easy of settlement. Her husband, after his uncle's death, whose name was the same, had no relatives in this country, however remote. He maintained a correspondence with relatives of the same name in England and also with those upon his mother's side, of the name of Colchester.

He had visited England a few times during his life, and on two occasions relatives had visited him in this country, but they had returned to their own home.

On the occasion of his death she had received many kind letters of condolence from his family abroad, many from those of whom she had never even heard before, but among them all there was none of the name of Pierson. These letters she had preserved, and if of any use to Mr. Holbrook she would give them to him.

As to her own relatives, she had already told Mr. Holbrook all she knew about them.

Holbrook pursued his inquiries as to her father's relatives. Did she know anything of the brother of her father?

"Very little," was the reply. He had run away to sea before she was born, and all she had heard of him was long after all sight had been lost of him, and after he was supposed to be dead. Evidently he had done something wrong, for the elders took little pleasure in speaking of him, and when they did it was in a tone of relief that he was dead. He had died in her childhood.

Holbrook then said that though they had made little progress in the unfolding of the mystery surrounding the death of her son, yet they were steadfastly at work at it. That while he had thought it best to say little to them about it while they were groping in the dark, they had in their investigation thought, perhaps, a man of the name of Pierson, who had died recently, had been connected with the events.

It was strange, but none the less true, that Tom had failed to tell Holbrook of the report the Shadow had made to him of the scene between the drunkard Preston and Parker. Had he done so Holbrook undoubtedly would have elicited something from Mrs. Templeton which would have put another aspect upon affairs. As a matter of fact, the report of the Shadow had made but little impression on Tom at the time, for his mind then was concentrated upon the task of fastening the crime of murder upon Fountain. Such thought as he did give to it was that, perhaps, a discreet inquiry in that direction might lead up to a discovery of some of Pierson's surroundings, which might help them to an understanding of how Templeton, Fountain and Pierson were connected. And so it was that Holbrook was treading close upon facts of great value without being conscious of it.

However, satisfied that Mrs. Templeton could tell him nothing that could be of value, he dropped the subject, and turned the conversation in another channel.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Mungo," and "Madre E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. Post Office Changes.

The EXAMINER has the authority of Mr. H. C. Rogers, postmaster, for stating that the paragraph published last night relating to changes in the staff of the post office, is not in accordance with the nature of the changes made. Mr. Tebb, who has been in the post office for seven years and is a most efficient employe, has been appointed first clerk and Mr. John Corkery has been appointed a member of the staff as junior clerk.

Sure Cure for La Grippe.

In these days when so many are suffering from the prevailing epidemic, a certain cure would be welcome. The very best course of treatment to adopt, is, after taking the advice of a good physician, to drink nothing except hawley bros. prime tea, the finest brands at the lowest prices kept always in stock. Also the most fragrant coffees and the choicest glassware. Don't forget these facts when you want a cup of the above reviving beverages.

Settling the Licence Question.

The Licence Committee of the town council met the liquor dealers of the town Tuesday afternoon and discussed the arrangement of terms between them. The agreement presented at the council meeting, was placed before the liquor dealers for signature, and all but 2 hotelkeepers signed it, agreeing to pay $250 for hotel and $270 for shop licences, and admitting the validity of the license by-law of 1885. It is probable, however, the two objecting hotelkeepers will be induced to sign the agreement at the adjourned meeting of the committee to be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The Effects of the Weather:

All the bright prospects which were opened out for curlers the beginning of this week, have vanished with the warm weather and from other causes. The Brockville match is off, the eastern curlers being unable to come. In the illness of the umpire, Mr. R. C. Strickland, the contest for the Caledonian medal between Cobourg and Peterborough will probably be postponed for a week or so. Lindsay telegraphed this morning that their ice had "gone to pot," and in consequence the second match of the series had to be declared off. However, Mr. T. P. Attrill takes a rink to Uxbridge to-morrow to play for the trophy.

Three Months in Gaol.

Wm. Hull this morning received sentence for the larceny of a saw from Mr. Jos. Barnard. The magistrate said he intended to be lenient, and had made enquiries for the purpose of endeavoring to find out something good about his character, but he had failed to do so. But Hull was a young man and the magistrate hoped he would reform after his term was served. He sentenced him to three months in gaol at hard labor. The magistrate also warned Mallosky, the Jew second-hand dealer, against buying everything that was offered him, and stated that the law gave him the right to arrest or cause the arrest of any man whom he suspected of offering stolen property for sale.

An Agreeable Remedy.

The Paris correspondent of the London Lancet, writing in reference to the epidemic of la grippe in Paris France, says: "One curious circumstance brought to notice is that those addicted to alcohol do not take the disease. The doctors have therefore recommended their patients to use warm alcoholic drinks. Unfortunately, on the strength of this prescription, the public indulged in these drinks to such an extent, that in three days no less than 1,500 persons were arrested in the streets of Paris for drunkenness. Of this number at least two-thirds stated in defence, that they were simply following the treatment prescribed for influenza." No necessity for sugar-coating a pill like that prescribed by the Paris physicians.

Work of the Wind.

The high wind brought down the electric light apparatus—head, lamp and all—over Water and Hunter streets, and trees were blown down and the few dead limbs stirred from the last gale left like leaves. A cattle farmer had a country made of hedgehogs overturned by a gust of the blast.

Police Paragraphs.

The police are making enquiries concerning the whereabouts of Capt. Macdonald, of town, who has not been seen since a week ago Saturday, when it is thought he left for Lindsay. His clothes are all at his boarding house.

This morning a Smith farmer appeared on the market with a carcass of beef which was not fit for eating. It was badly discolored, and the Chief of cows ordered it to be removed. The farmer admitted that he had killed the cow to save it from death from over-eating.

County Orangemen.

The annual meeting of the County Orange Lodge was held Tuesday night. There was a fair attendance of members. County Master Alex. Hamilton, of Norwood, presided. There was very little business of importance except routine matters dismed of. A resolution was passed instructing the County Master to draft a resolution to the Grand Lodge, with a view to strengthening the hands of Mr. Dalton McCarthy in his work. Considerable discussion took place over the appointment of the new Deputy-Postmaster. Officers were elected as follows:—

The College Guerisette Concert.

Considering the ghastly weather of Tuesday night, there was a good attendance at the fourth concert of the course given under the auspices of the George Street Methodist Sunday School, by the Toronto College of Music Quartette. The programme presented was of high character, and was altogether very pleasantly given. The several soloists, though at first evidently affected by nervousness, gained confidence as the evening progressed, and, therefore, acquitted themselves with greater success—indeed all the performers were greeted with encores, to which they very obligingly responded. All had good voices that showed the effects of careful culture, but it cannot be ear cealed that there is a possibility of too great attention being given to tremolo effects at the sacrifice of clearness of enunciation. The quartette consisted of two sopranos, tenor and baritone, the latter, Mr. F. I. Chambers, who is well known in Peterborough. The following is the programme as rendered:—

PART ONE.

Air....."Angels Ever Bright and Fair". Handel
Miss Donnelly.
Air....."Through the Darkness"....Rosetel
Mr F I Chambers.
Song .. "Jerusalem, Thou that Killest" .....
[Mendelssohn
Miss Johnston.
Air....."Soft Southern Breeze".....——
Mr Gorrie.

PART TWO.

Song....."Jerusalem".....Parker
Miss Donnelly.
Song .. .."Cavalry".....Rodney
Mr Chambers.
Song .....".The Pilgrim".....Adams
Mr Gorrie.
Song....."I Hear Thee Speak".....Cowen
Miss Johnston.
Duet.....".Love Divine".....Stainer
Miss Donnelly and Mr Gorrie.
'God Save the Queen".....Quartette

At the request of the authorities of the College of Music, made without the consent of the singers, the local management provided a pianoforte and secured the services of Mr. Hoover as accompanist, but on the arrival of the quartette they signified their preference for the organ. Therefore, Mr. Parker, organist of St. Paul's, consented to furnish the accompaniments on the organ, which he did with his invariable sympathy and discretion and taste.

An Explanation.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

Would you kindly give me space in your widely read paper, for a few explanations in connection with the police court, Monday 27th, as I was not allowed to give reasons or thoughts in court, for what I had done. In the first place, the magistrate remarked on my unwillingness to put the case into court, but I think no one need be surprised, that a man would hesitate to bring his wife into court, when he knows that a wretch like Beaumont, may escape with the shadow of a punishment, and that he may find a lawyer unjust enough to insinuate things against his wife, that the evidence doesn't justify, and unfair enough to try to bring other members of his family into it, that had nothing to do with it.

In the second place, for harbouring the prisoner after his attempts came to my knowledge. My answer to that is, if I turned him away the morning he committed the offence in the washroom, he might claim his wages for the whole time he was hired, as he might swear in court that he did not do half that was charged against him, and what he did do was only in fun. And I treated him in a way that day, that he might know that I had been told what had taken place. I did not think he would commit any more offences after the unmistakeable way my wife had received his advances. When he did commit the more serious offence in the evening, it opened my eyes to his true character, that he was fit for any wicked deed, the best thing I could do was to let him remain till morning, and his outrageous conduct next day and in the police cell, proved it. On the Saturday he wanted the police to let him out at me.

In the third place, the magistrate remarked on my not telling in court of the morning's offence. In answer to that, I told the police and Mr. Dickson, the magistrate's law partner, of the two assaults, and requested to have the two offences entered in the informatnce. Mr. Dickson told me I could bring the charge for the morning's offence again, therefore I thought it had nothing to do with the last offence and I did not mention it. On the Saturday I saw the Police Magistrate himself, and I told him I had other three charges to lay against the prisoner, and he told me I would have to see the Crown Counsel and it would be as he directed. And the Crown Counsel appeared to think I could make nothing out of the other charges. I supposed he thought if convicted his punishment would be made to run concurrent with the theft of the cap as the other did. The magistrate also remarked on my wife's weakness of mind. It does not give me a very high idea of his own intellect, when he could not tell the difference between a sick woman and a weak-minded one. She was at the worst of the prevailing epidemic.

I do think sympathy for such blackguards as Beaumont is only thrown away. The only punishment to meet his case, is to shut him up in a cell by himself with nothing but his own evil thoughts for company. The Rev. Dr. Douglass in his address on the White Cross Movement, in Montreal, (see Weekly Globe, Jan 17th,) speaks of just such characters as Beaumont, but he forgot to shew up the lawyers they got to defend them in their proper light and the tactics they make use of. All honor to Rev. Dr. Douglass.

A spring medicine is needed by everyone. Winter food, largely consisting of salt meat and animal fats, causes the liver to become disordered and the blood impure, hence the necessity of a cleansing medicine. The best is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Board of Education.

Last Meeting of the Old Board—A Number of Matters Considered—The Financial Statement Brought Down.

The last meeting of the School Board of 1889 was holden new quarters Tuesday night. The room in which they formerly met has been given up to the kindergarten class, and another room left vacant by the removal of a class to the new North Ward School, has been fitted up for use of the Board.

At the meeting Tuesday night there were present Messrs. Burnham, Hill, Wrighton, Hamilton, Boucher, Dunne, English and Dumble. As Mr. Stevenson, the late chairman of the Board, was not entitled to take his seat on account of his resignation, Mr. Peter Hamilton was on motion placed in the chair pro tem.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES.

Dr. BURNHAM enquired who had ordered the new supplies to be put in the North and South Ward Schools.

Mr. ENGLISH said he understood they had been ordered by Mr. Walkis from the Peterborough Book Store, Mr. Stratton telling him Mr. McWilliams had told him to supply the necessary goods, and they had been paid for upon being certified to by Mr. McWilliams, chairman of the Property Committee.

Dr. BOUCHER said that the contract for maps and some other things was given to one firm, and he thought it unfair to buy any of these contract goods from another firm. He did not think the chairman of the Property Committee had done right in the matter.

Mr. W. H. WALKIS said he had ordered nothing. In September he saw Mr. Stratton, and the latter told him he (Mr. Stratton) was to see him about what was required for the North Ward School. Mr. Walkis simply told him what they would need, and he understood the supplies were sent up later. Afterwards he initialled the account.

The matter was finally referred to the Finance Committee.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Messrs. Lee & Thompson in a communication enquired about their contract for the supply of school books.—Received.

Mr. W. H. CLINTON, agent of the Liverpool, London and Globe Insurance Company, asked for a continuance of the insurance policy on the Central school building.—Received.

Central School	320	240
West Ward School	144	100
South Ward School	261	228

Fees collected for January were:—Collegiate Institute $320,00; Public schools $6,00.

EXPENSIVE REPAIRS.

Mr. English read the following:—

Your Property Committee beg leave to report that owing to the many changes necessary in the school buildings during the past year, the expenditure has been unusually large. The amount chargeable to each building is as follows:—

Collegiate Institute	$ 1460 00
South Ward School (new floors and work that was not in Mr. Bogue's contract	220 00
Gymnasium (outfit necessary to comply with regulations	95 00
West Ward School	25 00

The desks ordered for the new school buildings will soon be placed in position. Men from the factory are at present here putting them together and placing them in the South Ward school.

All of which is repectfully submitted.

WM. ENGLISH,
Chairman.

Mr. English further reported recommending that the salary of Mr. Lachcur, caretaker of the South Ward School, be raised to $200; he also recommended that he be paid $15 for extra services.

The report was referred to the Finance Committee.

THE FINANCES.

Dr. Burnham, chairman of the Finance Committee, brought down the financial statement for the year, which is published in full elsewhere in the EXAMINER. The report was adopted and referred to the town auditors.

Mr. DUMBLE suggested the advisability of the Building Committee in connection with the new schools making a report to the Board before the bills are paid. These were such large contracts that the Board should be satisfied that the contracts were properly filled and the new buildings satisfactory. He thought it was due the Board that they should be invited to inspect the work officially.

The CHAIRMAN enquired what was the position of affairs with regard to the South Ward School.

Mr. ENGLISH replied that it was not yet settled.

Mr. Dumble moved, seconded by Dr. Burnham,—That the chairman of the Building Committee be required to furnish a report at the next meeting of the Board concerning the position of the new South and North Ward Schools.—Carried.

On motion of Mr. Dumble, the salary of Mr. Lachcur, caretaker of the South Ward School, was raised to $200 per annum, as recommended in the Property Committee's report.

THE KINDERGARTEN.

Mr. Dumble reported with reference to the kindergarten that the room used for the purpose had been reflcored, calcimined, the shutters removed and new blinds put up, and the interior repainted. Small chairs and tables were also procured, and the teacher was now in possession. The object of the Inspector in recommending the kindergarten, he said, was to assist in the school work by improving the character of of the work; but a new crop of little pupils, from 4 to 7 years of age, had taken possession of the kindergarten room. The kindergarten was intended to relieve the pressure on the other rooms, but the new outside pupils were crowding the older pupils out. The question was should they send these little ones home, or divide the kindergarten education among these little ones and the two lowest classes of the Central School. Should they teach the common school pupils the kindergarten system pure and simple, or mix it with their other education? Should they charge fees for it, and could they afford to teach these outside ones for nothing? He thought not. He moved that the matter be referred to a committee composed of Messrs. Boucher, Burnham, English, Wrighton and Dumble.—Carried.

PUBLISHING THE STATEMENT.

Dr. Burnham moved, seconded by Mr. Hill, that the usual $25 be divided among the town papers for the publication of the financial statement.—Carried.

DRAWING THE LINE.

Mr. DENNE inquired when the North Ward School was to be in running order. It was not right that the children should be deprived of their education.

Mr. DUMBLE said he did not think Mr. Smith would be able to work for more than yet, and as Mr. Walkis, the Principal of the North Ward School, was now occupying his place, he considered it necessary to engage a new teacher for the North Ward School in the meantime.

Dr. BOUCHER suggested that the line between the North Ward and Central Schools should be drawn at once.

After some desultory discussion it was moved by Mr. Dumble, seconded by Mr. Wrighton, that all pupils living north of Antrim street, who are in the first and second books, be required to attend the North Ward School.—Carried.

SICK FURLOUGH.

Mr. Dumble moved, seconded by Mr. HILL, that the Board give Mr. Smith, Principal of the Central School, six months leave of absence,—Carried.

ANOTHER TEACHER.

Dr. Burnham moved, seconded by Mr. Wrighton.—That the Committee on Appointments be authorized to provide another lady teacher for the Public Schools, and to make the most satisfactory arrangements to meet any emergencies.—Carried.

BINDING THE TEACHERS.

Mr. DUMBLE brought up the matter of requiring teachers to sign a contract with the Board, the latter retaining a month's salary as a guarantee of good faith. Mr. Dumble said, after considering the matter, he had come to the conclusion that such a course would be inexpedient and unnecessary. But in accordance with the understanding at the last meeting, he had prepared a contract, the blank form of which he read to the Board.

Request the teachers to give several months notice before leaving.

The matter was left over till another meeting, after some discussion had taken place.

AN UNPLEASANT QUESTION.

Mr. BOUCHER, speaking with reference to Mr. Dumble's communication as Inspector, stated that the Separate Commissioners in view of the first class C. Roper, of Maxwell, it might be necessary to appoint another and school supplies, had decided to give him a policy for $1,000 formerly held by Mr. Cheshire. The latter, however, still held a considerable amount of insurance.

Mr. HILL stated that a paper recommending such a change had been presented for signature, and he had signed it.

Mr. DUNNE said he thought there was a "nigger in the fence" somewhere. It was all back, he said, to consider questions of dividing up the "pap" in this matter. It was unfair to take the business from an old firm for no other reason except that which was given by the Commissioners. Mr. Dumble remarked that he believed Mr. Hill's comments were intended for the Inspector.

Mr. HILL denied the insinuation, and said he had nothing to do with it.

Mr. DUNNE said a paper came to him, and on the strength of representations that Mulholland & Roper were such old ratepayers, he had signed it. He, however, did not know how the insurance was divided, and he asked that the Secretary present a statement of such at the next meeting.

The Board then adjourned.

The New Board Organized.

First Meeting of the School Board of 1890—Chairman and Committees for the Year.

The inaugural meeting of the School Board of 1890 was held at one o'clock to-day. The following members were present and took the necessary declarations of qualification and office:—Messrs. Jas. Stevenson, Dr. Burnham, W. H. Hill, T. E. Bradburn, John Corkery, Peter Hamilton, W. R. Wrighton, W.G. Ferguson, T. Rutherford, Dr. Boucher, H. Dunne, Wm. English and D. W. Dumble.

Mr. W. G. Morrow, sen.-trees., took the chair and stated that Mr. W. H. Hill had been re-elected, and Messrs. T. E. Bradburn, Jas. Stevenson and Jas. Kendry elected Public School trustees; that Messrs. Boucher, McKee, Ferguson and Dunne were appointed High School trustees; that Mr. John Corkery was appointed High School representative of the Separate School Board; and that all new members present had signed the necessary declarations. The secretary requested the board to elect a chairman.

On motion of Mr. Rutherford, seconded by Mr. Dumble, Mr. Jas. Stevenson was elected chairman for the year. Mr. Stevenson briefly returned his thanks.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

The following were appointed a committee to strike the standing committees for the year:—Messrs. Boucher, Wrighton, English, Hill and Dumble. The committee retired and reported as follows:—

FINANCES—Messrs. English, Bradburn, Burnham, Hill and Corkery.

SUPERVISION—Messrs. Boucher, McKee, Hamilton, Dunne and Bradburn.

PROPERTY—Messrs. English, Wrighton, Ferguson, Kendry and Rutherford.

APPOINTMENTS—Messrs. Boucher, Dumble, Wrighton, Hill and Burnham.

ADVISORY—Messrs. Boucher, Wrighton, Dumble, Hill and Burnham.

The Chairman to be an ex-officio member of each committee; committees to elect their chairmen at their first meeting.

Mr. DUMBLE stated that it was thought to make the Committee on Appointments smaller this year as there was a large amount of quiet work to be done which, if the Committee comprised the whole Board, would be left undone.

Mr. RUTHERFORD said that in the past the small Committee was not found to work well, and so it was made to include the whole Board. He did not favor going back again the small Committee, as it had not been satisfactory. He moved that the clause be struck out and the whole Board substituted.

Dr. BOUCHER stated that a small Committee would simplify the work, and they would simply report to the Board, which would then pass upon their recommendations.

Mr. HILL stated that the difficulty with making the whole Board the Committee was that it was hard to get a quorum together.

Mr. Denne seconded Mr. Rutherford's motion.

Mr. DUMBLE said that there was a great deal of private information regarding teachers which could be given before the Committee, but could not be handled about before the whole Board. The committee should be trusted to do the business well.

Mr. BRADBURN enquired, if the whole Board comprised the Committee, who would get the necessary information about teachers when new ones were being engaged?

The Chairman replied that he didn't know, and put Mr. Rutherford's amendment which was lost, and the motion for adoption of the report carried.

SUPPLYING THE VACANCIES.

Mr. STEVENSON suggested that the matter of supplying teachers for the North Ward School should be settled.

Mr. DUMBLE stated that Inspector Tilley was expected here in a few days, and they could then get the benefit of his advice.

The Board then adjourned till Monday night next.

Infantile Mortality.

The Canada Health Journal, noting the "abnormal and enormous death rate amongst children in many of the cities and towns of Canada," declares that this is a standing reproach to the Dominion and demands the passage of legislation which will have the effect of preventing "the great destruction of animal life." It is asserted that these thousands of the little ones who die yearly in Canada (probably not less than ten thousand) do not live under proper conditions. Have they not a right to be protected from the numerous enemies of life? How but through parliament is any remedy to be applied? Simple remedies often do a great deal. Three facts will hardly be questioned by any one, and they will demand the attention of legislators:

1. The infantile mortality in many Canadian cities and towns is abnormally and unusually high.

2. This high mortality may be largely prevented.

3. For the sake of humanity and the prosperity and success of the Dominion, some preventive measures should be adopted and put into practice at the earliest possible time.

The only omission in the article of the Canada Health Journal, and is a serious one, is the failure to give any idea how the people, and especially the parents, can be forced to give children that care and protection which is calculated to prolong life. Clearly there is need of an education on this point. Few parents deliberately injure life by premeditated and cruel conduct. Few neglect, wilfully, any action which is designed to deprive them of the little ones whose presence and growth is an inspiration to them. They may do mischief ignorantly, not criminally. Their faults may be faults not easily got at and certainly not easily corrected. What is to be accomplished by acts of parliament is not apparent to every one, and those who make appeal for law on the subject should define the purpose which special legislation is designed to promote. The rate of mortality among children, can, it is asserted, be lowered. How? That is the question to which the multitudes demand an answer, and with an honest desire to profit by it.

Coughs, Colds, Croup.

Allen's Lung Balsam was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the Lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balsam will prevent it if only taken in time. For Consumption, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the Lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old standard remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balsam, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

THE FRANCHISE ACT.

A BRISK DEBATE ON AN EVER FRUITFUL TOPIC.

Dr. Wilson Demands a Return to the Provincial Lists for Dominion Elections—Mr. Laurier Follows Up the Attack—Sir Hector in Reply.

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—There was a brisk debate this afternoon on that ever fruitful topic the Franchise Bill. It was brought about by this motion, presented by Dr. Wilson of Elgin:

That in the opinion of this House the Electoral Franchise Act ought to be repealed and that it is preferable to revert to the plan of utilising for the elections of this House the provincial franchise and voters' lists.

Dr. Wilson spoke at great length in denunciation of the Franchise Act as expensive and cumbersome. When he took his seat no one on the Ministerial side rose to speak and it looked as if a vote would be taken without discussion. Mr. Laurier therefore rose to taunt the Government supporters about their silence. It seemed, he said, that upon this occasion as formerly they were prepared to vote for the bill but not to give reasons for their vote. The force of numbers would carry the day but not the force of reason. He thought that if the real opinion of the House was expressed it would be that the act had proved even worse than anticipated and was an unmitigated evil. He denounced it as an interference with the rights of the provinces and a menace to the Federal principle.

He held that it was dangerous to depart from the principle of a division of powers amongst the several localities. The variations in the property qualifications showed this. The best judge to determine what kind of real estate should command a vote was surely the local Legislature where the real estate is situated. In the United States it was found that the franchise was different in every state and the same reasons which necessitated variation there applied with equal force to Canada. In his province, for instance, there was a strong feeling against manhood suffrage and although a Liberal of the Liberals he could not say that he favored that principle.

A conclusive proof of the folly of the Franchise Act was that Government were absolutely ashamed to put the people to the expense of carrying it out, and in place of annual revision there had been but two in five years. He thought it could not be too soon removed from the statute book.

In the absence of Sir John Macdonald the House was in charge of Sir Hector Langevin, who very seldom indulges in a long speech, but made an exception on this occasion. He justified the silence on the Government side, saying that they saw no occasion to join in this attempt to renew a debate which had on a previous occasion taken up so much time of the House and had ended in a conclusive endorsation of the measure. Since the act was passed there had been an election held under it and he thought there had been no difficulty; the law had worked well, and if expensive at the beginning, the Government had endeavored to lessen the cost and be thought with success.

He contended there was no proper comparison between the position in Canada and that in the States. Here the Federal executive was directly responsible to the people, but in the States this was not so. No matter how Congress might disapprove of the action of the President or his mode of governing the country, they had no means of removing him but he must rule for his four years. The States prospered under their constitution, we prospered under ours, and it was a happy thing that we were so well suited with our different ways.

If any changes were shown to be desirable this Government, as a progressive Government open to conviction, would like to have them brought forward, but as for the resolution now proposed he had confidence that the House would vote it down by a large majority.

Mr. Paterson of Brant followed with a vigorous denunciation of the Franchise Act and spoke until within a few minutes of 6 o'clock.

Hon. J. A. Chapleau rose to reply to him but both sides of the House cried: "Six o'clock," and the Speaker left the chair, the debate standing adjourned.

After recess when the House reassembled for the first night sitting of the session private bills were in order for the first hour. One bill after another was called until the end of the list was reached but none of the members were ready to proceed. Sir Hector therefore moved the adjournment and the House arose at 8¼.

THE ONTARIO ASSEMBLY.

A 15-Minute Sitting — A Big Shower of Petitions.

TORONTO, Feb. 5.—Yesterday witnessed another short session of the Assembly, but the order paper has begun to fill up, and there will soon be more work to be done. There was a big shower of petitions, among which those from labor organizations figured conspicuously. Mayor Clarke of Toronto presented the heaviest batch of these.

The following bills were introduced and read a first time:

To amend the Public Health Act—Mr Creighton.

To amend the Ontario Election Act—Mr. Whitney.

To amend the Ditches and Watercourses Act—Mr. Waters.

Mr. Creighton moved for an "Order of the House for a return, giving the dates, number of acres, location or other description of each free grant made since the first day of July, 1867, under the authority of section thirteen of the Public Lands Act, with the names of the persons or corporations to whom each of these grants were made, with the purposes for which they were made. Also all correspondence respecting these grants or any other grants applied for under the said section." Mr. Creighton pointed out that no information, so far as he knew, had been brought down on this matter since Confederation, and he thought it was time the House should know something of it.

Hon. Mr. Hardy asked that the date fixed for the returns asked for be extended back 10 years, so that information on the matter in question before as well as after Confederation could be secured.

Mr. Creighton had no objection to this, so long as it did not delay the bringing down of the information asked for.

Then the House adjourned after a fifteen minutes session.

PRIMED WITH LIQUOR.

A Cowardly Attack on a Little Band of Evangelists at Hull.

OTTAWA, Feb. 5.—A board of evangelistic workers announced a few days ago that meetings would be held every Tuesday evening in Hull, Que., commencing last evening. The band was composed of Miss Bertha Wright, accompanied by a number of young ladies, Rev. Francois Roudeau, Alex. Rose, F. Gilbert and Mr. Frappier, a colporteur. On opening the doors of the hall last evening a crowd of about 200 French-Canadians, well primed with liquor, rushed in and filled the place. For a time their interruptions were confined to noises, etc., but on being remonstrated with they made an attack upon the speaker and singers. For a time everything was in confusion, missiles being thrown and blows freely given, but not returned. The young women of the band joined hands and formed a circle around the speakers, and the roughs refrained from striking them, but confined their efforts to separating the little band. In this way they managed to drag Mr. Frappier outside the building, where he was seriously maltreated before being rescued by the police. Mr. Gilbert also had a narrow escape, having in a like manner been dragged outside. Mr. Rose suffered so severely that he remained unconscious for some time. Finally the police managed to clear the hall and took the evangelists to the station, fighting off the crowd with their batons all the way. Some of the young women were badly hurt by the missiles that were thrown. No arrests have

FLOOD AND AVALANCHE.

ELEMENTAL DISASTERS IN THE FAR WEST.

An Oregon City Under Water—Great Havoc Caused by Heavy Rains and Melting Snows—An Idaho Town Buried by a Snow Slide.

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 5.—The town is flooded. Owing to the fact that few business houses took time by the forelock yesterday nearly all the Front-street houses had to clear their first floors. At 11 o'clock this morning Superintendent Campbell gave orders to the bridge officers to permit no vehicles to cross the bridge. Half an hour later the order was made applicable to pedestrians. At 3 p.m. yesterday a drift of 600 cords of cottonwood broke loose and floated down against the dry-house and a few minutes later a building from Oregon City came along and struck in the same place. The dry-house was carried away, containing about $9000 worth of oak and ash lumber. Three other buildings on the factory side are liable to be carried away, placing $15,000 worth of property in danger of total loss.

No trains have arrived or departed since last Saturday. Between Troutdale and Cosneville there is hardly a stretch of 100 yards of track that is not covered with sand. In some cases the earth covers the track to the depth of two feet. The Southern Pacific is dead, and as its southern wires are down there is no means of learning the state of the road. No trains are moving at all. At 3 o'clock this afternoon no pedestrians except those dressed in gum boots could frequent Front-street from Washington to Ash, the water being two feet deep at some points on that street. At Stark-street the east side of First-street was beginning to flood.

The situation of the Canadian Pacific steamer Danube seems to be extremely perilous. She is moored at the wharf just south of the east side approach of the railway bridge with her bow pointed down the street. A great mass of logs and driftwood is lodging against her stern and the mass is increasing. She is right where the terrible current spends its full force on her, and there is no way by which she can be relieved from her situation. Her bow is only a few yards from the railroad bridge and it would seem almost impossible to move her and prevent her from being swept against the steel bridge just below. All afternoon great trees pounded against the mass accumulated at her stern. She is held to the wharf by about 40 lines.

AN UNPRECEDENTED FLOOD.

Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars Will Not Cover the Loss.

JACKSONVILLE, Ore., Feb. 5.—A phenomenal rain storm has prevailed in Southern Oregon since last Friday, which in connection with the melting snows in the mountains has caused the greatest flood known since that country was settled. The damage cannot be estimated as yet, for postal communication is so uncertain and limited that only surmises can be made of the ravages of the water. On the line of the numerous tributaries of the Rogue River many small ranches have been badly damaged, if not ruined, and miles of fencing have been swept away. Much of the finest soil in the lower valley has been washed down to gravel and bed rock, and the spectacle of fields flooded, roads washed out and bridges and culverts demolished is common.

The fertile Bear Creek region has not escaped the visitation. Part of the valley has presented the appearance of a turbid sea for days and communication between its many towns has been almost suspended by the swollen foothill streams. Bear Creek itself has borne along a good deal of wreckage, including fences, outbuildings and even barns and houses, and has wrought much destruction in undermining and sluicing off the deep alluvium that composes its banks.

In the Applegate region there are few bridges left. Many people were obliged to leave their homes for safety. Great damage has been done to the mining interests of the section by the bursting of dams and reservoirs, the breaking and filling of ditches and the loss of flume boxes and machinery. The Oregon & California Railway track in Southern Oregon has been washed away for miles and the roadbed is seriously damaged along the whole line.

There has not been a mail from either the north or south for several weeks. No estimate can be made of the loss to the country in bridges and private property. Hundreds of thousands of dollars will not cover it.

NORTHERN PACIFIC DENIALS.

Railway Officials Vainly Attempting to Conceal the Facts.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 5.—The damage from the snow blockades in Oregon, California and Southern Washington seems about to be followed by a much greater loss by floods. The heavy snow filled valleys as well as railroad cuts and milder weather had begun to make way with the drifts when last Friday an unusually heavy rain set in. It is reported Portland is flooded and entirely cut off from the outside world but the public reports of the Northern Pacific Railway officials indicate otherwise. The city may be partially under water but Northern Pacific trains, it is asserted, are arriving there from the east with comparatively little delay.

From another source it is learned that the Southern Pacific's California line is still blockaded and suffering severely from washouts along the streams, which are rising rapidly from recent rains and melting snows. The latest information from Portland is that the Union Pacific line is again closed, this time owing to heavy rains, melting snow and snow slides along the Columbia river between The Dalles and Portland, where the road suffered so severely two years ago from the same causes.

THE AWFUL AVALANCHE.

An Idaho Town Buried by a Snow Slide—Three Men Killed.

SPOKANE FALLS, Wash., Feb. 5.—The town of Burke, Idaho, in the Coeur d'Alene mining district, was nearly destroyed yesterday by a disastrous avalanche.

Half the business houses are in ruins. Three men were killed and the terror-stricken inhabitants fled to the towns of Gem and Wallace.

Particulars are meagre as the wires are down.

A Lucky Escape.

BRAMPTON, Feb. 5.—This morning as No. 6 G.T.R. passenger train was between Malton and Brampton Newsboy Thornton, with an armful of books, was blown from the train as he was passing between the cars. He was not missed till the train reached Brampton. The engine was sent back to recover what was thought would be a horribly mangled corpse, but to the surprise of the trainmen they overtook Thornton making quick time toward Malton. His escape is miraculous, as the train was on a down grade and running very fast. The only injury received was a severe scratch on the face.

The Charlottetown Sensation.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P.E.I., Feb. 5.—Mrs. Sutherland is a little better and may recover. Mrs. Weeks is still too ill at St. John to be brought back. She indignantly denies all complicity in the crime and expresses her willingness to return. She is a dashing young widow of 28, lived opposite the Sutherlands and was on terms of intimacy with Mr. Sutherland. The night she left the city the telegraph wires were cut.

Sheep Breeders in Council.

ROCHESTER, Feb. 5.—The Standard American Merino Sheep Breeders' Association held its annual meeting here to-day. The following scale of points was adopted: Rams must weigh 110 pounds in carcass, clip 25 pounds of wool and scale 75 points to be standard. Ewes must shear 14 pounds of wool and weigh 70 pounds in carcass. They can be scaled or not as the breeder desires.

TORONTO TOPICS.

"Roly" Moffatt Held for Trial on the Forgery Charges.

TORONTO, Feb. 6.—The Police Court was crowded yesterday, principally with town acquaintances of "Roily" Moffatt, who appeared in the dock to answer the charges of embezzlement and forgery preferred against him by the Ontario Bank. The first charge was that on July 24 Moffatt inserted in the bank books the figures "$7505.41" instead of the sum of "$7705.41." Frederick Carmichael, a clerk in the Bank of Montreal, whose duty it was to consolidate the amounts due to the Ontario Bank, gave formal evidence. So did G. C. Cassells of the same bank and H. D. Carr of the Ontario Bank. Mr. Laidlaw said he was content to have a prima facie case made out and would not object to Moffatt being committed for trial. The charges would be fought in another court. The next charge was that on July 10 last Moffatt entered the sum of "$14,-603.64" in the ledger of the Ontario Bank instead of "$14,609.64." The evidence in this charge of forgery was of a similar description to the previous one. The Magistrate said that he considered a prima facie case had been made out and he committed the prisoner for trial on each charge. It was now 4 o'clock, and as there were several other charges of a similar nature to be preferred against Moffatt an adjournment was made until to-day. The charge against William H. Godwin of embezzling a check for $300 was read. Godwin pleaded not guilty and elected to be tried summarily. Mr. Bigelow stated that Godwin had straightened his books as soon as he was called on to do so and submitted that he had committed no offence, as he had paid back all the money he owed. The Magistrate said the prisoner was not free from guilt if when afraid of being found out he made the bank restitution. Mr. Badgerow: "The prisoner's plea has taken me by surprise. I thought Godwin was going to plead guilty." It was then arranged between the parties that all the charges against Moffatt should be first disposed of before that against Godwin was gone into.

The Ontario Bank's solicitor, Mr. Walter Barwick, yesterday amended the claims against W. A. Lee & Co. and J. D. Oliver as to the amounts sued for. In the former suit the claim of the bank against Lee & Co. has been changed from $47,000 to over $77,000, and the claim against Oliver has been reduced by about $400. These suits arose out of the alleged misdoings of Moffatt, Godwin and Brown.

When Murderer Kane was informed yesterday that the law would take its course in his case he showed no signs of emotion but quietly remarked; "All right; I didn't expect anything else. I'm prepared to die." Preparations for the execution will be made in the course of a day or two. The scaffold has already arrived from Guelph, the one on which Harvey was hanged. The date of execution is next Wednesday.

A writ was issued at Osgoode Hall yesterday for $5000 for alleged breach of promise of marriage. The action is brought by Miss Mary White of the West End in this city against Peter Hughes, the proprietor of a livery stable at 13 Beverley-street. The defendant was seen by a reporter last night to whom he stated that he would certainly fight the action out if brought into the courts. He characterised the alleged cause of action as entirely false and added that if brought into court it would only create a laugh.

Lillie Clarke, the girl who skipped to Whitby last week from her home in Gore-street, was sent back to her friends in the city on Tuesday. While en route for Toronto she succeeded in again making an extraordinary disappearance and up to date has not been heard from.

Michael Curran, 28 Carr-street, reported to the police yesterday that his 10-year-old daughter had been missing since Tuesday last.

On the blotter in St. Andrew's Market Police Station last night appeared this entry; "John Doutrey, aged 18, Canadian, address 55 Brant-street, arrested on warrant for non-support of wife." It would appear that Doutrey had taken the fatal step somewhat too early in his career.

TINKERING WITH A TREATY.

The United States Senate Discussing Samoan Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—In the Senate's executive session to-day the Samoan treaty came up again. Mr. Edmunds introduced a resolution yesterday declaring it to be the understanding of the Senate that the rights of the United States to the harbor of Pago-Pago, ceded by Samoa in the treaty of 1878, were not disturbed by the Berlin treaty of 1889. This resolution was discussed for an hour or more to-day, friends of the treaty arguing that it was unnecessary and that its passage would only complicate matters. The vote on a motion to table the resolution disclosed the fact that no quorum was present and the Senate then adjourned. There was a large majority in favor of laying the resolution on the table. A motion made yesterday to reconsider the vote by which the treaty was ratified was not acted upon.

Uncle Sam Congratulates Brazil.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The House held only a brief session to-day. No business was transacted, the members desiring to attend the funeral of Mrs. and Miss Tracy.

In the Senate Mr. Sherman, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, reported the following joint resolution, which was placed on the calendar: "Resolved, that the United States of America congratulates the people of Brazil on their just and peaceful assumption of the powers, duties and responsibilities of self-government, based upon the free consent of the governed, and on their recent adoption of a republican form of government.

The Railway Convention.

OSHAWA, Feb. 4.—At the regular monthly meeting of the Town Council held last evening the Railway Committee of the Council were empowered to appoint delegates to attend the convention of representatives from the surrounding towns when called to discuss the question of better railway facilities.

Whitefish Fry for Lake Ontario.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—The United States Fish Commissioner yesterday sent between four and five million whitefish fry for planting in Lake Ontario at Sackett's Harbor, Claremount and Black River bays.

CANADIAN AFFAIRS DISCUSSED IN LONDON.

The Cabinet Electioneering the Queen's Speech—Proposed Increase of the French Navy—Opposite Williams at the Funeral of the Kaiserin.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—The directors of the Bank of British Columbia state in their report that owing to the new branches recently opened there has been a large increase in the bank's operations generally. They decided to recommend an increase of the capital to the extent of £150,000 sterling and the declaration of a dividend at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, with a bonus of 3 per cent.

There has been some talk on 'Change the last day or two concerning the cable rumors of the construction of a line of railway to the Pacific Ocean north of the Canadian Pacific and connected with the Northern Pacific, but the scheme is generally regarded as visionary.

The French Navy.

PARIS, Feb. 5.—Admiral Krantz, Minister of Marine, proposes important additions to the French navy for next year. His plan includes the construction of 75 new craft, of which there will be 10 heavy ironclads, 11 cruisers of various classes, 2 torpedo cruisers, 1 torpedo despatch boats, 1 other despatch boat, 2 gunboats, 19 seagoing torpedo boats, 15 first-class torpedo boats.

Elaborating the Queen's Speech.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—The Cabinet Council at two hours to-day elaborating the Queen's speech.

The French, German and Austrian ambassadors all had interviews with Lord Salisbury.

Lord Salisbury has arranged for the immediate occupation of the Mahalolo country and the Shire River district.

The Kaiser as a Labor Reformer.

BERLIN, Feb. 5.—Emperor William, in a rescript to Prince Bismarck, refers to his desire to ameliorate the position of the workingmen. He desires that the ambassadors of France, England, Belgium and Switzerland shall be officially asked whether their Governments are disposed to come to an international agreement with Germany with a view to meeting the needs and wishes of workmen as revealed in the recent strikes and labor disputes. When the principle of the Emperor's proposal is accepted Prince Bismarck is empowered to invite all the nations interested to attend a labor conference.

THE ANCASTER MYSTERY.

Who Was the Murdered Man?—Carelessness with Firearms.

HAMILTON, Feb. 5.—There have been no fresh developments regarding the mystery of the gruesome find on Ed. Passmore's farm, beyond the fact—which seems to be pretty well established—that it cannot be the skull of James Harris, to whom it was at first supposed to belong. He was drowned at Buffalo. Dr. Richardson, however, is confident that the skull is that of a negro, and he is equally confident that the man on whose shoulders it once rested was murdered. The hole is directly in the centre of the crown, and must have been made while the skull was green. It is such a hole as would have been made by a bullet of No. 29 calibre.

John Meinks, 16 Nightingale-street, has reported to the police that a rifle ball was fired through a window in his house last night, falling at the feet of his daughter, who was sitting at the piano.

Joseph Pittman, formerly of Toronto, has withdrawn his action for slander against William Stroud of this city.

Thomas Sharp, lunatic, escaped from the asylum yesterday.

A DYNAMITE PLOT.

Discovery of an Infernal Machine in the Capitol at Washington.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—A Washington despatch to The Evening Sun says: A startling discovery was made at 2.30 this afternoon in the rotunda of the Capitol. Concealed in one of the spittoons was found a small box about the circumference of a silver dollar and an inch thick. It was filled with a dull-looking compound with a cap attached and something that was apparently designed for a fuse. The box was taken charge of by the Capitol police and the captain of the watch experimented with a a minute quantity of the contents. The results showed that they consisted of explosives of a high power. The design of depositing the box in the rotunda is yet a mystery.

THE PRAIRIE PROVINCE.

Adoption of the Address in Reply to the Speech from the Throne.

WINNIPEG, Feb. 5.—In the Legislature this afternoon the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne was taken up clause by clause. When the clause intimating changes in the school law was reached Mr. Prendergast moved in amendment:

"That whereas secular schools were repugnant to the religious character and convictions of the people, and whereas separate schools were given under the constitutions, that clause be amended by adding: The total abolition of separate schools would be a gross infringement on the constitution as well as an injustice to the Catholic minority and that a secular system of education would be contrary to the spirit of this Christian country."

The amendment was lost and the clause carried, 25 to 8, the other members of the Opposition refusing to vote against it on the ground that the Government had not announced its policy regarding separate schools and that it was customary to pass the address as a matter of form.

The U.S. Judiciary Centennial.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The dinner in celebration of the Supreme Court's Centennial was held to-night at the Lenox Lyceum. The banquet hall was a mass of flowers and vines and presented a beautiful picture. A dozen large tables were arranged in various positions about the hall and each was decorated with handsome Japanese vases filled with fragrant flowers. Covers were laid for 800 guests and nearly every seat was occupied. Ex-Minister Phelps made the speech of the evening. Amongst those present were Chief Justice Fuller, ex-President Cleveland, Senator Evarts and Chauncey M. Depew.

A Messenger from the Skies.

GRANBURY, Tex., Feb. 5.—A meteor fell on the larger of the two Comanche peaks the other night. It came on an incline of about 45 degrees and struck the edge of the peak, knocking huge boulders into the valley. It came from the south. It was very bright, fairly illuminating the peak as it fell. The celestial visitor bounded down the mountain side, barely missing Major Torres' house at the foot of the peak. The meteor weighs several tons. Fragments brought in by those who went to see it contain nuggets of what is believed to be gold.

Losses Caused by Flames.

VANCOUVER, B.C., Feb. 4.—The Government reduction works were completely destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $25,000. The works were established in the Centre Cariboo mining district by the Local Government last summer for the purpose of testing British Columbia ores, were completed in November and their operations were very successful. It is thought that the Government will rebuild at once.

An Ice Dam Threatens Atchison.

ATCHISON, Kan., Feb. 4.—Heavy ice has formed above the city in a narrow place in the river and almost the entire volume of water backed up so that it was forced through the government works constructed on the Missouri as a protection to the city. The current is rapidly cutting this away. Unless the ice dam breaks the government works, costing $60,000, the railway bridge and the town of East Atchison will be at the mercy of the river.

Commencing on SATURDAY,

THE LADIES!

A Live and Rivalled Town of Women which is suffering Canadian Weapon.

How some of Them Regained Fresh Complexion, Perfect Health and Superb Physical Beauty.

A great London Physician says that he notes a new and distinct form of nervous disease produced in Canadian women by worry about servants and overwork in caring for the home. This is only too true. It is why we see so many ladies pale, weak, languid, and suffering from headaches and innumerable weaknesses. They cannot stand the strain upon their nervous system. Many of them have found the means to sustain their failing strength, to give color to the cheeks, and new life and vigor to the body, in Paine's Celery Compound. This pure and scientific remedy is especially adapted to the needs of women, and is daily making the most remarkable cures. Mrs. W. E. Cooper, 60 St. Hypolite St., Montreal, was for a long time troubled with nervous headaches, loss of appetite, low spirits, etc. After using the Compound, her headaches disappeared, appetite was good, and her spirits revived.

Annie Gourley, of River Beaudette, P.Q., found the Compound a certain cure for weakness, and new tone as well as the ever did.

Many a Canadian lady has the same reason to be grateful.

Paine's Celery Compound can be purchased at any druggist's for one dollar a bottle. If he should not have it on hand, order direct from WELLS, RICHARDSON & Co., MONTREAL.

THE "MAIL" MASQUERADE.

For some time the Mail has posed as an "independent" newspaper, though they who looked below the surface could not resist the conclusion that the Mail was still the senior organ of the Conservative party, and that its apparent "independence" was a matter of tacit understanding between the parties concerned. Recent events have not lightened the impression of such an understanding. Its secret annexation plotting at Washington to accomplish what the Tory policy earnestly desires to see accomplished, namely, the discrediting of Unrestricted Reciprocity, shows that it is working with its old time associates, and its recent espousal of Mr. Meredith's cause, does not indicate any lukewarmness on the part of the Mail for the Tory cause in Ontario. But the strongest proof that the Mail is, in spite of ostensible indications to the contrary, in sympathy with the Dominion Government, is the fact that it is the largest recipient of Government pap of any Conservative newspaper in the Dominion, in the way of advertising. From the Auditor-General's Report, it is learned that last year the Mail received from the Dominion Government, for advertising, the snug sum of $2,764.26, over a thousand dollars more than the dyed-in-the-wool and recognized Tory organ, the Toronto Empire received. The advertising loot of the Empire amounted to only $1662,70, while the Montreal Gazette, a former favorite in the matter of pap, got only $1689,55 worth of advertising. Now the essence of the loyalty to its party of a Tory newspaper, is considerations of spoil. If the Mail were really "independent" as it professes to be—if it meant the "damning, with faint applause," it bestows on the Dominion Government as a sample of its alleged hostility, it would neither accept, nor would it be offered, government patronage to almost double the extent which the recognized chief organs of the party receive. The Mail is still playing the Tory game, its pretence of independence is assumed for the sake of effecting a diversion in the hope of weakening the ranks of the Liberal party, and no Liberal who thinks the matter over will be deceived by this journalistic masquerade of the Mail—this political wolf in sheep's clothing.

BEER VS. BEEF.

"SIR JOHN appears to regard the manufacture of whiskey as an industry better deserving of encouragement than the raising of stock." Thus the Globe in respect to the fate of Dr. Landerkin's motion in favor of a rebate to farmers who import corn and export cattle fed with the corn, because distillers who import corn and export whiskey—the product of the corn—are allowed a rebate, which was voted down by a small majority. Hon. Mr. Bowell defended the principle of rebates to manufacturers, and put in the pitiful plea that the farmers had not asked for a rebate on exported beef. Mr. Corby urged that the rebate to distillers was "only a little one." In the course of the debate the point was made that many raw materials are admitted free of duty for the use of manufacturers, but nearly everything the farmers have to buy is taxed. This explains, suggests the Hamilton Times, why general trade is dull, why mortgages multiply, why values of farm lands decline, and why the exodus to the United States continues. There should be no tax on corn, and then there would be no need for a rebate. There is too much patchwork about the tariff. One evil is adopted to cure another. A Peel and a Gladstone are needed to relieve industry by wiping out unnecessary and injurious Canadian customs duties. Under free trade our farmers would prosper, and with prosperity on the farms the towns and cities would not be badly off.

WEDNESDAY was settling day among the business men of the Province. Contrary opinions exist as to the outcome. Some of the banks report that settlements were pretty good, but the wholesale men say a good deal of the paper was taken up only to be renewed. A few days will tell the result.

IN the death of Hon. Senator John Macdonald in Toronto, the city, not only, but the province and the country at large, suffer a great loss. He was a large scaled philanthropist and an acknowledged leader in every work of moral, social and religious reform. He was a tower of strength to the Methodist church, and his benefactions in the interest of that communion will form no small contribution to its history. A great man and a good man has passed away who richly merits the application of the benediction of Holy Scripture—"the memory of the just is blessed."

THE New York Sun recently published a list of ninety-two enterprises entered into by English capitalists since May, 1888. The total capitalization of these investments amounts to $305,000,000. The stock of many of the companies formed is chiefly water, yet it is estimated that $60,000,000 of English cash has come to this continent within a year. Breweries are a favorite investment, and $35,000,000 worth of shares in American brewing companies have been marketed in London. The confidence which English investors have in the future of beer may be judged from the fact that the ordinary stock in Guinness' brewery is now quoted at 325, though its dividends are but twelve per cent.

Ontario's Educational System.

The educational system of Ontario is evidently accomplishing one of the main objects of education; it is making the people of Ontario a reading people. Since 1883 the number of volumes in the libraries of the Mechanics' Institutes has increased from 150,000 to more than a quarter of a million, while the issue of books has increased from 211,000 to 376,000. In Toronto and several other places the Mechanics' Institute has given place to the Free Library, a plant of recent and enormously rapid growth. In six years the number of readers has grown from 716 to nearly 20,000, the number of volumes in the library from 3,782 to 23,000, and the number of volumes issued from 10,845 to nearly 445,000—the increase in each case being over forty-fold. The number of members and readers of Mechanics' Institutes and Free Libraries has in six years grown from 12,672 to nearly 20,000, and the total yearly issue from Free Libraries and Mechanics' Institutes is now more than 800,000. Pessimists will, of course, make the usual howl about people reading fiction, and leaving voyages and travels, science and history, to grow dusty on the shelves. But if the novels are fairly well selected they are much better mental food than the "bald, disjointed chat" of every-day life."

Good wheeling.

The changeable weather causes a good deal of sickness, colds and influenza, but no fatal results. Dr. Thompson is on the road night and day attending cases of la grippe; both the other doctors have been victims.

Dr. T. A. Mullarney of Peterborough, visits this place regularly every Monday, on the 1st of each month, and is bound to do a good practice.

David Arnott, tinsmith, is doing a good business. He, with all the members of his family, have been down with the grippe.

Mr. Walter Redpath has resumed business in the foundry here and is bound to work up a good trade, having the confidence of the community as an honest, straightforward man.

The town is exceedingly quiet and farmers go regularly to the Peterborough market for larger prices.

Douro Council.

Council elect for the year 1890, met at the town Hall Douro, Jan. 20th. John Moloney, Reeve; Edward Foley, Wm. Garbutt, Robt. Allen and John M. Walsh, councillors, took the necessary declarations of qualification and offices. Minutes of last meeting read and signed. Officers appointed—Maurice Condon and Henry Reid, jr. Auditors; Collector, Patrick Ryan; Assessor, Wm. Condon; Bylaws were passed confirming the above appointments. Mrs. George Town's taxes were remitted, amount $2.56. Orders drawn on Treasurer for Matthew Sullivan, $2.00; Trustees of S. S. No. 5., $3.57, being balance of debenture rate due said S.S. On motion of Mr. Foley, seconded by Mr. Walsh, Edward Foley was elected Deputy Reeve. After some minor business the council adjourned till the 24th day of Feb.

Women's Work.

There is no end to the tasks which daily confront the good housewife. To be a successful housekeeper, the first requisite is good health. How can a women contend against the trials and worries of housekeeping if she be suffering from those distressing irregularities, ailments and weakness peculiar to her sex? Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a specific for these disorders. The only remedy, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers. Satisfaction guaranteed in every case, or money refunded. See printed guarantee on bottle wrapper. b

To Cure a Corn.

There is no lack of so-called cures for the common ailment known as corns. The vegetable, animal, and mineral kingdoms have been ransacked for cures. It is a simple matter to remove corns without pain, for if you will go to any druggist or medicine dealer and buy a bottle of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor and use it as directed the thing is done. Get "Putnam's," and no other. 6dw6

Would Not Do Without It.

SIRS—We have used your Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam for severe coughs and colds and can recommend it to be just what it is represented to be. We would not be without it. H. Sabine, Cataract, Ont. 2w6d

FOR years I suffered from dyspepsia in its worst forms, and after trying all means in my power to no purpose, friends persuaded me to try Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, and after using five bottles I was completely cured. Niel McNiel Leith, Ont. 2w6d

The Candid Truth.

I Used Hagyard's Yellow Oil this winter for the first time for croup and I must say I find no better remedy for it. Minnie Reed, Listowel, Ont. Yellow Oil is a specific for croup and sore throat; it never fails. 2w6d

THE CARE of the hands is a matter no lady should neglect. When chapped, apply Parisian Balm at night according to directions on each bottle. Parisian Balm is delightfully perfumed, and is unequalled for Cracked Lips, Roughness of the Skin and Chapped Hands. Sold by druggists. dw

THEY MAKE ONE FEEL as though life was worth living. Take one of Carter's Little Liver Pills after eating; it will relieve dyspepsia, aid digestion, give tone and vigor to the system. dw

THERE is no better remedy for worms of any kind in children or adults than Dr. Low's Worm Syrup. dw

SKIN DISEASES are most annoying because so noticeable. Dr. Low's Sulphur Soap heals and cleanses the skin. dw

Sore Eyes

The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

Scrofula, which produced a painful inflammation in my eyes, caused me much suffering for a number of years. By the advice of a physician I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using the medicine a short time I was completely

Cured

My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I am as well and strong as ever.—Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.

For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine has effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.—C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H.

From childhood, and until within a few months, I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and consider it a great blood purifier.—Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.

I suffered for a year with inflammation in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was finally induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, three bottles of this medicine, have been entirely cured. My sight has been restored, and there is no sign of inflammation, sore, or ulcer in my eye.—Kendal T. Bowman, Sugar Tree Ridge, Ohio.

By Taking

My daughter, ten years old, was afflicted with scrofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third bottle her sight was restored, and she can now look steadily at a brilliant light without pain. Her cure is complete.—W. E. Sutherland, Evangelist, Shelby City, Ky.

OATMEAL FOOD

OATMEAL is one of the staples of daily call in the family.

Rich and poor alike appreciate its value as a palatable and nutritious food.

It is to be found on every breakfast table—or ought to be.

ROLLED, GRANULATED or STANDARD it leads all other competitors in public favor.

Its popularity is largely due to the excellence attained by improved methods of manufacture.

PALATABLE, NUTRITIOUS, CHEAP. The Oat contains all the constituents necessary for the maintenance of high bodily vigor.

It is one of those complex foods which is capable of supporting life and health for an indefinite period.

In the border raids and forays of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries, it was held in high esteem—as second to none—that of the raids.

The provision carried by a Scottish soldier in these days was simply a bag of oatmeal.

With his good Claymore and Shield, and reinforced by this food, in spite of scant attire and inferior camp equipage, how often did he cope successfully with the haughty Southern and was enabled to see the backs of the best soldiers in the world.

Happily these days are past and milder and more peaceful times prevail.

But this food is still in the ascendant.

Its demand increases every day.

But Annie, who was sitting at the window engaged in embroidery work, and making a very pretty picture as she sat there, remarked that she was glad the search was being continued, for though they had heard little about it recently, they were greatly interested in it.

Holbrook, who thought there was something of gentle reproach in the words, said:

"The truth is, Miss Templeton, nothing has been accomplished. For ten days we have been under the impression that we could lay our hands upon the man, but this morning we discovered that the man in question could not have possibly done the deed. We hardly dared to admit to ourselves our suspicions, and I should have been greatly to blame had I raised false hopes in your breast or had I pointed to a suspicion that could not be justified. Rest assured that everything is being done that can be done to uncover the mystery."

"Oh!" said Annie, covered with confusion and blushing very prettily, "I had no intention of complaining. Indeed we are really too much obliged to you for the trouble you have taken in our affairs to criticise or to complain."

During this exchange Holbrook had moved from his chair in the middle of the room, where he had been conversing with Mrs. Templeton, and taken a low, easy one near the window where Annie sat.

Mrs. Templeton had turned to the table and had resumed the writing of a letter she was engaged upon when Holbrook entered.

The young lawyer was already on such familiar footing that he was regarded not as a stranger to whom the most scrupulous attention must be given, but rather as an intimate who was best treated when received with informality.

In answer to Annie's reply to him he said:

"I do not think, Miss Templeton, that anything which might concern you or yours would be too much trouble for me."

The blood crept up into Annie's cheeks again, and bending over her work she said nothing.

Holbrook himself had nothing to say, and he sat for some time toying with the end of the embroidery falling from her knee. Finally he said:

"Do you know that I have experienced great pleasure in my calls here—pleasure of a kind it has not been my lot to experience for several years?"

Annie looked up wonderingly.

"I sincerely hope you do find pleasure in your visits here, and it is pleasant to hear you say so, but I do not quite understand you."

"Why not?"

"Oh, your words seem to convey a meaning they do not express clearly."

"Perhaps they do. You know, of course, that I am a bachelor. Well, I have, ever since I came to the city, twelve years ago, lived in a hotel. It is now eight years since my mother died, and the home of my childhood, to which from time to time I returned, was broken up. Since that time, this household has been the only place I have visited where I have been treated with that informality I crave, and where the occupants pursue their work as my mother used to do. It is eight years and more since I have been permitted by any woman to sit so near and play with her work as I do now, and as I used to do sitting beside my mother."

Annie was provoked with herself as she felt the blushes mantling her cheeks, for she had noted the tone of tenderness which underlay his words. To blush was to assume that this tenderness was directed toward herself, when his words conveyed nothing of the sort, and when without doubt only the recollections of his mother and his home had been stirred by entering their domestic circle. She made an effort and replied:

"It is a pleasure, then, at a very small cost, I am sure, Mr. Holbrook."

"A pleasure I duly appreciate."

"Was your mother a widow?"

"Yes. With but two children, a sister and myself. My sister is married and lives abroad—her husband occupies a diplomatic position."

"It is hard to lose one's home. It must be. I do not think I could content myself to live for all time as we are now. I want a home of my own, which I can deck and beautify my own way."

"I think you, yourself, would beautify any place however bare, and make it home, Miss Templeton."

This was direct enough, and the blush swept up again over her face. Holbrook did not wait for a reply, but continued:

"It is woman who makes the home. Men may erect a house, fill it with costly furniture and beautiful works of art, yet it is only an abiding place. Until some woman graces it with her presence and her life it does not become home."

Annie looked up archly and said:

"If you appreciate a home so much, Mr. Holbrook, why do you not obtain one for yourself?"

Holbrook looked at her steadily, and with not even the suspicion of a smile on his face, replied:

"Sometimes the heaven we most desire is not attainable. But I propose to attain mine if I can by earnest endeavor. It is only within a short time that my heaven has been shown me, and when the time is meet I'll put my fortune to the test."

Then without permitting reply he quickly said:

"Come, Miss Templeton, the day is fine, the air good and you have been much housed of late—come with me for a short walk. I'll bring you back to your mother in time for dinner."

Annie willingly acceded, and ran away to prepare herself for the walk.

As she walked and chatted with him freely and with more gayety than she had ever shown him before, she was happier than she had been since her brother's death, and she was surprised to find how bright the day was and how joyous a time the autumn could be.

And Holbrook thought it a rare day—one in a thousand.

Keene.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

It is with deep regret that we chronicle the sudden demise of the late Mrs. John Stark, who passed away very suddenly on Wednesday, January 29th, at ten o'clock, in the 76th year of her age. She was taken ill on Friday with what she thought only a cold, but which proved to be this prevalent disease, la grippe, and on the following Tuesday was so bad that medical assistance was called, but in spite of all that willing hands and loving hearts could do the passed quietly away to claim her reward. The deceased was a native of Scotland and immigrated to this country with her parents when very young and settled down near the place where she ended her days. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church and was also a regular attendant and an earnest worker until her infirmities made it impossible for her to get about. She was loved and respected by all who knew her, and will be universally missed. The bereaved friends and relatives have the heartfelt sympathy of all the people.

La grippe is claiming new victims every day.

The Keene skating rink has been closed for the season on account of the lack of skaters.

Mr. Thos. Wellock who came home sick from Toronto, is now fully recovered and intends returning to the city in a few days.

Two rinks from Campbellford came to Keene and played a friendly match with our clubs. The following is the score:—

To the Public.

Our aim has been and will continue to be to give the consumer the highest grade of goods consistent with prices charged. We do not manufacture so-called cheap cigars; fine goods are our specialty. Purchasing only the best of tobaccos, irrespective of price, we are in a position to manufacture as fine a class of goods as can be obtained anywhere; Havana not excepted. Insist upon having our well known brands, "Cable," "El Padre" "Mungo," and "Madre E Hijo," and thereby obtain full value for your money. The immense sums expended in introducing our goods, the exceptionally fine quality of tobacco used in their manufacture, and the labor of nearly half a century should convince the most skeptical that the quality of same will not be allowed to deteriorate. Preservation of the Hair.

There are times when all persons require to pay some particular attention to the hair. To rekindle the life or energy of the roots is a simple matter if taken in time. Dr. Dorenwend's Great German Hair Magic will do the werd, it works in accordance with nature, supplys fresh nourishment to the glands keeper, the hair luxuriant and natural in shade. Be sure to get, you cannot afford to miss it. Every druggist sells it. It is money well spent. See Dorenwends advertisement in another column.

In spite of substantial testimony which, under the terms, and practical results of the Original, in spite of the general commendation given by services which the professors, and the leaders of the best society, in spite of the fruit of his labors, (all of which demonstrate the unequaled superiority and popularity of his methods), Prof. Loisette's Art of Never Forgetting is suspended to-day in book form. Prospectus (sent post free) gives opinions of eminent people in all parts of the globe who have studied Loisette's System, or something on it, and clearly sketches his System by correspondence. Any one of these six hearings is used only while taking physical exercise, and by reporting each one loud enough to compel it to obey. THE OLD RELIABLE.
The Canada Life
Gives further Evidence of its Remarkable Progress as will be seen from the following Extract taken from the "Shareholder:"

When the directors announced at the last annual meeting of the shareholders of the above company, held on the 3rd September last, that the new business for the twelve months ending 30th April, 1889, had reached the high figure of $5,040,188, astonishment and satisfaction at the result were the prevailing features. At that meeting it was decided to change the company's financial year in order to make it fall within the period of the calender year, the result of which would be to reduce the ensuing one in reality to eight months, that is from the first of May to the 31st December, 1889. Owing to this change it was natural to expect that the business of the company for the year, being compressed into eight months, would curtail it considerably, and such was the result looked for. We are pleased to learn, however, that on the closing of the lists for the period referred to, the company had booked new business to the extent of four millions two hundred thousand dollars, or within $840,188 of the amount secured for the preceding twelve months. Taking the average business at $525,000 per month, this would give a total of $6,300,000 for twelve months. Such an exhibition of still increasing confidence in one of our Canadian institutions is most gratifying and, must prove highly encouraging. We congratulate the Canada Life Company upon this most convincing proof of its high standing with the community generally. We hope it will go on rolling up its new business at even a greater rate and that its next annual statement at the end of the current year will show the same steady increase that it has done of late years under its present excellent management. dw

A crusty bachelor who is soured by dyspepsia and the pangs of love despised, remarks in explanation of the mild winter that it is "female weather—so changeable, you know." A Wayward Girl.

Chief Grasett, of Toronto, writes Chief Rossel for information concerning a girl who gave her name as Blanche Clarke, of Peterborough, arrested in Toronto on a charge of larceny. She told the police there she was employed with a Mrs. Driscoll, George street, Peterborough, and knew a certain Frances St. Clair who worked for Mrs. Driscoll. The police can find no Mrs. Driscoll on George street. The young woman is believed to be the Moore girl who not long ago was sent to gaol for a month, in company with Frances St. Clare, for being an inmate of a house of ill-fame. She afterwards went to Toronto.

Mr. Pereira has several friends in Peterborough, and his name is a sufficient guarantee that everything will be conducted in a satisfactory manner without fear or favor. Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

Board of Arbitration.

The Hastings Star says:—The time of a union spring meeting of Farmers' Institutes and Agricultural Societies of East Peterborough and West Northumberland, being held in this village during the month of April is favorably received by the directors of the above named organizations. It is suggested in addition to the above meeting that a horse fair for the purchase and sale of horses, and a show of animals be held the same day and that buyers from the east and west be invited. The scheme is now in motion and it is to be hoped that our business men will take the matter in hand and carry it through successfully. What is to be done must be done at once as the above institutions are now arranging the dates for their respective meetings, which would necessarily require a complete change should the idea of the union meeting be adopted.

Night Robbers in Emsmere.

Our Emsmere correspondent writes that on Wednesday night of last week two men apparently well clothed in their vocation put up their horses in a stable on a boundary lot belonging to Mr. Thos. Tolford, giving the animals their fill of hay and oats which they found in the loft. After examining a barn on an adjoining lot, belonging to Mr. John Toomey, and finding nothing of any consequence, they visited Mr. Robert Donoghue's barn, on the Emily boundary, from which they took twelve bags of wheat which Mr. Donoghue had prepared for marketing. Again on Saturday night some parties, believed to be the same ones, visited the barn of Mrs. B. Sullivan, but some of the family hearing the wagon interrupted them, and the fellows made off without obtaining any booty.

The Late Wm. Kearns.

The funeral of the late Wm., Kearns took place from the family residence, 467 Rubidge street, on Wednesday. Deceased was born in Dublin, Ireland, 63 years ago, and when yet a young man came out to this country. He settled first at Cobourg, and after a couple of years removed to Peterborough, where he has lived continuously for 36 years. Mr. Kearns was a man of sterling character, sober, industrious and upright, a devout member of the Roman Catholic church, and during his long life in Peterborough won the high esteem and thorough respect of all with whom he came in contact. By his thrift he succeeded in accumulating a considerable amount of property in town. He was married to a daughter of the late Wm. Brennan, of Peterborough, by whom he had ten children. Of the eight still living, four are now residing in Rochester—Mrs. J. H. Krets, Mrs. Geo. Macdonald, Miss Eva Kearns and Joseph Kearns; Patrick Kearns is now in Algoma, and Wm. J. Kearns, Mrs. J. W. Fitzgerald and Miss Emma Kearns still reside in town. Mrs. Kearns, the mother, survives her late husband. The family of the deceased will be deeply sympathised with in the loss of one who was over a kind father and loving husband.

The License Dispute Settled.

Liquor Dealers Come to Terms With the Town—Copy of Agreement.

The License Committee met Wednesday afternoon and completed arrangements for a settlement with the liquor dealers of the town, regarding the license dispute. There were present Mr. A. Rutherford, chairman, and Messrs. Cahill, Langford, R. H. D. Hall and Winch. The agreement was handed in and signed by all the liquor dealers and hotelkeepers of the town except Mrs. R. N. Boddy, who is too ill to attend to any business matters. It is understood she will sign it as soon as she recovers. Following is a copy of

THE AGREEMENT.

We, the undersigned liquor dealers and tavern keepers of the town of Peterborough, agree with the Corporation of the Town of Peterborough that we will respectively pay for the license year from 1st May, 1890, to 1st May, 1890, the sum of $270 for tavern licenses, including all government fees, and sum of $250 for shop licenses, including all government fees. We hereby admit the validity of the license bylaw of 1885, and we do hereby require and direct the License Commissioners of West Peterborough, or whoever may hold the same, to pay to the Treasurer of the town, the above mentioned sums respectively.

The Absenting Members of St. Andrew's Church Finally Dealt With.

The Session of St. Andrew's church, convened for the purpose of investigating into the charges of absenting themselves from church worship, preferred against certain members of the church, concluded its labors Wednesday. There were present Rev. Mr. McWilliams, chairman; Rev. Messrs. Bell, Cameron and Duncan; Messrs. Jas. Carnegie, Geo. Edmison and Robt. Tully. The nine church members who were cited to appear before the Session were not all present. Those who appeared were Messrs. Dr. Bell, A. McFarlane, Wm. Fowler, Jas. Carey, T. Fitzgerald and A. Stewart. The remaining three are Messrs. John McClelland, J. J. Lundy and Wm. Armstrong.

The Session's finding is published below. Some of the defendants appear to regard it as virtually a judgment in their favor. By this finding the members complained of will still have a voice in church affairs at the annual congregational meeting to be held next Thursday night, 13th inst. An attempt was made in the Session to have the date of the annual meeting further postponed for a couple of weeks, but this was not allowed.

THE SESSION'S ULTIMATUM.

Following is a copy of the "finding" of the Session, with which each of the parties were served:—

Copy of finding arrived at by the session of St. Andrew's church on the 5th of February, 1890, with reference to your systematically absenting yourself from the ordinance of said church:—

"The session having fully heard those of the parties cited to appear before them declare:

That the reasons given by them for absenting themselves from public ordinances are insufficient, but in view of the contentment of some that they think they cannot profit from the present ministry in St. Andrew's church, and that they do not propose to return, while Rev. Mr. Bell remains in charge, the session offer to those taking such a position certificates of disjunction at once or within a week; with notification that if these are not accepted the session feel constrained, though with regret, to suspend them from church privileges or drop their names from the communion roll of this congregation.

To those who think they can still obtain profit from Mr. Bell's ministry, the session would affectionately commend their immediate return to their place in the church and the enjoyment of church privileges there; with the reminder that in case of their failure to do so within a reasonable time, any one week, they also are liable to be dropped from the communion roll."

JOHN CARMICHAEL,
Session Clerk.

Nearly all of the defendants at once gave notice of appeal. As soon as the decision of the session was rendered certain members of the investigating body at once began leaving the room, but they were re called in order to hear the appellants. The appeals will be heard before the next meeting of the Presbytery. Until the Presbytery decides the matter, the parties concerned are entitled to all the privileges of church membership.

A Security of Money.

MONTREAL, Feb. 4.—Bankers generally agree in stating that there is a great scarcity of money in the country, that payments are bad and that many renewals are being asked for. An official of the Bank of Montreal while admitting thes carcity of money and very bad payments said that the state of affairs to-day was a little better than had been expected.

He Had No Small Vices.

GOSHEN, N.Y., Feb. 4.—Teller George A. Denniston, jr., of the National Bank of Orange County, who committed suicide here yesterday, proves to be a defaulter in about $20,000. The bank officers never suspected him. He never played cards nor drank, was always on duty and never took a vacation. It is supposed the money was lost in speculation.

The Steamship Subsidy Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Congressman Felton of California before the House Committee on Merchant Marine advocated the Farquhar subsidy bill. He showed how American steamship lines on the Pacific Ocean are under great disadvantage in competing with the subsidized Canadian steamers. An American line gets $319 per annum from this Government for carrying mails from San Francisco to British Columbia while Canada pays for the transportation of her mails $17,440 per annum.

Up Goes Window Glass.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Feb. 5.—The American Window Glass Importers' Association, including representatives of every glass importing firm in the country, met here to-day and advanced the price of window glass 5 per cent. for the next five days, at the end of which time there will be an advance of 10 per cent. This advance is attributed to an increase of 20 to 40 per cent. in the price of glass in Europe and to the advance made by the American window glass manufacturers. The next meeting will be held here March 6, when it is very likely there will be another rise in the price.

An Edge Tool Combine.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 5.—The American Axe and Edge Tool Company was formed here to-day. It comprises all the axe and edge tool companies in the country, having purchased their plants. The capital stock is $4,000,000. The company will employ 10,000 men. The alleged object is not to advance prices, but to economise production.

News Nuggets.

—The Fire, Water and Light Committee meet at the Water Company's offices Friday evening for the purpose of arranging for the extension of mains and locations of hydrants.

—A drunken man caused some trouble on George street at noon to-day. He drove his team of horses recklessly and acted like a crazy man. He was too drunk to tell his own name when arrested and locked up by Chief Rossel.

Prof. Dorenwend to be Here Again.

The requests of various customers has induced Prof. Dorenwend, the Hair Goods Manufacturer, to arrange for a visit here. To dwell upon the merits and advantages of his Hair Goods, is hardly necessary; a few remarks will suffice. Prof. Dorenwend has visited here for some time—this proves that he must sell considerable, or he would stay away, and as a natural conclusion there must be quite a number of our people wearing them. Next, since so many wear them there must be some great virtue in them. Final conclusion—when many find them beneficial, surely all must find them advantageous more or less. Bear these facts in mind, and when Prof. Dorenwend comes, be sure to call on him. He carries with him an immense stock of Hair Goods, Ladies' Bangs, Frontpieces, Wigs, Switches, Gent's Wigs, Toupees, &c.,—all shades—all sizes—all prices. His stop here will be short, so don't miss him—at Picton's Hotel on Wednesday and Thursday, February 19 and 20. dw6

Ashburnham Brevities.

Ice-cutting commenced on the lake Tuesday. The depth is nearly 10 inches of first class quality; but as it has to be drawn on wagons, it is not likely any very large quantities will be taken out till there is sleighing.

By a private letter received from the Rev. W. C. Bradshaw, it is learned that dust is flying in Denver, and watering carts are out. He also says there are very few cases of la grippe.

The School Board held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening. All the members were present. There was not a very large amount of business on hand. The salary of the janitor was increased from $80 to $100, on account of the amount of extra work, owing to the opening of a new room. His duties were more clearly defined also. Mr. Doupe was authorized to have the shed on the boys' side planked, and the fences fixed. A resolution was also passed asking the Principal of the school to insist on the boys not going into the girls' side of the playground. An account of W. G. Bain, of $6, was also ordered to be paid. The Board meets again on the first Friday of March.

Mr. Tupper's Sawdust Bill

Provides Machinery for Punishing Mill-Owners who Pollute Streams.

Hon. Mr. Tupper introduced his bill yesterday to amend the act respecting the protection of navigable rivers. It repeals section seven, sub-section one, of chapter ninety-one, of the revised statutes of Canada and substitutes "no owner or tenant of any saw mill, or any workman therein, or other person, shall throw or cause to be thrown, any sawdust, edgings, slabs, bark, or rubbish of any description whatever, into any river, stream or other water, any part of which is navigable, or which flows into navigable water, and every person who violates the provisions of this section shall, for the first offence, be liable to a penalty of not less than fifty dollars, and for each subsequent offence to a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars, which penalty shall be recoverable either upon summary conviction or on information filed in the name of the Attorney-General of Canada in the Exchequer Court of Canada or in any other court of competent jurisdiction."

This clause more than doubles the penalty under the old law, which was twenty dollars for the first offence and fifty for subsequent ones. It also improves the machinery for recovering the penalty by making it more explicit.

Subsection three of the old law gave the governor-in-council power to declare by proclamation in the Canada Gazette that any section or river might be exempt from the operations of the law. The subsection is repealed provided, however, that any river, stream or water, or part thereof, which is at present exempted from the operation of the said section, in whole or in part, shall continue to be so exempted for one year from the date of the passing of this act, and no longer, and shall thereupon become subject to the provisions of the said section without revocation of any proclamation therefore made in respect to the same.

If the bill is carried the Chaudiere lumbermen will, after the expiration of a year, be prohibited from throwing mill refuse into the river.

A spring medicine is needed by everyone. Winter food, largely consisting of salt meats and salted fish, causes the liver to become disordered and the blood impure, hence the necessity of a cleansing medicine. The best is Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Fortitude Born of Love.

It was in the year 1880, in a third rate city called Neufchateau, in the department des Vosges, France, about noon, that we were passing, my father and myself, in front of a store where in addition to hardware a supply of ammunition was kept for the use of a regiment there. Suddenly we heard a terrible explosion, and being either thrown or having unconsciously ran, I know not which, we at any rate found ourselves about twenty yards from where the explosion occurred, and could see part of the roof in the street.

We had hardly reached the building when a man came out of it covered with powder, his hair and beard burning, and large pieces of flesh hanging from his face and bare arms. Never will I forget the horror of the sight; his flesh was charred and his clothes partly burned. As he reached the sidewalk he looked around and called a name I did not catch. Receiving no answer he went right back into that burning furnace, and in a few seconds came out bearing in his arms his child, a girl of 6 or 7. Those nearer to him heard him say:

"My darling, are you hurt? Oh, you are hurt!" While the poor little thing kept saying: "No, papa, I am not hurt, not at all; you are burning, think of yourself," and yet the blood was trickling from her forehead where the flying debris made a deep gash. Both recovered, though disfigured for life. At the time I thought there was not only one hero, but two.—Cor. Philadelphia Press.
